

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 965

“Let’s not talk about whether the Di family can find the Sixth Princess in the end. Even if they do, it’s unknown if the Sixth Princess will be as outstanding as her brothers. Even if the Sixth Princess is equally outstanding, she didn’t grow up in the Di Palace and didn’t receive good education since she was young. No matter how high her IQ is or how good her genes are, it’s useless.” Xie Ruoyun crossed her arms and said her opinion arrogantly.

Upon hearing this, Feng Qing’s pink lips curled up slightly. “Then why do you firmly believe that the sixth princess who wandered outside definitely won’t receive a good education?”

There was a smile in Xie Ruoyun’s eyes, but the way she looked at Feng Qing was as if she was looking at an idiot. “Young Madam might not know, but the education level in Xia country is an insurmountable gap compared to the education level in the Seven Stars Continent. Children like them, who have been wandering outside since they were young, can’t be compared to the children of the Seven Stars Continent even if they have received Xia country’s higher education. This is because everyone who can survive in the Seven Stars Continent is the top group of people in this world. Moreover, they completely crush people from other places in terms of intelligence. Be it technology, medicine, education, or anything else, the Seven Stars Continent is the most advanced in this world. It’s not an overstatement to say that with Xia country’s current strength in all aspects, it will take at least fifty years to surpass the Seven Stars Continent.”

Speaking up to this point, Xie Ruoyun couldn’t help but ask, “By the way, Young Madam, have you stepped into the Seven Stars Continent?”

Feng Qing finished the porridge in her bowl. The servant at the side immediately handed her a hot towel to wipe her hands. Feng Qing shook her head and said, “No.”

This answer made Xie Ruoyun very satisfied. She felt an inexplicable sense of superiority in her heart. She smiled and said, "Oh, I see. That's a pity. With Young Madam's status, I really recommend you to go to the Seven Stars Continent and walk out of your comfort zone to see the world of the Seven Stars Continent and broaden your horizons. Only then can you know what it means to have a mountain higher than you."

Before she could finish her sentence, Xie Ruoyun suddenly thought of something and said, "Aiya, Young Madam, I'm really sorry. I forgot that you can't go to the Seven Stars Continent. After all, between you and the head of the Xing family... Forget it. Even if you want to go, Ninth Master will definitely not agree to you going."

When Xie Ruoyun and Feng Qing were talking, Xie Qi, who was at the side, naturally heard everything. When Xie Ruoyun first mentioned Xing Wudi, he already felt that it wasn't good. He even specially gave Xie Ruoyun a look to ask her to pay attention. He didn't expect that she would mention it again. Hence, Xie Qi said, "Ruoyun, pay attention. This is the Xie Manor. If you talk about something serious in front of Young Madam, don't talk about those things, much less mention those people you shouldn't have mentioned."

In reality, Xie Qi was a little angry and his tone was a little heavy. Before bringing Xie Ruoyun in, he had specially instructed many things to take note of, afraid that Xie Ruoyun would say the wrong thing the first time she came to the Xie Manor and leave a bad impression on Feng Qing. However, Xie Ruoyun agreed quite well, and in the end, her mouth was filled with unpleasant words.

Xie Ruoyun vented her anger. Why did she make Xie Qi unhappy when she said all this? If not for Feng Qing attracting bees and butterflies, why would the doors of the Seven Stars Continent be tightly closed to the Xie Corporation?

Feng Qing threw the wet towel into the trash can and asked, "Alright, after chatting for so long, did you bring that friend from the Seven Stars Continent this time?"

Upon hearing this, Xie Ruoyun was stunned at first. Then, her eyes widened and she said in disbelief, "Young Madam, you might have some misunderstandings about my friend. Although we have some personal relationships, he's a master from the Seven Stars Continent's Research Institute after all. How can he be found casually? Moreover, that person's work is very busy. Unless Ninth Master personally goes to the Seven Stars Continent to invite him, no one could invite him over. I can provide Ninth Master with his contact information."

Feng Qing frowned. Xie Ruoyun also saw the change in her expression, so she said, "Young Madam, if you want to share the burden with Ninth Master, why don't you personally invite that master to the Xie Manor as the madam of the Xie family?"

The next second, Feng Qing's heart stirred. She looked at Xie Ruoyun with a faint smile in her clear eyes. Xie Ruoyun's heart tightened when she saw this gaze, as if it had skipped a few beats. For a few seconds, Feng Qing looked at her with a cold gaze, and she had the illusion that she could see through her thoughts at a glance.

The corners of Feng Qing's mouth curled up. "Alright, then leave me his contact information."

Xie Ruoyun wrote down the master's contact information and said, "This is the master's contact information. Young Madam, please keep it safe."
