

Rebirth of Wild Fire - Chapter 2

Chapter 2 - Chance encounter

Ten years, a whole decade, how many times Lu Yang hoped in his dream that he could live again and change all these tragedies, and now it has really come true.

In my last life, I lost trust, but Lu Yang also saw who had saved himself and who had fallen on himself in the most critical time.

“Liu Jie, thank you for all that you gave me. It is you who made me recognize who is a friend and an enemy. Since I was born again, I would like to see if it is your family’s financial resources or my rebirth for ten years. Great knowledge. “Not only hatred, but also excitement, revealed in Lu Yang’s eyes.

The hatred of last life was not resolved with that shot. If it was not Liu Jie, he would not lose his family and lover, and he would not suffer so much suffering. Since he was born again in this life, Lu Yang was the first to let it go. It is Liu Jie, and his family.

As for how to get revenge, Lu Yang looked at the calendar.

I do n’t know the lottery number. Lu Yang does n’t know the development trend of the real society in the next ten years, but Lu Yang knows one thing. Today is the day of the “Second World” public beta.

Virtual games have been favored by everyone since 2010, but no one knows that virtual games will develop into a multi-functional online shopping, virtual teaching, game warfare, movie production and other multi-functionality that will be more than 3 billion people online at the same time in 30 years. One behemoth.

Numerous consortia have seen the business opportunities in the game. It is precisely because of the capital injection of these consortia that the ratio of virtual currency to real currency in the game is extremely high. Each piece of virtual equipment has also been sold for millions, plus the high bonuses of various leagues in the game, a top player in the game, far surpasses the income of stars in reality, and the income of professional studios is more than some large companies.

In my last life, Lu Yang wanted to enter the game for the first time, but he saw that the expensive helmet did not have the money to buy it. It was only half a month after the start of school that he entered the game under the introduction of a friend, and became a cold ice studio to play gold. a member of.

Recalling his experience in Hanbing Studio in his last life, Lu Yang's smile appeared on his face. There was a younger sister there. However, Lu Yang could no longer enter Hanbing Studio in this life.

With more than a full ten years of gaming experience than others, Lu Yang's mind has countless money-making skills, copy strategies, bug loopholes, superior fighting consciousness and unmatched fighting skills.

In this life, Lu Yang has to rely on these things to quickly establish his prestige in the game, earn enough money to build the world's largest union, and Lu Yang has to rediscover his brother who never left him. .

"Brothers, for the kindness that I couldn't return in my last life, I will reciprocate twice in my life.

Father, mother, son will never let you down this time." Lu Yang said with gritted teeth.

If you want to enter the second world, you must buy an exclusive gaming helmet. Lu Yang remembers that at this time, the parents went to the deserted ravine with the engineering team to build a railway. It will take three months to return. There is only Lu Yang at home. His parents left him 2,000 yuan in a drawer.

Lu Yang walked towards the school with money. In order to make helmets available to everyone who loves to play games, game companies spread the sales of helmets all over the world, and they are also sold near the school.

The ghosts are so bad, Lu Yang came to the main entrance of the school, and a large beige door marked the four characters of Dongdu University.

This school carries all of Lu Yang's memories of Shen Mengyao. From the memory, it was from here that he met her in his last life.

Fate is a wonderful thing, you can't describe it in words, as if this person should meet you at this time.

I remember at that time, Shen Mengyao was so glorious, just as a freshman, she became the goddess of the whole school with a photo, so many people chased her, but she never tempted, but always secretly told herself Among the troubles.

Lu Yang really wanted to tell her how much she wanted to be a part of her troubles. Recalling the appearance of Shen Mengyao when she talked on the playground steps, Lu Yang couldn't help looking at the sky, her eyes moist.

"Classmate, please ... uh ..." The unforgettable voice in my memory suddenly appeared in my ear.

Lu Yang was stunned and looked back, not who else Shen Mengyao could be.

Shen Mengyao is still so beautiful. Her eyes are clear and pure, without any trace of impurities, her hair is tied into a pony tail to her back, she is not taller than one meter sixty eight, she has a beautiful pink dress and long white legs , Set off her tall figure.

“Classmate, are you homesick? It’s the first time I’ve been away like me.” Shen Mengyao asked apologetically.

Lu Yang’s heart was mixed, but his face was hot and red. It was not the first time that the expected rebirth met.

“No, I just lost my eyes.”

“Oh ~~ That’s it.” Shen Mengyao’s playful little face was full of disbelief.

Lu Yang smiled helplessly, covering her forehead, this girl is still as naughty as her last life.

“What are you asking me to do?” Lu Yang asked.

Shen Mengyao patted his head and said, “Oh, I have forgotten. I want to ask how the girl apartment is coming ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ I’m lost.”

Lu Yang laughed, and Shen Mengyao was a idiot.

“Go forward to the first fork and turn right, the second fork and right again, the third fork and left, the fourth fork and right, bypass the school’s back cafeteria That library, go right and then left. “Lu Yang asked,” Remember? “

Shen Mengyao’s small face was full of confusion, “It’s so complicated to remember.”

“I knew you couldn’t remember, I’ll take you there and follow me.” Lu Yang said.

“Thank you.” Shen Mengyao and Luyang entered the school.

In the high summer of August, the trees in the school were very lush, and the 10-meter-high banyan tree blocked all the sight from above. Lu Yang and Shen Mengyao walked on the road like a maze.

“Are you also a student at this school?” Shen Mengyao asked curiously.

Lu Yang said: “Not yet, but it will be September.”

“You are also a freshman?” Shen Mengyao said in surprise. “So how are you so familiar with this school?”

Lu Yang said: “Because my family lives here, I have been exercising in school since I was a kid, and I am familiar with every place here.”

Shen Mengyao said, “No wonder, the trees in the school were so high that they blocked my sight.

The road below was so divergent. I lost my road several times.”
