

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 526

Chapter 526 Lost Everything She Could Lose

Vice President Angus took a step forward and reached out his large hand to Feng Jianing. “Feng Jianing, I’m now officially informing you as the Vice President of the International Fragrance Alliance that your fragrance master qualification has been revoked. Hurry up and hand over your two certificates and cards.” Feng Jianing was stunned on the spot, but she quickly shook her head and said, “No, no. You can’t revoke my fragrance master qualifications. I’m not wrong. I’m innocent!”

As she spoke, she struggled with all her might to escape the control of the royal guards. However, how could she be a match for the royal guards? therefore, she was directly pressed to the ground.

Angus did not stand on ceremony and personally search her body. He quickly took out two certificates and a card. Then, he used his phone to scan the card. After a series of operations and authorization, the phone screen showed that the fragrance master’s license had been successfully revoked.

After doing all of this, he nodded at Imperial Concubine Anna and looked at Feng Jianing again. Under her gaze, he broke her green card into two.

Feng Jianing glared at Angus in disbelief. She didn’t expect him to be so ruthless that he actually revoked her fragrance master qualifications.

Imperial Concubine Anna said coldly, “Now, we’ll dismiss Charles from his position as the President of the International Fragrance Alliance. The specific documents will be officially released after the competition.”

Speaking until this point, she and Angus looked at each other and said, “The International Fragrance Alliance is the only official organization in the entire Fragrance world. After hundreds of years of operations, they have already set up branches in every country. An important position like the President can't be left empty forever, so we have to choose the suitable person as the President as soon as possible."

As she spoke, Imperial Concubine Anna kept glancing at Feng Qing. She said with a smile in her eyes, "Therefore, as the Imperial Concubine of Country F, I propose that our favorite Nine-Star Fragrance Master, YLL, be the President of the International Fragrance Alliance."

As soon as she finished speaking, in the audience area, Feng Yuanzhou, who had just been woken up by someone's pinch, fell to the ground with his eyes rolled back. His body twitched violently, and white foam was coming out of his mouth. Feng Jianing's body couldn't help but tremble. The blows had completely defeated her. In just a few hours, she had lost everything she could lose!

The title of the International Fragrance Competition's champion, her fragrance master qualifications, and her Five-Star Fragrance Master title, as well as her personal perfume brand that she was proud of, were all reduced to ashes in just an hour.

From now on, her notoriety would be broadcasted far and wide across all countries. The video of her having sex with Charles would also become her eternal humiliation. The idea of revitalizing the Feng and Cao families' perfume business, the future Madam of the Capital's Cao family, would all become a joke!

Compared to her tragic end, Feng Qing was about to take on the role of the President of the International Fragrance Alliance. And she had lost everything she could lose. Her dignity, love, career, and reputation.

She couldn't accept that Feng Qing would soar into the sky from now on. The fact that Feng Qing was a Nine-Star Fragrance Master had already made her almost crazy. Now, Imperial Concubine Anna wanted to promote her. The intention here was very deep. It could even affect the diplomacy of Country F and Xia country, and it would definitely cause a huge sensation in the country.

Once Feng Qing agreed, she would become the youngest President in the history of the International Fragrance Alliance and the first female President. In the future, she would become a legend that would be praised by the world.

After hearing Imperial Concubine Anna's words, Vice President Angus raised his hand first. "I, Angus, Vice President of the International Fragrance Alliance, agree with Your Highness's suggestion. I support Feng Qing to be the President of the International Fragrance Alliance. At the same time, I will cooperate with her fully in future work."

In the competition area, the contestants raised their arms and looked at Feng Qing with bright eyes. "We also support Feng Qing to be the President of the International Fragrance Alliance!"

In the audience area, apart from a few people, most of the audience raised their hands. "We also support Feng Qing. She's a Nine-Star Fragrance Master. Therefore, she's the most suitable and most convincing person to be the President of the Alliance."

Feng Qing, who was watching the show, didn't expect Imperial Concubine Anna to have such an idea. Hence, she walked elegantly to the podium. She first smiled at Imperial Concubine Anna and said, "Thank you, Your Highness. Thank you for your support and love for me, but I'm lazy by nature. I like freedom and quietness, and I'm not suitable for such an important position in the International Fragrance Alliance. Moreover, I'm not interested in being an official."
