

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 653

Chapter 653: Give Birth

After a long time, Xie Jiuhan came back to his senses. His hands trembled as he pressed on the phone screen. He typed a few times but got the wrong words. Finally, he typed the words. "It's fate. Give birth to it."

Xie Jiuhan looked at the words in the dialog box and was stunned for a long time. The word 'pregnancy' had a strong stimulation to his brain. After barely calming down, he remembered that he and Feng Qing had never taken any safety measures. The boxes of condoms had become decorations.

Under normal circumstances, Feng Qing should have taken medicine if they didn't use a condom. However, Xie Jiuhan didn't let Feng Qing take the medicine considering that taking medicine might hurt her body. In the end, he ignored the consequences...

After a few minutes, Feng Qing sent a message. "Wow, my Little Jiu Jiu has finally appeared. I thought you were missing. Don't worry, the children will definitely be born, but it'll still take two weeks to confirm the pregnancy. At that time, I'll tell Little Jiu Jiu immediately and make you happy."

Another message followed. "Sigh, a certain bastard who only cares about his own pleasure doesn't seem to have the awareness of being a father."

The man, who was leaning against the railing leisurely, instantly stood up straight after he saw this message. He looked like a soldier who had seen a high-ranking officer. He hurriedly pressed his phone to reply, but the words he had typed for a long time were all deleted because he didn't know what to say.

Xie Jiuhan laughed self-deprecatingly. The words 'happy to be a father' appeared in his mind. He felt that he was really funny. What kind of storm had he not seen before? Why did he become completely messed up when this happened?

Suddenly, the person with the binoculars beside him said, "Hey, hey, did you guys notice? There have been planes monitoring us for the past two days."

Xie Jiuhan put away his phone and turned to look at the sky. He could see clearly without the binoculars. At this moment, in the sky not far away, a reconnaissance plane was flying. Everyone on the deck became nervous when they saw the plane was here again. Many people were carrying tracking missiles as a defense.

The person with the binoculars said, "This plane isn't flying low. It's just outside the range of the rocket launcher. It looks like they're very experienced."

Xie Jiuhan said coldly, "It's fine. It's not more than eight thousand meters tall. I can hit it with the modified rocket launcher."

His confidence made the guards on the deck look skeptical. "Can your scope lock onto a reconnaissance plane?"

Xie Jiuhan said cleanly, "No."

The guard asked, "Then why did you say that you could hit the plane?"

Xie Jiuhan said bluntly, "I think I can do it."

The guards : "..."

Ignoring everyone, Xie Jiuhan instructed a few people to cast a net into the sea. After everything was prepared, he carried a modified rocket launcher and aimed it at the reconnaissance plane in the sky.

Bang! The tracking missile flew out and flew into the sky with an ear-piercing sonic boom.

The guards saw that the tracking missile tore through the sky and dragged out a beautiful arc. Then, it hit the tail of the reconnaissance plane fiercely. The tracking missile exploded as soon as it touched the plane. The surveillance plane also exploded. The flames of the explosion dyed half the sky red. The plane was blown into countless pieces, and all sorts of plane wreckage fell from the sky with black smoke.

Xie Jiuhan threw the cigarette butt into the sea and two streams of white smoke spewed out of his nostrils. His black eyes did not fluctuate much as he looked at the shattered reconnaissance plane. It was as if he had only done something insignificant just now. The guards on the deck looked at him as if they were looking at a monster. Was he still f*cking human?

Xia country's Capital, Xie Manor.

Feng Qing was sent home by Xie Qi after school. She took a quick shower and walked out in a thin nightdress. She did not lie on the bed directly, but went into the study room and turned on the computer.

Today, there was finally news of Xie Jiuhan. This also made her feel relieved. She was in a good mood and was humming her original song as she sat in front of the computer.

The Strongest Assistant In The Universe sent a message. "Master Yin, the Xia Academy's Mechanical God has appeared in M6 Strait. He's in charge of the disassembly and transportation of the fighter jet bought by the combat department."

The corners of Feng Qing's mouth curled up. "The Mechanical God? He finally appeared!"

The Strongest Assistant In The Universe asked, "Master Yin, when are we making a move?"

The fluorescent light on the computer screen dyed Feng Qing's beautiful and cute face with a glow. The night made her look even more beautiful and moving.
