

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 799

Chapter 799: Relapse

With that, Old Master Xie chuckled evilly for a while before saying, "Jiuhan, my dear son, listen to me and kill that woman quickly. That way, you don't have to become an idiot, and she doesn't have to become a fool. Either you become a lunatic or she becomes a fool. You have to choose one of the two paths I prepared for you, and you can only choose one."

Xie Jiuhan finally understood everything after hearing Old Master Xie's words. His breathing became heavy, and his abnormally handsome face was covered in frost. His black eyes revealed a killing intent that made people tremble. Old Master Xie's words just now echoed in his mind like a recorder.

"Kill her so you can live, so you won't become crazy."

"Is it worth it to do this for a woman? Hurry up and kill that woman. Even if you can't bear to, you have to abandon her and stay away from her."

"My good son. You have to choose one of the two paths that I prepared for you, and you can only choose one."

At this moment, Xie Jiuhan felt like his body was about to explode. His restless genes jumped completely. He knew that he was going to relapse again. He felt that there were countless hands grabbing him in the darkness around him, as if they wanted to drag him into the abyss. The man tried his best to resist his restless emotions. He grabbed the armrest of the chair tightly to prevent himself from being pulled into the abyss by those hands.

Old Master Xie's voice sounded from the computer again. "My good son, if you don't have feelings for Feng Qing and if you can say goodbye to her completely, you won't feel any pain when you choose because you will definitely choose not to become a lunatic. After all, Feng Qing is just a woman. With your status, you can have any woman you want. And once you choose this, I will really have to congratulate you. Because that way, you will be a truly invincible existence, a person who has no weaknesses at all. No one can shake your status, but if you can't do it, or if you have deep feelings for Feng Qing, then not only will you be in pain when you choose, but you will also become a mad dog in the end!"

Xie Jiuhan reached out from the darkness and pressed the H key on the computer. Instantly, an electric current that was twice as strong as before entered Old Master Xie's body. The next second, Old Master Xie fell to the ground. His entire body was twitching crazily. Through the screen, one could seem to smell the burnt smell on his body. Blood kept flowing out of Old Master Xie's seven orifices. The scene looked sinister and terrifying.

It was only when the scene disappeared that Xie Jiuhan slowly released his fingers from the H key. Then, the man covered his face with his hand. The veins on his forehead twitched crazily, as if they were about to jump out of his scalp.

"Uh..." Even someone as strong as Xie Jiuhan couldn't help but let out a sound of pain. He supported himself with one hand on the table and held his head tightly with the other. The indescribable pain made him subconsciously open his mouth, as if this was the only way to breathe.

He had a relapse. This time, the relapse was so fast that his entire body was trembling uncontrollably. He had a feeling that there was another him in his body that wanted to break out of his body. He knew very well what would happen once his body was occupied by his other self. At that time, he would completely lose his rationality and become a monster that only knew how to kill. Anything that breathed would become his target because the hot blood of life would make him feel comfortable.

Every time this happened, he needed Feng Qing and needed to absorb warmth from the woman. As long as he was hugged and comforted by that woman for a while, his other self hidden in his body would calm down.

“You’ll ultimately lose your rationality and become a complete lunatic!” Old Master Xie’s teasing words lingered in his ears.

Bang! Xie Jiuhan punched the solid wooden desk, shattering it. The flying wood chips even scratched his face. Blood instantly flowed down his abnormally handsome face.

At this moment, the study room door opened. March bit the door handle and pushed it open. March, who was hanging on the door, happened to see the man who was crazily smashing the desk.

“Woof?” March barked.

Its voice attracted the man’s attention. The man raised his head and looked at March. His black eyes were filled with violence and ruthlessness. Sensing this wild beast-like aura, March subconsciously felt all the fur on its body stand on end. Its raised tail instantly curled up under its body.
