

Wild Fire 1281

Chapter 1281 - War ended early

Daniel is also frustrated. Among the abandoned fortresses, there are also his fortresses. He said: "We have lost, we must retreat."

The Shalulu Falls are captured, and the players of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood can continuously advance from there, attacking the Golden Rose fortress without any defense.

It has reached level 140. In the era when the curse and secondary curse are very popular, it is not a fortress with a defensive level of more than 50 million credit points, and it does not have any defense capabilities.

A wave of forbidden spells can kill all players in the fortress. This fortress is absolutely defensive, and even if it is to be defended, someone must be able to defend it. Only the 2 million players of the Indonesian Water Emperor Guild Downi, absolutely Impossible to defend Lu Yang's personal attack.

If troops are dispatched from the other five regions, including Liruma Mountain, and less than 500,000 people are transferred, Lu Yang must be defeated, with more than 500,000 people, and the battlefield in that area must collapse.

The battlefield was destroyed, that is, the entire line was defeated. In that case, more equipment was lost, and the morale of the player was even lower. Once the cyclical attack mode was formed by the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood, too much dark gold equipment at level 140 would be lost. The Brotherhood is fully capable of taking away all the fortresses of the Group of Eight within these three days.

Galgar's face was unwilling and helpless. If he was defeated, he could lose, but he lost at a point that Galgar considered to be the most powerful, and was defeated by Lu Yang with stronger means. This led to the overall defeat, which made him extremely depressed.

"Damn, I'll go to Alfonso. The * can't wait." Galga scolded.

Daniel sighed and said, "I'll contact several other presidents and investors to prepare for withdrawal."

Galgar nodded and called Alfonso's phone.

"You still have to ask me." Alfonso smiled and pressed the connection button, and he said to Galga, "Agree with my request?"

Gelgar snorted and said, "What do I agree with you?"

"Of course the equipment exchange fortress?" Alfonso said proudly: "One million sets of 140-level dark gold exchange for these three fortresses, although you lose a little, but now you should be profitable, otherwise you will be completely destroyed by Lu Yang. "

Gelgar sneered and said, "I think of you, I will give you these three forts and stand in front of Lu Yang for you and give you enough time to prepare. Then you and Lu Yang will divide up my fortress. is not it."

Alfonso was hearted by Gerga, but he didn't show it at all. He smiled and said, "Well, I'm not the kind of person who has fallen down the ground. There are so many areas that can be attacked around. Why do I have to be peaceful? You are competing with Lu Yang. With the exit of Bingchencheng, I will naturally go to trouble others. "

Gelgar sneered again, saying, "This transaction is impossible, and I will never agree."

Alfonso frowned, and asked, "What do you mean by calling me?"

Gelga said: "I'll give you a condition, look at it like this, I give you the three cities of ice marks, purple lilies, agave, not only that, I also give you the eagle fortress and obsidian to die, you give I have 1.5 million 140-level dark gold suits. "

Alfonso screamed as if he was stepping on his tail. "Impossible, you want me to carry Lu Yang for you. Are you stupid?"

Gelgar laughed and said, "Okay, you can disagree. I'll tell Lu Yang now and give him all 13 fortresses in the Purple Lily line for free, and let Lu Yang stay at your intersection, I don't believe that Lu Yang will not agree to this request."

The three cities of Purple Lily are the only exit from the eastern mountainous area to the central region. If the three fortresses fall into Lu Yang's hands, how can Alfonso not believe that Lu Yang will give him so that he can attack Lu Yang casually, think No need to think, it must be Lu Yang staying in the three cities of the Purple Lily. He Alfonso continued to be trapped in the small map of the eastern mountain area.

"Gelgar, you're lacking in virtue." Alfonso cursed.

Gelgar said with a sneer: "Thanks for the praise, make your choice now. I don't have much time. I'm going to retreat. Whether you can get these forts in time depends on your own speed and ideas."

Alfonso bowed his head and thought for a long time, then turned around and asked the first vice president, Villa, "What should I do?"

Villa said: "Promise, sooner or later, there will be a battle with Lu Yang, and now it is the best time to form an alliance with the G8."

Alfonso thought for a while and said, "Also, sooner or later, we have to compete with Lu Yang, why care so much."

He called out to Galga and said, "I'm carrying 5 million people now in the forest outside the Purple Lily Fortress, and asking your people to open the gates, I will equip you, and you will give the main city."

Gelgar said with a smile, "OK."

He hung up the phone and said to the presidents who were projecting around him, "Alfonso agreed to give us 1.5 million sets of 140-level dark gold sets. The 13 fortresses, from Gecheng to Obsidian, and from ice marks to eagles, are fortified from the pink fortress to the Komodo fortress. "

This is the plan they had pre-set. The G8 map was reduced by one-fifth as a whole, and all low-value fortresses were abandoned. Only fifty fortresses, including the pink fortress to Komodo fortress, were kept.

In this way, although the map laughed, there was a new defensive belt. From this new defensive belt to the fortresses such as Lalbagh City, there was a straight line of 8 hours.

At the same time, it is also 8 hours away from Purple Lily City, while Obsidian City is only 4 hours away from Crescent City, which means that Alfonso will be closer to Lu Yang by 4 hours in the future.

In order to fight, it is also Lu Yang's battle with Alfonso. The Group of Eight has a respite and no longer needs to bear Lu Yang's main attack.

Daniel, Kerim, Downey and others have no opinions. Even investors such as Ronnie and Hiarelli have no opinions. Facing such a situation, they all know that retreat is the best choice.

Golden Rose City.

With 100,000 bloodwolf guards rushed to the city in half an hour with pride, when they thought there was a * battle, they looked at the city head blankly.

"Strange, how can there be no defensive player on the city wall?" Wanqing said, scratching his head.

"Not only is there not a city head, there are no traps below the city, and there are no hidden assassins around, that's wrong," said the deputy.

"Come to 100 wolves and look up." Said with pride.

“Earthquake”

200 earth dragons connected the ground and the top of the city wall into a line with a width of 60 meters. The deputy easily led people to the city. Seeing the situation in the city, he quickly shouted to the pride: “Boss Come on up. “

The enthusiastic rushed up the city wall, and everything that could be sold inside the city wall was sold. He called Lu Yang and said, “Boss, the enemy gave up the Golden Rose City, there was no one in the city, and everything was sold. “

Lu Yang was leading a large army behind him for half an hour. He frowned and said, “It’s not right. The G8 should not give up the Golden Rose City. This fortress is too important. This is our base for attacking them.”

At this time, Bai Shi, Zhou Tianming, Tian Yao and other vice presidents also sent news at the same time.

“Boss, the enemy retreated from Liruma.”

“Boss, the enemy retreated from Silent Hill.”

“Boss, the enemy withdrew from the Lingshui River. Is it chasing?”

For five consecutive news, Lu Yang was surprised and didn't know what to say. Obviously, withdrawing from these 5 places, the G8 is equivalent to giving up the five fortresses of Heavenly Soul, Blackwater, Sanctuary and Crescent Moon. That is to say, the five strongholds were given to them by hand.

“What's the idea for Gerga.” Lu Yang couldn't figure it out. He said, “The whole army presses down and occupy the five fortresses. After the occupation, we will discuss it.”

Now Lu Yang feels like a fight between two boxers. One of them has accumulated a lot of punches for a long time, but the other has actively confessed to lose at a critical moment, leaving Lu Yang nowhere to fight.

This game is not a random fight, especially the attack of thousands of people. There is no planned random attack. The biggest possibility is defeat. Lu Yang has not thought of defeating Lalbag behind the Sky Soul Fortress in this week. Wait for 5 forts.

“Tu Feng, ordered the spies to spy on the news. I want to know the details of the G8.” Lu Yang said in a message.

“Yes.” Tu Feng immediately started the spy.

Soon, the news came to Lu Yang, and the Group of Eight didn't even want the fortress from Ralbagh to Obsidian, and retreated to the pink fortress and Komodo fortress, which was 8 hours away from him. Defense belts were set up outside the five forts.

At the same time, another news also made Lu Yang's helpless wry smile on his face. Alfonso got the three cities of Purple Lily. Not only that, they also got the Eagle City. They did not go forward to occupy Obsidian Stone City. It's a defensive formation outside Eagle City.

[World Channel] Galga: I announce that starting today, the Group of Eight and the Spanish League of Kings will form an alliance.

After three consecutive times, Alfonso also sent three similar messages in succession, proving that the two had formed an alliance and that two of them had joined forces to attack Lu Yang's posture.

The main palace of the Golden Rose City.

Tu Feng said, "Boss, we have just received the exact news, which is very bad for us."

"Say." Lu Yang said.

Tu Feng said, "Alfonso was able to come out of the eastern mountainous area, and was exchanged for 1.5 million sets of 140 dark gold sets. Now, there are 4 million sets of 140 level dark gold sets in the hands of the Group of Eight and Alfonso. , Which is roughly equivalent to ours, and the number of 130 players is twice that of ours. "

Xia Yuwei frowned and said, "This Alfonso is too jerk. He said that he wanted to ally with us, but took this opportunity to blackmail Galga. The war between us and the Group of Eight, the ultimate beneficiary became Alfonso.

"Boss, do you want me to test Alfonso." Asked bitterly for half a life.

Tu Feng said, "Don't worry about the attack first, there is still a troublesome thing. All ordinary players in the G8 have withdrawn with the G8. Now the 11 fortresses we got are all empty cities, that is, No taxes are collected here. "

If there is not a large number of ordinary players in a fortress, there is no reason for the existence of this fortress. The Brotherhood of Iron and Blood has killed 10 fortresses of the Group of Eight, but the ordinary players have been removed. It's a bit frustrating.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "This is the end of the war, and everyone is set up outside the four fortresses of Lalbagh, Lembongan, gold mines and obsidian."

“Yes,” said White Lion and others.

“Dididi”

Lu Yang’s speaker rang, he took it for a look, smiled, and said, “Alfonso has come to me and I will meet him.”

The light shone, and he entered the special space opened by Alfonso. At this time, not only Alfonso was in the room, but also Gherga and Daniel from the Group of Eight.

Lu Yang ignored Galga and others, and said to Alfonso with a smile: “You can’t do things in a way that is all right. You made an alliance with me to fight the G8. With no effort, I got their 4 fortresses. I’m so wasteful Strength, only 11 empty cities. “,

Alfonso smiled and went to Lu Yang and said, “Isn’t it all a trade? You see, you won’t win too. Why don’t we have a truce in the near future? This war is too expensive to fight, no Right. “

Lu Yang asked: “Are you talking about peace on behalf of Galgar?”

“Of course.” Alfonso raised his voice. He pointed at Galga and others with his fingers. “I, as the mediator, hope that you and the two of you won’t fight. Galga, they agree. Now it’s up to you, brother, to sell. How am I looking? “

Lu Yang looked at Alfonso. He really didn’t want to sell this face. Although the battle plan tonight stopped, but Alfonso was stopped here, he had to stop if he didn’t want to stop. After all, with two of the same level The guild will never win.

“Well, now that you have come forward, I will give you this face. From now on, I will no longer launch an attack on the G8. They will also need to acknowledge the area I occupy now.” Lu Yang said.

Gherga gritted his teeth and said, "Yes, we accept this condition."

In the hearts of the presidents such as him and Daniel, they have decided that when they have collected enough 140-level dark gold suits, they will launch a counterattack against the Brotherhood of Iron Blood, and will definitely not allow the Brotherhood of Iron Blood to occupy them and spend money on it. Fortress.

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders and said, "Since that's the case, then I'm leaving."

The light flashed, Lu Yang left the special space and returned to the Golden Rose City. At this time, White Lion and Xia Yuwei and others have taken players to the fortresses such as the City of Gold Mine and Blue Dream City.

Lu Yang told them the results of the meeting and said, "You defend here first, and the 500,000 queen of the lovely queen will follow me to the Sky Sword Fortress."

Everyone was excited.

"Boss, do you want to attack Chiefs Fort?" Asked bitterly for half a life.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "Liu Jie must have never imagined that we have ended the war in this way. It is estimated that the Gods Cavalry Regiment and Liu Jie are fighting with each other. I accepted their Chieftain Fortress, which is just right."

The Chieftain's fortress has a special geographical location. Once it is occupied, part of the fortresses of the Cavalry Regiment and Liu Jie Guild are under his surveillance. No matter how the two sides fight, once he sends troops, one of them will be unlucky.

"Yes, I'll call the brothers together." The cute queen said excitedly.

Chapter 1282 - Frightened Cavalry Regiment

Here, the Brotherhood of Iron Blood is actively preparing for war again, but the Internet has exploded. Everyone thinks that Brotherhood of Iron Blood and the Group of Eight will fight for six days in a row in Liruma, and they are ready to see it. The Brotherhood of the Jagged Brothers slammed the G8, or the Group of Eight resisted the pressure and counterattacked the Brotherhood of the Brotherhood to regain lost ground.

At this time, all players were extremely excited. According to their predictions, the G8 must fight back and fight against the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood in Golden Rose City for several days. However, the G8 not only retreated across the board, but also gave up one fifth. The territory, meanwhile, released Spain, which was crushed in the eastern mountains.

The battle between the two powers turned into a confrontation among the top three. At this point, the situation of the war has become extremely weird. After watching this war, May 1 does not applaud the attack ability of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood. At the same time, they are more of a group of eight. The retreat and release of the Spanish Guild applauded.

“I really can't wait to know the development direction of the three strongest guilds in the future. There are more intrigues and tricks in the future. Audience friends, you can eat melon almost every day, haha.”

The anchors of the major live broadcast platforms have issued such sighs. Obviously, even laymen can see that when two people fight, one of them wins, but three people fight, and whoever wins is not necessarily.

In the World Channel in the game, players are also applauding the three parties' strategy, especially Alfonso's strategy, once replaced the coveted nature insurance with equipment, Spanish players even excitedly shouted that Alfonso actively attacked Lu Yang .

As it happens, the 5 million players under Alfonso set up a defensive formation in a critical position half an hour away from Eagle City.

The Group of Eight countries put up a defensive formation on the front lines of the Pink Fortress and Komodo Fortress. The two guilds that reached the alliance are confronting Lu Yang. Although it is a defensive formation, it can be turned into an attack formation or even sneak attack at night, but it is only half Anything can happen at night.

Outside a main city in the northern part of the New World, Liu Jie is personally taking dead grass and 2 million players to fight against the North African Tolomi Guild in the Cavalry Regiment.

Liu Jie caught the pain of the Cavalry Regiment. In this war, only France and Germany were powerful in the Cavalry Regiment.

For example, Yue Taishan came up with a soldier's method of combat, which was to intertwine around France and Germany, not to face the two countries directly, and to get enough time for Liu Jie.

For seven days in a row, Tolomit was in pain, and there were more than 50 fortresses. Almost half of them were breached by Liu Jie, but France and Germany could not support it at all.

The most important reason why Liu Jie was able to fight so happily was that Lu Yang fought with the Group of Eight and had no time to take care of the war to the west of the Emirates Fortress.

However, now that Lu Yang's war with the Group of Eight is being stopped by Spain's Alfonso, the three parties have entered a state of stalemate, which worries Liu Jie, who is fighting right.

"Should we stop the attack?" Liu Jie asked, looking at the dead grass.

The dead grass pinched his chin and said, "I'm also hesitant. The war between Lu Yang and Gerga and Alfonso will definitely stop. Now neither side has the ability to continue fighting with Lu Yang. I recommend that the army temporarily withdraw. go with."

Liu Jie reluctantly said, "Give me another half a day, I will be able to turn the Tolomit Guild into a liability business. It's a pity."

The dead grass said: "We must be careful that Lu Yang sneaks into the Chiefs Fortress. Once he now raises his forces to attack the Chiefs Fortress, the Cavalry Regiment can't help it. Now we must be ready to reconcile with the Cavalry Regiment, or Lu Yang We will take advantage of the war on our sides and profit from it. "

After three years, all the things the dead grass knows about this game, and now the dead grass has finally become the dreaded ingenuity of the last generation. He can easily analyze the next step of Lu Yang with the knowledge of the game. strategy.

Indeed, Lu Yang's next move is to play the Chiefs fortress, and he made no mistakes in his calculations.

Liu Jie frowned and asked, "Just after finishing the fight with the G8, and Spain is always ready beside it. Does Lu Yang dare to add another enemy of the Cavalry Regiment at this time?"

The dead grass said with a smile: "Trust me, Lu Yang must dare to do this. This is the conclusion I have drawn from studying him for three years."

Liu Jie is still unwilling. As long as he fights for a long time, he can earn hundreds of millions of credits. Cadafi and Tolomi are like Liu Jie's vault. They can withdraw cash at will. He is really Could not bear.

"Dididi"

Liu Jie's talker rang. He picked it up and looked like Yue Taishan called it. He pressed the talker and asked, "What happened?"

For example, Yue Taishan said in a steady voice: "Jie Shao, the war cannot continue. I suspect Lu Yang is going to attack the Chiefs fortress. I suggest letting the cavalry regiment take a breath and let them re-send the defense of the Chiefs."

Before the earliest time, the Chiefs Fortress had a total of 1.6 million defensive players. The four presidents of the Cavalry Regiment each sent out 400,000 for defense. After more than a week of war, Cadafi and Toreme added to A total of 800,000 people have withdrawn from the Emirates Fortress.

France and Germany also withdrew 200,000 each. Only 400,000 people were defending the entire Chiefs Fortress. This number made Ru Taishan feel impossible to stop Lu Yang's charge.

Liu Jie said in surprise: "Are you also worried that Lu Yang will attack Chiefs Fortress?"

Ru Yue Taishan said with a smile: "You and counted dead grass have this feeling, I bet, Lu Yang will surely attack the Chiefs fortress. When he cannot move south, it is easiest for him to grab this fortress. He This opportunity will never be missed. "

Liu Jie had indeed doubted that, nowadays, with the exact answers of the dead grass and Ru Yuetaishan, he knows what to do.

"Well, then all troops will be withdrawn, and we will retreat to the northern region." Liu Jie said lightly.

Counting dead grass happy, said: "Boss, can't just retreat like this, we have to do something before we leave."

"Oh! What is it?" Liu Jie was happy, and he knew he had a good idea for dead grass.

The dead grass laughed and said, "Through this war, Tolemy and Cadafi will definitely recognize what France and Germany are. Look at my serial attack to help you solve the crowd This cavalry of the Cavalry Regiment. "

"Okay." Liu Jie sighed and said, "How much money you need to withdraw at will, as long as you can win the Cavalry Regiment."

“Thank you, Jie, and I don’t trust you.”

Liu Jie said, “Would you like to remind the Cavalry of the Gods and let them defend Lu Yang well?”

The dead grass said: “Of course.”

“Haha, let’s go now. I shouted on the World Channel to let Lu Yang feel the taste of being seen through.”
Liu Jie said proudly.

[World Channel] Liu Jie: From now on, my Northern Army will end the expedition to the Cavalry Regiment. The Cavalry Regiment has noticed. Lu Yang is going to attack the Chiefs Fortress. We are leaving.

Three times in a row, in the forest outside the Swan Fortress, Steige, who was pursuing Yue Taishan, ordered the 300,000 players who followed him to stop.

Chapter 1283 - Postwar reward

The lieutenant around him asked: “Boss, there are news from everywhere, Liu Jie’s African legion is retreating across the line. It seems that Lu Yang is really possible to come. Should we defend the Chiefs Fortress?”

Steiger pondered for a long time. He opened a special space and called the three members of Toremé, Cadafi and Renault together.

“What do you think?” Steiger asked.

Renault said: “You have to defend, you can’t let Lu Yang occupy the Chiefs fortress. In that case, we will be troublesome in the future.”

“My opinion is also defensive,” Steiger said.

Toremé gave a mocking look at both of them and said angrily: “Should I discuss my loss before talking about defense.”

According to the previous contract, the damage of all the guilds in the Cavalry Regiment was evenly distributed among four people. This game suffered a heavy loss of Le Mi, and she was full of disappointment and anger at Steiger and Renault.

Steiger understood Tolemý’s anger and said: “Rest assured, I said that if you share your losses equally, you will surely share them equally. I believe the other two are the same.”

Renault said, “Me too.”

Gaddafi said, “Me too.”

Tolemý calmed down and said, “Do n’t bother to agree, you know, I lost hundreds of millions of dollars in this war. This is not a small number, you can think about it.”

Steige, Renault, and Cadafi all have a serious face, but the three nodded together.

“Rest assured, not only will I help you share the losses, after this time, Renault and I will help you and Gadafi to train your men. Next time, Liu Jie will lose.” Steiger said.

Renault nodded and said, "That's it."

Ptolemy looked at Steiger and Renault in surprise. She thought that today is the day when she withdrew from the Cavalry Regiment. With such a huge loss, the two will never agree, and I am afraid that Cadafi will not do this. They gave indiscriminately, but all three agreed, especially Steige and Renault, who had little money, and they agreed.

"Thank you," Tolomit said seriously to the three.

Steiger smiled and said, "We are a group, this is what we should do. Now let's discuss it, whether the Chiefs Fortress should be defended."

Renault said: "My suggestion is to give Lu Yang, Lu Yang and Liu Jie vengeance. When the situation in the south cannot be opened, we will definitely turn the target to Liu Jie. We can use Luyang to hate Liu Jie, and He cooperates. "

Gadafi shook his head and said, "I don't recommend this. If Lu Yang occupied the Chiefs Fortress, both sides are the strongest guilds. I suspect that both sides will destroy us before the war starts, so as not to play collusion on both sides. Trick. "

The Gods Cavalry Regiment lost, North African and Saudi players' large-scale combat strength was very poor. Once Lu Yang occupied the Chiefs Fortress, facing the two strong guilds of Lu Yang and Liu Jie, the Gods Cavalry Regiment might be defeated Extremely sexual.

Steige, Renault, and Ptolemy couldn't help thinking about it. After a long time, the three eyes gradually became firm.

"Then stay at the Chieftain's fortress. If you have no choice but to let Lu Yang come in," Steiger said.

"Boss enemy's reinforcements arrived." Vulcan M16 reported.

Lu Yang looked at the light shining from the fortress opposite and sighed, "Liu Jie and the dead grass have grown, and it is getting harder and harder to deal with."

Zhuo Jiu said unwillingly, "The cavalry regiments of the gods are not very capable now. If we make a hard attack, for a maximum of two days, we will be able to lay the chief fortress."

Lu Yang shook his head and said, "It's not appropriate. Let the cavalry regiments continue to guard the Chieftain's fortress. Let's stop the attack and take a rest. Let me call the other vice presidents for me."

Zhuojiu wanted to say more, but bowed his head and responded, and took out the phone to notify them one by one.

Lu Yang returned to the conference room of the city's main government building. 34 people have gathered. When they saw Lu Yang coming, they stood up and bowed, admiringly, "Boss."

Lu Yang motioned to all of them to sit down and said, "Everyone in this war performed very well. We achieved the staged victory over the G8 battle and laid down their 11 main cities. Everyone has credit. I will On merit rewards. "

Bai Shi and Xia Yuwei and other vice presidents all showed happy expressions, but everyone's face was still not reconciled.

"Boss, are we really not going to fight? How about trying to lay the Chiefs Fortress?" Asked the cute queen.

"Yeah, after we fight, we will be able to compete directly with Liu Jie." Liquor Qingfeng said.

Tu Feng said: "Boss, this time Liu Jie and the dead grass analyzed our analysis very thoroughly. I just studied Liu Jie's tactics and played very beautifully, even more beautiful than our battle. , I suggest that our end point in the next battle needs to be transferred to Liu Jie. His African legion has grown too fast.

“

Part of the circuitous, part of the onslaught of the opponent's weak parts, this approach is not difficult, it is difficult to conduct the circuitous side with Germany's Steiger and France's Renault two of the world's strongest legions of detours, but Yue Taishan Under the circumstances of extremely low losses, the two people who were restrained could not move. Even if they were not convinced by the turbid wine and the white lion, they had to admire the beautifulness of Yue Taishan.

