Chapter 566 - Change of Signature

Chapter 566 Change of Signature

Therefore, he decided to throw the design to Thousand Dragon House and let the jewelry craftsmen there help him complete the production. Although the time was relatively tight, Thousand Dragon House had more than a thousand top jewelry designers and craftsmen in the world. It was still possible for them to complete it.

The president of the Jewelry Alliance said, "Almighty, there's something I need to confirm. Did you change your signature this time?"

The president of the Jewelry Alliance found different things after a round of comparison. According to the habits of jewelry design, there would be signatures on some of the more high-end works in hidden places of the jewelry. In this way, it was very easy to know which designer designed the jewelry.

In the past, the signature had the letters "JH" written on it. But now, it has become "JHFQ". There were two additional letters. As it is difficult to change once it was completed, moreover, time was tight and the mission was important. Therefore, he had to confirm with Xie Jiuhan before he could start production.

Xie Jiuhan replied, "That's right. This time, it's the initials of two people."

The president of the Jewelry Alliance : "..."

When he returned to his senses and sent an email, Xie Jiuhuan did not reply. He must have exited the email app. He could only stare at the design sketch in a daze.

Country F's Presidential Manor.

Xing Yue was wearing a handsome military uniform as he walked in the courtyard with an imposing aura. Compared to when he left the Presidential Manor, his mood was much better now. There was also a sunny and righteous aura between his brows.

"Brother, where did you go?" Suddenly, Tessa walked over and asked curiously.

Xing Yue stopped and turned to look at Tessa with a smile. "Oh, it's nothing. I just went out for a walk."

"A walk? Are you sure?" Tessa looked skeptical. Her blue pupils exuded a scrutinizing glow as she looked into Xing Yue's eyes. It felt like she was saying, "Hurry up and confess. I could tell that you weren't telling the truth."

Xing Yue raised his eyebrows, not knowing what Tessa wanted to do again. However, Tessa smiled and said, "Let me help you say it. You brought people to surround the Holy Eaves Hotel just now, but your group stayed inside for a long time and returned empty-handed. You didn't even catch any suspicious people. Am I right?"

Xing Yue's expression darkened when he heard that she knew his actions and situation like the back of her hand. "Tessa, why are you paying so much attention to my movements?"

From his personal feelings, as an older brother, he really didn't want to see his sister, Tessa, pay too much attention to his work, especially when he brought people out to do business. This was because it had nothing to do with Tessa. If she had the time, why didn't she do something more meaningful?

However, Tessa didn't appreciate his concern at all. "Don't think I don't know anything. Everyone in Country F knows about the explosion at the Capra Hotel yesterday. I'm the President's daughter after all, so of course I know more than others. Especially Feng Qing, who you're concerned about. She seems to be living on the 25th floor of the explosion."

At this point, she placed her hands behind her back and walked around Xing Yue in a playful and smug manner. She then gloated. "I called the fire rescue team and asked them. They told me that after a day and night of rescue, more than 300 corpses were found in this explosion accident. At least 200 of them were burnt and died miserably!"

Xing Yue frowned. "What do you mean by saying so much?"

Tessa jumped forward and approached Xing Yue's chest when she saw that he didn't understand. "I don't mean anything. I just want to ask you, is Feng Qing in the funeral parlor? Or did you place her in the Holy Eaves Hotel?"

For the past two days, she had been paying attention to the Capra Hotel explosion. She used her identity as the President's daughter to collect a lot of information from everywhere and then assembled it confidently according to this information. Finally, it formed a set of words that she could accept.

At the end of the day, she had spent so much effort just to see what Xing Yue was doing. According to the information, she speculated that her brother had definitely gone to the Holy Eaves Hotel to meet Feng Qing in private. Surrounding the hotel and arresting the suspect were all excuses for him to hide his true purpose.

Xing Yue asked in confusion, "Tessa, if I remember correctly, you and Feng Qing have only met twice, right? But why do you seem to be filled with hostility towards her?"

When he said this, his voice was very low and his gaze when he looked at Tessa was a little cold. In the past, no matter what happened, as long as he pulled a long face, Tessa would immediately become obedient.
