

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 963

It was already past nine in the morning, and Feng Qing had only eaten breakfast at this time, which meant that she had just woken up not long ago. Therefore, Xie Ruoyun felt a little disdain in her heart. In her opinion, it was the first day of the new year and Feng Qing was on winter break now, but she should at least have some semblance of being the madam of the Xie family, right? Thinking of this, Xie Ruoyun suddenly understood Xie Yuhuan. No wonder Xie Yuhuan disliked Feng Qing so much. Feng Qing had indeed not done well.

Xie Ruoyun's gaze landed on Feng Qing's face. Even after dinner, Feng Qing still looked sleepy. Feng Qing was wearing a hot velvet nightdress and looked very warm and cute. Moreover, there was a hat in her pajamas. The shape of the hat happened to look like a cat, making her look like she wanted to be touched.

The nightdress was very loose. Instead, it took advantage of Feng Qing's extremely good figure and her black and beautiful hair fell lazily on her shoulders. She sat at the dining table and drank the porridge with a spoon. The way Feng Qing ate was very elegant. This was very similar to when Xie Jiuhan was eating. Her entire body exuded a noble aura. There were at least twenty breakfast delicacies in front of Feng Qing. There was traditional breakfast food in Xia country, as well as whole wheat bread and milk for breakfast in the Western countries. Behind her, a servant is always standing quietly, as if she was waiting for her instructions at any moment.

Xie Ruoyun had long heard that Xie Jiuhan had never been particular about ostentation. Moreover, he liked to keep a low profile. Other than the necessary bodyguards, there was no one else around him. A few years ago, many women had fought tooth and nail to enter the Xie Manor as servants just to get to know Xie Jiuhan. However, they realized that Xie Jiuhan did not keep any female bodyguards or maids by his side at all. His subordinates were all men. It was only later on that they heard that the Xie Manor had a madam that they started to recruit maids. Now, the extravagant life in the Xie Manor was also caused by Feng Qing!

Hmph, apart from her passable martial arts, I really don't know what Ninth Master likes about her. She doesn't look like the madam of the Xie family at all. Other than enjoying the luxurious food provided by the Xie family, what else can she do for the Xie family? Xie Ruoyun had a smile on her face, but she thought disdainfully in her heart.

In her opinion, Feng Qing's combat strength was already off the charts. Why did she still want Little Wu and the other two to be her secret guards? Wasn't this taking off her pants to fart? Wasn't this unnecessary? Wasn't this delaying the future development of Little Wu and the other two? Thinking of this, Xie Ruoyun's disgust for Feng Qing increased.

Just as Xie Ruoyun was criticizing Feng Qing in her heart, Feng Qing put down the spoon and looked at her. "Ruoyun."

Xie Ruoyun was stunned. She hurriedly came back to her senses and looked at Feng Qing. Their eyes met and she realized that the other party was looking at her with a smile. Xie Ruoyun immediately replied respectfully, "I-I'm here, Young Madam."

Seeing her caught off guard, Feng Qing couldn't help but smile. Her large eyes blinked back and forth on Xie Ruoyun. She had naturally seen through Xie Ruoyun's thoughts long ago, but she didn't say anything.

Feng Qing asked, "Didn't you study medicine? How do you know controllable nuclear fusion technology?"

Xie Ruoyun calmed down and cleared her throat. She said respectfully, "Young Madam, I don't understand what you're talking about, nor have I studied it. However, I have a friend in the Seven Stars Continent. He's an expert in this aspect."

Originally, she didn't intend to tell Feng Qing about this. After all, in her opinion, it was useless even if she told Feng Qing. She would have told Xie Jiuhan directly. However, since Feng Qing had taken the initiative to ask, she would tell her. Moreover, because of the thesis, she wanted to take this opportunity to prove her ability in front of Feng Qing. After all, she was so much better than Feng Qing. How could she allow Feng Qing to keep suppressing her?

"Even if this friend of mine is placed in the Seven Stars Continent's technology research and development center, he is still the top scientific consultant, especially when it comes to scattered weapons and nuclear energy technology. Not only is he talented and knowledgeable, but he is also one of the trusted aides of the Four Young Masters of the Seven Stars Continent. He has already left the Seven Stars Continent with the Four Young Masters a few years ago." Xie Ruoyun organized her thoughts and introduced her friend in the Seven Stars Continent as if she was familiar with him. She wished she could praise him to the sky.

Feng Qing ate the roasted wheat in small bites as she listened. The roasted wheat was made at the right time today, and the taste was also very good. Feng Qing took a small bite, and the juice instantly exploded in her mouth, and a beautiful fragrance reverberated in her mouth.
