

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 606

Chapter 606: Appearing on the Hot Search with Long Yuning

Long Yuning no longer had the face to continue staying after listening to the discussions of the crowd. Under the disgusted gazes of the crowd, she turned around and walked out. She wanted to escape this place, far away from Country F's palace, and pretend that nothing had happened today.

Meng Xiaodong recovered from her pity for Feng Qing's talent as she looked at Long Yuning's back. Two fire snakes formed from anger in her yellow eyes. As an artist who was popular domestically and abroad, she had been cultivating her character and not wanting to flare up at anyone and everything ever since she became famous. But Long Yuning made her unable to suppress the anger in her heart. Taking in a 'beloved disciple' like her was really unlucky!

Meng Xiaodong said coldly, "Long Yuning, you're leaving just like that? Don't you think you should explain it to me, your teacher?"

However, Long Yuning only paused for a moment before she left the palace at an even faster speed. She naturally heard Meng Xiaodong's words, but she didn't dare to turn back, nor did she want to. She only had one thought now, and that was to leave quickly and find a place with no one to hide.

Meng Xiaodong was so angry that her entire body trembled when she saw that she was disobedient. After bowing to Imperial Concubine Anna, she chased after her with anger. She wanted to ask Long Yuning herself why she was lying to her. The other dancers of the Sun dance troupe were also implicated by Long Yuning and left in frustration.

The service personnel of the palace cleaned up the broken crystal lamp and the mess on the ground very quickly. Feng Qing picked up her phone and looked at the news in Xia country. She realized that she seemed to have been on the trending topic again, and it was with Long Yuning. The netizens were shocked by the matter of Long Yuning plagiarizing Master YLL's dance. The entire comment section was in an uproar.

"Look, look. Feng Qing is my university schoolmate. She's a student from the strings department of Capital University. She can play the violin at a high standard. I didn't expect her to dance. She really makes our Capital University proud."

"Eh, that's not right. Isn't Master YLL the singer Siren? Isn't she an internet singer? Why is she going to Country F's palace to dance? But this dance, mm... is so beautiful!"

"Feng Qing has been on the hot topic list for a long time. She just won the International Fragrance Competition's champion, and now she's on the hot topic list because she danced for Imperial Concubine Anna. I feel that the hot topic list was specially prepared for her."

"Long Yuning is really destroying her own future. She can learn anything, but she had secretly learn someone else's original dance. So now she's in trouble, isn't it? I feel that her title of the Light of Dance in Xia country is not as good as Feng Qing, an amateur dancer."

"An internet celebrity singer, the champion of the International Fragrance Competition, a professional violinist, and a dance genius personally invited by Master Meng Xiaodong. I just want to ask, how does she usually allocate time? Or does she have a few more heads than us?"

Because of her identity as the Internet singer Siren, Feng Qing received countless fans who liked to listen to her songs. Later on, she performed at the Hong Meng Theater as a substitute violinist and received good reviews and attention from outsiders. Her fans also increased by a few times.

Of course, if there was good, there was bad. It was difficult to change the crowd's opinion. Even an outstanding person like Feng Qing could not make everyone like her and admire her, especially those who were envious of her to begin with, or those who were abnormal and could not bear to see others living better than them. Therefore, when Feng Qing received countless applause and flowers on the Internet, she was also attacked by countless anti-fans.

"No way, no way. Do you really think that Feng Qing is a genius? Why don't you think about it? How can a person not even twenty years old master and be proficient in so many professional skills? Even if we ordinary workers start learning from our mother's womb, at her age, we can at most achieve some results in a certain aspect."

"That's right. Moreover, after my objective and rational analysis, I think it's very strange that Long Yuning plagiarized Feng Qing's original dance. First of all, how did Feng Qing prove that this dance was her original dance? Could it be because she danced two more sections than Long Yuning? Also, did Feng Qing and Long Yuning know each other in the past? How did the two of them know each other? In what environment did Long Yuning secretly learn Feng Qing dance?"

"Pardon my bluntness! Personally, I don't think there's such a genius in this world. Those so-called geniuses are just the words of people with good backgrounds to outsiders. She's the overall champion of perfume, the violinist, and the singer, Siren. I seriously suspect that there's something behind this."
