

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 524

Chapter 524c

In the midst of his anger, Cao Beining did not care about etiquette or elegance. He spewed out all kinds of foul language. He was like a male version of a shrew swearing in public. Everyone present who could understand Xia country's language pricked up their brows because the words were too unpleasant.

However, no one said anything about him. After all, being cheated on by his fiancée was really unbearable. All the men present could understand his feelings, not to mention that the video of his fiancée having sex with Charles was still playing. Countless people had seen how coquettish his fiancée was under other men.

Everyone looked at Cao Beining as he cursed. Their eyes were filled with pity and sympathy. There was a popular saying that love was a ray of light, so green that it made one panic. Feng Jianing's mind completely collapsed when she saw that Cao Beining was also at the scene and was cursing her. She didn't understand why Cao Beining was scolding her. What right did he have to scold her? Wasn't she doing this to win the championship and revive the perfume business of the Feng and Cao families? What did she do wrong? What did Cao Beining even do for the two families?

If the Cao family was a wealthy family in the Capital and Cao Beining could become a rich second-generation heir, would a woman like her need to do this? Who didn't want to maintain their moral integrity? Who was willing to serve that old man, Charles?

At the thought of Charles, Feng Jianing couldn't help but look at him viciously. Men were indeed not good. Back then, when he slept with her, he was so passionate. Now that the truth was out, he changed completely. He put the blame on her in front of Imperial Concubine Anna. He dared to do it but didn't dare to admit it. Was Charles considered a man?

Feng Jianing was so angry that her entire body trembled. She braced herself and said, "Your Highness, please don't listen to Charles's nonsense. It's not what he said at all. He saw that I was young and beautiful, so after I lost in the preliminaries, he found me in private and wanted to take me in as his disciple. I didn't agree. Then, he promised that he could let me return to the competition. As long as I serve him well, he can guarantee that I will win the overall championship of the Fragrance Competition."

These words were what she had thought of before. She had only thought of using it in the worst-case scenario, but she did not expect that it would really be used.

After hearing her explanation, Imperial Concubine Anna couldn't help but roll her eyes. "I'm really curious about how thick your face is. In the video, you and Charles were loving each other. You didn't look aggrieved at all. You actually dare to lie with your eyes open when there's solid evidence. It can be seen how disgusting your character is." With that, Imperial Concubine Anna stared intently at Feng Jianing's eyes. "I suggest you dig out these eyes and give them to those who really need them. It's fine if someone like you doesn't have this. Anyway, you're blind!"

Those who were familiar with Imperial Concubine Anna knew that she rarely said such unpleasant words. After all, as a member of the royal family, maintaining elegance was a basic quality. Only when she was truly angry would she say such words.

In the past, when she wasn't the Imperial Concubine, she had also been doing very well in the entertainment industry. She had seen all kinds of people. There were those who had a fiery temper and could fight whenever they felt like it. There were those who were beautiful, arrogant, talented, smart, and daring. She had encountered all kinds of women, but she, Feng Jianing, was actually able to survive in the entertainment industry. What was there to praise about her?

The two perfumes that Feng Jianing had concocted in the finals were average in smell and had no special appearance. At most, they were at entry-level. When the champion was announced just now, Imperial Concubine Anna was also shocked speechless.

After the matter was exposed, she still wanted to pin the blame on Charles to protect herself. However, Charles was dismissed on the spot. This was something she didn't expect. In the end, Charles personally exposed everything. Feng Jianing actually wanted to explain, as if she could easily control Imperial Concubine Anna with her intelligence. "Look at the LED screen!" At this moment, someone suddenly shouted. Instantly, everyone's eyes turned over. At the same time, the LED screen was playing a brand new video.

In the video, Feng Jianing was opening an international express delivery. Then, she threw the wrapped plastic and cardboard box into the trash can. As she walked, she looked at the thing in her hand. Just as the audience was curious about what was in her hand, the thing in Feng Jianing's hand in the video was enlarged dozens of times. It was the plastic round box that was found in Feng Qing's pocket.
