

Wild Fire 201

Chapter 201 - Wasteland Demon Palace

Lu Yang watched everyone as a 20-level silver-level equipment, and said with satisfaction: "Yes, they are all good. You live up to the name of the elite, and you have all the silver-level equipment in just one week. "

Everyone showed a proud expression.

Lu Yang said: "I know that each of you has vengeance against bloodthirsty and black blood guilds. Those who have no vengeance come from the name of my Lu Yang. I promise you, your boss. I will definitely lead you to the newspaper. At the same time, I will also make you the top player in China, and our guild will become the most powerful guild in the whole service. "

"Now, we are weak, bullied by black blood and bloodthirsty alliances, and watched by the twilight and dominance of the Zijin Dynasty. However, today's weakness is the cornerstone of our future strength. Bullying makes us more united and cherish the people around us Friendship. "

"Today, I have equipped you with an intermediate skill book. In the future, you will no longer be ordinary players, but guild captains, squadron captains, captains and heads of the guild. I will equip each of you with men. You will be The backbone of this guild. "

What is playing the game map, isn't it to be able to lead a group of players to happily fight, kill, and fight equipment?

Lu Yang gave them all!

“In a while, there will be 1,000 new players joining our lineup. I will lead you to a huge map upgrade. They are your future subordinates. Protect them, guide them and become trusted masters in their eyes. Understand? ? “

“Understand.” Everyone answered together.

The purpose of joining Lu Yang’s guild is to avenge the bloodthirsty league and to start a career with Lu Yang. Lu Yang now puts the opportunity in front of them, and no one will miss it!

Lu Yang said, “Post a book.”

Zhuo Jiu Qing Duan and Xia Yuwei and others immediately distributed the skills book in their backpacks to their players. Countless golden flashes passed, and 224 of them all learned intermediate skills.

“Follow me, we will open up the devil’s palace.” Lu Yang waved his hand and led the team out of the Spore Village to Yueluo Mountain.

Walking across a dark mountain road, Lu Yang led the team to a large square facade made of earthy yellow rocks embedded in the mountain.

The entrance to the gate has three steps, and the stone gate on the step looks different from the surrounding rock.

“Boss, Jiang Ze hasn’t arrived yet, is there any trouble?” Bai Lang asked Zuoyouwanpan.

“They’ve been here for a long time.” Half an hour ago, Jiang Ze had led 1,000 players of level 12 into the Moonfall Mountains in advance.

Lu Yang sent a message to Jiang Ze and said, “Come out.”

“Ok.”

Deep in the moon-fall mountains, Jiang Ze gave an order and led 1,000 players to form a team of 10 people, walking down the mountain neatly.

“Chairman, here we are,” Jiang Ze said.

The 1000 players looked at the 224 people in front of them and showed their envious look.

Lu Yang patted Jiang Ze’s shoulders and expressed his gratitude. Jiang Ze took a lot of effort to gather the 1,000 people.

“Let me see who you choose.” Lu Yang said.

Jiang Ze proudly said: “Everything is worthy of cultivation. Everyone’s guild points are at least 1000 points.”

Lu Yang followed Jiang Ze to the 1,000 people, looked at the brothers, walked to a large stone man and said loudly: “First of all, thank you for your contribution to the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood. I guarantee that your 1000 guild points will be fast. There will be big uses. “

“Second, starting today, I will take you to upgrade quickly. There are 224 people over there. They are your role models. Remember one sentence. The blood debt can only be repaid with blood. When your strength reaches my requirements, It’s the day we battle against the Bloodlust and Black Blood, understand? “

“Understand.” Compared to the 224 elites, these players now have a deeper hatred for Bloodlust and Black Blood, which is why they are desperately improving their guild points.

“Very good, now you stay where you are, I will take them into the copy to clear out a place for you, and then tell you to go in.” Lu Yang said.

Jiang Ze said: “No problem, I’ll wait outside.”

Lu Yang nodded, turned around and returned to the turbid wine pouring and others, the flames entangled, and immediately a 5 yards high flame demon appeared in front of everyone.

“From the state.” Lu Yang said.

“Seal of Almighty,” shouted Dusty Wine.

Lu Yang’s attack, defense, and attributes have been improved comprehensively. He said: “I go first, whoever follows me in madness followed me. The third one went in was the priest. After entering the door, he controlled the mobs with a curse.

“Yes,” everyone answered.

5 yards tall, Lu Yangju looked down at Zhuo Jiu and others, turned around and walked into the demon gate.

With a flash of white light, Lu Yang appeared in the middle of the hall.

“Invasion, someone invading, killing intruders.”

Countless dark, 2-meter-tall creatures were standing next to each other in the hall. When they saw Lu Yang suddenly appearing, they lifted up steel forks towards Landing Yang.

Demon Sentinel

Level: 20

Qi and blood: 5686/5686

Lu Yang was surrounded instantly, just as countless steel forks were about to be inserted into his body, and black ripples appeared at his feet.

“Flame Storm”

“Flame Storm”

...

One by one, the flame storm surrounded him, and stunned the demon sentry within 13 yards.

“Boss, I’m here.” Who indulged in my life into the copy and landed next to Lu Yang.

“Hoo ~!” Hellfire roared ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ and blocked the strange group behind him for Lu Yang.

“We are also here.” Lan Yu, Ye Yue Ting Feng and the dumb handsome guy jumped into the door and stood on the right side of Lu Yang.

The warriors and paladins, such as the muddy wine pouring and bitter love, fell in front of Lu Yang, and 32 soldiers and knights formed shields to block Lu Yang’s front and left and right sides.

Hunters, warlocks, priests, thieves, mages, and other elites jumped into the battle. 224 people plus Lu Yang and 20 of them relied on hellfire to form a circular fortress.

The Demon Sentinel was blocked outside the shield and was unwilling to be outdone. He rushed towards the shield madly. Unlike ordinary level 20 monsters, the Demon Sentinel has 2.5 times more blood and it is very laborious to kill.

Lu Yang said: “For 10 seconds, I use a meteor to fall.”

“Yes.” The morale of the crowd suddenly increased, and Lu Yang’s battle for fame was to kill hundreds of players in the Bloodlust League with a curse.

“The great * of flames ...” A wave of magic wave came in the air. After 10 seconds, a huge fire meteor descended from the sky, exactly 30 yards in front of Lu Yang.

Chapter 202 - Inferno Battleaxe (Gold)

The flames rose, and a dazzling light flashed.

The turbid wine poured and others opened their eyes and looked at them, and all the demons within 50 yards in diameter were completely wiped out.

“Boss mighty!” Zhuo Jiu shouted with arms raised.

“Boss mighty!” Shouted White Wolf and more than 200 elites holding their arms together.

Lu Yang, an incarnation of the Devil, pointed with his finger to the open space in front of his hand and said, “Anti-war, anti-ride forward, expand the protection circle, the priest healed to keep up, and the warlock, mage, and paladin released the range attack spell.

Mage’s regular attack spells are blizzard, fire wall, warlocks have flame rain, paladins have divine anger, and divine spells deal double damage to demonic creatures.

In the four directions where the four teams of Zhuoju Qingxiu, Xia Yuwei, Bai Xixiong, and bitter love half-life were located, they quickly expanded the protection circle according to Lu Yang’s instructions.

When the protection circle can accommodate 500 people, Lu Yang sends a message to Jiang Ze, saying: "Let the players in groups 1 to 5 enter."

"Okay." Jiang Ze immediately directed the 500 players at the door into the Demon's Gate in order.

The light flashed, countless players entered the palace and fell into the protection circle. Tu Feng and Jianghuai were also among them. Seeing the scene in the field, Tu Feng asked: "What do we do?"

Lu Yang said: "Constrain the manpower so that they are divided into four squares, leaving a 1-meter wide cross-shaped passage in the middle."

The situation on the court has not stabilized, and Lu Yang needs to support all directions.

"Brother, I seem to have boss here, Zhang Zibo can't stop it." Lan Yu sent a message.

Lu Yang looked in the direction of Blue Feather. Six red demon mouths that were half a meter higher than the normal demon sentry kept blowing out flames of up to 5 yards. Not only Zhang Zibo was attacked, but even the mage player behind Zhang Zibo was almost burned to death. .

Flame Demon (Sub-elite)

Level: 25

Qi and blood: 7866/7866

"I'm here to support." Lu Yang wanted to run over, but the 500 players who just entered had not completed the whole team and could not make way for Lu Yang in time.

Lu Yang saw a flash of white light appearing beside Lan Yu and Xia Yuwei.

"Meteorite Impact"

Lu Yang right-handed, one, two, and three red hot meteorites formed in the air with a whistling sound and smashed towards the flame demon in front of Zhang Zibo.

“boom”

The meteorite landed in the middle of the six flame demons, and then the meteorite rolled forward, causing huge damage every time it moved.

“Flame Storm”

“Blazing Bird”

“Destroy the Sky”

...

Intermediate magic appeared in Lu Yang’s hands. Six flame demons were killed on the ground without supporting them for 5 seconds. They even emptied the blank area of 10 yards in front of Zhang Zibo and Xia Yuwei.

“The treatment gives blood to the soldiers first, and the back mage takes recovery medicine. Zhang Zibo follows my soldiers team.” Xia Yuwei shouted.

Dozens of healing spells fell on 16 soldiers and knights such as Zhang Zibo, and the defense position was stabilized. Zhang Zibo raised the shield and led the team to expand the scope of the protection circle.

“Brother, you are great.” Lan Yu said to Lu Yang.

In such a crisis, Lu Yang’s strength brought immense self-confidence to everyone, and his position quickly stabilized and gradually expanded.

“Boss, I have bosses here,” shouted Zhuoju.

In front of the muddy wine pouring in charge of guarding the protection circle facing south, a giant demon with a height of 3 meters, a brown body, holding a black axe and a black knife, swollen with muscles all over his body is attacking the muddy wine pouring insanely.

Demon Guardian (boss)

Level: 30

Qi and blood: 250000/250000

“The ancient * is up, please give me the power to punish the enemy.” The demon guard uttered a spell, and a gray light shot in his eyes.

The muddy wine can’t escape the shield, and the shield hits nothing.

System prompt: Reduce your defense by 200 points

“Flame Slash” The demon guard’s double-edged axe with flames on both sides, and one axe split down.

The Demon Guardian routinely attacks the Turbid Wine and pours out 400 points of blood. Now the defense power of the Turbid Wine is reduced by half. The Demon Guardian uses the Flame Slash to increase the attack by 2 times.

With the muddy dumpling’s skill, if he fights alone, he can completely avoid the fatal blow to the left or right, but now the muddy dumping is teammates, and behind him are anemia mage and priest, he backs up. It is bound to make a gap in the formation, and the demon guard will take the opportunity to enter the protection circle, and the injuries will be more serious.

“Ready to step back and tighten up the formation.” The turbid wine was determined to die, and shouted to raise his shield to resist.

Just as the Demon Guardian’s axe was about to be chopped with muddy wine, Lu Yang threw out the escape dagger and fell behind the muddy wine pouring, and the blue light flashed, and Lu Yang appeared.

“Flame Storm”

Lu Yang just hit the demon guard with a blaze of flames, and the fierce flame stunned the demon guard.

“The priest disperses and the formation remains ready to move forward.” Lu Yang said.

Yeyue listened to the wind to release and disperse, the muddy wine poured in to restore the defense, and the shield was back on top.

“Boss, this blame is too strong. The defense and flame cutting are used together. Any melee combat must be seconds.” Said Duo Jiu in fear.

Lu Yang said: “Yueyue is optimistic about the muddy wine, and I give it my best to kill him.”

The demon guard is a powerful monster second to the big boss in the demon palace, with great strength, and Lu Yang also has to output with full force to play.

The magical fire wand in his hand is aimed at the head of the demon guard. In the state of inflammation, Lu Yang’s Pyroblast is like a machine gun in a CD-free mode, and it hits the head of the demon guard in a burst of 0.5 seconds on.

“2042” (Critical Strike)

“2046” (Critical Strike)

...

The demon guard was attacked, but only leaned back slightly, and still maintained an offensive state. The four priests simultaneously poured blood on the muddy wine, and the blood volume of the muddy wine kept falling and rising, which was very dangerous.

Three minutes later, the demon guard fell to the ground with a wailing sound, and a black double-edged tomahawk shimmering in gold fell to the ground.

Lu Yang's eyes brightened and he shouted: "The boss is out of gold, and the muddy wine team goes all out. This weapon belongs to the muddy wine team."

"Kill." The turbid wine poured out and more than 50 people roared at the same time, and morale rose.

Gold-level weapons are difficult to reach in epic copies, and now they burst out. Lu Yang rewarded Zhuzhu, who immediately advanced 5 yards forward.

Purgatory (Gold)

Level: 25

Damage: 26—99

Strength: +26

Constitution: +26

Additional Attack: +36

Slots: 3

Lu Yang picked up his weapon and sent it to the team channel.

“Gold-level double-edged axe, the name Purgatory is so cool, it hurts a total of 161 points, and there are 3 slots, artifacts.”

...

Everyone in the team was amazed ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Lu Yang said aloud: “This map explodes 25 professional gold weapons in each class. Whoever expands the enclosing circle to find the boss, the boss drops the item. team.”

Under the reward, there will be brave husbands. The highly motivated men such as Bai Shixiong and Xia Yuwei and others will take the team to expand the protection circle with more passion.

Although there are many demons in the palace, the number of dead and injured has increased rapidly in the face of the elite members with red eyes, and the protection circle has gradually expanded.

Half an hour later, Lu Yang’s enchanted form ended, and the circle of protection expanded to a level sufficient to accommodate 1,000 people.

Lu Yang sent a message to Jiang Ze, saying: “The second batch of 500 players was divided into five groups, one group and one group coming in.”

“Okay.” Jiang Ze contacted Tu Feng, and the protection circle immediately vacated a space for 500 people.

The light flashed, and the second batch of 500 people successfully entered the palace.

Chapter 203 - Demon Lord

According to the rules of the game, the larger the number of players in a team, the less experience they gain. Lu Yang's entire staff adds 1,244, killing a demon with 425 experience, and spreading it to everyone's head, only 1 point is forced experience.

However, there is another rule in the game-team experience rewards. The more players in the team, the more experience rewards, and 1244 individual teams can add an additional 68 points of experience.

Lu Yang's 224-person elite team, each of whom is equipped with intermediate skills, has a range of damage ability, 19 people including muddy wine, and has special skills, which can kill more than 300 demons every 30 seconds on average and gain more than 20,000 experience point.

At the beginning, Xia Yuwei and Jiang Ze were worried that so many people would share too little experience in upgrading. When they saw such a high team experience reward, they were relieved.

The 1,000 players who entered the team were even more surprised. Players with an average level of about 10 to 12 need to upgrade the experience but only more than 100,000 points. Watching the experience slot increase madly, after 2 minutes, among the 1,000 people, There are more than 300 people flashing gold, upgraded!

"At this speed, these 1,000 people will soon be able to reach level 20." Jiang Ze said.

Lu Yang said: "It's not that easy. The team experience has a limit distance. We will expand for a period of time. Players who are too far away from each other will be regarded as outside the team."

This upgrade method can last up to 1 hour, after which the team is dispersed to various locations, the player experience will be reduced by half.

Jiang Ze nodded and said, "I'm very satisfied with this speed. At least we have the ability to resist the bloodthirsty alliance."

“Boss, I found the boss here, it’s still a big one.” Sun Yu shouted to Lu Yang with a jump in the distance.

“Don’t worry, I’ll take a look.” Lu Yang patted Jiang Ze’s shoulder and flickered to Sun Yu’s side.

“Where?” Lu Yang asked.

Sun Yu pointed to the room around the corner of the palace and said, “A big guy 5 meters high just stepped out of the room just now, and we didn’t dare to provoke it.”

“Hello ~!”

A low roar came from the side hall, and the position where Lu Yang fought obviously felt the sound of heavy objects hitting the ground, even shaking his body.