“This Ruyi Taishan seems to be growing up, I really want to compete with him.” Said bitterly love for a long time.

Zhuoju and Tianyao all showed excited eyes. Obviously, everyone wanted to fight the chief fortress.

Lu Yang smiled and spread his hands, saying: “It is impossible to fight for the time being. If you want to start a war against the Chiefs Fortress, you are likely to fall into a quagmire. The money is too much, and the Iron Brotherhood may not be able to afford it.

Xia Yuwei asked in surprise: “Boss, how much did we spend in this war?”

Lu Yang said with a smile: “Guess.”

“How many billions?” Asked bitter love for a long time.

“No more than 600 million,” said the lovely queen.

Lu Yang said with a smile: “So far, a total of 1.9 billion yuan has been spent, and the follow-up players' war compensation fees and guild points exchange costs, at least 1 billion yuan.”

White Lion: “...”

Xia Yuwei: "..."

All the deputy chairmen were shocked. Only 11 fortresses were laid, which cost 2.9 billion yuan. They knew in the usual wars that at most one battle was only 300 million yuan.

"Why is it so expensive?" Bitter Love asked blinking for half a lifetime.

Lu Yang said, "Unexpectedly, this is the cost of fighting a ten-million-level war. This is the cost of a head-to-head battle with a top guild such as the Group of Eight. We are pretty good. The Group of Eight spends more."

Different from the previous Tianlong, Kerim and others, this time facing the Group of Eight, each battle fought by the Jagged Brothers is a head-on battle, a head-to-head battle with the other side, and being able to win is already Lu Yang crossing The superiority played a huge role. If both sides are the same equipment, not to mention whether the two sides can separate the winner and loser, I am afraid that they will be overwhelmed by the war funding before the winners and losers are separated.

The reason why Lu Yang dared to conclude that the Group of Eight did not dare to fight again was because of the crisis of their guild funds.

"You do n't know, the average number of deaths of each player in this war is more than 30, and many people have lost more than 3 levels. The real cost is every time they die." Tu Feng will present The collected data was projected on the desktop.

To wage this kind of war at the level of ten million people, the really expensive places are cooking, mixture, state scrolls, and potions. These four most inconspicuous things, they are the most expensive things in each war.

Once dead, these four buffs will disappear, you want to have these four things again, you need to use them again.

The unit price of these four things is not expensive, a group of 30 140-level dark gold cooking, but 1 silver coin, only 3 yuan, but the real-time statistics of Tu Feng's side, but let Lu Yang see all Distressed.

During this two-week battle of tens of millions of people, the number of cooking consumed by the Jagged Brotherhood was more than 3 billion sets. That is to say, for the cooking alone, the Jagged Brotherhood spent 900 million credits.

The price of the mixture is 30 copper coins per bottle. The Iron Brotherhood has spent more than 2 billion bottles, as well as potions and scrolls ...

Zhou Tianming said with a sigh: "Fortunately, the boss is a family member, changing people, even with this courage, there is not so much money to fight."

Originally, Zhou Tianming thought that if he established a guild alone, although it may not be stronger than Lu Yang, it will not be much worse. But today he saw the cost of the war to such a degree that he knew that he would lose. .

The idea of Tianyao and Liangyun is the same. The cost of a war in a game has become so huge. This is something that neither of them can afford, nor is their understanding of this game imaginable.

"Boss, aren't we running out of money?" Said bitter love for a long time.

Lu Yang said: "This is not the case. The guild's cash flow is still about 3 billion. According to the fort income in the game, it can also support us to fight another level of war. But within this year, the G8 will not They will think that they are going to war with us, they can't afford it. "

Everyone laughed. Originally they thought the guild had sufficient cash flow. Now they heard that the remaining money can only fight one war, which made their hearts wave.

"Boss, what should we do after that, although we occupy the 11 fortresses of the G8, but these fortresses are almost empty and can not bring us benefits. On the other hand, defending these fortresses requires a lot of investment." Zhou Tianming said.

Lu Yang said: "You don't understand. Until now, you haven't figured out why the boss is so anxious to expand."

Everyone couldn't help but open their eyes wide and looked at Lu Yang. If it was said that Pu Renyi and Tianlong had been eliminated in order to have a good living space, then rushing out of this area to attack the sky and the Group of Eight is completely invincible and unreadable. Lu Yang's approach, they wanted to ask before, but did not dare to ask.

"Boss, why?" The cute queen asked curiously.

Lu Yang laughed without saying a word. He looked at the time. At this time, the time was fixed at 2 am. At the US headquarters, the time now is exactly 2 pm.

[System Announcement]: Global announcement, starting tomorrow, the server will open a new expansion pack-"Second Homeland", which will be suspended worldwide for one day.

Three consecutive announcements were swiped on the channel interface with golden fonts. For a while, people like Baishi and Zhuojia turned their attention to this announcement.

"There are new expansions again, the official update speed is quite fast."

"Well, it's only the last two hours from the customs service, and nothing can be done."

Everyone talked.

Lu Yang said: "The last two hours are very important. Order all players of the Jagged Brotherhood to enter the fortress we have and stand by without any accident."

Many unethical players and guilds may sneak attack on the fortress while the guild is lazy, and then gain benefits. Once they are successfully attacked by the guild, the guild will lose a lot. These are the lessons of the previous life.

“Yes.” They gave orders immediately.

Hundreds of fortresses in the Jagged Brothers Alliance continued to shine, and tens of millions of Jagged Brothers players entered the fortresses controlled by the vice presidents in an orderly manner.

“Wow ha ha, brother, we have met again. Thank you for blocking me for the war just now, otherwise I will fall to level 139 now, thank you so much.”

“Haha, it should be a guild.”

“Add a friend, add a friend, and upgrade together later. I am an ice mage and call me on call.”

Tens of millions of players gathered in groups and chatted in groups. This time, they do n’t need to defend the fortress and stand guard according to the guild rules. A group of people squatted in one place or sat in one place. Laughing and chatting.

Under the night.

The brothers who won the war share their war experience. Even if it is late in the middle of the night, none of them said they would go to sleep, because they are the most powerful and victorious iron blood brother alliance players.

Among the many players, an orc player is sitting comfortably at the wall with his body leaning on the tower behind. Here he can not only watch the situation outside the city, but also enjoy the magnificent scenery in the game.

The bright moon falls, and the dark night gradually glows with white fish belly, the dark earth gradually reveals light, and the mountains, rivers and beasts in the distance make up the magnificent scenery in the game.

In the black and white time, the orc player resisted the excitement and called with a small voice: "Brother, my brother did not live up to your expectations, it was beautiful."

At the other end of the phone, a man sitting on the toilet bowl glanced at the darkness in the room, squeezing his voice, and said excitedly, "Good job, I didn't embarrass our army. I didn't miss you, haha, It's beautiful. "

The orc player listened to this voice. He should have been happy, he should have jumped up and shouted in excitement, but now he has an inexplicable mood to cry.

"Brother, but you're not around, I can't bring up this joy," said the orc player.

"Hey, there's something here, you are here, our army is still there, and it will never disappear. This proves that we have played this game together, and have really worked hard together." A man looks like you are everything.

He went on to say: "You shouldn't be sad, brother, I feel you are well developed this time, our bosses have opened the way for you in person to protect your wings. Now that the war is over, I bet you can join the war studio , Boss Luyang will not treat you badly. "

The orc player grinned, but his lips were trembling, saying, "Who knows, it is said that the boss of such a grand guild cannot take care of the players below, even if I have high credit, I may give a cannon fodder. The regimental commander may also enter the war studio and never think about it. "

The man smiled and relieved: "Don't think about it that much, it is expected that there will be news in the next few days. Brother believes that you will succeed."

“Hey, it came out.” The man said quickly, he covered his mouth and said on the phone: “Can’t talk, I’ll call you tomorrow.”

“Oh, bronchitis,” said the orc player.

“My name is Wife Pain.” The man boss hung up.

It wasn’t anyone else sitting on the tower. It was the leader of the cannon fodder, Liu Ruohuai, who shined in the hills at dusk during the G8 war. After the war he called him the first time. Brother of the Legion called.

But it’s 2 AM, the man’s wife and daughter are sleeping, the daughter is going to school tomorrow morning, the wife is going to work, he is going to work, and his wife is going to cook early tomorrow morning, packing clothes and school bags for the child ...

“Time, why can’t you go so fast, you can’t give us more time.” Liu Ruohuai said sadly.

Now he has no one to chat with. All the brothers of the cannon fodder like him are now calling the brothers of the original legion. He ended the call first and can only sit still.

“Why are you sitting here alone?” For half a lifetime, bitter love didn’t know when he reached Liu Ruohuai’s side.

“Boss, you, why are you here?” Liu Ruohuai quickly stood up and asked in surprise, blinking.

“I just happened to come over and ask you something. If the boss of Lu Yang invited to join the war studio, you promised not to.”

Chapter 1284 - Glory

“I didn’t hear clearly? Then I didn’t say it.”

Liu Ruohuai quickly responded and said, “Boss, I heard clearly. Boss Lu Yang invited me to join the war studio of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood, right, I promise, I promise.”

He loved half a life and laughed, and said, “Tomorrow I will come to the East China Sea by plane. I will pick you up at the airport in person. Your boy did a great job this time. I have a big face for the boss. I will cover you later. I.”

It’s really happy to love half a life. This war was because of Liu Ruohuai’s Orc Warrior Army Corps. This cannon fodder defeated more than 20 legions of opponents with 10,000 troops, that is, more than 200,000 people. Meet in person at the airport.

“Thank you, boss.” Liu Ruohuai was a little excited and didn’t know what to say. He was so helpless that he wanted to tell his brother and brothers about it immediately.

“Having your orc warriors under your control, like you, they are also eligible to enter the war studio, and I announce the good news to them.”

The news spread quickly, and the players of the Orc Warrior Legion were extremely excited. They were the remaining players in each cannon fodder legion. They were able to make such achievements in this battle. They did not expect to directly join the war work. From now on, they will have the best treatment such as fixed wages, welfare housing, etc. Finally, they have a dream.

The orc players are excited on this side, but on the other side, the shaman army, which has made great achievements like the orc warriors, is a little frowning.

Ramparts.

The head of the army, Wan Zhonghui, the deputy head of the army, Lu Peng, and Tang Feiqi sat together in pain. On the battlefield of Lingshuihe, after all, they could not break through the battle line formed by the millions of players newly added by the enemy to reach the enemy line. the goal of.

“Boss Lu Yang must have been disappointed in us.” Lu Peng said, covering his face.

“Brothers can’t raise their heads to be human again, I really regret it. If the command was better, if they turned to flanking, the whole army would not be overwhelmed.” Wan Zhonghui said with his head in his head.

Tang Feiqi smiled bitterly and didn’t want to say a word. The three now want to wait for the game to end and go out for a drink.

“Seriously, two big brothers, I want to quit the war studio.” Lu Peng said suddenly.

Wan Zhonghui’s eyes widened and asked, “Why back? What can you do if you quit?”

Lu Peng said with a sorrowful smile: “I can only play games, what else can I do, maybe I will be an anchor, but it is estimated that the viewers will be scolded to death, who made us carry stigma.”

Wan Zhonghui leaned on Lu Peng’s shoulder and said, “Brother, don’t have this idea, listen to me ...”

Before he finished speaking, Tian Yao hiding behind knew that he had to come out, and he coughed intentionally.

“Keke”

The three Wan Zhonghui turned their heads and found that it was the boss Tian Yao. He quickly stood up with a flustered expression on his face, especially Wan Zhonghui and Tang Feiqi. The two were afraid that Tian Yao heard Lu Peng’s words, but instead Lu Peng, the expression of grief no more than heartache, is no longer important.

“Boss, why are you here?” Wan Zhonghui asked in surprise.

Tian Yao knew that this matter could not tease the three of them anymore, and said with a smile: “Good thing, go to the boss’s office at 9 tomorrow morning to report.”

“Boss’s office.” Wan Zhonghui blinked and said, “Isn’t that on the 33rd floor? We can’t go up.”

Tian Yao smiled and said, “It’s pretty flexible, knowing that not everyone can go up.”

Wan Zhonghui, Lu Peng, and Tang Feiqi all had a flame of hope in their chests that were about to die, but the three of them couldn’t be sure, all staring at Tianyao.

“The three of you are well developed. The boss forgave you for your previous mistakes. From tomorrow on, all treatment will be restored to the past. That is to say, everyone in your shaman army will no longer have to carry that stigma, and you will re- Back to the sequence.” Tian Yao said.

“Oh my God.” Wan Zhonghui’s tears flowed down. How long have he been waiting at this moment. It’s been a year and a half. Now, this moment has finally come. He really can’t restrain himself. Tears.

Lu Peng said blankly, “Boss Tianyao, we did not complete your order and did not penetrate the enemy’s battlefield. How did the boss forgive us? You did not tease us.”

Tianyao rolled his eyes and gave Lu Peng a head, saying: "Why is your kid so axis, because you, the boss, helped the enemy to conceal the 700,000 reinforcements hidden by the enemy, and provided the boss with the breakthrough of Shalulu Waterfall? Great help, how can the boss not forgive you? "

Only then did the three understand.

Tian Yao went on to say: "This war, you are the heroes of the Jagged Brotherhood. Tomorrow, the boss will not only restore your reputation, but also give you rewards. The rewards issued by the boss in the office of the 33rd floor, this glorious Jagged Brother Of all the legions in the alliance, you are the first one. This is the boss's preferential treatment to you. "

"Thank you, Boss Tianyao, and Boss Luyang." Wan Zhonghui thanked them all for their excitement. The excitement was incoherent.

"It's been a year and a half, and finally I can return to the big family of studios." Tang Feiqi said with a stunned look.

Such a game environment is a place that many people can't dream of. You are here, no one will scold you for playing a game, no one will scold you for not doing business, because the industry here is playing games, and you can rely on it. Make a lot of money by playing games.

Every day you walk on the pedestrian street outside the war studio. You can freely communicate with people about the game. Anyone on the side of the street discusses what you are playing in the game today, or what you want to do.

Here players share resources, the main thing is that everyone has a common topic, the same kind of people, this feeling is the most enjoyable.

But after they make mistakes, although the environment here has not changed, the surrounding players have become indifferent to them and are no longer willing to communicate with them are not willing to trade with them, and some people even show disgusted eyes.

Wan Zhonghui and the three of them know that after receiving the reward tomorrow at the president's office on the 33rd floor of the Jagged Brothers Alliance, all this will disappear, they will become the star of the guild, they will be re-accepted by everyone, and let them feel the day of enjoyment Back again.

Tian Yao looked at the three people's expressions and hummed, and said, "Just now, when I was passing by, I wanted to hear some of you say that you want to leave the guild or something, right?"

"No!" The three of Wan Zhonghui said in unison.

Lu Peng said: "Who dares to say that he will withdraw from the guild, I will fight with him."

Tian Yao laughed and said, "That's right, brothers have just started a good life, and they will have a better life in the future, what to quit and what they want to do."

Lu Peng was ashamed.

Tian Yao said with a smile: "I won't tease you anymore, remember to report on time tomorrow."

"Yes," the three said at the same time.

Chapter 1285 - War jacket

"Great, the boss finally forgave us, we are no longer making mistakes." Lu Peng shouted excitedly.

Tang Feiqi and Lu Peng nodded. The two ran downstairs with Wan Zhonghui. After a while, the fortified cries of the erring legion were heard inside the fortress, and even Lu Yang and others sitting in the city’s main house heard clearly.

Lu Yang laughed and said, “I’m going to rest first. I have other work to do tomorrow.”

For several days without a good rest, Lu Yang was exhausted, not only him, but also the vice-chairmen and heads of the Legion Brotherhood.

No words overnight.

Early the next morning.

Lu Yang didn’t enter the game after the workout, because he updated the expansion pack today, standing in the office, and looking at the bright sunshine outside the window, his mood was particularly comfortable.

“Dangdang Dang”

The knock on the door rang, and Lu Yang looked back. He came in in black and white with Tian Yao and Wan Zhonghui. The three boys looked with fear, and looked down at Lu Yang and lowered his head.

“Boss is good,” Wan Zhonghui said together.

Lu Yang turned his head and looked at the three of them. Those three boys were promoted personally to be the commander of the army. He was later dismissed from office if they made mistakes. If it was not Tian Yao's plea, they would have almost been fired.

Recalling the terrified expressions on the young and tender faces of the three people at that time, there is no difference from today, but judging from the appearance, the three have grown a lot this year because of the white hair on their heads. It's all out.

"You three boys, I didn't shame me." Lu Yang walked in front of the three and patted his shoulders one by one. He felt them. All three had muscles on his shoulders. Obviously, he had been training with him all year round. .

In other people's words, this sentence is nothing, but in the ears of the three, it sounds like natural sound, and the eyes of Wan Zhonghui, Lu Peng and Tang Feiqi are all wet.

"Boss, you still remember us." Wan Zhonghui said excitedly.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Do you know why I want you brothers who make mistakes to choose shaman?"

Wan Zhonghui shook his head.

"Boss, is there anything special about this profession?" Tian Yao asked.

Lu Yang said: "The three-blooded fruit of this profession-the blood oath shaman, I know where it can be obtained, and it is still obtained in large quantities."

"Blood Oath Shaman?" Tian Yao opened his eyes in surprise and asked, "Is it strong?"

Lu Yang smiled and said: "Windfury gives you a chance to trigger 3 consecutive attacks, and Blood Oath Shaman has a chance to trigger 7 consecutive attacks."

Once triggered, it is equivalent to 7 times the attack, which is more than twice as powerful as the shaman of the second turn. Once the blood oath attack is triggered in the battle, two thirds of the opponent's health is gone. If the trigger is triggered twice, the opponent will die. undoubtedly.

The battle is one aspect. If it is a copy, the blood oath shaman will be more powerful. Without any interference, the blood oath shaman with full output will be attacked by at least three people, and it is possible to hit 5 people. s attack.

The three of Wan Zhonghui are not fools. They have been playing for 3 years. When Lu Yang said that the three of them understood, Lu Yang had never abandoned them and had always been concerned about their subsequent development.

Although the punishment was severe at that time, those who can persist in it, can truly change their minds, and no longer do wrong, Lu Yang gave them a blood vessel.

Not to mention the other, the value of the fruit of the blood oath shaman, they can know how much Lu Yang valued them.

"Boss, I was sorry for you before." Wan Zhonghui cried.

Lu Peng and Tang Feiqi also blamed themselves. After entering the errant legion, they did not scold Lu Yang in private, and now, in retrospect, their faces are flushed with redness.

Lu Yang patted his arms one by one and said, "Okay, don't cry, don't blame yourself for the things that happened before. Today, the Iron Brotherhood will accept you again."

He turned around and picked up three sets of black silk fabric clothes and handed them to the three, saying, "The three of you are lucky. This is the clothes prepared by the Iron Blood Brotherhood War Studio for elite players. You are the first to wear it. "

Black silk brocade T-shirts and trousers. The guild emblem of the Jagged Brotherhood was printed on the left chest of the clothes. This suit was designed by the vice president of Clover and Lu Yang just after signing a contract with the clover company. .

The first batch of samples was only 150 sets, which were originally distributed to the high level of the guild, but after discussion last night, all 150 sets of clothes were distributed to the tactical army commander and bottom players.

With the exception of Lu Yang, all top executives put on this suit for the second batch, and Lu Yang was able to send it because he had to wear it to show the importance of this suit.

The three of Wan Zhonghui were so excited. Where did they think that Lu Yang had customized exclusive clothes for the players of the Jagged Brothers Alliance, which is more important than any reward.

In the future, the three of them will go out wearing this suit without any certificates or trophies. Everyone will know and envy their shaman army.

“Xie Boss.” Wan Zhonghui said excitedly.

Lu Yang picked up another credit card from his desk and said, “There is 80,000 yuan in it. I represent your guild to reward your shaman army. You take them to the hotel to celebrate.”

Wan Zhonghui hurriedly said, “Boss, this is what we should do.”

Lu Yang shook his head with a smile and said, “This is a bonus. What you have done is totally beyond my expectations. Therefore, this is beyond the expected reward. Please rest assured that the banquet will be celebrated. I will be there when you decide . “

Lu Yang said with a smile: “Well, go back and tell the brothers the good news, their clothes will arrive in the second batch.”

“Yes,” said Wan Zhonghui.

“I’m gone too.” Tian Yao waved to Lu Yang and took the three of them downstairs.

The elevator quickly reached the first floor. The three did not have the studio’s door, but instead hid in the corner. They murmured and changed their black suits.

Today’s game is closed. Ordinary players have a day off. With leisure time, most players are venting their extra energy, playing basketball with friends, or dating girlfriends, but they are all inside the game city.

Not far from the game city, there are already large hotels and clothing factories opening, and Wanshi Group has also opened a square here. Therefore, all people are now outside, and everyone knows that in this war, it is extremely colorful. Zhonghui three.

“Isn’t that the commander of the errant legion and the two deputy commanders? What clothes he wears, it’s nice.”

“Hey, they won’t be the wrong legion anymore. I don’t know. The boss just met the three of them in person.”

“They are really good. They played beautifully in this battle.”

Among the surrounding players, there were three of them who knew Wan Zhonghui, and the same army chief shouted not far away: “Lao Wan, what clothes did the three of you wear and how have you never seen them?”

Wan Zhonghui was waiting for someone to ask, pointing at his chest sign proudly and saying, “We are the first batch of exclusive uniforms for elite players of the Jagged Brothers Alliance. This is the first batch. The boss just rewarded us.”

“I went to The whispering players around me heard this sentence and focused their eyes on casual people.

Soon, there was a circle of people around, and dozens of people were around the three to see the clothes they were wearing.

“It’s really the guild badge of the Jagged Brothers League. The fabric of this dress is made of silk brocade, which is very expensive,” said a knowledgeable person.

The players made a big splash.

Wan Zhonghui said proudly: “Do n’t call us the Shaman Army. Do n’t call us the wrong army. The boss just forgave us and gave us 80,000 yuan for me to celebrate the party.”

Until the establishment of the Jagged Brothers Alliance, it is the first time that the chairman has issued cash to his players for celebration.

The news spread quickly.

Chapter 1286 - Complete logistics

“Boss, our martial arts are not enough to be subdued, but we work hard.”

“Boss, it stands to reason that we must have a copy of this uniform, but we are elite.”

Tu Feng happened to be by his side for half a life, and said with a smile: “Boss this move, all the guild players are excited.”

Nostalgic bitterly nodded in admiration and sighed, “I really admire the boss. His head is absolutely different from ours. I can’t think of such an idea when I kill him.”

Tu Feng said: “It is conceivable that in the next war, for this uniform, how will the various legions fight.”

“I do n’t say ordinary players, we vice presidents are desperate.”

Tu Feng first froze, and then smiled. Obviously, this is another battle between the vice presidents. Even if they do not want to compare, if most of the commanders of a certain legion are elite uniforms, and There are only a few other vice-chairmen, or none. That would be a shame.

Everyone is a vice president. There is no difference in identity. However, with this competition, there will be a big difference in the ranking of vice presidents in the future. Vice presidents with less elite uniforms will have the right to speak. The lower the level, the more subtle the uniform, the higher the right to speak.

To put it plainly, you have fewer elite uniforms, and no argument can be won!

Painful love rubbed his head and said, “It’s a headache. I need to train the boys a little bit when I go back. The others don’t say. On the game city side, after the next war, everyone must put on uniforms. “

Tu Feng shook his head with a smile and shook his head. He was not involved in this matter. As a big housekeeper in charge of logistics, sometimes he really admired these vice presidents and really did not know how they let so many players obey the command. You know, most don't give money.

A pleasant bell rang, the radio on the railway station began to broadcast, and the train from the south came in.

"The first brothers are here," said bitter love half an excitedly.

The person headed by him seemed to be in his early twenties, with uncontrollable joy on his face, and followed thousands of players who lined up in four columns behind him.

