

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 536

Chapter 536 The Little Girl in the Black Smoke

However, Xing Yue was very curious. Who was the woman that made Netherworld so concerned? Suddenly, he patted his head and recalled something. He ran into the tent. Netherworld had only become like this after looking at the surveillance camera.

“Hiss...” When Xing Yue saw the Capra Hotel in the video, he couldn’t help but gasp.

The next second, he took out his phone and called the First Squadron members who were on a mission in Bali. He remembered that the cute little sister, Feng Qing, lived in the Capra Hotel, and she was staying on the floor that was emitting black smoke.

The black SUV roared like a crazy beast as Netherworld sped towards Bali. The man only had one thought now, and that was to reach the Capra Hotel as quickly as possible. It was not within his considerations whether the mountain road was dangerous or whether the ten thousand feet cliff was high.

Capra Hotel

When Netherworld arrived, the scene was in complete chaos. The firefighters and police had pulled up three layers of warning tape outside, forbidding all unrelated personnel from entering

The black smoke from the hotel was still gurgling, and the fire inside was bigger than before. There were onlookers everywhere because the Capra Hotel was very high. When he just entered the city, Netherworld could see the hotel building emitting black smoke, as if it was going to dye the sky black.

When he got close, the outside of the cordon was filled with onlookers. The scene was chaotic and noisy, and the air was filled with the pungent smell of fire burning various items.

Just as Netherworld was observing, the fire had already reached the 23rd floor. He didn't know what it had burnt, but three more explosions suddenly occurred. Although the power of the explosion wasn't very strong, it shattered the glass on the few floors below. Glistening glass residue fell from the sky, like a computer effect.

While the explosion attracted everyone's attention, Netherworld crawled through the cordon from a relatively dark and remote corner. The police officer guarding the hotel's door felt his vision blur, as if something had rushed into the door. However, when he looked carefully, he didn't discover anything.

After entering the hotel, Netherworld quickly found the elevator. However, the elevator's power supply system seemed to have been damaged and could not be activated at all. Therefore, he could only run up from the safe passageway beside him.

Netherworld was running a hundred-meter sprint to the 25th floor. Normal people would run slower and slower, but he was running faster and faster. Even though his legs were already swollen and sore, he did not stop to rest for a while.

When he finally reached the 25th floor, a large amount of lactate piled up, making his abdominal and thigh muscles tremble uncontrollably. If it was an ordinary person, even if it was a sports student, they would directly collapse to the ground. However, the man still stood like a javelin, his entire body exuding a cold aura.

The temperature on the 25th floor was very high, and everywhere he looked, black smoke and flames were emitting. He casually rushed into a bathroom and found a towel to soak in the water before covering his mouth and nose. Then, he walked towards Feng Qing's room in the black smoke.

After walking for a short distance, he kicked a corpse. Before he could react, he felt that there was someone not far ahead. Therefore, the man retracted his breath and walked towards that person under the cover of the smoke.

“D*mn! Blood Loli, if I had known that you were here, I wouldn’t have accepted the mission to assassinate the new Madam Crimson Snow. This is called...” At the corner of the corridor, a man in a tight suit scolded.

Pfft! Before the man could finish speaking, there was a sound of air being torn apart in the corridor. The man who was talking just now fell back with his mouth open, and there was a thumb-sized bloody hole on his body.

Seeing the man die so inexplicably, the people of the other unknown factions in the corridor were stunned. In front of them, a cute little girl with a sinister smile walked out of the black smoke. The girl was still holding a doll, but the doll had a sinister and vicious expression. It did not look cute at all but was very scary. The little girl was petite and had a very thin body. Coupled with her clean Lolita clothes, she looked to be only 14 or 15 years old. However, the little girl’s appearance was very ordinary, but her skin looked very tight and had the immaturity of someone her age.