Not long after, a giant creature 5 meters tall with two curved corners on his head, black body, and wings on his back came to the door.

Demon Lord (Lord)

Level: 30

Qi and blood: 450,000 / 450000

“The Sun Yu team is ready. Whoever insulted me with the * fire and came to pick up the monsters, came the big boss.” Lu Yang shouted.

This boss can only live in hellfire. Hearing Lu Yang’s order, whoever rushed to Lu Yang for the first time to set up a defensive formation.

“Boss, I’m here,” said Wu Kuang.

Lu Yang said, "Let the hellfire resist him."

"No problem." He issued a command arrogantly, and the hellfire that rose to level 7 aimed at the demon master to launch the charge.

The two huge, large objects collided together and made a loud noise, and the demon leader stepped back by being hit.

"Roar ~! Damn alien creatures, and want to come and destroy our world and taste the power that God has given me."

The demon leader's double fists burst into a golden flame like a substance, and both fists hit the head of Hellfire.

"1500"

"Hellfire resisted," said Wu Kuang in surprise.

"Boss, there are 100 priests among the 1,000 people who come. Would you like them to add blood?" Tu Feng asked.

Lu Yang said: "Except for the priest here, no one is allowed to add blood. The rules of the game, the boss will increase the strength according to the number of players who attack him. Now it is less than 40 people. 4x. "

"Also with this." Li Rui just ordered to add blood, immediately restrained his men to stop.

Lu Yang said: "Sun Yu's team has a fake dead hunter, a mage has a refrigerator, a paladin has an invincible, and the others back 100 yards away."

Every wild lord seems to have little blood, but they have very powerful attack skills. One of the special skills of the demon leader is space flashing. Every 10% of blood loss will activate the space flashing ability, which instantly appears on any player who attacks him. Behind him is a fist of fire.

Firefist is a range attack skill with an attack range of 10 yards. The worst time for the land reclamation guild in the last life came with 1,000 people at the same time. The boss power increased by more than 20 times. The area of Firefist expanded. When the demon leader lost 10% of his blood, he was flashed into the crowd by the demon leader, killing more than 500 people with the fist of fire.

The team crashed instantly!

Lu Yang burned the demon leader, while directing other players to stand in the corner.

Forty people stood in a row every 10 yards in the side hall and looked very funny.

“Everyone listens to my orders, and I let you launch life-saving skills to use immediately.” Lu Yang shouted.

“Yes.” 39 people answered together.

“Boss, I don’t know what to do.” He said dumbly, the warlock had no life-saving skills.

Lu Yang said, “I protect you.”

Switching to the overall attack mode, Lu Yang continued to output. Unlike before, with the level 2 demon heart, Lu Yang’s burning skill was increased to level 3. Stacking 5 layers can cause 250 additional fire damage.

Lu Yang set up a wall of fire at the feet of the demon leader, and then hit the demon leader’s head one after another with Pyroblast.

“2486” (Critical Strike)

“899”

“2486” (Critical Strike)

...

Adding Pyroblast to Fire Wall, Lu Yang can deal nearly 4,000 damage per second. In less than 1 minute, the demon leader’s health has been reduced to 90%.

“You are about to be punished.” Flames appeared in the hands of the demon lord, and his eyes turned to hellfire.

“Everyone stays the same, don’t release the skills.” Lu Yang threw out the escape dagger madly towards whoever I am.

The blue light flickered, and Lu Yang just appeared. The demon leader appeared behind the madman, just one second before the madman’s body in the flame punch of the demon lord.

“Resistant Fire Ring”

A violent force emerged from Lu Yang’s body, hitting whoever fought wildly and drove it 15 yards away.

A flash of white light ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Lu Yang returned to where he was just now, shouting:
“Hellfire taunts.”

The demon leader hit the vacant in a single blow, shrouded in flames all around 10 yards, and shouted,
“Human, this is your punishment.”

Who indulged in my whole life and looked at the position where he was standing just now, and then breathed a sigh of fear, saying, “I am scared to death.”

Lu Yang said: "Don't worry, I will not be injured if you are in each of you."

"Thank you, boss." Who gave me a grateful glance at Lu Yang and ordered Hellfire to blame.

Outside world.

Bloodthirsty Batian frowned and asked, "Have you not found their whereabouts?"

"Sorry boss, I haven't found it yet." Ye Guxing said helplessly.

"Waste, a bunch of waste." Bloodthirsty Tiantianji couldn't help it. He didn't expect that Lu Yang's rallies were so monolithic.

Chapter 204 - Fortress Siege Order

"Boss, what now?" Yuxue Bawang asked.

After 5,000 people were assembled, they waited for no order to be issued, which greatly damaged the reputation of the guild.

"How do I know what to do." The bloodthirsty Batian was extremely angry, and suddenly he thought for a moment and said, "So, from today, Ye Guxing, you take these 5,000 people and sweep me all over our occupied area boss. "

These 5,000 people are all advanced players with a level of 15 or above, and many of them are nearly 18 levels. Under the shadow of the Bloodlust League, no one robs them, and these people upgrade very quickly.

Ye Guxing's eyes lit up and he said, "This way our equipment can develop quickly."

Bloodthirsty Batian said: "Not only that, but I also want to take in a lot of new members to join our guild, as long as we are strong, no one will join."

"Boss is amazing." Yuxue Batian said.

Inside the palace.

Lu Yang continued to take the team to output, only 1% of the blood of the demon leader was left. With the last explosion, the demon leader's head was hit. Fell to the ground.

System prompt: you killed the demon priest (lord level)

You gain 6042 experience points

"Win, we killed the boss." Everyone screamed excitedly.

A green winged elf fluttered from the body of the demon leader. Lu Yang's eyes brightened, and a white light flashed beside the elf and caught it in his hands.

Wind elf

Grade 1

Type: Special Items

Effect: Increases movement speed by 1% and wind damage by 1% after wearing.

“What is this?” Sun Yu asked curiously.

Lu Yang said with a smile: “Baby, top baby.”

Wind elves, one of the most difficult items in the last life, are second only to special items such as the heart of the demon god.

The highest level can be increased to level 20, the movement speed is increased by 30%, and the wind damage is increased by 10%.

In the last life, Sun Yu relied on a 20-level wind elf to pull a 300-level boss to St. Gall.

“Here you are.” Lu Yang handed over the wind elf to Sun Yu and said, “All future upgrade experience will be given to the wind elf. Raise him to level 20 as soon as possible. After that, you will get the skill wind elf guardian. Effect: Increased fire rate 100%, with Wind and Thunder Vectors, and an additional 200 Wind and Thunder damage per attack. “

“Thank you, boss.” Sun Yu was happy to be equipped with the wind elf. The green elf entered his body as if he knew that Sun Yu was his master. He stumbled to Sun Yu’s shoulders and looked dumb.

“In the future, your name will be Luer, okay.” Sun Yu was very happy.

Lu Yang patted Sun Yu’s shoulders to let him continue to lead the team to kill monsters. Among the other items on the ground was a black crystal necklace, which is a 20-level gold-level mage equipment.

“Thank you, Boss.” Who said loudly in spite of my whole life.

The crowd looked envious again, especially the turbid wine dumpling and the Baixi Sanxiong who had not been equipped, and worked harder to upgrade.

Lu Yang watched the momentum of the crowd very satisfied, and continued to pick up items, suddenly added, Lu Yang saw a black token among many items.

Fortress Siege Order

Description: Anyone who owns a fortress siege can apply to the King of St. Gall for attacking the level 30 fortress Black Rock.

“Boss, what is this?” Sun Yu asked.

Lu Yang played with the fortress siege order and said, “This is a magical object that can make the whole suit fall into a melee.”

Sun Yu blinked, unknown.

Lu Yang said, “Okay, help me call Zhuojiu, Xia Yuwei, Baixiongxiong, and bitter lovers for half their lives.”

“Okay.” Sun Yu noticed one by one. After a while, several people gathered around Lu Yang.

“Boss, what’s the matter with us?” Asked Zhuoju.

Lu Yang shared the fortress siege order to several of them and said, “How about this?”

Zhuo Jiu said in surprise, “Heiyancheng? I’ve heard of this place, it seems to be a level 30 map. Is this the order of the city?”

Lu Yang said: “Black Rock City is on the south side of St. Gall. It is a level 30 map with 30 level mobs. The main purpose of this city is to have the absolute * of Black Rock City after it has been laid. Half of all taxes that players spend there are owned by the owner. “

“The reward is so generous. If this main city develops, wouldn’t it be that the city owner would earn tens of thousands of dollars a month,” said Zhuoji Qingping.

Lu Yang said: “I will not use this token, I will use him as a human hand to Xiongba.”

Zhuoju Qingren and Xia Yuwei were all surprised to look at Lu Yang.

Lu Yang said: “Don’t worry, after listening to me, starting from the appearance of this token, the game will enter the fortress battle stage. There are 108 tokens in total, which means that 108 fortresses can be obtained. This level 30 The fortress is the lowest-level fortress, and it is an official temptation for players. “

“Boss, what do you mean?” Asked Zhuzhuo.

Lu Yang said: “The Black Rock Fortress is in the south of St. Gall. There is no danger around it. Our guilds are very difficult to hold after they occupy it, so I use him as a human favor for the bully. As for the fortress I want to occupy, it is a place of fire on the northwest side of St. Gall, which is easy to defend and difficult to attack, and an excellent upgrade place. This is a secret. Several of you have shares, and no one is allowed to say it. “

Zhuoju nodded with Xia Yuwei and others.

Lu Yang went on to say: “In the coming period, you will work hard to upgrade and upgrade your equipment, and promote your players. Our guild will have a total of 70,000 people, and there will be more in the future. If you lead the team well, you will defend it. I will give him 30% of the fortress as a reward, and I will also give him 30,000 members. “

“Boss are you serious?” Xia Yuwei stood up suddenly.

“Of course.” Lu Yang said.

Xia Yuwei always wanted to establish an independent guild. Although he failed, he was not convinced. Now that he has the opportunity to own a fortress, he will never let it go.

White wolf, turbid wine, and bitter love for half a lifetime are all excited. Fortress taxation is one aspect, and 30,000 members are the focus. This is equivalent to establishing a guild alone.

Lu Yang said, "Here is the place for you. I'll go out."

"Be assured, give it to us here," said Zhuojia Qing and Xia Yuwei and others together.

Lu Yang jumped out of the Devil's Palace along the same path, returned to the Goblin camp in the night town, and found Carus.

"Lady, you're back. Is the mission complete?" Carus asked.

Lu Yang issued a siege order and said: "I killed the demon lord, this is the proof."

"Oh ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Oh my god, you are so awesome, I want to thank you." Carus took a drawing from his arms and gave it to Lu Yang.

System prompt: You have completed Carus's mission

You got the rocket thruster drawing

Increase your reputation in Storm Investment to respect

"Thank you," Lu Yang said.

Rocket thruster

Type: Engineering

Effect: Installed on the boots, increase the movement speed by 100%, the duration is 30 seconds, and the cooling time is 2 minutes.

This is a very important piece of equipment for any player. The map of "Second World" is too big. It will take an hour to run from one map to another.

Players can ride on horses until level 30. Before this upgrade, they rely on two legs. If you have a rocket booster attached to your shoes, you can save a lot of running time.

Chapter 205 - Misfortune

Lu Yang is also in need of this thing, however, this drawing cannot be purchased for the time being. If you want to buy further, you need to wait for the reputation to worship.

"Lady, my wife was hit by a wind element lord in a goblin airship to transport a batch of supplies through the Golan Heights many years ago. Can you help me get my wife's necklace back?" Carus asked.

"Of course." Lu Yang said.

System prompt: You have accepted the wife's necklace task

Lu Yang took out the city roll and returned to St. Gall. There is no flying point at the Golan Heights. Players can only run past it. Lu Yang needs to make a rocket thruster first.

At the auction house, Lu Yang bought materials such as fine gold ore, fire snake skin, and Mithril stabilizer. The production process was very complicated. Lu Yang also tried for the first time, so he bought a few more materials.

Lu Yang sent a message to Xiongba while conducting a test at Bissell's underground factory.

"Are you there?"

"What's the matter?" Xiongba was leading the team to play a copy.

"Look at this." Lu Yang sent the fortress siege order to Xiongba.

"Stop, everyone stops attacking and stands by." Xiongba shouted loudly.

"What's wrong with Xiongba." Qu asked curiously.

Xiongba groaned and sent a message to Lu Yang: "Brother, I know this thing. I didn't expect you to hit it at this level. I really want it. You can make a price."

All the bosses of the Grand Guild can find some information about the game from various channels. The siege of the fortress has always coveted the tyrant, and it will be the first boss to establish a guild among all servers in the world.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "I guess you won't refuse, but if the Ming people don't say anything secretly, you get this thing is equivalent to getting a hot potato. The bosses of other guilds won't let you build it so easily. Help. "

There are hundreds of guilds in St. Gall, hundreds of thousands of people, and thousands of small ones. Among them, more than ten can threaten the hegemony. Although the siege order is good, it is a barbed rose. Flowers are not so easy to get.

Xiongba said: "Brother, you can tell me frankly that your character is good, this siege should allow me to eat and tell me what you want."

"Okay, then I'll say it." Lu Yang paused and said, "Form a formal alliance with me. If I am attacked, you must help."

“Just such a request?” Xiongba asked in surprise, thinking that Lu Yang would talk to his lion.

Lu Yang said, “Just such a request.”

Xiongba said with great pride: “Okay, I promised you that the previous * alliance was abolished, and it was me and Jiu who flickered you together. This time, I formed an alliance with you alone. The black blood has been beaten by me. If The Bloodlust attacks you, and I must attack them from the side. “

Lu Yang said: “The name of the hegemon is for the hegemony of this game. I believe that you are the chairman of the hegemony, and we will set it so that I will mail the token to you.”

“Okay, then I wish the two of us can work together in the future to make a name for themselves in” Second World “,” Xiongba said.

Lu Yang said: “One more thing, I want to establish a mercenary association, are you interested?”

“What is it for,” Xiongba asked.

“Murdering, killing, training, bossing, land reclamation, and even chatting, all the services the Mercenary Association can provide.” Lu Yang said.

Xiongba showed an intriguing expression and said, “This proposal is good, what do you want to do?”

Lu Yang said, “I’m going to invite several guild bosses to set up this association with me, and the owners of the shares will be shared equally. The major guilds only need to have a manpower. In the association, we do not publish our name, only the code, mercenaries The association has a detailed grade system and commission agreements. “

So far, the market for this aspect of the game is very chaotic. There are many studios capable of undertaking training and killing services. Major studios deliberately lower prices and stealthily attack each other in order to grab business. If there is such an organizational norm, This service can definitely make a lot of money.

Xiongba said: "Your idea is very good. I agree. If you want to pull some capable guild bosses, I suggest you bring the old man and the thunder dragon of Beifeng City."

"I'll contact Chi Mu first," Lu Yang said.

The old man in the twilight is leading the team to kill bosses in the wild. The late twilight with just over 100,000 people has occupied a large number of boss refresh points. At this time, he is working hard to open up the level 20 lord monsters and elite monsters on major maps.

System Tip: Player Lu Yang invites you to the group

"Lu Yang is looking for me?" The old man asked to join, asking: "What is it?"

Lu Yang talked about the mercenary association and the twilight.

"Good idea, I totally agree, and I suggest pulling in the silk language of Hannibal," Chi Mu said.

Lu Yang asked, "Is there anything special about the silk language?"

He said, "Brother, you may not know. In fact, Bloodthirsty Domineering has guilds in more than 10 main cities of human, beast and elven. The guild in St. Gall is just the tip of the iceberg. Indeed, the actual guild number of this kid is more than 400,000. "

Xiongba said, "Liansiyu is a 50,000-level large union like Lei Long. Both of them are in hate with Bloodthirsty Batian in Beifeng City and Hannibal City. Pull them in to watch temporarily. It's useless, it will be very useful in the future. "

Lu Yang said: "Yes, you two pull people, I will create a channel, and then we met in the private round of Fengxianlou last time."

