

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 831

Chapter 831: Which Part of You Haven't I Seen Before?

When the man ordered the smart room system to open the bedroom curtains, what appeared in front of Feng Qing was a blue and green sea and a dazzling white beach. The blue and green sea looked like a good-looking cocktail from her angle.

Even though Feng Qing had seen the sea countless times, the visual impact this time was definitely unique. Xie Jiuhan pushed open the French window. Instantly, a refreshing sea wind blew in, gently blowing Feng Qing's black and beautiful hair. The sound of waves surging was also pleasant to the ears.

Feng Qing could hear and could see further. At this moment, she had the feeling that she had already fused with the world. That relaxed and comfortable feeling dispelled all the gloom in her heart, making her immediately excited.

"Little Jiu Jiu, look. There seems to be dolphins over there, and they're the white kind." Feng Qing chattered to the man.

"Yes, it's good that you like this place. I'll bring you out to sea tomorrow. If you're lucky enough, you might be able to see the legendary pink dolphin with your own eyes," Xie Jiuhan said with a smile.

Feng Qing's eyes lit up when she heard that there were pink dolphins here. She had seen an article on the Internet. It said that pink dolphins were very rare. It was precisely because they were rare that people called them symbols of love. It also said that anyone who saw a pink dolphin would meet the one in their lives.

Feng Qing thought that since she was only on the Sacred Island for two days, and most likely going to sea once, it would be very lucky to see a dolphin. The possibility of seeing a pink dolphin among hundreds of dolphins was almost zero.

At this moment, there was a knock on the door. A servant appeared at the door and said respectfully, "Ninth Master, the medicinal bath is ready."

Xie Jiuhan nodded and called Feng Qing. Feng Qing walked over and asked in confusion, "What medicinal bath?"

Xie Jiuhan smiled and said, "Sacred Island is very magical. There's a huge natural hot spring on it, so I got someone to prepare a medicinal bath for you in advance."

Letting Feng Qing bathe in the hot spring was one of the reasons why he had to bring Feng Qing here this time. This hot spring was natural. After checking, the hot spring water contained many beneficial elements. Xie Jiuhan believed that this hot spring would definitely be very beneficial to Feng Qing's recovery.

Feng Qing came to a realization. “Then is Little Jiu Jiu willing to accompany me to the hot spring?”

Upon hearing this request, the man’s lips curled up into a smile. How could he, as her husband, reject such a request? Moreover, he really wanted to play with the woman!

Hot Spring of Sacred Island.

After wrapping a towel around her petite and thin body, Feng Qing walked out of the changing room. Her long black hair was tied up behind her head, and only a few strands of hair fell along her face. She stole a glance at Xie Jiuhan, who was sitting on the chair. A hint of red appeared on the woman’s fair face.

The man in the gray bathrobe had a hint of helplessness in his black eyes. He thought that Feng Qing had invited him to the hot spring, but what made him speechless was that Feng Qing only let him watch from the shore.

Because it was a medicinal bath, it was best to soak in the bath without clothes. Feng Qing held her towel that was wrapped around her body and used her feet to test the water temperature. Then, she turned to look at the man on the chair and said, “Turn around. You’re not allowed to look!”

Feng Qing's voice was filled with shyness. Even though the two of them were five to six meters apart, she could feel the man's scorching gaze.

Xie Jiuhan snorted unhappily. "I'll turn around."

Upon hearing this, Feng Qing couldn't help but turn around and see the man staring at her without blinking. His black eyes were incomparably scorching, as if he wanted to burn the towel on her body.

Feng Qing stomped her feet and said, "Aiya, turn around quickly. You're not allowed to peek."

Xie Jiuhan leaned back in his chair and smiled fearlessly. "What are you shy about? Which part of you haven't I seen before?"

Feng Qing's face turned even redder. She did not say anything else when the man did not turn around. She simply pulled off the towel on her body and jumped into the hot spring. Accompanied by the sound of water, the hot spring water was at Feng Qing's shoulder, only revealing her sexy neck and snow-white face on the water.

Waves of white smoke floated and fog lingered. There was a faint smell of sulfur mixed with the smell of various herbs. Feng Qing leaned against the wall of the hot spring and felt comfortable all over.

It was as if warm energy had entered every inch of her body through her pores. The relaxed feeling made Feng Qing so comfortable that she couldn't help but cry out softly.
