

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 659

Chapter 659: Drink What You Had Just Vomited

As he spoke, Ji Yunchen took out a small bag of powder wrapped in brown paper from the medical box. The powder was milky yellow and looked like it was some kind of pill that was ground into powder. Then, he opened the bag and poured it into a glass to mix with water.

Xie Yuhuan frowned and said, "What medicine is this?"

Ji Yunchen replied, "Oh, it's a medicine specially for your heart. It's definitely effective."

Xie Yuhuan picked up the glass doubtfully and looked at it carefully when she heard his words. Then, she sniffed it. However, she did not smell any medicine. Instead, there was a faint flower fragrance, as if Ji Yunchen had made her a glass of Blossom Nectar.

Xie Yuhuan asked curiously, "Is this Chinese medicine?"

Ji Yunchen said, "That's right. This is a secret formula I learned from ancient medical books. Drink a glass now and another glass at this time tomorrow. Your illness will improve."

With that, he took out a bag of powder and placed it on the head of the bed. "Actually, mental illness is caused by being in a bad mood. You won't have to eat this kind of thing as long as you can maintain a good mood and mentality."

Xie Yuhuan's eyes darted around a few times upon hearing him say this. She brought the glass of water close and prepared to drink the medicine. She would treat it as a glass of honey water. If she was sick, then the medicine would treat her. If she wasn't sick, then she would take it as a preventive measure. Anyway, Ji Yunchen didn't dare to poison her. What was there to be afraid of? As she thought, she raised her head and drank all the medicine in the glass. However, just as the medicine reached her throat, she felt something being drunk by her.

Xie Yuhuan was shocked and hurriedly spat out the thing in her mouth. In the end, she saw a worm the size of a fingernail. She looked carefully again. The worm was actually not dead. Its vitality was extremely tenacious. The red and black outer wings obviously belong to a little cockroach.

Xie Yuhuan : "..."

She was stunned as she looked at the cockroach in her hand. She had lived a clean and luxurious life as the daughter of the Xie family and the survivor of the Long family. Not to mention cockroaches, it was not easy to even see an ant usually, but she had eaten this cockroach just now...

After seeing her take the cockroach out of her mouth, Ji Yunchen shook his head and took out a disposable glove from his pocket to put it on. Then, he took it away from Xie Yuhuan with a look of disdain and wrapped the cockroach in paper before throwing it into the trash can. Ji Yunchen threw away the glove and said, "Aiya, Little Aunt Xie, I'm really sorry. Perhaps this medicine has been placed for too long, so the cockroach crawled in. But it's fine. This medicine was actually cockroaches grounded into powder."

Xie Yuhuan's eyes trembled. She raised her head and looked at Ji Yunchen. "What did you say? The medicine you gave me was made of cockroaches?"

Ji Yunchen nodded. "Yes."

When Xie Yuhuan saw Ji Yunchen's innocent expression, she pointed at him and said with a trembling voice, "How dare you let me eat such a thing? Are you deliberately harming me?"

Ji Yunchen hurriedly said with a look of grievance, "Little Aunt Xie, I'm treating you. How can you say that I harmed you? So what if it's made of cockroaches? That's a famous dish with a high protein content in foreign countries!"

Without waiting for him to finish, Xie Yuhuan imagined the medicine in her stomach was made of cockroach and finally couldn't help but vomit. "Ugh..."

This time, she no longer cared about pretending to be sick. She hurriedly got off the bed and ran towards the bathroom. She could swear that she had never been so disgusted in her life.

Xie Yuhuan runs to hug the toilet bowl and vomit. Ji Yunchen turned to look at Feng Qing. Feng Qing gave him a look. Ji Yunchen frowned and gave her a look that said, "Are you sure?" Feng Qing gave him a look that said, "Follow the plan." They had not finished their plan just now, so why was he starting to retreat?

Ji Yunchen had no choice but to continue no matter how unwilling he was. He suddenly missed Xie Jiuhan. This man was not at home and he had become Feng Qing's toy.

In for a penny, in for a pound. Since it had already started, Ji Yunchen went all out today. He stood up and walked towards the bathroom. He filled a small basin with water and looked at Xie Yuhuan, who was still hugging the toilet bowl and vomiting. "Little Aunt Xie, you can't do this. Good medicine is bitter, but it benefits you. You can't spit it all out just because the medicine was made of cockroaches. That won't have any treatment effect at all. If it doesn't have any treatment effect, then when will your illness be treated?"

With that, he placed the washed basin in front of Xie Yuhuan. "If you vomit again later, use this basin to catch it. Don't underestimate the medicine made of cockroaches. I spent a lot of time making it. It's a pity to vomit it out like this. Drink what you had just vomited later."