“Yes,” said Xiongba and Chiu together ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ The rocket propeller was completed, Lu Yang was installed on the boots, clicked on, a green flame emerged from the propeller, pushed the landing sun to run quickly Goblin camp.

Lu Yang came to a shop on the east side of the St. Gall’s Square. The most prominent shop was bought by Lu Yang for 1,000 gold coins, which was used by the mercenary union.

After entering the room, Lu Yang clicked to open a special store to rent a channel.

Players can rent channels in the game. The rental price of a channel is 100 gold coins a month.

After all this was done, Lu Yang came to the gate of Fengxian Tower.

Xiongba just came to the door, and the two entered the private room with a smile. Lu Yang first gave the token to Xiongba and said, “Brother, I wish you to be the first guild boss in the world with a fortress.”

“Thank you, I will remember this friendship as an elder brother,” Xiongba said with a hand.

“What are they talking about? They are so happy.” The old man in the twilight came over with a smile.

Chapter 206 - 5 party alliance

Lu Yang said, “Did you talk about the mercenary union?”

Old Man Twilight said, “Coming soon.”

Xiongba said, “Thunder Dragon will arrive soon.”

Lu Yang said: “Before they didn’t come, the three of us first worked out a charter of the mercenary association, and the two of them came and added.”

Organizations such as the Mercenary Association need a detailed charter, in which the mercenary's rank, strength, praise, integrity, and charges must be discussed in detail.

Fengxian downstairs.

A stunningly beautiful woman and a man with a majestic face and a grim face walked into the door one after another. The two were the silk language and Thunder Dragon.

Five people met and discussed together after some greetings. The operating methods and terms of the mercenary association gradually took shape. In the end, Lu Yang and the four of them agreed that each of them would occupy 20% of the shares in the early stage, and then increase the number of shares and reduce the shares. However, no matter how diluted the shares, Lu Yang has a veto.

"After today, the five of us only used the code name to call each other on the mercenary channel, and I would like to ask you to let your mercenaries register in my mercenary hall and choose the tasks they are willing to undertake." Lu Yang said.

Chi Du, Xiong Ba, Zhi Siyu and Lei Long each told their mercenary associations. Lu Yang arranged for Jiang Huai and Li Rui to join Chi Du and others to manage the association's daily.

In less than a day, the Mercenary Association joined more than 600 professional players. Because it is located in St. Gall's Square, the number of players who applied for the task that day reached 2,000.

Hessian looked at the bill in his hand and said in surprise: "This one day's income is almost equivalent to my guild's one week's income."

Chi Mu said: "Brother Lu Yang is really unusual. I can think of such a way to make money. With this mercenary association, our strength against bloodthirsty hegemony has been increased."

Everyone nodded.

Lu Yang said: "The mercenary association's business will become better and better in the future, and it may even exceed the total income of our respective guilds. Since we are sitting on the same boat now, we must guard this association."

Liao Du nodded and said, "That's right, our guilds must help each other. At least the cakes of the three cities of St. Gall, Northwind and Hannibal, we definitely do not divide equally with others."

Lei Long said: "I talked with the Silk language, in the future we will drag the bloodthirsty Batian's elite in Beifeng City and Hannibal City, and will not allow them to come to St. Gall's support. One can send someone to fight the Bloodlust Alliance with you. "

Xiongba said: "This is the best. Our five parties will be able to defeat the bloodthirsty bully."

The purpose of Lu Yang's establishment of the mercenary association is here. Under the equal sharing of benefits, Lei Long and Li Siyu willingly joined his camp.

Lu Yang said: "Okay, I may launch a frontal attack on the Bloodlust Alliance in the near future, and you will go back and prepare."

Xiongba frowned and said, "Brother, you have to think about it. Bloodthirsty League is not something you can easily regret. I heard that he recruited many players with special professions."

A number of inborn special occupations, such as dragon grammar master, templar mage, ghost thief, and swordsman, were hired into the guild by high-paying males.

Lu Yang said: "So I'll go out and do some preparations these days. If I can prepare, I will let you know."

The tyrant, the twilight, the whispering language and the thunder dragon all looked at Lu Yang.

"Since my brother is sure, then we'll wait for your good news. It would be a good thing to really kill the bloodthirsty of the Bloodlust Alliance," Chi Mu said.

Lu Yang arched his hand, got up and left, put on his cloak and walked out of the mercenary association hall, came to the holy city conveyor, and clicked Gabon.

System prompt: 50 silver coins are required for transmission

Lu Yang clicked delivery, and the screen flashed. He appeared in a small town.

Gabon is a 20-level map. Going north from here is a 30-level map of the Golan Heights, where the Wind Elemental Lord is located.

At this time, many people in the game have reached level 20 to upgrade this map. Lu Yang walked on the street and met many players.

Players passing by are also curiously watching this person with a black cape on his head, who can reach this level. All of them are masters in the game, especially the Lone Ranger is a master in the master.

“Friend, it’s dangerous to form a team alone. Would you like to go out and upgrade together?” A player in the distance shouted.

Lu Yang waved his hand, walked out of the crowd and turned on the rocket launcher, the movement speed increased by 100%, and he quickly ran out of the town.

“Che, another fake master, just like the two people I met before.”

“Forget it, we have 8 people together, and go out to form a team.”

...

It normally takes 10 hours to run from Gabon to the Golan Heights. Lu Yang has a level 3 blazing speed that increases the movement speed by 200%. Now he has a rocket launcher and it only takes 5 hours to reach the Golan Heights Entrance.

Lu Yanggang was about to stop and rest for a while, and found that two players in the distance were upgrading.

This is a 29-level map. If you can come here to upgrade, if it is not a player of the same level or a super master, Lu Yang walked curiously and looked at it.

Endless plains.

A warrior-like player holding a two-handed sword is cutting monsters, but this warrior player is a little different from ordinary warriors.

He is not wearing heavy plate armor, but leather armor, and the skills he uses are not the usual skills of soldiers ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ but a skill called air blade cutting.

Another female player in the distance is also abnormal. Obviously she is a priest player, but she has released water magic.

Lu Yang felt that the two were very familiar, recalled it carefully, and was surprised to find that the two were not the swordsman Qingtian Yijian and his sister Shenguan Priest Zi Mo Fanchen.

In the previous life, these two people were friends and competitors with Lu Yang. Both were in the same city, and they also established their own studios. Qingtian Yijian was very strong. There was a period of national service orders. Pick invincible, and the sister combination also dominated the 2-player arena.

However, the ending of Qingtian Yijian is quite miserable. There is a big boss behind his studio. This big boss is apparently to help Qingtian Yijian, in fact, he saw his sister Zimo Fanchen.

Zimo Fanchen did not agree with the boss's pursuit but did not dare to refuse too much, for fear of delaying his brother's career. As a result, the boss did not hold back and forcibly bullied Zimo Fanchen. For this reason, Zimo Fanchen got depression Suicide, Qingtian Yijian was intent on revenge but was framed in prison. Lu Yang was interested in helping but could not get involved.

Recalling the events of the last life, Lu Yang couldn't help but sigh and walked towards the two.

Chapter 207 - Golan Heights

Qingtian Yijian and Zimo Fanchen were surrounded by more than 10 dire wolves, and they were struggling to kill. Suddenly, a stranger came towards them, and they were a little nervous.

Qingtian Yijian frowned and said, "Friend, what do you mean?"

The flames rose in Lu Yang's hands, and a big red bird appeared above Lu Yang's head. The howling sounded and the wings of the bird fell on Lu Yang's left arm.

Lu Yang fled the dagger in his hand, and the blue light flashed. Lu Yang appeared beside Zimo Fanchen. The eight dire wolves in front of the finger of his right hand showed black ripples on the ground.

"Flame Storm"

A radius of 10 yards soared a dazzling beam of light, and all 8 dire wolves were stunned.

"Blazing Bird"

The flaming bird on Lu Yang's shoulder leaned down and rushed into the group of dire wolves. The light turned on, and each dire wolf was killed by more than 1,000 blood.

The 29th-level dire wolves had 4330 points of blood. Half of the blood was destroyed by Lu Yang. They turned and rushed towards the landing yang. When 8 dire wolves came to Luyang 3 yards, they jumped towards the landing at the same time Yang's body fluttered over.

“Be careful” shouted Zi Mo Fanchen subconsciously.

Lu Yang gave Zi Mo Fanchen a reassuring smile, and suddenly a violent golden light appeared from his body.

“Resistant Fire Ring”

Eight dire wolves came into contact with the ring of fire and flew back instantly. After falling to the ground, they continued to roll backwards.

Lu Yang’s magic revived.

“Meteorite Impact”

A huge crimson meteorite fell from the sky and hit 8 dire wolves, and then continued to roll backwards. The 8 dire wolves have not yet reacted to the ability to resist the ring of fire, and are still falling backwards. The dire wolves took a step back, the meteorite impact took a step forward, and the eight dire wolves retreated 6 steps in a row.

System prompt: you killed the dire wolf

You gain 640 experience

...

Eight consecutive system prompts indicate that all eight dire wolves died on the ground.

“It’s amazing.” Zi Mo Fanchen said in surprise.

Qingtian Yijian also killed the other two dire wolves at this time, took the sword into the scabbard and walked in front of Lu Yang, saying, “If I’m not mistaken, this is the crazy law Lu Yang.”

Crazy law is the nickname given to Lu Yangqi by the players in the game. The reason is his iconic combo.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "That's all nicknames from others, I'm Lu Yang."

Zimo Fanchen said with surprise: "Master, just now your set of skills are so handsome, I'm Zimo Fanchen, he is my brother Qingtian sword."

Qingtian Yijian coughed and said, "Sister, brother, I was very good just now."

Lu Yang laughed, and Zi Mo Fanchen showed a helpless expression. Lu Yang remembered that the last sword of the sky was a "sister-control". This guy has been dependent on his sister since he was a child.

"Okay, okay, brother you are the best." Zimo Fanchen said.

"Ah, ha ha, sister, don't boast your brother so much in front of outsiders." Qingtian Yijian said with a laugh.

Zimo Fanchen sighed silently.

Qingtian Yijian coughed again, he found that he was indeed a little wave, and asked: "Are you doing anything to our brother and sister?"

Lu Yang said: "Passing by, just do yourself a favor."

Qingtian nodded with a sword and said, "Thank you very much just now. The people in my studio haven't come yet. They will be ready to fight when they come."

Lu Yang said, "How many people are there in your studio? Are you interested in adding a guild to upgrade?"

Qingtian Yijian looked at Lu Yang and shook his head and said, "I Qingtian Studio will not join any guild for the time being. One more, IMHO, you can't fight the bloodthirsty league, give up soon."

"Brother, why are you talking like this." Zi Mo Fanchen said unhappily.

"I'm telling the truth. Although we also have vengeance against the Bloodlust Alliance, I don't want to bury the Brotherhood." Qingtian Yijian said.

The most uncomfortable thing about Lu Yang is the speaking attitude of Qingtian Yijian, however, this guy has his crazy capital, and the players of Qingtian Studio are also first-rate masters.

"Well, I'm not too difficult for people. So, I will have a war with Bloodlust after a while. How about hiring you to participate in the war? Is there any interest? I won't be recognized if I fight with my face covered."

Qingtian Yijian showed an expression of interest and said, "This is fine, but we can't ask for a low price."

Lu Yang said with a smile: "Promise it. Just go to the mercenary union in St. Gall's Square to register, and I will issue a contract and sign a contract for you."

"Yes." Qingtian Yijian just heard about the mercenary association from his men.

"However, you won't let me be a vanguard officer. If so, my asking price will be higher." Qingtian Yijian said.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Your strength is not enough to be a vanguard officer."

Bai's three males, five people with turbid wine, five people who love bitterly for half a life, or Xia Yuwei's team are all qualified to be pioneers, and Lu Yang is indeed no worse than this sword.

Qingtian was silent, and looked at Lu Yang with a little surprise. "I have a chance to meet your guild players if I have the chance."

Due to the survival of the studio, Qingtian Yijian took the team to kill the bosses in the wild to obtain equipment to sell money. To this end, he did not fight against the bloodthirsty people. He knew the strength of the bloodthirsty alliance.

Lu Yang has also fought many times with the Bloodlust League. If Lu Yang is confident that he does not need to lead the team, obviously there are many masters in the Iron Blood Brothers League.

Where does he know that Lu Yang has recruited many top players from the previous generation, such as black notes, flame knives, and flying dragons, all of whom have joined the Iron Brotherhood, these people have also shown their talents and strength, Soon ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ they will be alone.

Moreover, these people have signed a formal studio agreement with Lu Yang, and they receive their salaries here.

Another thing is that the player's strength is not limited to equipment, there are some special methods to enhance the strength, such as the wind element lord that Lu Yang is looking for.

"I have two things to do, so I'm leaving." Lu Yang said.

Qingtian Yijian arched his hand and did not speak, Zi Mo Fanchen said: "Masters come on and defeat the bad guys of the Bloodthirsty League."

Lu Yang smiled and walked into the Golan Heights.

The airship taken by Carus' wife was not difficult to find. Although the coordinates of the previous life could not be remembered, the approximate location of Lu Yang could still be remembered.

Lu Yang followed the memory and walked to the location in the northeast of the Golan Heights. He saw the wreckage of a goblin airship.

System prompt: you found the Storm

Around the airship, countless debris and boxes were scattered.

Chapter 208 - Lord of the Wind Elements

Lu Yang walked to a 10-meter-high giant cyan rock 60 yards away from the airship, and found a box under the rock. After opening, there was a strange stone with I on it.

Stone I, without any comments or hints, is of no use. If you are a player who is not careful, you will throw this inexplicable stone.

This was the case for most players in the last life.

It stands to reason that every large map of the game should have a boss, but such a large map of the Golan Heights can't be found. What they don't know is that this stone is one of the secrets of finding the Lord of the Elements of Wind. .

There are a total of six such stones, which are hidden under six 10-meter-high cyan rocks in the Golan Heights. Each stone has six numbers I , II , III , IV , V , and VI written on it.

On the side of the cyan rock, there will be a slot corresponding to the number on the stone. As long as you insert the corresponding stone in each slot, you can summon the wind element lord.

In the previous life, looking for the Lord of the Wind elements worried about the prophetic guild that occupied it, but it took a lot of effort to find this way.

Lu Yang looked at the number VI on the first giant rock. The stone in his hand did not match. Put the stone in his backpack. Lu Yang walked towards the north side of the Golan Heights.

In the simulation group, Zhuojia poured a message and said, "Boss, the first 1,000 people have reached level 18, and I want to lead them to play a copy, so the equipment and experience are all available."

Xia Yuwei said, "I think so too."

The Baixi Sanxiong and the bitter love half-life also issued an agreeable expression.

Lu Yang said: "Yes, but the personnel are limited to your 4 groups of troops. Jiang Ze left the 224 elites with black notes and continued to lead the next batch of 1,000 people to level 18."

"The black notes and the flying dragon are not weaker than us, so there should be no problem in leaving them."

Lu Yang said, "I want to share with you some news. I can't tell you. I formed a formal alliance with Xiongba, Chi Duo, Thunder Dragon from Beifeng City, and the slang words of Hannibal City. We, Thunder Dragon and Swordsmanship will control the bloodthirsty players in these two cities, and Domineering and Twilight will attack the bloodthirsty flank. We are no longer alone in a guild against the bloodthirsty."

Zhuoju Qingren and Xia Yuwei and others all showed joy.

The White Lion said: "This is really great. With their restraint, the Bloodlust League will never dare to deal with us easily. As long as we give us some time to develop, our guild will have the strength to protect itself."

Lu Yang asked, "Jiang Ze, what happened to the people in the gang?"

Jiang Ze said with anxiety: "More than 4,000 people have been killed or injured. The Bloodthirsty League is now spreading their achievements around the world."

"Damn, I really want to teach the bloodthirsty bully a little lesson." White Lion said.

