

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 962

Looking at Xie Ruoyun who was walking towards her, Feng Qing's eyes revealed a strange expression. The last time she went to the Sacred Island, what happened between her and Xie Ruoyun was still vivid in her mind. She didn't know why she came to the Xie Manor today. Unlike before, when she saw Feng Qing this time, Xie Ruoyun said with a polite smile, "Young Madam, I came to the Xie Manor this time mainly to help Ninth Master."

Feng Qing raised her eyebrows. "Assist Little Jiu Jiu?"

Xie Ruoyun nodded. "Yes, it's that super-large machine."

Feng Qing gave the comment that Xie Ruoyun's thesis was not up to standard on the Sacred Island. Later on, the chief supervisor of the laboratory studied Xie Ruoyun's thesis carefully and found that there were indeed many problems with her thesis. The main reason was that Xie Ruoyun was anxious to take out her thesis and submit it to the Seven Stars Continent, so she was anxious to succeed.

After discovering this situation, the chief supervisor of the laboratory privately found Xie Ruoyun and indirectly reminded her that it was best to reorganize the thesis and let her calm down and focus on scientific research. As for going to the Seven Stars Continent Medical School to further her studies, it was temporarily put on hold.

In fact, the chief supervisor of the laboratory had already said it very politely. From his perspective, although Xie Ruoyun was very strong and was very diligent and professional in her research, from her research results and the final research paper, she was not qualified to go to the Seven Stars Continent Medical School for further studies. She still needed to examine herself properly and carry out research again.

However, after Xie Ruoyun's thesis was returned, her mentality broke down a few times. After Feng Qing left, she even locked herself in the laboratory for two days without eating or drinking. Looking at the returned thesis, her eyes were filled with unwillingness and hatred. The words that Feng Qing had commented on her thesis in the laboratory still echoed in her ears. The feeling of having a fishbone in her throat was simply about to drive her crazy.

As the beloved daughter of heaven on the Sacred Island, she had been an outstanding person in all aspects since she was young. She was the role model and target in the eyes of others. Everyone couldn't help but praise her when they mentioned her.

Her outstanding performance also made the entire Xie family branch feel honored. As early as the age of 18, she had already completed her university studies on her own and had even published all sorts of academic articles in the three major medical magazines in Xia country. In the past few years, she had even obtained many medical awards, so she was confident in herself.

Among her peers, she believed that she was the best, but Feng Qing's appearance had given her a slap in public. Although her personal combat strength was commendable, Feng Qing was only a first-year student in the music department of the Capital University. No matter how magnanimous she was, she couldn't bear a music department's specially recruited student to show off in front of her.

After Feng Qing left the Sacred Island with Xie Jiuhan and returned to the Capital, Xie Ruoyun found out that after this Sacred Island assessment, Xie Ba and Xie Si had taken the initiative to give up their corresponding departmental positions on the Sacred Island. The two of them had chosen to follow Xie Jiuhan and Feng Qing to Xia country. When she saw Xie Qi just now, she specially asked him about the situation of Xie Ba and Xie Si.

Xie Qi told her that Xie Ba and Xie Si were only taking on the protection job of the Xie Manor now. She was very surprised by this. She thought that the two of them would be valued for their strength, but in the end, they were only in charge of the security work. However, before she could say anything, Xie Qi told her that Xie Ba and Xie Si had been arranged to be in charge of Feng Qing's security with Little Wu and were considered Feng Qing's current secret guards. Hearing this, Xie Ruoyun was even more shocked. She felt a breath stuck in her chest.

Not only were Xie Ba and Xie Si strong, but they were also smart. They were figures on the top of the tower on the Sacred Island, which was filled with talents. They were the role models of this generation's loyalists. If the two of them were willing, they could always stay on the Sacred Island to hold an important core position in the Xie family. With their current age, they would definitely be able to do great things in the future. She never expected that they would only be one of the many bodyguards in the Xie family. To put it nicely, they were secret guards, but to put it bluntly, they were just watch dogs by the skirt of the madam of the Xie family, Feng Qing.

At the thought of this, Xie Ruoyun's prejudice against Feng Qing grew. She didn't know what Feng Qing had drugged Xie Ba and the other two to make them willingly be bodyguards here. They actually didn't even want their bright future. It was simply a waste of talent and youth.

When she came in just now, Xie Qi specifically told Xie Ruoyun that the family head had gone out to do something. Feng Qing was eating in the dining room, so he asked her to wait outside for a while. When Xie Ruoyun heard this, she curled her lips and looked speechless.
