

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 743

Chapter 743: Evaluation Standard

Unlike ordinary university professors, Sun Bin was very proud and cold, especially in the financial field. The first rule in his class was that students are not allowed to be late or leave early. If they had anything to do, they had to apply for leave first. Otherwise, he would definitely deduct points from the students.

Lu Yingying sat in the classroom and looked at Feng Qing, who was standing at the door. Her face was filled with schadenfreude. She couldn't wait to see Professor Sun scold Feng Qing in public. How dare she be late for the second lesson of the Finance Department? Wasn't this challenging Professor Sun's authority?

Sun Bin said in a deep voice, "Take a seat."

Feng Qing nodded. "Thank you, Professor Sun."

The students : "..."

Lu Yingying's mouth was wide open, and even her chin fell to the ground. They all looked at Feng Qing with a look of incredulity. Professor Sun let Feng Qing in so calmly?

Under the gaze of her classmates, Feng Qing carried her bag and walked to her seat. She was curious about the gazes of her classmates, not knowing why everyone was looking at her like this.

A student whispered, “Hey, what’s Feng Qing’s background? Why is Professor Sun Bin spoiling her like this?”

Lu Yingying said coldly, “Hmph, I don’t know her background, but she’s a news figure in our Capital University. She was like this in the music school previously, and now that she’s transferred to our school, she’s also like this. To put it bluntly, she’s a shameless woman.”

The student said, “Do you think there’s a possibility that Professor Sun is afraid of being defamed by Feng Qing’s fans, so he let her go this time?”

Sun Bin opened a list and said, “Everyone, listen carefully. Now, I’ll announce the list of people who will be interning at the Xie Corporation’s financial center next week.”

The entire Finance Department, or rather, the entire Capital University Business School, only had less than twenty internships every year. For these twenty slots, all the students studied hard, wanting to be the lucky one.

The first name to be called was Liu Yan, and it instantly attracted the applause of many students. Even Liu Yan couldn’t help but clap for himself. It wasn’t easy to fight for this spot, and the second person to be called was Lu Yingying. It instantly attracted another round of applause from the students.

“Yingying, you’re too amazing!”

“Yingying, you don’t seem to study much usually. I didn’t expect you to be so capable.”

“Congratulations, Junior Yingying. To be able to obtain an internship in the Xie Corporation’s financial center in your first year, there’s definitely nothing better than this for you.”

Listening to the praises and congratulations of her classmates, Lu Yingying humbly greeted everyone and thanked them from time to time. However, she couldn’t hide the smile on her face. She was also very proud of herself. Being able to get an internship in her freshman year was simply like cheating to her.

Sun Bin said, “Alright, I’ll announce the last spot now.”

At this point, Professor Sun raised his head and looked around the classroom. Seeing that everyone was looking at him expectantly, he said, “According to homework’s completion, I’ve decided to give the last spot to Student Feng Qing.”

It was so quiet that one could hear a pin drop. Just a second ago, the classroom was still filled with sounds. Many people were congratulating, and many people were discussing who would win the last spot. However, when Sun Bin said Feng Qing's name, the students collectively fell silent. Everyone looked at Feng Qing eagerly, as if they had forgotten to breathe.

After a while, someone started to regain their senses. All sorts of incredulous voices sounded in the classroom.

"D*mn! No way! It's actually Feng Qing?"

"What the heck? Didn't she just transfer to our Finance Department? She only attended a class once, and Professor Sun gave her such a precious spot?"

"There must be an inside story. Even if she's a genius, it's impossible for a music student to get an internship in the Xie Corporation after listening to just one lesson. This is unfair to our other students!"

At this moment, Lu Yingying slammed the table and stood up. Her pretty face was cold as she said to Sun Bin, "Professor, I'm very grateful that you gave me a spot, but as a fair student, I have to ask the professor on behalf of the students who didn't obtain the qualifications to be interns, what standard did Professor Sun use to judge?"

Speaking up to this point, Lu Yingying looked at Feng Qing and said, "I don't have anything against Student Feng Qing. I just want to ask for an explanation on behalf of everyone. Which student here doesn't learn more about finance than Student Feng Qing?"

Faced with doubts, Sun Bin's answer was very simple. "The criteria are very simple, and that is for the capable to win."