"Old Liu." The bitter love half-life greeted him with a laugh. Although the appearance in the game is different from the reality, the bitter love can still recognize at a glance that this person is Liu Ruohuai, head of the orc warrior army.

Liu Ruohuai just widened his eyes in surprise, bitterly loved him half a lifetime and gave him a hug, holding him and saying, "Good brother, it's finally here."

"Boss." Liu Ruohuai was excited and didn't know what to say.

"Haha, you don't have to be polite with me, you and your kids, you did a good job this time. You follow me and Tu Feng first, the boss is waiting for you." Said bitter love for a long time.

"Yes." Liu Ruohuai and a dry orc warrior said excitedly.

"But we are too many people, how can we get there." Liu Ruohuai shook his head embarrassed. He yelled in the group last night, but did not expect so many people to respond.

This morning, Tu Feng immediately contacted the transportation company after learning that there were more than 1,000 people coming by car at the same time. He had previous cooperation experience in traveling abroad. Soon, the transportation company transferred dozens of buses to park outside the train station. Parking lot.

Liu Ruohuai and others looked up, watching 30 buses neatly lined up there, and couldn't help but lament the importance that the Jagged Brothers Alliance attached to them.

"Go, brothers get in the car, let's go to the game city to meet the boss of Lu Yang." Liu Ruohuai shouted.

"Okay!" Thousands agreed.

Game City is the home of these people, the most stable home in the future!

Liu Ruohuai and others boarded the bus with excitement. It took one hour from the train station to the development zone. When they arrived in the development zone, it was exactly 11 noon.

"I saw the building of the war studio, I saw it," shouted Yang Ming, deputy head of the army.

Looking from a distance, the 33-storey building of the War Studio stands in the center of the development zone. The towering building and the five large characters are so perfect to them.

From getting off, Liu Ruohuai and the more than 1,000 people walked into the gate of the game city as if they were a pilgrimage.

Starting from the entrance, almost everyone on the road is a player. Game City is a garden-like building group. On this day when they are not at work, there are players everywhere. They discuss games, study games, talk It's a game, and excitement is a game.

The ground is clean and tidy, and the street shops include wooden houses, transparent cabins with full glass, elegant two-story small buildings, and unique exotic restaurants.

There are only two words that Liu Ruohuai can think of, heaven!

On the 7-story steps of the War Studio Building, Lu Yang personally took a high level of the guild to watch the group of people walking in the distance, with infinite emotion in his heart.

“Do you know what they are?” Lu Yang asked Xia Yuwei beside him.

Xia Yuwei shook her head.

Xia Yuwei, who has not been an ordinary player, will not understand. Many times, the guild will recognize a player’s sentence, and may be respected and guarded by a player for a lifetime. They are not for money or name, just because it can bring him here. Glory and dignity.

“Boss, I brought you, he is the orc legion in Liu Ruohuai, behind them are all orc warrior players.” Bitter love for half a life led people to Lu Yang said.

“Boss is good.” Liu Ruohuai and other 1,000 people shouted respectfully together.

Lu Yang looked at Liu Ruohuai and the 1,000 people and said with emotion: “Brothers, thank you for your selfless dedication to the Jagged Brothers. Today, I guarantee that here, here in the future, will be the home of all of you. I Lu Yang will never let any brother who truly pays for the guild suffer a bit of grievance. In the future, you are my family of Lu Yang, and I will treat you with sincerity. “

Where did Liu Ruohuai and these 1,000 people think that Lu Yang could say such a very heavy discourse, in their opinion, it would be nice to get a stable job, but did not expect that Lu Yang regarded them so seriously.

“Thank you, boss.” Liu Ruohuai said sincerely on behalf of everyone.

Lu Yang said with a smile: “Today all of you have a holiday. I will let you take half a lifetime to take you around the game city. Everyone will arrange accommodation first, and then I will celebrate the feast in person.”

Liu Ruohuai and others thanked Lu Yang again. On the same day, Liu Ruohuai arranged the accommodation for more than a thousand people with half a lifetime of love. After that, the remaining 9,000 people arrived one after another. When the accommodation for everyone was arranged, It’s afternoon.

Liu Ruohuai, who was finally busy, left the dormitory alone. He took a mobile phone and walked around every corner of the game city. Whenever he saw a beautiful place, he took a picture and sent it to the group. A group formed by brothers who quit the game.

When they saw the photos sent by Liu Ruohuai, they were excited to discuss in the group, but more people were sentimental.

“Brother, do your best. The future of our legion is all on your own. Have fun for us.” Brother said.

“Brother rest assured, brothers rest assured, I will never disappoint your expectations.” Liu Ruohuai said excitedly.

“Dididi”

The phone rang, and Liu Ruohuai picked it up and saw that he had called for half his life. He quickly pressed the connect button and asked, “Boss, what’s the matter?”

“Coming to the War Studio building, the boss will see you in the office on the 33rd floor,” said bitter love for a long time.

“It will be here in 3 minutes.” Liu Ruohuai put down the phone and ran to the studio building, and only ran to the place in two minutes.

“Boss, what is it?” Liu Ruohuai asked panting.

Biting a bit of his lip and holding his shoulders, he said, “Good thing, your kid is very lucky. You are the second one to go up to the 33rd floor as the commander of the army.”

Liu Ruohuai repeatedly nodded and followed the bitter love for half a life and took the elevator to the 33rd floor. After a black and white inspection, he entered Luyang’s office door.

Lu Yang smiled and pointed to a contract in front of the table, saying: “This is a contract for Liu Ruohuai’s new army commander. You two look at it. Ruohuai also thinks about it. I can do anything. It must be done. “

“Thank you, President Boss.” Liu Ruohuai took the contract from his half-hearted half-heartedly, and when he saw the word 20,000 monthly salary, he was already stunned.

“Salary 20,000 ?! Contract for 5 years!” Liu Ruohuai stared blankly at Lu Yang. Before he played games, he was able to earn 4,000 to 6,000 a month. This seemed to him very good. He thought that joining the guild would be able to It is good to give him 10,000 yuan, but Lu Yang shot 20,000, or a 5-year contract.

I love half a life and said with a smile: “This is the basic salary, plus various benefits and income from the game. It should not be a problem to earn 30,000 a month. The extra income of your war, the guild will not want it, all of it belongs to you. Personally, once there is a war, doubling your income is not a problem. “

“So much.” Liu Ruohuai was excited and didn’t know what to say. Judging from the situation of the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood, it was rare to fight a war once a month, that is, he could earn tens of thousands of yuan a month. money.

Lu Yang said: “The orc warrior players under your control are still under your control. Their salary is 3,000 yuan, and other treatments are the same as yours. In the future, you will participate in the battle as my Guardian Corps. All members will own the first batch. “

“Xie Boss.” Liu Ruohuai said excitedly.

Lu Yang said with a smile: “What else is required, think about it.”

Liu Ruohuai thought for a while, and said, “Boss, can you give me one more uniform? One is enough.”

“Why?” Lu Yang asked.

Liu Ruohuai took his elder brother as an outstanding player, took him along the way, and told his elder brother that he had to quit the game in order to support his family.

“I want a suit for him. His strength is better than me. In the early years, he participated in many battles for the guild. If it was not because the family gave up the game, he was stronger than me.” Liu Ruohuai said.

Lu Yang lamented that he had seen too many things like this in the last life. Suddenly, he remembered one thing. There were more and more players in the guild. Many people had to gradually get married and have children. But the supporting facilities of the guild were not available. Well-built.

Children’s education will soon become a problem facing the Jagged Brotherhood. If this is not resolved, people like Brother Liu Ruohuai will leave the guild more and more.

He thought about it and pressed the speaker. Before long, Tu Feng went up to the 33rd floor with Lu Yang’s permission.

“Boss, what are you looking for?” Tu Feng asked.

Lu Yang said: “Allocate a sum of at least 5 million for the construction of kindergartens and elementary schools. There must be only one. The facilities must be world-class, and the strength of the teachers must be world-class. As for the problem of attending secondary schools, I personally go to the leaders . “

“Five million is not enough,” Tu Feng said.

Lu Yang said: “You don’t need to find me within 50 million. You must supervise it and it must be completed within the year.”

“Yes,” Tu Feng said.

Lu Yang signaled that Tu Feng could go. He turned to look at the nervous Liu Ruohuai and said, “I will give him a suit of clothes. This is a compliment to him for the guild, but this is not the end. You wait for my news. All I will not treat anyone who has made significant contributions to the Jagged Brotherhood. “

Liu Ruohuai nodded blankly. He is a otaku, a otaku who can’t do anything except games. He doesn’t understand the human world. In the face of Lu Yang’s words, he feels scared from the heart, inexplicably afraid.

Early the next morning.

Lu Yang didn’t enter the game, he went to the Provincial Party Committee Building by car, and found the provincial leader to talk about it directly.

If you want to see other leaders, you must make an appointment in advance. But who is Lu Yang? Two-thirds of the entire development zone is built by him. Half of the population of the development zone is under his management. of.

“Xiaolu, what’s the matter?” The leader asked with a smile: “Are you going to build a building again?”

Lu Yang said with a smile: “Yeah, this time I want to build kindergartens and schools. This is not the case. There are too many people. They are almost the age of marriage and children. I have to take responsibility for their offspring. I want to build A bigger and better school and kindergarten. “

The leader smiled, handed the four documents to Lu Yang and said, “Look, brother, I have prepared for you already.”

Lu Yang was surprised. He opened four documents and looked at them. The first was a kindergarten approval application, the second was a private elementary school approval application, the third was a junior high school private school application, and the fourth was a private high school approval application.

“Brother, don’t you know that I want this, God counts.” Lu Yang asked with a smile.

The leader laughed and said, “What do I do, your population reaches 100,000, and I know that you need these things sooner or later, but I didn’t expect your kid to be amazing. In just 2 years, it brought me 300,000 people. So I will prepare these things for you in advance, and wait for you to come to me to ask for them, and I will give you a stamp. “

Lu Yang laughed and said, “Thank you, brother.”

“What are we polite to,” said the leader.

Lu Yang nodded clearly and turned to leave. As for the outsourcing of the teaching buildings in kindergartens, elementary schools, junior high schools, and high schools, everything was in the air.

When Lu Yang returned to the game city, the game had already started. He entered the game, and the overwhelming player discussions drowned all communication on the World Channel.

“Shameless!”

“Cheat players money!”

“This pit money is too obvious, protest!”

...

Lu Yang looked at these messages, nodded in peace, and secretly said: “It looks like everything is expected.”

“Boss, you’re here.” Half-life bitter love and a group of vice presidents are waiting for him in the conference room of the city’s main mansion.

Lu Yang looked at more than 30 vice-chairmen, and said, “What has been updated, why is the discussion so fierce in the world?”

Tu Feng cleared his throat and said, “Let’s say, the first update, called the Cultivation System, officially launched the Cultivation Mission. After the guild level has been raised to level 5, the guild can start a cultivation project.

There are four types of cultivation: attack cultivation, defensive cultivation, spell cultivation, and spell defense cultivation, each of which can be cultivated to level 25, which can increase the effect by up to 50%. According to the available information provided by the government, it can be predicted that single cultivation By the 25th level, it will cost 50,000 yuan, which means that the four exercises are full and it will cost 200,000 yuan. “

The so-called cultivation is to improve the attack result. For example, if attack training reaches level 25, normal attacks can deal 10,000 damage, and now it can deal 15,000 damage, as well as defense. The enemy normally deals 10,000 damage. Now only 5,000 The most obvious result is that, if the level 140 dark gold player is full, if the level 130 dark gold player does not learn to practice, the attack can only force the opponent to lose 1 point of blood. Already.

Lu Yang said, the same as the last life.

He said bitterly for a long time: "Officially, this is to make players appear polarized. The rich are getting more and more powerful in the game. Those who have no money can only work for the rich."

Zhou Tianming said: "According to this development, it is very likely that in the future, a player will slaughter a small guild. This is too unfair."

The White Lion said: "In the future, the Elite Legion will be a joke, and there are not one or two players who are fully trained."

Tu Feng said, "Of course, it is not so easy to learn 25-level practice. The 25-level practice can only be learned at 200 level, and the boss 160 can be learned at level 20.

"Still unhappy," said the lovely queen.

Lu Yang laughed and said, "I'll tell you a secret. Don't tell it."

"What secret?" Jiang Ze asked.

Lu Yang watched everyone curiously and said, "The official launch of this practice system was forced for a lot of reasons."

“Forced?” Everyone exclaimed.

Lu Yang nodded and said, “There are too many studios in this game, too many smart players. They use the loopholes in the game to make money many times, such as our way of stealing gems, stealing equipment, etc., the official lost A lot of money.

If everyone plays the game in an official way, the total amount of currency in the game will not exceed ten trillion US dollars. How many currencies can players actually exchange for cash? Is there really so much money? I’m afraid a lot of them are brushed out by players. “

Jiang Ze said in surprise: “Do you mean that the” Second World “official is running out of money?”

Lu Yang said: “They do n’t have money, but after all, this game is fully supported by all countries, but the depreciation caused by the excessive amount of currency has appeared. On the black market, the exchange rate of gold coins is already 270, and the credit of 30 Some money is what the player swipes. “

Don’t look at it now it is 30. If you continue to operate at this speed, it may be 50 in a year. Once it has exceeded 50, there will be a big problem in the financial situation of this game.

The official was able to introduce new rules to recover currency at this time. It can be said that this game has been running for three years and it has stimulated all players to have new goals.

“But our losses are still too great, this is too hurt for the Grand Guild.” Xia Yuwei said.

Lu Yang said: “I have an idea, I am going to give signing players who work in the game city to uniformly improve the cultivation level.”

Everyone froze.

“That takes a lot of money,” said the White Lion.

Lu Yang looked at Tu Feng and asked, "How much money does our guild have?"

Tu Feng said: "The cash flow is about 2 billion points, but this is the preparation for the next war."

Lu Yang shook his head. The money could not be moved. He picked up the phone and called Qi Yun, asking, "How is our gold mine?"

Qi Yun was at the construction site and said with a big smile, "Boss, the first batch of gold has been mined and sold. It is expected that by the end of the month, you will be able to receive a 1 billion credit card."

South Sudan's large gold mine was officially operated, and the aluminum mine project has been losing money recently. Lu Yang has many projects at the same time. He uses a lot of money, and he dare not move money elsewhere.

"The 1 billion was credited to the guild's account at the end of the month." Lu Yang hung up the phone and said to the stunned crowd: "I personally sponsor our guild's 1 billion credits. Now you discuss the first batch. Get the list of cultivating players provided by the guild, remember that you must be able to go to the battlefield, and you can't put the battle first." Lu Yang said.

"Thank you, boss." White Lion and Xia Yuwei and others said excitedly.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "In the next month, I will invest 1 billion credits to improve the training level. My plan is to bring the 200,000 players in the studio to For example, our 100,000 young masters have upgraded their cultivation to the highest level available. In the coming year's battle, we will use these 300,000 people as the main force to fight the Quartet, and we will no longer wage a war of ten million people. "

The White Lion said excitedly: "In that case, our fighting power will be many times stronger than before."

A large number of people does not mean that the strength is strong. The more people, the harder it is to command, the greater the consumption, and the smaller the number of people. On the contrary, the easier it is to command, the less the consumption, and the more profitable it will be.

Lu Yang's strategy is very clear. It is a policy of elite soldiers. When he played the Dragon Alliance before, he made more than 10 billion yuan in World War I, and the cost was almost the same. He needed to manage the forts in India in the later period, and then he gradually earned money. After the war, most of the guild's cash flow disappeared again, which is equivalent to each battle of the Jagged Brothers Alliance being a life-threatening battle. If there is a failure, the guild will become a desperate one.

Of course, this is not only the case of Lu Yang's guilds, but also all large guilds in the entire New World. Game companies absorb the blood of super guilds to curb skyrocketing prices. This is not a long-term solution. The official response came and changed to all players. Charging in disguise reduces the burden of the Super Guild, which is tantamount to preparing for future game leagues.

Lu Yang said: "The first problem is solved, what is the second update?"

Tu Feng admired Lu Yang and said, "Boss, the second modification is very good for us. It is the official introduction of a new copy system. From now on, every copy can only be played once a week, regardless of how difficult it is, you can only play it once. The equipment produced by the 100-person replica has changed from 3 to 10.

Lu Yang said, "Let's have a large site and many copies. This is nothing."

Tu Feng shook his head and said, "Not only this update, but also the update content, the official launched a ring task, I carefully studied it, this is a task to quickly gain experience, and to complete the task, you need to submit the same Equipment above the silver level between level 100 and level 100 will require dark gold equipment. "

"It is another task specially prepared for rich people. In the future, rich people will upgrade more than 10 times faster than ordinary players." Said bitter love for a long time.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "It is understandable that now the 140-level dark gold-level equipment is rushing to drop prices. The previous 100-130 level of dark gold is not worth any money at all. The official seems to be looking for a piece of equipment. Stable prices, which is good for us. We have a large area and many copies. Don't be afraid of this. "

In the last life, the official also launched this task. As Lu Yang said, the equipment in the game was flooded. If you find a copy of the loophole, the player will swarm this copy, and within a few days, some current level of dark gold equipment It's a bad street.

This has greatly disrupted the price balance in the game. The official launch of this method has reduced the speed of players' equipment and upgrades on the one hand, and also stabilized the prices in the game. At the same time, he has a more important role , Stimulated the war between the major guilds.

The map of the New World consists of four 100-level maps combined into a 100-150 level map, three 150-level maps surrounding a 160-180 level map, and so on.

Don't look at the large map of the New World, but there are not many areas that can actually have 150-level maps. Take the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood as an example. The Brotherhood of Iron-Blood controls the entire Northeast region plus 11 100-level maps of the Group of Eight, only 108 150 level maps, that is, there are only 108 150 level copies.

The ring task requires equipment between the same level and 100 level. There are 300 ring tasks in a set, and almost two thirds of them need to be toasted. The existing equipment will be quickly consumed during the quick brushing of the task and can not be used. In two months, the existing dark gold equipment in the game between level 100 to 130 will be officially recovered.

Next, if you want these equipment again, the player will have to buy it at a high price in the market or brush it by yourself. However, you can only copy one copy once, and the copy of the hostile guild cannot go. This will cause the price of the equipment to rise. While promoting the cash inflow game, the conflicts between the major guilds have increased.

However, at this stage, the major guilds did not dare to fight easily. Therefore, this was an opportunity for the development of the Jagged Brotherhood. The guild players had a large number of copies to brush, no shortage of equipment and experience, and so on. When the players in their respective countries encourage them to attack, the level of the Jagged Brothers players may be higher than the opponent.

Zhou Tianming looked at Lu Yang with admiration and said, "Boss, you are really far-sighted. At present, there are only dozens of 150-level copies of the G8. Higher-level copies are better. We can even drag the G-8 to death. "

Everyone laughed.

Lu Yang laughed and said, "Your boy has learned to talk poorly, what's the next update."

Tu Feng said: "It's a guild skill. Many guild skills have been added to the game, including building houses and furniture, and these houses also talk about feng shui. I didn't figure out that the way the furniture is built is also weird, and it is being studied."

Lu Yang said, "Fortunately, this has also come out. With this, those players who have quit the game because of their family will have a new channel to make money, maybe not many, but let the family upgrade a consumption level, or No problem. "

"Any other updates?" Lu Yang asked.

Tu Feng said: "There is also a new main city. Players are strolling in this new city, and they are all looking for hidden tasks."

Lu Yang said: Officials will not put hidden tasks in obvious places. It is impossible to find them in this way. Recalling the tasks of the new main city of the last life, he has to admire the official design, full routines and cultures of other countries. .

Those who don't understand culture can't find the task at all, if they don't understand the routine, they can't find it. Later, the players scold the official while admiring the official wisdom.

Lu Yang said: "Since this meeting is over, I will study the game."

The people dispersed.

Lu Yang flew to the Chiyang Fortress. By far, the largest fortress of the Jagged Brothers Alliance is the Chiyang Fortress. At the time, Luyang was the first to build a fortress in the northeast region. He was regarded as the center of the Guild.

At present, the scale of the guild in this fortress is the level of 5. He clicked the authority of the main city and found the guild skills. There are dozens of items such as house construction, furniture construction, sentry tower construction, and siege vehicle construction. .

The level of each item is level 0. If you want to learn, you need to set a chair to set a research task. He chooses the two items of house construction and furniture construction as the priority research object.

These two are the easiest to make money. The officially launched new main city is not a main city for players to upgrade and fight, but a place for leisure and entertainment. It is an extremely beautiful spot. Players can be in any area. Buy a house built there, and buy furniture to renovate the house.

Chapter 1288 - Times of chaos

How many rich people are in the game, in order to compare, to please girls, or just like it, and some people want to have a home with their lover in the game, they will choose to settle in the new main city, so the housing construction becomes Extremely profitable.

After Lu Yang set up the study, level 1 was quickly improved. It took 5 days from level 2 to level 3. It took 15 days from level 3 to level 4. It took one month from level 4 to level 5. This is the last word, only For a level 1 house, Lu Yang knew how to build it.

Of course, what he means to understand is to know who to build. The construction of the houses in the game is based on the standard requirements for building houses in reality. However, the construction of the house alone is not enough. The game is inexplicably added. Hidden lucky attributes.

The room can have smithy and forge shop, that is, if the player forges equipment in the lucky high house, it is possible to forge the best quality of explosive properties.

However, it is not easy to make such a house. In the last life, the highest price of a lucky plus 5 house was 100 gold coins, equivalent to 30,000 yuan, and the cost of the house was only 300 yuan. It is equivalent to making a difference of 100 times.

The reason why it is so expensive is that ordinary players don't know how to build a lucky high house. Not only that, they don't even know how to build a house.

In the previous life, there were less than 100 people who were able to build a lucky plus 5 house. The construction time of a house was one week. That is to say, a player can build up to 4 to 5 houses a month. Of course This is a villa. If it is an ordinary private house, it is one per day, but the price is not high.

"It looks like we need to find the master of architecture." Lu Yang muttered to himself and retreated from the game. He said to the guard in black and white at the door: "Come with me abroad, let's go find someone . "

"Yes." Black and white responded.

When Lu Yang returned home and changed his clothes, when he returned to the office downstairs, Black and White had ordered the black knife to prepare the car, and the two took a few people to the airport by car.

On the same day, I took a plane to Rome, Italy, and simply took a two-day break to get a jet lag. By the way, I gave them two days of vacation for black and white and black knives.

The third morning.

Lu Yang came to the gate of the University of Rome. Looking at this classical university, he stepped in.

The security guard at the entrance wanted to stop Lu Yang and his party. When he saw an invitation letter issued by Lu Yang, he stopped blocking and allowed him to enter a teaching building.

In a classroom on the third floor, a large number of students are sitting quietly, watching a middle-aged handsome blond man standing in front of the classroom, teaching in fluent Italian.

Three days ago, Lu Yang called and made an appointment to meet him. He said that he was not available and could only take some time to communicate with Lu Yang at noon.

Lu Yang did not feel the arrogance of each other. In fact, Antonio was really busy. Not only did he have to go to school to teach, his company also had a lot of construction orders waiting for him to complete the design.

In addition, each order is expensive, not ordinary, but very expensive. The reason for this is because the head of this design master is different from others, and he can design world-famous products.

For example, the new seaweed hotel in Dubai, the new royal palace in Abu Dhabi, and a variety of top-level buildings, in recent years, it is no exaggeration to call it the world's first design master.

The reason why Lu Yang found him was simple: he wanted him to teach a group of professional house builders.

On the one hand, it is to improve some welfare benefits for those who are loyal to the Iron Brotherhood. On the other hand, it is to prepare for the future construction of the guild match fortress.

It won't be long before the expansion is open, and the game league will be launched. The previous game mode was to build a fortress, one side to attack, and the other to defend.

