

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 685

Chapter 685: I'm Yin Qing

Just think about it, a person who had been outstanding since he was young, a person with ideals and ambitions, a person who was originally healthy, had suddenly become handicapped. The huge difference was not something an ordinary person could bear at all. Most importantly, he was still so young.

Feng Qing looked at the gloomy expression on Han Jinlu's face and said formally, "Jinlu, don't be discouraged. I will definitely cure your leg."

Han Jinlu took a deep breath and said in a low voice, "Master Yin, don't worry too much. I'm fine. At least I can continue to serve you and fight for the Blue Stocks Capital."

Compared to calling her by Feng Qing's real name, he still preferred to call this woman 'Master Yin'. This name was not only Feng Qing's code name, but also represented the highest right of the Blue Stocks Capital.

Han Jinlu couldn't help but recall the first time the two of them met as he looked at the cute and moving woman. At that time, Feng Qing was still a "little blind girl". Although her eyes looked very empty, it gave people a warm and enjoyable feeling when she smiled. Feng Qing even took the initiative to reach out and shake his hand. "Hello, I'm Yin Qing. If you're willing, call me Master Yin in the future. I'll bring you to the pinnacle of Xia country's business world!"

This sentence sounded so laughable and overconfident at that time, but the truth had proven that Feng Qing was very powerful. Not only did she fulfill her promise, but she also made Blue Stocks Capital into the top three in the world. It was even comparable to the Xie Corporation.

In the past three years, Han Jinlu had seen too much and had personally participated in the rise of the Blue Stocks Capital. The one who surprised him the most was Feng Qing. This woman was like a thick book. She would surprise others every time he flipped to the next page. For example, she knew Chinese medicine and could read his pulse to prescribe medicine. For example, she could make a disguise mask and wear it on her face.

For example, Feng Qing's IQ was extremely high. Every time she encountered a problem, she could solve the problem by thinking of ways that others couldn't think of. In his eyes, Feng Qing was a magical girl. Her achievements were already high enough in the eyes of ordinary people, but Feng Qing would never know fatigue and continue to work hard. He had once asked Feng Qing in private what she wanted after working so hard, but Feng Qing said, "I just want to catch up to someone."

Han Jinlu was very curious about who the person who made Feng Qing chase with all her might was. Even if Feng Qing used all her strength, she was unwilling to stop no matter how tiring it was. Today, he finally knew who Feng Qing was chasing. It was the God of the entire Xia country's business world, Xie Jiuhan. Even if he was unwilling to admit it, Han Jinlu had to say that Xie Jiuhan was indeed an outstanding and powerful person. He was also worthy of anyone chasing after him.

Feng Qing looked at Han Jinlu and comforted him. "Don't worry. As long as I'm here, your leg will be cured sooner or later. You have to believe in my ability."

Han Jinlu nodded. "Yes, I believe you."

The next morning, Han Jintian posted a message on Weibo before Feng Qing woke up. He officially announced to the public that he had decided to use the Internet celebrity singer, Siren, to sing the theme song for the new movie. At the same time, he also announced that the music video for the theme song would be recorded by Siren.

The news caused a huge commotion on the Internet, and for a time, it became the topic of discussion for everyone. Yesterday, the entire Internet criticized and scolded Han Jintian and the singer, Siren. However, the netizens realized that they had all been deceived by Mo Yi after Feng Qing helped Han Jintian turn the tables at the news conference yesterday. There was no such thing as a big director sleeping with a male actor. Only the male actor had schemed to frame the big director, with the goal of making a name for himself. The truth had proven that Mo Yi had succeeded, but the truth could not be hidden. Everything he had done had ultimately been exposed to the world, and not only would he face jail time, but he would also be banned from the entertainment industry forever.

Han Jintian had cleared his name. Not only did the netizens run to his Weibo to apologize to him, but they also discussed who would sing the movie theme song. Many people on the Internet were on the Siren's side. This was because she had helped Han Jintian, so they hoped that Han Jintian would give the opportunity to Siren. Everyone was naturally happy to see such a perfect plot. Of course, many people did not want the Siren to sing. After all, she was only an Internet singer and had little experience, so there were some netizens who did not think highly of Feng Qing. Han Jintian's assistant's phone was about to explode. They were all the singers who had previously announced that they would no longer cooperate with Han Jintian.
