

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 999

The young man raised his harmless face. He looked at the camera on the monitor as if he was looking at Xie Jiuhan, who was thousands of miles away. The young man raised his hand and waved at the camera. Although he said in a female voice, "Hi, Ninth Master. We finally met."

A few seconds later, the young man's voice entered Xie Jiuhan's ears through the satellite. The woman's voice with the cosmic background radiation was like a firecracker exploding in his ears, even about to explode his entire head.

The man's hand that was on the table had already clenched into a fist. He never expected that not only did the person in the video look identical to Feng Qing, but even her voice was identical. Could it be that this God Di knew Feng Qing? Only this explanation could explain why God Di's voice was the same as Feng Qing's. This was because looks could be disguised, but it was almost impossible to imitate a voice. Moreover, ever since Feng Qing married him, she had never made it public. If God Di had not seen Feng Qing in person or knew her, how could he have the same appearance and voice as Feng Qing? If it was a coincidence, then this coincidence was too exaggerated!

Most importantly, Xie Jiuhan couldn't understand what God Di meant. He didn't know if it was a coincidence or something else when the other party faced him with Feng Qing's image and voice.

After staring at the video for a while, Xie Jiuhan said, "You're God Di?"

A few seconds later, the woman's pink lips curled up slightly in the video, revealing a smile that was almost identical to Feng Qing's. "Xie Jiuhan, the president of the Xie Corporation in Xia country, the head of the Xie family, and the master of the Sacred Island. I didn't expect that the famous Mechanical God in Xia country would actually be you. I really want to know what else you don't know in this world. With your talent, it's no longer enough to describe you as a rare genius in a hundred years. In my opinion, you're definitely a genius that only appears once in a thousand years in Xia country. Xia country has you, and it's like a beacon of light in the eternal night. This also means that no one will be able to shake the status of the number one country in the world in the next hundred years!"

When the young man was still in the Seven Stars Continent, he had heard many people praise Xie Jiuhan non-stop. They were not stingy with their praise. The world said that the president of the Xie Corporation was a rare genius in a hundred years. He was the God of Finance and a shocking genius. There were even people who said that there was no one in the entire Seven Stars Continent who could compare to Xie Jiuhan. Because of this sentence, he had joined forces with the seven major fund companies in the world to attack Xia country's financial system a few years ago. However, he had still lost to Xie Jiuhan in the end. In that battle, he and the seven major fund companies in the world had suffered heavy losses, so much so that he had yet to recover until now.

To put it bluntly, he had never obtained any benefits from this man when he fought Xie Jiuhan. This time, in order to defeat Xie Jiuhan in one go, he had privately joined forces with many of the world's top factions and corporations to take revenge for what happened back then. However, it looked like he had lost to this man again. From the continuous distress messages from the various companies just now, the forces he had joined forces with had already been defeated by the Xie Corporation.

The young man smiled sweetly, his large eyes looking at the man on the screen innocently. However, because of the light, the young man could only see the black shadow of the man on the high chair and did not see the disgust on the man's face.

Xie Jiuhan raised his hand and pressed a button on the keyboard. "God Di, go to hell!"

A few seconds later, the 'woman' in the video widened her eyes in fear. What made the 'woman' afraid was not Xie Jiuhan's ruthless words, but the ear-piercing anti-control alarm. Xie Jiuhan had actually fired a missile at where he was?!

However, God Di calmed down very quickly. Even if there were missiles, it would still take a while to arrive. The young man raised his exquisite face, and his originally clean and clear eyes revealed a cold expression for the first time. Although he wanted to see Xie Jiuhan's elegance with his own eyes, he still didn't see anything clearly because of the light. It was only at this moment that he understood that the other party had long discovered and found him. The reason why he hadn't made a move was because he wanted to catch them all in one fell swoop today and find him, the mastermind behind the scenes. Now, Xie Jiuhan had started to counterattack. He had already destroyed them all at lightning speed, causing him and the corporations to suffer heavy losses.

God Di suddenly recalled that a few years ago in the Di Palace in the Seven Stars Continent, that high and mighty man had said, "There's definitely no one in the Seven Stars Continent who can match Xie Jiuhan."