This fortress must be built by the most loyal players of the Iron Brotherhood, otherwise all the weaknesses are in the hands of the enemy, which is terrible.

After half an hour.

“Hello Professor Antonio.” Lu Yang said, and the translator translated the words.

“You’re Lu Yang, you’re famous for a long time, I don’t know what you want me to build.” Antonio said with a smile.

Lu Yang said, “I want you to teach some simple courses in building construction. It’s best to let people know like building a house in one week.”

Antonio was a little surprised, saying, “You can just find a faculty of architecture in such basic things, and I don’t have time to teach them.”

Lu Yang shook his head and said, “No, I believe in a famous teacher, so I will hire you to give a lecture.”

Antonio shrugged indifferently, saying, “Lectures are okay, but you know, the price of my lectures is not cheap, and I was asked to give a lecture outside for 100,000 euros.”

Lu Yang said: “7 lessons, 7 days, enough?”

Antonio thought about it and said, “If it is to teach an ordinary person to build a house, it should be enough.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “Although it is a group of ordinary people, the houses are different. They are the houses in the” Second World “game.”

“What?” Antonio was shocked, and said slightly furiously, “What does the game have to do with reality, are you here to make trouble?”

Lu Yang laughed. He told the content of the game and Antonio in detail. When Antonio finished listening, he understood what was going on.

“Can the game be done 1: 1?” Antonio asked excitedly.

Lu Yang said, “Yes.”

“Then I will build a house in the future, can I simulate it in the game first, and then build it in reality?” Antonio asked.

Lu Yang said: “It’s totally feasible. As long as you provide the official detailed data, the computer, the computing module of the” Second World “main brain is more powerful than any supercomputer.”

“Take me to see it,” Antonio said.

Like issuing a fresh toy, Antonio chose to study the Guild’s architecture and try to build a house.

For ordinary homes, it only takes one day. Antonio chooses all parameters of the house and sends commands to the construction robot. Ten small robots automatically select wood and bricks to start construction.

In the evening, when Antonio’s first game house was completed, he shouted in excitement: “It’s really possible, this is great.”

Lu Yang looked at the lucky level of the house, which was exactly level 5. He nodded convincingly. This man really had to serve with a skill, obviously he didn’t deliberately do anything, but the house he made was lucky plus 5, full value!

“How, when can we teach?” Lu Yang asked.

“So, start tomorrow, give me a list of students, and I can teach them in the game.” Antonio said.

Lu Yang thought for a while and said, “There is no limit to the number of people, there may be a lot of people on my side.”

Antonio smiled indifferently and said, “How many people don’t matter in the game.”

“Okay, thank you.” Lu Yang asked Black and White to take the cash box and handed it to Antonio. “There is a deposit of 300,000 Euros, and I will call you at the end of the class for 700,000.”

“Okay.” Antonio took the box politely. His knowledge was worth so much money, and he didn’t feel he wanted it much.

“I’m going to leave first.” Lu Yang arched his hands, turned and took the black and white them back to the country by plane.

The jet lag was relapsed, and until the next morning, Lu Yang found Liu Ruohuai in the game who was taking the Orc Warrior Legion to run the ring mission.

So far, the Jagged Brothers alliance may be lacking, but from silver to dark gold equipment between 100 and 140, there are no more than 3 billion and more than 2 billion.

These were all seized in previous wars, especially in the recent major decisive battles. The Brotherhood of the Iron Blood seized countless pieces of equipment, but these were worthless and kept in the warehouse.

Now, just like clearing the inventory, all the guild players are running ring missions and lacking equipment, they will use the guild points to redeem in the guild warehouse, and then run again.

The experience of ring missions is very high. Running down 300 rounds is enough to raise a 140-level player by half a level, while running 300 rounds is only one day and one night.

“Boss, what is it?” Liu Ruohuai asked with interest, and he had nearly reached 142.

Lu Yang said: “Good thing, how is your brother’s life going?”

Liu Ruohuai’s expression of excitement faded, saying: “It’s a normal life. I have to raise children at home. My elder brother quits the game to work. I didn’t find any good job. Currently, I’m just a clerk and my sister-in-law is almost the same.”

“The salary of two people is only enough for the basic living expenses, and often they bother their parents to help them. When there are more people, there will be more things.”

Lu Yang looked at Liu Ruohuai’s increasingly faint expression and nodded his head. People reach middle age and everything is sad. You can imagine a 30-year-old ordinary clerk with a monthly salary of 3,000 to 4,000 yuan. In the face of aging parents, some of them have to pay off their home loan or car loan. More often, they need parents to help bring their children.

Whether it’s a male or female parent’s belt, or alternate belts, there are always a variety of things. Either the mother-in-law’s or mother’s-in-law’s picking is for the trivial matter of wood, rice, pots and pans, or trivial matters.

Lu Yang sighed and said, “I heard that you sent a lot of money to your elder brother, but he returned it, didn’t he?”

Liu Ruohuai felt sad and said with a grin: “Big brother just doesn’t want it. He said that it is impossible to accept my money forever. He would rather work hard now rather than be looked down upon by me in the future, but I will never have that idea, my big brother ...”

Lu Yang smiled and sent a contract in the form of e-mail to Liu Ruohuai, saying: “Everyone has a place for you and the orc legion players under you.”

Liu Ruohuai looked at the contract, which said that he and the guild would provide them with free house building training for a week.

“Boss, what is this?” Liu Ruohuai asked blinking.

Lu Yang said, “I hired a famous Italian master of architecture to teach you how to build a house. You will let your elder brother to learn. In the future, the house in the game will be in high demand. If you build a lucky 5 house, you can set it up. It can be sold for thousands to 30,000, and nothing else can be done, but it is still possible to subsidize their households. “

“Really?” Liu Ruohuai asked in surprise.

Lu Yang said, “Tell them to listen carefully, I am the best master of architecture that I have paid for 100,000 euros per class. Among them, those who have sufficient skills will be hired by the guild and have higher wages.”

“Xie Boss.” Liu Ruohuai said excitedly.

“Go.” Lu Yang motioned for Liu Ruohuai to leave.

Liu Ruohuai expressed his gratitude to Lu Yang again and again. For a moment, Liu Ruohuai was so grateful to Lu Yang. He fulfilled his dream. The brothers in the guild became his biggest regret. Now, the regret is made up.

Lu Yang looked at Liu Ruohuai’s expression and smiled. Liu Ruohuai’s emotions are just like him in the last life. He who can build fortresses in the new world is the best in this game. Don’t look at this game, but it’s more Survival of the fittest.

Lu Yang escalated along the way. I don’t know how many brothers and brothers left the team when he ran forward. Why did he later build a fortress and gave his brothers so many shares? The aspect is to make up for the internal pain.

But in the end, the guild was broken by Liu Jie, which led to a series of follow-up events. The taste is only understood by people like Lu Yang and Liu Ruohuai. Others can't understand it.

Lu Yang sighed and tried to calm the excitement in his heart. At this time, Tu Feng called.

"What's the matter?" Lu Yang asked.

"The latest news is that our elite strategy may be known by major guilds. Now the strongest guilds in the New World are looking for new investors and partners. Among them are the Group of Eight nations and Alfonso of Spain. The Suo Guild, the Cavalry Regiment and Liu Jie's guild have all found investors and are ready to learn from us to improve the cultivation level for a small number of players. "

Lu Yang laughed and said, "It looks like they can't take it anymore, otherwise they won't learn how to do it."

The cost of fighting a battle is more than ten billion yuan. Not only Lu Yang can't stand it, the major guilds can't stand it either. Lu Yang just released the news. After spying from other guilds, they immediately reported to their guilds. High-rise.

The major guilds that had been in urgent need of solving the war seemed to have found a guiding light and followed suit. The guild's original corps system was broken and a few elite corps were being trained.

Tu Feng said, "My spy found a special legion of the Alfonso Guild. It was a magic-free legion. It has taken shape. According to the information obtained by the spies, the magic-free legion can remain in the magic-free state for 5 minutes at any time under normal conditions. , The cooling time is only 6 minutes, which means that it can be turned on every 1 minute, which is very overbearing. "

Lu Yang smiled and said, "I don't need to bother with this legion. I have a way to pack him."

Tu Feng said, "One more thing, many top studios want to join our guild temporarily to learn cultivating skills."

A special smile appeared on Lu Yang's face, and he asked, "I think everything is beautiful, tell them that the guild temporarily refuses to join outside studios and high-end casual people temporarily."

The guild's cultivation skills are not a big deal for high-level studios. They only pay a sum of money, and they only scratch a layer of hair and do not hurt the skin.

What really hurts the studio is that the level of the guild must be at level 5. Before, no one paid attention to the level of the guild. It was between levels 1 and 3. Only Lu Yang and a few of the strongest guilds increased the level of the guild. Reached level 5.

You know, it took more than a year for the Jagged Brothers League to upgrade the guild from level 1 to level 5. There were no guilds in those studios before, and some had only one or two levels. Now there are restrictions on the level of this guild. If you are stuck here, you must find a level 5 guild, whether it is a studio or an advanced casual person.

However, Lu Yang is not a fool. How could he allow those in the studio to get up so quickly at this time? This is not only a matter of self-determination of money, but also a major problem that lays hidden dangers in the control area.

Some studio masters have more than 150 levels, wearing a 150 level dark gold suit, and then 10 or more defense training and magic resistance training, 140 level dark gold sets hit the opponent's body without much blood loss.

A person can be used as 10,000 people, then the fortress of the Jagged Brothers Union becomes the toy of the other party, he is not stupid.

After listening to Lu Yang's words, Tu Feng understood and said, "I will reject all of them."

Lu Yang nodded and hung up the phone before dialing Wan Zhonghui's phone.

"Boss, what is it?" Wan Zhonghui asked excitedly, he was also running the ring.

Lu Yang himself also wants to run the ring, but his strength is not allowed. His level is 160, and if he needs 160 level dark gold equipment, he can't beat it it's not as convenient as brushing strangers.

"Let all the brothers run the ring to save the ring task, you go with me to the new map-Tianyu."

Tianyu, a new map launched after Tianyuan God City. This is a strange map, but there are holy places described in the myths of various countries.

Generally divided into four categories, the fairy land of China, the paradise city of Europe, the Quran Garden in the Middle East, and the paradise world of Xitian.

Lu Yang transformed into an ordinary player using a camouflage coat, and teleported Wan Zhonghui to the border area of the Quran Garden in the Middle East. Next to him, there is a small area, which is also a mythical area. He has a mountain There is a temple on the top of the mountain. There is a large banner in front of the temple and a double-headed black eagle on it.

At the gate of the temple, there are several sacrifices wearing clergyman's clothes, including human, beast and elven.

"How does this place make me feel a blood boiling?" Wan Zhonghui said.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "This place is special. Come with me."

After walking through the long corridor of the temple, I came to a stone monument on the side of the temple apse. The green stone monument is covered with moss. The stone monument itself has many cracks and is engraved with ancient text. The places are fragmented and can only be seen faintly.

Lu Yang stood next to the stone monument and said to Wan Zhonghui, "We are here."

Wan Zhonghui blinked and looked at the stone monument and said, "This is a special task?"

Lu Yang said to Wan Zhonghui with a smile: "This is the word carved on this stone tablet is called the Blood Oath Code. Any player who takes an oath here will surely get a blood oath shaman transfer job."

The blood oath code, the real code that exists on this planet, probably has only one meaning, that is, if your family is killed, you must kill a child of the other family as a result of revenge.

But in this way, if you kill one child of the other's family and the other child of your next generation, the two sides will have blood feuds.

Lu Yang did not comment on this code, which is not something he can evaluate, but in the last life, someone discovered the code and read the text above, which triggered the blood oath shaman task.

"Follow me, I swear in the name of my ancestors ..." Lu Yang taught Wan Zhonghui every word.

Lu Yang is a method of fire that cannot trigger a mission. Only the shaman of the orcs can do it. Wan Zhonghui followed Lu Yang to finish the content of the code sentence by sentence. Suddenly, a fiery blood-red light was shining on the text of the stele. Up.

The light crawled through every carved problem like real blood. When the problem was covered with blood, a dazzling light appeared, and then a translucent shaman old soul appeared.

"Who summoned me?" The old shaman's face was full of vicissitudes, but he had the spirit of self-anger.

Lu Yang motioned to Wan Zhonghui, Wan Zhonghui stepped forward and said, "It's me."

The old shaman stared at Wan Zhonghui for a few seconds, and said in vicissitudes: "I know in your past that you are qualified to inherit the right to inherit the blood-sworn shaman. Now, I order you to kill someone."

"Murder?" Wan Zhonghui blinked.

The old shaman said sarcastically: "Don't you dare, go and kill your enemy, drop his blood on this stone monument, and when you finish these, I will give you glory."

The light flashed, and the old shaman disappeared.

Wan Zhonghui looked back at Lu Yang with a blank expression and said, "Boss, he asked me to kill my enemies, but who did I kill, and what is the blood? I haven't heard that killing can get the other's blood."

This task, if you do n't know how to do it in advance, would really take at least one to two weeks to complete this task.

First of all, the bottle has to complete another hidden task in the temple. It is a tattered little girl who goes to the temple every morning to beg. After completing his task, he will give you a guide to find a priest in the temple.

Only after completing his task will you get a bottle. Getting the bottle is only the first step. It is the most headache to fill the bottle with blood.

Why is it a headache? Because this task is to kill an enemy, who this enemy is, it must be someone who has enemies with the player in the game.

How to define revenge, some people think that as long as you hate him, revenge, but they find it useless to kill this person.

At that time, the player thought of countless ways, and it took more than half a month to figure out that the definition of this enemy is very narrow. First, he killed you; second, he was a player against your guild; third, he abused you.

After finding the enemy, getting blood is a bigger problem. How to get blood? At that time, the player killed the enemy, but found that only one tenth of the scale was obtained in the blood bottle.

This made the player understand that it was necessary to kill the same person 10 times before they wanted to fill the blood bottle.

In such a big game, kill the same person 10 times, the other party will fly to a place to upgrade and hide, you will not find his position. The most hateful is the official regulations. Once this enemy is set, it cannot be changed within one month.

This caused Shaman players to be driven crazy by this setting, but there are even more persecutors. This blood-sworn shaman has only 30,000 quotas. After it is exceeded, those who complete the task later will not get blood. fruit.

Lu Yang led Wan Zhonghui to finish the task of the bottle, watching Wan Zhonghui scratching his head and not knowing who to kill, said: "First share the task of the bottle to all brothers, and take them partly to complete the task of the bottle. As for I will find enemies for you in the enemies task. "

"Boss rest assured, I know how to do it." Wan Zhonghui said, he knew the deep meaning of Lu Yang bringing him here, but he didn't want more people to know the starting point of this task, but the bottle task could not represent anything, anyone Can take this task.

In addition, people are very talkative, and one of more than 10,000 people said that they were leaking, and the reputation of their entire group who managed to come back was ruined.

Wan Zhonghui flew back to Chiyang City, found his brothers, and began to take them in batches. The brothers in any regiment asked Wan Zhonghui for the cause and effect of the task. He didn't say anything, just took them to make bottles. task.

Because there is news of spies in the guild Many spies have the idea of more than 10,000 orc warriors, which have a good relationship, and have sent messages to ask, unfortunately, even if there are orc warriors players can't stand The courtesy and flattery of others did not know the ins and outs of the task at all.

These spies not only did not ask the news, but were discovered by Tu Feng, and they cleared out a group of spies. All the major guilds thought that there were no new blood fruit tasks, only Lu Yang released *.

On the other side, taking advantage of this opportunity, Lu Yang is training Wan Zhonghui's "enemies". This enemy is not someone else, but a player in the G8 region who is preparing for trouble.

At the beginning, after the G8 pulled out of the 11 fortresses, they took away all the players, but with the opening of the new expansion pack, many G8 players who like to run the ring but do not want to spend money on equipment, have returned to the 11 main players. City, go back to their familiar copy and play equipment.

In a short period of two days, hundreds of thousands of people came in. Among these people, there were a lot of G8 agents. This was some of them, and some others were the 11 people who fancy the G8. The main city wants to take advantage of the three-person confrontation between the Group of Eight, Spain's Alfonso and Lu Yang to seize the 11 fortresses and stand on its own.

Chapter 1290 - Jurkin

Their name is called the Bengal Scout Group, with a total number of more than 500,000. The head of the group is called Yuerkin.

Lalbagh Fortress, inside the city's main palace.

Tu Feng cast a map on the table and said to Lu Yang: "Tomorrow morning, the official will launch a thing called a weekend event. The official will put a lot of quest monsters around the fortresses built by players.

Every time you kill a mission monster, you will get a bell. Depending on the number of bells, players can randomly exchange items in the city of heaven. The highest reward is the fruit of ordinary blood. “

Zhuo Jiu said: “This task is good, and most of our guild players have no blood. With this task, at least everyone can solve the problem of blood.”

Bitter love asked for half a life: “What does this have to do with the Bangladeshi group and that Yuerkin.”

Tu Feng then said: “According to the information obtained by Qing Qian Zimeng, on the day of the event, Yuerjin will enter the four strongholds of Lalbag, Lembongan, gold mines and Tianhe in the name of casual people without a place to fight. After deliberately conflicting with our people, they immediately posted on the Internet that the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood has bullied scattered groups, causing various scattered groups around the central region to attack us.

To the northwest of the Lalbagh Fortress is the central area of the New World, which is a chaotic and complex area. Hundreds of fortresses are distributed there, but no one can occupy them all.

On the one hand, the surrounding environment is complicated, and on the other hand, there are many scattered groups. A large number of players are willing to become mercenaries to accept the appointment of the fortress city masters to participate in the war. The rewards may be small, but they are much more profitable than not participating in the war. Therefore, there gradually became a paradise for scattered people, at least hundreds of scattered groups gathered in the central region.

Jiang Ze said: “If news such as Yuerjin walks, hundreds of scattered groups in the central part of the New World will inevitably march towards us. Once they have the heart of occupation, then our fortress will be difficult to keep. “

The Group of Eight and Alfonso watched, and they would be happy to see Lu Yang fight with the scattered groups. As long as there was an opportunity, they would not mind taking the opportunity to launch a decisive battle and defeat the Iron Brotherhood.

Lu Yang said with a smile: “If you really let Jurkin’s plan succeed, I really have to take you out and fight with the scatter group is totally unpleasant.”

There is no equipment for the scattered groups, all rely on grabbing, winning won't account for the cheap, and the output is even more loss.

"This Yuerkin is really a master." Biting Ai said rubbing his fists for a long time.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "So, I'm going to do something with Yuerkin ahead of time, so they can't convene other groups."

"How?" Zhou Tianming asked.

Lu Yang pointed to the 130-headed map of the two-headed Demonic City outside the Lalbagh Fortress and said, "Tonight, Yurkin will take a scattered group of 500,000 people into the double-headed demonic city to fight monsters. This city is a short distance from the resurrection point. There is a half-hour distance.

"Yes," said the White Lion.

Lu Yang pointed to the graveyard next to the snake zone in the 120-level map and said, "This is the second resurrection point after the enemy died at the resurrection point where the white lion was.

I ordered Zhou Tianming to take an ambush here with 100,000 people. "

"Yes," Zhou Tianming said.

Lu Yang pointed to the graveyard of the colorful demon area in another 120-level map, and said, "This is the third resurrection point of the enemy.

In a series of 10 orders, White Lion, Muddy Wine, Zhou Tianming, Tian Yao, half-loving, Xia Yuwei, Sirius, Jiang Ze, Sun Yu, and the lovely queen each ambush around these 10 cemeteries .

When the order was over, the cute queen asked curiously, "Boss, there is no one in the double-headed Castlevania responsible for the attack. Who will fight?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Someone hit, not only the two-headed Demon City, but also everyone in your area who was responsible for attacking. You don't attack, you just defend the enemy and don't let them escape the cemetery."

"What ~!" The ten vice-chairpersons froze.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "Don't be shocked, your mission this time is to complete the blood transfer with the Shaman Army."

"Boss, these boys must not be crazy." Tian Yao asked with a smile.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "That's it. Everyone goes to secretly assemble their subordinates. Don't show your feet."

"Yes," the crowd said together.

Large-scale personnel transfer, this is not the first time for Jagged Brothers. He has his own unique method of transfer. Even spies from other guilds can hardly distinguish whether Judge Brothers usually acts against a certain guild or does it. Other things.

Because the transfer of the Jagged Brothers Alliance is always initiated in advance, and there are too many people in the Jagged Brothers Alliance. It is difficult to determine what to do when temporarily transferring several legions.

People such as Zhuojiu and White Lion will not tell their real purpose, but just tell them to take them to open up a new map.

Soon, the Brotherhood of Iron Blood moved, and the spies in the guild also found the transfer situation. Unfortunately, this is not much different from the usual transfer. However, as a precautionary measure, the group of eight agents passed the message to Galga.

Komodo Fortress, inside the city's main palace.

Gherga is sitting with Alfonso. On the map in front of them, it is the 11 fortresses such as Lalbag and Lengmeng that were taken away by Lu Yang before the G8.

"Do you think Yurkin will succeed this time?" Alfonso asked curiously.

Gelgar spread his hands and said, "Before things happened our guesses didn't make sense, but I firmly believe that this is a good opportunity for us."

Alfonso smiled and said, holding the wine glass elegantly, "You fool, Jerkin, thought that his actions were seamless, didn't he simply act under our guidance?"

Gelgar also said with a smile: "A clown jumping clown also wants to occupy my fortress. It's crazy to dream."

Who would have thought that the two most important deputies around Yuerkin were the spies of Gelgar and the spies of Qing Qian Zimeng.

So far, each step of Yurkin's operation is under the control of Lu Yang and Gelga. The only thing he does not know about each other is the identity of the two spies.

Every idea of Yuerkin was the two of them came up for him, or Lu Yang and Gerga came up for him. He got the two superiors with friendship, but how? Nor would I have thought that the real purpose of the two would be to destroy him.

Chapter 1291 - Ambush

“I suggest that you let Jurkin first focus on attacking the Lalbagh fortress, and do n’t disperse the staff, as long as they are big here, the group of people around you will join more quickly. If Lu Yang is joined, Blocking the door around Ralbagh, that’s bad.” Alfonso said.

Gelgar nodded and said, “It makes sense, I’ll call.”

Under a large tree in the 130-level map outside the Lalbag Fortress, Yuerjin was sitting on the stone with a serious face and talking to a dozen players around him.

“Brothers, the official event will be launched tomorrow. This is an event that benefits all players, but the area of the event is around the fortress built by each player. This is extremely beneficial to those guilds with fortresses. They have a lot of May exclude us, chartering levels, and killing ordinary players like us at random.” Ralbagh said.

Many people around the dozen or so players showed anger on their faces. The leveling out of the tournament, relying on the guild, and well-equipped killing are all the pains that these casual people have endured, which they hate most.

“The purpose of our group is to kill such a guild. Boss, tomorrow we must hold a group. Whoever dares to move us will pack him together.” Ral Fogg, vice chairman said.

“Correct.”

“Kill them.”

More than a dozen people responded.

Yuerkin watched his response with satisfaction, saying: "There are too many guilds in the fort now, and we can't attack them one by one, so I set a target. We are near the Lalbag fort. This is the Iron Brotherhood. At the junction with the G8, due to the strike, there are not many defensive players on both sides here. "

"Iron Brotherhood?" Ralfogg's face was embarrassed and said, "Boss, this guild is too powerful, will we not offend it?"

Jurkin laughed and said, "Because of the offense, don't forget, there are hundreds of scattered groups next to us. If we are bullied, as long as we raise our arms, there must be countless scattered groups to help, We all work together, not afraid of his brotherhood. "

Everyone was a little mourning.

Seeing no one responding, Yurkin turned to look at Tara, the third vice president who usually supports him, and said, "Why are you so quiet today? What's my suggestion? Tell me?"

