Chapter 2001 - Kill Demonized Crab

Although the release speed of these two spells is slow, in fact, these two spells have the same meaningless big moves, and the damage caused is extremely huge.

Lu Yang had these three more skills, and his life-saving ability was now stronger, and he was getting stronger and stronger for single-killing monsters of higher levels.

While Lu Yang was meditating on the spot, he suddenly heard the sound of a motorcycle galloping outside. He immediately turned on the surveillance cameras around the room, and five people appeared on the computer screen in the basement.

“They are all old acquaintances.” Lu Yang said with a sneer.

The person who came was not someone else. It was the temple organization that had always wanted to kill Lu Yang. Among the people who came, including Wang Li, Wang Qiang, and three other people who hadn't met, they should be new apprentices from the temple organization.

“It's really bad for us to go into the room and rest for a while before going on the road.” Wang Li said cursingly.

Several people parked their motorcycles outside the abandoned house and walked into the room. At this time, there were a lot of footprints on the ground in the room. Lu Yang was not worried that they would find a problem because every time someone came out of the base, they would be passing by the houses here to rest, the footprints here have long been known.

Wang Li and the others didn't care about these things after a simple glance. Three first-level wizards gathered up a clean place for Wang Li and Wang Qiang to rest.

Wang Qiang's strength is the same as Wang Li, he is a Level 4 fire mage, and he is also one of the main members of the Wang family.

"Unlucky, what kind of broken academy organization, our temple's prestige was instantly defeated by them, and we can still kill high-level monsters to increase the temple's prestige. It is really boring." Wang Li cursed. .

Wang Qiang also looked upset and said, "Don't forget that we still have another task, which is to kill Lu Yang. Since Lu Yang has come out, he cannot be allowed to live. It's best to blame the academy. Then we will save a lot of trouble."

"Know, I know." Wang Li said angrily: "I've seen that kid displeased a long time ago, but I haven't had a chance to kill him. I want to let him know how arrogant he was back then. Now I want him to know how much he offended us back then It shouldn't."

Li Liang, the apprentice next to him, said with a smile: "Maybe he has already died in the city. He came out alone. He hasn't contacted his home for so many days. He may have died long ago."

The other two apprentices, Zhao Yu and Pang Fei, nodded in agreement.

Wang Qiang frowned and said: "It's really possible, but this time Lu Yang is dead. All six of our temples have sent masters to sweep the city. Whoever meets him must kill him first."

...

Lu Yang sat in the basement for a while, and he couldn't understand it. Wasn't he in the game at the beginning, he didn't organize face for Heaven? How come the real society is so violent one by one.

It is true that they are outside now, and there is no legal restriction, but this group of people has a personality, and even their psychology is distorted. This is a crazy rhythm.

The Blazing Demon God said: "They have received the new god's bewitching, I am afraid they no longer regard humans as their kind, but the object of enslavement. The new gods are lunatics, and their slaves are lunatics."

Lu Yang said, "It looks like I have to be careful here. It's not easy to live."

The Blazing Demon said: "Two of them are level 4 wizards, and three are level 1 wizards. If you want to protect yourself in front of level 4 wizards, you must be able to instantly fire flaming birds and flame storms, otherwise you We can only run away if we meet each other." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang knew this and said, "It seems that I am going to speed up my practice. I need to find a new practice site."

Blazing Demon said: "I really don't know this."

Lu Yang sat on the ground thinking hard and was speechless all night. After Wang Li and the others left, Lu Yang did not enter the city on a motorcycle, but went to the seaside in the suburbs.

The most famous part of Donghai City is the coastal scenery, but unfortunately, the seaside has become a piece of boneland.

There are human and animal bones everywhere, and the sea remains unchanged. With the ebb and flow of the tide, the scenery on the shore is no longer what it used to be.

The Blazing Demon God was curious about the purpose of Lu Yang's coming here, and said, "I felt a lot of low-powered demonized creatures on the beach. Be careful. There are many demonized crabs on the beach, at least one meter in size."

Lu Yang asked, "Do they have magic cores in their bodies?"

"Yes." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Just let them keep hiding in the beach. Compared to the animals in the city, these crabs are better to kill. Their joints cannot move at will. Tell me three eyes The magic flower can now trap the demonized wild boar and the demonized tiger, so there is no problem trapping these demonized crabs, right.

The Blazing Demon smiled and said, "It is true. You can try it. There is a crab in the sand 10 meters ahead of you."

Lu Yang took out the three-eyed magic flower ball from his arms and said, "Baby, it's up to you."

He threw it hard and threw the three-eyed magic flower onto the beach. A small pit was suddenly smashed into the ground. The magic crab hidden in the sand instantly felt the abnormality on the ground, and his body suddenly fell out of the sand. Burst out.

"Cuckoo"

With bubbles spitting out of the demonized crab's mouth, he saw Lu Yang at a glance, and he was about to charge towards Lu Yang with his pliers.

At this time, the three-eyed magic flower that had fallen on the shell of the demonized crab had instant mana, and eight limbs like willows grew out of the small ball, trapping the six legs of the demonized crab in the blink of an eye.

"Boom"

The demonized crab fell to the ground without waiting for it to run forward. No matter how desperately the demonized crab swung its pliers, it just couldn't touch the three-eyed willow vine. Sometimes, it was just a few centimeters away. Because it is stuck on the joints, you can't touch it if you don't touch it.

Lu Yang showed a satisfied expression on his face. He aimed at the demonized crab's head and directly put an inflammatory explosion technique to kill the demonized crab's brain. Then he came to the demonized crab and dug with a knife. The magic core in the brain came out.

“I have to say that this crab shell has also become hard. If the hardness is higher, it can be used as a shield.” Lu Yang said.

The Blazing Demon said: “Don’t you want to taste the meat of demonized crabs?”

Lu Yang drooled a little, and said, “I just want to, I don’t know if I can eat it.”

Blazing Demon said: “When I came to the earth, I didn’t pay attention to anything else, that is, the food of humans has to be said. It is really a must, especially the steamed crab.”

Lu Yang laughed. He didn’t expect the Blazing Demon God to lead the life of an ordinary person on earth.

Chapter 2002 - Upgraded

Think about it, too, how brilliant the food on earth used to be. Although the world has changed greatly and the original gourmet flying crab has become what it is now, it cannot change the human pursuit of food.

It’s a pity that this thing needs to be tested first to know if it can be eaten. He put away the idea of eating crabs, took a look at the magic core that was just dug out, and said: “This magic core looks about the same size as a wild boar, then Let them be demonized creatures of the same level. As for their combat abilities, they are no different from ordinary crabs.”

He took out his notebook and began to record each kind of creature. With this record, it will be much easier for Zhuojiu and the White Lion to come out with the Jagged Brothers to fight monsters in the future.

Blazing Demon God did not expect Lu Yang to be such a careful person, and said with satisfaction: “The temple will definitely become an extremely powerful force in the future. If you want to defeat them and take back the fragments of my Demon God’s heart, you really need a power. .”

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Not only for myself and you, but also for them. Who can help in this era? That's all I can do. Let them know what they are facing when they are on the job. The enemy's information will not be confronted suddenly without knowing what to do."

The Blazing Demon gave a hum and stopped speaking.

Lu Yang continued to kill the crabs with the three-eyed magic flower after recording. It was already low tide. He killed all the way along the beach. He didn't know how far he walked. When it was getting dark, he killed one. In front of the abandoned hotel, and the number of magic cores in his hand, there are already more than 300, these magic cores can already allow him to upgrade.

In terms of power system, Lu Yang and Blazing Demon God have figured out a human cultivation level system, which seems to be the same as playing a game to upgrade.

In the past, players were able to learn the corresponding skills at a certain level in the game. Now in the real world, training skills is another system. Players improve their magic abilities by relying on the soul sea and physical cells in the body.

After practicing to the extreme, fire mage Lu Yang will become a fire demon. Of course, when he becomes a god, he will have the ability to transform back into a human.

What Lu Yang has to do now is to use the magic energy in the magic core to expand his soul sea and temper his cells.

The size of the soul sea is the basic standard for the amount of magic energy in a mage's body, and this standard has been set by Lu Yang.

This rank is consistent with the academy, and is different from the temple. Through the perception of the Blazing Demon God, it turns out that there is a new * on the temple. The nine magic elements sign a contract with the temple members, and they can move at will. Magic element.

In other words, looking at Wang Li as a level 4 magician, in fact, his soul sea capacity will be at the level of a level 1 magician, but he can use his spiritual power to mobilize level 4 according to the contract between the gods and the elemental elves. Therefore, Wang Li and their 4th-level magicians are much weaker than the academy's 4th-level magicians, but the advantage is that they can use high-level spells without much practice in the early stage.

Lu Yang's feeling was that the temple was following the fast-track path of the Demon Sect, and he and the academics were walking the orthodox road, but in the end they all went to the same destination.

Calculated based on magical energy, Lu Yang is now at best a first-level magician, able to put more than 30 small fireballs or ten Pyroblasts, or 3 flaming birds or 3 blazing storms.

He didn't dare to stay here to upgrade. There was also a supply station he had reserved. Lu Yang rode a motorcycle and came to a villa 5 kilometers away from the hotel in a straight line.

Originally this was a sea-view villa. It stands to reason that you can see the sea while sitting at home. At the beginning, such a house was more than 60,000 square meters.

Lu Yang also bought a set, but later learned about the world's great changes, so he transformed it into a supply station.

When he came around the house, he found that the neighborhood had been cleaned up. Obviously, people from the temple organization or academy had come here.

"Don't worry, there is no human breath within 50 meters, and people from the temple and academy are not there." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang nodded, walked into the courtyard, entered the room through the window, and came to the entrance of the basement. He unlocked the door with the key. The 30 cm thick door slowly opened automatically, and the light bulb in the basement also automatically turned on. stand up.

In the basement, there is still a computer, a bed, a large number of oil drums and supplies, and three motorcycles.

Lying in the room, Lu Yang took out the phone to inform Lan Yu that he was safe, then took out the magic core and placed it next to the bed, sitting cross-legged, holding the two magic cores in both hands, and began to absorb the internal strength.

The energy contained in this low-level magic core is attributeless, so Lu Yang can absorb it very easily.

The magical energy flooded the soul sea, and Lu Yang felt a sting in his brain, as if there was a place in the middle of his forehead that was forced to expand, and that was where the soul sea was.

After the soul sea is enlarged, a crack will appear. This crack will gradually shrink and recover as the energy in the magic core is exhausted. For this reason, Lu Yang picked up two more magic cores and continued to expand, making the crack gradually larger.

When the crack was enlarged to the extent that it doubled, Lu Yang stopped expanding, and instead used magic cores to repair the enlarged space and make up for the cracks around the soul sea.

When these gaps are filled, there are only more than 30 magic cores left in Lu Yang's hand, and the magic energy contained in Lu Yang's soul sea has doubled, and now he releases a flame storm. Just a thought, the huge fire energy can be mobilized from the soul sea.

Seeing that there are more than 30 demon cores, he began to temper his body cells. Originally tempering the soul sea made Lu Yang's head painful, but now tempering the cells is simply putting his body on the fire to get Lu Yang. The whole body is uncomfortable.

Fortunately, Lu Yang had been working hard all year round, and his willpower was not comparable to that of ordinary people. He could persist with this level of pain.

It took three full hours for Lu Yang to finally use up these more than 30 magic cores. Through tempering, he has more cells in his body that can store the energy of the fire system. Originally, a level 2 mage could release 6 flame storms. Now he can release 2 more than others.

"Dididi"

The alarm clock on Lu Yang's hand rang. He looked at the time and found that it was six o'clock in the morning. He couldn't think that the whole night passed so quickly, but he didn't feel sleepy, on the contrary, he was very energetic.

Generally speaking, the demonized beasts haven't come out yet. He decided to take advantage of this time to go out first. Thinking of this, he pushed the motorcycle out of the basement and drove in the direction of the beach again.

Chapter 2003 - Giant Demonization

Half an hour later, Lu Yang came to the beach. There were no more demonized crabs killed by Lu Yang yesterday.

Obviously, after the high tide at night, it was eaten up by fish, and crab shells returned to the sea with the sea.

The pits dug by the demonized crabs on the beach were also washed away by the sea and sand. The beach was beautiful, exactly the same as what I saw yesterday, as if yesterday had never happened here.

"Be careful of the beach, there is a new batch of enchanted crabs hiding in the beach." News from the Blazing Demon God.

"I see." Lu Yang sighed, that is, there are too few cultivators now, otherwise, this is a cultivator's paradise.

Just like yesterday, he took out the three-eyed magic flower and started a day's work. Since these crabs can provide the magic core, then he can't be slack.

The people in the family are waiting for him. Only if he is as strong as the academy and the temple, or even higher, can he really keep his family safe.

Killing all the way along the beach, it was almost the afternoon when Lu Yang came to the hotel again, he got more than 300 magic cores, but this time more than 300 magic cores could not make him promoted from a level 2 magician. I'm a level 3 magician, and if I want to be level 3, there are more than 300 magic cores.

Just as Lu Yang was thinking about whether to take a break, suddenly, the Blazing Demon God sent emotions and said, "When I entered the hotel, I felt the presence of a big guy in the hotel swimming pool. He was trapped. ."

Lu Yang's eyes brightened and he ran towards the hotel's swimming pool. Normally, the hotel's swimming pool is next to the sea. The swimming pool here is no exception. However, the distance between the swimming pool and the sea is more than 200 meters. .

From a distance, this swimming pool is very huge, with the size of a normal swimming pool. In this swimming pool, there is a giant octopus with a diameter of more than 50 meters lying in it.

The octopus was extremely angry at this time and was staring at the distant beach. Obviously, this giant octopus was not paying attention, and the tide fell. Now he is trapped in this pool and has no way to get out.

The Blazing Demon said: "I can feel the strength of the magic energy contained in his body, and think of a way to release the water. His magic core is at least more than the magic energy contained in the magic core of 1,000 crabs."

Lu Yang was excited at the time, but he could let him go to the swimming pool to release the water, just like he was looking for death. He didn't dare to go, but he couldn't go back. He also had a way to release the water.

"Isn't it just letting the water out? Can I just dry out his pool?" Lu Yang raised his eyebrows, and there was a three-story villa next to the pool. He cautiously came to the villa. There was nothing on the way. When he encountered the monster, he felt that the octopus was even bigger when he came to the balcony on the third floor and looked down from above.

The body is 50 meters long, and if you count the tentacles, it's about 100 meters, and the swimming pool is almost covered.

It is the afternoon, and the water in the pond is still one third, about 30 cm high. Most of the octopus is exposed to the sun. There are still five or six hours before the high tide. Under normal circumstances, the octopus is not It's easy to get through, let alone his fire mage.

“Flaming bird”

Lu Yang directly used a big move, pointing his right hand forward, and a giant firebird with a length of 5 meters appeared in his hand, and he swung it diagonally downward.

“Neigh~!”

The blazing bird slammed into the swimming pool where the octopus was with a stern horn. Suddenly, the 2000-degree ultra-high temperature flame and the firebird with such dense flame energy directly vaporized the surrounding pool water.

The 5-meter-diameter pool directly exposed the bottom, and the surrounding pool water quickly rushed over, filling the vacancy, but the pool water also dropped a little bit, and the water temperature also increased.

The giant octopus was angry and couldn't return to the sea. Suddenly, the pool water next to him was attacked. He suddenly raised his head to look for the target, but he didn't find anything around, which made him even more angry.

“It's a pity, it's not in the sea. If it's in the sea, and an octopus smashes over with a tentacle, I can't stand it.” Lu Yang said to the Blazing Demon with a smile.

