Chapter 1 - Rebirth

Opening his eyes in confusion, feeling the wet and sticky feeling on his back, his clothes tightly against his back were uncomfortable, and Lu Yang's memory was fixed at the moment when he fell off the cliff.

“Is this death? It wasn't so horrible at first, but people always said that people who jumped from heights would fall like Shaqima, and don't know if they look like them now.” Lu Yang thought with a mockery.

Isn't it just death? Lu Yang calmly said that the enemies of his last life should be reported without any regrets, but why is there so much unwillingness in his heart.

Should I believe the wrong friend or should I confess my fate?

In 2040, the earth's industrial civilization has exploded. Machines have replaced most of the artificial labor force. In contrast, the population of the earth has reached an unprecedented 12 billion due to the improvement of medical care.

Unemployment, the widening gap between the rich and the poor, public grievances, and demonstrations have become synonymous with all countries.

In order to solve this problem, various countries have made various efforts together. One of them is the development of a 3D holographic simulation online game called “Second World” by nine most developed countries using high technology. Decades of global player dreams.

This game has only one server. All players around the world compete together here. More than 3 billion people have entered the game, making the game sought after by capital. When the official launch of the currency in the game and the real-time currency exchange function, It really did alleviate the pressure on some unemployed people.

Lu Yang was an ordinary worker family child. Taking advantage of the free time in college courses, he also entered the game in order to subsidize his family and became a studio goldsmith. However, Lu Yang did not think of himself as a small person. Even unexpectedly broke out of the hall, not only created a small 5,000-person guild, but also built a defensive fortress in the top monster area.

The top-level monster area also needs to run for half a day from the nearest main city. Lu Yang established this fortress and was immediately welcomed by all players. Buying medicines, repairing equipment, auction house transactions, and offline breaks can be carried out in the fortress.

Relying on this fortress, let 's not say that Jinjin fights for gold, even if it is Jinjinjin. By this time, Lu Yang has reached the most glorious moment in life. He thought that relying on this fortress can give his family and brothers Bring a better life, but Lu Yang did not expect that this was just an illusory dream.

On the third day of the establishment of the fortress, the president of the first guild in Huaxia District, who is also a real master of the Chinese Xia Super Giant, Liu Jie, visited with 300 members of the main team, and wanted to buy the fortress from Lu Yang.

Lu Yang naturally could not agree. The price given by Liu Jie was only 10% higher than the construction cost. It was calculated by taking Lu Yang as their labor. Besides, this fortress was the result of the joint efforts of 5,000 brothers. Lu Yang was elected as the boss to manage the fortress.

It represents the trust of the brothers in Lu Yang. If it is sold like this, how will Lu Yang face the brothers in the future.

After rejecting Liu Jie, Lu Yang was worried about the revenge of his opponent. Although his brothers had 60 three-turn masters, and he had the spirit of a demon, he did not fear the other person's crowd, but in order to prevent sneak attacks, Lu Yang and the three deputies of the union The chairman discussed and asked the three of them to guard the city 24 hours a day with 3 main teams in shifts.

After being nervous for a month, there was no movement at Liu Jie's side, which made Lu Yang gradually relax his vigilance.

As the so-called success also trusts and trusts, it is Lu Yang who completely believes in his close friends. On the third night after he lifted the alarm, the four-year college bunk brothers, also the main force of a group, MT Huang Xiang told Lu Yang, found a new boss in the top-level monster area, all three main groups in the guild need to be dispatched before they can be destroyed.

Lu Yang had no doubt about him, and immediately took three main groups led by Huang Xiang to a valley map. However, after arriving at the place, Lu Yang saw not the boss, but the president of the First Association of China. Jie's sneer face and his twelve main teams, 12 thousand top 200 members.

It was only then that Lu Yang realized that Liu Jie did not give up the idea of obtaining his fortress, but he changed his way and used his heavy money to make his men rebellious, leading himself to the map of the valley that could not escape, and released Unable to use the enchantment back to the city.

That night, Lu Yang and the three main groups in his hands were killed at least forty times in a row by the opponent using forced combat resurrection.

All the equipment of the 3,000 main team members were blown up and suffered heavy losses. The fortress was breached by Liu Jie's other six main team members.

In order to build this fortress, Lu Yang borrowed a lot of money from the bank. At the beginning, relying on the fortress and gang brothers, Lu Yang could easily repay these loans, but now the fortress is destroyed, and the main team members' equipment is gone. Lu Yang Having completely lost his ability to repay, in the face of huge debts and the desperate eyes of his brothers, Lu Yang chose to escape in panic and locked himself in the house all day to get drunk.

Lu Yang thought he would spend the rest of his life in such endless pain and struggle, but one thing completely awakened Lu Yang.

