Chapter 2121 - The Battle of Returning to Yanshan (3)

The latest website: "Warriors of the Jagged Brotherhood, it's time for us to dedicate our lives for the race. Looking at the enemy ahead, they are them. They want to subdue our country and exterminate our nation, for our family and for our children to be able to return Living on the ground, the iron-blooded brotherhood." Lu Yang raised the snake-bone sword in his hand and shouted.

"Kill~!" 20,000 people shouted in unison, and everyone's face was full of blood.

This neat shout made the dark demons on the opposite side show their surprised expressions. They thought that humans were just a group of cowardly creatures, but they did not expect that they could explode with such courage. For a while, their morale was actually lost. Suppressed.

Lu Yang saw the change in the expression of the dark demon in front of him, he snorted, staring at Lorraine and said loudly, "Lorraine, your biggest failure is that your race has no armor, and the archer is ready."

Although the two armies are 100 meters apart, the range of the snakebone bow is 300 meters. If it shoots upwards, it can shoot more than 400 meters.

The tenth row is ready.

The leader of the ten rows of archers shouted almost in unison. Lu Yang pointed his right hand forward and shouted: “Elevation angle 45°, shoot~!”

“Om~!”

More than 4,000 archers shot the arrows in their hands at the same time, like a locust-like arrow rain, drew a beautiful parabola in the air, and landed precisely in the team of the dark demon.

A puff sounded, the dark demon’s side, countless members were shot by arrows, only a few powerful, like Lorraine-like dark demon, can hold up the protective shield, or react extremely fast, you can use the nail on the tip of the arm Fly the arrow.

Lorraine never imagined that the Jagged Brotherhood would have such a dense rain of arrows, because there are very few bows and arrows in another world. The strong either use spells or fight in close quarters, and the bows and arrows are used by the despicable. thing.

In yesterday’s battle, the number of people using bows and arrows in the Jagged Brotherhood was not large. When the nine hundred teams sent out to fight the Dark Demon, most of them were inadequate in shooting skills, mainly in close combat and spell attacks.

This created an illusion for Lorraine and the others, that among the members of the Jagged Brotherhood, there were only a few shooters, and most of them were close combat fighters and long-range mages.

Lorraine’s idea was to block this place and confront the people of the Jagged Brotherhood. The brave talents deserve the title of strong, and those who shrink back are the cowards.

But Lorraine had forgotten that the dark demons were famous cowards in another world. They came to the earth and saw that human beings were weak and small. At this time, they thought of honor, and thought of the joy of being strong, but they didn't know what human beings were. In thousands of years of evolution, in order to win wars, it's hard to say that bows and arrows, and there are countless more insidious killing weapons.

When one came down, Lorraine suffered a big loss, but he didn't take it too seriously, because the dark demon's powerful self-healing ability made them fearless of this kind of harm. But at this moment, countless hysterical and painful cries came from him. It came from behind.

Lorraine looked back and saw that countless dark demons had fallen to the ground, covering their wounds with painful expressions on their faces. After 3 seconds, they all fell to the ground and died.

"Let the arrow"

Lu Yang's roar came from a distance, and the second wave of arrows arrived. With the arm strength and reaction speed of the second-order fighters, he was able to achieve 5 arrows per second. However, for the sake of accuracy, Lu Yang asked them to reduce their rate of fire. , Carry out group shooting.

Lorraine watched the flying arrow rain and quickly used his arm to block it. In the chaos, he caught an arrow and looked at the sharp snake valley covered with venom on the front of the arrow. Lorraine showed a furious look on his face. Only then did he know that the bows and arrows of the Jagged Brotherhood were all poisoned.

"Despicable and shameless human beings, you not only use bows and arrows, but you also use toxins. What about your sense of honor? What about your human dignity?" Lorraine snarled at Lu Yang frantically, because, after these two waves of prison came down, behind Lorraine At least two or three thousand people died of the dark magic warrior.

Lu Yang stared at Lorraine and said, "Killing you is our greatest sense of honor. Archers let out arrows~!"

"Om~!"

The third wave of arrow rain arrived, and Lorraine showed a panic expression on his face. He quickly blocked the arrow rain. At the same time, he issued the final order and roared: “Dark Demon Legion, attack~!”

“Roar~!”

The remaining more than 20,000 dark demons heard the order to attack, and collectively roared towards the team of the Jagged Brotherhood.

This is Lorraine’s most helpless order, because more than 20,000 people are stuck in Taniguchi’s position. If he wants to run, it is too late. If he gives an order to escape, the number of people who died by trampling on himself will probably be more than the number of people killed in battle. There are more people, and once the order to retreat is issued, it will be difficult to organize the dark demons. He knew that Lu Yang would never give him this opportunity.