"Many players have retired because of this. It's useless for me to say anything. Another one, because of the bloodthirsty attack, we have no new players in the gang today." Jiang Ze said with some depression.

Lu Yang said: "Regardless of those, among the known players, you pick out 100 fires. I don't require them to have high talents, nor do they require their level. As long as these people are loyal and willing Just follow me and follow the Brotherhood. "

Jiang Ze said: "Such a person is very easy to find. Anyone who enters the devil's palace can do so."

Lu Yang said: "Find 100 people and let them sign the contract with the guild. I will teach them the simplified spell in person."

Jiang Ze thought that Lu Yang was going to take them to copy, but did not expect such an important thing, and said, "I'll give you a pick and give you a reply in three days."

"Yes," Lu Yang said.

Lu Yang will teach these 100 simplified spells of Fire and Pyroblast. In the future, these people will be a surprise soldier on Lu Yang.

Lu Yang went on to say: "Pick me a few more people and give them to Sun Yu. From now on, Sun Yu will be the fifth head of our guild."

With Sun Yu of the Wind Elves, the strength can crush any one of them, and even win against two people at the same time, it is enough to be alone.

Sun Yu's wind elf has risen to level 5. He has discovered the power of the wind elf and said excitedly: "Boss, don't worry, your apprentice won't humiliate you."

Lu Yang said, "I believe in you. You can pick 4 of these 224 elites at will, and I will give you this privilege."

Sun Yu thought about it and said, "I want backlighting, black notes, flying dragons and red leaves to dance."

Lu Yang laughed. These people are the top players of the last life. Now they are also emerging in the guild, and they are the most valued of the four people, namely Zhuoju and Xia Yuwei.

Zhuoju said, "Brother, you really can choose someone, but your team has just been set up. I can't bear to help you, brother. Black notes are for you."

Xia Yuwei said, "I have no opinion."

"I don't have any opinion."

The White Lion said, "Boss, I have no problem."

Lu Yang said, "That's the way to set it up. Although this time we won your tyrants, I will give you a good thing later."

"What." Bai Lang asked curiously, and Lu Yang never disappointed them whenever he said something good.

Lu Yang said: "Temporary confidentiality."

Golan Heights.

Lu Yang has found 6 stones and inserted the first 5 stones into the cyan giant rock, which is now the last one.

Lu Yang found the giant rock in the southwest corner and inserted the last stone into the slot.

Suddenly, six 10-meter-high megaliths emitted dazzling white light at the same time. Immediately, the light from the stone entered the sky together.

At first glance, the sky quickly darkened over the entire Golan Heights.

A lilac lightning flashed across the horizon.

“Boom”

The thunder sounded, and spiral clouds appeared in the clouds. They were slowly connected to the ground in the blue-violet thunder and lightning.

A roar came from the dark clouds.

“The power of thunder and lightning, the master of the world.”

A giant wind element up to 10 meters appears from the wind and clouds ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ wind element lord (boss)

Level: 35

Qi and blood: 800,000 / 800000

The Wind Elemental Lord holds a lilac lightning in his right hand and a scepter in his left hand.

“Who awakened my sleep ~!” The wind element lord threw lightnings in his right hand, and the lilac lightning covered all space within 50 yards.

This is one of the skills of Wind Elemental Lord, Thunderstorm.

Lu Yang did not settle with the wind element lord, turned around and walked back to the goblin airship on the northeast side.

At first, the reason why this airship was shot down by the wind element lord was because this airship carried a lot of magic iron on it.

The role of the magic iron is to build a special fortress. Each magic iron is 1.5 meters in length and is shaped like a steel bar. There are a total of 300 pieces. Lu Yang places one every 5 meters and inserts a square ground.

Chapter 209 - Storm Thunder Scepter

This is the play of a famous single-headed windlord in the last life.

Each element of the Wind Lord's skills is related to lightning. The conventional spell is a fork-like lightning, which can attack 20 players at the same time. After being hit, it loses 5000 points of blood with paralysis.

The big move is a thunderstorm. Each 10% drop in Qi and Blood is released. Lightning drops in the sky within 50 yards of the specified target, and 10,000 points of blood are dropped after hitting.

The third trick is the scattering of light. 100 lightning bar shaped bombs scatter around the wind element lord at the same time, hitting 10,000 points of blood, and with paralysis.

The fourth trick is chain lightning. How many players in the field release how much lightning? The initial damage is 5000 points. Players within 30 yards will have lightning ejection, and the damage will increase by 50%.

In the last life, in order to kill the Lord of the Wind Elements, the Prophets Association convened a number of studios to help, but without exception, they were all crushed.

The super lightning attack caused everyone to have the illusion that the Lord of the Wind Elements is never dead. Later, the Prophets Association could not find the studio that ranked first in the service at that time, and spent 10,000 credits to ask the other party for help. Kill and allow the opponent to pick up a piece of equipment.

Such a high price made the first studio heartbeat and sent the strongest players at the same time, and it was precisely because of them that they found a way to defeat the wind element lord.

Relying on the characteristics of the magic iron's electrical conductivity, the player stands next to the magic iron steel bar to fight monsters. Each spell attack of the wind element lord has a 0.5 second spell roll, and the spell is released with a delay of about 0.3 seconds. .

At a moment's magic judgment, the Lord of the Wind Elemental's attack target was the area where Lu Yang was standing in front of the magic iron rebar. Master players can fully use this 0.8 second delay time to separate from the magic iron rebar.

The magic iron is highly conductive and can completely absorb the fork-like lightning into the magic iron, even if Lu Yang's avoidance distance is not enough, it can be guaranteed not to be harmed.

Lu Yang has watched playing videos before, but has never singled out, but it is not difficult for him to be singled out to such an extent, and he has a special method.

Since the Demon Heart reached level 2, the fire wall skill has been automatically upgraded to level 3, the base duration has reached 5 minutes, and the magic damage bonus has been added, and the duration has reached 8 minutes.

There is a 5 minute journey from here to the position of the Lord of the Wind Elements. Lu Yang kills the mobs all the way and releases the fire wall all the way back to the Lord of the Wind Elements. After the magic is restored, Lu Yang throws out the escape dagger.

“Burning”

Five consecutive flames are attached to the head of the wind element lord, and the fire damage taken by the wind element lord is increased by an additional 250 points.

“Human, you have to be punished!” Lightning crackled in the right hand of the Lord of the Elements, just as he was about to attack Lu Yang, Lu Yang’s blue light flashed, appeared 30 yards away, and a white light flashed again. However, it appeared somewhere beyond 60 yards.

Just after landing, flames came out of Lu Yang’s feet.

“Blazing Blaze”

Increasing his movement speed by 200%, he ran towards the location of the goblin airship remains.

The lord of the wind elements saw that the “ant” who attacked himself fled to a place 60 yards away, issued a roar, and chased the landing sun on the fire wall.

“1024”

“1026”

...

The blazing speed increases the movement speed by 200%, while the movement speed of the wind element lord is 150% of normal players, which is 50% slower than Lu Yang.

The distance between the two was quickly widened, and after 30 seconds, Lu Yang’s escape dagger and flashing flashes ended at the same time.

Blue light and white light flashed successively, and Lu Yang opened a distance of 60 yards. After landing, he turned on the rocket launcher, and Lu Yang continued to run by increasing his movement by 100%.

The Lord of the Wind Elements could only see a black dot running in front of him, but because the fire wall on the road was constantly harmed, his hatred for Lu Yang became deeper and deeper.

After another 30 seconds, the propeller effect on Lu Yang disappeared, and normal movement speed was restored.

However, at this time Lu Yang had seen the wreckage of the goblin airship in the distance and the square magic iron reinforcement array he had erected.

Looking back at the lord of the wind elements still in the distance, Lu Yang didn't dare to enlarge, and once again pulled out the distance with two flashes.

After 1 minute, when Lu Yang came to the vicinity of the magic iron, the wind element lord chased a distance of 30 yards. At this time, the wind element lord was burned 300,000 blood by the fire wall along the way, leaving only the left 500,000.

“Thunderstorm”

The Lord of the Wind Elements roared to the sky, and the blue-violet lightning in his hand shot into the sky, and then hundreds of lightnings dropped in the sky and shot toward the landing sun.

“flicker”

Lu Yang has been guarding against the Lord of the Wind Elements, a flash of white light, jumping into the magic iron array, avoiding the attack of thunderstorms.

“Forked Lightning”

The wind element lord raised his right hand, and a stray of lightning shot towards the landing sun. At the moment when the wind element lord's right hand had just been lifted, his left hand loosened the magic iron steel bar he was holding and walked to the right. Take a step.

The fork-like lightning instantly came to the place where Lu Yang was standing. All the scattered lightning was absorbed by the magic iron reinforcement.

Lu Yang took this opportunity to release a fire wall spell at the feet of the Lord of the Wind Elements, and added 5 burning spells.

At this time, it depends on Lu Yang's evasion ability. The fork-like lightning is released every 1.8 seconds. Lu Yang's chance of counterattack is only 0.5 seconds. When he releases a Pyroblast, he must evade skills again.

After 2 minutes, the wind lord's health dropped to 400,000 points.

"Taste the taste of the lightning chain." The lightning on his right hand turned blue and white, and suddenly shot towards the landing sun.

If there is a group of players, the lightning chain will hit everyone and eject. Unfortunately, Lu Yang has only one person, and there is only one lonely lightning chain.

Lu Yang dodged, evading the Lightning Chain attack easily, hitting back with a Pyroblast and hitting the Wind Elemental Lord's head, the two sides returned to the tug-of-war again.

After 10 minutes.

The elemental blood of the wind element lord dropped to 1%. Lu Yang hit the past with an explosion and hit the head of the wind element lord.

The Lord of the Wind Elementary's body is in a state of chaos ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ The thunder and lightning are chasing in the body made of clouds, and finally the whole bursts open, and a scepter with a divine light falls to the ground.

Lu Yang picked up his scepter and looked at it.

Description: Lightning spells add 166 additional damage

Lu Yang saw that the staff was stunned, and he never thought that he could explode the staff. This is legendary equipment, and the explosion rate is one ten thousandth.

Chapter 210 - Grumble Chaos Mix

Lu Yang sent the scepter to the Guild Channel.

The muddy wine pouring, Xia Yuwei, bitter love half-life, Bai Shixiong and Sun Yu are each taking the team to upgrade the equipment in the copy, seeing the equipment sent by Lu Yang, are stunned.

“Boss, legendary equipment, where did you get it!” Mao Qiu shouted excitedly.

“This attribute is too strong, better than the magic fire staff.” Vulcan M16 said.

“How do you want it?” Lu Yang said.

“Think.” Zhuo Jiu said with Xia Yuwei and others.

Everyone’s team has a high-level mage. This staff has such a strong attribute that it can greatly improve the player, and even take a copy faster.

Lu Yang said, “After a while, we will have a battle with the Bloodlust Alliance, and tell the brothers in the guild, whoever of your team performed the best that day, I will give this team to you.”

“Boss, you’re good at talking, that’s it.” Bai Lang said excitedly.

“This time we have to compete with each other, I will not be modest, I modestly gave my brothers to be anxious with me.” Zhuoju poured out.

A bitter love gave Han Liu a glance and said, “I have reserved this staff, it must be mine.”

Xia Yuwei said: “Everything depends on strength, we have a fight each other.”

Sun Yu said, “I want it too, and Hongye Feiwu is just missing a staff.”

Lu Yang looked at the five of them and smirked, all five of them were great gods, allowing some competition between them to promote them faster.

After closing the dialog box, Lu Yang received the Wind and Thunder Scepter in his backpack and continued to search on the ground.

The Elemental Lord of the Wind exploded a big explosion with a range of 8 * 8. The middle one was the Wind Thunder Scepter. Next to him was a string of necklaces and a mixture recipe.

Wife's necklace, this is Carus's task.

Guru Chaos Mixture Recipe

Description: A weird prescription, without identifying the developer, something weird, and the name is weird!

When this mixture recipe was played in the last life, many players thought that they got a superb prescription, after all, the level 35 boss dropped. However, after they made it according to the formula, they found the Guru Chaos mixture recipe. The effect is only 3.

The first is to turn into a green gurgle after eating, the defense power becomes 0, and the attack power is only 1; the second is to reduce intelligence by 100; the third is to become a zombie.

None of these three effects are useful for player upgrades. At that time, players made a total of 30 bottles. After seeing the effects, they were extremely disappointed and did not delve into this recipe.

Until the arrival of Halloween in the game, the boss of this pharmacist's guild wanted to make all his players become zombies to make fun in the streets of St. Gall and let the pharmacist make a lot of it.

This guild has more than 10,000 players. The pharmacist made this potion and made more than 3,000 bottles in one month. When it was used in large quantities, one of the players triggered a special effect called Guluwang.

The intelligence increased instantly by 1700 points for 5 seconds. This player was very smart and immediately took a screenshot and reported it to the chairman. In this way, this mixture of grunt confusion was calculated among the mass players.

At that time, a large number of players had reached level 100, and many warlocks were able to summon Hellfire Lord, and also knew that the minimum intellectual requirement for summoning Hellfire Lord was 2000.

The boss of this guild made his 20th-level trumpet warrior ate the Grunt Elixir when he upgraded. When he ate the special effect of the Grunt King, he summoned Hellfire, and he summoned the Lord of Hellfire.

The lord of hellfire has twice the strength of ordinary hellfire. When the boss of this guild uploaded this to the Internet, countless top guild bosses sighed with regret: If they knew the potion at level 30, the guild's wasteland speed will be greatly improved.

Now, Lu Yang has got this recipe at this level, as long as he helps Han Ying and others to summon a hellfire lord, and when the battle against the bloodthirsty alliance, the odds increase.

Lu Yang chose to study, a golden light flashed, and a grunt chaos mixture was added to the alchemy formula.

Later, Lu Yang cleaned the battlefield. Generally speaking, a boss bursting out two superb objects is even the limit, so Lu Yang became more casual, but just when Lu Yang picked it up, he found that he had one more in front of him. Cyan paper.

Wind Element Magic Academy Notice

The readers of Lu Yang's text were so wide-eyed that he couldn't help but clenched his fists. He also thought that his luck was really exploding today.

This notice has another name, called Hidden Occupation Application. As long as you take this notice of Wind Elemental Magic Academy to the Magister's Tower in St. Gall, players will be teleported to the Elemental Wind Magic Academy to learn about Wind Thunder Spell.

This is a major feature of "Second World". Except for equipment such as the heart of the demon, other hidden occupations can learn through the world's downfall.

The Wind Elemental Magic Academy not only teaches basic magic, but also teaches the player a secondary forbidden spell. The damage is similar to the meteor fall that Lu Yang now releases, and the wind and lightning magic has always been known for its range attack. .

The significance of this notice is too big for Lu Yang, however, Lu Yang is not ready to learn by himself, because the rules of the game: a player can only learn one spell.

All the energy of Lu Yang in the previous life was devoted to studying the magic of the fire department. Although the magic of the wind and thunder system is powerful ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~, it is not as comfortable as his fire department.

As for whom this notice of Wind Elemental Magic Academy is for, Lu Yang has no choice but to open it. He opened a simulation group with Xiao Liang, Han Ying and others, and Lu Yang asked with a message.

“Is Mu Yu here?”

“Brother?” Mu Yumeng hesitated for a moment and said, “Brother Xiao Liang and I are fighting the dead king in the dead king palace.”

Lu Yang sent the notice of Wind Elemental Magic Academy to the group, saying, “In the future, you don’t need to fight the corpse king, my brother will send you to school.”

“Going to school?” Mu Yu blinked his eyes, Xiao Liang, Han Ying and others were very confused, but when they saw the contents of the notice, Han Ying said excitedly: “Xiao Yu, this is a notice to hide the profession Book, Brother Lu Yang, where did you get it? “

“Just killed a boss that came out unexpectedly.” Lu Yang said: “Of the few of us, only Xiaoyu is a magician like me. I am used to the fire method, Xiaoyu, you go to study, go back to the city with me under the mage tower set.”

