

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 544

Chapter 544 Blood Loli Is My Wife!

His gaze moved down from the woman's face and finally stopped on her red coral ring. The man finally understood everything. It turned out that she was the number one assassin he had personally nurtured, Blood Loli. The reason why he wanted to kill Blood Loli just now was because he had seen the red coral ring on her hand, so he thought that Feng Qing had been killed by Blood Loli.

At that instant, his hatred surged. There was only one thought in his mind, and that was to personally chop his disciple he was most proud of into pieces and avenge Feng Qing!

Now that the disguise of Blood Loli had been removed, he finally understood everything. It turned out that his proudest disciple was actually his wife-Feng Qing! At the same time, he immediately understood why there was an explosion here. He knew that Feng Qing had planned all of this well and wanted to use this opportunity to eliminate all the enemies who had come to invade in one go and give the people in the world the strongest deterrence, making them not dare to have any designs on her again.

Crystal clear water droplets slowly fell from Feng Qing's hair. The woman's body trembled slightly. The wind on the 25th floor was indeed very cold on her drenched body. Feng Qing raised her cold hand and slowly reached for Netherworld's face. Netherworld stood quietly on the spot and surprisingly didn't push her hand away. She would definitely not mistake the man's special heartbeat at such a close distance. She took off his golden mask and a handsome and cold face appeared in front of her.

Feng Qing's eyes rippled, and the corners of her lips, which were bleeding, twitched slightly. Xie Jiuhan's black eyes met hers. The man took a step back. He turned around coldly and walked towards the other side. It was as if he wanted to leave Feng Qing alone here after looking at his indifferent back view.

However, the man had only taken a few steps when he heard the sound of water behind him. He froze and hurriedly turned around to see that Feng Qing, who was standing on the shore, had disappeared.

The man's pupils dilated violently. Did that woman fall into the water? Was she too injured and fell into a coma?

The next second, the man appeared by the pool and pulled Feng Qing out of the water again. Feng Qing laid in the man's arms, her pale face suffused with a special blush. The light blue pool water reflected the light on her beautiful face, adding a glow to her face.

Xie Jiuhan stared at Feng Qing's pretty face. His eyes were deep and mysterious, like two black holes circling in the universe. Nothing in the world could warm him. The man's gaze shifted to the woman's hand. Even though she had lost consciousness, she was still tightly holding the golden mask. The man's lips curled up, and there was a hint of mockery in his eyes. Large droplets of water dripped down his perfect face.

Xie Jiuhan picked Feng Qing up and walked out. Before they could reach the door, a group of people rushed at them from all directions. The man looked around. There were exactly nineteen people.

"Instructor, when we received the Netherworld Token, we rushed over immediately to kill the number one assassin, Blood Loli." The nineteen people knelt on one knee, their voices filled with reverence. However, when they looked at the woman in Netherworld's arms, they realized that the woman was wearing Lolita. This characteristic was identical to the legendary number one assassin, Blood Loli.

Everyone looked at each other. Since their instructor could kill Blood Loli alone, so why did they have to come?

Netherworld raised his head and said coldly, "Mission canceled. All of you can leave."

The nineteen assassins were confused. Someone asked, "Instructor, according to the rules of the organization, it seems that the mission can't be canceled after it's released. This..."

The aura on Netherworld's body suddenly exploded. It was terrifying, bloodthirsty, violent, and cruel. The pressure that was filled with a murderous aura made everyone's hearts tremble. They actually had the feeling that they would die at any moment when they faced Netherworld.

"I'll say it one last time. The mission to kill the number one assassin, Blood Loli, is canceled." Netherworld said unquestionably.

Another assassin braced himself and said, "Can you give us an explanation?"

Netherworld raised his head and looked at everyone with a cold and arrogant expression. "Blood Loli is my wife!"

The nineteen assassins: "..."

As soon as they received the Netherworld Token, they rushed over from all corners of the world without stopping. They traveled night and day, and were covered in dust. In the end, Netherworld called them over just to show a display of affection?

After chasing away the nineteen students, Xie Jiuhan left the Capra Hotel with Feng Qing in the chaos. Then, he instructed Little Wu to open a presidential suite in a hotel under the Xie Corporation in Country F.