“With the strength of this octopus, his tentacles have become extremely tough. If you burn him with flames, you may not burn him to death. This is very good. He has no water, just like you humans have no air, absolutely Can't stand it.” Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang nodded, and the flaming bird in his hand was thrown down one after another. The giant octopus found Lu Yang's position, but he could not hit Lu Yang. The distance between the two was more than 80 meters. Even if his tentacles could reach, he couldn't lift it up. Ah, this is not in the sea, so I can only wave my tentacles helplessly, not knowing what I am thinking.

Lu Yang had no mercy at all. The world has become like this. Either they ate humans or humans killed them. has no second path to symbiosis, so he continued to release Chi with all his strength. Flame bird.

Once there was no magic in the body, he took the magic core he had just hit to restore the magic power, and then continued to release it.

A magic core could produce 4 flaming birds, and Lu Yang kept releasing 500 of them, and his mental power was almost too much to bear.

But it was this continuous release that made Lu Yang's mental power unconsciously become stronger.

There are two important points for magicians to release spells. One is magic power, and the other is mental power. If the magic power is enough but the spiritual power is not enough, the magic cannot be released. Only when both reach a high level, the magician is truly true. It's called a magician.

Lu Yang could also clearly feel the increase in mental power. When he threw it to 600, finally, the water in the pool had been evaporated, and more than 3 hours passed. At this point, his body length has reached nearly 100, including the tentacles. Mi's giant demonized octopus just lay in the dry swimming pool, relying on the little water under him to survive.

"Flaming bird"

Lu Yang didn't give up his attack. This time he directly hit the flaming bird on the dried skin of the demonized octopus. After more than 50 consecutive hits, finally, the demonized octopus couldn't hold it anymore and his body burned.

Accompanied by the weird neighing sound, the demonized octopus was burned to death, and Lu Yang did not go down to get the magic core immediately, but sat in place to restore his mental power. He could feel that this time, his mental power had reached level 2. The standard of the magician even has a tendency to approach level 3.

After half an hour.

The flames in the pool below were still burning. Lu Yang saw that he had recovered, and he came to the dead enchanted octopus. He found a long-pole net for trash fishing nearby, and put one at the head of the enchanted octopus. A magic core the size of a table tennis ball was taken out.

Chapter 2004 - Shipyard bug play

Taking it back into his hand, Lu Yang looked at the magic core up close, his face couldn't help showing an expression of excitement, and said, "This magic core is really extraordinary. It's the first time I have seen such a big one."

He could feel the magic core the size of a ping-pong ball. The energy contained in it was hundreds of times stronger than the energy of the magic core in the demonized crab. The two were not the same thing at all.

"Why is the magic core in the demonized octopus so huge?" Lu Yang asked curiously.

The Blazing Demon God said: "The demonized octopus you killed is very strong. It is far from what you can beat with the strength of your level. If you are in the sea, you are definitely not his opponent. Even if you are of the same kind, I am afraid. There are few rivals."

Lu Yang understood, and said with a smile: "If according to the statement in the game, the one I killed was a boss."

Blazing Demon said: "It can be understood that way."

Lu Yang looked at the demon core in his hand, and felt a little bit in his heart. Instead of killing a small boss like this, he should kill the boss specifically. He killed such a boss for a day without the demon core energy.

But wanting to kill the boss is not so simple. This time I missed it, but I won't be so lucky next time. If he encounters a boss-level creature on land normally, he is bound to die. What to do, he rides He returned to the villa supply station on his motorcycle and rested nearby.

Lying on the bed, Lu Yang still hadn't figured out a way. With the magic core in his hand, he asked the Blazing Demon God, although he could expand his soul sea to level 3, but he could not continuously expand his soul so quickly. Hai could not withstand this continuous expansion, he now needs to consolidate the strength of the soul sea.

As for the three-eyed magic flower, the three-eyed magic flower in the early stages of infancy has a huge appetite and specializes in eating meat. The cooked octopus paws are all let it eat. If you want to upgrade it, a boss-level crystal There are not enough cores, at least three are needed.

If you rashly absorb the three-eyed magic flower alone, it will not have much effect. Instead, it is better to wait until all three are available, and then upgrade the three-eyed magic flower together.

Just when Lu Yang couldn't figure out how to lead the boss in the ocean, suddenly Lu Yang thought of one thing, and he felt that he could try it.

Waited until early the next morning.

Lu Yang left the villa supply station and rode a motorcycle to the beach area, but instead of catching crabs this time, he rode farther away. After more than an hour, a huge giant appeared in front of him. Coastal factories-shipyards!

"What are you doing here?" Blazing Demon God asked with a smile.

Lu Yang said, "You'll know when you get to the place."

The tide was already high at this time. He rode a motorcycle to the outside of the shipyard and walked carefully inside the shipyard. Sure enough, there were some small demonized creatures in the shipyard, all of which were killed by Lu Yang.

When he came to the shipyard's control room, he found the backup generator and oil drums. After turning it on, the entire shipyard became brightly lit.

In the main factory area of the shipyard, there is a huge reservoir. Whenever the ship is ready to go to sea, it will fill up the sea during the high tide and let the ship go out. But when the tide is low, it will be with the outside. Separated.

The Blazing Demon God saw this and said clearly: "Do you want to use the reservoir to kill boss-level creatures?"

Lu Yang said, "I do have this idea."

"But how did you find the boss? You can't go to the sea." Blazing Demon said.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "You are here. Another big creature like octopus likes to hide in a small space to protect itself. The giant octopus is as large as a hundred meters. He usually hides it when he sleeps. Ah, let me choose a place for him."

There are several large containers in the shipyard. After clearing the mobs around the shipyard, he opened the door of the container, with a noose hanging on the back, and threw it outside the shipyard's sluice gate, where it was already submerged by high tide seawater. Up.

The container sank quickly, and then I couldn't see it. As for whether the large octopus would get in, it was not something Lu Yang was worried about. He found a place to rest.

After three hours, the tide gradually receded. He hurried to the beach and said to the Blazing Demon God: "Scan to see if there is a large demonized octopus."

The energy of the Blazing Demon God swept across, and said in surprise: “Your boy’s life is really good, and you really have been blinded by you. There is a boss-level demonized octopus in the container on the left, and the rest are empty.”

Lu Yang smiled, returned to the shipyard, and controlled the noose to pull back. His speed was very slow. The container was still walking in the sea. Although the demonized octopus boss could feel it, he did not notice the danger because it was still in the water. inside.

The noose continued to turn. Gradually, the demonized octopus was dragged into the reservoir, and the demonized octopus had not come out of the container due to insufficient IQ.

Lu Yang was not in a hurry. He waited so slowly. He waited until the tide had subsided to more than 80 meters before returning to the control room and pressing the water release button.

“Boom”

The gate of the reservoir was opened, hundreds of tons of seawater flowed out instantly, and the reservoir was empty in less than 5 minutes.

The demonized octopus boss staying in the container felt something was wrong, and slowly crawled out of the container. Because it was an invertebrate, his big head couldn’t straighten up, just lying on the ground.

Lu Yang knew that he could not be given a chance to escape, and if he let him run, it would be difficult to catch him anymore, and his mental power was quickly transferred.

“Flaming bird”

“Flame Storm”

The magical energy in Lu Yang gushed out frantically, turning into a ball of flames and hitting the demonized octopus boss.

The flame of 2000 degrees dries the moisture on the skin of the demonized octopus in the blink of an eye, and then the flame ignites the body of the demonized octopus, but the vitality of the demonized octopus is very tenacious, and the ink sprayed out the flame.

Lu Yang didn't worry, as before, he even threw hundreds of flaming birds, which not only increased his mental power, but also killed the demonized octopus boss.

Jumping onto the octopus, the three-eyed magic flower ate the body of the magic octopus, and he dug out the opponent's magic core, which was almost the same size as yesterday.

The Blazing Demon God sighed, and said: "This kind of demonized octopus boss, in the sea, can directly crush the hull of a large ship. Unexpectedly, it died in your hands. You really have talent."

Lu Yang was also very proud, and said, "Although I still have one short shot to upgrade the Three-Eyed Magic Flower, I can't find a place for the next one. Why don't you just make up the number?"

The Blazing Demon said: "Of course, the three-eyed magic flower is not picky."

Lu Yang smiled, and went down the beach to continue killing the demonized crabs.

Chapter 2005 - Conspiracy of the New God

Approaching the evening, Lu Yang returned to the villa supply station with 300 magic cores. Before entering the supply point, he wiped out the marks on the motorcycle tires before entering the basement to rest.

Upgrading the three-eyed magic flower is the most important thing for Lu Yang right now. According to the Blazing Demon God, raising another level of the three-eyed magic flower will greatly increase his strength and greatly help him participate in the battle.

He took out the little green ball from his arms. Now this little guy and Lu Yang are connected to each other, and the little guy likes Lu Yang holding him like this.

Lu Yang felt Xiao Yuanqiu's joy, and said with a smile: "Little guy, all the magic cores for you are here, come on and upgrade, it's up to you."

The little ball saw two boss-level magic cores and 300 magic crab cores placed on the ground, and three eyes showed joy at the same time, and eight tentacles like willows and vines stretched out from the inside of the little ball.

The little guy also knows the principle of gradual progress. First, he ate the magic core of the demonized crab. When it was all gone, the little guy suddenly ate a boss-level magic core. Suddenly, the little guy's green body turned red.

"Neigh~!" The three-eyed magic flower made a sharp sound, and the body tried desperately, but it seemed that something was missing. The ball body did not change. At this time, the three-eyed magic flower ate the last boss level in one bite. The magic core.

In an instant, a small red flower appeared on the head of the Three-Eyed Magic Flower, with golden stamens inside.

Lu Yang frowned and looked at the Three-Eyed Magic Flower. He looked left and right, and found that this little guy had one more flower. There was no other change, and he said, "It doesn't seem to be strong."

The blazing demon's laughter came and said: "Since the name of the three-eyed magic flower has a flower character, then the three-eyed magic flower after blooming is considered to have truly entered the juvenile form."

"What's the use?" Lu Yang asked.

The Blazing Demon said: "Did you see the flower on his head? That pollen can cover up the smell on your body. At the same time, if other creatures inhale this colorless, odorless and invisible pollen, they will fall into a severe coma. "

Lu Yang smiled, took a closer look at the colorless pollen that was gradually increasing in the flowers, and said, "It looks like this is still a group attack. I don't need to kill the crabs one by one in the future, just let the little guy in the city. Sprinkle pollen once, you can kill all hypnotized monsters."

Blazing Demon said: "Not only ordinary mobs, if it is at night, even boss-level creatures will be attacked unconsciously. This is a very terrifying skill."

Recalling the war of gods back then, the flower * among the new gods used the pollen of the mature three-eyed magic flower to make a large number of old * soldiers fall into a severe coma at night, and then attacked their base camp. The demon * has been stuck in the heart of the burning demon * like a thorn.

Lu Yang looked at the three-eyed magic flower with satisfaction and said, "It seems that you are quite useful."

"Hmm~!" The three-eyed magic flower made a humanoid voice.

Lu Yang laughed and said, "In that case, let's take advantage of the night and act, Devil, you scan for me, let's find the boss."

"Of course." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang took advantage of the darkness to leave the basement of the supply station. At this time, the sky was completely dark, and most of the enchanted creatures in this ruined city had fallen asleep.

Because creatures have undergone mutations, they are particularly sensitive to sounds and light. If light hits their eyelids, or an abnormal sound is transmitted to their ears, the demonized creatures will wake up.

Lu Yang didn't want to wake them up, so he could only slowly adapt to the darkness. In this case, he could not use a flashlight, let alone use flames to ignite the surroundings.

The moon in the sky was obscured by dark clouds, and only a little light was projected. The surrounding area that Lu Yang could see was less than half a meter, and he could only fumble forward.

Fortunately, there was the Blazing Demon God. With the scanning of the Blazing Demon God, Lu Yang was able to know if there were monsters around and what obstacles there were.

Walking cautiously all the way, for more than an hour, Lu Yang entered the main city. Just as Lu Yang was about to move forward, he suddenly noticed a bright light on the corner of a building 100 meters away. This made him Can't help being curious.

At this time, those who dare to use light are either the master of the academy or the master of the temple. He said to the Blazing Demon God: "Can you perceive it?"

Blazing Demon said: "The distance is too far."

Lu Yang looked around and said, "You continue scanning, and I will go around the street opposite the corner."

"Good." Blazing Demon said.

There were four streets around the building. Lu Yang cautiously avoided the monsters and went to the other side of the building. Then, when he looked at the darkness at the corner of the building, his eyes widened.

"They are from the temple, Wang Li and Wang Qiang." Lu Yang said in his heart.

If it were just the two of them, Lu Yang would not be so surprised. There was a gray-white spiked monster. This creature was an evolution of the strange monster Lu Yang encountered when he first came here to kill the wild boar.

They have a human upper body, their arms, backs and heads are covered with spikes, suspended in midair out of thin air. Although they are only half of their body, they are 2 meters high, and it is very scary to fly.

In the world of the Blazing Demon God, this kind of monster is called the spiked demon. They are the lowest level creatures in the different world. With a wave of the arm of the god, it is possible to kill thousands of spiked devil.

It is such a creature that is not valuable in another world. In the human world, their strength is incomparable to a boss-level demonized octopus.

When the three newcomers saw this monster collapsed to the ground in shock, Wang Li and Wang Qiang were not afraid at all. Instead, they stood beside the Spiked Demon.

“Trash, let the three of you see what God’s power is. Remember, we are chosen by God. These powerful creatures are gifts from God. I let them die. Can’t live.” Wang Li said, a dagger appeared in his hand, which directly pierced the lowered head of the spike demon, and took out a demon core the size of a tennis ball.

One of the three newcomers screamed: “How is this possible? How could you, how could you kill the spiked demon so easily, why would the spiked demon let you kill him?”

Wang Li looked at the three of them and smiled more frantically: “My apprentices, you see, this is the greatness of God. From now on, you must respect our great gods as I do, worship them, and pray for them. , Sing praises to them.”

The three of them hurriedly knelt on the ground and repeatedly kowtow to Wang Li, because at this time they had already seen the surging magical power in Wang Li.

Wang Qiang walked to Wang Li’s side and said: “Put away your magic power, let’s go back with the spiked demon. Killing such one is enough for us to have a relationship. After all, the number of spiked demon is not very much now.”

Wang Li gladly withdrew the magic, playing with the magic core and said: "Go back and let those stupid humans know that only by believing in gods can they gain power."

Wang Qiang sneered and said, "Anyway, they will have to die sooner or later, it is better to sacrifice to the gods and let them die well."

The five simply tidied up and walked back together.

Chapter 2006 - Kill Wangli Team

Lu Yang hid in the dark and frowned at all of this, and said to the Blazing Demon God: "Why does the new * kill all mankind?"

The blazing demon said: "Do you think the war between the new * and the old * is simply a knife to stab? Our war uses the energy of the planet's origin. It turns out that the planet we live on is no longer suitable for survival. Your planet is good, maybe the new gods have reached some consensus."

Lu Yang was speechless, and said, "Then it is now that the new gods bestow part of the human divine power and use them to control the monsters and destroy the human world."

The Blazing Demon God said: "It seems that this is the purpose. At least, these people in front of you, when they receive the orders of the new gods, should be to destroy humanity."

Lu Yang understood that the co-authored new gods will have to descend into this world sooner or later, and now they can no longer have any laziness. Humans not only have to kill the creatures that have mutated due to the energy of the different world, but also those that come in the future. Different world gods and their army of gods.

“It’s too difficult,” Lu Yang said.

