

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 774

Chapter 774: You'll Always Be Master Yin

Fu Anlan was so happy that she almost flew up when she heard her agree. She hurriedly said in joy, "Alright, alright. You're indeed my good daughter. Tomorrow night at 7 PM, the Blue Sea Hotel. You must come then!"

Feng Qing did not reply and hung up the phone. Seeing that the phone was placed aside, she leaned against Feng Qing and caressed the man in her arms. Xie Jiuhan said, "Are you sure you want to go?"

Xie Jiuhan's voice was very lazy, low but comfortable, making one feel like they were giving their ears a massage. Feng Qing replied, "Last time, Madam Crimson Snow said that they aren't my biological parents. I've always been troubled by this, so I want to take this opportunity to get some hair samples from them for a paternity test. I want to be sure who I am and if I'm related to the Feng family."

She couldn't wait anymore. As long as the results of the test were out, if they weren't related by blood, she would immediately throw the test report on the Feng couple's face and completely part ways with the Feng family. Those talks of her having the Feng family's blood running in her vessels, or those talks about her cutting off her flesh and draining her blood would all be a joke.

Xie Jiuhan exhaled hot air into her ear. "Do you need me to accompany you?"

Before Feng Qing could speak, her phone rang again. She looked at the phone screen and realized that it was Han Jinlu, so she pressed the answer button. Then, Han Jinlu's voice sounded. "Master Yin, I've received an invitation to attend the engagement banquet of the second daughter of the Feng family in the Capital tomorrow night. I know your relationship with the Feng family, so I came to ask you.”

Feng Qing raised her eyebrows. “The Han family and the Feng family still have dealings?”

The Han family in the Capital was a true wealthy family. It was not something the Feng family could compare to at all. The two of them were not on the same level at all. Under normal circumstances, the Han family should not take a fancy to them.

According to what Feng Qing knew, the Han family and the Feng family had never had any business dealings. But since Second Master Han specially entrusted Han Jinlu to let him attend the engagement banquet of the second daughter of the Feng family, this showed that the Han family valued the Feng family very much, which made Feng Qing very puzzled.

Through the phone, Han Jinlu could feel Feng Qing’s doubts. He said gently, “My father and the Feng family’s Feng Yiru were once good friends. This time, it was the second daughter of the Feng family who is getting engaged. Although she’s only the adopted daughter of the Feng family, I still have to congratulate her on his behalf.”

Upon hearing this, Feng Qing thought of something. “By the way, Jinlu, three years ago, were you willing to be my assistant and the number one assistant of Blue Stocks Capital because I’m from the Feng family?”

Han Jinlu knew what she meant, so he smiled and said, "At first, there was this reason, but later on, I was willing to charge into battle for you and overcome all obstacles because in my heart, you will always be Master Yin!"

Xie Jiuhan laid beside the woman's head and quietly listened to the voice on the phone. After hearing Han Jinlu's determination to Feng Qing, he couldn't help but say, "Yes, you're considered sensible. I hope you can be a loyal dog."

Feng Qing raised her hand and pinched the man's ribs. On the phone, Han Jinlu wasn't angry at Xie Jiuhan's words. Feng Qing said to Han Jinlu, "I'll go to Feng Jianing's engagement banquet. I'll see you at the banquet."

Han Jinlu replied, "Alright, see you then."

Back then, Han Jinlu had really become her subordinate because of this. The Feng family was only an unranked wealthy family in the Capital. Moreover, their business had not been doing well in the past few years and had become a family that could be kicked out of the wealthy circle at any moment.

The second master of the Han family had only let Han Jinlu attend the engagement banquet because of Feng Yiru. It could only be said that the second master of the Han family was a sentimental and righteous person who did not forget his old friends. But why did Han Jinlu become her subordinate on account of the Feng family? Could it be that Han Jinlu also knew Feng Yiru?

Suddenly, Feng Qing felt her body rise into the air. Her slender arms subconsciously wrapped around the man's neck. Xie Jiuhan carried her off the bed and walked towards the bathroom. "Are you still thinking about that dog?"

The man's tone was very domineering. Feng Qing asked, "Little Jiu Jiu, before you met me, did you know Feng Yiru or have you heard of this name?"

Xie Jiuhan said, "Of course I've heard of her. She's the first Nine-Star Fragrance Master in Xia country, and she's an all-rounder. Other than perfume, she's proficient in fashion design, jewelry design, chess, zither, and calligraphy. I heard that her medical skills are also very profound, especially in perfume and fashion design. I heard that she founded the Tianrong Nichang brand, but that's not the most important thing."

Feng Qing was curious. "What is it?"
