Chapter 786

Henry was having a vicious thought, but the next second he saw Sebastian, he immediately smiled “Mr. Wyance, you are...” He questioned when he saw Sebastian coming with Martin

“It’s getting late So I don’t want to bother you and am leaving with my son”

Henry thought he could finally talk to Sebastian, but it turned out Sebastian was just coming to say goodbye.

He could only smile awkwardly “Okay, I’ll see you out.” He felt like a wuss, when people ignored him, he still had to see the father and son out, which upset him

“Let’s go.” After getting what he wanted, Mr Riddle Sr did not want to stay any longer and left, getting home to get a good rest “Okay Daniel helped him walk out, and Damien, not wanting to be left behind, hurried up to help, too.

Even if Dillon and his family wanted to stay and get to know some more powerful people, they dared not So they could leave

Snow and Raine had spent hours dressing up only to have Nicole stealing all the limelight After Nicole left, they did not even have a chance to stay So they felt miserable Since their parents were also leaving they did not dare to disobey Mr. Riddle Sr.

And just like that, the Riddle family had gone Lulu and June also left with Samuel and Spencer

Seeing the Riddle family and the other VIPs leave, the remaining small fries were also leaving as there was no one they could make up to. So the party was over

Only Gary was still looking at the soon-to-be-empty hall in a daze, pouring glass after glass of wine down his neck, more than he had drunk before he had seen Nicole get engaged. It was not until everyone left and Wayne dragged him away on the way back, he was still muttering Nicole's name Jack and Wayne looked at each other and sighed They could only say that Gary and Nicole met in the wrong place at the wrong time

The Johnston family's party had ended, and the only car left outside the mansion belonged to Chloe. She was now shouting into the phone. "What? You lost them? How could you lose them? Don't you know the drug is going to take effect immediately?"

Her poor assistant did not dare to argue but quickly apologized. "I'm sorry, Miss Riddle But I think they discovered i was telling them."

"Are you stupid or something? Can't you even carry out such a simple thing? I'm afraid that a third dog will run away with the bone." Chloe was about to explode, thinking that the only person with Jared now was Nicole She tried everything to get the drug, but now Nicole had run away with the prize. Chloe was really going crazy. Since her assistant had lost them, she had no chance to spend the night with Jared

"I don't want to see you again You're fired. Chloe hung up and threw away the phone in anger. She had painstakingly planned everything, but now her effort had gone down the drain. Jared is mine, even if you have slept with him I swear I will grob him back. She stared dead ahead with a vicious look in her eyes Everything Nicole enjoys today would be mine in the future I will not give up on Jured'

At this time, a mysterious black vehicle was speeding down a boulevard. Mox and Claus knew their places and did not follow

Jared and Nicole Jared was behind the wheel, and he started to feel something amiss about him and involuntarily loosened his bow tie

Nicole noticed his unusual condition and asked, 'Are you okay? You don't look very good