The Blazing Demon God said: “The presence of our old gods will help you improve your strength. As for whether you can compete with the new gods, it depends on your own good fortune. In addition, you must quickly improve your strength and remove all my fragments. If you get it back, I can also provide you with more help.”

Lu Yang said, “Don’t worry, what I promised you will be done.”

He followed Wang Li and the others. Since he already had such a big magic core, he didn’t want to kill other mobs anymore, so he stared at Wang Li and them.

It’s 8 o’clock in the evening. They are still in the city. It takes two hours to walk out of the city, and another five hours to go to the underground city.

In the middle of the night, the engine made a loud noise. Lu Yang suspected that Wang Li and the others would not return to the base directly tonight, but would find a place to rest and wait until tomorrow to return to the dungeon.

What’s more, the purpose of Wang Li and Wang Qiang this time is to make the people in the dungeon cheer for them and feel the power of the temple. If this is the case, they will definitely be tomorrow morning when a large number of cultivators go out to exercise in the suburbs. Return, that will be effective.

Wang Li and Wang Qiang thought the same way. After walking for more than two hours in the dark night, they came to the suburbs of the city, where there was an abandoned house.

“Qiangzi, you watch the first half of the night, and call me in the second half of the night.” Wang Li put down the thorn devil’s body and slept in the corner.

Wang Qiang looked at the three apprentices and said, “Huang Fei and Tao Li will stay vigil with me. Zhao Kai will change in the middle of the night.”

“Yes.” The three said together.

Since seeing the powerful characters of Wang Li and Wang Qiang bestowed by God, Huang Fei and the three of them have completely fallen into it and can't pull them out anymore.

After Zhao Kai went to bed, Huang Fei and Tao Li volunteered to find firewood to be lit for late-night heating, and then the two complimented Wang Qiang.

“Master, the power of God is so powerful, when will we get God's blessing?” Huang Fei asked eagerly.

Wang Qiang glanced at Huang Fei contemptuously, and said, “It's simple. When you regard yourself as a slave of God instead of a human being, you will be eligible for God's blessing.”

“What are human beings? What does their dying or not have to do with me? I am God's slave and I am willing to dedicate everything for God.” Huang Fei said immediately.

“Me too.” Tao Li followed.

“It doesn't matter if you kill people?” Wang Qiang asked.

“Of course.” Huang Fei and Tao Li said together.

Wang Qiang nodded with satisfaction, and said: “Go back and kill 10 human beings for sacrifice to the gods, and you will be recognized by the temple.”

“No problem.” Huang Fei and Tao Li said immediately.

Lu Yang was hiding outside the house at this time. Hearing this, his face showed a sneer. Originally, he didn't intend to kill Tao Li and the others. Since they no longer regard themselves as human beings, he doesn't use it. You're welcome.

He checked his watch. It was just 11 o'clock in the evening, and there were still a few hours before 3 o'clock in the middle of the night. He waited quietly.

12 o'clock

2:00

After four hours of vigilance, Wang Qiang, Huang Fei, and Tao Li all became tired. All three of them also had hazy pajamas. They were just holding on. As long as 3 o'clock, Wang Qiang could wake Wang. Li, let him watch the night instead of himself.

Through the perception of the Blazing Demon God, Lu Yang realized that the three of them were about to be unable to stand up. He took out the three-eyed magic flower and secretly said: Little guy, look at your pollen.

The three-eyed magic flower was connected with Lu Yang. It rolled down from Lu Yang's hand, stretched out 8 tentacles, and slowly climbed to the shattered window. The little red flower on his head shivered in the room.

Colorless, tasteless, and invisible pollen spilled into the room, Com, Wang Qiang and the three were already drowsy. After smelling the pollen, they fell down without any reaction. Wang Li, who was sleeping, fell into deep sleep.

"You can go in, they are already asleep." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang pinched his nose and entered the room, raised the knife in his hand, wiped the necks of five of them in the blink of an eye, without saying a word of nonsense, and then left the room with the Spiked Demon's core.

The Blazing Demon God looked at Lu Yang in surprise, and said, "So clean and neat, don't you say a few words to them?"

Lu Yang rolled his eyes and said, "Are you watching too many TV series on earth? What should I say to the five sleeping people? They want to kill me. I just kill them. If you take advantage, run away. , Who is still staying in place, in case something accident happens, I will not lose."

The Blazing Demon found that what Lu Yang said was true. He has indeed watched too many TV series in these years on Earth. TV series and movies in various countries have a characteristic, that is, they must write a few words before killing people, exalt themselves and belittle others. That kind of refreshing feeling made Blazing Demon feel that this was a sense of accomplishment.

"Your human things are really poisonous." Blazing Demon God said with emotion.

Lu Yang laughed, and quickly ran back to the supply station to rest. When he woke up early the next morning, he looked at this baseball-like magic core and asked, "What should I do? "

The Blazing Demon said: "After refining it, you will be able to reach the third-level magician, and you can also learn new spells."

The so-called three-level spells are not to release spells in the body, but to condense magic in the air, for example, release attack skills such as meteorite impact and skyfire, and release control skills such as fire snake restraint.

Right now, Lu Yang took out the Spiked Demon's core and absorbed the magical energy in it!

The magical energy contained in the Spiked Demon's core is not only huge, but also very pure, because they are the aboriginals of another world, passed down through countless generations, and only the best selected creatures can pass through the twisted space and arrive. this world.

Even if they are weak, it is relative to another world. Therefore, when Lu Yang began to absorb the energy in the magic core, the pure magic energy washed the soul sea and polished it over and over again, making Lu Yang not only feel When it comes to a bit of pain, it is very enjoyable.

That is a kind of energy that replaces impure things into the purest soul sea. Even if the soul sea is enlarged, the huge magical energy can repair the boundary of the soul sea in an instant.

Almost in a state of enjoyment, Lu Yang supported the soul sea to the level of a level 3 mage, and the remaining energy began to nurture Lu Yang's mental power, making Lu Yang's mental power also reach the level of 3 at the same time.

The Blazing Demon God timely taught Lu Yang how to release the three skills of Fire Snake Restraint, Meteorite Impact, and Extinguish Skyfire.

When it was noon, Lu Yang stretched his waist comfortably. In the whole night, not only did he not feel sleepy, but he was more energetic.

Seeing that he had reached the strength of a Level 3 mage now, Lu Yang felt that he could return to the base. Moreover, with the existence of the three-eyed magic flower, he was even more unafraid of the temple organization, but Lu Yang was a little curious.

"The Blazing Demon God, I want to ask you something. Since the academy was made by your old god, why didn't you reveal your true body? If you return to your organization, wouldn't it make your strength stronger?" Lu Yang asked curiously as he walked back.

The Blazing Demon God snorted coldly, and said, "You just remembered asking about this. It's stupid enough. Who told us that the old * is a group of kindness."

"Uh..." Lu Yang asked in a daze, "You still have no peace."

“Nonsense.” Blazing Demon God cursed: “When you mention this, you get angry. How do you think the new gods defeated our old gods? Our old gods have cultivated tens of thousands of years longer than the new gods, like me. They have practiced for hundreds of thousands of years longer than them. With my strength, in my heyday, I beat ten new gods one at a time, but there are contradictions between us old gods.

Before the rebellion of the new gods, we old gods have been fighting against each other for several years. The new gods attacked us when we were about to decide the victory or defeat. The * of time who had made friends with me took me. When I got here, the gods that now control the academy are either old gods who have enemies with me, or neutral old gods. I have a bad relationship with them. You must not expose me to those old gods, maybe this group The * is sure to be completely absorbed. “

“Okay.” Lu Yang said.

He only understands the reason now, but he frowned and said, “This is still a problem. Should you give me some other magic and physics training methods and skill release methods, or how can I gather my subordinates? what.”

Blazing Demon God said: “No need for the time being. The academy and the old * are just a cooperative relationship, not a subordinate relationship. As long as you don’t expose me, you can still use the academy. Don’t mess up the relationship with them. Don’t want to be an enemy of the whole world.”

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders. He really didn’t have the idea of being an enemy of the academy. Since the academy was not affiliated to the old god, there would be no problem in cooperating.

He speeded up his pace, started cultivating the body quickly and rapidly, and at the same time exercised his mental power. When it was around three o’clock in the afternoon, he entered the recognition area of the dungeon.

Xiao Liang had been waiting here, and hadn’t seen Lu Yang for several days. He was worried that something happened to Lu Yang. Now that he saw his boss coming back, Xiao Liang was relieved.

When Lu Yang saw Xiao Liang’s appearance, he knew that this kid was worrying about him. He patted his shoulder and said, “Don’t worry, you boss, I’m fine.”

Xiao Liang looked back at a group of temple members standing at the door in the distance, and said, "These people have been very active recently and have been mentioning you all the time."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "I know, you take care to protect yourself. I will come to you later and give you something good."

Xiao Liang was a little surprised, didn't ask much, nodded and said, "I see."

He didn't dare to ask more. The changes in this world made his head a little bit unable to keep up. He was afraid that someone would extract memories. Once this happened, the secret Lu Yang told him would be exposed.

Lu Yang also had this concern. He patted him on the shoulder and walked towards the gate of the dungeon. Wang Xinpeng and Zheng Ziming, who were waiting happily at the door for the return of Wang Li and Wang Qiang, all looked at Lu Yang who suddenly appeared. Frozen, randomly showed an unbelievable expression.

It stands to reason that they let out so many family children, and the places where they can walk in the city are not particularly large now. They don't understand why no one of the family children meets Lu Yang, , Lu Yang couldn't come back alive whenever he encountered one.

"It's amazing, I can come back alive." Zheng Ziming said rudely.

Lu Yang smiled and stopped, and asked, "Is there any problem? I only move outside, not inside. After all, I'm only a level 1 mage."

Zhou Quan sneered and said, "Good luck, I hope you have been so lucky."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "My luck has always been good, so I don't need you to hope."

He walked straight into the dungeon, leaving Zhou Quan, Zheng Ziming and others unhappy.

“Who does he think he is? When he goes out next time, I will kill him myself.” Zheng Ziming said with a sneer.

It’s a pity that Zheng Ziming and the others don’t know yet. Lu Yang is also thinking about * them. After returning home, he first took a look at Lan Yu and his parents at home. He wanted to stay for a while, but the enemy’s sword was on his neck. Sixth-level mage, if they were sneak attacked, Lu Yang had no chance of winning.

He called Zhuo Jiu, White Lion, Xia Yuwei, and Kuai Half a lifetime to his side, and said: “In the past few days, you will prepare and go out with me to practice.”

Zhuojiu’s eyes lit up and said, “We also have this idea. We have reached the level 1 standard at the base. It’s time to go out and exercise.”

Lu Yang looked at them, nodded in satisfaction, Zhuojiu had a holy light attribute, and the white lion’s body was full of power. Xia Yuwei now turned to be an ice mage. She was also a melee way for her love for half a lifetime, but he chose It’s a killer profession, and it doesn’t fight the enemy recklessly, attacking and wounding people in the dark.

According to the words of love for half a lifetime, this profession needs someone to do it. Others can protect Lu Yang on the bright side. He will be a bodyguard in the dark. In the dark night, he also needs a pair of eyes that can see the darkness.

Chapter 2009 - Another World Advance Army

Lu Yang left them in the room, and went back to the shipyard alone. Today, fortunately, he encountered a boss-level enchanted octopus. After killing it, he dug out the magic core. He did not use it immediately, but kept it in his backpack. inside.

It's not that simple to get to level 4 magician. The magic core needed is huge. The best way is to go deep into the city with the muddy wine and the white lion to hunt high-level demonized creatures, which can be muddy. They have no weapons to take advantage of the wine.

"Where can I get some weapons?" Lu Yang muttered to himself. He couldn't find a blacksmith to build weapons and armors. On the one hand, things like that were too heavy, and on the other hand, they couldn't hold the demonization. Biological attack.

Take the demonized wolf as an example. Their claws can easily pierce through the iron gate a few centimeters thick. Lu Yang can't let them fight with the demonized wolf in steel armor more than ten centimeters thick. After the demonized wolf, he was exhausted first.

Blazing Demon said: "If you want to equip your men with weapons, it's not difficult, you just need to find them first."

"Find who?" Lu Yang frowned and asked.

The Blazing Demon God laughed and said: "Of course it is to find the advance army sent by the new * to your world. Powerful creatures cannot pass through the twisted time and space, but weapons and equipment are dead. The effect of the twisted time and space on them It's almost zero, so these things can be sent to the earth through warped time and space."

Lu Yang's eyes lit up and he said, "You mean that the advance troops sent by the new gods to this world, those low-powered creatures, should grab them from them?"

The Blazing Demon said: "That's right, you have the three-eyed magic flower, you can easily kill them and * their weapons and equipment. Of course, low-level creatures, the weapons and equipment they carry are also low-level. You want to find high-level ones. , There are only two places to go."

"Where?" Lu Yang asked.

Blazing Demon God said: "The first place to go is the members of the temple. In order for these * servants to have the ability to control the world and fight against the old gods, the new gods must send some high-level weapons and equipment through warped time and space. They use special Things are made to pass through twisted time and space.”

Lu Yang understood, and said, “It seems that I need to find someone to stare at the members of the temple. Where is the second place to go?”

The Blazing Demon said: “The second place to go is to look for the advance army. You have to know that the advance army sent by the new gods is low in strength, but among the advance army, it is not all these low-powered creatures. The cubs of powerful creatures, put them in the advance army and teleport them together. These cubs must also have high-level weapons beside them.”

Obviously, in terms of invasion, the gods of another world have a very complete set of methods. Their understanding of distorted time and space is completely beyond the imagination of human beings. Moreover, they have many treasures that can make other than their high-level gods Creatures, or treasures are delivered in advance.

The cubs of the high-level gods are one of them. At the stage of their birth, these cubs may be inferior to those advance troops. Take the Cyclops as an example. In their childhood, the Cyclops still need the care of the advance troops. Once the Cyclops is given half a year to grow up, he can grow to a height of 10 meters and become a god-like existence in the advance army. After two years, they will have the strength of a high-level lord, only one step away from the demigod. In five years, they will become demigods, and ten years later, they will become true gods.

Lu Yang felt that his time was not enough. He smiled bitterly and said, “According to you, I must find the advance army now and kill the cubs. Otherwise, in half a year, we can wait for death.”

The Blazing Demon God said: “Don’t be so pessimistic. There are not many cubs. You have to know that it is difficult for God’s children to be born, nor is it easy for the children of high-level lords. We are a very sparse group. There are at most ten such advance troops around the city. You only need to look for them slowly. Time is enough for you to destroy them.”

Lu Yang hehehe said, “Hope.”

He ran back to the villa supply station, and when he returned to the basement, Zhuojiu and White Lion came to Lu Yang excitedly and said, “Boss, we are all upgraded to level 2.”

Lu Yang nodded in satisfaction and said, "Today, everyone has a good rest during the day. We will go out hunting at night. We will try to give each of you a handy weapon tonight."

The crowd came in awe, and each lay down beside the bed to rest. When it was one o'clock in the morning, Lu Yang woke them up and led them out of the supply station.

"Generally, where is the advance army?" Lu Yang asked as he walked into the city.

The Blazing Demon said: "This is random, but there is a high probability that they will establish villages and towns near the warped time and space, and quickly begin to multiply and increase their strength."

Lu Yang recalled that in the city, there were more than 300 distorted time and space. He turned on the microcomputer, and the display on it was liquid crystal, except for him, people in other directions could not see it.

There is the position of the distorted space-time marked before. The closest one was near a building on the outskirts of the city. At that time, the appearance of the distorted space-time directly collapsed this building.

