Chapter 600: Little Master Is Right About Everything

“It’s fine, it’s fine. Since a dining knife can knock down the crystal lamp, it means that there are hidden dangers in the crystal lamp to begin with. If not for Xie, oh, Mr. Netherworld who discovered it early, it might have smashed us one day. After all, the crystals here have hundreds of years of history.” Although Imperial Concubine Anna said that it was fine, her heart ached for this loss.

This palace was built more than nine hundred years ago. It was already a miracle that it could last until today after the war, earthquakes, tsunamis and other disasters. To put it bluntly, the entire palace was an extremely large antique.

Imperial Concubine Anna had lived here for almost twenty years. Not to mention the value of antiques and cultural relics, she had long had feelings for these things, so she usually cherished these things very much, afraid that she would accidentally destroy something. After all, every item in the palace was an antique.

However, just now, her little master’s man actually destroyed the crystal lamp that was hundreds of years old with a flying knife. However, she didn’t dare to blame him because whatever her little master did was right. If she had to blame someone, she could only blame the lamp for not hanging firmly.

Imperial Concubine Anna gave Long Yuning a look, hoping that she could understand her meaning and get lost as far as possible when she saw that Long Yuning was still standing there and not leaving. Imperial Concubine Anna was also very annoyed to see her now. If not for Long Yuning, her crystal lamp would not have been destroyed.

Not only did Long Yuning not understand her gaze, but she also said, “Your Highness, because of an accident at the scene, our performance was interrupted. For this, I represent the Sun Dance Troupe to apologize to you from the bottom of my heart. I saw a famous violinist from Xia country at the scene. Why don’t you invite her out to give everyone a treat? She can use music to ease everyone’s shock and calm everyone’s emotions.”

Hearing her words, Imperial Concubine Anna raised her eyebrows. “A violinist in Xia country? Where?”

Long Yuning raised her head. She endured the pain of her wounds and tried her best to look at Feng Qing with the most gentle and elegant expression she thought was the best. “Feng Qing, I’m very happy to meet you here. I wonder if you’re willing to play a song for everyone? Treat it as... you’re apologizing to everyone present for our Sun dance troupe.”

Initially, Feng Jianing and Tessa were the ones who poisoned Feng Qing and caused trouble at the banquet. Now, Long Yuning was looking for trouble. Feng Qing was simply in an extremely bad mood, but Long Yuning was in a worse mood than her. She was already very unhappy that she had to perform a dance for Feng Qing who was sitting at the main table. Just now, there was an accident and her entire body was injured. This completely made her feel extremely unbalanced, so she wanted to pull Feng Qing down to perform. How could a wild girl from a poor mountain ditch sit at the main table of the banquet?

In Long Yuning’s heart, she had never thought highly of Feng Qing for a second. She wanted Feng Qing to understand a principle. Don’t think that you can be smug just because you’ve obtained a little achievement. Compared to people like them, who were born into noble families and had received good education since they were young, Feng Qing would forever be an inferior person. She would only be pleasing the Imperial Concubine with her perfume and violin. When the Imperial Concubine no longer cherished her, her value would completely disappear. To put it bluntly, she would only be a plaything of the superior people.

Imperial Concubine Anna had the urge to give her a hundred slaps after she heard Long Yuning's words. Let her little master perform for these people personally? And to treat it as an apology for the Sun Dance Troupe? What a strange thought!

Why did she arrange for Feng Qing to sit at the main table when there are so many other contestants? Wasn't it to improve her image in the hearts of everyone and let Feng Qing enjoy the highest courtesy from Country F's royal family? How could she let Feng Qing lower her status by performing for everyone?

Most importantly, she had her own selfish motives. She hoped that she could make the little master happy through this banquet. Maybe she would make a separate perfume for her when she's happy. If she did get a custom made perfume, she would probably be so happy that she could take off.

Holding back the urge to curse, Imperial Concubine Anna said calmly, "Miss Long, go down and treat your wound. Other than your program, there are also performances like magic show, acrobatics, and piano performance."

As soon as she finished speaking, Long Yuning said, "Your Highness, you might not know, but Feng Qing is a student of the strings department of the Capital University's Music Academy. Last time, she performed at the Hong Meng Theater with our Sun dance troupe. She played the violin beautifully, completely overshadowing the performances of everyone present. This is a rare opportunity. If we don't let her perform, it will definitely be a huge loss for everyone present."
