

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 715

Chapter 715: History Is Always Shockingly Similar

The warehouse was too dark. It was so dark that Xie Jiuhan did not recognize Feng Qing at such a close distance. Coupled with the fact that Feng Qing was wearing a disguise mask, Xie Jiuhan could not tell. He only thought that Feng Qing was someone sent by the Blue Stocks Capital.

Feng Qing felt that she was about to be angered to death as she listened to the man's familiar voice and his high and mighty tone. She was being strangled by the man now and couldn't even say a word. Therefore, she could only hug the man's arm with both hands and raise her legs to wrap them around the man's waist.

The reason why Xie Jiuhan was immune to 'Enchanted World' wasn't because his physique was good, but because Xie Jiuhan had taken the antidote before. However, the effects would be worse after a long time. Therefore, Xie Jiuhan fainted at first. Then, the antidote worked and woke him up.

At the thought of this, Feng Qing felt extremely regretful. If she had known that Huge Whale was her husband, she wouldn't have used the knockout powder she had developed on him. Feng Qing smiled bitterly in her heart as she looked at the man strangling her neck. History was always shockingly similar. Not long ago, in Bali in Country F, the battle between the number one assassin, Blood Loli, and the King of Killers, Netherworld, was exactly the same.

Feng Qing sighed in her heart and braced herself to deal with the man. She sat on the man's waist and pushed his forehead with one hand. Although Xie Jiuhan was immune to the Enchanted World, he had taken the antidote for more than half a year after all. The effect was already greatly reduced. In an environment with such a high concentration of knockout powder, it was already very good that he could remain awake. His body and muscles were definitely not as strong as usual.

As expected, as she moved, the man's grip on her finally loosened a little. This allowed her to not only breathe again, but also speak. Xie Jiuhan frowned. He wanted to exert strength, but he realized that he couldn't use all his strength. It felt like he had just woken up.

Feng Qing exerted strength again and saw that her neck was completely freed from the man's large hands. Then, she decisively hugged the man's face and said, "Huge Whale, you're really too surprising. You always bring me a different surprise ~"

Xie Jiuhan was stunned. Before he could react, he saw Feng Qing swing her hand across his face. A ball of pink powder bloomed in the air. The man subconsciously covered his mouth and nose. However, when the powder landed on the man's skin, it only took a few seconds for it to enter his pores and disappear. Seeing this scene, Xie Jiuhan's eyes trembled. Other than Mr. Qingyi, he couldn't think of anyone else who could do this.

The next second, the powder that had fused into his body started to work. Xie Jiuhan felt as if he had ALS. All his muscles started to lose control, and the feeling of gradually losing contact with his limbs rose in his brain.

Feng Qing supported the man who was about to fall and dragged him to the wall of the warehouse in the darkness. Xie Jiuhan couldn't resist at all and could only let the other party deal with him. Shortly after, he realized that his arms were handcuffed and hung up with iron chains. Then, his feet were also held by something. The other party's movements were very skilled. Clearly, this wasn't the first time he had done this.

After doing this, Feng Qing took out her phone and turned on the flashlight function. Then, she shone it on the man's face. A bright light suddenly appeared in the darkness. The man felt that his eyes were almost blinded.

The light illuminated the man's abnormally handsome face, which was like a 3D model of a computer. He had pitch-black eyes, fan-like eyelashes, and defined facial features. There was a cold and arrogant look on his face. After the series of battles just now, Xie Jiuhuan's clothes were stained with a lot of blood, sweat, and dust. However, all of this added an indescribable beauty and temperament to the man. Feng Qing swallowed her saliva. Her husband was too good-looking!

With the light, Xie Jiuhuan naturally saw Feng Qing's appearance clearly. At this moment, in his eyes, it was a man with slicked-back hair, a small beard, and a suit that didn't fit the bill. He was identical to the legendary Blue Stocks Capital's boss.

The corners of Xie Jiuhuan's mouth curled up. "Hmph, I really didn't expect that the boss of Blue Stocks Capital would personally deal with me. Moreover, it looks like your skills are not bad. Should I feel honored?"

However, to Xie Jiuhuan's surprise, he realized that the boss of the Blue Stocks Capital was looking at him with anger. This anger was completely different from normal anger. There seemed to be a hint of blame in it. Xie Jiuhuan felt like he had done something wrong when he was being stared at by the other party like this. There was even a feeling of love in the depths of his heart.
