Chapter 910

"I'm not here to fix computers either." Immediately after, Carl pushed the door open with force. White saw things go wrong and ran back inside.

But he could not outrun Carl and was caught by Carl just in a few steps.

Carl thought the hoodie man was just a hacker and could not fight, but to his surprise, this guy knew a thing or two about self defense.

He broke free of Carl's grasp, grabbed an object, and hurled it at Carl's head.

Carl dodged, kicked the weapon out of White's hand, and then reached out to grab him.

White parried, and the two men fought in the abandoned house.

Within a few rounds, White was on the back foot.

Carl hit him as if he was practicing with him, knocking him to the ground with a hard punch.

Then he tied White up and used extremely cruel means to extract information from White before setting the place on fire, and there was no more White in the world.

When Carl returned to his place of stay, he immediately contacted Nicole.

[White has been gotten rid of and all the information has been extracted.] Nicole was looking at her computer when she suddenly received a message from Carl.

She hurriedly clicked on it and was relieved to see the message.

Nicole immediately replied to Carl.

[Send the information to me and come back.]

[Okay.]

On the computer, the information coming from Carl was being received little by little.

In the afternoon, Nicole came to Jared's office.

Instead of going straight to see Jared, she went to the place where Chloe was shooting to have a look.

Chloe was in the studio shooting a commercial as usual.

"Is this okay now? I need to take a short break."

After just a few shots, Chloe wanted to take a break.

The director could not afford to offend Chloe but let her be.

"Everyone, adjust the camera. After Chloe has enough rest, the shooting continues." A while later, an assistant came to the lounge where Chloe was and asked, "Have you rested? Are you ready for the shooting?" Chloe gave her young assistant a look and reluctantly stood up.

"You guys get ready. I will be right over." The young assistant happily went to reply to the director.

After a while, Chloe came over and stood in front of the camera, showing products according to the director's instructions.

Nicole had her attention on the young assistant.

She asked Max to ask the young assistant out while Chloe was shooting

"Take it easy and sit down." Nicole looked at the young assistant, who was too timid to look at her.

"What is your name?"

"I'm Kelly. Kelly Henderson."

"Kelly, I heard you dropped out of school to earn money for your younger brother's medical bills, right?"

Nicole studied the young assistant.

"Yeah."

"So have you gotten enough money to pay for your brother's medical bills yet?"

"No, it's a long way to go." Nicole thought for a moment and said, "The company has a benefit of free financial support for employees in need this year. I see your situation meets the criteria. So I will send someone to take your brother to the best hospital for treatment, and the company will bear all the medical expenses."

Max stood by and gasped, wondering when the company had come up with such an employee benefit scheme.

But since Nicole had already said it, he could do nothing to stop her.

Kelly looked up at Nicole incredulously.

"Is everything you said true?"

"It is true. You can ask him if you don't believe me."

Nicole pointed to Max beside her; everyone in the company knew who Max was.

Kelly looked at Max. He nodded helplessly, not expecting him to have to play an accomplice too.

"Just now I saw you working diligently in the studio; is that actress always behaving affectedly?" Nicole spoke what Kelly did not dare to speak.

Kelly lowered her head and dared not say a word.

Nicole could easily see from her demeanor what she had been through.

“I see you are pretty smart too. Do you want to get out of the studio and get a higher post?” Kelly looked at Nicole with a glint of surprise in her eyes.