"We walked to the northwest. Everyone followed me, and took care of the rear for half a lifetime. Every 1 minute, they reported to me that they were safe." Lu Yang tapped the screen and said.

The bitter love half a lifetime also had a microcomputer in his hand, and sent a number 1 to Lu Yang to express his understanding.

It's not that Lu Yang is too cautious, but that this area is too scary. He doesn't want any of his friends around to be hurt. He would rather be more cautious than regret afterwards.

Because it was late at night, the neighborhood was still very quiet at this time. Most of the creatures were asleep during this time period. Some creatures that acted at night, although in groups, were scanned by the Blazing Demon God. All were foreseen by Lu Yang in advance.

Lu Yang led the turbid wine and they ran fast on the street, thinking that there was a constant flow of cars in this area back then, and there was often traffic jams for about two hours after get off work, but nowadays, the entire road is full of scrapped cars and some road sections. You can't see a car, only the empty road and big pits everywhere.

Everyone, including Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei, was sighing. No one thought that the once prosperous city would become this way.

"Stop." Lu Yang raised his right hand.

Everyone stopped quickly. Just when they were curious, a green-skinned creature holding a torch walked from the corner of the street to the middle of the road and looked around.

They are about 2 meters tall, have tails on their backs, are wearing armor, and hold two-handed swords more than one meter long in their hands.

"It looks like we are lucky and found the advance army in another world." Lu Yang said.

Chapter 2010 - Red armor

Originally, Lu Yang wondered if it would take several days to locate the advance army who found the other world. He was prepared to be unable to find it for several days, but he didn't expect to crash the first time. Run into it.

"Boss, this group of playing accidents is similar to human beings, how are their strengths." Seeing that the time for sending a message came up, they typed such a line directly.

Lu Yang called Zhuo Jiu and Kuai Bansheng and others to his side, and said, "These people are very weak. You walk around with me and enter their camp. I have a way to stun all of them. Up."

He plucked a few leaves from a willow vine of the Three-Eyed Demon Flower and handed them one by one, saying: "Once you listen to my order, put the leaves in your mouth to ensure that you will not fall into a coma. "

Zhuojiu and White Lion took the leaves, and everyone showed an expression of excitement. They knew that their boss must have a baby.

Lu Yang contacted the Blazing Demon God internally and asked, "How to get around."

Blazing Demon said: "On the left, but there is also an enemy there. You need to cooperate with other people to kill him."

Lu Yang led them through the street on the left. After going around a building, they saw a green-skinned man guarding the gate at the gate of a square leading to the underground.

"They are the least powerful Gelang warriors in the world we live in. From my perception, they are all creatures of level 2 strength. They don't understand spells. They are just rough and thick, and bullets can't penetrate them. Body, and it's hard to be killed. It can speak even if the head is off. It is a very disgusting race." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang was also quite disgusted in his heart. This thing could still speak when his head fell off. It was equivalent to saying that Lu Yang and Zhuojiu made a little mistake in their cooperation, and the Gelang fighters could warn them and call others to come over.

"For a while, I will trap the green-skinned man with the fire snake restraint. Yuwei's ice spell must freeze the green-skinned head. The others see that we are successful, so they immediately rushed forward and the white lion chopped it off. His head, stale wine, searched for something and blocked his mouth. Remember, if his head falls, this thing won't die for a while," Lu Yang said.

Zhuo Jiu and Bai Shi were a little nervous for the first actual battle, but they both remained calm. Lu Yang led them gradually closer. When they reached a distance of about 30 meters, the group hid in a pile of roads. Behind the falling garbage construction garbage.

It can be seen that these concrete walls were on the adjacent building. It is estimated that the distortion of time and space destroyed the upper part of the building, and some of them fell on the road, forming this natural barrier.

Lu Yang hid in the darkness and raised his head to look at the Gelang warriors guarding the door in the distance. He calculated that these Gelang warriors pass by the door of the underground square every 10 minutes, and there are only six Gelangs in total. The clan fighters stayed outside, which gave Lu Yang plenty of opportunities for sneak attacks.

He aimed his right hand at the body of the Gelang warrior, and read the spell in his mouth. The next second, a green-skinned Gelang warrior standing at a height of 2 meters, suddenly appeared under his feet, controlling him to death. In place.

The Gelang warrior was controlled by the flames, and immediately wanted to open his mouth and horn, but before he shouted out, Xia Yuwei cast a cold spell, freezing his head into ice.

The white lion caught wind at its feet, jumped out of the concrete bunker, sprinted in front of the Gelang warrior with all its strength, stretched out his hand to grab the long knife in the opponent's hand, swept it horizontally, and cut the head of the Gelang warrior Come down.

Muzijiu rushed forward and tore off the brown cloak of the Gelang warrior. After breaking the ice, before the Gelang warrior roared, he stuffed the cloak into his mouth.

Zhou Tianming and Kuai Ai Bansheng wanted to lift the Gelang fighters, but they didn't expect to encounter the fiery snakes released by Lu Yang, and the ultra-high temperature flames immediately burned their skin.

"Halo, forgot that this is not a game." Said the bitter love half a lifetime.

Lu Yang quickly put away the spell, bitter love half a lifetime and Zhou Tianming carried the Gelang warrior and ran behind the concrete bunker.

After arriving behind the bunker, the Gelang warrior gradually died. Lu Yang said, "Fortunately, there are ice spells. Otherwise, the blood shed by this guy is enough to attract the attention of others."

Zhuojiu, Baishi and others looked at Xia Yuwei, and gave thumbs up to Xia Yuwei's decisiveness.

Xia Yuwei looked at the body of the Gelang warrior with nausea, but she suppressed it forcibly and said, "I'm fine."

Lu Yang knew that Xia Yuwei was not easy, and said: "Hold on, there will be more killings later, you must be mentally prepared."

Xia Yuwei nodded and said, "This is a turning point in the destiny of mankind. I am not qualified to be weak. Don't worry."

Lu Yang looked at Zhuojiu and the others, and said, "Take off his armor. From now on, this will be our standard armor."

Several people looked at the armor on the Gelang Warrior. It was a set of crimson armor. In terms of hardness, it was harder than any existing metal, but lighter than any other metal.

The armor is divided into the upper body and the lower body. The turbid wine is the first to put the full body armor on his body, and said in surprise: "I can't feel the weight, it's incredible."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "It's not just the weight. Look at the fire marks on the armor. The fire snake restraint I released was at a high temperature of 2000 degrees. It turned out that there were only fire marks on the red metal armor, even a little melted. There are no signs."

Zhuojiu and White Lion sighed.

The white lion put the long knife in his hand in front of everyone, and said, "This knife is also red. It looks like the texture and armor are made of the same metal Lu Yang said: "You take it first. , We are going to kill the second green-skinned man, you remember, their names will be called the green-skinned people in the future, we will give them a unified name, the number is the invading enemy No. 1. From now on, Yuwei will be responsible for recording their data Now, let's tell the known data and provide it to the masters of the underground city as a reference. "

Zhuo Jiu and others nodded. After Lu Yang finished speaking, they added, and a basic data about the green-skinned man came out.

But this data was not enough. Lu Yang decided to use the next five green-skinned warriors to continue the experiment. After killing all five men, Xia Yuwei had a complete green-skinned data in the records in her hands.

At the same time, the White Lion, Xia Yuwei, Zhou Tianming, Hard Love Half a Life and Lu Yang each had a red light armor and a red long knife.

Lu Yang came to the entrance of the underground plaza, took out the three-eyed magic flower, pointed it at the passage, and said, "Put the pollen."

The three-eyed magic flower nodded and shook his head. Large swaths of colorless and odorless pollen entered the underground plaza with the wind.

Chapter 2011 - Strong green man

Lu Yang and Zhuo Jiu waited outside for 5 minutes. The Three-Eyed Magic Flower nodded suddenly, letting Lu Yang know that they could go in.

"Stand apart, one person staring in one direction, if there is a green-skinned person, don't act without authorization, immediately press the warning button on the arm computer." Lu Yang said.

Each of them has an armband similar to the vibration of a mobile phone, which is specially reminded of danger. During the setting process, Lu Yang set a different color for everyone's armband. Lu Yang is red and dirty. It is golden, Zhou Tianming is black, white lion is white, bitter love for half a lifetime is purple, and Xia Yuwei is blue.

Once the arm vibrates and they see the color on the bracelet, they can immediately know which direction is in danger.

They also know that the danger of this action is huge. If they succeed, they will get rich rewards. If they lose, they will face a mortal predicament. After all, they are entering the nest of the greenskins. They are extremely cautious.

Lu Yang scanned the expressions of each of them, and after seeing that they were all ready, he entered the underground plaza first.

This is a very old underground plaza. It was once the most famous shopping mall for small commodities in Donghai City.

The entrance of the square is a T-shaped, with entrances on both sides. Lu Yang took the muddy wine and they walked to the south entrance. After going down the stairs, they saw the long main road of the shopping mall in the underground square.

But at this time, the underground square is completely dark and you can't see anything. This is completely a black world, but the more this black world is, the more fear it brings to people, because you don't know where the enemy is. I don't know if they want to attack you.

The kind of 100% vigilance at all times is the most terrifying. The sudden appearance of the enemy will make you scared and weak.

Lu Yang and Zhuojiu lit a torch and illuminated the surrounding area 30 meters brightly. From the dim light, you can see that there are a large number of green-skinned people sleeping on the wall and among various small commodities. All green-skinned people are deeply lethargic.

Lu Yang walked to a green-skinned man, drew out the red saber on his waist, and wiped the green-skinned neck with a single knife. Even so, the green-skinned man woke up without pain and was still sleeping.

“Everyone walk with me, kill first, then remove the armor.” Lu Yang whispered.

The pollen duration of the three-eyed magic flower cannot be determined, and no one knows whether any of these creatures are particularly powerful.

Zhuojiu and the others followed Luyang, along the first commercial road in the underground plaza, and killed them. There were three main roads. In the end, after they killed all the green people, they found that there were more than 80. A green-skinned man.

Immediately they began to disassemble the red armor of the Green Skin Man, and then found a shop selling curtains, put all the armor in the curtains, and then evenly distributed the turbid wine and the white lion.

Lu Yang and Xia Yuwei are not training strength, even if these armors are very light, falling together is a burden to them.

“Let’s go.” Lu Yang said.

Zhuojiu and the others nodded excitedly. Today’s harvest is too rich. Not only can these armors be worn by them, but they can also be worn by their brothers. Soon, they will be able to create a group of troops.

The group of people walked towards the door, but when they were halfway there, Lu Yang always felt something was wrong and said: “You have found no problem. It stands to reason that any race should have a leader, or a patriarch. Why is there not even a leader among these green-skinned people.”

Zhuojiu and White Lion looked at each other, and they also found this problem. Zhuojiu said, “Boss, why don’t we explore and explore?”

Lu Yang said: “When you encounter a group, you must kill them all, or wait for them to become stronger and look for revenge on us, and we will suffer.”

Everyone nodded.

The Blazing Demon said: "You are right. The green-skinned people are a race that must be reported. If you don't kill all the green-skinned people in this group once and leave one behind, they will seek revenge from you and develop the green-skinned people. In one year, even if you are not afraid, aren't your subordinates and relatives afraid?"

Lu Yang understood and asked, "Where is their leader? Can you find it?"

The Blazing Demon God shook his head and said: "I can't perceive it either. Look at other areas of the underground mall. Maybe they are in the monitoring room and the general manager's office."

Lu Yang looked at the dark area on the other side. Regarding the general manager's office and the monitoring room, they had already been there, but when they opened the door, they found that the doors of those rooms were all locked.

If the door is opened violently, it will make a loud noise, which may wake up the green-skinned people. Therefore, Lu Yang and Zhuoju went to kill the green-skinned people first. Now, all the green-skinned people are dead. There were only a few rooms left, and Lu Yang led them back.

The Blazing Demon scanned these rooms and did not find the existence of a green-skinned person, but the problem is that if the length of the room exceeds 50 meters, the Blazing Demon cannot scan it.

Lu Yang looked at the six rooms on this side of the corridor, walked to the door one by one, and let the Blazing Demon feel it. At this moment, what Lu Yang and the others didn't know was that in the general manager's office, a green-skinned man was holding it. A red two-handed sword is hiding in the corner.

There is no room in the first, no in the second room, and no in the third room. When he arrived in the fourth room, the Blazing Demon God was about to let Lu Yang leave. Suddenly, he felt that there were objects in the room. Approach quickly.

"Be careful, quickly hide, there are green-skinned people inside." The Blazing Demon God shouted.

Lu Yang hurriedly dodged himself. At this moment, the wooden door of the general manager's office suddenly shattered. At the same time, a wave of air rushed out and hit the wall directly.

Lu Yang looked back and saw that a huge hole had been punched out of the wall. At the same time, a green-skinned man about 2 meters tall and muscled in his entire body suddenly rushed out, holding a two-handed sword, and pointed towards Lu Yang. Chopped it down.

“Resist the Ring of Fire”

Lu Yang couldn't escape, a burst of crimson energy suddenly poured out of his body. The strong green-skinned man did not expect that Lu Yang would release his spell skills. He was rushed into the front by the sudden flame energy, and he immediately leaned back.

“Fire Snake Bound”

Lu Yang subconsciously released the skills continuously, and a fiery snake immediately locked the strong green-skinned man in place. Xia Yuwei reacted very quickly. Following a spell, it directly froze the strong green-skinned head.

For a while, the green-skinned man's arms and lower body were controlled by the fire snake, and his head was frozen by the ice, and he was temporarily unable to move.

Chapter 2012 - Techniques of the Temple of War

“Roar”

There seemed to be some other energy in the green-skinned human body, and he suddenly yelled, overflowing with huge energy, shattering the ice and the fire snake.

Lu Yang said in surprise, "I'll be forced to go, what's the situation, why is this guy so tyrannical."

The Blazing Demon God said excitedly: "Lu Yang, your good luck is here, kill him, or ask him how he learned this skill. In your words on earth, this person knows internal strength, or sword aura. thing."

"I'll fight it first." Lu Yang raised his hand with a Pyroblast technique.

The huge fireball with a diameter of 1 meter rushed to the strong green-skinned man instantly, and the narrow environment of the corridor did not give the green-skinned space to escape.

In desperation, the green-skinned man's body gushed white energy covering his body, and at the same time, the two-handed sword in his hand slashed hard, and a white air blade instantly cut towards the big fireball.

"Old and big heart." Standing on the side of the bitter love half a lifetime, he immediately noticed something was wrong, leaped forward and threw Lu Yang to the ground. At the same time, the Qi blade cut away against the back of the bitter love half a lifetime.

Suddenly, the crimson armor that had been worn for half a lifetime was cut open, and the blood of half a lifetime was gushing out.

"Are you all right." Lu Yang red eyes immediately.

Kuai Bansheng shook his head and said, "It just hurt the muscles, not the spine."

Lu Yang almost jumped out of his heart in shock. If his good brother died for him like this, he would never forgive himself in his life.

"I killed you." Lu Yang was anxious, and chanted a spell when the dirty wine and the white lion were besieging the green man, causing the green man to be in a hurry.

“I see how much sword energy you can release. I will smash you to the end today.” Lu Yang held a magic core in his hand and tried his best to activate the magic in his body.

“Fire Snake Bound”

A fire snake suddenly got out of the green-skinned man’s feet and firmly trapped his legs. Suddenly, the green-skinned man could not move and fell to the ground.

It was the first time that Zhuojiu and White Lion faced death like this. When they saw the green-skinned man fell to the ground, they rushed up.

“Boom”

But they just touched the body of the green-skinned man, and the white light appeared again. The huge power blew the white lion, the dirty wine, and the bitter love for half a lifetime to the wall. If it weren’t for the armor and they reached level 2 fighters To the extent that just this impact, they can crush their internal organs.

