

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 565

Chapter 565 You're Really Awesome

Feng Qing said in a soft voice, "Alright, don't worry. I'm already starting to recover. Didn't you hear that my voice has recovered a little today? Moreover, this is only a bruise. It'll be fine in a few days. It won't affect my looks at all."

Unlike Xie Jiuhan, she was completely open-minded and did not care much about this matter. After all, they did not know each other back then. She had also tried her best to kill her husband.

Xie Jiuhan asked, "Aren't you going to attend Imperial Concubine Anna's banquet?"

Feng Qing smiled and said, "That's fine too. I'll put more foundation on your neck if it hasn't gotten better. I guarantee that no one will be able to tell."

The man pulled a long face and did not say anything as he listened to her response. She had been tormented by the man for almost the entire afternoon. The fatigue and sleepiness after being satisfied attacked her, and it quickly made her eyelids sink.

Feng Qing was like a lazy cat as she snuggled into Xie Jiuhan's arms. She found the most comfortable position in the man's arms and the kitten slowly closed her eyes.

"Little Jiu Jiu, I'm warning you, you're not allowed to treat me... in other ways..." Before she could finish mumbling, Feng Qing started to let out a slightly silly voice.

Xie Jiuhan lowered his head and looked at the woman in his arms. He raised his hand and swepted back the few strands of hair that had fallen in front of the woman's eyes to the back of her head. There was still a hint of red on the woman's face, and a special feminine smell was rising with the faint fragrance of sweat. Xie Jiuhan's expression darkened as he thought about the way the woman looked just now.

Hmph, if you don't cure me, I'll conquer you with my fingers. Xie Jiuhan thought smugly. He loved this woman too much. That domineering and violent love always wanted to ruin this woman, but his intelligence made him not dare to really hurt her. This feeling made him feel very childish, like a child.

After covering Feng Qing with the blanket, Xie Jiuhan walked into the study room softly. He sat at the computer desk and used a special drawing software to draw something.

At 11 PM, the man took a deep breath and sent out the encrypted email. He then leaned back in his chair and smoked.

A minute later, the other party replied with an email. "D*mn! Almighty, you appeared?"

Xie Jiuhan typed on the keyboard and replied, "You have to send the thing I want to Bali in Country F within three days. My address is..."

After more than ten seconds, the other party replied, "I looked at the design just now. I have to say, Almighty, you're too awesome!"

Xie Jiuhan stubbed out his cigarette as he looked at the flattery in the other party's words. He looked like he didn't want to bother with the other party. He had just sent the thing he had drawn for six to seven hours to the director of Thousand Dragon House, the president of Xia country's Jewelry Alliance.

The president of the Jewelry Alliance sent another email when Xie Jiuhuan did not reply. "Dare I ask, dear Almighty, did you accumulate all these designs after you disappeared for the past three years? I reckon all the big collectors in the world will go crazy for them if you really make all these things!"

Xie Jiuhuan frowned slightly. He felt that the other party was talking too much. He replied impatiently, "I must be a handicapped person if I only draw these little designs in three years. The ones that I just sent you were only drawn within six to seven hours. Hurry up and make them for me according to the design. I'm in a hurry."

The president of the Jewelry Alliance : "..."

Based on his experience after looking at the designs just now, he guessed that the Almighty must have accumulated it over the past three years. He never expected that he would underestimate the Almighty that he only used a few hours to design all of this.

He had once relied on his own strength to revive the nearly dissolved Thousand Dragons House, saved the Xia country's Jewelry Alliance, and pushed it to the throne of the International Jewelry Peak Forum's.

The Almighty had countless fans in Xia country, and many designers were influenced by his works. His works were even included in the textbooks of the university specialization class. He was a respected genius designer even in the international jewelry industry.

However, the Almighty had a rule. The things he personally designed were never sold publicly. Even if collectors from all over the world spent a high price to bid for his work, they could not collect it privately according to the rules. They could only bring it back to the country and put it in the museum for exhibition.

In reality, if Xie Jiuhuan was willing, he could have made the works he designed himself. After all, there was nothing he didn't know. Moreover, he was the designer and knew what he wanted more. But if he were to personally make them, not only did he need to get the equipment and the raw materials, but he also could not accompany Feng Qing. After all, in his heart, nothing was more important than accompanying his wife.
