

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 716

Chapter 716: Have a Taste of Ninth Master

Xie Jiuhan's heart was filled with question marks. Then, he felt disgusted. Why would he have such a feeling for a playboy like Blue Stocks Capital? Could it be that he was affected by the poison powder?

Feng Qing stood up with her phone and turned off the flashlight function. Their figures were swallowed by the darkness again. Feng Qing's voice sounded from the darkness. "Your code name for this operation is Huge Whale, and you're the Mechanical God of the Xia Academy of Science. You're considered a big shot there. You think that your status is high enough, but have you ever thought that you would one day fall into my hands?"

Xie Jiuhan's hands and feet were shackled. He leaned against the wall and looked like he had been tortured. However, his gaze when he looked at Feng Qing was filled with disdain. That's right, even though this man was in jail, he still looked down on everything and did not take anyone seriously.

Hearing that Feng Qing knew his identity, Xie Jiuhan curled his lips and said, "We're all doing things for the higher-ups and it was a misunderstanding in the past. Don't turn it into friendly fire and hit your own people."

The Blue Stocks and the Xie Corporation had accepted all the missions from the Xia Academy of Science. This was the highest level of secret mission, and it was enough to see that the Blue Stocks Capital had a very special relationship with the higher-ups. Otherwise, they would definitely not have come into contact with such a mission.

Moreover, the higher-ups would definitely not be at ease. He was a hot commodity of the Xia Academy, so he had calculated that the boss of the Blue Stocks Capital would not dare to really do anything to him. Otherwise, why would he have to kill him so painstakingly when he could just blow up the entire warehouse?

Feng Qing smiled and said, “Yo, now that I think about it, we’re family. Why didn’t you think of it when you affirmed me back then?”

The corners of Xie Jiuhan’s mouth twitched. His voice was cold and arrogant. “If I remember correctly, this should be the first time we’ve met, right? I still don’t know your surname?”

Feng Qing said without hesitation, “My surname is Yin.”

Xie Jiuhan asked, “And your name?”

Feng Qing did not answer this question. Instead, she said, “Huge Whale, I find your face very familiar. I’ve seen your abnormally handsome face in financial magazines more than once.”

Xie Jiuhan snorted. “Since Boss Yin knows my identity so well, you should know the consequences of offending me.”

Feng Qing did not say anything as she heard the man's arrogant voice. Instead, she looked at the man with a smile. Be it the Xia Academy of Science, the War Department, or even the National Academy, these higher-ups in the country had cooperated with many large enterprises domestically and abroad. Moreover, the number of enterprises they had cooperated with was countless. However, in the eyes of these higher-ups, there was only one Mechanical God in the world, and it was irreplaceable!

A meter or two away from Xie Jiuhan, Feng Qing stroked her mustache and squatted down. She took out a cigarette from her pocket and lit it up. Then, she blew it gently at Xie Jiuhan's face. Xie Jiuhan did not dodge, nor could he dodge. He let the cigarette hit his face. He was very weak now and could not resist at all, so there was no point in struggling.

Of course, he was not worried at all about what the boss of the Blue Stocks Capital would do. At most, he would beat him up and leave him in the warehouse for a while. Moreover, it could not be for too long. After all, the people from the Xia Academy of Science were already on their way. When the time came, the Blue Stocks Capital would still let him go obediently.

Feng Qing smoked her cigarette and said, "You're the overlord of the Capital and the domineering president of the Xie Corporation. It wasn't easy for you to fall into my hands. If I don't teach you a lesson, wouldn't it be a waste of an opportunity? I know that you're the treasure of the Xia Academy of Science, so I definitely won't let you experience everything I suffered back then. If I really hurt you, the entire Xia Academy of Science will probably break off all ties with me."

The corners of Xie Jiuhan's mouth curled up as he looked at the black shadow who was smoking with interest. "So, what are you planning to do?"

The next second, Feng Qing went up to the man and reached out a finger to gently hold his chin. “I’ve long heard that the Ninth Master is abnormally handsome. It’s rare that I have a chance to be alone with you today, so I naturally have to have a good taste of Ninth Master ~”

Xie Jiuhan: “???”

Although he couldn’t see the man’s face clearly, his eyes were emitting a cold aura. “Yin, I’m not interested in you. Let me warn you, if you dare to touch me, I’ll grind your bones and scatter your ashes!”

If it was anyone else, facing Xie Jiuhan in his current state, they would have long fallen to the ground in fear and kowtowed to beg for mercy. However, Feng Qing was not afraid of him at all. The red cigarette butt in the darkness was moving down the man’s neck.
