

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 543

Chapter 543 Desperate Situation

Netherworld used his other hand to stop Blood Loli's falling arm. Blood Loli couldn't stab the dagger even after using all her strength. Netherworld exerted force on the ground and pushed with both legs, sending Blood Loli flying Plop! Blood Loli's entire body fell into the water. It turned out that in the deepest part of the 25th floor, there was a small swimming pool. The series of explosions just now had half the wall collapsed, so Blood Loli could fall into the pool inside.

Netherworld snorted coldly and jumped into the pool too when he saw Blood Loli enter the water, and prepared to take the opportunity to completely crush his opponent. He swam rapidly in the water like a fish, and his swimming posture was professional and elegant.

The next second, Netherworld grabbed Blood Loli's neck. Because it was a small and simple swimming pool, the deepest place was only 1.7 meters, but at this depth, it was enough to drown a person. Blood Loli was pressed into the water after Netherworld grabbed her neck.

Blood Loli's back hit the bottom of the pool, and a hard and cold feeling entered her brain. She slapped Netherworld's arm with one hand and flipped something out of her waist with the other. Pfft! Blood Loli took out a small plastic bottle. When the bottle cap was opened, the water around her started to turn red.

The good-looking red powder spread very quickly and enveloped Blood Loli's body. It was a life and death battle now. There was nothing to say even if she used poison as long as she could defeat the other party.

Since she had poisoned Netherworld before, she could poison this man the second time. She didn't have any other abilities, but she was very skilled in using poison. This was also her final life-saving trump card. Don't touch her, or else you'll definitely die from being poisoned! Netherworld was stunned when he saw the pool water being dyed red and rapidly spreading. Before he could react, the special shark skin gloves in his hands started to slowly dissolve, as if cotton had encountered fire.

"This is... Madam Crimson Snow's Crimson Snow? Blood Loli, Madam Crimson Snow, what's their relationship?" Netherworld's brain worked rapidly.

Before the blood red pool water covered Blood Loli's figure, he saw that there seemed to be a cut on her face. However, not only were there no cuts but there was also white skin. Could it be that she was also wearing a disguise mask?

Ignoring the corrosion of the blood-red pool, Netherworld grabbed Blood Loli's face and tore off her disguise mask. The next second, a fair and good-looking face appeared in the man's eyes. The special hair net that bound Blood Loli's long hair was also dissolved by the blood water, and her black and fluffy long hair was gently scattered in the water.

At this moment, Feng Qing's ears in the water trembled rapidly because this was the first time she had heard the heartbeat of Netherworld, but his heartbeat...

As Feng Qing was puzzled, she saw that the man's clothes were rapidly dissolving under the blood-red pool. His originally fair body was also corroded by the blood-red pool. However, what shocked her was that although the man's skin was dissolving, not a single drop of blood or muscle was revealed.

It was only at this moment that Feng Qing finally understood that Netherworld was the same as her. He had actually disguised himself completely.

The next second, Netherworld swam to her side and picked her up from the water with two large hands. Feng Qing gasped loudly and urgently as she obtained oxygen again, and the feeling of suffocation began to dissipate in her heart.

When she was being rubbed underwater by Netherworld just now, she knew that she might die this time, so in the end, she used the fake Crimson Snow she concocted. She didn't dare to say that it was better than Madam Crimson Snow's real Crimson Snow, but its corrosive nature was not much worse. As the swimming pool circulated the filter system, the area that was dyed red quickly became clear again. The man carried her to the shore and gently placed her on the ground. Then, he looked at her quietly through the golden mask.

Feng Qing opened her mouth to say something, but her blood and vital energy surged in her body. Then, black blood seeped out of the corners of her mouth. At this moment, her face was pale, and her entire body was dripping with water. Her long black hair was draped behind her back, and her beautiful hair at her temples was messy and stuck to her face, making her look pitiful.

Who could link her to the terrifying number one assassin, Blood Loli if they saw her like this? Who could believe that such a pitiful and beautiful girl had killed hundreds of people alone just now?
