

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 645

Chapter 645: What Bloodline Do You Have?

Feng Qing didn't know Lu Yingying, but the female nurse knew that Lu Yingying was very famous in the Capital's socialite circle. She had a good relationship with the director of their pet hospital. Women from wealthy families like them weren't ordinary people who could offend. Not even ordinary celebrities. After all, those who could be called wealthy were very capable.

Lu Yingying didn't listen to the female nurse at all. She said arrogantly, "What do you know! I got someone to buy this teddy from a foreign competition. It's the champion of that pet dog competition. It has all sorts of certificates. How can any dog compare to it?"

In her eyes, she did not think highly of March, whose face was swollen like a pig's head. Her family's pure and outstanding teddy dog was actually bullied. If not for the fact that Feng Qing was a big shot, she would not have asked for sterilization but euthanasia.

It was no longer something that the female nurse could solve now that things had developed to this point. Hence, she hid at the side and did not say a word.

Feng Qing was also angry when she saw that Lu Yingying was not done. "Your Teddy is indeed a pure-blood. Then what bloodline are you?"

Lu Yingying was stunned. She asked in a daze, "What's my bloodline?"

The corners of Feng Qing's mouth curled up. "Your bloodline is not pure. Otherwise, you wouldn't be deaf at such a young age."

When Lu Yingying was scolding the female nurse just now, Xie Qi had already told her about Lu Yingying's background. She was the daughter of the Lu family in the Capital and a famous figure in the Capital's socialite circle. The Lu family made a fortune from food, and it was only because they had hooked up with the Xie family that they became strong.

Feng Qing said coldly, "Your name is Lu Yingying, your grandfather's name is Lu An, and your father's name is Lu Yuzhen. The reason why your Lu family can be where you are today is all because of your grandfather, Lu An. Not long ago, the media even interviewed your grandfather. At that time, he even said that although he was rich, the blood in his bones would forever be the blood of farmers. Three generations of people above your father were all farmers. Why did it change when it came to you? Do you understand now why I said that your bloodline is impure?"

Speaking up to this point, she pointed at March, who was rolling his eyes, and said proudly, "Although March isn't a pure-blooded Labrador, he has the powerful genes of Xia country's pastoral dog in his bones. If you want to talk about a strong bloodline, Xia country's pastoral dog has been passed down for at least five thousand years, then your one to two million yuan poodle is nothing in front of Xia country's pastoral dog!"

Lu Yingying was angry. "Feng Qing, you don't understand dogs at all. Even if your dog has the blood of Xia country's pastoral dog, it's still a mongrel dog. It can't be compared to my pure-blooded poodle. Just you wait. I'll definitely upload today's incident on the Internet and let everyone see your true appearance."

Before she could finish her sentence, the pet cage behind Feng Qing let out a soft sound. March, who was rolling his eyes, turned into a shadow and pounced on Lu Yingying. A fat claw scratched her face.

The sudden change scared Lu Yingying so much that her face turned pale. Teddy, who was in her arms, also escaped from her arms in fright.

Lu Yingying couldn't dodge in time and fell to the ground. Lu Yingying was hit before she could even scream because March was too fast. Her pupils trembled as she looked at March who was grimacing at her. She reached out to touch her face and saw that her fingers were stained with a faint layer of blood.

"Ahhh!" Finally, Lu Yingying let out a high-pitched scream. March's head was swollen like a pig's head, but it did not affect its speed at all. Feng Qing knew that it had already held back. Otherwise, Lu Yingying would already be a corpse.

Lu Yingying was completely frightened. She was so flustered that she wanted to throw the things beside her at March when she saw March looking at her with evil intentions. However, before she could do anything, she saw the black teddy run to March's side and even rub against him intimately, as if it was acting coquettishly to its boyfriend.

Lu Yingying's face turned sinister when she saw that Teddy had actually changed sides at the last minute. Her eyes were filled with ruthlessness as she looked at the two dogs. Her scream alarmed the entire pet hospital. Everyone ran over to see what was going on, so they saw Lu Yingying fall to the ground with blood on her face.

The female nurse recovered from her shock and said, “Miss Lu, are you alright? This kind of scratch is fine. I’ll bring you to the bathroom to treat it and apply some medicine. It’ll be fine very quickly. As long as it doesn’t touch water, it won’t leave a scar. But for safety’s sake, you have to get a rabies vaccine.”

Lu Yingying, who was still filled with anger, was completely flustered when she heard the words rabies vaccine. She knew about rabies. Compared to hitting March, her life seemed to be more important.
