

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 760

Chapter 760: Moving a Chair for the President

Xie Jiuhan stood up from the chair and gave Su Yu a look. The two of them had worked together for so long, so Su Yu naturally understood what the man meant instantly. Then, he pointed at Feng Qing in the crowd as the number one senior assistant of the corporation. "You're an intern, right? Hurry up and bring this chair with us."

Everyone was speechless.

Everyone looked at Su Yu in confusion. There were so many people here, but he didn't need to look for them. Instead, he let Feng Qing, an intern who had just started work today, follow him. However, after thinking about it, they felt relieved. There didn't seem to be anything wrong in finding an intern to move a chair. However, there were a total of ten interns, so why was he only looking for Feng Qing?

Of course, these were only everyone's thoughts. Su Yu's status in the Xie Corporation was extremely special. He was considered Xie Jiuhan's trusted aide. Many times, his words represented Xie Jiuhan's intentions. He had extremely high prestige in the entire corporation and was privately called 'Chief Steward' by the employees of the Xie Corporation.

Feng Qing was also stunned. She didn't expect to be called out by Su Yu. Seeing that she was still in a daze, someone pushed her from behind, signaling her to quickly move the chair. This was an opportunity that other interns dreamed of even in their dreams to help Xie Jiuhan move the chair. Many people guessed that Su Yu and Feng Qing knew each other.

Under the envious and jealous gaze of the crowd, Feng Qing picked up a chair and followed behind Su Yu. Xie Jiuhan, who was walking in front, pretended to have a matter-of-fact expression. The employees who followed Xie Jiuhan left one after another. Many of them were still intensely discussing the super awesome programming code that Xie Jiuhan had written just now.

The moment the elevator door closed, Su Yu's head was lightly hit by Xie Jiuhan. Xie Jiuhan said unhappily, "Is your head filled with shit? You want my wife to do such hard work?"

Although the man did not use much strength, it still hurt Su Yu's head. He hurriedly said apologetically, "Ninth Master, I was wrong. In that situation just now, this was the best excuse I could think of. Don't worry, I'll personally move this chair from now on. I definitely won't tire the Young Madam."

As he spoke, he was speechless and smiled bitterly in his heart. The matter was so urgent just now, so he didn't have any good excuse to bring Feng Qing away for a moment. He couldn't specially point Feng Qing out in public and let her leave for no reason, right? That would definitely cause the entire 38th floor's Xie Corporation's employees to discuss, so he could only find a 'rough job' so that Feng Qing could leave with them. Only then could he shut up the crowd.

The first law of the workplace was that he had to listen to whoever he followed. He had to believe his boss unconditionally. His boss was right about everything. Hence, Su Yu took the chair from Feng Qing and moved it. However, Xie Jiuhan still punish him to lift the chair for half an hour. Then, Xie Jiuhan carried Feng Qing into the office.

On the 95th floor of Di Hui Building, in the president's office.

The moment Xie Jiuhan carried Feng Qing into the office, the smart system raised a soundproof barrier. Then, Feng Qing was placed on the desk by the man and he kissed her fervently. The man's kiss was intense and domineering, and his hot breath kept hitting the woman's face. Feng Qing's petite figure was controlled tightly in his hands.

The man kissed the woman's body passionately. His greedy expression made it seem like he would never get enough of kissing her. The man crazily sucked the nutrition from the woman's mouth, but Feng Qing could taste the restlessness from the man's mouth. When Xie Jiuhan was asking the Troublemaker Hacker Army just now, her absolute hearing heard the name reported by the hackers through the earpiece. It turned out that God Slayer had hired the Troublemaker Hacker Army to attack the Xie Corporation's network.

Feng Qing's small hand grabbed the man's suit jacket and gently unbuttoned it. Then, she reached her hand in and wrapped it around the man's waist. If she didn't guess wrong, Xie Jiuhan should know too. The last time, God Slayer had given her the Mermaid's Tears. She had no intention of hiding it from the man. After all, if this man wanted to know, it definitely couldn't escape his eyes.

When the God Slayer gave her the Mermaid's Tears, he had issued a challenge to Xie Jiuhan. Today, he had gotten someone to hack into the Xie Corporation's network, which was equivalent to challenging the man again. It would be strange if Xie Jiuhan was in a good mood. Fortunately, she was here, so she could barely suppress the agitated genes in the man's body.

Feng Qing wrapped her arms around the man's waist and pressed her body against his chest. She let the man take her crazily. Her nose and mouth were filled with the man's smell. She wanted to use herself to calm this man down.
