

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 694

Chapter 694: Breaking the Rules

Xie Jiuhan was very satisfied with the middle-aged man's performance. He picked up Feng Qing's torn poster and prepared to leave. The middle-aged man looked at him timidly. He didn't expect this man to be so terrifying. He actually participated in the underground boxing competition and even defeated Carol to become the new boxing champion. This had completely overturned his understanding.

"Huge Whale Fist King, on account of the 300,000, don't blame me for not reminding you. If I were you, I'd better leave this place overnight. Otherwise, you might be in trouble." Although the middle-aged man was afraid of Xie Jiuhan, he still braced himself and said.

"Trouble? What do you mean?" Xie Jiuhan raised his eyebrows.

According to the style of this city in the past, as long as he became the new boxing champion, he would be respected by the locals. Even the mayor would give him special treatment. Why would it be troublesome when he was the boxing champion? Could it be that this place ostracizes outsiders?

The middle-aged man said when he saw that he didn't understand, "You left too quickly just now, so you don't know the ruthless words that Mayor Bran said. He said that you, an outsider who came out of nowhere, didn't abide by the rules of the underground boxing competition. Although you easily defeated Carol, he will still find trouble with you."

Xie Jiuhan frowned even more upon hearing this. He didn't understand what the middle-aged man meant at all, nor did he know how he had offended the mayor here.

“What do you mean by rules?” Xie Jiuhan found the point.

“Hmph, I knew you wouldn’t understand. Although we welcome boxers from all over the world to participate in the competition, there’s a rule that everyone tacitly agrees to. That is, you have to first apply to be a boxer under the mayor before you have the right to be the boxing champion. That way, even if you defeat Carol, it will still belong to the win and lose of the mayor’s subordinates. But the way you did it just now was like slapping the mayor in the face. The mayor was shamed, so as the boxing champion, you naturally won’t have a good life. Do you understand now?” The middle-aged man explained kindly. Although he didn’t like Xie Jiuhan’s cold and domineering personality, Xie Jiuhan’s strength had still won his respect.

“So you mean that Mayor Bran is going to deal with me?” Xie Jiuhan raised his chin and said coldly.

“You didn’t hear wrongly, so quickly take the remaining 700,000 and go to sea. The farther away from here, the better. Don’t ever come again. Otherwise, even if you have so much money, you won’t have the life to spend it.” The middle-aged man said.

After knowing that Mayor Bran wanted to attack him, not only was Xie Jiuhan not afraid, but a terrifying smile appeared on his face. The middle-aged man felt a chill run down his spine.

The corners of Xie Jiuhan’s mouth curled up. “Before I came, I heard that the mayor, Bran, is a very famous collector. Rumor has it that he was a pirate when he was young. When he got rich later on, he whitewashed his crimes and went ashore. He then spent a lot of money to become the city lord. After that, he often went out to rob pirates in the name of the government. Therefore, his mansion seems to have a lot of good things. Crystal crown, natural crystal glass, the largest purple diamond in the world, and so on. He has a lot of treasures.”

The middle-aged man suddenly felt his heart skip a beat after he heard Xie Jiuhan say this as if he knew everything. He felt a dangerous aura from Xie Jiuhan. “Don’t tell me you still dare to have designs on Mayor Bran?”

Xie Jiuhan’s pitch-black eyes emitted a thick evil smile. “It’s not easy for me to go on a long trip. I was worried that I wouldn’t know what to bring back for my wife. I didn’t expect that someone would take the initiative to send himself to me.”

The middle-aged man : “...”

At the dock, on the freighter.

When Xie Jiuhan stepped onto the splint with the golden belt on his shoulder, the captain of the guards came over and said, “Just now, the mayor here sent someone to say that we have to provide the navigation pass. Otherwise, our ship and goods will be confiscated according to the local laws. When we docked, we had already submitted the navigation pass to the customs. We didn’t skip the general procedures either. But they’re bringing this up. It’s obvious that they’re here for us. I sent someone to customs just now to ask. Their customs actually said that we have to leave the original navigation pass behind before we can leave. Then, we won't be able to stop at other ports. Only you went to the city to take a look today. Did you hear any other news?"

The others on the deck looked at Xie Jiuhan in unison upon hearing the captain of the guards' words. They were all waiting for him to speak. After fighting side by side for this period of time, Xie Jiuhan had already been treated by these people as the God of War, an omnipotent God of War. Therefore, before making any decisions, they would discuss with him and most of them would follow his opinion.