“Okay.” Mu Yu didn’t know the meaning of the wind and thunder spell, Mengmeng agreed to use the back to the city to fly back to the main city.

Chapter 211 - Lightning Forbidden

Lu Yang picked up the things on the ground and flew back to the main city. He came to the night town through the teleporter and found Carus in the goblin camp.

“Did you find my wife’s necklace?” Carus asked.

Lu Yang took the necklace from his backpack and gave it to Carus, saying, “Is this hungry?”

Carus received the necklace and said excitedly: “Oh my God, this is my wife’s necklace, boy, thank you so much.”

System prompt: You have completed your wife’s necklace task

“Lady, thank you, I’ve opened up the military purchase license for Storm Investment Company,” Carus said.

“Thank you very much.” Lu Yang asked for the munitions purchase license. When he found the munitions officer next to him and clicked on the purchase, a row of purchase lists appeared on the page.

Rocket launcher drawings

Thorium Balance Stone Drawing

Protector short stick

...

A total of 30 items, Lu Yang chose rocket launcher drawings to buy 100 pieces, and spent 100 gold coins.

“Brother, I’m under the mage tower, where are you?” Mu Yu said.

“I’ll be right there.” Lu Yang said, he took out the city roll and flew back to St. Gall.

Mage Tower.

The largest building in the south of the city is the mage tower. The tower towering into the clouds is a symbol of the magical civilization of St. Gall, but the mage tower never welcomes ordinary players to enter.

Lu Yang found Mu Yu at the entrance of the mage tower and handed the notice to the little girl. He gave him 100 gold coins and said: “This is proof of entering the mage tower. You got the old man with the wind and thunder symbol on the left clothes. In front of Grandpa, after you go with him, where you need to spend money to buy directly, not enough to ask your brother. “

There are five white-bearded magicians wearing various colored robes next to the mage tower. According to the official history of the game, these five are the great wizards who came to the conference in St. Gall.

Only three days come every month. Today happens to be this day. As long as you give this voucher to the wind magic teacher, you can enter the wind magic school.

“Thank you, brother.” Mu Yu took the notice and came to Grandpa Whitebeard. Mengmeng passed the notice with his hands and said, “Grandpa, give you this.”

The wind magic teacher Karl received the notice and said, "I can get this certificate to prove that you have the strength to join our wind magic school. Come in, Merlin will tell you what to do next."

The hurricane rolled up and Mu Yu teleported into the mage tower.

Lu Yang stood in place for 5 minutes, sent a message to Mu Yu, and asked, "How about, tell your brother about any problems, I will help you find a solution."

Mu Yu was staring at the dazzling wind system skills and said, "Brother, the skills here are so expensive. The price of each wind and lightning spell is more than 1 gold coin, and the most expensive lightning storm is 100 gold coins."

Lu Yang asked for a moment, "Are you sure it was a lightning storm?"

Mu Yu said, "Yeah, but this skill seems to have a purchase time limit, and there are only 10 minutes left to buy."

Earlier, there were rumors that the Wind Academy of Magic had a chance to brush out the curse. I didn't expect this to be true.

Lu Yang said excitedly: "When I bought a girl, I bought this skill first, then came back to get the money, and learned all the skills that I could learn."

"So expensive, brother." Mu Yu said.

Lu Yang said: "Silly girl, this is a curse, no matter how expensive you buy it."

"Oh, then I bought it." Mu Yu was cute but not stupid. He immediately clicked to buy and bought the curse.

"Send skill effects to the group, let me and Xiao Liang look at them." Lu Yang said.

“Okay.” Mu Yu sent an explanation of the lightning storm to Lu Yang.

Lightning storm

Type: Wind and Thunder Spell

Cost: 1000 magic

Effect: Randomly launch lightning attacks on players within 100 yards, with a base damage of 600 points and a duration of 30 seconds.

Xiao Liang and Han Ying’s three siblings were fighting at the Corpse King’s Palace. When they saw the icon of the lightning storm, all four were caught.

Xiao Liang asked: “It’s so strong, what kind of skill is this?”

Lu Yang said: “This is the curse that Mu Yu has just learned. Our little sister is now a curse curse.”

Xiao Liang and Han Ying’s three brothers and sisters showed joy on their faces.

“It will be faster to upgrade with this skill in the future.” Han Fei said.

“Xiaoyu, congratulations,” Han Ying said.

Mu Yu made a tongue-sucking expression and said, “It’s expensive, 100 gold coins.”

Everyone is a little stunned, 100 gold coins is equivalent to 30,000 credit points, which is more than many people spend a year.

“Fortunately, the boss found these profitable businesses, otherwise we cannot learn this skill.” Xiao Liang said.

Lu Yang said: “This is a game piled up with money. Mu Yu and I went back to get money to continue to learn other skills. Han Ying asked Lu Zhaoyu and Chen Feng to continue to upgrade at the Corpse King’s Hall. I will find you soon.”

“Ok.”

Mu Yu came out of the mage tower and returned to Lu Yang. Lu Yang took her to the north smithy and found Han Zhong.

“Xiao Yang is back,” Han Zhong said while making a sea tide suit.

Lu Yang nodded and said, “Master, how many gold coins do we have?”

Han Zhong said: “We plan to remove the money for the purchase of raw materials. We have 2000 gold coins. Do you want to use them, Xiaoyang?”

Lu Yang said: “Give Mu Yu 500 gold coins, let her learn skills, and give me 1,000 more gold coins, which I can use anytime.”

“No problem.” Han Zhong took out 1,500 gold coins and gave them to Lu Yang and Mu Yu.

“Master, I’m busy.” Lu Yang beckoned to say goodbye to Han Zhong, and took Mu Yu back to the mage tower.

After sending the little girl into the mage tower again, Lu Yang came to the auction house to buy winter thorn grass, goldenthorn and grunt mushrooms.

These three herbs belong to level 2 herbs. The price of one group is 2 silver coins. Lu Yang, each of the three herbs, bought more than 800 groups, and directly sold the three herbs of the auction house.

Then Lu Yang came to the Pharmacists Association, opened a high-level room to start refining medicine, put a large pot of herbs that can make 50 bottles of medicine ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ one pot per minute, Lu Yang refined for 2 hours, a total of Refined 843 bottles of Grunt Chaos Mixture.

“Is the King of Corpses empty?” Lu Yang sent a message to the simulation group.

Han Ying said: “Just emptied.”

“Wait for me.” Lu Yang said.

Turning on the blazing speed, Lu Yang ran all the way out of St. Gall and came to the third floor of the mine. He found the entrance to the Corpse King’s Hall at the corner and drilled into it.

In the Corpse King Hall, Han Ying, Lu Zhaoyu, Chen Feng and Xiao Liang are picking up skill books on the ground.

“Boss, you’re here. I’ll tell you the good news. We hit another local Hellfire skill book.” Xiao Liang said.

“Good,” Lu Yang said.

Take 853 bottles of potion from the backpack and give them an average of three people. “This potion has a very small chance to increase your intelligence by 1700 points. Once this effect is triggered, hellfire will be summoned immediately.”

Han Ying asked curiously: “Brother, is there any special intelligence to call Hellfire 1700 points?”

Lu Yang said, “You are all wearing equipment full of intelligence gems. Counting 1700 intelligence, each of you can reach 2000 intelligence, and intelligence above 2000 can summon the Lord of Hellfire. The strength is hell. Fire twice. “

Han Ying, Lu Zhaoyu and Chen Feng all had bright eyes.

“Boss, isn’t that level 7 hellfire lord 14 times that of ordinary hellfire?” Lu Zhaoyu said.

Lu Yang said: “How can there be such an exaggeration, but the damage caused by the level 7 hellfire lord is not inferior to Mu Yu’s forbidden lightning storm.”

“Thank you, boss.” Chen Feng said.

Lu Yang patted the shoulders of the two men and said, “You are welcome, try to summon the Lord of Hellfire first. After the summoning is successful, we will quit the game to discuss the next step.”

“Okay.” The two said together in excitement. The curse was an irresistible temptation for any player.

Lu Zhaoyu and Chen Feng have been with Lu Yang for half a month and their income has reached more than 10,000 credit points. This is an unthinkable thing for the two. Why do they not know why Lu Yang treats him? They are so good, but they know gratitude, and they are more recognized and loyal to Lu Yang.

Soon, after experiencing various effects, both of them ate the Guru King effect that increased their intelligence by 1,700 points, and Han Ying also ate it.

“Summon Hellfire”

“Summon Hellfire”

“Summon Hellfire”

Three green giant rocks that were twice as large as the normal Hellfire fell from the sky and hit a shock wave on the ground. Then, three grimace hellfire lords with heights of 8 yards and full of spiked armor stood up in the smoke.

“Roar”

Chaos Damage: 196—196

Evil Flame: 286 points / second

Special Skills:

Felfire Fist: Attacks have a 30% chance of 364 Felfire damage.

“This Lord of Hellfire is too strong to be completely killed.” Xiao Liang said.

“Boss, I feel I am strong.” Lu Zhaoyu said.

Chen Feng said, “Me too.”

Lu Yang laughed and said: “Of course this guy is strong. According to common sense, the top summon beast that can be summoned by players above level 100. You have summoned at this level. Be careful not to let people kill you. , When you die, the Lord of Hellfire will betray. At that time, this thing will become a nightmare for teammates. “

Han Ying, Lu Zhaoyu and Chen Feng nodded seriously.

“Boss, don’t worry, we will pay attention.” Lu Zhaoyu said.

Lu Yang said: “This hellfire lord has a special effect after rising to level 7. When no battle is carried out within 10 minutes, it will change into an evil fireball and surround the warlock. The warlock can simulate the summoning scene once again in battle. , Throw it out and stun the enemy. “

“Are there such effects?” Chen Feng said in surprise.

Lu Yang said: “The three of you are ready. There may be a war in a while. I will transfer you to the war.”

“Great.” Lu Zhaoyu said excitedly.

The alarm clock rang, Lu Yang glanced at the time, and it was time for dinner, saying: “Everyone goes offline first, and we discuss while eating.”

In order to promote unity among the brothers, Lu Yang let the recruited 40 * stream cook, no matter whether it was delicious or not, everyone shared the same bitterness.

Today, Mu Yi took eight people to cook. At this time, the meals have been prepared, and more than 40 people are waiting downstairs for dinner.

When Lu Yang came down with Han Zhong and Xiao Liang, a group of younger brothers stood up and said respectfully to Lu Yang: “Boss is good.”

In less than half a month, Lu Yang allowed each of them to earn thousands of dollars, and they were all students. They admired Lu Yang even more.

“Everyone sits.” Lu Yang came to the bench and ate with more than 40 brothers.

After having dinner, the men went back to log in to the game. Lu Yang was left with only Han Zhong, Han Ying, three sisters, Mu Yi, Mu Yu, Xiao Liang, and Lu Zhaoyu and Chen Feng.

Lu Yang said: "Everyone is here. I announce something. Starting tomorrow, the studio will expand. I will recruit another 100 professional players. Lu Zhaoyu and Chen Feng will return to school. Xiao Liang and I will return to the slums. , 25 places per person. "

Han Zhong showed a surprised expression and said, "Xiao Yang, now the production volume of the sea tide suit is enough, no matter how afraid it will be piled up."

Lu Yang said: "Not a sea tide suit, I just got a rocket launcher drawing that can increase the movement speed by 100% for 30 seconds."

"How long does this ejector cool down?" Han Zhong asked.

"2 minutes." Lu Yang said.

Han Zhong patted the table and said, "This is definitely a profitable business."

Since entering the game, Han Zhong has been serious about understanding the game. During this time, countless players on the World Channel complained that the map was too large and the time required to run was too long, so that they had less time to fight monsters and were buying. Acceleration equipment.

Lu Yang said, "I'm going to sell one of the propellers for 50 silver coins and mass-produce them, so that every player can buy them."

Xiao Liang, Lu Zhaoyu and Chen Feng all showed excited expressions when they heard Lu Yang's explanation.

"I've been waiting for the boss's recruitment order. There is no problem in recruiting people." Xiao Liang said.

Lu Zhaoyu said: "I don't have tomorrow here. Tomorrow, Chen Feng and I will take 5 brothers back to pass on the things here. 50 people can easily recruit them."

Lu Yang said: "Very well, so it's set."

Everyone is fighting spirit, but Mu Yi is a bit lonely, because of these, only Lu Yang was left by the orcs.

Lu Yang leaned on Mu Yi's shoulder and said, "Brother, I'll give you good news."

Mu Yi knew that Lu Yang had found his loneliness and said with a smile: "I'm fine, what news."

Lu Yang looked at Mu Yu ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ and let her speak for herself.

Mu Yu said happily: "Brother, Brother Lu Yang sent me a notice of the Wind Elemental Magic School today. I became a wind and thunder mage and learned to ban curse and lightning storm."

"Really?" Mu Yi stood up in excitement. On the other side of the wolf, players have been notified by the Wind Magic School, and the Lightning Storm's curse also appeared in the guild battles. .

Mu Yuxiao said proudly: "Of course, it took 100 gold coins to buy the lightning storm alone."

Mu Yi looked at Lu Yang and said, "Brother, thank you."

Lu Yang leaned on Mu Yi's shoulder and said, "What are you polite to me, my brother assures you, in another half year, I will let you and the big army meet, and I will also help you get a notice of hidden occupation.

Mu Yi said, "No, my sister is very happy to be a hidden occupation."

Lu Yang shook his head and said, "You are all my brothers and sisters, and I will not treat any of you."

Chapter 213 - Member Expansion

Han Zhong said with a smile: "Since you are so happy, I also say something. In the future, Han Ying and the three of them will seriously develop in the game. I will not let them be mercenaries anymore."

"Really? Dad." Han Fei jumped up excitedly, Han Yu and Han Ying were also excited.

Han Zhong said: "Of course, this game is so profitable, who is going to be a mercenary?"

Unlike others, Han Zhong has a 10% stake in Luyang. In this month, Han Zhong earned more than 200,000 credit points, more than he earned in a year as a mercenary.

Lu Yang said, "Thank you Master, I will not let you regret this decision."

"Finally there is no need to exercise." Han Fei said excitedly.

Han Zhong coughed and said, "Exercise is still necessary. You can reduce the amount of exercise but can't help but exercise."

Han Fei erred, and sat back with his head down.

Lu Yang and Han Ying laughed.

"Master is right. Exercise is a must. Don't you always want the ring of my dreams. If you don't have the basic skills, how have you challenged the clown emperor's SSS-level task?" Lu Yang said.

"Brother, would you take us to challenge the Joker Emperor?" Han Yu asked.

Lu Yang nodded and said, "During this time, your strength has improved a lot, and you have reached the qualification to challenge the Joker Emperor. I have been busy recruiting these past few days. I will take you to challenge him. Emperor's information. "

"Great." The crowd said together.

Lu Yang patted the table and said, "That's the order. First recruit the players. I'll set the beds for bedding and toiletries."

"it is good."

Early the next morning, Lu Yang brought Xiao Liang, Han Fei, and Han Yu to the slums after exercising. As an uninvolved player in the last life of Lu Yang, the slums occupied a large part and were the two most loyal to him One.

Many of Lu Yang's playmates grew up here. Lu Yang went from house to house to recruit people, and soon recruited 50 children around the age of 16.

These children are currently in a state of idleness. After giving out a helmet, they all came to the studio with Landing Yang.

Not long after, Lu Zhaoyu and Chen Feng also returned, and there were more than 100 people in the studio, which became quite lively.

Lu Yang asked them to gather in the lobby, and briefly said a few words. After they signed the contract, they brought the bedding and the bed to the car.

Lu Yang took them to arrange accommodation, and then issued a helmet. After everything stabilized, the old players that Lu Yang joined before the lunch time was arranged by one person to guide these new people.

For a whole day, Lu Yang was busy with these things. Fortunately, he had experience in the last life, but everything seemed to be busy, but everything went smoothly.

Lu Yang logged in to the game and took the 100 people to hide in his newly purchased house in the north of the city, teaching these players step by step how to make rocket launchers.