Tara turned her head to look at Yuerkin with a natural smile on her face, and said, "I think the proposal of President Yuerkin is very correct. Now is the time when Lu Yang confronts the Group of Eight and the Alfonso Group. Lu Yang absolutely did not dare to fight a large-scale war with us.

If he dares to fight with us, we must summon other scattered groups, it must be a protracted dogfight. At that time, the Group of Eight and Alfonso will attack the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood while taking advantage of it, and he will lose more. "

Yuerkin nodded with satisfaction and said, "Look, that's what I mean, Tara's analysis is very correct."

The crowd still said nothing.

The fourth vice-president Angelina suddenly smiled and said, "I also support President Yurkin's proposal. Tara was right. I would add that if we can gather enough scattered groups, we It is even possible to force Lu Yang to cede Ralbagh fortress to us. "

The eyes of Yurkin and the army commanders were all on.

Tara looked curiously at Angelina, and the two always disagreed. This time, they even agreed, but he was a little surprised.

Angelina felt Tara's gaze, but instead of looking at Tara, she looked at Yuerkin's eyes gently and said, "As long as we have enough people, Lu Yang will not dare to fight us, it is best We will enter the Lalbagh Fortress today. We will launch a raid tomorrow morning. Before Lu Yang reacts, we will build momentum on the World Channel and official forums, attract other groups of people, and give them certain stakes in the fortress. Lu Yang gave up the fort. "

Yurkin, Ralfogg and others looked at each other, and having a fortress was their biggest dream, but a fortress was worth more than 10 million. These people did not have that much money to build, and grabbed a fortress. Without that strength, if they could use this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to attack the fortress, they would really get rich.

Yurkin gritted his teeth and said, "If you can really lay down the fortress, I will swear here that you must share the shares with the brothers here. Who else has doubts?"

"Done with the boss."

"The whole team when I go back."

Everyone said.

Yurkin said, "Okay, let's do it. Let's discuss it. What should we do?"

Tara blinked. He was a spy sent by Galga. This time, Galga told him that he would lead Yuerkin to the Lalbag fortress. He also worried that the mission would not be completed. A scattered group with only hundreds of thousands of people must be allowed to hit the fortress of the Jagged Brotherhood. As long as they are not fools, they will not use their heads to hit the wall, but he finds that these people seem to be fools and really want to use their heads to hit the wall.

Not to mention whether you can fight down or not, there are problems to enter. He said: "We need to consider how to enter the fort now. I suggest entering the fort after 12 pm China time, so we have a great chance of success."

"It makes sense," Yurkin said.

Angelina said: "I also agree. Now we have to find a place to gather our men and pretend to be wasteland absolutely must not attract the attention of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood."

"Then we will go to the two-headed Demon City, there is a very good Tibetan barracks. Now everyone will act and call their brothers."

"Yes," everyone answered.

Angelina looked at the people who sent the message, her face was plain, but secretly she was sending a message to Tu Feng.

"Boss, Jurkin is convening his two-headed Castlevania, and they are expected to enter the city to open up wasteland in two hours."

Tu Feng was meeting with Lu Yang in the room, and he passed the message to Lu Yang with a smile.

Lu Yang said with satisfaction: "Your subordinates are doing a very beautiful job. Turn back and let Qing Qian Zimeng be promoted."

He looked at people like Zhujiu and White Lion, and said, "Brothers, we will mobilize our staff to meet the predetermined place. We will ambush the enemy two hours later."

"Yes." The crowd responded with a smile.

Chapter 1292 - Likelihood

The speed of the Jagged Brotherhood's assembly is quite horrible. In less than 20 minutes, 10 army groups and 1 million people have assembled.

These 1 million people are all the top players in the Jagged Brothers League. There are more than 100 special players such as the Wolf Guard, the Forbidden Mage, the Archbishop Priest, the Divine Knights, the Remnants of War, the Tauren War Corps, and the Blue Dragon Mage. The legions were all involved in the war.

Outside the Lalbagh fortress, one million people quickly divided into 10 troops and went to a predetermined location on standby.

Looking at the back of the team, Lu Yang turned back and used the big horn, and said to the more than 10,000 shaman players who stayed in place, "Do you know what they are doing?"

Lu Yang said, "These 1 million people have assisted you."

“Auxiliary?” Wan Zhonghui asked confused.

Lu Yang said in a loud voice: “Tonight, this is the moment when more than 10,000 of you have completed the blood oath shaman transfer task.

In the two-headed Demonic City, one and a half hours away from the Lalbagh Fortress, there is a 500,000 casualty army. It is intended that when the official launch of the event tomorrow morning, we will fight against us in the name of the Iron Brotherhood to oppress the scattered people. Can you tolerate it? “

The eyes of Wan Zhonghui and others turned red instantly. More than 10,000 people had angry faces on their faces. The Iron Brotherhood was their home, and it was their home that they managed to regain recognition. Whoever dares to destroy is their enemy. .

“Boss, give your order. We will rush in and kill them. When they kill them, they will mention that the Brotherhood of Jagged Brothers has only fear and will never dare to confront us.” Wan Zhonghui roared loudly.

More than 10,000 people have roared for battle.

Lu Yang’s face was so calm, he said to Tu Feng beside him, “Let it go.”

“Yes.” Tu Feng immediately took his 100 logistic players and carried the storage bag in his hand to Wan Zhonghui and others.

“What is this?” Wan Zhonghui curiously looked at the scroll handed to Tu Feng.

Tu Feng smiled, pointed to Lu Yang, and said, “You guys are really lucky, the boss is really willing to you, it’s all money.”

Wan Zhonghui looked at Tu Feng’s scrolls, which were special skills—thousands of miles to track, special skills—yang yang fist, and special skills—sacred interference, with 10 scrolls of each type.

“This, this.” Wan Zhonghui was stunned.

Of these three skills, the first is to track players who need him to kill within a kilometer, and the second is Lu Yang’s proud skill. It is produced by Lu Yang and a small number of highly intelligent fire mage. Drop 130 levels of dark gold sets of anti-war and anti-riding.

The third skill is that once you encounter a high-attack attack, you will not be attacked within 1 minute after you open this scroll. However, you can’t resist such skills as purification. Once you are hit by purification skills, the divine interference effect disappears, but With this skill, you can ensure that the player will not be spiked in a short time, and give your teammates plenty of time to save him.

Lu Yang was willing to say so at a high cost: “Brothers, take these scrolls, each of you will get the bottle of blood oath. If you want to transfer to become a blood oath shaman, you must fill the blood in it, and think To fill the blood, you must kill the same player 10 times. After a while, the battle begins. You set your own attack targets and kill them quickly, understand. “

Lu Peng said: “Boss, they won’t be resurrected 10 times in place, what if they go elsewhere?”

Lu Yang said loudly: “I just said that the one million people who walked away were going to assist you. What is auxiliary? It is to guard the 10 graveyards around you. You can rest assured that the enemy will have difficulty inserting wings tonight. escape.”

Asking one million people to assist them with 10,000 people is also the most elite special legion of the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood. All players such as Wan Zhonghui and Lu Peng were moved.

“Xie Boss, we must complete the task.” Wan Zhonghui said excitedly.

Wan Zhonghui nodded vigorously, turned around and issued an order. This 10,000 people had already been trained by him, but he ran from the Lalbag Fortress to the double-headed Demon City.

Put on the seal of the crushed acceleration scroll of the mount and shouted, "The whole army goes north gate, and rushes to the two-headed demonic city with me."

"Chong ~!" The heads and captains of the regiment issued orders one after another, and 10,000 people rushed out of the north gate of the Lalbag Fortress like a long dragon and rushed towards the double-headed demon city.

Lu Yang put on a flying carpet and followed in the sky. By the way, he reviewed the 10,000 people and found that the 10,000 people's discipline of action was impeccable.

In the case of the acceleration scroll, only half an hour came to the cliff of black fire that is 10 minutes away from the double-headed demonic city.

Looking down from above, in the double-headed demonic city, countless scattered players are playing monsters in the middle. In the middle of the city, Yuerkin and nearly a hundred elite players are playing boss.

"Haha, today's luck is really good, even hit a wind elf, this thing can sell 30,000 yuan a piece, really earned it." Yuerjin said with a laugh.

There was a slight contempt in Taka's eyes, but she was caught by Angelina who was watching him secretly.

"Sure enough, there is something wrong with this person." Angelina said, all are scattered groups, meaning that everyone has no money. Taka saw that the wind elves showed not envy but contempt, proving that he was rich. People, why do rich people want to join a scatter group or be a deputy without rights?

"Boss, our people are almost gathered, shouldn't they be gathered?" Taka asked.

Yuerkin was still immersed in the excitement of getting treasures. He looked at a dozen bosses in front of him, and said with a smile: "No rush, no rush, let's kill these bosses first, then anyway, now the time is still back. It's early. "

Taka frowned. "It's not a few hours from 12 o'clock. We want to bring people together. No one or two hours can't do it. We need the whole team and the attack direction, at least four. It will take five hours, and an offensive will be launched. "

"Does that take so long?" Jurkin asked stupidly.

Taka had a speechless impulse, secretly: "You give waste, do you think those super guilds can gather hundreds of thousands of people in half an hour or an hour?"

"This is a casual group, boss, gathering is not so easy." Taka said helplessly.

Jurkin scratched his head and said, "Well, then I'll give an order to gather everyone."

Taka was relieved.

Angelina took all this into account, and he secretly sent a message to Tu Feng: "Boss, I suspect that the G8 or some other forces have also placed spies beside Yuerkin, and Taka told the commander A lot of players are very familiar, this is not like an ordinary casual player can know. "

Tu Feng relayed the news to Lu Yang.

Lu Yang smiled and said: "It is estimated to be a game made by the Group of Eight. Fortunately, you found it early and told Angelina to let him help players to gather players, our people, here!"

"Okay." Angelina replied, and he looked up around him, just matching Taka's eyes.

"What are you doing?" Taka asked.

Angelina smiled and said, "I'm doing whatever you are doing."

Taka looked at the smile on Angelina's beautiful face, and felt inexplicably flustered, but could not tell why.

Angelina told Yurkin: "Boss, I'll help you gather the players. If you only let them gather by yourself, one third of people can come here. It's been two hours."

Yurkinaha said with a smile: "Okay, you go, I will continue to play boss with someone."

"Okay." Angelina was speechless. It is estimated that your order is the same as your performance in other people's eyes. First kill the monsters in front of you before you gather them. meeting.

If the boss is out of the equipment after playing, everyone will discuss how to divide it equally, and it is delayed ...

The more thoughtless and silent Angelina rolled her eyes, one team notified and Taka went to the other side, but the more she thought, the more she felt that Angelina's expression was problematic today.

"Boss, I suspect that Angelina, the other vice-chairman of Yuerkin, is Lu Yang's." Taka sent the news to Galga.

Sitting in the Guild Hall, Galga chatted with Alfonso and asked, "Do you have any evidence?"

Taka shook her head and said, "There is no evidence, just a feeling. Today I was exposed a little and was seen by Angelina. Similarly, she also found an abnormality. Can you find the Iron Brotherhood just now? trend."

"There was no news from the spy. I confirm that you must call for staff first." Galga was not convinced.

"What's wrong?" Alfonso asked.

Gelgar repeated Taka's words and said, "I'll check."

Alfonso frowned and said, "Will it be your spy who thinks too much. Some of our spies are in the Brotherhood of Jagged Brothers, and they haven't heard back, proving that Brother Brothers didn't know what happened here."

Gelgas said thoughtfully: "Yeah, if it was Yuerkin who rallied everyone, there might be the possibility of leaks, it's just the few of them ... I'll just ask."

The spies under Gelger's presence inside the Jagged Brothers Guild are only the deputy head of a cannon fodder. They are not outstanding in strength, they only have a better understanding of people's hearts, and can be promoted to deputy head.

After getting the news from Gelgar, he touched his nose and thought about it. The overall Jagged Brotherhood did not change, but he was not clear about the changes between South Korea, the Nine Star Alliance and India.

"Give me some time. There is no problem with Huaxia. I'll check the situation over there," said the spy.

There is no way Gailga can only wait, so is Alfonso. The composition of the Jagged Brotherhood is too complicated. It takes a lot of time and energy to find out all of them.

One hour

An hour and a half passed, and the spies inquired, and finally found out that the Alliance Legion of the Jagged Brotherhood had not changed, and while he was relieved, he heard a word that made him tremble.

“Wan Zhonghui is boring. He said he would block my brother if something happened, but it was really nothing.” Said the head of the cannon fodder.

The spy looked at the player and asked calmly, “Wan Zhonghui has blocked you? No, he doesn’t look like that kind of person. Did you offend him?”

“Nonsense, I offended what he was doing, that this man was a white-eyed wolf. The brother shouted like it was real. Now he is looking for him, but he has blocked me. It is estimated that when the boss turned him on, he blocked me. I’m happy for him because of it.” The head said cursingly.

The spy asked tentatively: “Will he have a secret mission, such as fighting or something, you have to block it as a last resort, is there any special action by the guild today?”

The head of the regimen scratched his head with a relieved expression on his face, and said, “Do n’t tell me, it seems like it really is. The vice chairman and several legion chiefs I just contacted ignored me. Zhonghui, it seems that it is really possible now, it must be a mission, otherwise it is impossible to ignore me. “

The spy was terrified and could not hear the last word of the commander. He quickly sent a message to Galga and shouted, “Today, the Brotherhood of Iron Blood has a secret mission. At least one vice-chairman is dispatched with an elite army.”

Gelgar was waiting for the news of the spy agent. Suddenly, Gelgar was standing full of hair. He immediately sent a message to Taka and shouted: “Stop the task immediately and try your best not to let Yuerkin gather the players. Tonight The matter is a bureau of the Jagged Brotherhood. Dissolve them quickly. “

Two-headed Castlevania.

Taka listened to Gelgar's words and glanced back at the neatly gathered more than 500,000 people, and a player slowly flying over the sky, his face full of wry smiles.

"Boss, it's late, Lu Yang is here in person." Taka said.

Gherga sat on the ground in astonishment. He quickly opened the synchronous video sent by Taka. In the picture, Lu Yang stood above the tower of the south gate of the double-headed demon city and looked at the wall with contempt. Yurkin is training and more than 500,000 scattered players.

"Yurkin, you have the courage to dare to conquer the fortress occupied by the Iron Brotherhood." Lu Yang's voice was flat, but he was full of murderous power.

Yurkin had fallen to the ground in horror. He hoped to land, and Yang Qiang said calmly, "Lu Yang, don't stigmatize people. We are scattered groups. We are not afraid of you. You dare to mess with us. There are scattered groups in the central area, you can't rest in peace. "

Lu Yang smiled scornfully and said loudly: "It's daring, then I'll see if you have that strength, Jagged Brotherhood."

"Kill ~!" The neat roar of 10,000 people suddenly sounded through the double headed demonic city.

Yurkin looked out of the city. I do n't know when the countless players of the Jagged Brotherhood are rushing towards this side.

Taka gritted her teeth and shouted, "Brothers, it's a rare opportunity. Let's kill Lu Yang together. He is the treasure of the whole body."

However, Lu Yang stood still and looked at the Taka who came scornfully, while all the other scattered players, because Taka shouted too fast, the incident suddenly occurred, and only a few people reacted, and most of them Sting in place.

Upstairs.

At this time, Taka had only Lu Yang in his eyes. He saw that Lu Yang was so contemptuous that he didn't shoot at a distance of 5 meters.

"Lu Yang, you are looking for death." Taka shouted.

"Who dares to touch my boss." Wan Zhonghui suddenly jumped up from the wall behind Lu Yang and appeared in front of Taka when Taka was about to reach 1 meter from Lu Yang. A sword stabbed in the middle of Taka's throat.

"1918374" (Ignore Defense + Double Critical Strike)

"1918374" (Ignore Defense + Double Critical Strike)

For three consecutive red numbers, Taka's body stagnates in the air, and then the body falls freely to the ground.

Taka, die!

Wan Zhonghui's crossblade stopped at 1 meter in front of Lu Yang and pointed at Taka. "I swear in the name of my ancestors, Taka is my life and death enemy."

A drop of blood entered Wan Zhonghui's blood vow in silence, and he completed his first kill.

"Since the elder brother chose Taka, then I chose Yuerkin." Lu Peng jumped out with a smile, standing at 1 meter on the other side of Lu Yang, and the two arch guards were around Lu Yang.

Immediately afterwards, more than 10,000 shamans jumped onto the city wall, and there was an overwhelming slump, watching the more than 500,000 scattered players.

Yuerkin looked at Lu Yang in horror and said: "Lu Yang, you, you are basically a sneak attack on us, I will not let you go."

Lu Yang sneered and said, "Angelina, come back."

"Yes Angelina jumped out of Yuerkin's side with a smile and came to Lu Yang's side. She looked at Yuerkin's furious eyes and said:" You conspired to attack the Iron Brotherhood, the intention I have recorded all the incidents of seizing the Jagged Brothers Fortress, and the evidence is complete. "

Sitting on the ground, Yuerkin was paralyzed. He never thought that Lu Yang had such a powerful strength that even his most trusted deputy was a spy of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood.

Lu Yang was too lazy to talk to Jurkin, and said lightly, "Offensive."

"Kill ~!" More than 10,000 shamans rushed down the city wall crazy and rushed towards the 500,000 players in the city.

The level of casual players is mostly between 120 and 130, and the equipment ranges from silver to dark gold. Where can I play the Iron Brotherhood, this group is wearing a 140 dark gold suit and has a complete 140 dark gold Elite attacks on cooking, top assist skills, Flasks, and scrolls.

500,000 people, just like a tiger entering a rabbit's den, a large number of 500,000 people were killed!

Chapter 1293 - Stunning Central Region

"Retreat, everyone will retreat," Yuerkin exclaimed in astonishment.

500,000 people do n't need to say that they have already scattered to find a way to live, but the exit of the two-headed Demonic City has been controlled by the players of the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood. These 500,000 people have nowhere to escape, and the scattered scattered fled, basically No ability to block the Iron Brotherhood.

Lu Yang shook his head while watching the killings in the city. In just a few minutes, the number of scattered groups was killed by more than 100,000.

He sent a message to Wan Zhonghui and said, "Don't fight in love, anyone who kills someone quickly goes to cemetery 1."

Wan Zhonghui was on the rise, and when he saw the news, he stopped quickly and shouted, "Stop anyone who kills, stop with me and go to No. 1 cemetery."

Turning for the first time, even if the red-eyed one temporarily restrained his inner thoughts, more than 10,000 people took up their long swords and turned to run outside the city.

Lu Yang said, "It has been more than a year since they were over, they should have matured. How about the forum, have you greeted with the scattered group alliance?"

Tu Feng said, "I just contacted the director of their group, Yulian, who personally apologized to us and said that he would never launch a surprise attack with Yuerkin. At the same time, he fired Yuerkin from the group. No one is taking care of Yurkin now. "

Lu Yang sneered and said, "Finally, we have solved this trouble. This time, we can see what kind of flowers this Yuerkin can play."

Graveyard 1.

Yuerkin was resurrected from the cemetery. He gritted his teeth and looked at the resurrected men around him. He cried bitterly, "Lu Yang, I must report you and see how our scattered groups clean up you."

[World Channel] Yuerkin: Brothers in the full-service group, brothers of the Iron Blood Brotherhood, are bullying and wantonly slaughter the players in the group in Ralbagh. For help, for help, for help!

The same sentence was sent three times in a row, and the lively World Channel became quiet because of this sentence, but then a blockbuster came.

"Yurkin, you are a bastard, what is your role as a scout? What tools do you use to attack Lu Yang?"

"Fucking Jerkin, he actually wanted to trick us into playing Lu Yang, and watch the video on the forum by himself, and everything about you was exposed."

Yuerkin was also very proud because a word of himself made the World Channel quiet for him for three seconds, but he was dumbfounded to see the speech below, and quickly opened the forum, which clearly contained the video saved by Angelina And video screenshots.

“Angelina, you wait for me.” Yuerkin gritted his teeth and cursed, knowing that it was no longer useful to ask for help online, and could only go to the head of another casual group.

Yurkin was about to take out the phone, but found that his interphone was ringing. When he took it up, he was shocked. The caller came from the head of the largest casual group in the central region. Before they were established With a casual alliance, Yurian is the chief of the alliance.

“Yurkin, starting today, you are no longer a member of our group, and the group does not recognize your status.”

“Snapped”

The call was hung up, and Jurkin sat in horror. His organization was fired from the group, and he knew he was done.

“Boss, something serious has happened.” Deputy Handelfolg ran over in horror.

“What else can happen?” Yulkin said, confused.

“We are surrounded, surrounded by the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood.” Ralfog said.

“Nonsense, the people of the Iron Brotherhood are in the double-headed demonic city, how could they be here?” Yuerkin said unbelievably.

“Really, it’s not Lu Yang who surrounds us, it’s a man called Zhuoji Pour.” Ralfog said.

“The muddy wine is pouring?” Jurkin was startled and asked quickly: “Why is he here, and how many people did he bring?”

“I don’t know. His people are all around the cemetery. We were trapped by them, and we couldn’t run around.” Ralfog asked confused.

“Stuck? They didn’t attack us?” Yurgin asked.

Ralfog shook his head and said, “I do n’t know what the reason is, but we are stuck and we do n’t attack, but we ca n’t do it when we want to go back to the city. Only one point of blood was forced. “

“What does this mean?” Jurkin was confused.

Where did he know that Lu Yang’s idea was to use them to fill the blood of the Blood Vow Bottle, and it took less than 20 minutes for Yuerkin to get lost, riding a fast horse and turning on the accelerated scroll of more than 10,000 shamans. Arrived under the command of Wan Zhonghui.

“Rush in, go to your enemies, don’t kill anyone, kill other brothers, and see how I can clean him up.” Wan Zhonghui shouted.

“Haha, boss, rest assured.” Lu Peng and everyone rushed into the cemetery with a laugh, and launched an attack on more than 50,000 people trapped in the center of the cemetery.

It was no surprise that Yuerkin was killed again!

A flash of light flashed, and Yuerkin was resurrected in cemetery 2. At this time, he still did not react from Yurian's words. Compared with being killed once or twice by the Iron Brotherhood, he was more concerned about being Lian fired.

The scattered group is the home on which he depends. If he is expelled from the scattered group, his scattered group will soon be swallowed up.

"You have to find a way to go back, and you can't be fired." Yuerkin took out the analog intercom, and quickly called him a few scattered group leaders he had made.

Unfortunately, none of them answered, and all the heads of scattered groups hated Yurkin's practice of pulling people off the water.

The original intention of the group was to prevent bullying by the Grand Guild, not to attack large trade unions in the form of guilds.

In the central region, there are frequent wars. Whether it is Japan, Sudan, the United States, or a dozen other super guilds, they are hostile to the scattered groups. It is not easy to deal with them, and dare to provoke Lu Yang in the name of scattered groups?

"Damn, I didn't answer my call, I didn't even answer my call." Yuerkin yelled angrily.

Taka looked at Yurkin's expression with a touch of sarcasm and said, "Think about how to solve the problem at hand, and then come later."

He is reluctant to just give up a casual group that can be easily controlled by him, 500,000 people. Even if it is useless now, it may not be useless in the future.

"What's the problem now, my junk group is about to dissolve."

Taka pointed to the forbidden spell that forced a drop of blood in the sky and said, "Look at heaven, we are still in the state of being chased and killed. If you don't think about how to solve the current problem, it is really a big problem. "

Yurkin looked around in confusion, and when he found that there was a curse in the sky, he was stunned.

“Doesn’t the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood refuse to let us go like this? We have chased us twice, and we have to kill a third time?” Yuerkin said in horror.

Taka did not expect that Lu Yang would be so angry this time, saying: “We try to break out first, as long as we can rush out, slowly gather other people, find a hidden map to hide and slowly level, and sooner or later will rise again. You do n’t have to worry about these things. “

“Want to run? It’s too late.” Zhou Tianming didn’t know when he appeared in front of Juerkin, and said to his men around him: “Put collective fear and teach them a profound lesson.”

