

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 547

Chapter 547 The Imperial Concubine's Consolation

The man did not carry her straight into his arms like before. He only leaned down and gently wrapped his arms around her sides. Hearing her say this, the man said, "You're covered in injuries. I'm afraid I'll hurt you."

Feng Qing came to a realization and finally understood the man's intentions. She raised her head and said in a delicate voice, "Little Jiu Jiu, hug me quickly. Only in your arms can I feel warm and comfortable."

When he saw the woman acting coquettishly again, Xie Jiuhan's nostrils blew up with a heatwave. However, he resisted the urge and did not hug Feng Qing tightly. He knew very well how heavy his hand was. When he was fighting with Feng Qing just now, he had used an ancient martial arts technique that had been passed down in Xia country for a thousand years. In terms of relatively easy to understand now, it was a fist technique that used the muscles and mechanics of the human body. This fist technique emphasized on punching rapidly and violently. The strength would be transmitted through layers of muscles to eventually converge to a point. Through hitting a point, it would cause a portion of the muscles to convulse, even making the muscles tear and bleed internally, forming hidden injuries that were not easy to heal.

Xie Jiuhan pressed his tongue against his upper teeth. "Be good. You don't cherish yourself, but I do. Lie down for a while. I'll get the doctor to come and check you."

Although Feng Qing was the famous miracle doctor Healer, since ancient times, doctors couldn't treat themselves. Moreover, with Feng Qing's current situation, even if she wanted to nurse her body, she couldn't.

In reality, Xie Jiuhan only knew that Feng Qing was seriously injured, but he didn't know how serious it was. However, from Feng Qing's pale face, green lips, and the sweat on her forehead, he judged that she wasn't in a good condition.

Xie Jiuhan gently placed Feng Qing on the bed and covered her with the blanket. He took his phone and dialed a number. He wanted to instruct his subordinates to buy a few sets of female-sized clothes at the mall. Then, he turned around to look at Feng Qing. He left the room when he saw that she had fallen asleep with her eyes closed.

After about twenty minutes, Xie Jiuhan opened the door. Behind him was a female doctor in a white coat. Hearing that someone had opened the door, Feng Qing, who was lying on the bed, barely opened her eyes. "Imperial... Imperial Concubine Anna?" Feng Qing said weakly.

When she saw the female doctor who followed Xie Jiuhan in, she was indeed shocked. This was because the person who came was none other than Imperial Concubine Anna, who had personally given her the championship trophy a few days ago. If not for the fact that her arm was too painful to lift, she would have pinched her arm hard to see if she was in a dream. She couldn't help but pricked up her ears to listen when she looked at the female doctor who was sitting in front of her. With the gentle heartbeat, she was 100% certain that the person with this heartbeat was Imperial Concubine Anna!

As soon as she sat down, Imperial Concubine Anna smiled at her. She then placed a white pillow under Feng Qing's right arm and placed a slender hand on Feng Qing's wrist.

Looking at Imperial Concubine Anna, who was taking her pulse, Feng Qing's eyes emitted a look of disbelief. This was the first time she had seen a blond foreigner with blue eyes treat someone using Xia country's traditional Chinese method.

Feng Qing's gaze shifted to Xie Jiuhan, who was beside her. Her large eyes were clearly saying, "Hubby, did you damage my brain? What did I see?"

As if seeing through her thoughts, Imperial Concubine Anna smiled elegantly. "I stayed in Xia country for three years as an exchange student when I was sixteen years old. By chance, I got to know a famous Traditional Chinese physician in Xia country, Hua Pianshan. From then on, I was very interested in the magical Chinese medicine. Therefore, I studied the basic Chinese medicine knowledge under Mr. Hua for three years and even followed him to treat many patients' illnesses."

Imperial Concubine Anna spoke Xia country's language very smoothly. Her pronunciation was clear and standard. If she was covered up, she would be recognized completely as a Xia countryman. Feng Qing finally understood why her Xia country's language was so good. It turned out that she had such an experience.

Feng Qing smiled and said in a hoarse voice, "I see. I didn't expect you to be Hua Pianshan's disciple. No wonder you know TCM."

Imperial Concubine Anna continued, "Last month, during the video call with my master, he even told me that he happened to acknowledge the Healer of A Dark Organization as his master. He said that according to seniority, if I saw the Healer, I would have to call him Grandmaster. When Master told me that, he was as happy as a child." With that said, Imperial Concubine Anna took a deep breath and smiled at Feng Qing. "Of course, as Master's only foreign disciple, I'm also honored to have a Grandmaster like the Healer!" Feng Qing : "..."
