

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 579

Chapter 579 The God of the Jewelry World, JH

“Hmph, I reckon you won’t have any maternal glow in twenty years with your tender appearance.” Xie Jiuhan curled his lips and raised his hand to scratch the woman’s petite nose.

“By the way, did Imperial Concubine Anna invite you to the banquet?” Feng Qing asked.

“Don’t worry. If you can go, how can I, the King of Killers, who has always been in the Presidential Manor, not go? I’ve already told the Imperial Concubine that I will participate in it as Netherworld.” Xie Jiuhan said.

Hearing that he was going to attend with this identity, Feng Qing pulled back her two arms from the man’s waist and said with a smile, “Oh, then we’ll pretend not to know each other at the banquet.”

Xie Jiuhan: “???”

After Xie Jiuhan and Feng Qing lived shamelessly in the presidential suite for two days, it was finally time to attend Imperial Concubine Anna’s banquet. Xie Jiuhan invited a very professional styling team for Feng Qing to specially design the style for the banquet.

After bathing and burning the incense, Feng Qing sat in front of the dressing table and allowed a group of people to circle around her. One of the makeup artists looked at Feng Qing’s neck in the mirror and exclaimed, “Ah, why is your neck...”

Feng Qing lied through her teeth. “Oh, it’s fine. I pulled it two days ago.”

The makeup artist of Country F :“...”

Because of the cultural difference, she didn't understand what Feng Qing was talking about. However, she wouldn't be considered a professional if she couldn't even handle such a small matter.

The makeup artist asked, “Are you allergic to concealer?”

Just as Feng Qing was about to answer, Xie Jiuhan instructed, “Forget about the concealer cream. Just give her a neck accessory. The concealer cream contains a lot of chemicals, so it's best not to use it.”

Without waiting for the makeup artist to regain his senses, he saw the man bring over a very exquisite wooden box. When he opened the wooden box, a total of twenty four exquisite neck accessories appeared in front of everyone. The shine of the jewelry and colors stimulated everyone's eyes.

Feng Qing said to the makeup artist, “Just like my husband said, choose a suitable neck accessory for me.”

The makeup artist was a little stunned, but he still agreed. He had been a makeup artist his entire life, and this was the first time he had seen someone, be it a political figure or a superstar in the entertainment industry, take out so many necklaces at once.

“What? Thousand Dragon House?!” When the makeup artist casually picked up a neck accessory, he couldn't help but cry out in surprise. The world's top jewelry design institution—Thousand Dragon House. It was obvious that it came from Xia country from the name. However, it was the publicly recognized most professional and authoritative jewelry processing agency in the world. Many rich businessmen in the world wanted them to make a piece of jewelry, but they had to book it three to five years in advance. Moreover, they had to pay the reservation fee in advance.

The makeup artist looked at the neck accessories in the box. There were a total of twenty four neck accessories, and all of them were actually produced by Thousand Dragon House. Every product of Thousand Dragon House was definitely of top quality. It was already not bad to see one or two usually. He was just a relatively famous makeup artist and did not know Xie Jiuhan's identity at all. Hence, he could not help but wonder how long Feng Qing had waited and how much money she had spent to accumulate so many neck accessories produced by Thousand Dragon House.

It was already very shocking to see so many neck accessories produced by Thousand Dragon House, but what made the makeup artist even more shocked was that every one of these neck accessories was signed 'JH & FQ'. He didn't know FQ, but he had heard of JH's name before. Wasn't that the top jewelry designer in the world, God JH?

The makeup artist was shocked beyond words when he looked at the signature on the neck accessory. His hand that was holding the neck accessory started to tremble. Those in their industry had the most contact with the jewelry industry, so they were also very clear about the situation in the jewelry industry.

Back then, this God JH had participated in the jewelry design of Thousand Dragon House and relied on his own strength to forcefully revive the desolate Xia country's jewelry industry. It was also because of him that Thousand Dragon House became the number one jewelry industry organization in the world.

If the makeup artist didn't remember wrongly, a random bracelet designed by God JH was sold for more than a hundred million yuan a few years ago. Moreover, any jewelry designed by him would ultimately fall into the hands of the jewelry collectors of the various countries. Regardless of whether it was politicians or celebrities, they could not even ask for a piece of jewelry personally designed by God JH.

The makeup artist kept flipping through the neck accessories. These were all designed by JH and made by Thousand Dragon House. If he took this box of neck accessories outside, he could instantly become a nouveau riche.
