

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 612

Chapter 612: Blue Stock Capital and Xia Qianxue

Xie Jiuhan snorted coldly and replied, “You talk too much. Would the arms dealer spend so much money on you to support your experiments in the deserted desert?”

After more than ten seconds, the other party replied, “Boss is indeed Boss. What you said makes sense. I was just saying it for fun. I definitely believe that you are a serious person.”

Before Xie Jiuhan could finish replying, the other party sent another message. “By the way, Boss, there’s something that you might need to do personally. Shang Feng plans to transport a jet fighter back from M6 Strait, but Xia country is strict. It’s impossible to transport the entire jet fighter back directly, so we can only split the jet fighter into eight pieces and ship it back in batches. You’re the only one on our side who’s good at fighting and knows how to dismantle and assemble the plane. Moreover, Shang Feng has already finished negotiating with the Xie Corporation and the Blue Stock Capital.”

Looking at this message, Xie Jiuhan couldn’t help but raise his eyebrows. “Blue Stocks Capital is involved too?”

The other party replied, “Of course. Blue Stocks Capital has a deep connection with Shang Feng. You can think about their specific relationship.”

Xie Jiuhan snorted coldly. From two years ago, he had already started paying attention to Blue Stock Capital. This company never fought against the Xie Corporation head-on. It even deliberately avoided competing with the Xie Corporation several times. As long as both companies were optimistic about a project, the Blue Stocks Capital would actively avoid it. Blue Stock Capital was a rising star in the business world, and its development speed was very shocking.

In the beginning, Xie Jiuhan did not take the other party seriously. After all, he had seen too many short-lived enterprises over the years. They were not a threat to the Xie Corporation at all.

However, two years later, he realized that he had underestimated the Blue Stocks Capital. He had even sent someone to specially investigate the chairman of the Blue Stocks Capital, but the other party was too mysterious. Not only could he not find out the other party's name, but he also did not know which country the other party was from.

Previously, Xie Jiuhan had seen a photo. That photo was taken secretly. The angle was not very good, and the clarity was not clear enough. It was not even focused at all. There was a person in a white suit in the photo. It was said that he was the legendary chairman of the Blue Stocks Capital.

Xie Jiuhan clearly remembered that the person in the photo had slicked-back hair. From the contrast of the surrounding scenery in the photo, he could tell that this person was not tall. He even had an arm around a woman.

According to the investigation, the chairman of the Blue Stocks Capital did not smoke or drink. He only liked beautiful women and was an out-and-out playboy. It was said that the daughter of the Xia family, Xia Qianxue, was close to him. It seemed that many of the top factions in Xia country had contacted Xia Qianxue to build a relationship with the chairman of the Blue Stocks Capital, but they were not successful.

Xie Jiuhan thought for a while before the other party sent another message. "I heard that the boss of Blue Stocks Capital will also go to M6 Strait in order to obtain this fighter jet. Boss, I think you might meet him this time. When the time comes, can you help me ask for research funds from him?"

Xie Jiuhan rolled his eyes and replied, "I'll transfer another three hundred million to you. Hurry up and go back to your laboratory."

The other party replied, "Goodbye."

Xie Jiuhan locked his phone and stood up to walk towards Feng Qing. Feng Qing was lying on the bed and hadn't slept. She was holding her phone and sending a message to Mr. Qing Er. As there was nothing else here, Mr. Qing Er and the rest had already left Country F three to four days ago. However, they had only rested in Xia country for a day before they received missions from the organization and went to do their own things.

When Mr. Qing Er found out that Feng Qing was returning to Xia country, he hurriedly passed on his conversation with the Night God to Feng Qing as she would definitely meet Xu Mingqian in school.

"Qingqing, ever since Night God found out your identity, I feel that there's something wrong with his current state." Mr. Qing Er sent a message.

Feng Qing raised her eyebrows. "What's wrong?"

“He seems more autistic than before,” Mr. Qing Er said.

Feng Qing : “...”

After thinking for a while, she typed and asked, “Did he say anything else to you after knowing my identity?”

“He did. He seemed to care if you knew who he was.” Mr. Qing Er recalled the situation that day and typed. “At that time, I didn’t know if you knew, but you definitely know now. However, at that time, I told the Night God that you knew he was Xu Mingqian.”

Less than five seconds later, Mr. Qing Er sent another message. “I feel that with Night God’s intelligence, he must have thought things through. There’s no need to be conflicted about this. After all, you already know each other. It’s considered even, right?”