It's not difficult to make this thing. Soon, everyone can make it skillfully, but some people have high efficiency and some people have low efficiency.

At noon the next day, Lu Yang came to the auction house with 300 rocket thrusters.

At this time, there are more players in the auction house, and most of them are level 10 or above players with a small net worth.

When Lu Yang entered the door, he just heard five or six players chatting by an auction machine.

"Well, this game is good, but the map is so big, it usually takes an hour to get to the place, and I don't say a way to increase the speed."

"All other online games have horses to travel, but this game has not yet seen horses, so why don't you know how to be considerate of players?"

"Forget it, whoever makes this game so fun, whatever we want, we have to be."

...

Lu Yang glanced at Han Zhong next to him and put 300 rocket launchers on the auction house, each set to 50 silver coins.

"Huh? Someone sells rocket launchers, which can be tied to the leg equipment, increase the movement speed by 100% for 30 seconds, and have a cooling time of only 2 minutes." A player searching for the auction house first discovered the rocket launcher.

"What, where?" For a moment, the players around him looked excitedly here.

“Yes, it’s a rocket launcher. It only needs 50 silver coins.”

System prompt: you sold a rocket launcher, you got 49 gold coins and 50 copper coins

...

In less than 3 minutes, a series of purchase tips refreshed Lu Yang’s dialogue bar.

“Let’s go.” Lu Yang watched the auction house become a sensational player group.

“Sold out?” Han Zhong asked in surprise.

Lu Yang said: “It’s all sold out, and this business will be left to you in the future. This will be another channel for us to make money.”

Han Zhong had some objections to Lu Yang’s sudden recruitment. Seeing the results were so good, he could only admire heartily, saying, “Relax, I will be optimistic about these four businesses for you.”

Lu Yang nodded.

As he was on the road, Han Zhong couldn’t help but wonder, “Xiao Yang, why do you say that the designer of this game is so weird, everything is designed to be difficult for players to find?”

Lu Yang laughed and said, “This game has been educating all players.”

“Education?” Han Zhong didn’t understand.

Lu Yang said: “Yes, it is education. He is teaching us a kind of thought, called Chivalry in China and Chivalry in Europe and America. Now the morality of this society has been torn.

The official wants to tell everyone through the game, don't always think about egoism, we should reach out to those who need help, and do what we can to help others. We don't want to abandon trouble, the official game doesn't want to make the world more indifferent. ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ The people who develop this game are affectionate. “

This is what the official planning team personally said during the interview. In the game, they also physically designed the game according to this idea. As long as they have good intentions, do not want to be cheap, not maliciously vilified, do not harm others and benefit themselves, treat others with integrity, and understand Enthusiastic help can be rewarded in the game.

Just like the Hong Kong TVB martial arts films and fairy tales in the last century, Xinshan will encounter rewards by chance.

Han Zhong said with emotion: “People entered the society from their youth, and said that after experience, in fact, Wang Badan has seen more and used to it, and it is impossible to be a pure person. It's even more delusional to keep that clean person, this game is heart-wrenching. “

Lu Yang nodded with a smile and said, “One more thing, the game official may not have thought of such a situation. The capital entry is too exaggerated. The Grand Guild seizes the map, squeezes the space of normal players, and lets the game The plot of the curated design has no chance at all. “

According to common sense, it is not difficult to open the prestige of a special race like a goblin. Players with a little brain can find a way. The reason why Lu Yang is open for one month to make such money alone is because the major guilds compete for the site. , Killing boss caused.

Chapter 214 - Han Fei Challenge

“Brother Lu Yang, we have completed the training, please come and see.” Han Fei said in a message.

Lu Yang said to Han Zhong, "Let's go, Han Ying, they are anxious, I will take them to do the task."

Han Zhong nodded and said, "I'll go check their strength."

In the closed arena, the three sisters Han Ying and Xiao Liang worked out the project arranged by Lu Yang.

"Look at my stray steps." Han Fei ran head-on to a group of running cows, his body flickering from left to right was very easy.

Han Yu, Han Ying and Xiao Liang stood and applauded.

Lu Yang and Han Zhong came to Han Ying and said, "Yes."

Han Ying saw Lu Yang coming and said happily, "Brother, our three siblings can pass the test you set, but Xiao Liang is almost there."

Xiao Liang scratched his head in embarrassment and said, "I'm still a lot behind."

Lu Yang patted Xiao Liang's shoulder and said, "Not in a hurry, take your time."

Han Zhong asked: "What task are you going to take them with? Do you need my help?"

Lu Yang said, "Master, if you can go, it is best. This task does not require a level, it is to avoid."

Lu Yang, the video who cleared the clown emperor, kept it all, and sent it to Han Zhong, saying, "Look first."

Han Zhong opened the video and watched it.

Han Fei, the up-and-coming Han Fei, called back. When the two came to Lu Yang, Han Zhong also finished watching the video and said, "It's not difficult to do these actions. What do you want this ring to do. "

Lu Yang said: "The Bloodlust Alliance has been killing members of my guild, and I am going to launch a counterattack. This ring can play a great role."

Han Zhong said, "I'll go with you and help you ring out."

"That's great, let's go together." Lu Yang said.

Near Chengdong Market, the Shenyue Circus once again came to St. Gall and started performing.

After a month, a large number of players reached level 10 and the circus challenge mission spread among players. At this time, countless players entered the Shenyue Circus to participate in the challenge.

"Oh, this guy was almost able to pass the 8-door challenge, which is a pity." A group of players made a regretful voice.

"You can give a level 10 silver item through eight doors."

"What do you know? A few days ago, the Night Lonely Star of the Bloodlust Alliance challenged the difficulty of 12 doors and gave it a piece of gold equipment."

"Qu Han also successfully challenged just now. I have to say that although the bloodthirsty * are bastards, these two heads are really masters."

A group of people are feeling.

"I don't know what the 16 doors give me."

“Don’t talk about it. Someone has already challenged it. Even 3 waves can’t survive it. No one can get that kind of reward.”

“Well? Someone has challenged 12 more doors. Let’s take a look. It seems like a strong breeze.”

On the court, the spirits and breeze held their breath and looked at the 12 open doors. In the face of the crazy charge, the lizard kept dodging, although it was difficult, but it persisted.

Lu Yang said to the Han Zhong family around him: “This is the task of the ring of dreams. The challenge on the field is the first vice president of a domestic grand guild.”

Han Fei said disgustedly: “It’s so stupid to hide from only 12 doors, this person is so stupid.”

Lu Yang laughed and said, “Everyone thinks you have a special forces dad like you. You can’t be separated from your years of hard work in the game.”

The three sisters Han Ying nodded together, and looked admirably at Han Zhong.

Han Zhong was a little embarrassed, but he intended to train three children to become mercenaries and said, “It’s mainly because of you, otherwise the three of them can only stay with me in the jungles of Southeast Asia for a lifetime.”

Han Fei said: “It’s not necessarily true. There would be no family without Lu Yang that night.”

Han Zhong sighed with sigh, recalling the critical situation that he blocked the door and fought with three killers that day, Han Zhong snorted in the air.

“Children, this kind of kindness can’t be forgotten by our family forever.” Han Zhong quietly sent a message to the third sister Han Ying.

The three siblings nodded together.

System Tip: Congratulations to players who successfully challenged 12 Thunder Lizards

On the court, Breath of Breath made a sigh of relief, waving to the surrounding players to leave the field.

System prompt: next player can apply for challenge

The discussion sounded on the court, and Zhu Yu was ahead. Some players with poor skills did not want to play the role of the breeze of spirits, and stopped to wait.

The system prompts three times in a row, there are still no players to challenge, just when everyone is curious who the next one is going to, Han Fei said, "Dad, let me give you a head start."

As he stood up, Han Fei jumped into the field.

System prompt: Please select difficulty

Han Fei said: "16 challenges."

System prompt: player Han Fei chooses 16-door challenge difficulty

There was an instant sensation in the field, and even the spirits Qingfeng and Qu Han who had previously challenged could not help looking at Han Fei on the field.

"Who is this person?"

“Boy, don’t do it.”

“You are funny at gate 16.”

...

Han Fei didn’t have the slightest expression on his face, nor was he obstructed by the words of the people around him.

System prompt: battle countdown

Start

In the 30-meter-long field, 16 gates opened at the same time, and the Thunder Lizard, which was larger than the elephant, rushed towards Han Fei crazyly.

The hardest part of this battle is not to escape the Thunder Lizards in front of you, but to avoid the waves of Thunder Lizards that rushed after the first wave, because, you are standing in the middle of the field, the Thunder Lizards are higher than you, you see Not to the situation of the Thunder Lizard behind.

In this way, it’s all about body style and hearing, and only really smart players can do it. It happens that Han Fei, who has been trained for 13 years, can do it.

In the face of the Thunder Lizard rushing, Han Fei closed his eyes, relying solely on his hearing, he easily avoided the waves of lizards.

With the success of Han Fei's evasion over and over again, the players from the initial taunt to surprise to excitement so much that now they are cheering for Han Fei.

Has been dodging more than 60 waves of Thunder Lizard attacks, all of them suddenly disappeared, only Han Fei stood alone in the field.

"Success?"

"Successfully challenged 16 gates?"

"Master ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ This is a master, he set a record."

Countless players shouted for Han Fei, and even Lie Qingfeng looked at Han Fei in surprise.

"I don't know what kind of reward will be given."

"It should be fine."

Players on the field are looking forward to Han Fei.

"Someone actually broke my record and let me challenge you." A clown emperor wearing a gold crown, with black and white makeup on his face, and a slender figure suddenly shouted into the field and stood opposite Han Fei.

System prompt: Player Han Fei successfully triggers the Joker King challenge, mission level SSS.

"Hidden tasks, this is hidden tasks."

“This man actually played a hidden task and went to report to the boss.”

Chapter 215 - 5 Mystic Bands

Han Fei was not afraid to click to start the challenge. Under the dual pressure of 16 Thunder Lizards and the Joker Emperor, he showed dexterous steps and spooky stature.

“This is a top master. It looks like an assassin. If you equip him with a set of top equipment, you will have the ability to win the admiral’s first rank in the army.” Liquor Qingfeng said.

On the battlefield, letting such a thief sneak into the enemy’s position stealthily, an instantaneous outbreak, if it can kill the opposing commander, it can play an unimaginable role.

Qu Han also saw the strength of Han Fei. After Han Fei challenged successfully, he recorded the video and sent it to Bloodthirsty Batian.

A charming ring was thrown angrily into Han Fei’s hands by the Joker Emperor.

“Boss, I got the ring of dreams.” Han Fei sent a message to Lu Yang.

“Okay.” Han Fei put his cloak hat on his head, took out the city roll and started the countdown.

Liquor Qingfeng and Qu Han were waiting at the exit of the venue. When they saw Han Fei leaving the city, they hurried toward the venue.

System prompt: Non-challenge players are prohibited from entering “Brother, wait a minute, let’s add a friend.” Lie Qingfeng shouted.

“My bloodthirsty league is willing to hire you to join the elite group.” Qu Han shouted.

Unfortunately, Han Fei didn’t lift his head from start to finish. After 10 seconds of returning to the city, Han Fei disappeared into the middle of the venue.

The spirits Qingfeng and Qu Han stood in disappointment with disappointment.

“Boss, we’ll send someone to find the square,” said one of his men.

“I can’t find it. There are tens of thousands of players in the square. Where can I find it?” The spirits breeze shook his head.

“Forget it, let’s go. There are no more people to watch today.” Qu Han glanced at the spirits and said to his men.

Just when both spirits Qingfeng and Qu Han were feeling anxious about missing a master, Han Yu jumped into the field.

System Tip: Players choose the 16 challenge

Liquor Qingfeng and Qu Han glanced at Han Yu in the field and stopped.

On the court, Han Yu began his challenge. Unlike Han Fei's blood, Han Yu was more elegant, and each move had a smart feeling, and soon, 16 waves of challenges were Han Yu Easily done.

"Someone broke my record and let me challenge you." The Joker Emperor appeared again.

System Tip: Player Yinfeng triggers the Joker King challenge, mission level SSS.

"It actually triggered the challenge."

"I'm not dreaming. I meet two masters who trigger hidden tasks one day."

Off the field.

Xiongba's vice chairman Qu accidentally came in with a group of people, and not far away predicted the guild president Titan, the dark wind of the dark moon guild also came to the scene.

"This man really is a master?" Qu inadvertently looked at Han Yu, who was able to avoid the hunt of the Joker Emperor in the attack of 16 lizards.

"There are such hunters in the elite group, he can use five or six people alone." Tianfeng said.

"This person must be taken down and not allowed to be taken away by other guilds."

The presidents and deputy presidents of the major guilds secretly made up their minds. However, after Han Yu challenged to obtain the ring of dreams, he also put on the cap on his cloak and took it back to the city to fly to the square.

Qu inadvertently stood at the entrance and banged on the handrail in angrily, saying, "What does this guy mean, even if we don't give us a chance to recruit?"

Liquor Qingfeng and others frowned.

“Brother, I’m going.” Han Yingchong landed with a slight smile and jumped into the battlefield.

System Tip: Player Red Night chooses 16-door challenge difficulty

“The third?”

“Does anyone still challenge 16?”

“A girl?”

...

The spectators were crazy, tens of thousands of people cheered for Han Ying.

Han Ying’s expression was indifferent, and he was not affected by the outside world. He passed the 16-door difficulty with light weight, which triggered the challenge of the Joker Emperor.

Watching the third time the Joker Emperor entered the field, the tens of thousands of players who watched the game could no longer be self-sustaining. This difficult challenge was actually triggered by three people, and this third person was still a girl. It was too great for those boys. .

“I can’t stand it. This beauty is too beautiful. If it is a real person, with such technology and such beauty, I am dumped for her.”

“Absolutely the first beauty master, this rogue I can’t do.”

“Goddess, can you add a friend,” a player shouted loudly from the sidelines.

“Goddess, goddess ...”

Han Ying remained indifferent to the shouts of the players around him, and easily completed the challenge of the Joker Emperor without being affected by the outside world.

System prompt: Player Red Night completes the Joker King challenge mission

Taking the ring that the Joker Emperor had thrown, Han Ying also put on the cap on the cape, took it out of the city, and flew out of the field.

“Don’t leave.”

...

Standing on the high platform, Lu Yang hit Han Zhong with his arm and said, “Your daughter is going to be a star.”

Han Zhong blushed old. For tens of thousands of players on the field shouting that his daughter is a goddess, Han Zhong was still a little embarrassed.

“It’s time for me to be an old guy, and I hope I can still show my peak strength.” Han Zhong said. For the three energetic children, Han Zhong really felt his aging.

System Tip: Players must leave the 16-door challenge difficulty

“Fourth, what’s wrong today?”

“I have an inexplicable sorrow.”

...

The players on the field were already excited and calm, but when they looked into the field and found that the challenge was a 40-year-old uncle, the players couldn't calm down again.

“Nima, the old man dare to challenge 16 doors.”

“I bet he will never be challenged. After I live, I will eat.”

“I also bet ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ I bet.”

Listening to the voices of the players around him, Han Zhong suddenly showed a full-bodied smile and moved his body. Han Zhong seemed to find the scene of winning the championship in front of Wan Jun.

Different from Han Ying's three siblings and Lu Yang, Han Zhong has more than 20 years of experience in jungle warfare. The number of life and death fights is countless. Facing the simple challenge of this 16-door lizard, Loyal is like playing, taking the time to use the hip-hop moves that were popular 20 years ago.

“This uncle is so cool.” A cute girl screamed suddenly and shouted at Han Zhong: “Uncle, you are so handsome.”

When Han Zhong entered the game, he lowered his appearance, but the cold murderousness and the temperament of controlling his life and death still made countless little fans fall for him.

“Uncle, I love you.” A cute girl shouted screaming.

Han Zhong has already challenged the clown emperor. Hearing this sentence almost made the clown emperor catch it. The sigh of a black line on the back of the brain was that the girl in 2040 was too open, which made him born in 2018 very uncomfortable.