There are parents who retired only 10 years in order not to let Lu Yang spend the rest of his life in debt, resolutely decided to retire early in state-owned enterprises, go to the construction site every day to work hard to help Lu Yang make money to repay the debt.

But in less than half a year, his father was inexplicably injured by a heavy object on the construction site, and died before being rescued in the hospital. His father's death dealt a great blow to his mother. Soon after, the mother also died.

Within a short time, his parents died one after another, making Lu Yang anguish. He thought his father's death was an accident, but when he was brought down by Liu Jie's running dog Wang Teng, he was mocked to tell him that everything was directed by Liu Jie. When he was working, Lu Yang knew that Liu Jie didn't want to give him any chance to stand up.

When Wang Teng was about to kill Lu Yang, it was learned that Han Cheng, the comrade in arms of Lu Yang's parents, had arrived from a foreign country and happened to rescue Lu Yang and took him abroad.

For 5 years, Han Cheng taught Lu Yang to exercise and learn how to kill. After 5 years, Lu Yang became a well-known international mercenary "bloodfire" with a hatred, and brought a team of hires.

The soldier returned to China, spent a lot of money to buy Liu Jie's time home, and then Lu Yang ambushed at the door of his house. The moment Liu Jie entered the house, Liu Jie's head was shot.

At that moment, Lu Yang finally felt a little relief, and he wanted to continue to hunt and kill others who had killed him. He did not expect that Liu Jie's family would use all his powers to pursue him. Lu

Yang could only leave with the mercenary group temporarily. Unfortunately, Near the border, Lu Yang was discovered by the police and the Liu family's killer.

During the pursuit, Lu Yang took the police into the mountains to cover the injured brother and was eventually intercepted on a cliff.

In the face of police's persuasion, Lu Yang's mouth only sneered, and the revenge of this life has been reported. Lu Yang no longer has regrets and has no reason to live. He jumped off the cliff and chose to commit suicide.

However, the moment he jumped down, Lu Yang's eyes crossed, but it was a smiling face and eyes without a trace of impurities. If there was any regret, it was her.

She was a classmate of Lu Yang, named Shen Mengyao. She was so beautiful and so clean. At that time, Lu Yang was just an inconspicuous ordinary person in the school. Every smile she brought to Lu Yang Mo's encouragement. At that time, the two walked very close, but Shen Mengyao's family was prominent.

Lu Yang wanted to wait until he had the strength to confess, but unfortunately, Liu Jie did not give him that opportunity. Five years later, when Lu Yang returned, he asked about Shen Mengyao, but got Shen Mengyao to marry under the arrangement of his family Women, just, not happy.

Do n't be reconciled, if you do n't mistrust your friends

If I can have more development time

If I can become stronger

in case.....

in case.....

The resentment in his chest made Lu Yang reach out his hand and punched him on the wall nearby, and the intense pain instantly occupied the entire nervous system.

Lu Yang's eyes widened suddenly.

"Isn't I dead, why can't my arm move, why do I still have a nerve touch?"

Lu Yang hurriedly sat up to examine his body, and found that his body, which was supposed to have fallen into Shaqima's body, was still intact and without a trace of injuries. He touched his back, and the wet thing on his clothes was not blood or blood but he had just lay The sweat from the bed was sultry because of the weather.

Lu Yang was stunned. What is going on? He wasn't dead, but he lived intact? How is this possible? Even by 2050, I haven't heard that you can resurrect a smashed person intact. Even if there is, it is impossible to use it on yourself, and where is this?

Looking up, Lu Yang found himself sitting on a worn single bed at this time ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ A mosquito net covered the single bed strictly.

Opening the mosquito net, what I can see is an old wooden table that has not been used for many years.

There is a line on the wall above the table: Ru forget shame!

The moment I saw these four words, Lu Yang's scalp was numb all over his body during the Cold War. I thought in my heart that this was not the old house I lived in when I graduated from high school. The purpose was to motivate myself to take the college entrance examination, but Lu Yang clearly remembered that the words that his mother had renovated the house had been erased. Why did it appear again?

Some damaged plastic stools, a wooden dining table folded in the corner, and an old 42-inch TV were thrown away by myself to buy a new one. Why are you back in this room now? Is it inside, can it be done, and you have been born again?

Looking up at the clock, one minute before noon, Lu Yang turned on the TV with some confusion, and broadcast it to the central station.

Watching the female anchor in the afternoon news broadcast said, "Hello viewers, everyone, today is June 16, 2040, the seventh day of the fifth month of the Chinese calendar ..."

At this moment, Lu Yang's head exploded, and he rushed out of the house to the outside, looking at the main university building that had been relocated 5 years ago. At this time, he was still intact in the original place. Lu Yang could not bear it. The excitement of living in the heart hit him with a punch on the wall in front of the house, and angrily shouted in my heart: I am really born again.