“Yes.” More than 5,000 warlocks and dark animal husbandry rushed into the map, releasing fear art alternately, and people like Yurkin and Taka instantly became fools, running around the map without a brain.

Half an hour later, when Wan Zhonghui brought people over, he was very happy to see the scene in front of him. He thanked Zhou Tianming and rushed in.

Jurkin and his men died for the third time!

Necropolis 3.

Jurkin resurrected with a sorrowful smile. He sat on the ground and said to Taka next to him: “Now it is 2 hours away from the Lalbag Fortress. We finally escaped and died 3 times!”

Taka smiled helplessly and said, “Yeah, Lu Yang is also fierce enough, even hunted us three times. Fortunately, finally he was relieved. Let’s gather people together, we will run as soon as possible.”

Just then, a loud drink came from not far away.

“Want to run? Tianyao has been waiting here for a long time.” Tianyao appeared with a two-handed sword.

“You, you !?” Jurkin shuddered.

Taka stared at the boss, and asked, “What the * do you want to do? We have already given up, why should we hunt?”

Tian Yao said coldly: “You think this game was started by your family, do you say how is it? Have you asked our brothers in the Iron Brotherhood to agree to let you go?”

“Don’t agree.” The shout was shocking, and the number was at least 100,000.

For three consecutive attacks, just like sifting with a sieve, less than 20,000 of 500,000 people are following Yuerkin’s side, 20,000 to 100,000, or the orc legion of Tianyao, whether Taka or Yule King didn’t have that courage.

Not only the two of them, but the remaining 20,000 players were also killed, facing the forbidden rain falling in the sky, they couldn’t escape, couldn’t go offline, and couldn’t surrender. They didn’t know what to do.

After 20 minutes.

More than 10,000 shamans relentlessly killed more than 20,000 people, including Yurkin.

Necropolis 4

Yurkin was resurrected in situ. It has been two and a half hours away from the Lalbag Fortress. After he was resurrected, he looked around and did not see the existence of the Iron Brotherhood.

“Lu Yang, the humiliation you gave me, I will definitely repay it in the future. I have more than 20,000 brothers, and I can make a comeback.” Yuerjin shouted angrily.

More than 20,000 players who followed him had no momentum at all, and many people showed their hopes when they heard this sentence.

“Brothers, follow me and convene all the brothers. I’ll take you to find a hidden map to blame, and when we are equipped, come back to Lu Yang and the scattered group to settle accounts.” Yuerkin said aloud, remembering Taka.

“Okay,” Taka shouted.

The purpose of ordinary players joining the scatter group is to play equipment well. The head of the group is willing to play the equipment with all their strength, and they are naturally willing to follow. More than 20,000 people have risen towards Yuerkin to gather.

Just at this time.

“Which hidden map do you want to go to? Will our Brotherhood of Brotherhood allow you to go?” Biting a half-life with a sneer, he surrounded 100,000 people from all directions.

“Yeah, yeah?” Yulkin said droolingly.

Taka is stunned, this is the resurrection point 2 and a half hours away from the most border fortress of the Iron Brotherhood, not to mention Lu Yang sent people to ambush them, mainly to be able to achieve such a precise ambush, let Taka feel To fear.

“Is this the style of your brother-in-law brotherhood, we have already confessed our mistakes, and we are wrong, why are we still trying so hard to kill them, it is more than 2 hours away, and we have designed here to ambush us. Shouted Taka’s eyes.

There was no hesitation on Wan Zhonghui’s face, and he said with a sneer: “Don’t play such a trick. If you win today, our Jagged Brothers Alliance will use a fortress that was dropped by tens of millions of people, and you will be beaten by your group. Someone snatched it. What should we do at that time? Today, you have no chance to run. I must chase it all the way and kill your * back to the map of Central China.

More than 10,000 shamans pounced on Jurkin’s scattered group, killing the enemy clean in less than 20 minutes.

Then, cemetery No. 5 and cemetery No. 6 ... all the way to cemetery No. 9, at this time, it was five hours away from the Iron Brotherhood, and it was considered to have entered the edge of the central map.

This is an area where players from more than a dozen countries such as Japan, Sudan, the United States, Poland, and Austria live together. On the vast map, countless foreign players are watching more than 10,000 elite brothers Shaman chasing 20,000 fleeing. Doyulkin was defeated.

“What’s going on there, how does it look like the Sanshou group was chased down by the guild? We are also the Sanshou group, should we go up to help?” Asked a Sanshou soldier player.

“You’re stupid, can’t you see that is the defeat of Jurkin?” Said another mage player of the same team.

“Then the opposite is the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood. Isn’t they the Jurkin Sanctuary that was besieged at the Lalbag Fortress? That was still 5 hours ago. How can we run here?” Said.

The mage crooked his mouth and said, “The Brotherhood of the Iron Blood is fierce enough. From Ralbagh to hunt down the scattered groups to Tianhui Village in the central area, they hunted for 5 hours.”

Everyone in the team smiled stunned.

The head of the delegation took a deep look at Wan Zhonghui, who rushed to the front, and said, "Remember in the future, if the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood enters the central area, don't provoke him. We can't provoke this guild."

"Oh, sympathy," several players in the team said.

Outside Tianhui Village.

Wan Zhonghui held a 140-level dark gold sword in his left hand, watching more than 20,000 people such as Yuerjin, who was terrified in the village, said nothing.

Yurkin had been killed and killed, and he was blocked in 9 necropolises along the way, and each time he was resurrected, the vice chairman of the Jagged Brotherhood led the 100,000 men outside the graveyard.

He could n't run, he could fight again, but he was blocked by the opponent in the graveyard in any way. In this case, they could not exit the game. Once they exited the game is not a safe area, they will definitely be hit infinitely. Killing, forced resurrection every half an hour, death is even more painful.

In this way, they were hunted for a day, and now they finally left the sphere of influence of the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood, but Wan Zhonghui didn't let them go, watching Wan Zhonghui and more than 10,000 shamans outside the village. They I was really afraid that Wan Zhonghui ordered Tucun, and they were out of luck again.

"Everyone hurry up and use the transfer token to fly to Tianyuan God City," Yurjin shouted.

"Exploded."

"Mine also burst out."

"Equipment is almost gone."

He died 11 times in succession, and his whole body was dropped by half. How could the transmission token of Tianyuan God City still be.

Yuerkin reluctantly took people to buy supplies first, but fortunately, the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood chased them and killed them too many times, which led them to dare not enter the village. Otherwise, Yuerkin really didn't know what to do.

Outside the village.

Players who like to watch the fun come together gradually, and soon gathered thousands of people to discuss what Wan Zhonghui is doing.

Wan Zhonghui saw that the number was almost the same, and said loudly with a loud speaker: "Yurkin, killing your legion 11 times today is just a lesson. You remember, if you dare to provoke the Iron Brotherhood, I will kill you back to level 0. . "

Inside the village, Jurkin didn't dare to say a word, and hid in it so quietly.

Wan Zhonghui stared inside the village and said with a sneer: "The battle ended with me, and the army returned to the Lalbag Fortress."

10,000 people were killed all night, and they were all tired, but none of them showed fatigue, and excitedly turned away with Wan Zhonghui.

Looking from a distance, more than 10,000 shamans of the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood ran neatly toward the northeast region like a steel torrent.

The players around me are dumbfounded.

Among the crowd, Angelina changed her account, lurking among the crowd, and passed the synchronous video to Tu Feng.

In the main city of the Lalbagh Fortress, Lu Yangzheng met with Tu Feng and others. After seeing this live video, Lu Yang said with satisfaction: “The effect has been achieved and Wan Zhonghui has done a good job.”

He ordered Wan Zhonghui to pursue the purpose of killing on the one hand, and on the other hand to deter more than thirty guilds and scattered groups in the central region who had ideas about the Lalbagh fortress.

Zhuo Jiu said: “With this time, it is estimated that people in the central region would not dare to provoke us easily.”

Lu Yang nodded and said: “It’s been a busy day today. Let’s take a break and go all out in the afternoon. This event is special and the opportunity is rare.”

Chapter 1294 - New main city making money cheats

Four p.m.

Lu Yang slowly woke up. When he entered the game, people such as Zhuojia and White Lion had been playing in the game for more than an hour.

“Boss, Wan Zhonghui and other 10,300 blood-shaded shamans completed the transfer task.” Tu Feng said in a message.

“Boss, the blood oath shaman is too powerful, the first knife must trigger 7 blood oath strikes, lethal skills.” Wan Zhonghui watched Lu Yang go online, can't wait to send news.

Lu Yang said with a smile: “Practice the skills of the Blood Oath Shaman, and strive to improve the level. When you reach level 150, I will take you to fight equipment.”

“Yes, thank you, boss.” Wan Zhonghui said excitedly.

The Blood Oath Shaman, one of the strongest melee professions of the previous life, once being close, triggers two consecutive Blood Oath strikes, and non-defense combat classes will die!

With this legion, in the future he will break into the eastern mountains, and it will be easier to attack Alfonso. However, this requires level support, and their level is too low.

Qi Yun called and said: “Boss, the first money made by the gold mine, a total of 1 billion I have transferred to your game account, you check it.”

Lu Yang needed the money and said, “Okay, let me see.”

He opened his personal account, and it turned out that someone sent him 1 billion cash, all of which was cash. Lu Yang converted it into gold coins, and more than 3.33 million gold coins came out of his backpack.

Looking at the money, Lu Yang knew that the money would disappear in a blink of an eye. He took out the phone and called all the vice presidents such as Tu Feng, Zhuojiu and Karp, saying, "To Chiyang City The city's main capital gathers. "

"Yes." Everyone wrote back.

Blue lights flashed, and people such as Muddy Wine, White Lion, Karp, Padu, Li Wenxing, and God of War I came to the main city.

Meeting room.

Lu Yang was sitting there waiting for them. Not long after, more than 40 vice presidents including the domestic guild and foreign guilds were present.

"Boss, what's your urgency to call us back?" Zhou Tianming asked.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "Investment, my first payment of 1 billion yuan has been credited to my account, and I am going to use this money to improve the practice level for everyone."

Everyone's eyes were brightened, and excited expressions appeared. Since the game was started, ordinary players have no guild, and they can't practice. Generally, guilds can't practice at level 5 or less. But seeing that high price, only a few people can learn.

You know, this is a 50% increase in damage and defense results. Once the learning is completed, the damage is more than doubled.

"Boss, how are you going to divide?" Tian Yao asked.

Lu Yang thought for a while and said, "According to the performance of previous wars, one of my items is distributed according to the ratio of 4: 3: 2: 1, that is, 4 domestic players in Iron Brotherhood and 3 in India Two, South Korea, one, and nine-star alliance, one. "

Karp, Padu, God of War I, and others were surprised. Normally, Lu Yang's proportion of domestic players should account for at least 60%, and the remaining 3 regions accounted for 4 achievements, but Lu Yang turned it around. He gave only 40% to his country, and the other three countries accounted for 60%.

"Thank you, Boss." Padu stood up slightly and thanked him.

Lu Yang smiled and asked, "Do you have any objections to this?"

Patho and Karp naturally have no opinion. They are only 10% less than the headquarters of the Jagged Brothers Alliance. This is already a shame. In the follow-up, there are investments coming in. They will get more and more funds.

"We agree," said Indian players such as Karp and Padu.

Li Wenxing and Ares I looked at each other.

"I have something to say." God of War I said.

Lu Yang signaled that God of War I continued.

"Sir President, first of all I agree with your distribution, but I have a small request that you can agree." God of War I said.

Lu Yang said, "You say."

God of War I said: "In future wars, if our players in the Nine Star Alliance region perform better than India and South Korea, we ask for their share. This ratio cannot stay here forever."

Lu Yang said: "This is a reasonable request. If you perform better than the headquarters of the Jagged Brotherhood in the later wars, you will get the highest percentage. Although I am a Chinese, I am a gamer. When it comes to the country, we are brothers in the game, and brothers in reality. Whoever is more guild brotherly guild will contribute more, it deserves more. "

Karp and Partu thought that Lu Yang would easily agree, but did not expect that Lu Yang would say such a word, which convinced them even more.

“Your Excellency, your admiration for your actions.” Karp stood up and said respectfully.

Li Wenxing and God of War I and others all stood up to show respect.

Lu Yang said with a smile: “If you have no comments, I will pay the money according to this ratio. The first batch of players, I requested that all of them be used to train members of the forbidden mage team. This event is 7 days. We want in these 7 days, help more players to level 150 as early as possible.”

The previous ring-run missions allowed the main players of the Jagged Brothers Alliance to rise to level 145 or higher and rise to level 147 as quickly as possible.

For this event, the experience is very high. An active monster is 100 times that of a normal monster. Of course, such monsters are not easy to fight and require strong damage ability. Therefore, Lu Yang wanted to raise the ban first. Spell damage for spellcaster players.

Everyone present was an old player. Naturally, Lu Yang knew what he said was correct. They promised that Lu Yang didn't make sense to everyone and distributed 3.33 million gold coins in proportion. Then everyone left.

Here, Karp and others just left. Hei Yan smiled and took in 400 million cash from Lu Yang. There were more than 30,000 cursed mages in the headquarters of the Brotherhood of Iron Man, all of whom signed formal contracts with the guild and settled in. The elite of the studio.

“Thank you, boss, I'll take them to upgrade the practice level.” Hei Yan said excitedly.

Lu Yang shook his head with a smile and said: “Don't learn wrong, first learn spell practice, and then take these people into 10 teams, evenly distributed between the Labyrinth Fortress and the Crescent Fortress.”

According to other guilds, the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood has a very big advantage. Scattered groups of more than 500,000 people have been driven away. There are almost no ordinary players around the 11 fortresses built by Lu Yang.

At first it was hailed as a chicken rib. There was no player fortress. Not only was there no money to make, it also required a large number of player defenses.

At that time, people thought that Lu Yang was losing money, but now because of the activities, these 11 fortresses are empty, but they have completed the Iron Brotherhood.

The area of other guilds is full of players, and the missions that are brushed every 15 minutes, even if there are only 100,000 people per fortress, it is only five or six per person. On the contrary, Lu Yang's side, No one blame at all.

The redefined 300,000 main force is evenly distributed in 10 fortresses, with one remaining. In this way, each fortress has only 30,000 players in the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood.

Brushing a monster once, the mountains and the mountains are all activity monsters, not to mention grabbing, killing can not be completed, therefore, at this time if there are groups of forbidden wizards to help fight monsters, the speed of upgrades, the same day.

Zhuo Jiu, Bai Shi, and other vice-chairmen, who did not return to their respective command centers at this time, followed Hei Yan to Chiyang City, staring blankly at Hei Yan to upgrade his forbidden mage.

400 million cash to increase the training level for 30,000 people, up to level 8 at most, but this is also enough, an additional 20% of magic damage results, the real increase of the data is at least 1.5 times the attack power.

More than 30,000 forbidden spell masters have completed their cultivation, and others such as Zhuojiu and White Lion ignored the others, swarming up and snatching their favorite forbidden spell players.

Lu Yang did not participate in this event. Seeing that his players have upgraded, the major guilds have also turned their attention to the event. He quietly took Lan Yu, Han Fei, Han Yu and Han Yu, Mu Yi, Mu A few people such as Yu came to Tianyu.

The Huaxia area of Tianyu is a city like a fairyland. Outside the city, there are large areas of fairy mountains and * earth.

Lan Yu nodded and said, “Like.”

Lu Yang said to Mu Yi, “I bought the land on this mountain.”

“Yes.” Mu Yi clicked on the system interface and bought the land 50 kilometers away from the main city of Tianyu. It cost 500 gold coins.

Lu Yang laughed from the bottom of his heart. In the future, the system will do more and more business. This is just an appetizer. However, the system is not flawless. The humanized actions he designed are placed in the eyes of many studios and players. Is the opportunity to make money.

For example, the land in front of it was previously hyped in the old continent. Many of the land are expensive. After entering the new continent, the old land is worthless.

Because of the previous lessons, the land in the New World did not immediately get the players’ favor, but everyone was watching. Many guilds bought some land, but not many.

At this time, they did not know the important role of the land, but he knew that the land in the New World was not valuable, but the houses built on the land were very valuable. As for how to make money, I am afraid that players who have not tried it will want to I dare not think about it.

Lu Yang took Mu Yi and successively bought 50 large mountain plots. Each plot can hold 1,000 houses, 50 of which are 50,000 houses, and Lu Yang's cash in hand is less than 300 million.

"Boss, don't these plots build houses?" Mu Yi's forge divisions and tanners and other life occupations were all transferred to become master architects at the request of Lu Yang.

The Italians have completed 7 lessons in accordance with Lu Yang's requirements. This group of boys under Mu Yi, a total of more than 2,000 people, and the "regret brothers" of the cannon fodder have all learned to build houses.

Lu Yang asked: "Our brothers, how is the house built, how many people can build lucky plus 5."

Mu Yi sighed, "Boss, I have to say that the architectural design professor you are looking for is really powerful. 100 of us brothers can build a house with 4 to 5 luck each time we build a house, and the rest Everyone is lucky 3 or more. "

Lu Yang said, "Let them all build the house, it doesn't need to be too big, as long as the cheapest private house is available. A total of 50,000 dwellings have been built, and it is best to complete them within one week."

Mu Yi said: "There are too many houses, not enough time."

Lu Yang said: "Find the brothers of the cannon fodder and let them participate in the construction. Each completed one will cost 100 yuan in cash."

"Yes." Mu Yi took the phone to find someone.

Lu Yang thought about it and said, "It's also time to send the role of the house to the world, let everyone know this, and the price of the house will come up."

When everyone cares about the house, the price of the house will soar, and Lu Yang will solve the income problem for Liu Ruohuai and his brothers.

He clicked on the forum interface, and posted a house lucky degree in his real name, a guide to improving the chances of building equipment and synthetic items.

Just after writing, in less than 2 minutes, the post was officially posted on the forum homepage. The huge red letter translated this article written by Lu Yang in more than 30 languages.

Every time a player kills a wave of activity monsters, just when they are resting, this news of Lu Yang is topped out in the major live broadcast rooms, instant chat groups, guild groups and circle of friends.

“I went, and the house was built with luck. President Lu Yang was righteous, too righteous. Buy a lucky 5 house and increase the combined probability by 50%.”

“In these strongest guilds, I admire Lu Yang. This person is really a good person. Such things are willing to be shared with our ordinary people and replaced by other chairpersons. I have been hiding for a long time.”

“Thank you President Luyang.”

On the World Channel, a wave of thanks to Lu Yang brushed the screen, and they followed the message with good things, but they did n't know, but Lu Yang was not online at this time.

Offline.

Lu Yang walked leisurely to the human resources department. At this time, the human resources supervisor was not someone else. It was Zheng Yuan who had resentment with Lu Yang at the time. This boy has completely learned, not only knowing how to be a person, but also how to do things.

Because of the relationship between Xia Yuwei's family and Lan Yu's family and Zheng Yuan's parents, the two found Lu Yang to intercede. Before that, they had been working on Zheng Yuan in the old continent. They were gradually promoted by Lu Yang. His boss is still Tu Feng.

"Boss, why are you here?" Zheng Yuan was busy, seeing Lu Yang quickly stood up and asked with a smile.

Lu Yang patted his shoulder and said, "How is work here, is there any problem?"

"No, everything is fine," Zheng Yuan said.

Lu Yang nodded and said, "Give me a job posting, some people who know how to raise flowers and grass, preferably between 45 and 60 years old, write a salary of 5,000 a month and recruit 100 people."

Lu Yang said: "Yeah, it's just for the welfare of the brothers in the guild. Whoever wants to work out, I will recruit him."

"Okay, I'll let people post it." Zheng Yuan said.

"Not so much trouble, print 10 copies, I'll post them." Lu Yang said.

"How can you use this?" Zheng Yuan said quickly.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Just walk around and go to India."

"Uh, okay." Zheng Yuan didn't know what Lu Yang was going to do, and went to print.

Soon, the printing of 10 recruitment notices was completed, and Lu Yang walked out of the building of the war studio with the printed parts and came to the residential area with a few people in black and white and black knives.

The current residential area is completely a garden-like residential area with fountains, flower gardens, and parks, as well as an activity center and gym dedicated to entertaining the elderly, and a gym and swimming pool next to it.

In these areas, the place where the elderly gather more often is the activity center, where there are many grandfathers and grandmothers playing mahjong and poker, and the other gathering point is near the flower garden where they like to play flower starlings.

Lu Yang laughed and said, “What are you doing?”

“Isn’t this kind of flower? I’ll tell you, my flower is so expensive, I’ve been taking care of it for 2 years, and it’s finally blooming.” The old head said with a laugh.

“Cut ~! You’re less bragging, you want me to say, you’re just stupid, look at my orchid, how beautiful it is, you are far worse than me.” Lao Li’s head popped out of the flower garden not far away .

“Just your broken orchid compares to me.” The old boss said unwillingly.

Lu Yang watched the two of them fight again and quickly said with a smile: “Don’t be impulsive, don’t be impulsive, we need to be calm, calm.”

“Hum.” Both old men were too lazy to talk to anyone.

“What are you doing here?” The old Li asked.

Lu Yang put out a recruitment notice and said, "Recruit people."

"Then you've come to the wrong place. What can we do to help you old guys, it won't disturb you," said the old Li head.

The old Zhang head said, "Yeah We can't do anything. At this age, we only have one flower."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "This time I am hiring, and I must be a master of flower growing."

Both the old Zhang head and the old Li head were interested.

"Tell us something else, I don't blow flowers, I'm really an expert at this stuff," said old Li Tou.

"I'm better than him." The old man said smoothly.

Lu Yang laughed and said, "That's the case. This is a secret task. You know, you can't say it, you can't mention it to outsiders, you can't mention it to your family. This task is very profitable. Sells flowers for farming. "

This is a popular method of making money in the game. How much money is made? A player can earn more than 1 million credits a month. If it is a studio, it can earn tens of millions.

Chapter 1295 - Black light gem

Lu Yang said, "It's simple for you. I'll buy the seeds, and you will be responsible for planting. Just follow the actual breeding methods and feed the plants."

The two old men were happy when they heard it.

"It's that simple, then we can do it." Old Li said.

Lu Yang laughed and said, "I'm not here to recruit you. 5000 yuan a month, two old men don't come."

"Come on," the two said in unison.

The old Zhang suddenly responded and said, "I will recruit some of you for you, all of whom are masters in our community."

Lu Yang said, "Okay."

Old Li's head also reacted, watching the fast-moving old head cursing: "You want to stand on the top of the mountain, you want to ride on my head, there is no door, and I'll find someone to go to."

Black and White stood aside and asked, "Boss, are they all right?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Where I am, they are willing to come. Just let this old man have fun. An extra income can improve the average family a lot."

5,000 yuan a month, in a small city, can be considered a considerable income, a family of an additional 5,000 yuan, the quality of life can greatly improve.

Furthermore, Lu Yang recruited these people with confidence. All of them had family members working in the Jagged Brothers League, and the old man knew how to be rigorous. They would not publicize the secrets. This would ensure the greatest profit for this task.

In the Iron Blood Brotherhood's war studio building, on the 11th floor, 100 old men, wearing the clothes they thought were the best, walked into the room that Lu Yang arranged for them.

Lu Yang returned to the 33rd floor. After entering the game, he took 100 old men to Tianyu. At the portal, he chose the area he purchased. A light flashed and he appeared in a mountain.

System prompt: You found Yunmeng Mountain

This is the area purchased by Lu Yang. At this time, Mu Yi's men are already constructing houses in the mountain. The house is not built on site, but using a thing called a land lease. After the house is completed in advance, it is sealed in the land lease. When you choose to release the building when it is constructed, the built house will appear.

Mu Yi saw Lu Yang coming and ran over and said, "There were 2,000 stocks before, and 3,000 stocks of the brothers of the cannon fodder. The 5,000 houses in the first mountain were all built."

