

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 532

Chapter 532 Bali's Change

After hearing her prescription, Netherworld raised his chin and said disdainfully, "Feng Qing, remember this. If there's no effect after three days, I guarantee that you'll be dead!"

With that, the man turned around and walked out. Feng Qing looked at the man's back view in confusion. Could the man remember such a complicated prescription with a glance? He had the ability to read ten lines at a glance like her?

Capra Hotel.

When Xing Yue sent Feng Qing back to the hotel, he realized that the entrance of the hotel was surrounded by all sorts of reporters and media. There were even many local Internet celebrities who came to join in the fun. Helpless, Xing Yue could only get the driver to drive the car into the hotel's underground parking lot. Fortunately, there was no one here. After confirming that there were no reporters, Feng Qing pushed the door open and got out of the car. She bade Xing Yue and Netherworld farewell and entered the elevator.

Xing Yue sat in the front passenger seat, his gaze following Feng Qing the entire time. He only retracted his gaze after the elevator door closed.

In the elevator, Feng Qing pressed the button to go to her floor. Then, she took out her wireless earpiece and wore it. Just now, when the competition had just ended, her phone had been vibrating. It was Mr. Qing Er who had been looking for her.

After putting on the earpiece, Feng Qing directly called Mr. Qing Er. She was also curious about what was going on, but just as the call connected, Mr. Qing Er's voice sounded in the earpiece. "Little Qingqing, you've finally picked up the phone. Oh my god, something big happened during your competition. According to reliable news, all the factions and organizations in the industry now know that Madam Crimson Snow has changed to a new person, so these people are thinking of snatching the red coral ring from the newbie Madam Crimson Snow."

Mr. Qing Er had obtained the news from the Night God. When Feng Qing was competing just now, Night God had used hacker technology to hack into the Internet of the few major countries in the world. He found that thousands of factions and organizations around the world had started to gather towards Country F's Bali. Someone had even released the news on the hacker alliance forum that the factions of the various countries had come to Country F to eliminate the new Madam Crimson Snow and snatch the red coral ring.

It wouldn't matter if that was all, but what had to be paid attention to was that apart from those forces and organizations, there were also more than a hundred assassins on the world's assassin rankings. Other than the top twenty assassins, they had all accepted the mission to assassinate the new Madam Crimson Snow.

On the other end of the phone, Mr. Qing Er said in a worried and nervous tone, telling her the news he had just received. He felt that this trip to Country F was really a situation where there was a slim chance of survival. Now, the entire Bali was about to change. There was killing intent everywhere, making people feel like they would die at any moment.

"Qingyi, what should we do? There are only the four of us here, it's impossible for us to be the match of so many forces. If we really can't do it, why don't we ask the headquarters for help?" Mr. Qing Er suggested. Feng Qing shook her head. "There's no need to ask for help. I believe we can handle it with our abilities."

This situation was all within her expectations. Just as Madam Crimson Snow handed the Demon Blood Ring to her, she had already foreseen today's situation. After all, the temptation of the Demon Blood Group was too great. This organization had the most people in the world, and its connections were spread across the world. Who wouldn't want to have it?

The appearance of the new Madam Crimson Snow was bound to cause a chain reaction in the underworld. It was inevitable that there would be conflicts in the open and in the shadows. Otherwise, it would be too disrespectful to the new Madam Crimson Snow.

Feng Qing comforted him. "Many people in the organization are in a state of suspended work. Some are preparing to have children, and some are preparing to take the college entrance examination. If we let them come to reinforce us now, it will be adding trouble to them. Moreover, the four of us are enough. The Sword God is a killing machine, and I'm a doctor. As long as you have a breath, I can save you. And you have the most powerful disguise technique in the world. You can change into a different person with just casual makeup. As for the Night God, with him around, it's equivalent to having a clairvoyant and a clairaudient. Therefore, no matter how many people come from the opposite side, they won't be our match."

She was not exaggerating, but she was telling the truth. Although Bali only had the four of them, they were also the force of the four departments of A Dark Organization. If they could not even deal with these people, it would be too embarrassing.

Mr. Qing Er didn't say anything else after seeing how confident she was. "Then what should we do now?"

After thinking for a while, Feng Qing curled her lips. "Get the Night God to spread the news on the Internet. Tell him that the new Madam Crimson Snow lives in the Capra Hotel in Bali, Country F."
