Chapter 1185

"What was that? She just came over to check and see if I'm up or not?" Harvey thought out loud, still confused as to why Kelly had come and knocked on his door.

After he had walked back to his room, he looked at the time. 'The car should be arriving in five minutes.'

Then, he looked at himself again in the mirror and walked out of the room, feeling satisfied.

Harvey made his way to the elevator hallway and pressed the button, waiting for the elevator to arrive. It was at then that someone appeared beside him. Turning to his flank, a flash of shock crossed his eyes.

"You're going out as well?" Harvey asked Kelly with his eyes widened.

"Yes." Kelly smiled, not saying much.

Harvey did not think much about it, as he simply remarked, "It sure has been really boring, just staying in the hotel for the past few days. It'll be great to go out for some fresh air."

There was a ding and the elevator door opened. Kelly gestured for Harvey to enter first. Then, the two of them descended to the lobby together.

Once they have walked out of the building, Harvey reminded Kelly, "Be careful when you're out there. Have fun!"

At that exact moment, a white SUV drove in slowly and pulled up in front of Harvey. The chauffeur came down, looked at Harvey and greeted him politely, "Are you Mr. Harvey Ellison?"

"I am," Harvey replied.

"I was sent by Miss Riddle to pick you up. Please get in the car." The driver quickly opened the door for Harvey.

Harvey was very satisfied with the driver's services. He felt that Nicole truly cared for him. Then, he got into the car and waited for the driver to close the door.

After waiting for quite a while, the door was still open. Harvey looked at the driver and found him chatting with Kelly, and so, he called out to him. "Mister, let's go."

The driver turned around and looked at Harvey. "Alright."

The driver closed the door for Harvey. Then, he brought Kelly to the other side of the car and opened the door for her, whereupon she got into the car.

Harvey stared with his eyes wide as Kelly got into the car. He then asked, ' Why are you getting in too?'

"Isn't this car arranged by Miss Riddle?" Seeing that Harvey was questioning her, she replied with one of her own.

"Yeah."

"Then, that's right."

"Mister, let's go," Kelly told the driver.

The driver started the car engine and drove to the lab where Nicole was.

As Harvey sat, he pondered about why Kelly was with him in the car as well as he kept staring at her.

Kelly, noticing that Harvey was eyeing her from her periphery, flashed a smile. 'Does Harvey have feelings for me?'

"Mr. Harvey, is there something on my face?" Kelly popped the question, unable to help herself any longer. Upon hearing that, Harvey realized that his actions had offended her, and so, he quickly explained, "Oh, there's nothing. I'm sorry, I was just curious."

"Curious about what?" Kelly tilted her head and looked at Harvey, unable to understand what he had meant.

"Just, why are you in the car with US now?" Harvey spilled the question he had been pondering about.

"Oh, so it was about that." Kelly said, feeling disappointed. 'I was in over my head, it seems.'

"Miss Riddle had asked me to help her out at the lab. As she had sent someone over to pick you up, she told me to hitch a ride with you," Kelly answered.