Lu Yang turned around and said to a group of fathers, "Did you see the garden in front of each house? Just in the garden, I will give you money to buy flower pots. Remember to buy level 3 flower pots. Do n't Buying Tier 1 and Tier 2 is useless. "

"Oh." A group of old men agreed.

Lu Yang took out the cash and gave it to a group of old men. If he wants to grow flowers, he needs to buy a flower pot, a first-class flower pot for 100 yuan, a second-class flower pot for 200 yuan, and a third-level flower pot for 500 yuan.

Lu Yang took out a total of 62.5 million credits. This is the cash received from advertising contracts. This money is not paid for 600 million euros at a time, but is distributed monthly. Moreover, this money has to pay huge taxes. Therefore, there is not much money each month.

But a bunch of old men are dumbfounded. Where have they seen so much money, and they are evenly distributed to everyone, there are more than 6 million.

Lu Yang clapped his hands and motioned them to come back and said, "Buy 25 Grade 3 flower pots per house, and the grandpas will act."

It happened that the old Li head also recruited 50 people. The two became their respective leaders and looked at each other. The two old men could not help but choose to divide the house on Yunmeng Mountain in two, and one person took up half of the area to lead. The old men were laying flower pots.

With the old Zhang and Li heads, Lu Yang came to the position of the dividing line set by the two. See if they can figure it out. It is not difficult to buy flower pots from the system and place them. It can be done with simple operations. understand.

The two old men were very smart and learned without Lu Yang's teaching.

"This game is designed just like it really is. This is not the same as I am serving plants every day in reality." The old Zhang said.

Lu Yang laughed, and that was exactly what he said, "You are busy first, I'll buy you seeds."

Seeds, this thing is a fresh thing. There are three ways to get seeds. One is a veteran flower farmer in Tianyu City. You can get seeds from receiving tasks from him, but they are all level 2. The other is Activity tasks, such as today's Bell task.

Lu Yang remembers very clearly that in the last life, it was this task of bells, and the most things given were seeds.

At this time, a house with a new map has just been launched. No one knows what this thing is useful for. Just learned from Lu Yang 's strategy that a house can increase luck. There are not many people who need luck, and the house does not seem expensive. But the furniture is expensive to die.

The production of furniture in the game can only be made by players learning the guild skills. However, no one knows the specific production method and knows how to make furniture. A few simple pieces will cost a lot of money, not to mention high-quality furniture, such as furniture with luck , Expensive outrageous.

Now the people who can buy a house and furniture in the game are really rich people, most of them are waiting for the follow-up news of these people.

In fact, the intentional player does not need to be reminded by others, and also knows the price of the house. You only need to calculate it carefully. In fact, this official launch is not a thing that allows players to make money, but a Let players spend money, official money-making stuff.

Take the land as an example. The land is very worthless. Even the land around Tianyu is worthless, because each land has a teleportation array that can be transmitted at any time. Even if it is around Tianyu City, is it necessary to run in? , Transmission is free.

Really expensive is the house, furniture, and flower garden. Those who want to attract the attention of beautiful women will make a very beautiful house in their own home, make a room of furniture, and make a beautiful flower garden. It's even more than 100,000 yuan.

The official purpose is this, but the official did not expect that if it was invested to a certain degree, these flower gardens could be used to make money, because quantitative changes caused qualitative changes.

Lu Yang returned to the real world and said to Tu Feng: "Acquire a level 3 seed on the World Channel, one for 30 copper coins. Don't use our guild account, use other guild trumpet."

"Okay," Tu Feng said.

Now the official acquisition of the Jagged Brothers Alliance is a weathervane. All players will see what the Jagged Brothers collect, and they will follow it. So, Feng Feng built a guild with a trumpet, and came under the name of this guild or these trumpet. Acquisition, and every time you use it, change a batch of accounts.

The same sentence was sent three times, and World Channel immediately exploded.

“I also sell. What’s wrong with the system? Three of the ten things I exchanged with bells are plant seeds. I don’t buy a house without planting land.”

At this stage, no one knows what the plant seeds are for. It’s not the player’s stupidity. It’s that no one is willing to understand this thing under inertia thinking. They are doing activities to earn money and have experience. Who can make it.

Moreover, familiar things are always the most willing to do. Who wants to try new things all of a sudden? If you succeed, it’s okay. If you do n’t, you waste a lot of time.

Of course, the more important thing is that they are scolding the official. The head is drawn with the same official. The seed of level 3 has to buy a flower pot of level 3. One is 500 yuan. Some people have tried it and scolded the world. Even when you plant a plant, you do n’t even give instructions, you do n’t know how to plant it.

Now that some people have taken the initiative to collect seeds, it is still a large number of acquisitions. For a time, Tianyuan God City has become lively again. I don't know how many people ran to sell seeds.

If you think about it, the entire New World, more than 2 billion players, are playing activities, even if one in ten people get a level 3 seed, it is also 200 million.

The acquisition of Tu Feng only took a long time, and the funds in the guild were stretched. Tu Feng had to find Lu Yang and said, "Boss, we are almost out of money."

Tu Feng said: "100 million."

Lu Yang said: "The acquisition was suspended and the reliable brothers will give the seeds to the old Litou on Yunmeng Mountain and plant them today."

"Yes," Tu Feng said.

Lu Yang quit the game, and the leisurely game came down. After several waves of operation, he spent too much cash.

He called out to Qi Yun and asked, "How is the aluminum business now?"

Qi Yun said: "There are signs of price recovery in the near future. Do you want to invest?"

Lu Yang said: "It's all sold. The game recently cost too much and was resold to domestic merchants. If you are willing to take over, you can sell it at about the same price."

“OK.” Qi Yun said.

Lu Yang closed the talker and quit the game leisurely. Next, there is nothing for him, just wait quietly for the first batch of flowers to be cultivated.

For seven days, Lu Yang didn't enter the game very much. This activity was mainly based on upgrading. He has all reached level 164. Playing these activities is meaningless. As for going to the 200 level map to burn bugs, the official new expansion pack is revised. The bug will fly. . .

“Finally, the flowers bear fruit.” The two old men said excitedly.

Lu Yang Yile asked, “Take me to see.”

Yunmeng Mountain.

With more than a dozen people, including Tu Feng and Lan Yu, Lu Yang just landed, and saw that 100 old men had picked the fruits, and packed them in storage bags.

Lao Litou said: “A big harvest, I can't think of a single seed that can bear 4 to 6 fruits, a total of 125,000 pots of saplings, and more than 600,000 fruits were harvested.”

The old man said: “It's too simple. It's nothing more than watering and removing insects every day. There are also some simple common sense questions. It's 125,000 pots for each of us. It's just over 1,000 pots. It's too easy.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Your task will gradually increase. At most, you will plant 1.25 million potted flowers every month."

On average, each person's head is more than 10,000 pots. Taking care of so much a day is equivalent to investing at least 8 hours a day.

"What is this? Otherwise, we are idle every day, which is good, this data is not much." The old man said cheerfully.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "That's good, Mu Yi will deliver the house to you later, Tu Feng will give you seeds, I will go first."

He flew to the guild hall of Tianyuan Shencheng with Tu Feng and others. At this time, Tianyuan Shencheng has become much colder. Only a few players below level 130 will stay here to find upgrades, but the number Not much.

In the conference room.

Lu Yang asked Tu Feng to put their bags on the table and said, "Okay, now we are starting to make money."

"How to make money?" Lan Yu asked with a smile.

Lu Yang took the fruit out of a bag and said, "See this. After picking it up, there will be a system prompt. If you choose to open it, the fruit will disappear. Generally speaking, it will become money, about 30 copper coins. Looks like luck, you can also open attack speed gems and speed up gems. "

"I try." Han Fei ordered a fruit.

A faint light flashed, and the fruit in Han Fei's hand disappeared, while 30 copper coins fell on the table.

Everyone turned to look at the more than 600,000 fruits, Han Yu said: “If each can open more than 30 copper coins, that is 5.4 million credit points.”

This is only the first batch. When 50,000 houses have opened flower gardens, Luyang can bring 54 million credit points a week, and 4 times a month, they can get 216 million credit points.

Lu Yang’s requirements are not high. As long as he can stand for half a year, he can make a net profit of more than one billion yuan, and at least he can improve the level 4 practice for 300,000 men.

“Haha, this one I have a gem.” Han Yu glanced at Han Fei proudly, a Grade 3 black gem appeared in his hands, and there were more than 30 copper coins.

Black Light Gem (Level 3)

Mosaic position: hand guard

Effect: Attack speed increased by 3%

Don’t look down on this gem, as the player’s level increases, more and more people realize the importance of black light gems.

A hand guard has a maximum of 2 slots. You can open another one if you find a master of the hole, that is, 3 slots. If you replace the slots with level 10 black light gems, the two hand guards will increase by 60%. attack speed.

Both hold the same weapon. If the gem set by the opponent's hand is an output type, it is nothing more than tens of thousands of points of attack. However, if it is a black light gem, although the attack is not as high as the opponent, the attack speed is doubled. half.

Even if the black light gem is tens of thousands less attack power than the opponent, the output is more than double that of the attack gem.

If only the output is high, the black light gem will not be so valuable in the later period. The real reason for him is the reaction speed. If the reaction speed of both sides is not fast, one side attacks the other side and it is easy to be blocked.

At this time, the role of the black light gem is reflected. Although my attack can block you, the next time I attack, you are still within the attack cooling time. You want to block, but you can't wave the weapon.

Therefore, the black light gem later became an alias, called hand residual gem! This means that those players who respond slowly will use this gem to increase their attack speed.

Lu Yang and Tu Feng and others quickly ate more than 600,000 fruits, and obtained a total of more than 20,000 Level 3 black light gemstones and 5.4 million credit points.

All this money was used by Lu Yang to buy flower pots. Unfortunately, this amount of money is a fortune for so many houses.

Lan Yu asked: "Brother, why don't you invest more money? If the funds in the guild are not enough, I can let my family invest 100 million yuan, and count the other five, and there is no problem with five or six billion yuan."

Lu Yang shook his head with a smile and said, "You can't invest more. If you invest more, you may not be able to recover the cost. The official will find this problem as soon as half a year. If we invest too much, after half a year, the cost of investment has not yet Come back. "

Lu Yang said: "Officials are not stupid. Let's take money out of him like this and they won't agree. Now there are fewer people buying houses to make flower gardens. The official didn't find us. All studios do the same as we do and will definitely modify."

In the last life, some people followed this trend. In less than half a year, the official introduction of the update, all flower output was reduced by half, no black light gems were produced, except for the first batch of money that was made, and those who invested in this way lost the money.

Tu Feng asked, "What shall we do next?"

Lu Yang said: "It's over, tell the elites in the guild to upgrade to level 150 as soon as possible and it's time to make a copy."

During the seven-day event, many people's levels were raised to between 147 and 148. A small number of them went to the ring task at the end of the night event rose to 149. The overall distance of the Iron Brotherhood was 150. Level is not far away.

"Yes." Tu Feng ordered to go.

"Dididi"

Lu Yang's phone rang. He picked it up and looked at him with a smile on his face. It was Liu Ruohuai who called.

He pressed the connect button and asked, "What's up?"

Liu Ruohuai said excitedly: "Boss, thank you, thank you, thank you so much."

Lu Yang laughed and asked deliberately, "What's wrong?"

“My elder brother made a lot of money this time, ha ha, he told me that in the past half a month, he actually made 20,000 yuan, and made a net profit. My aunt has no opinion on him any more, and he agrees with him. Game.” Liu Ruohuai laughed.

Lu Yang nodded comfortably and said, “It looks like your elder brother is a smart person. It is good for ordinary people to make 20,000 a month. I look down on him.”

Chapter 1296 - Cannon fodder transfer mission

“Boss, you already knew.” Liu Ruohuai said excitedly.

Lu Yang said: “Of course, I don’t know if this business is profitable, can I let your brothers learn?”

Liu Ruohuai said: “What you are saying is true. Other people really only earn more than 10,000 in half a month. Only my brother and a few of them have made 20,000.”

Liu Ruohuai said: “That’s true. Now my elder brother is the hero of the whole family. According to this rate of earning money, their mortgage can be paid off within half a year, and they can buy a car in another half a year.”

Liu Ruohuai said excitedly, “Boss, my brothers and I really do n’t know how to thank you. Being able to join the Jagged Brothers Alliance has already flattered us. Now that you are so good to us, we really do n’t know how to repay you. Now. “

Lu Yang laughed and said, "You don't have to pay back, just work for the guild. Is it all 150?"

"I arrived, the other brothers did not arrive, but there will be three days at most. After running the ring, they can reach level 150." Liu Ruohuai said.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "Since it is at level 150, then I will tell you a good thing. Wait for me at the east gate of Tianyu City, and I will take you 3 rounds of blood."

"Three turns of blood." Liu Ruohuai's eyes widened. His elder brother made more money than him. He didn't envy him, but he really envied the blood oath fruit obtained by the Shaman Army. That was a real improvement in strength. With that, the boss actually prepared him such a fruit.

"I'll come over here," Liu Ruohuai said.

Lu Yang hung up the communicator with a smile. The fruit of the three-blooded blood of the orc requires the player to have certain strength to obtain. The reason why Lu Yang chose Liu Ruohuai and others was also fancy of their strength.

Of course, there is a more important point. Fortunately, these people are all ordinary orc warrior professions, that is, the most ironic common orc infantry in the player's mouth.

"Second World" is subjectively fair. He will not let certain professions absolutely crush a certain profession.

Even if it was once a worm, it may become a dragon in the future. Among the ordinary warrior professions of orcs, there is such a possible change, but the rule is that you really have strength.

"This is a temple of ancient religion and a religious branch of the orc faith." Lu Yang explained the origin of the temple to Liu Ruohuai while walking.

The two chatted all the way to the temple apse. An old orc shadow priest was standing there. He was very old, and even the old ones could not stand without a wand.

DeRozan (Priest Shadow)

Level: 200

Qi and blood 😊 /?

“Child, I feel the anger of blood on your body. Is there any interest in challenging yourself?” Drow showed a smile on his wrinkled face.

Lu Yang said: “He is the publisher of the three-blooded bloodline, and you have killed more than 500 people, and since the task prompt was triggered.”

In the last battle of the cannon fodder, each of them killed more than 500 people, and this task had no difficulty for them.

“Will I take it now?” Liu Ruohuai asked.

Lu Yang said, “No hurry, let me tell you what the task is.

This task is called a mirror task. The rule is to defeat your own mirror. When you enter the game, all the attributes you have, your mirror also has, including items in your backpack, potions on you, and your scroll mirror. .

At the same time, he also copied all of your fighting skills from entering the game to the present. It can be said that in the past three years, what skills will you play the game, what skills will he have, and when he takes the value, it is to take your peak. The data value of the period, so you have to take this task seriously. “

Liu Ruohuai scratched his head and said dumbfounded, "Boss, this task is so great, it is difficult to maintain the peak every day."

Lu Yang Yile said, "What kind of peak are you now? It's too early to reach the peak. How fast is your reaction now?"

"Sometimes it can be done within 0.4 seconds," Liu Ruohuai said.

Lu Yang said: "With the recent exercise, you can increase your reaction speed to 0.35 seconds, and I will teach you a few tricks for this task. It is very easy to defeat your own mirror."

Liu Ruohuai's face showed a relaxed expression. He had learned the early exercises of the Jagged Brothers League, but not everyone required to do it.

Lu Yang has always admired everyone to run early in the morning, but now there are more than 200,000 people in the war studio. There is no such large area for them to run. Therefore, only the 30,000 people who originally joined the group always insisted on running in the morning.

Over the past three years, these 30,000 people have far better physical fitness than other players, and many have a reaction speed of about 0.35 seconds.

Liu Ruohuai originally wanted to join the training team. He did not join before. He was afraid that others would talk about them behind his own initiative and cater to the boss's hobby. Now the boss asks them to join. Liu Ruohuai is naturally very happy.

"Understood, boss, tomorrow morning, more than 10,000 brothers in the cannon fodder group, all members must participate in running." Liu Ruohuai said excitedly.

"Boss gives his name." Liu Ruohuai said.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "When you complete your transfer, you will know the new name of your army."

That was the official name given after the transfer.

"Today I will teach you two moves. I have seen your previous battles. There is still a lot of room for improvement. You attack me." Lu Yang said.

Liu Ruohuai said for a moment, "Boss, are you really hitting?"

Lu Yang smiled and said: "Nonsense, it can still be a fake, the boss is singled out in the world and ranked first. Am I afraid of you? Just attack."

Liu Ruohuai was a little embarrassed and said, "I forgot, here it is."

Suddenly The momentum of Liu Ruohuai changed. When he took out the sword with both hands, he looked at Lu Yang with the slightest anger, the momentum of the rest of the battle, with Heavy oppression.

Lu Yang nodded and said, "Yes, attack me."

Liu Ruohuai did not dare to attack Lu Yang easily. He only approached step by step. When the distance was 30 meters away, Lu Yang did not matter. When the distance was within 30 meters, Lu Yang needed to be cautious.

5 meters

Liu Ruohuai did not use the charge skills, so he walked in front of Lu Yang. At a distance of 3 meters, he stepped forward suddenly, sweeping his sword sharply.

“First knife, sweep.”

A simple, sharp knife cut across Lu Yang’s abdomen. This knife did not have a trace of unnecessary movement. It seemed ordinary, but Lu Yang who was in it knew that this knife had made Liu Ruohuai understand the true meaning of it.

Chapter 1297 - Liu Ruohuai

Lu Yang had to retreat in order to avoid the sharp edge of the sword. At this step of Lu Yang’s retreat, Liu Ruohuai did not continue to attack, but immediately retracted the sword and retreated two steps.

“charge”

Liu Ruohuai was stuck at a position of 3 meters and launched an attack on Lu Yang. At such a short distance, the reaction time was less than 0.3 seconds, and even Lu Yang could not make an escape action.

A crisp clash of weapons sounded, and when Liu Ruohuai thought he was hitting Lu Yang, he looked up and found that his attack was blocked by Lu Yang’s staff.

Liu Ruohuai hesitated and said, “Boss, how did you stop it? This way you can react?”

Lu Yang said with a smile: “You did a good job. I can’t react normally, but you should not attack me directly, but you should lower your body when attacking, attacking my knees, waist For the following thighs, at the same time, when you charge, do not charge forward, but charge my side, and I can avoid it by raising my arms, but if you charge my side, the first I can’t react, the first Second, my subconscious blocking action will not block your weapon. “

Liu Ruohuai nodded clearly and said, "That's what happened. No wonder you can stop me. I'll try again."

Lu Yang nodded, and Liu Ruohuai attacked again. Even if Lu Yang was prepared, he could still be attacked by Liu Ruohuai to his right thigh, and he was severely cut off with 1.8 million crit damage.

"Haha, that's what happened, I know." Liu Ruohuai said excitedly.

Lu Yang nodded with satisfaction. Liu Ruohuai had a good understanding, and he knew it all. The trick he taught Liu Ruohuai was a close-range attack skill developed by Japanese players who were respected by the players as the Emperor of the Sword in the past.

In the early years, Lu Yang and the Japanese player have studied for a long time. He knows Lu Yang's advantage of fire, and Lu Yang also knows his warrior advantage.

"I will teach you the second trick and attack me again." Lu Yang said.

"Um." Liu Ruohuai was full of confidence and the same attack action. After the first knife slanted to the right, he slammed Lu Yang, followed closely with the second knife, and launched the slashing skill.

With a clear sound, Lu Yang raised his staff in his hand and blocked Liu Ruohuai's attack again. Suddenly, Liu Ruohuai's face became ugly. The second move was his most proud move. Once the first move hit, the first The second move is almost a must.

Liu Ruohuai asked, "Boss, how did you do that?"

Lu Yang said: "It's too simple. Your slashing is a fighter's skill. The first slash is to cut back, and returning to a slash is the fastest skill. You can understand this and be a master."

Liu Ruohuai said, "But you were stopped easily."

Lu Yang said: "Of course, this trick is not effective for me, not only for me, but also for most of the top masters, because this action is too obvious, I can't stop your first knife, the second knife I raise your weapon and place it there in advance, waiting for you to actively chop my weapon, triggering a block automatically, it is very simple. "

Liu Ruohuai thought about it and found that it was really like this. He said, "In the past, few people could block me. Only one or two masters could block my attack in group battles. I didn't think that was the reason. What to do? what."

Lu Yang said with a smile: "The method of cracking is also very simple. The reason why your attack was predicted is because your fake moves are too few. If you keep on your body after the first stroke, you will continue to tilt Step forward and look back. "

Such an action is twice as fast as the previous one. At the same time, a fake action is added. It is used in the Huaxia martial arts faction. It is a hidden trick hidden in one move. other skills.

Do it again.

After Liu Ruohuai cut Lu Yang in the first sword, he took a step forward obliquely, Lu Yang raised his weapon to resist, and Liu Ruohuai's backhand knife slanted into Lu Yang's abdomen.

Lu Yang asked: "Do you understand?"

Liu Ruohuai nodded understandably, as if he had opened up, saying, "I see."

Lu Yang said, "The third sword, what will you do?"

“War tramples the blade storm,” Liu Ruohuai said.

Lu Yang said: “This trick can be used in group battles, but when singled out, Blade Storm is a disabled skill. Do you know why?”

“Spin time of 5 seconds, if it is a mage, you have 5 Pyroblasts at close range, and you hang up.” Lu Yang said.

“How to fight that one-on-one.” Liu Ruohuai asked.

Lu Yang said: “If the second sword ends and the mage flickers, follow the previous method and continue to approach step by step. If the same soldier is ready to attack you, watch my steps.”

Lu Yangmeng made a half step forward, then suddenly took a step backward, struck a forehand, and shot a stick on Liu Ruohuai’s head, saying, “Do you understand?”

“I’ll take the test.” Liu Ruohuai couldn’t help but swear, “Boss, I took it like this, who can hide it.”

Lu Yang laughed and said, “This is the essence of melee. Melee attack is not a sword, but a foot. You move fast enough and your body changes fast. No matter how high the enemy’s martial art is, you can’t be captured. “

Liu Ruohuai buzzed his head, as if the light had appeared, and looked at Lu Yang with excitement and said, “Boss, I understand. I know the problem of my fighting before. It turned out to be footsteps. I never thought about footsteps. It’s here. If I match the knife method I studied before with the footwork, it must be very powerful. “

Every melee player who uses a knife can study a set of swords that suits him after playing for a long time. The ones that Lu Yang said are ultimately auxiliary and really work, or are they researched out best for their attack Knife.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Use all of your knives to show me and continue to attack."

"Yes." Liu Ruohuai launched an attack on Lu Yang in excitement. His set of swords is based on his three years of cannon fodder battle experience, and is divided into team battle and heads-up. It's simple. In personal warfare, it is mainly based on skill coordination.

The first point is that players who have grown up in group battles are still not familiar with heads-up play. Even in heads-up on the battlefield, they still pay attention to quick battles, but in individual battles, they pay attention to slowness, or Say it is grinding!

"It depends on who reveals the flaws first and who attacks first may not win. Often the last winner is the winner. Remember, in the true sense of singles, don't go ahead, use only seven points, and leave three. Looking at each other's moves after each other, once you move forward, the other party shrinks a few times and wears out your patience, you lose." Lu Yang said.

Liu Ruohuai nodded and said, "I see, but what's the use, boss."

Lu Yang said silently, "As the elite army commander, you will have to fight against the enemy's main force in the future. Another one, isn't this your transfer to play mirroring? Mirroring can only copy your state from a week ago, not your day. State, you can use the new way of understanding to fight the mirror, can you beat it?"

"Ah, yes to Ha." Liu Ruohuai shook his head in embarrassment and laughed.

Lu Yang laughed and said, "Go to the transfer, let me see what your transfer skills are."

"Oh, so go." Liu Ruohuai turned to the orc's Shadow Priest, "I'm willing to accept the challenge."

