

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 632

Chapter 632: Becoming an Intern at the Xie Corporation

Xie Jiuhan said, "It's all your school information."

Feng Qing raised her eyebrows. "Shouldn't this be in school? Why is it at home?"

Xie Jiuhan replied, "You obtained the first place in the entire cohort with the highest score in the midterm examination and became the number one violinist in the entire school. Even the chief of the strings department isn't as good as you at playing the violin, so there's no point in continuing. Therefore, I helped you apply for a transfer to another department. This way, you can make full use of your university time to learn more knowledge."

Feng Qing asked curiously, "Then what school did you enroll me in?"

The corners of Xie Jiuhan's mouth curled up. "It's the finance department of Capital University's School of Economics."

Hearing that it was the Finance Department, Feng Qing was even more curious. "Little Jiu Jiu, how did you know that I wanted to transfer to the Finance Department?"

Xie Jiuhan smiled evilly. "Of course it's because I'm the roundworm in your stomach that can go in and out of your body."

Xie Jiuhan deliberately emphasized the words 'in and out' when he said it. There was even a naughty smile on his face. Feng Qing immediately heard the hidden meaning in the man's words and her face instantly heated up.

After admiring the woman's shy appearance for a while, Xie Jiuhan said, "I'm going on a business trip very soon. I've already instructed Su Yu to bring you to the Xie Corporation's financial center to settle the employment procedures. When the time comes, you'll get actual training there. Su Yu is an expert in this aspect. You have to learn more from him."

Feng Qing became excited when she knew she could work in the Xie Corporation's financial center. "Little Jiu Jiu is the best. You're finally willing to let me work. Don't worry, I'll definitely not disappoint you. May I ask weakly, am I an intern?"

Xie Jiuhan nodded. "Of course. The Xie Corporation's hiring system is very strict. Even the wife of the president has to rely on her own abilities to obtain the job she deserves. When the time comes, you have to perform well."

Feng Qing nodded. This was exactly what she wanted. Only by starting from the bottom could she obtain a sense of accomplishment and satisfaction. Moreover, it was not popular to use connections in the Xie Corporation because people with connections would be looked down upon, even if she was the wife of the president. Even if others did not say it out loud, they would scold her behind her back.

“Then if I perform well, will there be any rewards?” Feng Qing asked expectantly.

“Of course. When the time comes, I’ll reward you with a bath with the President of the Xie Corporation.” Xie Jiuhan licked his lips.

Feng Qing instantly curled her lips and pinched the man’s ribs in dissatisfaction when he said this. “Hmph, I don’t want such a reward. It’s not a reward for me, it’s obviously a reward for you.”

Xie Jiuhan raised his eyebrows. “A reward for me? Aren’t you happy in the process of rewarding me?”

Feng Qing: “???”

The next second, she hid under the blanket like a snail that was enlightened. However, she quickly opened the blanket a little and said in a muffled voice, “Little Jiu Jiu, I’ve been clamoring to enter the Xie Corporation to help you in the past, but you never agreed. Why did you agree now? You even specially went through the back door. I didn’t even need to submit my resume for an interview.”

Xie Jiuhan laid on the bed and supported his head with one arm. He reached under the blanket with the other. “Because you’re my wife. If I want you to get in through the back door, then you can get in through the back door. Moreover, haven’t you always wanted to enter the Xie Corporation? Isn’t it good that I satisfy your wish?”

Feng Qing said worriedly, "You used your status as the president to get your wife into the company. This matter definitely can't be hidden. Sooner or later, the board of directors will find out. What will you do then?"

The corners of Xie Jiuhan's mouth curled up. "So what if they know? I'm only giving you a chance to intern. As for whether you're qualified for the job and whether your ability is really compatible with the Xie Corporation's requirements, that will all depend on you. If you have the ability, you can naturally advance according to the normal rules. If you don't meet the requirements, I'll also brush you down according to the rules."

At this point, the man pondered for a moment and said, "Of course, you have a shortcut."

Upon hearing this, Feng Qing's head instantly popped out of the blanket. Her face was red as she said, "What shortcut?"

Xie Jiuhan reached out and pinched her face. "For example, you can warm my bed a few more times or accompany me to shower a few more times."

Feng Qing rejected, "Dream on!"

Feng Qing sat up on the bed and wrapped herself in the blanket like a dumpling. “I will definitely work hard. Finance relies on intelligence, and this is what I’m good at. I will definitely rely on my true abilities to advance and finally sit in a position that’s comparable to yours.”