“Freezing”

The ice covered the head of the green-skinned girl, but the white light made him unable to make any further progress, but because of the appearance of the ice, the white light that was about to hold the fire snake under the green-skinned feet became dim.

“If there is a chance, Yuwei will hold on.” The bitter love half a lifetime just wrapped his wound with a bandage, and threw a magic core over.

Xia Yuwei ate the magic core with one hand and released the spell with the other. Together with Lu Yang, she tried her best to control the green man.

The Blazing Demon God watched the green-skinned resistance getting weaker and weaker, and finally heaved a sigh of relief, and said, “I was scared to death. I thought you were going to die.”

Lu Yang frowned and said, "What the * is this, so powerful."

The Blazing Demon God said: "This green-skinned man is not very strong. The skill he learned is called sword qi, or fighting qi. It is a profound cultivation technique, and this is the cultivation skill of the * of war.

It is reasonable to say that Gelang fighters are not qualified to learn this skill. They only rely on instinct to fight, but since this Gelang fighter can learn it, it proves that his aptitude is very strong. At the same time, this Gelang fighter should be After he has obtained the cultivation method, he has cultivated it himself, but he doesn't know how to use this ability, and you haven't given him much time for cultivation.

If you come half a year late, believe me, even if you are a sixth-level mage, you will die tragically under his sword aura. A sneak attack with a slash of air can leave you dead. "

Lu Yang nodded, and said, "Today is a real experience. What is actual combat? The previous battle was really too simple."

Blazing Demon said: "I want to find a way to control him, I want to search his brain, maybe I can search for useful things."

Lu Yang looked at the green-skinned man in front of him. At this time, the white light on his body was already very faint, almost invisible.

The fire snake was bound to form a chain of flames, which had been tightly attached to his shoes. The super high temperature caused the green-skinned skin to instantly smell of burnt.

The head of the green-skinned man was also frozen and turned into a big ice block. In fact, the white light of the green-skinned man is mainly attached to his head. If his head continues to freeze, he will be frozen to death. .

Lu Yang motioned to the dirty wine and the white lion beside him. They stepped forward and pointed at the limbs of the green-skinned man. None of them showed an expression of unwillingness. Instead, they slammed their fist down and broke the limbs of the green-skinned man on the spot .

It was not that they were cruel, but they knew that they were a little bit unbearable, and they were the ones who died, because in the previous battle, the green-skinned people just relied on the white gas and flew them to the wall.

If it weren't for the Greenskins, it was Lu Yang who mainly attacked. If it hadn't been for half a life of bitter love to save Lu Yang, not only would Lu Yang die, but their death would be just in time.

"Yuwei stopped freezing, I have something to ask him." Lu Yang said.

"Boss, can you understand the language of this green-skinned man?" asked the bitter love half a lifetime.

Lu Yang put his arms around the shoulders of his love for half a lifetime, and said: "Strictly guard this secret, you are here to wait for me."

In his hand, the fire snake chain pulled the green-skinned man into the room. When he reached the general manager's office, he discovered that it was a two-story room with an underground warehouse underneath. The green-skinned man was hidden in a huge warehouse. Up.

Lu Yang looked at the green-skinned man. At this time, he had no ability to break the ice with the white gas. Lu Yang waved the chain to break his ice. At the same time, the fire snake binding suddenly accelerated, turning into a sharp arrow and piercing the green. Pipa bones of skin people.

Although the green-skinned man's regenerative ability is very strong, the injured area of the body is now beginning to recover, but under the super high flame damage bound by the fire snake, the body will be burned when it recovers, and it will not recover at all.

"@## ¥ # ¥ #" The green-pied man said a lot, and Lu Yang couldn't understand a word.

Blazing Demon said: "He said again, God of War, if you can't kill me, I will definitely kill you."

Lu Yang said, "Don't bother, mad believers, just search for it."

The Blazing Demon God nodded happily, and a burst of scarlet energy flew out of Lu Yang's body. It plunged into the head of the strong green-skinned man in the blink of an eye. In an instant, the green-skinned eyes appeared dull. After ten seconds, the crimson energy returned to Lu Yang.

"Huh, I'm exhausted. Fortunately, I got what I wanted." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang quickly asked, "What's the matter?"

The Blazing Demon said: "This is the lower * in the Temple of War. When looking for a strong man in a low-strength race, he found him. After injecting the cultivation technique directly into the head of the Gelang warrior, he ordered Ge The Lang clan respects this called Baseku Warrior as the patriarch, and then asks them to invade the human world.

Basekku has become a fanatic at this time, and he rushed into the twisted time and space with the Gelang warriors. After they came here, they began to build camps and multiply races. At the same time, he was also practicing exercises, as I guessed. It didn't take long for him to cultivate, otherwise, you won't be able to survive. "

Lu Yang asked, "Did you get the exercises?"

"Of course." Blazing Demon God said: "This kind of thing is still very simple. This is the cultivation brand of a lower god. As long as you think of this lower god, the figure of the lower * will appear in your mind and start teaching you how to use this spell. Use like this."

Chapter 2013 - Youlong

Lu Yang became interested and said: "Help me write down the teaching method. I will let my brothers learn. When they learn this trick, who am I afraid of."

The Blazing Demon laughed and said: "Of course, you can relax, don't resist my control, I will write down the detailed data."

Lu Yang naturally didn't mind this. Blazing Demon God is a * king, with dignity. Lying and taking arrogance are not things that a * king like him would do. At the moment, he relaxes his spirit, Blazing Devil God. Having gained control of Lu Yang's body, he recorded this exercise right now and gave it a very terrestrial name-God of War Jue. The white sword energy he produced was called Qi Blade Slash.

After a lot of busy work, the Blazing Demon God returned the control of consciousness to Lu Yang, and said: "The task is complete, you can give them the cultivation method. By the way, there is one more thing you need to know."

"What's the matter?" Lu Yang asked.

The Blazing Demon said: "There is also a dragon who has passed through the warped time and space with the Gelang warrior. Now it has broken its shell, and this dragon has left the protection area of the Gelang warrior and entered the sea alone to find food. Go, every half month, this dragon will go back to sleep in the area controlled by the Gelang warrior. He just left today, and you still have half a month to prepare. If you can kill this dragon, it will be of great help to improve the strength of."

Lu Yang smiled and asked, "What level is this dragon that has just hatched?"

The Blazing Demon God said: "According to the growth rate of the dragons, their bodies start after they break their shells, and after half a month, they can grow to about 10 meters. You still have a chance to kill him. If you give him a year in time, your dungeon will be destroyed by him."

Lu Yang sighed and said, "What's the matter, there is danger everywhere."

The Blazing Demon God said: "Accept it, the universe is like this, it's just that you have been in a safe place before and haven't touched it."

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders, walked out with the training materials, and handed it to Zhuo Jiu, "This is the release method of the God of War Art and the skill Qi Blade Slash, which is the learning method of the white light released by the strong green skin man just now. Come and see if you want to learn."

Zhuo Jiu, White Lion, Kuai Bansheng and Xia Yuwei all looked at the skill excitedly, and they also wanted to learn this skill.

Lu Yang said, "Don't get excited, this is just one of the exercises we have found. There will be no less exercises we will encounter later. You can learn if you are suitable, and even if it is not suitable, there will always be one suitable for you to learn."

Everyone nodded, carrying their bags, and as Lu Yang returned to the rest area of the villa, for the next ten days, Zhuojiu and White Lion would lie in the basement of the villa to learn the God of War Art and Qi Blade Slash.

Fortunately, these two skills are not difficult to learn. In only three days, the white lion and Zhou Tianming have cultivated white gas. By the sixth day, the two of them will be able to slash with the air blade. The only drawback is that , After a shot, the two of them lost their energy.

The Blazing Demon said: "Your two brothers are very comprehensive. What they lack now is the Sword Elf. If they can summon the Sword Elf to their side with their own strength, they will not be able to release the Qi Blade. It takes a lot of effort."

Lu Yang said, "What is that?"

The Blazing Demon said: "A person who has all the conditions of courage, strength, wisdom, loyalty, sacrifice, etc., will be appreciated by the wizard of the sword."

"Boss, there is always a white elf dangling around today, what kind of thing is this?" said bitter love half a lifetime.

Blazing Demon God and Lu Yang looked at the bitter love half a lifetime who was not far away to heal his wounds. If he hadn't reminded him, the Blazing Demon God would not have noticed that beside the bitter love half a lifetime, there was a small white fat elf. Flying and dancing around him constantly.

"This is the sword spirit, I will teach you the formation, let him receive the sword spirit quickly." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang directly exchanged consciousness. He is learning too slowly and the Blazing Demon God is also very anxious. The sword spirit chooses humans. If humans do not choose them for a long time, they will anger the sword spirit, and no sword spirit will come over in the future. Up.

Half a lifetime of Kuai Ai didn't understand this. Seeing Lu Yang rushing to him, he started to draw a magic circle. When the formation was completed, the Blazing Demon God said a few obscure scales. After half a lifetime of Kuai's study, Read it out.

The white elf who had been flying around for half a life of bitter love happily flew into the body of half a bitter love. In the blink of an eye, a layer of white light was attached to the body of half a bitter love.

"How many Qi Blades can you release?" Lu Yang asked.

Kuai half a lifetime blinked, and said: "Xiaobai told me that with him covering me, I can send six slashes in a row."

Zhuojiu, White Lion and others were speechless. They worked hard for so long to release one. They were able to release four for half a lifetime, half healing, and half practice.

Lu Yang had already regained the dominance of consciousness at this time, and said with a smile: "Yes, it is destined, you should learn this set of skills, let's go out, we should try to hunt more advanced creatures to improve our strength."

Everyone nodded, even if they didn't use Qi Blade, the vindictive energy attached to their bodies was enough to prevent ordinary monsters from getting close, not to mention that they still had red armor.

Lu Yang said: "Everyone must strengthen and exercise. I tell you that in a few days, the creature we are going to face is a dragon. must kill him. Otherwise, a year later, this dragon will Can ruin our dungeon."

Zhuojiu and others nodded solemnly.

Lu Yang led them out of the basement. This time, Zhuojiu's strengths have been subversively improved, and they have a strong self-confidence in the face of external creatures.

It was just the night at this time, and Lu Yang led them into the city again. When they were taking exercise these days, Lu Yang had been patrolling around the city. He found that in the center of the city, there were a group of red skins with only height. Monsters about one meter away, in the words of the Blazing Demon God, these monsters are called Sigma, and they are also the lowest level intelligent creatures in another world.

They are only about one meter tall. They seem to have low strength, but their strength is very large. Not to mention the tyrannical warriors, the most powerful is the patriarch of Sigmo, a fire mage. Compared with the flames released by Lu Yang, In front of the Sigmo Patriarch, it was like a child's play.

Lu Yang once saw the Demon Clan Sig, a Tier 3 demonized tiger killed by a fire explosion technique. If it were Lu Yang, ten of them might not be able to kill.

Fortunately, Lu Yang had a three-eyed magic flower, otherwise he would really not dare to provoke the Sigma family.

Chapter 2013: Hidden enemy

The more than 40,000 members of the Jagged Brothers League were resting, and when they heard the sound of the horns, they all showed their solemn expressions.

The old members jumped on the Fire Lion and Fire Crow, each shouting to the new members: "Ready to fight, rookies, your first war is here."

The 30,000 new members have not yet been systematically trained, and they are not so sensitive to the horns of war. They didn't react for the first time. They knew that it was the horns of war, and they couldn't help showing their excitement after hearing the shouts of the old members. color.

These 30,000 people have been looking forward to it for a long time. From the first day of investigation by Han Yu and Han Fei, these people will receive various news and specific data about Sigmo and Granite fighters every day.

Regardless of the opponent's fighting method, physical strength, endurance and willpower, there are very detailed data analysis, including the topography of the tiger's mouth, and their attack methods. The two weeks have been arranged, just wait. The beginning of the war.

In fact, they were able to launch an attack as early as a week ago, but Lu Yang abruptly dragged on for another week, forcing the 30,000 people to repeat the place they wanted to attack, as well as the possible dangers and countermeasures. .

Even 30,000 rookies felt that their boss was too cautious, and people kept asking for war in advance to save Dan City.

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and others stood beside Lu Yang. Seeing the expressions of these 30,000 rookies, Bai Shi smiled bitterly and said, "These rookies finally got their wish."

Zhou Tianming frowned and said, "I hope they can survive this level. Killing human creatures in another world is not the same as killing wolves and pigs."

Those are a group of races that also have wisdom with them, have their own language and civilization. You will see the brutality on their faces when they charge, and the fear and unwillingness before their death. You can really pass this level. At the time, they were the real fighters.

Lu Yang knew the White Lion's concerns, and said with a smile: "I believe these 30,000 people will not let me down. After two years of siege, their minds have been very firm and will not be easily afraid."

Everyone nodded, looking forward to the formation of the army.

After everyone stood up, Lu Yang summoned Red Night, jumped on the dragon's head, came to the front of the team, and said loudly, "Recruits of the Jagged Brotherhood, your first war is here. , You have analyzed the enemy's time for two weeks and rehearsed the battle for more than a week. I believe that you already know the enemy well and are also very familiar with the area you are going to attack.

What I want to tell you today is not to ask you how to fight bravely. My requirement is to earnestly complete the tasks assigned to you by the old members around you.

There is only one life, not only your life, but also once for the brothers around you. Don't let me see someone who has vacated a position because of his negligence, causing the brothers around you to be killed by the enemy, don't let me see Now, because you want to show your personal bravery, you leave the team alone and rush into the enemy's position. The other brothers who hurt you have to accelerate forward in order to make up your seat, causing the entire team to lose its formation.

You must remember that this is a war, not a personal fight. In order to ensure victory with the smallest sacrifice, I hope that you must cherish the lives of your brothers around you.

Two weeks ago, I took you from your family to the outside. Two weeks later, I also hope to bring you back to your family intact.

You have chosen to follow me, and I will be responsible for your lives. This is not a game, not an exercise, but a real war. Brothers, get ready, all mount and follow me~! ”

“Kill~!” 40,000 people shouted in unison.

Lu Yang turned the dragon's head and controlled Hong Ye and ran in the direction of the tiger's mouth. After sprinting for a distance of 20 meters, Hong Ye spread his wings and got up and flew into the air.

Forty thousand people each mounted their mounts. Because of the rush to come out, apart from the old members who are Fire Lion and Fire Crow, the 30,000 newcomers have not yet mounted their mounts. The advancement in the past two weeks has been to kill monsters on the one hand, and on the other hand to give They look for mounts.

Now these 30,000 people are riding a variety of different types, including second-tier demonized wild wolves, tigers, and cheetahs, and even second-tier falcons, of all kinds.

From a distance, this army marched like ten thousand beasts. Fortunately, it was the early spring weather and the ground had not yet thawed. Otherwise, it would have been full of smoke and dust.

Lu Yang sat on Hong Ye's head and used the intercom to dial Ma Zicheng, the highest commander of the Dan City Command Center.

"Dididi"

After three times, Ma Zicheng answered the phone and asked with a smile: "Brother Lu Yang, you finally called me. When will you come? People in Dan City are looking forward to it."

In the arenas held in the East China Sea, there are battles every day. This has become the only entertainment hobby of domestic humans, so that people are quizzing every day whether the orcs can win or the warcraft can win. At the same time, this has also been recognized by the surviving cities everywhere. The fighting power of the East China Sea.

Dan City has already received Fu Yun's order. Once Lu Yang comes to Dan City, all the command power will belong to Lu Yang, and they will all obey the command.

