

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 714

Chapter 714: Don't Worry, Leave It to Me.

In warehouse number three.

After dealing with the mecha, Xie Jiuhan smelled a special smell. He was familiar with this smell. When he remembered where he had smelled this smell before, it was already too late to hold his breath.

"It's Mr. Qingyi's poison!" Xie Jiuhan cursed in his heart. Although he knew what it was, it was too late because he had already inhaled some poison gas. Unless he took the antidote now, it was useless.

Xie Jiuhan gave up on covering his mouth and nose. He wasn't wearing a gas mask and the warehouse door was made of iron. There was no time to escape. Before he fainted, Xie Jiuhan thought to himself, "Could it be that Qingyi's 'Enchanted World' was bought by the boss of Blue Stocks Capital?"

A few minutes later, Feng Qing pushed Han Jinlu slowly towards warehouse number three. Han Jinlu said, "Do you need me to arrange people for you?"

Feng Qing shook her head. "He's just one person. I can still handle him."

Upon hearing this, Han Jinlu's gaze landed on his lap. His expression darkened slightly, and Feng Qing saw all his expressions. She understood Han Jinlu's thoughts. If it was before his legs were injured, he wouldn't need Feng Qing to do such a small thing.

Feng Qing said, "I know that even if you throw Huge Whale into the sea to feed the sharks, it won't be able to cure your leg. However, there are some grudges that have to be avenged. Otherwise, it will be difficult to dispel the hatred in your heart!"

Han Jinlu smiled faintly and looked up at Feng Qing. The sunlight on the dock landed on him, dyeing him and the wheelchair golden. It also made his smile when he looked at Feng Qing even warmer.

As a descendant of the Han family, he was also a proud son of heaven. He had also given guidance to the country and had once lived a proud life. He was a person who would always live in confidence. However, ever since his legs were crippled, his entire life had become dull. From a pillar that everyone envied, he had become a useless person who could not even take care of himself. The huge psychological difference had once made Han Jinlu want to commit suicide. It was this cute girl in front of him who had been encouraging him, so that he would have been able to see a future and life filled with vitality and hope.

Han Jinlu said, "Master Yin, now's not the time to consider my legs. You should be thinking about taking revenge on Huge Whale. He cheated you very badly last time!"

Feng Qing nodded. "Don't worry, leave it to me."

Thinking about how she had been tricked by Huge Whale last time and the scene of blood flowing like a river, Feng Qing's lips curled up into a good-looking smile, but her smile was filled with coldness.

A few minutes later, Feng Qing walked into warehouse number three. When the door behind her closed again, her petite figure was swallowed by the darkness. The warehouse was filled with the smell of poisonous smoke, but it had no effect on Feng Qing. In the darkness, Feng Qing could still see very clearly. This was thanks to the artificial retina. After looking around, she walked towards the figure lying on the ground.

At this moment, Feng Qing was dressed as a man. She was wearing a custom-made suit and pointed leather shoes. When her heavy men's leather shoes stepped on the ground, they made a sound like horse hooves. Feng Qing's gaze was fixed on the person on the ground. Today, she wanted to take revenge for what happened last time. However, when she was two meters away from the man, Feng Qing suddenly stopped. Then, her ears twitched. She heard the man's heartbeat on the ground...

Bang!

It was as if someone had struck the Heaven Shaking Drum in her head, causing her to be petrified. In this world, she could forget anyone's heartbeat, but there was one person whose heartbeat she could not forget even if she wanted to. This person was her dear husband, Xie Jiuhan!

Looking at the man lying on the ground, Feng Qing was shocked. "Where's the Xia Academy of Science's Mechanical God? He was clearly brought here from the freighter by her subordinates, so why did it become Xie Jiuhan?"

After a while, Feng Qing raised her legs and walked towards the man on the ground. Then, she squatted down and pulled the man's collar. At this moment, the man suddenly moved. He grabbed her arms with both hands and used a reverse grip. The man was so skilled that Feng Qing was immediately caught off guard.

The next second, Feng Qing felt the world spin. Then, her back touched the ground intimately. The loud muffled sound was very loud in the warehouse. Before she could even make a sound of pain, the man's large hand had already grabbed her throat tightly. As long as he bent it gently, she would immediately suffocate.

Xie Jiuhan said coldly, "Blue Stocks Capital, you're really prepared. You actually thought of using Mr. Qingyi's Enchanted World to deal with me. Should I say that you're too smart, or that you're too smart for your own good?"
