

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 576

Chapter 576 Five Boxes

The one they went to was a large general supermarket. They could buy all sorts of goods from Xia country. As they planned to have a seafood feast today, according to Xia country's methods, most of them were salted, plattered, and stir-fried. Therefore, they needed chili, garlic, and other condiments. The two of them went to the fresh food area after buying the necessary condiments. The seafood here was very fresh because Country F was close to the sea.

This was the first time Feng Qing had shopped in the supermarket ever since her vision recovered. She usually had no chance to buy anything because the Xie Manor had never lacked food and clothing. This time, shopping in the supermarket was quite an eye-opener. Everything looked very fresh, and the excitement on her face was overflowing. However, this also caused her to take some of everything she saw. In the snacks area, Feng Qing took a bag of potato chips from the shelf and shook it in front of the man. "Hubby, can I eat this?"

Xie Jiuhan nodded. "Sure, but you can only buy one bag for this. It's not good for your body to eat too much fried food."

She threw the chips into the cart happily and they walked a little farther. Feng Qing took down another bag of puffs from the shelf. "Hubby, I want this too."

Xie Jiuhan looked at the composition of the puff and nodded. "You can eat this, but it has a higher sugar content. You can eat at most one per day."

After a while, Feng Qing looked at the row of jelly pudding. There are all kinds of colors and at least a hundred flavors, so her entire face was filled with conflict. She didn't know which one to buy.

Xie Jiuhan said, "There's no need to look. Buy a bag for each flavor."

With that, the man pushed another car over from nowhere. Feng Qing naturally wouldn't miss this opportunity after obtaining the man's approval, and hurriedly swept the shelves.

It had to be known that the man was usually very strict with her. Every day, she had to get the man's permission to eat anything. Those fried foods, or those with high sugar content and genetically modified food were all prohibited by the man. This was the first time that he had agreed to her eating everything like today.

When the two of them left the food area, they had already purchased two large carts of food. Fortunately, Xie Jiuhan had sent two bodyguards to do manual labor for them with a call. However, when they paid the bill, a spectacular scene appeared. The computer at the cashier counter sent out a small receipt that was so long that it made one's hair stand on end.

The cashier asked in Country F's language, "Do you need anything else?"

Xie Jiuhan replied in the same authentic Country F, "Get me three boxes of condoms. I want those ultra thin and big bumps."

Although Feng Qing couldn't understand Country F's language of condoms, she knew what it was when she looked at the packaging. She didn't expect that the man wouldn't forget to buy such things. Ever since she could see with her eyes, this man would buy condoms every few days and use them very quickly!

Feng Qing said with a red face, "Three boxes is too much, one box should be enough."

Xie Jiuhan ignored her and handed his bank card to the cashier. "Give me five boxes of condoms. They'll be useful sooner or later."

Feng Qing understood what he meant, but she was also confused. She was already considering whether she should cure the man's little brother. Five boxes of condoms. Was the man planning to kill her in bed?

After settling the bill, the two of them walked out of the supermarket. The two bodyguards carried the things and sent them back to the presidential suite in advance. Actually, on the surface, it was just the two of them walking. In fact, Feng Qing could hear very clearly that there were many abnormal heartbeats around them. Those heartbeats were only possessed by professional bodyguards or fighters. It also meant that there were many bodyguards under Xie Jiuhan protecting them secretly.

In the presidential suite, a subordinate asked, "Ninth Master, Young Madam, do you need a chef to come over and cook?"

Xie Jiuhan said coldly, "Do you think I'm useless that I can't even make a meal of seafood?"

The subordinate: "???"

The next second, the subordinate bowed and left the room. From his trembling legs, it could be seen that he was shocked. Just as he left the room, the other bodyguard at the door pushed his sunglasses up and said, "Brother, are you stupid? Since Ninth Master and Young Madam went shopping in the supermarket, he naturally had to personally make something to eat. If he didn't want to do it himself, why did he go out to buy it? And you still want to find a chef to go in and watch Ninth Master and Young Madam flaunt their love?"