Ma Zi is a good old man himself. He doesn't want to be so scared every day. He also wants Lu Yang to come early. Now he finally waited for Lu Yang's call, he was extremely excited.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "In half an hour, I will arrive at the mouth of the tiger and attack the Sigma and Gelang warriors there."

"It's already here." Ma Zicheng asked excitedly.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Of course, be prepared and pack the things at home. If you hurry, you will be able to finish your dinner in the East China Sea tonight."

"I'm going to go now, so I won't be in a hurry. I have to send my family there first. Your sister-in-law is afraid of every day. It is safe now." Ma Zicheng was very happy.

Lu Yang laughed and said, "Then it's so decided."

"Okay, I'm going to mobilize the whole city." Ma Zicheng said.

Lu Yang hung up, then he dialed the video calls of Han Yu, Han Fei, and Garcia, and asked: "Check again, whether there is a problem in or outside the city."

"There is no problem outside the city, and the firepower inside the city is not abnormal." Han Yu said.

Garcia had already taken the sea route into the river at this time and came to the central area of Dan City. The villa group next to him was the command post of Dan City.

Garcia was about to report that there was no problem, but suddenly he felt a familiar aura, frowned and said, "Boss, how do I feel that there is a breath of creatures from another world in Dan City's command post?"

Lu Yang widened his eyes fiercely, and said, "What's the matter?"

Garcia shook his head and said, "I don't know. This breath is very weak. I only felt it when I got close. This proves that the creatures in the different world hidden in the command post are powerful."

"Wait for me, I'll come here." Lu Yang hung up the phone and said to the dirty wine and the white lion around him: "Don't attack when you arrive at the scheduled location. I will go to the Dan City Command Post. There are hidden ones there. Another world creature."

"Yes." Zhuojiu, Xia Yuwei and others controlled the fire crows to fly on both sides of Lu Yang, and immediately responded when they heard the words.

Lu Yang patted Longjiao on the red night and said, "Go to the Dan City Command Post and fly at full speed."

"Roar~!" Hong Ye roared, flapped his huge red wings, and flew towards the distant city of Dan.

Chapter 2014 - Sigma Drunk

The city center is not far from where Luyang and the others are located. It can be reached within a three-hour walk, because there are three city centers in Donghai City.

The eastern railway station, the western municipal building, and the newly built northern high-speed railway station. Lu Yang and the others went to the eastern railway station area.

Among the many concrete buildings, a seemingly inconsistent railway station appeared among them. This railway station crossed a small half of Donghai City.

After entering the city, the train station was all walking on the viaduct, and Lu Yang led the muddy wine and ran quickly on the rails of the Gaoqiao.

In just over two hours, a group of people came to the railway station, which was supposed to be the waiting hall of the railway station. At this time, there were quite a few red skinsigma patrolling the surroundings with machetes and white glowing stones.

These stones are very special, as dazzling and dazzling as diamonds, the light emitted can illuminate the surrounding area within 50 meters.

“What is this?” Lu Yang asked.

The blazing demon said: “In the words of your earth, it is the night pearl that will glow after being exposed to radiation. In ours, these gems are the lowest gems called star shining stones. They can absorb a small amount of magic elements and then emit light. , It’s not useful, it’s just for lighting at night.”

Lu Yang said, “This is a good thing.”

Blazing Demon no longer speaks.

Lu Yang told Zhuojiu about the role of Xing Yaoshi and calmed their minds. In fact, the help of the Blazing Demon God to Lu Yang was tremendous. Otherwise, just such a Xing Yaoshi would be enough to make Lu Yang They are at a loss.

No one knows how to launch an attack under the premise of Xingyao Shi's effect. If Xingyao Shi has the offensive ability or early warning ability, they will all die.

"It turned out to be this effect, so I'm relieved." Zhuojiu said.

"But how did we get there?" the white lion scratched his head and asked.

The lighting distance is so far, they really don't have any good methods of sneak attack, and these people don't sleep, Lu Yang has nothing to do.

"Let's go around to see if there is a chance to go there," Lu Yang said.

Zhuojiu, Baishi and others nodded, and as Lu Yang entered the side of the train station, there was the platform area, next to the train parking spot, where a lot of locomotives stopped.

After bypassing this area, you can reach the other end of the train station, but Lu Yang discovered a problem when passing by these trains. How could there be a smell of alcohol.

Lu Yang looked at the black-skinned train car beside him, lowered his voice and said, "Everyone, follow me on the train."

He came to the door of this carriage and carefully pulled the door to try his best to minimize the sound.

As the car door opened, Lu Yang took out a flashlight to shine inside, and suddenly a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth, because the entire cargo box was filled with white wine, and it was 60° Erguotou.

Lu Yang couldn't help but smile, took out a bottle and weighed it in his hand, and asked, "You said creatures in other worlds don't drink."

Turbid wine: "..."

White Lion: "..."

Xia Yuwei: "..."

Zhou Tianming: "..."

Love half a lifetime nodded and said: "I want to try too."

The Blazing Demon couldn't help spouting in his consciousness: "The creatures in the different world have never drunk it before, and it is impossible to drink it."

Lu Yang raised his eyebrows, took a sip, and said, "How does it taste?"

The Blazing Demon God uttered an awkward spirit, and said, "Don't say it, it really smells like that."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "One person carries one box, let's try."

Zhuoju and the others laughed. They didn't expect their boss to be so optimistic. He obviously came out to kill him, and he just made it into a funny scene.

No one was carrying a box of 60-degree Erguotou, and they returned to their previous position with Lu Yang, hiding 60 meters away from the nearest red-skin monster, and Lu Yang unscrewed another bottle of Erguotou.

He looked at the situation ahead. At this time, they were in the area of the exit. There were about six red skin monsters patrolling with the star shining stone. Among the six of them, four were prismatic and two were prismatic. In the middle of the fire, I didn't know what I was talking about.

Lu Yang turned around and raised his eyebrows at the dirty wine, placed Erguotou on the ground, and turned towards the nearest red-skinned monster.

This red monster is looking around vigilantly. Although they are alien creatures, alien creatures and alien creatures also fight, and the demonized creatures on earth also fight with them. Therefore, these sig monsters are instinctive. Keep cautious.

“Bone Lulu”

There was a sound from the glass and the concrete floor. The red skin monster instantly found the glass bottle rolling over. Looking at the green bottle storing the liquid, the red skin monster instinctively jumped backwards to see that the green bottle did not explode, let alone nothing. Strange behavior, he curiously raised the knife and walked over and stabbed the bottle.

“Boom”

The lid of the bottle mouth had been loosened by Lu Yang, but he stabbed it several times before directly stabbing it off, and suddenly the sweet wine spilled out.

The scent of liquor immediately irritated Sigo’s nose. It quickly covered the nose, thinking it was poisoned, but then, the gas entered the body. The feeling of being very aggressive but very aftertaste made this Sigo There was an expression of intoxication.

He couldn’t help but put a drop of white wine with his finger and put it in his mouth, and it jumped up suddenly, but soon, he stopped beating, and happily picked up the wine bottle and took a big sip.

“Ah~! West Eight~!” Sigma sighed intoxicated, and immediately attracted the attention of the other five Sigma, and ran over to ask.

Sigo, who had drunk, pointed to Erguotou and chatted a lot, then pointed to the direction Lu Yang was.

Several other Sigmas took a bite one after another. After reading. they all showed the same expression as Sigma No. 1, and they ran towards Luyang.

“Hurry up.” Lu Yang led the Zhuojiu and they backed 50 meters away, and hid them behind a box.

Just where they left, six boxes of Erguotou were left on the ground, and each of the six Sigmas excited took out a bottle and drank.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Look, it works."

Xia Yuwei said: "Boss, you can be right about this, amazing."

Zhuojiu, Baishi and others nodded in agreement.

Lu Yang chuckled and said, "Let's go, they drank too much."

Zhuojiu and the others looked up, and sure enough, all six Sigma drank a whole bottle, and then all fell to the ground, snoring loudly.

"I'm going to test it, you guys will be behind." Lu Yang took the lead. He had the ability to resist the ring of fire and the blazing speed, but if he couldn't, he could escape. Others didn't have this ability.

Chapter 2015 - Against the Great Elder

Zhuo Jiu and White Lion also knew this, but everyone was filled with helplessness. Lu Yang took all the responsibility on himself, and they couldn't help at all.

"Old and big heart." In the end, they could only say this wordlessly.

Lu Yang smiled and patted their shoulders. He knew what these brothers were thinking, and motioned them not to worry, lowered their bodies, and slowly walked in the direction of Sigma in the dark.

The six Sigmas were lying on the ground and snoring. Lu Yang came to them and found that they were really asleep. There was a red sword in his hand, and the sword fell with his hand. They solved the six Sigmas. There is no response at all.

Lu Yang looked back at them, smiled and beckoned, and said, "Come here, they really drank too much."

Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei were surprised and ran over carrying two boxes of liquor. Xia Yuwei couldn't help but said, "I can't imagine that creatures in other worlds also love to drink."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Collect the spoils and see what's there."

Sigma's body is also wearing a red armor. The material is the same as that of the green-skin monster. There is nothing special. The only special thing is the Xing Yaoshi in their hands. Lu Yang and the others put them in their backpacks. inside.

"Keep moving, let's go inside." Lu Yang waved his hand and continued to lead the team to the back door of the train station.

There was a long staircase there. It turned out to be the staircase for people to enter the platform. When Lu Yang led them up the stairs, he could see the situation inside from the windows of the train station.

In the area on the first floor, dozens of Sigmas lay on their chairs to sleep, and almost 100 star shining stones were placed in various places in the rest area of the station, illuminating the entire first floor.

Among them, six Sigmas were walking towards the second floor area, which made Lu Yang's eyes widen. Obviously, these Sigmas were going to replace those on duty.

"Hurry up with me." Lu Yang led the Zhuojiu to the ticket gate on the second floor, unscrewed a few Erguotou bottles, and placed them at the door. They hid in Yuda above the ticket gate.

Just as Lu Yang jumped up here, the sound of footsteps in the distance approached, and the six Sigmas were yawning and chatting. Suddenly, they opened the door and saw the wine bottle under their feet. The smell of spirits permeates.

“Sigba~!” The lead Sigma took a sigh of enjoyment, took a bottle of wine and drank it. In the blink of an eye, this Sigma widened his eyes in surprise, and the bottle dries out.

The rest of the Sigma also picked up the bottles on the ground and drank, but as soon as they drank a bottle, these Sigmas lay on the ground.

“Boom”

The wine bottle fell to the ground and smashed to pieces, and they did not react.

Lu Yang and Zhuojiu’s faces were full of anxiety at this time, for fear that a few more wine bottles would be dropped. This voice was too loud in the middle of the night. If you wake up the other Sigmon, they will easily be blocked here. After all, that The six Sigmas on the side had been killed by them.

In this anxious wait, the other Sigma gradually lay on the ground. Fortunately, none of the remaining five wine bottles fell to the ground, but they were held in their arms.

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief and gestured to Zhuojiu and the others. Several people cautiously jumped down to Yuda and solved the six sigma.

Lu Yang slowly opened the gate of the ticket gate and entered the second floor of the train station. At this time, there were also a lot of starlight stones hanging on the surrounding walls on the second floor, and dozens of Sigmos lay on their chairs to sleep.

Lu Yang took out the three-eyed magic flower and whispered, “It’s up to you.”

The three-eyed magic flower shook his head quickly, and a large amount of pollen spilled into the train station. From the second floor to the first floor, in less than 10 minutes, Lu Yang could hear the Sigma sleeping on the second floor, and his breathing became even greater. It's heavy.

He turned his head and gestured, and they ran in lightly, but just as they were about to kill the Sigma who was sleeping in the rest area, suddenly, a huge fireball in the distance shot against the bad wine. past.

“Boom”

The turbid wine couldn't avoid it, and he resisted this big fireball. Suddenly, the turbid wine was beaten and flew more than 10 meters away, and his body fell heavily to the ground.

“Muddy wine, are you okay.” Lu Yang and Bai Shi didn't dare to speak loudly, they could only hold back their anxiety and shouted in a low voice.

Zhuojiu's body was white light, enduring the severe pain, and said, “Thanks to the God of War Art, otherwise I would be burned to ashes just now, and I felt my whole body burned.”

Lu Yang let go. As long as there is the God of War Art, the dirty wine will gradually recover. He just turned his head, and suddenly, a black shadow jumped towards him.

“Resist the Ring of Fire”

A blazing light came out of Lu Yang's body. The black shadow was supposed to hit Lu Yang's head with a stick, but was hit by the flames, and it flew out a distance of 5 meters. When he landed, Lu Yang They could see clearly that this was an old Sigma with a magic wand.

“Sigba~!” The old Sigma showed an angry expression. He couldn't understand what Lu Yang had done, causing all of his men to fall asleep. Just when the wine bottle fell on the ground, he realized that there was a problem.

Hiding in a high place, he saw Lu Yang sneak in to release something, but when he was about to attack, he felt dizzy, and quickly read the spell to calm his mind. Now he has carried the pollen. , Have the ability to fight back.

Five people, Zhuojiu, White Lion, Love Half a Life, Zhou Tianming and Xia Yuwei quickly surrounded the old Sigma.

Sig's magician was not afraid of the dirty wine and the others, with his staff crossed with both hands, staring at the surroundings vigilantly, frightening the dirty wine and others from time to time.

Lu Yang said, "Don't be careless, everyone. This guy has a very strong jumping ability. He should have jumped in from the mall opposite the station just now, so he will find a place."

"I will try his strength first." The White Lion took the lead in attacking.

They have not contacted and cooperated in the battle before. They did not dare to come forward easily. Although they had cooperated in the game many times before, the weapon in the game did not lose blood when hitting their own players If there is no news here, your brother will die in their hands.

Lu Yang knew this too, but he was quite happy. There was something about this time that would make the Zhuojiu them progress faster, and also make him progress faster, because now he doesn't know when to attack. .

"Sigba~!" The old Sigma was very powerful. Facing the attack of the white lion, after the first time he resisted it, he found that the white lion's power was very weak. It swept away with a stick and hit the red armour of the white lion's chest. Above, the white lion flew out.

Immediately after the turbid liquor attack, he was also beaten out. Zhou Tianming was also lost. In the end, he was left with a half-life of bitter love. This made the old Sigo very excited and couldn't help but scream for the sky. His victory was celebrated.

"Sigba~!" The old Sigma released the Pyroblast Spell at bitter love for half a lifetime.

“Sword Spirit-Qi Blade Cut~!” Half a life of bitter love did not evade, and hit a white gas blade against the big fireball.

In the blink of an eye, the white airblade collided with the big fireball. Not surprisingly, the big fireball was split. The old Sigma was celebrating with excitement, but unexpectedly, the airblade hit him in the next second. Cut his body directly into two parts.

Chapter 2016 - The Realization of the Blazing Demon

Lu Yang, Zhuo Jiu and others looked at the blow of a half-life of bitter love in astonishment, and they couldn't help showing surprise smiles.

“How did you do it?” Xia Yuwei asked in surprise.

Half a lifetime of bitter love, he smiled and scratched his head, and said: “I'm afraid that the red-skin monster's big fireball is too strong, so let the sword wizard use all his strength to hit all the sword aura at once.”

Lu Yang nodded and said, “Good job, everyone should act quickly, kill all the redskin monsters, and see what special things they have.”

Zhuo Jiu and the others nodded. After a busy time, all the Sigmas on the first and second floors of the train station were beheaded. While searching, Lu Yang found a lot of strange-shaped boxes, and they had not opened them. .

“What kind of box is this, with such a hard texture?” The white lion curiously knocked on the box with a red saber.

