

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 832

Chapter 832: Speculation Come True

At the same time, the man sitting on the chair could only sip champagne and grit his teeth as he stared at the woman in the hot spring, admiring the beautiful scenery of a beauty bathing. In the wide hot spring, the sunlight shone on the water surface and fell on Feng Qing's shoulder. Her skin was covered in an alluring glow, giving off the hazy and drifting feeling, making one feel dazzled. Xie Jiuhan couldn't help but be a little infatuated.

After soaking for a while, Feng Qing heard the sound of typing on the keyboard behind her. She turned around and saw Xie Jiuhan leaning against the recliner, his eyes fixed on the screen.

"I just hacked into a paternity test organization, and this paternity test organization is the one that tested you and the Feng family back then. I downloaded their data backup. As you speculated, they tampered with the results of your and the Feng family's paternity test four years ago." Xie Jiuhan sipped his champagne as he spoke.

There was another splashing sound of water. Feng Qing turned her body in the hot spring and looked at the man without blinking. Her voice came from the ethereal mist. "Why did this organization tamper with the results of the test?"

Xie Jiuhan rolled the screen twice and curled his lips. "Speaking of the person in charge of this agency, you're quite familiar with him."

Feng Qing raised her eyebrows. "Who is it?"

Xie Jiuhan said, "Hua Pianshan!"

Upon hearing this name, Feng Qing's expression froze in the smoke. She never expected that the person in charge of this organization would be Hua Pianshan, who was called the Divine Doctor in Xia country. The medical organization he established, Xuanhu Hall, had a very important influence in the entire Xia country.

Previously, Feng Qing had interacted with Hua Pianshan. The old man admitted defeat to her medical ability and willingly called her Master. Recalling Hua Pianshan, Feng Qing couldn't help but ask, "According to what I know, Hua Pianshan is only his alias. His surname is Han, right? Then is he related to Han Jinlu and Han Jintian?"

Feng Qing's brain worked, and her thoughts jumped very quickly. She instantly connected these people. Seeing that she had already reached this step, Xie Jiuhan, who was typing on the keyboard, said, "As expected of my wife, you're indeed smart. Hua Pianshan's original name is Han Wu. From a biological perspective, he's Han Jintian and Han Jinlu's biological granduncle. However, Han Wu has loved medicine since he was young. In order not to walk the path of business, he severed ties with the Han family when he was in his teens."

Feng Qing frowned. When Feng Jianing, the adopted daughter of the Feng family, was engaged, First Master Han and Second Master Han, who had always been irreconcilable, had sent congratulatory gifts to the Feng family at the same time. A few years ago, the paternity test Feng Qing and the Feng family did was from the laboratory under Hua Pianshan. Feng Qing would never believe that the Feng family and the Han family had nothing to do with each other.

Just as Feng Qing was thinking, Xie Jiuhan, who was looking at the computer, had a serious look in his black eyes. At this moment, a surveillance video was playing on the computer screen. The video showed very clearly that Feng Yiru often entered this medical organization. Moreover, from her conversation with Hua Pianshan, the two of them were very familiar with each other.

After looking at it for a while, Xie Jiuhan opened a few more photos. These were all old photos, and they were at least forty years old. These photos were all secretly taken when he sent someone to infiltrate the Feng family just now. These photos were basically all of Feng Yuanzhou. They recorded the process of him growing from a child to a youth to a middle-aged uncle.

What puzzled Xie Jiuhan was that Feng Yiru was not in any of these photos. Even in the black and white photos, there was no sign of Feng Yiru in the family photo of Feng Yuanzhou's parents. Could it be that Feng Yuanzhou's parents favored boys over girls, so they never took any pictures with their daughter? Or was it that Feng Yiru was not born when this family photo was taken? There was no date on the photo, so Xie Jiuhan could not be sure.

Suddenly, Xie Jiuhan found someone in the family photo. It was a slender and thin woman. He wanted to see this woman's face, but her face had been dug out by someone. Xie Jiuhan raised his eyebrows and quickly scrolled down a few more photos. As expected, there were a few more photos of this woman. However, the woman in every photo had her face dug out. From the shape and edges, these should have been dug out with scissors.
