

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 759

Chapter 759: Silver Pupils

The man wiped the water off his body with a towel and picked up his phone from the table to take a look. He saw a message from the Troublemaker Hacker Army. "God Slayer, the mission has failed. The commission has all been returned to your account. According to the rules, we'll compensate you another billion. Don't tell the outside world that we've worked together in the future, much less look for us again because we won't accept any missions you post."

The next second, his phone was thrown to the ground. The specially made phone instantly cracked the tiles by the pool. After a while, the man calmed down and picked up the phone again. He exited the chat app and saw a phone wallpaper that could improve his mood again. A young and beautiful girl was wearing a white swimsuit. She was standing by the shore and smiling brightly in the sunlight. The youthful and beautiful aura could be seen even from the screen.

The man gently rubbed the girl's pretty face on the wallpaper with his fingers. His throat couldn't help but move a few times. Then, he suddenly pulled off the towel on his head, revealing a devilish and handsome face like a work of art.

At this moment, a man in a suit and leather shoes with a bow walked over and said respectfully, "Young Master, we're here."

Before he could finish his sentence, more than ten people walked in from outside. The lights in the room lit up one by one. Standing in front of this group of people, the man raised his head and looked at the crowd with a sharp and cold gaze.

Some people were shocked when they saw his silver pupils, coupled with the man's exquisite appearance, his entire body exuded the luster of the moon under the light. He had short hair, noble thin lips, and a wild expression. He perfectly combined his elegant, cold, and beast-like aura with his wild temperament. With so many characteristics mixed together, not only did he not give a mismatched feeling, but he also gave off a natural high and mighty temperament.

The man stood up and opened his arms. A servant helped him put on a pair of glasses. The butler, who was wearing a pair of monocles and had white hair by his temples, stood in front of the man and buttoned his shirt.

The old butler said, "Young Master, according to the schedule, you'll be attending a local cocktail party later. I wonder if you..."

The man said coldly, "Not going."

The old butler said, "Young Master, we've only just arrived in the Capital after all. Since we have such a chance to get to know the locals, why don't you go?"

The man said disdainfully, "The Capital? The Capital of Xia country is nothing. The so-called upper-class people here are just a bunch of ants."

The old butler knew his young master's temper very well, so he could only say respectfully, "Alright then."

Originally, his young master was going to meet many wealthy families in the Capital at the banquet tonight. However, his young master didn't want to go, so the old butler could only give up.

Seeing that the servant had dressed the man, the old butler said, "Young Master, there's one more thing. I heard that the Feng family in the Capital is holding an engagement banquet for their adopted daughter, Feng Jianing."

Although they were new here, they had already grasped a lot of news about the upper circle of the Capital. Originally, they didn't pay much attention to the mere Feng family, but the Feng family's reputation was too bad, especially Feng Jianing. She cheated on her fiancé and claimed to be pregnant with his child. The Feng and Cao families were treated as jokes and became the laughing stock of the entire upper circle of the Capital.

The man thought for a moment, and his bright silver pupils exuded a cold and terrifying killing intent. He looked at the old butler and instructed, "I want to attend the Feng family's engagement banquet. Go and arrange it."

Di Hui Building, 38th floor.

All the employees looked at Xie Jiuhan with admiration. Many employees even cheered. After all, everything had happened too suddenly just now, and Xie Jiuhan had brought the people from the Xie Corporation's Internet Security Center to counterattack. This scene of turning the tables was too exciting.

"Ninth Master is amazing! He actually chased those hackers out."

"Ninth Master is mighty. Ninth Master is awesome. What can't Ninth Master do?"

"Ninth Master is handsome and capable. Let's see who dares to hack into our Xie Corporation's network in the future."

Most importantly, the cold and aloof president in the past could only pass by the lobby. The employees could only peep from afar. However, they had personally seen this man lead everyone to the Internet battlefield. He was simply too handsome!

They saw this man sitting elegantly and calmly on a chair. His expression was cold, and his voice was low as he spoke to the hackers on the other end of the microphone. It felt like a high and mighty god was ordering all living beings.