DeRozan said with satisfaction: "Very well, standing in the middle circle, I will send you over."

There was a blood-colored circle in the center of the temple. Liu Ruohuai just stood up, a flash of light passed, and Liu Ruohuai disappeared in place.

Lu Yang stood by and waited. It didn't take long for Liu Ruohuai to appear in the blood-colored circle. He ran to Lu Yang excitedly and shouted, "Boss, I've played the mirror. It's as simple as you said. I used two tortoise tricks, and there was nothing I could do with me a week ago, haha. "

Lu Yang laughed and asked: "Tell me what skills you have after your transfer."

"Oh, I'm happy to patronize, I forgot to watch it." Liu Ruohuai opened his skills to watch. When he saw the bloodline skills, he was stunned.

"It's so strong." Liu Ruohuai looked at Lu Yang and said, "Boss, the first skill is to disarm and forbid the opponent to attack me for 5 seconds. The second trick is called Blood Shadow. Each attack comes with 500 points of blood. Damage lasts 10 seconds and can be stacked indefinitely. The third is called Divine Blood. Whenever my health is reduced by 10%, the attack speed is increased by 10%, the magic resistance is increased by 10%, and the life recovery rate is increased by 10%. The base is per second. At 100,000 points, there is a big move. If it hits someone, it hits the opponent, causing 50% of the opponent's maximum health I lose 20% of my own health. "

This is one of the top five occupations in the warrior department. The reason why he is called the top occupation is mainly because of the third skill-God Blood.

It seems that the best blood of God is to increase the magic resistance and the speed of life recovery. When it is the strongest, you can increase the magic resistance by 99%, which equals the magic damage to 0. If there is a curse in the future, the blood soldier can rush in, and then There is no need to be afraid of being killed by the forbidden spell, and there is no need to have a magic knight to protect it from magic.

Recovering 100,000 points on a base, increasing the effect by 10% per second, can reach a maximum speed of 200,000 points per second. It is almost an invincible Xiaoqiang. As long as they are powerful and have sufficient blood, they will bring them Comes on a strong battlefield survivability.

The first two are actually just general abilities. The really powerful one is the last attribute. The attack speed is increased by 10%. Taking the best two-handed sword as an example, the attack speed can be reduced to 1.05 seconds, that is, once they have black light. Gems, if their health is lower than 50%, their attack speed will reach one attack every 0.4 seconds. If the health is reduced, the fastest attack speed is 0.2 seconds.

This kind of attack speed brings great effects. On the positive side, when copying and killing, you can clear the lord in the copy very quickly, and it is easier to kill.

On the other hand, such an attack speed requires extremely high response speed of the players when the two sides are PK. The attack speed is one aspect. If a full-level wind elf is equipped, the moving speed is extremely fast and the attack. In the case of the same extremely fast speed, such a battle really became a duel between martial art masters.

There was a reaction speed of the two sides that could not keep up, and the opponent must be killed on the spot within two or three seconds. There was no chance of reaction.

The reason why Lu Yang chose Liu Ruohuai's Orc Warrior Legion to change jobs is because these people are players with great patience and courage. He is willing to trust these brothers to meet his requirements.

"When you go to Tu Feng, I said that more than 10,000 players in the Orc Infantry Warrior Corps, all the equipment for the ring task are taken from the guild warehouse as soon as possible, and they will be upgraded to level 150 as soon as possible, every 50 Individuals sent me here, and I personally taught."
"Lu Yang said.

Liu Ruohuai was stunned. He quickly reacted, forcing his excitement and saying, "Thank you, boss, I'll tell my brothers."

Lu Yang's words were clear to him, and he didn't say what the equipment provided free of charge. Lu Yang's personal teaching alone was enough to benefit their brothers.

Soon, players of the Orc Infantry Warrior Corps all knew the news, and a group of players who had been excited to upgrade their levels had invested more enthusiasm in the game.

This is a very boring process. The mistakes made by each player are basically the same, but the perception is different. Lu Yang used all his patience on them.

Over a period of half a month, these more than 10,000 people have finally been upgraded to level 150, and at this time, almost two months have passed in the game.

The calm sea surface has hidden turbulent waves, but at this time nobody dares to be the first bird to emerge.

According to Lu Yang's news from Tu Feng, more than thirty guilds in the central region have merged into five strongest guilds due to the strong capital intervention. Each guild claims to have tens of millions of players, but each guild has While secretly learning Lu Yang's method, a small number of elite players in the guild will improve their cultivation level.

Tu Feng sighed and said, "These capitals are like the rich people who are stupid and rich. They inject 3 billion credits at once, just like their family made money. It did n't take long to throw in more than 2 billion. It 's too scary. After seeing this situation, the rich people behind the other guilds also followed the investment. There are many elite players from everyone. Now the central area is a fire thunder barrel, and it will burst when you touch it. "

People such as Zhuojiu and White Lion were speechless. Lu Yang had thrown in 2 billion yuan of cash in the past two months. Compared with them, they were not as good as the other half.

“Where did these native riches come from? I heard about it in the past?” Zhou Tianming asked depressedly.

Tu Feng said: “There are Qatar Investment Authority, UAE Bank, Goldman Sachs Group, and several major wealthy countries. For them, throwing out one or two billion yuan is like playing.”

Everyone: “...”

“It is really terrible. At this time, I know that there are so many rich people. Before, we were really too downplaying players from various countries.” Xia Yuwei said.

The previous top consortium entered the game, but at that time was in the chaos of the New World. Several family heirs had not played the super guild in the game during the battle, but they changed their thinking. For example, now, from competitors to Investors.

Lu Yang said: “There are bad investments and angel funds that have found me, and I want to raise funds, but I have refused. I will not split the stock, and the rights and interests of you will never be lost.”

Once the guild re-launches angel financing, it is necessary to re-allocate shares. The original shareholders need to invest if they want to keep the original number of shares. Otherwise, when the future money is distributed, it will shrink greatly.

People such as Zhuojiu and White Lion looked at Lu Yang with a grateful look.

“Boss, but if we don’t focus on angel financing, many of the existing occupied areas may be attacked by the enemy.” White Lion said.

Lu Yang said with a smile: “This will depend on your efforts. Your army will rise to level 150 as soon as possible. Starting today, I will lead the Archbishop Legion, the God Blood Warrior Army, the Blood Oath Shaman Army, and the Shadow Warrior Army. , Ice Mage Corps, Starbreaker Archer Corps, Patriarch Tauren Corps, Archdruid Corps, Blue Dragon Mage, and all of you here to open up a copy of level 150. “

The complex situation of the map in Central China now gives Lu Yang the opportunity to develop. The three most powerful guilds, including the three Japanese, five Polish, and seven U.S. alliances, are intricately hatred. Dare not to take the lead in the trouble, for fear that when they start a war here, someone will attack from behind.

Lu Yang guessed that at this time, if they fought, they would still use the same set of sea tactics that he used before, which must be a battle of tens of millions of people.

Even if some of them had the foresight, but the sense of accomplishment of the commander of millions of people drowned out any reason. Lu Yang's idea was to take the 300,000 quickly while the few guilds around him were afraid to move. When the person upgrades the equipment level to 150 dark gold, when the opponent reacts from the melee, when he wants to hit himself, the 300,000 highly trained elite player in his hand is enough to settle any guild.

At 1 pm, outside the Lingfeng Fortress in the area of the Nine Star Alliance, Lu Yang assembled his staff, and eight players from each of the nine major legions were selected to follow.

"Boss, where are we going?" Bitter Ai asked curiously.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "Go on horse, I will take you to a fun place, I promise to surprise you."

The crowd was interested. After playing the game for 3 years, everyone should have seen it. They also felt that the novelty was almost non-existent, and they rode on horses and followed Lu Yang.

After 2 hours.

Lu Yang led the crowd to a small fishing village near the sea. At the dock he found a captain and said, "Can you take us to Turk Island?"

The captain frowned, and asked, "What to do there is very dangerous there. I won't go."

Lu Yang said, "I pay three times as much."

The captain pondered for a moment and said, "Well, since you are willing to pay a high price, I will send you over, but first said, I will not stay on the island. If you want to go back, find the head of the village, they Will tell you how to find me. "

Lu Yang nodded, handed the three gold coins to the captain, and said, "Let's get on board."

Everyone nodded ...

Lu Yang laughed without saying a word. The boat drifted on the sea for two hours, and arrived at a small island at five in the afternoon.

As soon as they landed, everyone was attracted by the beautiful scenery of the island. Coconut trees, palm trees, all kinds of beautiful flowers and plants, and a beautiful small village make people feel like a paradise.

"It's so beautiful here, why does the captain say danger?" The cute queen asked.

"Ka-Ka-Ka-Ka ..."

There was a sound of bones on the bones. Everyone looked around and found that a large number of skeletons had been drilled in the soil. Each skeleton had a shape different from that of a normal human being. At first glance, it was a demon's bone.

Skeleton Demon (Elite)

Level: 150

“Hey, I’ll try their weight.” Liu Ruohuai said. As he waved his hand, three blood warriors followed him and walked towards the skeleton demon together.

If in the past, everyone would worry about seeing 100 million HP, how to fight with so much blood, but since the players turned three times, watching the monster with 100 million HP is like seeing 1 in Xinshoucun. Like sika deer.

“Bloodsword”

Skeleton demon holding a heavy hammer, more than 2 meters high, in the face of Liu Ruohuai’s attack, he could not use the blocking skills, was hit straight, and lost more than one million health.

“It turned out to be a garbage monster, very easy.” Liu Ruohuai called.

Lu Yang laughed and said, “Go and fight, clean up these mobs, and I will take you into the copy.”

Skeleton demons are not difficult, they are just ordinary elite monsters. Everyone gathers hundreds of skeleton demons around them. The ice master of the 8th-level spell repairs a wave of attacks and is completely destroyed!

Lu Yang laughed secretly, little girl, you will know if it’s hard to go in after a while, he said to everyone: “Follow me.”

Walking from the village entrance to the center of the island, the monster who killed five or six waves in succession came to the gate of a temple. There are three entrances in the corridor of this temple, which represent three copies.

Lu Yang said, “Go to the first one Let’s follow the order.”

System prompt: You found the Blood Sacrifice Castlevania

You have chosen nightmare difficulty

There was a flash of light, and a demon palace appeared in front of everyone. This is an extremely beautiful devil palace. It contains not only flowers and trees, but also high-end crafts and sculptures.

“Small devil, how could you beat me? It’s ridiculous.” The black stone man looked at the devil scornfully, hitting the devil with a heavy blow, killing the devil with a third of his blood.

“There must be a hidden task,” said bitter love for a long time.

Lu Yang said, “Of course.”

This copy itself is a plot mission, and two subsequent plots are to be connected. The plot starts from the attack on the Krants by the ancient demons of the New World, the stone demons.

The Krant Devil was originally a weak race on the marginal islands of the New World. During the war in the New World, the stone demons entered it.

If the player has done the prefix of this task, according to the information given by each NPC, the plot of the story in this copy can be completely restored.

After taking a small number of participating demons into the temple, Tec creek was ambushed by the stone demons, except Tec creek, who died in battle.

The stone demons did not waste much effort, because the stone demons are a legendary race with high physical defense and high magic resistance, and the Krant race is a pure physics race. Their attack on the graphite race is as tickling as they are. The stone demon destroys Trick Creek's team.

But Trick Creek did not give in. Even if everyone except him was killed, he was still fighting against the stone demons under severe injuries. This was the scene he was fighting.

If the player can assist the Tecrec War Stone Demon, it will have unexpected effects. However, it is not easy to assist Tecrec. First, Tecrec cannot be added with blood. He can only rely on his own blood to improve his life. value.

The stone demon opposite Teckrick has extremely high attack power, special resistance, and high magic resistance. Even if there are cute queens and their special ice masters, they face up to 90% of the stone demon. Absolutely. Can't get hurt.

The only thing that can cause damage to Te Creek is the three-turned blood warrior among the orc warriors. Their blood shadow sword is pure blood damage, and it has nothing to do with magic resistance and physical resistance.

“Boss, what do we do?” Bitter Ai asked anxiously.

Lu Yang said, “You try to attack.”

“Miss”

“Oh my God, my spell hit 102 Stones only after hitting it.” The cute queen said silently. She had thrown several spells at Stones. Even if the spells rely on intelligence to promote damage, she still played. No harm.

“The Department of Physics can’t do any harm.” White Wolf said depressedly, his residual warrior only had single-digit injuries.

Lu Yang smiled and said, “I have studied this copy before, and I have visited the surrounding villages to show that the dual resistance of this stone demon is very high, but he is afraid of other types of damage. Try to attack. “

“Yes.” Liu Ruohuai responded, and said, “The blood soldiers of God follow me.”

Eight blood warriors came together in front of the stone man and launched an attack with Blood Shadow Sword. Blood Shadow Sword has 500 damage per second, which can be infinitely stacked. 8 people attack together, once is 4000 damage.

Lu Yang watched them stand together, switched the attack mode to all attacks, and read the spell in his mouth.

“Flame Rain”

Pieces of fire and stones fell and hit the blood soldiers. Suddenly, the blood of the blood soldiers fell rapidly, but when their blood drops below 30%, almost no blood is lost, and their health is rapidly recovering. The attack speed of Lu Yang’s flame rain was not as fast as their recovery speed.

“Let me go. Is this a magic-free job? I can withstand the boss’s magic attack output and the attack speed is so fast.” Zhou Tianming cursed.

In front of the rest of the players, Liu Ruohuai’s attack speed from several of them was once from 1.05 seconds to now every 0.4 seconds. It was like hitting chicken blood, and the big sword was waving wildly.

Lu Yang did not equip them with black light gems, because they quickly changed the 150-level equipment, and now it is a waste, but even if they do n’t, the attack speed is very scary.

“I’ll give you a little more speed.” Lu Yang said the spell.

“Temporal and Twisted”

System prompt: All players increase attack speed by 30%

The attack speed of the weapons in Liu Ruohuai’s hands was reduced by 0.1 seconds, and only two afterimages of the swords in his hands could be seen. After their crazy attack, the stacking speed of the Blood Shadow Sword was stacked to 120,000 in 10 seconds.

The stone monster family has high dual resistance and low blood volume. The elite 150 stone monsters have only 5 million blood, and within 30 seconds, such a stone monster will be killed by blood damage!

A flash of golden light flashed, and Teckerick shouted in a loud voice: "Damn stone monster, you are not invincible. Now, I have defeated you. Next, I will kill all your stone monsters and recapture ours. Temple."

"This copy is interesting. Defeating the devil will increase the attack power and increase it by so much."
Sun Yu said.

"Well, why did this fool go alone, all in front of it is strange." The cute queen was standing next to Trick Creek, thinking whether this person would thank himself, but did not expect the other party to say nothing, and continued to Ran forward.

Lu Yang said: "Follow up and see, the data said that the monsters appearing below are magic monsters on the right, melee monsters on the left, blood warriors on the right, and shadow warriors on the left."

"Yes." Liu Ruohuai and the white wolf should arrive together, and all kinds of men ran towards both sides of Trick Creek.

In front of the map is the garden area of the temple. There are two roads in the middle of the garden, each connected to a gate in the distance.

"Fuck the demon, come out and fight me to death," Trick Creek growled as he stood in the middle of the garden.

System prompt: Combat is about to begin

A large number of demons appeared at the same time on both sides of the gate On the left is a physics demon holding a short sword, and on the right is a magic demon holding a staff.

“Damn, he even broke through the level of Lord Stone Barnes, we must not let him rush over and kill him.” Captain Demon Mage roared.

Dozens of mages rushed to a position 30 meters away from eight * blood warriors such as Liu Ruohuai, and suddenly, the wands in the hands of dozens of mages lighted up at the same time.

Dozens of black death rays hit Liu Ruohuai and others. At that moment, Ye Yue, who was responsible for adding blood, widened his eyes.

But his voice just came to an end, but he was shocked to find that dozens of black death rays did not cause much damage to Liu Ruohuai, or in other words, no harm.

Chapter 1300 - Stone Demon General

“Is this blood warrior so powerful? Even the spells of the elite mage did not hurt them.” Yeyue said in a stunned wind.

Liu Ruohuai was also stunned. He originally thought that his magic resistance could not fight the elite monsters in the nightmare difficulty copy. He did not expect that the death rays of ordinary people hit them like itching, only a few hundred points of blood were lost. .

“Boss, it’s too easy for us to fight against the mage. It’s not difficult.” Liu Ruohuai said excitedly.

“Yes.” Liu Ruohuai and 8 other people each pulled a part of the demon mage. These demon mage seemed to be only magic, throwing out a death ray every 5 seconds.

“Zi ~~”

In space, the death rays are like lightning, constantly shuttled among them. Unfortunately, any death rays hit Liu Ruohuai and other 8 people, they will not lose blood.

After Lu Yang looked at Liu Ruohuai and stabilized them, Lu Yang said, “The mage regiment and the broken star striker attacked the demon mage. The range attack was a second.”

“Yes,” said the cute queen and Hades.

Eight mages and eight shooters focused on using range attacks, and large blocks of magic and arrow rain fell on dozens of demon mages.

The output of the demon mage is high, but the magic resistance and physical resistance are low, and it is killed in less than 10 seconds.

Lu Yang said with satisfaction: “Good job.”

Normally, the most difficult part of this level is these dozens of demon mages. The output is too exaggerated, and the spell damage is up to 10 million. If you want to pass this level, you only need to let the Paladin stand here and release it on the other side. The invincible or magic immune aura is turned on at the instant of the spell.

The killing ray’s attack speed is instantaneous, and the flight time in the air is only 0.3 seconds, and very few people can do it in time.

Furthermore, even if it can be successfully opened, the following wave of monsters is still a group of mages that release death rays. The Paladin bears up to two times. Hatred. Once someone else attacks, the demon mage will redirect the target, and it will be another ray of death.

Therefore, at the 150th level of the previous life, no player could pass this level. When everyone knew that there was a bug, no one could get through. Later, after the 160th level, some people began to wear 160 dark gold sets and high dark resistance equipment to replay this copy.

That was the equipment that several bosses of the guild had idled together to get through the boring effort, which opened the door. It was also the bosses of these boring guilds that let the players know what is going on with this copy.

It turned out that the shortest way to use this copy was to protect the demon knight Tecklek, and let him continue his duels to increase his attack power. If he can successfully complete a full set of duels, his attack power will eat 10 million, including himself. Of the 5 million attack power, a total of 15 million, his attack power is equivalent to 4 melee players.

Lu Yang looked at the scene, dozens of demonic mage were killed, and on the other side, dozens of demonic warriors rushed out were also killed.

Under the protection of the strange warriors and the protection of the archbishop priest, dozens of demon warriors are like deliberately triggering the aftershade attacks. The average five demon warriors fight an aftershade warrior, and the aftershocks are uninterrupted. trigger.

Coupled with the blood oath 7-stroke combo with blood oath shaman and the smashing hammer of the tauren of war, under the continuous attack of multiple special units, the demon warrior was killed without resisting for 20 seconds.

A fierce black light flashed at the gate, and a 5-meter-tall stone man jumped out. He looked at Trick with a mockery and said, "The humble bug, although I don't know how you broke through Stone Demon Bath. I, but I will grind you into minced meat, come on, taste your fist, Uncle Kukala. "

Stone Demon General Kukala (Lord)

Level: 150

"It's only 1 billion HP, very little." The cute queen said excitedly.

People such as Zhuojiu and White Lion showed cautious expressions. Generally, such lords are not so easy to kill.

"Yes." The crowd responded in unison.

Xiao Liang rushed up with his shield. After such a long time, his whole body attributes are more powerful. His special skills, each time he kills a monster with an elite level or above, he gets an additional 100 points of physical strength, up to 1,000 times. Now He has reached 1,000 times, that is to say, his physical strength has increased by an additional 100,000 points, which is 1.6 million more blood than others.

In addition, his refraction skills, the damage suffered is shared evenly with the surrounding players. In the circumstance where the archbishop priest draws a circle, the lord blame even if he has 20 million attack power, it will not make much of him. Injury, he resisted this lord without the slightest pressure.

Soon the lord blame resisted, but the cute queen and the turbid wine stopped when they attacked.

“Boss, this lord’s defense is the same as the previous Barnes. The defense and magic resistance are too high, and we can’t move.” The cute queen said dumbfoundedly, and he was proud of the blood of the great ice mage. A strong spell profession turned out to be single-digit damage to Lord Barnes.

Not only him, even the Divine Knight of the Muddy Wine ca n’t deal damage with the punishment angels and Divine Power skills. The Starbreaker ’s defense attack is also not very effective. Basically, everyone ’s attack is forced to lose 1 point of blood, so that all Everyone showed a helpless expression.

Lu Yang smiled and said, “Liu Ruohuai attacked with the blood soldiers, this lord depends on you.”

The blood-sword sword of the * blood warrior, each sword is stuck on the lord’s body with 500 blood damage, pure damage, even the lord can not be immune, under the infinite stack, the output of 8 people is getting higher and higher Then everyone showed a relieved expression.

“I’m going, this copy is weird, I thought it couldn’t be beaten, there was hope,” said the cute queen.

Zhuo Jiu said: “This copy is really weird. Fortunately, the boss prepared before, otherwise our 100 people would have returned without success.”

“I just don’t know if that Trick Creek will duel, it’s fun to watch him increase his attack power.” Hei Yan said.

When everyone was bored, they turned their heads and looked at Trick, who was riding the evil Warcraft. After playing the game for 3 years, from 0 to 150, they were the first time they saw a mission blame in the copy. They couldn't help but wonder to see how much attack power this Trick could improve.

"Why doesn't he move?" The cute queen asked.

Zhen Hao Wang said: "I don't know, maybe it will move soon."

As if I heard the conversation of the lovely queen and others, Teckerick suddenly raised his sword in his hand and yelled: "Damn Kukalla, you have killed my people, I will never let you go of."

"Resistant Fire Ring"

Trick Creek was lower in level than Lu Yang and was attacked by the ring of fire. The evil Warcraft behind him stepped back more than 20 steps before stopping.

"No one can stop me." Trick Creek was furious, but as he did not see Lu Yang, he continued to wave toward the demon with the sword in his hand.

Lu Yang looked back and said to Archdruid, "It's up to you."

"Big Thorns"

Trick Creek's body is trapped by thorns. He is just an ordinary monster. He doesn't have any immunity to control skills, so he is hard-controlled for 120 seconds.

When he was under control, Lu Yang took out a scroll and crushed the seal on it.

“Change Sheep”

Trick Creek and the evil Warcraft under him both turned into lambs and frogs, and were controlled for 60 seconds.

Lu Yang said to Lan Yu: “Control him.”

“Evil Prison Cage”

A golden light held Tecrik in place, and continued for 120 seconds. In this way, 5 minutes passed, and in these 5 minutes a blood warrior Under the attack of the Blood Shadow Sword, the lord blame 3 million points of blood every second.

In the last life, this lord monster was almost impossible to be killed. Later, some players found the bloodline number one among the orc warriors, relying on the special skills of blood rage, infinitely stacking attack power, and stacking up to 1000. It was only after 10,000 injuries that the defense was broken, which slowly eroded the lord.

Lu Yang knows that using the blood soldiers to use the blood to break defenses is also the experience summarized by the players of the previous life. The blood shadow sword can not replace the blood rage. The speed is slightly slower, but it can also deal high damage. Of course, there must be Archbishop priests and anti-war battles can only be done.

There is another most important, there must be several occupations that can control the devil, and keep controlling Trick Creek.

If you do n't control him, after 20 seconds of the start, Trick Creek will rush to the lord monster, and the lord monster will also drop the player, attack the Tekken with all its strength, and use the Tekrick as a normal mission monster. Defensive power, how could it bear the lord's strange attack power, China would be killed in less than 10 seconds.

Lu Yang's control in this way is to wait for the lord's strange blood to run out, and then let Tekrik rush to the duel to gain attack power.
