

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 644

Chapter 644: Capital Socialite Lu Yingying

“At first, we didn’t know what was going on. We saw March lying motionless outside the cage, looking like he was going to die at any moment. Later on, I specially checked the surveillance video and found out what was going on.” The female nurse confirmed.

Originally, the nurses and doctors thought that March had eaten something by mistake after slipping out of the cage and had been poisoned to become like this. However, when they saw March bravely pounce on the little female dogs one after another, they knew what it had done.

The female nurse said, “According to our examination, March is in an exhausted state now, but we’ve already given it an infusion. I believe it will recover soon.”

Upon hearing this, Feng Qing raised her eyebrows. “Then why did you say that I had to be mentally prepared?”

The female nurse teased, “Of course you have to be prepared. Your March had sex with so many little female dogs at once. Do you think that there won’t be any aftereffects after this?”

Feng Qing : “...”

Upon hearing this, Feng Qing looked at March and smiled bitterly in her heart. "How dare you, March? You hooligan dog, unfilial dog. Nine little female dogs. You have really good stamina. Who did you learn from?"

Feng Qing didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "Don't worry, our family will be responsible. Just give me the details on the compensation. We definitely won't be a deadbeat."

She was secretly happy speaking up to this point. Fortunately, the Xie family was big and powerful. It was not a problem to raise a few more cats and dogs or compensate them. If she was from a poor family, she would definitely kill March.

Suddenly, someone pushed the door open and walked in. "Is the owner of that dead dog not here yet?"

Feng Qing turned around and saw a woman coming in. She was dressed fashionably and had a very strong figure. Her waist was at most 1.8 feet, but her appearance was very ordinary. Moreover, she had very thick makeup on. From afar, one could smell the pungent perfume on her body. She was holding a black poodle.

Seeing this woman, the female nurse hurriedly said respectfully, "Miss Lu, this is March's owner, Sir, oh no, it's Miss Feng Qing."

Glancing at Feng Qing, Lu Yingying frowned slightly and said, "Feng Qing? Where have I heard this name before?"

When she saw Feng Qing's face clearly, it was the same as the female nurse's performance just now. Her face, which was covered in thick makeup, was filled with shock. She was also a woman, and she was completely shocked by Feng Qing's appearance. However, her expression quickly turned cold. "So it's you. You're really famous now. Even those big celebrities aren't as famous as you, but your perverted dog ruined my Teddy. Tell me, how do you want to resolve this matter?"

Feng Qing was not surprised by her attitude. Looks came from the heart. It was easy to see some clues from the other party's appearance. Moreover, it was normal for her to be angry. After all, her pet had been bullied by someone else's pet outside. If it was her, she would not have a good attitude.

Feng Qing said, "Then give me a number."

Upon hearing this, Lu Yingying snorted coldly and said, "I know you don't lack money, but do you think I, a person who can afford to raise a racing poodle, will also lack money? There's no need to compensate. I only have one request. Let the doctor here do sterilization on that lecherous dog of yours here so that it won't go out and harm other people's pets in the future."

Feng Qing raised her eyebrows. "My March is about to be three years old. I've never thought of sterilizing it. Moreover, what happened today was purely an accident. There's really no need to sterilize it because of this."

When Lu Yingying saw that she didn't agree, she immediately said, "No, we have to sterilize your dog today. Who asked your dog to be so perverted? You have to give us, the families of the victims, justice!"

Feng Qing rejected, "How about this? If your puppy is really pregnant, you can sell it to me no matter how many babies it gives birth to and I'll bear all the nursing fees during childbirth. What do you think?"

Lu Yingying sneered and looked at Feng Qing in a strange manner. "Yo, you're not bad at scheming. You actually want to take advantage of our competition-level dog's bloodline. Aren't you dreaming a little too much? You still have the cheek to let your perverted dog have descendants with its perverted appearance and bloodline? If my dog is really pregnant, I'll dig a hole and bury all the little ones it gives birth to alive so that you won't be able to get any."

The female nurse hurriedly said, "Miss Lu, please don't be so agitated. We can understand your feelings, but it has already happened. We can discuss everything."