Chapter 216 - Cangyu

Lu Yang simultaneously broadcasted the live video to the three sisters of Han Ying. The three laughed when they saw their dad being madly pursued by beauties.

“Dad has such a mess, this beauty is really amazing.” Han Fei said, clutching his stomach.

Han Yu said with a laugh: “In the future, Dad will be responsible for opening the store. If this girl can see it, it will be more fun.”

Han Ying laughed too much and said, “But then again, it’s been years since Dad should find someone to take care of him.”

Lu Yang said: “You don’t have to worry about this, a bunch of little farts carefully let your dad know to turn around and clean up you.”

The three spit out their tongues, but all thought the idea was good.

System Tip: Players must leave the Joker King mission successfully

Han Zhong got the ring of dreams, and also put on a cape hat. He flew away from the playing field using the city roll, and Qu Wuyi and Qu Han who stood at the door watching them all showed such expressions.

“This is unusual. I have a feeling that the four people in the game are a group.” Tianfeng said.

“Agree, physically speaking, this older person is most likely the master of the first three people,” said Liquor Qingfeng.

“Your supreme dynasty’s recent actions are a bit abnormal, and he dominates what he wants to do.” Qu Han asked, looking at Qu unintentionally.

“It’s your business.” Qu unintentionally threw his cloak and turned around and walked away, but there was some panic in his heart. The matter of obtaining the siege order of Black Rock City was still top secret in the guild.

Tianfeng came to Qu Han and asked, “Is there anything wrong?”

Qu Han stared at Qu’s unconscious back and turned away.

Inside a house opposite the North Central Square.

Sisters Lu Yang, Xiao Liang, Han Zhong and Han Ying sat on the sofa in the living room to discuss what had just happened.

Han Zhong was ridiculed by Lu Yang and his three siblings, and Han Ying was not let go of Lu Yang.

“Girl, look at the comments on the forum. You have been called the Red Night Goddess.” Lu Yang said.

“Really, my sister is really called a goddess. I only know that she has been a goddess for a long time together.” Han Fei said.

“Hit.” Han Ying shrugged Han Fei’s arm shyly, causing everyone to laugh again.

“Xiaoying, your brother is telling the truth.” Lu Yang said.

Han Zhong was proud to look at her daughter.

“Brother ~, don’t make fun of me and talk about business.” Han Ying said with a small mouth.

Lu Yang knew that the girl was thin-skinned, and no longer made fun, and said, “Okay, that’s the business.”

Everyone was solemn.

Lu Yang went on to say: “This ring can give any player wearing him the ability to summon up to 5 babies. A few of you will follow me and I will take you to call a baby.”

Han Zhong put the ring on the table and said, “I’m going to look at the four shops. If I don’t have time to go, give this ring to others.”

“Thank you, Master, I think so too. In the future, you will be mainly responsible for doing business and building contacts in the game. You are better at it than some of our boys.” You will follow me later. “

Xiao Liang said in surprise: “Thank you, boss, Master.”

Han Zhong said: “Don’t thank me, starting tomorrow you will double your training and strive to hit this ring on your own ability within a month.”

“Yes, I must work hard.” Xiao Liang said.

Lu Yang gave Han Zhong a grateful glance, and Han Zhong smiled indifferently. He could see that Lu Yang attached great importance to Xiao Liang, and helping him train a powerful assistant was just a hand.

Lu Yang said, "Let's go. Time is tight. The sooner this can be done, the better."

There is a special community in the 25-level leaf pine forest next to the Golan Heights in the north of St. Gall. The monster eagle-headed beast has wings but can't fly far. It has no attack power but is very cunning.

Lu Yang took the team to Yesong Forest and found a large open space deep in the forest. There was a house made of thatched and wood on this open space. Some houses were also built on the branches of trees. The whole tribe looked very ancient.

Inside the Horde, the eagle-headed beast walked back and forth on the ground.

"Cangyu, it looks strange." Han Fei said.

Lu Yang said: "We are going to catch them today, but we only catch the boss, not the mobs."

"Flame Storm"

"Blazing Bird"

"Meteorite Impact"

...

Lu Yang quickly cleaned up the mobs, and Han Ying's three siblings and Xiao Liang also joined them. The long-term killing of the corpse king brought them to level 25, and the speed of mobs was very fast.

Killing monsters all the way to the depths of the Moonkin Tribe, a Cangya leader appeared half a head higher than the normal Moonkin.

Cangyu leader

Level: 25

Qi and blood: 6080/6080

“It feels nothing special.” Han Fei said, scratching his head.

Lu Yang used the light of dreams to summon and said, “You’ll know in a while.”

The white light fell on Cangyu’s head, and soon, Luyang’s name was added behind Cangyu’s name, and he patted his wings and came to Luyang’s side.

Cangyu leader

Evil attack: 102-102

Defense: 124-166

Special Skills:

whirlwind

“Good garbage,” Han Fei said.

Lu Yang laughed and said: “The level 25 blame is really garbage, but you pay attention to the last whirlwind skill.”

Whirlwind: release a whirlwind to attack all players within 30 yards, damage 30 points / second for 5 minutes.

Han Fei's eyes brightened and he said, "Brother ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ The monster called by the fantasies can be upgraded by 7 levels, can this whirlwind also be upgraded?"

Lu Yang patted Han Fei's shoulder and said, "Right."

Most players in the previous life did not know that Cangyu had such a skill, because the defense and attack of Cangyu garbage made the hunter players never look at him, plus the easy killing became a necessary place for most players to upgrade. .

The reason why Cangyu can be found is that a player from a guild in the previous life who was responsible for testing the game data summoned a Cangyu using the ring of dreams.

This player also looked down on Cangyu, but just upgraded Cangyu with the purpose of testing data. However, after he raised Cangyu to level 7, the attack power of Cangyu did not increase much, but the name of the cyclone skill changed. hurricane.

When released again, a skill that looks like a giant tornado in the real world appears, inflicting 100 points / second of damage, an attack range of 60 yards, and a gale effect.

A full set of level 30 silver-equipped players has a blood loss of about 3000 points, but it is quite 40 seconds in this skill. This guild uses the skills of the beast to lead the enemy to a specific terrain in a guild battle, and releases the hurricane to cut the enemy into countless pieces, and fought a beautiful battle.

Chapter 217 - Fire Law 0

The strength of the Luyang Guild is much weaker than that of the Bloodthirsty Alliance. If you want to win the battle, you must be surprised. This leader of the Cangba is a gift that Luyang is prepared to give to the Bloodthirsty Domineering.

Jiang Ze called and said, "All 100 mages have been found. When will they be called?"

"Catch it first, I'll take a call." Lu Yang said to Xiao Liang and Han Ying.

In this battle with the Bloodlust Alliance, these 100 fire methods are one of Lu Yang's important weapons. He asked, "Are you sure?"

Jiang Ze said: "Every time the bloodthirsty alliance has been killed at least 3 times, it is a deep hatred and a anger full of anger. I ca n't find a way to avenge it. Spies, you can use it with confidence. "

Lu Yang said: "It's great. You first sign a guild contract with them. You must keep it strictly confidential. I will go back and teach them around 5 pm."

"By the way, these people don't have skill books, nor do they have guilds. You have to find a solution." Jiang Ze said.

If you want to get a skill book, you can only buy it from the bookstore or hit the boss. Ordinary players ca n't hit the boss because the guilds grab the boss, and the skill book stores like Pyroblast are not sold. Therefore, Jiang Ze recruited this None of them had Pyroblast skills.

"Rest assured, I've been prepared for a long time." Lu Yang said.

Lu Zhaoyu and Chen Feng have not been out in the dead king palace, and hundreds of skill books have been published in the past two days.

Jiang Ze said: "Then you are busy first, I am going to work on the guild. In the past few days, we have more and more deaths. Bloodthirsty Batian has established a special army of 5,000 people. On the one hand, it is on the major maps. Robbing bosses, on the one hand, slaughtering our guild players, the bastards, and the angry people who do not know what is good for them. "

Lu Yang forced down the anger in his heart and said, "I read the news on the guild channel, and you can help me press for a few more days. As long as our 3,000 people are trained, I will immediately start a war against the Bloodlust Alliance. Don't tell them about war. "

Jiang Ze said: "You can rest assured, I know how to do it."

Lu Yang ended the conversation and dialed Jin Buhua's intercom.

"Boss, what's the matter?" Jin Buhuan was making potions in the pharmacy.

Lu Yang said, "Give me an advanced potion for 3,000 people to fight a battle."

The war is actually fighting the economy. It is not that one or two unexpected battles can be won to defeat the other party. If the other party reorganizes the battle and his own medicine cannot keep up, he will still fail.

The failure of the group is largely due to the inability to buy medicine!

Jin Buchang smiled and said, "Boss, 3 days. Within 3 days, I will give you 30 sets of advanced life potions and 30 sets of advanced magic potions."

Advanced potions can be used in battle, recovering 1000 vitality and magic within 12 seconds. The official price is 10 silver coins. In his own drug store, Lu Yang only pays for one raw material, about 1 silver coin.

However, even so, this battle also caused Lu Yang to lose his family. The thousands of gold coins he earned before were all left to clean. If Lu Yang loses, the guild will fall apart and he can only change his career. Business, to become a rich man.

"It all depends on the war." Lu Yang murmured.

"Boss, what are you talking about?" Xiao Liang had summoned five Cangzhu leaders and ran over.

Lu Yang shook his head and looked at the three younger brothers and sisters of Han Ying. They were about to summon five leaders of Cangyu.

“The summoning is full to upgrade Cangyu, to ensure that Cangyu is the last to kill the monster, otherwise Cangyu will not gain experience.” Lu Yang said, and then he began to call Cangyu leader.

The leader of Cangyu is not an elite monster. It is easy to find in the camp. Not long after, Lu Yang also summoned 5 leaders of Cangyu. After upgrading for an hour each, 25 of the five leaders of Luyang reached level 7. .

The whirlwind of Cangyu also turned into a hurricane.

hurricane

Type: Wind

Distance: 200 yards

Cost: 600 magic

Description: Release a tornado with a diameter of 30 yards, inflicting 100 points / second of damage to players within 60 yards for a duration of 30 minutes and a maximum distance of 200 yards.

“This hurricane skill is really powerful.” Han Fei said in amazement.

Lu Yang said, “Try it out.”

Han Fei nodded and ordered a Cangyu to release the hurricane skill.

Cang Yun flapped her wings and walked out, and raised her hands above her head, and said an obscure spell in her mouth.

Suddenly, the wind was rising, the sky was overcast with clouds, the spell in Cangyu's mouth became faster and faster, and the wind was getting fiercer. When the wind made Lu Yang and Xiao Liang feel like they were about to stand still, the sky was densely covered 60 yards A giant black tornado with a lead length of 30 yards in the dark clouds slowly connected to the ground.

"boom"

A seemingly slow tornado twisted a millennium tree into shatters.

"It's so cool," Han Yu said.

Han Ying said happily: "Brother, with these 25 Moonkins, we must win the war against the Bloodlust."

Lu Yang was also full of confidence, saying: "Not enough, I have to go back and make some preparations."

"You're leaving?" Han Ying said.

Lu Yang said: "The three of you stay here to upgrade, Cangyu has a simple mind and doesn't know how to betray, and my Cangyu also gives it to you. I will go back and do some preparations."

It was half an hour before 5 pm, and Lu Yang was going back to teach Jiang Ze the fire method he had picked out.

"Oh, we are waiting for you." Han Ying said reluctantly.

Lu Yang smiled, took out the city roll and flew back to the city of St. Gall. He sent a message to Jiang Ze and said, "Are all people here?"

Jiang Ze said with anxiety: "The contracts have been signed, but we don't have a secret place. I dare not meet these people. They are all scattered outside now."

This is a major shortcoming of the Luyang Guild. There is no specific place to gather, which is the same as a person without a home.

Lu Yang said: "In this way, the contract is signed to let them meet in Spore Village, where no one will know secretly."

Jiang Ze said: "This idea is good ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ I will lead the team."

"At 5 o'clock, we will meet on time." Lu Yang said.

After closing the dialog box, Lu Yang returned to Han Zhong, took out 100 Pyroblast skill books, and used the teleporter to go to Yese Town and ran towards Spore Village.

On the other side.

Jiang Ze and Tu Feng have arrived in Spore Village with 100 fire methods.

"I can finally meet the boss, this is the first time to meet the boss." A fire player said excitedly.

"Simplifying the spell, my most coveted skill, I never thought I could really learn it, I really don't know how the boss researched it."

"Anyway, I can finally find revenge on the Bloodlust this time. I will never let the Bloodlust go."

...

Each fire method had an excited expression on his face. For them, Lu Yang was a legend, and not far away, Lu Yang's figure gradually appeared.

Chapter 218 - Mess

“Boss is here.”

...

The 100 fire mages who followed over stood up and walked towards the door.

Jiang Ze and Tu Feng looked at each other as they looked at each other.

“I can’t imagine that Lu Yang’s status in the minds of ordinary players is so high.” Tu Feng said.

“A guild that has been killed more than 5,000 times can still exist, all relying on the reputation of Landing Yang. If they had no confidence in Lu Yang, this guild could not hold it for half a month.” Jiang Ze said.

“It looks like this time I really have a chance to defeat the Bloodlust, I can finally get revenge.” Tu Feng said.

Jiang Ze patted Tu Feng’s shoulder and said, “Let’s go, we will also welcome Lu Yang.”

The entrance of Spore Village.

Lu Yang has been surrounded by a number of fire players.

“Boss, do you really want to teach us to simplify the spell?”

“Boss, can we defeat the Bloodlust?”

...

The enthusiasm of the people surprised Lu Yang, but he calmed down quickly, raised his hands to signal everyone’s quietness, and said, “Brothers, listen to me.”

The players around Lu Yang immediately calmed down.

Lu Yang smiled and said in a loud voice: “You, Jiang Ze and Tu Feng personally selected the Huofa Guards for me. Jiang Ze told me, you are all willing to follow me, aren’t you?”

“Yes.”

“Yes”

...

The crowd shouted that they had signed strict guild contracts and confidentiality agreements with Jiang Ze and Tu Feng.

“Good.” Lu Yang looked at the crowd with satisfaction, and said, “From today, I will personally teach you the simplified spell of Pyroblast.”

“This is real!”

“Long live the boss!”

...

The crowd cheered. Although Jiang Ze and Tu Feng had told them before, Lu Yang spoke them out, making them more excited.

Lu Yang motioned to everyone to be quiet, and then said, “I know, each of you has hatred with the Bloodlust, right?”

“Correct.”

“Boss, we want revenge.”

Everyone said.

Lu Yang said: “Very good, there is motivation to have hatred, but what I want to tell you is that bloodthirsty is only a disease of mange, and it won’t be long before I will take you to defeat the bloodthirsty and defeat the bloodthirsty After that, we have to fight against many guilds. At that time, will you follow me to the world like today? “

Everyone looked at each other. They didn’t understand the meaning of Lu Yang’s remarks. However, after waiting a few seconds, a player shouted, “Boss, I joined the Brotherhood for you. Before, I and the Bloodlust Alliance. I have no hatred, of course, I hate it now, but I admire you even more. In the future, if you say you want me to fight, I will follow you. “

“Yes, Ling Feng is right. We followed the boss and never let anyone bully us.”

Lu Yang raised his hand to signal everyone to be quiet, and said, "If you want to, stay with me and learn to simplify the spell. If you don't, I won't force you. I will also apply for the cancellation of the previously signed contract. I will give you 5 minutes. Choose your time, agree, and follow me into the village chief's room. "

After speaking, Lu Yang should first walk towards the room of Spore Village, Jiang Ze and Tu Feng followed behind Lu Yang.

Many people in the 100 fire methods didn't hesitate. They turned and followed Lu Yang. Some people had a little reason because they wanted to learn to simplify the spell to get revenge. If the revenge was over, they didn't know what to do.

