

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 648

Chapter 648: Who's Second of the Year?

"Charles's child?" Xing Yue asked.

"The people in the detention center said that they asked Feng Jianing. She said that the child is her fiancé from Xia country," the servant replied.

Xing Yue's frown deepened. According to the rules of Country F, if Feng Jianing insisted that the child she was pregnant with was from Xia country, she would be sent back to Xia country. This was to show that the law was lenient.

Capital University.

Countless eyes were on Feng Qing as she walked on the road. She had publicly stood on Han Jintian's side, which made her gain more attention. She challenged the public opinion on the Internet alone, and the criticism of her on the Internet was overwhelming.

Suddenly, a figure jumped up and shouted at the surrounding students, "Hey, do you people not want your eyes anymore? Do you believe that I'll dig your eyes out!"

Feng Qing curled her lips. She felt that Xie Shihao, her nephew, was still useful. At least he knew how to stand up for her at the critical moment. She would get Xie Jiuhan to increase his pocket money later.

After the students were scared away, a figure walked up. Gu Qingye still had a cool expression on his face. "I heard from Xiao Hao that you're transferring schools?"

Feng Qing smiled. "That's right."

The corners of Gu Qingye's mouth curled up. "That's good too. The first and second place in the entire school for the midterm examination has already been transferred to another school."

Feng Qing was slightly stunned. "I know the first. Who's the second in the cohort?"

Gu Qingye said, "You actually don't know? The second is your deskmate, Xu Mingqian. He got the highest score in the entire grade when you first entered the school. I didn't expect that he would not surpass you in the midterm examination."

Feng Qing's eyes swirled with light when she heard that Xu Mingqian had gotten second place in the entire school. She said in a clear voice, "So I stole Brother Mingqian's limelight. If he takes the examination again in the future, I'll let him get first place."

Gu Qingye's brows trembled. He never expected Feng Qing to say this. Could this be the arrogant way of top students? What was more impressive than controlling their scores? What was a real top student? They could get as many marks as they wanted and get whichever rank they wanted.

"Then do you know which school Brother Mingqian transferred to?" Feng Qing asked.

"Him? I heard he's in the computer science department." Gu Qingye thought.

"Yes, he did choose a good major. Computer science is very popular now, and its future development is very good." Feng Qing nodded.

"You keep calling him Brother Mingqian. Didn't he tell you about him transferring schools?" Gu Qingye asked curiously.

"Uh... We haven't seen each other recently, so I'm not sure," Feng Qing said in surprise.

After the lesson ended, Feng Qing went straight to the finance department of the business school to listen. Just as she sat down, the two girls in the row behind her started whispering. “Eh, why did Feng Qing come to our finance department to listen?”

Soon, countless eyes landed on Feng Qing. “Yingying, look who that is. The Internet celebrity, Siren, has actually transferred to our class.”

Lu Yingying, who was listening to music, was stunned. She took off her earpiece and looked at Feng Qing, who was sitting in the corner. There was a bandage on her face. It was scratched by March at the pet shop yesterday.

Lu Yingying’s expression was cold, and her eyes shone with a terrifying cold light as she looked at Feng Qing’s serious expression. The two of them had just formed a grudge yesterday, and today, they were in the same classroom for lessons. This was really a small world!

As the bell rang, a male teacher walked into the classroom. He was holding a textbook in one hand and a glass of water in the other. There were wolfberries in his water. His name was Sun Bin. He was an honorary professor and the deputy director of the finance department at Capital University. At the same time, he was also the chief consultant of the Xie Corporation’s financial center.

Sun Bin stood on the podium and looked around at the students. Finally, his gaze landed on Feng Qing. Last night, he had received a notice from the school that a top student from the music school had transferred to the business school and had even chosen the finance department. He had treated it as a joke. An art student wanted to study finance? She was simply overestimating herself. No matter how good her results were in the midterm examination, it did not mean anything.

Sun Bin looked at Feng Qing and said, "Student Feng Qing, welcome to the Finance Department. However, I suggest that you sit in the first row. This way, if there's anything you don't understand, you can consult me directly, in case you can't keep up with the students' progress."

At this moment, Feng Qing was looking at her phone on her lap. The 'Strongest Assistant in the Universe' from the Blue Stocks Capital had sent her a message. She looked at the message and replied, "Thank you for your concern, Professor Sun. My hearing and vision are very good, so I don't have to change seats for the time being. If there's a need, I'll apply to the professor."