Lu Yang smiled without saying a word, and asked, “What are our gains this time.”

Zhuojiu said: "There are about 200 sets of red battle armor and swords, but their size is too small. If they want to be worn by humans, they have to be recast. They can be combined into 50 sets, and the same is true for red swords."

Xia Yuwei was responsible for the inventory, and then said: "There are also 200 Star Yaoshi and these 10 strange metal boxes."

Lu Yang looked at the crowd and looked at the box curiously, and said, "I will try to open them."

The Blazing Demon God had already told Lu Yang the purpose of these boxes. They were used for storing things, including the dragon eggs.

If you want to open them, you need to know magic. It just so happened that the Blazing Demon God told Lu Yang that in the ancient times, the Blazing Demon God taught the Sigma clan to civilize, and all the magic of the Sigma Clan was under the Blazing Demon Sect. The gods taught them.

It's a pity that the * sent by the Blazing Demon is the new * who sneaked on him, so now the Blazing Demon can easily open the magic box of the Sigo clan.

After a simple attempt, the first box was opened by Lu Yang, and with a bang, the one-meter-square box opened, filled with strange plant seeds.

"What is this?" Lu Yang asked curiously.

The Blazing Demon God said in surprise: "Sure enough, the Sigma clan will bring these things. These are plant seeds. After these plants grow up, they can be made into poisons, and they are very powerful."

Lu Yang couldn't help laughing, and asked, "The Sigo clan still has this kind of wisdom?"

The Blazing Demon God sighed, and said, "No ordinary Sigma, but their Great Elder does. The one you killed just now should be their patriarch. The subsequent stronger Great Elder hasn't come here yet. Come to think of it, it should be these Pathfinder Sigmas who have not found a suitable planting point before staying here."

Lu Yang said, "It looks like I should find a place to grow these things."

The Blazing Demon said: "You should indeed grow these herbs, and use the fertilizers of your human world, that things can have an effect of promoting birth."

Lu Yang: "..."

"Are you sure that chemical fertilizers work well?" Lu Yang asked silently.

"Nonsense." The blazing demon's consciousness rolled his eyes and said: "How many years have I been in the human world, am I still not clear about your human condition? When you look back when you planted, I will tell you every kind of herbal medicine. effect."

Herbs in another world, if they are poisonous, even a main * like the Blazing Demon God will be harmed. Therefore, every * is a master of potions, and his mastery of medicine is extremely high. Level.

Lu Yang opened the second box. There were still herbal seeds in it. The nine boxes were all herbal seeds. When the tenth box was opened, there was some silver-white residue inside.

"What is this?" Lu Yang asked.

Blazing Demon God said with some excitement: "The * of the dragon egg, eat it quickly, it is extremely useful to you."

Lu Yang was speechless, and said, "Just eat like that."

The blazing demon said: "You don't understand, the shell of the dragon egg is the fastest thing to replenish nutrition after the dragon is born. Therefore, the dragon egg is full of magical energy and is the best tonic for enhancing the strength. You take these seven dragons The egg fragments are eaten, enough to increase your strength to the level of releasing spells like flame rain."

Lu Yang was a little surprised. Flame Rain was not a simple spell. It was a skill that required a lot of magical energy to be summoned. He left two fragments, and gave the rest to each of them. He said, "Eat it. , Can enhance your strength."

"What is it?" Zhou Tianming asked with a frown, feeling a little unsure.

Lu Yang chewed on a fragment and said, "Fragments of the dragon egg."

As soon as he swallowed the first piece of dragon egg fragment alone, in an instant, a huge magic burst out of Lu Yang's body. The magnitude of that energy made Zhou Tianming and Zhuojiu both surprised.

"This is more magical energy than the magic core of the demonized octopus boss." Zhou Tianming said.

"Eat quickly, let's practice as well." Everyone saw that Lu Yang was already sitting on the ground, they ate one after another, and began to practice.

The train station has been searched all over by them, and there are no enemies. This kind of temporary practice is not a problem. After a short half night of practice, Zhuojiu and the White Lion were the first to stand up, and everyone became With a third-level fighter, the vindictiveness in the body is more filled.

Because Lu Yang had eaten two pieces of fragments, he took a lot longer than the others. After waiting for another hour, Lu Yang stood up from the ground with a smile on his mouth, and said, "My strength is up to a level 4 mage. Up."

The Blazing Demon sighed, and said: "It's still too slow. The magician's level 1 to 9 is the foundation, and there are magicians, fire demon and other levels behind, which are the first level."

Lu Yang was just a little happy, when the Blazing Demon God dispelled his enthusiasm, and said, "Teach me spells quickly."

The Blazing Demon said: “As long as your mental power is strong enough and the magical energy stored in your soul sea is enough, the simplest fiery snake * you release can also trap powerful creatures. On the contrary, your mental power is insufficient. 、 The magic power is not enough, no matter how powerful magic is, it will be a flowery when you release it.

Lu Yang said, “You mean my mental strength is insufficient.”

“Yes, the amount of magic storage in your soul sea has reached level 4, but your mental power is insufficient, you need to improve your spiritual power as soon as possible.” Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang was the least aware of this, and asked, “Is it just throwing skills at all times?”

The Blazing Demon God shook his head and said: “I found a good thing. If you can figure it out, maybe your mental power will be improved qualitatively.”

Lu Yang’s eyes lit up and asked, “What is it?”

The Blazing Demon said with a smile: “The profound meaning of Taoism and Buddhism, if you can penetrate a small part of it, the tenacity of your mental power can reach the level of horror.”

Lu Yang felt that the Blazing Demon God was lying to him, and said, “You are a foreign god, what are you doing studying Buddhist scriptures and Taoist classics?”

The Blazing Demon said: “Let’s live and learn.”

Lu Yang: “...”

Lu Yang felt that Blazing Demon God was like a liar at this moment, and said, "I still feel like you are fooling me."

The Blazing Demon God laughed and said, "Is there any point in lying to you? I didn't understand why your mental power increased so fast. Normally, your human mental power is very weak and easy. It can be defeated, and then it can occupy your mind, but although your mental power has not experienced cultivation before, it is very strong at the beginning and has a solid foundation.

Later I discovered that not all of you humans are like this. Europeans, Americans, and Middle Easterners have very weak spiritual power. Only people from your country have strong spiritual power. "

Lu Yang asked, "Why?"

The Blazing Demon said: "Do you know that I ride a blue bull?"

Lu Yang's soul shook and said, "Taoist allusions."

The Blazing Demon said: "In fact, the so-called mental power has something to do with your will and consciousness. If your will is firm, then your mental power will be huge. I have a quick way to exercise your mental power and return to supply. station."

Lu Yang gave a hum, looked at Zhuojiu and others, and said, "Let's return to the supply station."

The group nodded and returned to the underground supply station of the seaside villa with a lot of seeds and red armor.

Zhuojiu and White Lion were very tired and soon fell asleep. Xia Yuwei and Zhou Tianming were on duty.

Lu Yang sat on the ground, his consciousness connected with the Blazing Demon God, but this time when he entered the Knowledge Space, what he saw was not the Blazing Demon God, but a strange place with strange flowers and weeds everywhere.

Blazing Demon God smiled and said: "From this moment on, you will enter the challenge. Do you know Inception? Your challenge is Inception. As for how to leave, it depends on your ability. If you can't get out, Help, I will force you out."

Lu Yang was a little speechless. Since he had told him that it was Inception, how could he try? He shook his head and watched the surrounding forest walk up, but this forest seemed to be endless.

Lu Yang walked from the day to the sunset. He even felt that he had lost his way in the forest. He deliberately made a mark on the trees that he walked. But he found that he was not lost, but the road was too long.

Late at night, Lu Yang's spirit was a little tired. He couldn't help but rest on the trunk of a big tree. Just as he was tired and wanted to fall asleep, suddenly, a familiar hissing sound came from his ears. The sound of snakes.

Lu Yang subconsciously looked up and saw that a python was staring at him over his head. Half of his body had already come down from the tree. Suddenly, the python opened its mouth and bit towards Lu Yang.

"Hot and Fast"

Lu Yang subconsciously rolled forward to avoid the attack, but he had just landed, and he didn't know where he came out from behind, and it bit Lu Yang's leg accurately.

The intense pain caused Lu Yang's whole body to shudder, and at the same time, his legs suddenly became paralyzed.

"Fireball"

Lu Yang burned the snake to death with a fireball, and scorched all the paralyzed parts of his legs. This is what he learned in the jungle in the previous life. If he felt poisoned, he immediately scorched the central part to avoid poisoning. The blood flows to other parts of the body.

“Damn it, is this an illusion? How is it the same as the real one?” Lu Yang’s pained expression was distorted, watching the python completely land on the ground and began to gradually move towards him.

“Pyroblast”

“Meteorite Impact”

“Extinguish the Sky Fire”

Lu Yang continuously released his skills and burned the python to ashes, which made Lu Yang breathe a sigh of relief, but at this moment, more hissing sounds appeared in his ears.

In the surrounding forest, a large number of pythons crawled out, looking so eerie and terrifying under the light of fire.

Lu Yang was speechless, he couldn’t kill so many, he dragged his legs forward quickly, he knew this should be part of cultivation, so he didn’t want to call Blazing Demon God so quickly.

On the other side, the Blazing Demon God is also waiting for Lu Yang to find him for help at all times, but in fact, what the Blazing Demon God said to save him does not bring him back to the real world, but takes him into the second level of dreams. inside.

All things Lu Yang has encountered now is that the Blazing Demon God is forcing Lu Yang to consume all his mental power. If Lu Yang wants to increase his mental power, he must be in extreme collapse and at the same time stimulate his willpower. .

“Come on, boy, you should be able to pass through the nine levels of dreams. If you pass all of them, even the juvenile dragons should not be able to break free from the * of the fiery snake created by your mental power.” Blazing Demon God muttered. Language.

Inside the forest of dreams.

Lu Yang was still running. I don't know how long he ran. He finally couldn't run. His body was completely weak. But at this time, another python appeared and bit towards Lu Yang.

Lu Yang didn't know how many pythons he had killed along the way. Now that he had no magic power in his body, he yelled, "Blazing Demon God."

A flash of light flashed, and Lu Yang opened his eyes and returned to the room. The Blazing Demon God said in his consciousness: "Good job, you have persisted for a long time. After today's exercise, you will start to exercise again tomorrow night."

Lu Yang saw that everyone else was cultivating. He leaned against the wall to rest, but he didn't wait for five minutes. Suddenly, there was a noise in his arm.

"Lu Yang, come and save me, the people of the temple are going to kill our family." Lan Yu's voice was sharp and terrified.

"What's wrong with my sister-in-law?" White Lion asked fiercely.

Lu Yang watched Lan Yu in the three-dimensional video of his arm. Xiao Liang was driving with him. He and Lan Yu's parents were in the back seat. Everyone was crowded together with a very scared expression.

Behind them were the members of the temple who were chased by the car, including Wang Xinpeng, Zhou Quan and others, and everyone's expressions were hideous.

If there is anything in this world that is Lu Yang's Ni Lin, it is Lan Yu and his family. He stood up abruptly and shouted, "Everyone will come back with me to save people."

Zhuojiu, Baishi, Xia Yuwei, Kuai Bansheng, and Zhou Tianming quickly stood up, and as Lu Yang ran out, put on motorcycles, and the group drove quickly towards the base.

But when he was halfway there, Lan Yu's car was blown up, Lan Yu was taken away by Zhou Quan, and he was bullied when he was in Lu Yang's face.

Lu Yang found Zhou Quan like crazy, and confronted him, but Zhou Quan is a 6th-level mage, and Lu Yang is only 4th level. He is not Zhou Quan's opponent at all. actually Xia Yuwei and Zhuojiu beside Lu Yang. The others fell one by one and were killed by Wang Xinpeng and others.

There were flames all around, and Lu Yang almost uttered the most desperate cry, but at this moment, Lu Yang held back his anger, regained one-on-one with Zhou Quan, and killed Zhou Quan while he was chanting the spell.

Although Zhou Quan was dead, Lu Yang did not collapse too much. Instead, he cursed: "The Blazing Demon God, you are a bastard. This is an illusion."

The Blazing Demon chuckled and said, "Yes, you can come out of it. You are very good."

"Is that good for me? Is there such a * as you? The mark on Lan Yu's body is so clear, how did you do it?" Lu Yang was anxious.

Blazing Demon God laughed again, and said: "We are both consciously entangled. I don't know what else you have. It's okay. You can also know about me in the future."

Lu Yang was speechless, and said, "I can go back this time."

"Of course, after you clear the level, you will naturally go back. I have to think about how to set up the next illusion. After all, I think it will take a few days for you to study and understand." Blazing Demon God said.

Chapter 2018 - Challenge Spike Demon

Lu Yang opened his eyes again and returned to the basement. He carefully identified and confirmed that it was the real world. He also slept until the next morning, but when he took Xia Yuwei and the others to the beach, he was caught by Wang Xinpeng and the others. During the ambush, Xia Yuwei was bullied, the dirty wine broke her arm, the white lion died tragically in order to protect Lu Yang, and Lu Yang himself was chopped off a leg. Zhou Tianming and Kuai desperately tried to protect Lu Yang and escaped. Finally, Zhou Tianming died after death. I don't know.

...

Obviously, this was another illusion test of the Blazing Demon God, but Lu Yang really didn't know this time, because the opponent was a * king after all. The illusion created by the * king, Lu Yang, a human 4th-level mage, could see it through .

Lu Yang has never been outside since he entered the illusion. He has been struggling in the illusion, but layer by layer in the illusion, each layer is tempering Lu Yang's state of mind. It has already passed two levels before. Only the third layer.

In the basement, the turbid wine and the white lion were cultivating. Soon they felt something was wrong with Lu Yang. The magical energy of the crazy conflict in the body made Lu Yang's mental power obvious signs of collapse, but Lu Yang's practice Still did not stop, still in the greatest intensity.

"Is the boss practising any special exercises?" asked worriedly.

"I don't know, but I can't go on like this." Xia Yuwei said with a frown.

"Do you want to wake him up?" White Lion asked.

Zhuojiu shook his head and said, "Don't move around. We stay by the side. No one knows what is going on. Don't disturb the boss easily."

Zhou Tianming and the others nodded their heads and gathered around Lu Yang to practice. From midnight to early morning of the next day, Lu Yang still did not wake up. This made them frown, and they continued to wait until the morning of the third day. , Lu Yang finally opened his eyes just when he couldn't help himself with stale wine.

When I saw Zhuojiu and Zhou Tianming all around him, he smiled at the corner of his mouth and said, "What are you doing around me?"

"Boss, you can be considered as awake, it's been three days." Hard love has been crying for half a lifetime.

Lu Yang smiled and stood up, patted each of them on the shoulder, and said, "It's just a little practice. I'm a little hungry. Give me the food."

"I have already prepared it for you." Zhou Tianming brought the gruel up.

Zhuojiu asked, "What the * are you doing."

Lu Yang said: "I'm exercising my mental strength. You don't need to exercise this for now. You can feel it when you need it in the future."

In the end, Lu Yang only managed to break through the sixth-level environment, and was defeated in the seventh-level illusion. It was the first time that Lu Yang felt the scene where his relatives died one by one and suffered insults. He didn't want to feel the first. The second time, it was too torturous.

"Blazing Demon God, you are too wicked." Lu Yang couldn't help cursing.

The Blazing Demon God was not happy yet, and said: "I am all for you. Look at your current strength. Even in the face of the demonized octopus boss, the restraint of the fire snake you released can strangle it directly. Don't need to be like before, the skill released is a tofu dregs, and it's gone with the touch."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "Well, I was wrong. I apologize to you. You can really feel that my current mental strength is more than three times stronger. I'm afraid I have six or seven times the original mental strength."