However, after thinking for a moment, everyone reacted and entered Luzong Village's room with Lu Yang behind him.

Five minutes passed quickly.

Tu Feng said on behalf of a group of players: "Boss, none of them flinched, they are willing to play games with you."

Lu Yang said: "Very good, starting today, I officially teach you to simplify the spell. This is a skill book for Pyroblast. You and Jiang Ze sent them."

Tu Feng and Jiang Ze came to Lu Yang and distributed them one by one after receiving the skill book. Lu Yang took advantage of this time to explain the meaning of Pyroblast skill to the 100 fire methods in front of him.

On the other side.

In the 25-level strange zone, the bloodthirsty Batian who is rapidly upgrading is listening to his report.

“Today killed a total of 1,000 Iron Brother Brothers players, killed 196 boss bosses, 656 elite bosses, 1064 epic copies, obtained 284 gold-level equipment, 647 silver-level equipment, and bronze. Equipped with 3556 pieces.” Qu Han said.

This is the output of the bloodthirsty team’s entire union in one day. After more than a month of operation, the total number of bloodthirsty leagues exceeds 100,000, and the number of players above level 20 exceeds 30,000.

Bloodthirsty Batian frowned and asked, “The players whose guilds have disappeared have not been found.”

Qu Han said: “No, but their guild is about to collapse. The players we inserted into their guild have been encouraging the Brotherhood to fight with us. Several of Lu Yang’s men have been squeezing. Living.”

The bloodthirsty tyrant snorted coldly and said, “Such a guild will be finished sooner or later, mainly to check the whereabouts of the 1,000 people. I don’t want to have 1,000 diehards against me when this guild is finished.”

Qu Han nodded.

Bloodthirsty Batian continued: “In addition, give me more attack, whether it is the 5,000 who are responsible for killing on our side, or the spies we installed inside them, so that they are not afraid of exposure, and encourage the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood to follow us. In a field decisive battle, I’m going to kill the bloodthirsty alliance in a blast.”

Qu Han hesitated a moment and said, “Boss, don’t leave a little room, I’m worried that Lu Yang is not so easy to deal with.”

The bloodthirsty Batian sneered and said, “Lu Yang can cause us some trouble when he is alone. Now that he has established such a guild, his family has become a waste. Don’t worry about this. I have already agreed Well, dozens of well-known anchors in the game and the editor-in-chief of the game website ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ We will come to the battle site that day and watch how we break down the Iron Brotherhood.”

Qu Han nodded, he understood that Bloodthirsty Batian was still angry about the last official video. Although he thought that Bloodthirsty was a bit of a neglect, he could not have any refutation.

He opened a simulated group of 20 legionnaires under his command and sent a message saying: "The boss ordered that he start to kill all members of the Brotherhood of Brotherhood from tomorrow, spies installed inside the Brotherhood, and report the location of the Brotherhood members at any time. Try to kill the enemy to the maximum. "

...

No one can think of how much Qu Han's order has influenced the future of the game.

Lu Yang had previously given orders that members of the Iron Brotherhood should not wear a guild badge when upgrading in the wild. The internalists of the Bloodlust Alliance would not provide such information in order to not expose themselves, which greatly reduced the chance of guild members being killed. .

However, starting from the issuance of this order, the bloodthirsty alliance has no jealousy. Player lists, leveling locations, copy entrances, and hidden strongholds have been exposed one by one. Instantly, countless players have been attacked by the bloodthirsty alliance.

Chapter 219 - Time, time!

The next day starts in the afternoon.

Jiang Ze and Tu Feng are both very busy. If they can sweat in the game, the two will already be sweating, but this is not tired, but cold sweat.

“How many people were killed or injured,” Tu Feng asked.

“4000, from last night to now, we have killed 4,000 people.” Jiang Ze said.

Looking at the two in panic, Lu Yang’s face was still calm, and said, “Don’t worry, check me for traitors, so that they can kill so many people. There must be traitors, and they will be found out and cleaned up.”

Tu Feng and Jiang Ze suddenly realized.

“Yeah, it must be a traitor. Get rid of the traitor first. I’ll do it.” Jiang Ze said.

Lu Yang nodded and let Jiang Ze go.

Tu Feng said, “This is not the way. We have to find a chance to fight back, at least to improve the morale of the gang.”

Lu Yang shook his head and said, “It doesn’t make sense. We can only wait for the news of Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei. When will they be fully equipped and when will we start a war with the Bloodlust Alliance.”

“It can only be so.” Tu Feng said anxiously.

“Drip ~ Drip ~ Drip ~ Drip ~”

Lu Yang’s holographic projection space reminder sounded. This is a new feature of the game settings. Paying players can open a virtual space to project the player’s virtual shadow into the space for communication.

Lu Yang looked at the people in the group, namely the old man in the twilight, the dominance of the world, the thunder dragon, and the silk language.

Lu Yang clicked on, and a flash of light appeared in the virtual space. This is a virtual space similar to a conference room. Chi Du and Xiong Ba are sitting around a desk.

“Brother, here it is,” Chi dusk said.

“What’s the matter,” Lu Yang asked.

He asked with a stern expression: “I heard that the Bloodlust Alliance has launched a large-scale attack on you today. You have more than 4,000 casualties. Can you survive it? We need our help.”

Xiongba said: “We have discussed with each other, we will help you to send troops to contain them as a last resort, but the effect is not certain.”

Lu Yang said, “I thank you first. I am willing to help me at this time. However, it is not meaningful to send troops now. Instead, it exposes the relationship between the five of us. Continue to wait. I can live.”

Lei Long frowned and said, “I’m in Beifeng City. Although I don’t know what’s going on with you, it’s absolutely necessary. You can launch an attack in advance. I and Sisi have prepared for it.”

The wispy words said: “Handsome guy, we all listen to your arrangements.”

“Thank you,” Lu Yang said.

The old man in the twilight said, “It’s better to fight. I and Xiongba each transferred 20,000 to fight with you.”

Lu Yang still shook his head and said, “Wait a minute, I’ll be ready to contact you.”

Chi Mu and Xiong Ba and others looked at Lu Yang in surprise, they did not expect that Lu Yang could be so patient.

“Good luck.” Lei Long walked away with Lu Si, and he left after he bid farewell.

Lu Yang exited the room, and Tu Feng next to him asked, “Why didn’t you just move?”

“Just late, they and I were looking for me and asked if I need help.” Lu Yang said.

“They seem to be keeping the covenant. With their help, we can hold on for a while,” Tu Feng said.

Lu Yang smiled and shook his head, saying, “I didn’t ask them to help, it’s not the right time.”

Tu Feng froze and said excitedly: “Why don’t they take the initiative to help you, and then stop the bloodthirsty alliance, the guild is really over.”

Lu Yang patted Tu Feng’s shoulder and said, “With me, there will be nothing. Go and help Jiang Ze, and get rid of the traitor first.”

Lu Yang came outside the Spore Village, watching the fire method divided into 10 groups to practice simplified spells, and asked, “Who has questions, let’s continue the discussion.”

“Boss, I have a question.” A young mage raised his hand and asked.

Lu Yang looked at the other person, his eyes widened uncontrollably. The appearance of this person, Lu Yang couldn’t help asking, “What’s your name?”

“Boss, my name is Hei Yan.” Hei Yan said.

Lu Yang's head was like the thunder of five thunders. He never thought that he had accidentally signed the top fire method of the last life-the * of black flames.

He hurriedly looked at the contract, and when he saw that Hei Yan really signed a formal contract with him, he almost shouted with excitement.

"What's the problem," Lu Yang asked.

"I can use the spell of Pyroblast freely. I found that the spell of Flame Shock is similar to the one of Pyroblast. Just after I tried it, I almost used it, but I couldn't find the difference. Hei Yan said.

"I'll teach you, wait a minute." Lu Yang patted his palm and asked, "Who else can skillfully use Pyroblast."

The other 99 fire members were a little ashamed. Although they learned a day, they released 6 seconds, which was 1 second slower than the automatic mode. Only Heiyan could release it in 1 second.

Lu Yang said, "In the future, Hei Yan will be the head of the Guards of the Fire Guards. I will not be here and he will be responsible for everything."

Heiyan said in surprise: "Boss, I'm afraid I'm not capable."

"I believe in you," Lu Yang said.

How could the Heiyan Fa God of the previous life be inadequate, and furthermore, the Hei Yan Fa God is known for his loyalty, and Lu Yang knew his choice was right.

"Come with me, I will teach you other spells, by the way I will supplement you with some skill books, and you will sign a contract with me again ..." Say it in your hand.

In the evening.

Jiang Ze dialed Lu Yang's intercom, and said, "The internal gangsters are almost eliminated. It is unexpected that the bloodthirsty bully sent more than 30 internal gangsters to our guild. The most powerful ones have achieved the rank of squadron leader.

A squadron leader is responsible for coordinating the upgrading and fighting of 150 people on the same map.

Lu Yang said, "What are the reactions of players in the guild?"

Jiang Ze said: "Not so optimistic ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ The whole channel is full of sadness, and there are many people who resign from the conference. Today, more than 1,000 people left."

Lu Yang said, "Don't worry, just wait."

Inside the copy.

The turbid wine pouring, Xia Yuwei, the three males of Bai's family, half a bitter love and Sun Yu's face were anxious.

They are very clear about the things in the guild, but now they have no way to go out.

"Full output, this boss in seconds, we go to the next copy, the guild needs us, the boss is waiting for us." Zhuoju shouted.

The 39 players around him shouted in unison, each with a sadness on his face.

The first and second batches of 2,000 players have already completed the level 20 silver suit. Now these 2,000 players are helping the third batch of 1,000 players to play equipment under the leadership of Zhuoju and others. Player horse rises to level 20.

Time, everything depends on time.

Chapter 220 - War begins

Early the next morning.

After logging in to the game, Lu Yang returned to Spore Village and found that all 100 fire methods were already online.

Heiyan ran to Lu Yang and said, "Boss, you are here."

"It's early." Lu Yang said.

Hei Yan said with a smile: "We didn't go offline last night. The brothers worked hard for one night last night. Now there are 20 Masters who can reduce the release time of Pyroblast to 3 seconds."

All the players in the guild know that the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood has reached the point of life and death. Obviously, these 100 fire methods have been fought for the guild. Pyroblastism was originally difficult to learn, but they were all stimulated by their potential. Great improvement.

Perhaps this is why ordinary people can sometimes work wonders.

Lu Yang said, "Yes, keep working hard."

Hei Yan gave a cry, ran back and continued to practice with fire.

On the other side.

The Bloodthirsty Headquarters, the newly launched Bloodthirsty Battalion is watching the killing video recorded by his subordinates, and said with satisfaction: "Yes, the beautiful recording reflects the strength of my bloodthirsty alliance. Isn't the official video for battle? These 8 videos Pass them on and let them know that Lu Yang's final end. "

Yuba Bawang laughed and said, "With this video, Lu Yang's guild is over, and his name is completely stinky."

Bloodthirsty Batian said: "Not enough. Tell your men and keep killing me. I must force Lu Yang to fight a decisive battle with me. Doesn't he have a curse, and I have it?"

In the morning, noon, and afternoon, the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood Brotherhood was beaten up and down, and even the gates of the city of St. Gall did not dare to come out. The players of the Guild had nowhere to vent in the face of the provocation and anger of the Bloodlust Alliance in the square.

"People from the Jagged Brothers League come out, aren't you Jagged, come out if you have a seed, or call Lu Yang to come out and be able to pretend to be a grandson every day."

"Players in St. Gall's watch the video. The bloodthirsty alliance breaks the iron brotherhood alliance on various maps of the city. What iron brotherhood alliance is basically a soft-footed shrimp alliance."

The players of the Bloodthirsty League laughed wildly, the players of the Jagged Brothers League were extremely distressed, and a large number of players resigned. The original number of 70,000 people left only 20,000.

Inside the guild.

"Please don't conflict with the Bloodlust League for the time being, try to upgrade in the copy as much as possible. If you can get the attribute gems, you can redeem the guild points."

"For high-level players, bring players with low levels in the guild. At this time, we must be united, and we must not mess."

Jiang Ze and Tu Feng faced the inquiries of countless guild players and were dizzy. However, they still did not send a message to Lu Yang for help and tried their best to appease the angry players.

Spore village at night.

Hei Yan said excitedly: "Boss, the Fire Method Hundreds have completed the training and can reduce the release time of Pyroblast to 2 seconds."

Lu Yang nodded and didn't speak.

"Let's go play against the bloodthirsty people first, we can definitely kill a lot of bloodthirsty people."

Lu Yang shook his head and said, "It doesn't make sense."

"There are so many retired members in the guild. Our victory in this battle can raise a lot of morale and alleviate the difficulties of the boss Jiang Ze and the boss Tu Feng."

Lu Yang still shook his head and said, "Don't worry, as long as we win this battle, those who leave will return, but if you are exposed, let the already arrogant look down on our bloodthirsty alliance. All your efforts are in vain, you know. "

Hei Yan's actual age is only 16 years old, but she is very smart. Lu Yang immediately responded a little bit and said, "Boss, I understand. I will continue to take people to train."

Lu Yanggang nodded. At this moment, Zhuojiu poured out a call request to him.

"Boss, 3,000 people are assembled, we can go to war."

Lu Yang shook his fist firmly and said, "Very well, let Xia Yuwei, Bai Shixiong, half-loving half-life, and Sun Yu each take 600 people to sneak into the narrow mountains at the entrance of the Golan Heights. I will hide the details. The location was sent to each of you, and you took the remaining 600 people to the 20th level copy of Gutland. "

Gutland is only 20 minutes away from the narrow mountain. When Duzhuo pours in the map and understands, he says, "I'll go."

Turning off the intercom, Lu Yang stopped Hei Yan who was about to leave and said, "Order the Fireman Hundreds to gather."

"Boss, did you decide to hit it?" Hei Yan asked excitedly.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "You will know by then, go and do things first."

"Yes." Hei Yan ran out happily.

Lu Yang enters the virtual space and pulls in the old man, the male dominates the world, the thunder dragon, and the silk language.

"What's the matter?" Chi Mu asked.

Lu Yang said, "Just tonight, you are ready."

Xiongba said, "Brother, I'll wait for you. I'm almost waiting."

Everyone laughed.

Lu Yang said: "No way, my 3,000 talents are assembled. I am going to fight an ambush in the Bloodlust League. The man who killed me now is so cool that he must despise me."

Chi Mu said, "Okay, that's it. I'll go back and prepare with the three of you. Let us act and we'll go immediately."

Lu Yang said, "Okay, that's it, we'll give bloodthirsty domineering a profound lesson tonight."

The virtual space went dark, Lu Yang returned to the game world, flew back to the city of St. Gall using the return to the city, and then entered the teleporter.

...

Bloodthirsty Headquarters.

Bloodthirsty Batian is laughing and discussing the results of today's battle with a few men around him.

Yuxue Bawang ran over with a smile on his face and said, "Boss, good news, good news, our people found that Lu Yang's number one general, Duo Jiu, poured out on the level 20 map."

"What ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ The bloodthirsty bully stood up for a moment and asked excitedly:" Is there Lu Yang and those 1,000 people? "

Yuxuebawang opened the video projection. In the projection, a group of 600 players spread their cloaks and ran on the map. A group of monsters stopped on the road. When this group of players killed, one of the players' attacks showed a side face It is the muddy wine that pours itself.

"There are only these in the video. I did not see Lu Yang himself. According to our people's predictions, they are likely to go to the Gutland replica to upgrade their equipment." Yuxuebawang said.

"Gutland is a small old city. They don't want to break in easily. We have a chance to catch up."

"Boss, this is a good opportunity. The 600 people must be secretly playing equipment under Lu Yang's advice. If we catch these 600 people, Lu Yang will be completely finished."

Bloodthirsty Batian patted the table and said excitedly: "Order Ye Guxing to lead 5,000 people to chase me. Be sure to surround these 600 people and force Lu Yang to lead a large army to fight against me."

"Yes," Yuxue Bawang said.
