

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 616

Chapter 616: The Twisted Tessa

Xing Yue's expression darkened as he said in a cold voice, "Since she doesn't want to take medicine, then let her stay in the Presidential Manor obediently. Don't think about going out to do evil again."

The female nurse said worriedly, "Young Master Xing Yue, Miss Tessa listens to you the most. Why don't you persuade her to take the medicine?"

Xing Yue snorted coldly and turned to walk towards the other side. His cold voice echoed in the quiet corridor. "Tell her the time she takes her medicine will be the time when she sees me. Otherwise, I'll never see her again."

However, just as he pushed open his door, a bodyguard in a black suit rushed over. "Young Master Xing Yue, something big happened. Miss Tessa is mutilating herself with broken glass!"

A minute later, Xing Yue appeared at the door of Tessa's room. Before he could enter, he heard Tessa shouting hysterically inside, "You bunch of useless people, don't stop me. Let me die!"

Upon hearing this, the servants and bodyguards in the room urged her not to be rash. Tessa immediately turned her face aside when she saw Xing Yue push the door open and enter.

Xing Yue walked into the room and saw a mess. All sorts of items were scattered on the ground. The colorful pills were also crushed, and some antiques were even scrapped.

Xing Yue said with a black face, "Tessa, have you had enough?"

Hearing his words, Tessa sat down on the head of the bed and hugged her knees with an aggrieved expression. "Brother, why didn't you come see me?"

Xing Yue did not speak or answer. Tessa looked out of the window and said in a cold voice, "The three major forces of Country F are at the airport together and are suspected to be sending off an important person. Ha, I really want to know who the important person is."

Xing Yue still ignored her and ordered the servants and bodyguards to retreat. He took a few steps forward and said, "No matter who I send off, it has nothing to do with you. This is not something you should worry about. Your first priority now is to take your medicine."

Upon hearing the word medicine, Tessa's sharp nails couldn't help but pierce into the flesh on her leg. Blood instantly oozed out, and the stabbing pain made her expression turn even colder.

"I heard that Duke Raymond invited the Healer of A Dark Organization to treat Madam Mingxue and treat her headache that has plagued her for nearly twenty years. Although your illness is not easy to treat, I believe the Healer will definitely treat you. When next year comes, I will personally bid for the only foreign quota." Looking at Tessa's messy hair, Xing Yue pretended to be cheerful.

“Why didn’t you let Feng Qing come over to treat me? Didn’t you say that she knew Xia country’s traditional Chinese medicine and that acupuncture? It was said that she used acupuncture to save my life at the banquet. She’s so powerful, so why didn’t she come to treat me? If she can’t treat me, I’ll charge her with crime!” Tessa said with a murderous look.

Hearing what Tessa said, Xing Yue frowned and his expression darkened. “Alright, Tessa, stop fooling around!”

Tessa turned to look at Xing Yue, the smile on her face twisted a little. “Brother, you really care about Feng Qing. You’re actually so afraid that I’ll kill her.”

Xing Yue gritted his teeth and said, “Qingqing is already on the way back. She was the one who saved you with acupuncture at the banquet that day. This is an indisputable fact and everyone has seen it. If you don’t believe me, then you can ask the people who attended the banquet that day. I think that with her age, even if she knows some Chinese medicine, she should only know a little. Therefore, it’s useless even if you invite her.”

Speaking up to this point, he said earnestly, “Tessa, one has to know how to repay kindness. Besides, Qingqing saved your life. Why are you still so prejudiced against her? Don’t you understand after this incident? The real bad person isn’t Feng Qing, but Feng Jianing. She was the one who deliberately slandered Feng Qing. She was the one who deliberately induced you to have such a huge misunderstanding and prejudice against Feng Qing. She was also the one who drugged the wine at the banquet and made you relapse.”

Tessa looked at Xing Yue with neurotic eyes and said in a distorted voice, "I don't care. I only know that Feng Qing humiliated me at the banquet. I don't know what kind of bewitchment she gave you to make you listen to her so obediently. She's a little demon. She's the one who deserves to die the most!"

Xing Yue felt disgusted after seeing Tessa like this. The current Tessa made him feel disgusted, and a sense of alienation rose in him. He couldn't help but turn around, not wanting to look at this sister he had doted on for twenty years.