The Blazing Demon God nodded and said: "Now you are roughly equivalent to the mental strength of the 8th-level Great Mage. You will cultivate your heart again. After a few days, you will enter the illusion and try to challenge to the ninth level. Go ahead."

Lu Yang was speechless, and said with a wry smile: “You can really spur me.”

He continued to drink porridge and said, “Let’s go to the department store today. I saw a lot of spiked monsters there the other day. Let’s kill them.”

“Uh, can you kill it?” The spiked demon once broke into the entrance of the dungeon. At that time, the sixth-level wizards of the temple came out and tried their best to kill the spiked demon. This is the turbid wine and the white lion they passed. TV personally.

Lu Yang smiled and said, “Of course, let you see the new changes in the boss.”

Zhuo Jiu and the others were a little surprised. They didn’t understand. How could Lu Yang have changed so much in three days. After half a lifetime, he asked: “Boss, have you realized any new skills?”

Lu Yang smiled and shook his head, and said, “You’ll know when the time comes. Come with me.”

He led the turbid wine and the others out of the basement. This time they had some more ropes in their hands, which were made of redskin monsters, which was the connecting wire of Sigma armor.

These connecting wires didn’t know what kind of material they were made of, but they didn’t break even after passing through the twisted time and space. The White Lions tried to chop them with a knife, but they didn’t cut them continuously. In terms of load-bearing, the weight of 2 tons would not pull these wires.

Lu Yang learned about these silk threads through Blazing Demon God. They are made of a kind of silk called magic spiders. They are very tough. For convenience, Lu Yang directly named this silk thread No. 1 silk thread, and finally measured the load-bearing capacity. It is 5 tons.

Since the No. 1 silk thread has such a load-bearing capacity, Lu Yang and the others decided to go to the sky this time and pass directly between the various buildings. With their current skills, it is already very easy to climb the silk thread.

On the head of the silk thread, a short knife used by the red skin monster was tied. This extremely sharp short knife can easily pierce the building when thrown by the white lions, and the rung is on the wall.

Lu Yang led them from the direction of the train station. An area had been cleared from the train station. After killing the monsters on the roof along the way, they arrived at the department store in only one third of their usual time. Near the building.

Condescendingly, a spiked demon was patrolling the street. Lu Yang made a gesture, and they walked the stairs to the street with the dirty wine.

Because it is the domain of the spiked demon, there are no surrounding demonized creatures, but anyone who dares to enter the domain of the spiked demon will be killed by them.

Xia Yuwei looked at the spiked demon and took a deep breath and said: "This big guy can transform into spikes and launch them at any time. The spikes can easily pierce the 10 cm thick iron plate, the repaired loopholes on the door of our basement, was created by Spiked Devil."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Don't be afraid. After practicing in the illusion, my mental power is many times stronger than before. I am bound by the fire snake, which can easily trap him, and I will never let him have the ability to act. "

If even the spiked demon can't control it, let alone the dragon, Lu Yang used the spiked demon to test the power of his fire snake restraint.

Xia Yuwei and White Lion had been worried that they would not be able to control the Spiked Demon. Hearing so much about Lu Yang made them all refreshed.

"It's fine if you can control it, you can control it, I directly hit the Qi Blade with all my strength and killed him." Said Kuai Bansheng.

Lu Yang nodded and looked at the location of the Spiked Demon. At this time, the Spiked Demon had turned back and walked back. This weird creature, half of its body was suspended in the air, and it had only one eye, but its eye socket was very large. , The red eye patrolled left and right, like infrared scanning.

Unfortunately, he couldn't see the place on the second floor. Lu Yang stood on a balcony on the second floor and watched the Spiked Demon walked 30 meters away. He said a spell.

"Fire Snake Bound"

Chapter 2019 - Strength becomes stronger

A fire snake with a thick baby arm suddenly appeared from the feet of the spike demon, and in the blink of an eye, the spike demon was firmly controlled in place.

"Neigh~!"

There was a scorching smell from the Spiked Devil's body, and it suddenly howled in pain, the eye of the face glowed with a dazzling red light, and the whole body twisted violently.

But no matter how the spiked devil twists, it can't break the control of the fiery snake, but the problem is that the fiery snake's * can't burn the spiked devil to death. It just leaves a fire mark on his body. When surrounded by a red light, the flames can no longer cause damage to it, only the final wrestling remains.

Lu Yang could clearly feel that the magic power in the soul sea was rapidly disappearing. At the current speed, he could only hold on for 10 seconds.

"Hurry up and attack, I can't hold on anymore." Lu Yang shouted loudly.

The bitter love for half a lifetime and the dirty wine and others hiding behind the gate on the first floor were originally worried that Lu Yang could not control it. After all, this was a spiked demon. Several 6th-level masters of the temple joined together to kill him. Unexpectedly, Lu Yang managed it so easily.

"Qi Blade"

Both Kuai Bansheng and Zhuo Jiu and others played skills at the same time, all hitting the Spiked Devil's abdomen. The first Qi Blade Slash only broke his brown skin, and the second one only expanded a bit, until Kuai Bansheng was born. It was only during the Qi blade's slash that a big hole was punched out of the Spiked Devil's shell, black blood spewed out, and the red light on the thorn's body disappeared, and it fell to the ground.

Lu Yang's magic power was almost close at this time. He sat on the ground and took out a small magic core to recover, and said to the Blazing Demon God: "You are right. My mental strength is greatly increased. As long as I love half my life, Their attack power is high enough, and I am confident that I can kill the young dragon."

The Blazing Demon God sneered and said: "You are too naive. With your current strength, at most you can control the young dragon for five to six seconds. They can't beat the young dragon if they love half their lives. Scale, are you so easy to kill as a dragon creature?"

"Then what should I do?" Lu Yang asked.

The Blazing Demon God said: "Continue to kill monsters with high intensity and increase your strength. Otherwise, you will die in half a year."

"Dididi"

Lu Yang's phone heard a voice and saw the video call from Lan Yu. He smiled and pressed the call button, and asked, "Do you miss me? How is home?"

In the video, Lan Yu's expression was a little solemn, and he said, "Lu Yang, I'm afraid something will happen at home."

"What's the matter?" Lu Yang frowned and asked, "Are the people in the temple looking for trouble?"

With his current strength, killing a 6th-level archmage is very possible, he feels that it is very possible. Counting them and the three-eyed magic flower, they should have the strength to attack the temple.

Lan Yu shook his head and said, "It's not an internal enemy, it's an external one, you see."

The picture turned to the outside. In the forest far away from the underground city, I don't know when, a huge castle formed by loess with a height of 60 or 70 meters and a width of nearly 100 meters. Around the castle, there are a large number of termites over half a meter in diameter. Flying in the air.

Lu Yang was speechless, and said, "Where did the termite nest come from? This is the demonized termite. How can I fight it?"

Lan Yu said, "There is more than one termite nest, but there is also a giant hornet nest on the east side of the dungeon."

The video turns to the east side of the dungeon. A giant hornet's nest no smaller than a termite nest just falls to the ground, and the hornet inside is expanding its moving range.

"The monsters in these two areas are gradually expanding their range. At this rate, the dungeon will be out of service in another half a month to a month or so," Lan Yu said.

Lu Yang asked, "What is the attitude of the government, the academy and the temple?"

Lan Yu said: "The three parties are actively preparing for battle, but you know, they can't provoke this kind of thing first. Once one is killed, it will trigger their revenge. With the current strength of the dungeon, they can't hold them at all. s attack."

Lu Yang believes that, especially for termites, the queen lays 30,000 eggs every day, and before demonization, no one knows how much the queen's daily output will be after demonization, even if it is still this. The output can't be beaten.

"Don't worry, I will go back in half a month," Lu Yang said.

Lan Yu nodded.

Lu Yang turned off the intercom and said to Blazing Demon God, "Is there a solution?"

The Blazing Demon said: "Either you can kill the young dragon and obtain the dragon crystals in his body. With your high-strength mental power, I can force you to release the false forbidden meteor fire rain, otherwise, you will take your family Take it out, there is no other way."

"How could I watch 3 million people die like this? Who can do it?" Lu Yang said with a wry smile.

The Blazing Demon God said: "Fortunately, you still have time, continue to kill the spiked demon to increase your strength, and ensure that you can beat the young dragon after he has landed."

Lu Yang nodded and saw that they had dug out the magic core of the dirty wine. He jumped off the second floor and said: "The spiked demon is peeled off, and it can resist the slash of air. His skin is special enough. "

Everyone nodded, and worked together to peel the Spiked Demon, tied it in a package, and was carried by the white lion.

Lu Yang said, "Everyone rested on the spot for half an hour, and then continued to explore other areas with me, looking for spiked demon."

He told Lan Yu just now to Zhuojiu and the others, and for a while, everyone was surprised.

Lu Yang said: "Don't worry, our family will not be harmed. At the critical moment, we can take them to the underground supply station. The only question is, what about the more than 3 million people? The military's heavy firepower may not be Can catch up with the production speed of the queen, In addition, I don't know whether it can break the shell of the demonized termite."

Everyone was silent.

"Our strength is still too weak." Zhuojiu said.

If that day comes, and seeing the dungeon being destroyed, not only Lu Yang, but also Zhuojiu will not be able to bear it. For a while, everyone's heart will become complicated.

After half an hour.

Lu Yang stood up and said, "Don't think too much. Let's punch out a safe area around the train station. You protect me. With my current magical attack power, killing ordinary demonized creatures is easy."

As soon as they saw the strength of Lu Yang's fire snake restraint, they knew how much Lu Yang had transformed after the ten thousand training, and a group of people guarded Lu Yang back near the train station.

In the distance, a group of enchanted wild boars lined up fiercely in two rows to patrol their territory, but at this moment, three meters above their heads fell a crimson fireball with a diameter of 1 meter and hit the first place. After the two wild boars in the row, the two wild boars were cooked in the blink of an eye. Then, the fireball rolled forward and the next row of wild boars were all cooked.

Chapter 2020 - Ambush the dragon

Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei were shocked when they saw Lu Yang's injury. Before that, they had seen Lu Yang hit with a meteorite and hit a wild boar, only to scorch their skin. It was absolutely impossible to do this once. Effect.

"Boss, why are your skills so powerful?" White Lion asked.

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders and said, "It may be the effect of special training."

He said to the Blazing Demon God: "Why is it so powerful?"

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said, "Because your mental power has become stronger, so the magic that you condense with your spiritual power will become more stable and powerful. Magic particles are the most terrifying thing in this world. , Nothing is softer than them, when it becomes hard, nothing is harder than them. When it comes to violent, they are also the most violent. All their forms depend on the spiritual power of the person who gathers them. "

Lu Yang understood, and looked at Zhuojiu and others excitedly and said, "Go on."

Everyone nodded, and as Lu Yang continued to move forward and began to kill, Lu Yang and the others killed all the monsters within 2 kilometers of the train station for a whole week.

The number of magic cores obtained was several thousand, of which there were more than 400 elite monster-level magic cores. At the same time, Lu Yang also found the second spiked demon, and was killed by them just like the first.

Lu Yang found a cart and brought all the things that he could take back to the basement. After unloading the goods, he stored the magic core in the basement.

"It is said that quantitative changes can cause qualitative changes. I don't know how far these magic nuclei will improve us?" Said with a deep sigh.

Lu Yang smiled, and said, "Each equally, everyone will take a share of cultivation. We need to upgrade as soon as possible. The threat of demonized termites and demonized wild bees is right in front of us. We must fight to protect the dungeon. Let 3 million people die like this."

Zhuojiu Qiu, Baishi and others nodded, and Zhuojiu was responsible for dividing the magic core. After a part of each, they sat in the basement to practice.

Lu Yang was not in a hurry to practice. He started a new journey of refining his mind. Now he has increased his mental strength even more, which is more useful than raising his magic level. The mana is consumed too fast. He can hold the magic core in his hand to replenish energy. But the mental strength is not enough, and his threat to high-level monsters is almost zero.

Blazing Demon God was very satisfied with Lu Yang's choice, and took a quiet rest, waiting for Lu Yang to practice himself.

Compared with other countries, Chinese people have a tradition of believing in their ancestors. This belief comes from the love of their homeland. Whenever the family is in danger, as a man in this family, as a parent, elder, Take care of the grown-up men. When the family needs protection, men will come forward.

This feeling is not only for family members. When we see strangers encounter danger, we will lend a helping hand. When we see someone encounter danger, we will subconsciously take the initiative to help. When our children are in danger, parents will even more. It can burst out a force that humans can't imagine.

When this power is used in the right place, it will bring infinite benefits, but if you do not master this power, people will fall into confusion and make immeasurable mistakes.

The so-called training of the heart is the exercise of both positive and negative aspects. Lu Yang had never done a heart training before, but when the Blazing Demon God was training him, he felt a lot of different things.

Based on the content presented to him by the Blazing Demon God, he started simulation training. For five days, Lu Yang sat on the spot, and they discovered Lu Yang's anomaly. They left the basement and began to protect Lu Yang.

At this time, Lu Yang had entered a state of forgetting everything. In that self-simulating environment, every time he took a step forward, every time he thought of something painful, Lu Yang had a headache, but he still In persistence, still thinking of ways to deal with it.

During this repeated training, it was not until the sixth day that Lu Yang finally opened his eyes. He said to the Blazing Demon God: "Come on, I have to accept the challenge."

Blazing Demon God said with a smile: "Get ready to begin."

A ray of light flashed, and Lu Yang began to look red all over again. Zhuoju and the others carefully returned to the room. When they visited Lu Yang, they discovered the situation of Lu Yang, which made them more careful.

No one knows what Lu Yang is going through at this time. From the first to the sixth floor, Lu Yang easily rushed past, until the journey of refining the heart on the seventh floor, Lu Yang washed away in pain, He is still insisting.

That came from the love of his parents and the pain of losing a loved one in an instant. Lu Yang carried all this forward and kept his consciousness from collapsing.

He rushed through the seventh floor, he rushed through the eighth floor, and on the ninth floor, in the early morning of Sunday, Lu Yang finally opened his eyes.

The Blazing Demon applauded and said: "Yes, you finally succeeded."

Lu Yang felt his mental power. That tough spirit was like a steel bar. It was completely different from the silk thread before. He said with some emotion to the Blazing Demon God: "I'm really curious that you will become the king of gods. What kind of things have gone through to reach this height."

The Blazing Demon God laughed and said, "You want to experience my feelings. It's still early. This is only the first level of feeling. The next step is to understand the nature of the world. But even if it is, you go and clean up the dragon. , There is still no problem."

Lu Yang smiled, looking at the people working hard in front of Zhuoju and others and said: "Wake up, we should work."

"Boss, are you awake?" Zhou Tianming said in surprise.

Zhuoju and others rushed to Lu Yang's side. Zhou Tianming asked, "Are you okay?"

Lu Yang shook his head and said, "I have never been so excited for a moment like now. I have the feeling that I can easily trap the young dragon, and then I will see you."

Zhou Tianming, Zhuo Jiu and others all laughed, and Zhuo Jiu said, "Boss, we are all three-level fighters."

Lu Yang smiled, took a piece of bread and said, "Said on the road."

Everyone nodded, and as Lu Yang ran out quickly, there was still some distance in the underground square. They needed to do ambush work before the young dragon arrived.

When Lu Yang ran towards the underground square, on the other side, on the beach, a red dragon with a diameter of 10 meters flew out of the sea and ran towards the square quickly.

All creatures passing by, when they saw the dragon, showed a frightened expression, that was an instinctive fear of the dragon.