Now Lorraine can only fight to the death and use their “honor” to defend the glory of the dark demons, but when they charge, they know how wrong they are.

“Flame Storm”

“Lightning Storm”

“Earth Dragon Earthquake”

“Flame Rain”

The spells of the various schools instantly covered the 100 meters in front of the space, and the Dark Demon rushed into the spell area and suffered a tragic loss. They had no armor on their bodies and could only resist the spells with their skin.

If it is a first-order spell, the damage to them is not great. The human wizards that can release spells are all second-tier. There are a total of 1200 wizards hiding behind the first row of shield battles, although they are all crowded. However, their goal was achieved, deceiving Lorraine, thinking that there were only shooters in the front row of the Jagged Brotherhood and no wizards.

Lorraine was the first to charge, so he was also the first to be attacked by spells. In the face of countless spells, even Lorraine at the second-tier peak still fell under the attack of various spells. .

When the following Dark Demon rushed up and stepped on his body, he didn't even know that it was the elder of their Dark Demon clan that was stepping on him.

“Roar~!”

The dark demons were also aroused at this time, relying on their large numbers and strong personal strength, a large number of dark demons just rushed over.

At a distance of 200 meters, at their speed, it took 5 seconds. Soon, a large number of dark demons rushed to the front of the first row of shield battles, but just when the dark demons thought they could fight back.

Lu Yang commanded loudly: “Pike Team, attack~!”

The archers and the mages had already retreated from the front row to the back row at this time, and standing behind the shield battle at this time were countless Jagged Brothers soldiers armed with ironwood spears.

This special long spear is eight meters long, and the spear head is also made of snake bone. When the dark demons rushed to the shield battle at a distance of 10 meters, the shield fighters suddenly opened the shields, and three rows of second tiers holding long spears The soldier roared forward and charged.

“Kill~!” The muddy wine, the white lion, and the bitter love half a lifetime were all in steel armor, and they took the lead and rushed into the first row with a spear.

The dark demons had no idea that humans had such a way of playing, and they were stabbed through their bodies by eight-meter long spears.

After the dirty wine stabbed through one, he didn't stop. Instead, he continued to dash forward with the spear in his hand. He stabbed five people on his face. When the power in his hand was no longer able to support it, he dropped the spear in his hand. At the same time, with his left hand, he pulled out the snake-bone sword from his waist and attacked the Dark Demon.

The other spear fighters were also like turbid wine. After the number of dark demons on the spear exceeded 4, when they felt that their arms could not support them, they dropped the spears and drew out the snake-bone sword to slash forward.

Lu Yang was standing behind Shield Zhan. He was very satisfied with this attack. In just one spear charge, he killed at least 5,000 Dark Demons.

Chapter 2122 - Annihilate the Lorraine...

Latest website: The total number of Dark Demons under Lorraine was only 30,000. At the beginning of the war, at least 7,000 were killed by three waves of arrow rain. During the charge, three to four thousand were killed by the wizards. This time The charge killed another 5,000 or so.

At this time, the entire team of the Dark Demons seemed to have thinned out a lot, and if the number of people added together, there were only about 15,000 left.

Lu Yang felt a little settled in his heart. He knew that this victory would be no problem, and he commanded loudly, "The shooter should move to the hillside positions on both sides, and go!"

Xia Yuwei and the lovely queen quickly led 4000 shooters to the hillsides on both sides of Taniguchi. Although the Dark Demon and the Warriors of the Jagged Brotherhood had already fought together, there were still a large number of Dark Demon blocking behind and unable to attack. Forward attack.

Without Lu Yang's order, Xia Yuwei and the lovely queen immediately commanded their archers to attack these dark demons.

The Jagged Brothers warriors fighting on the front battlefield do not worry about being accidentally injured by arrows, because they wear a lot of beast bone armor, and some people wear heavy steel armor. Such armor is definitely replaced by ordinary people. Inconvenient movement, but to the second-order fighters, it is nothing at all.

At the peak of Tier 1, their strength reached 1,000 kilograms, and this armor was only more than 200 kilograms, and they didn't feel anything.

At this time, the advantage of heavy armor was manifested. The nails and bone spurs of the Dark Demon could not pierce the heavy steel armor at all. Instead, it was the snake-bone sword held by the heavy armored warrior in both hands. All targets that were hit were poisoned and killed.

“Red Night”

Lu Yang shouted, Hong Ye flew back from a high altitude in the distance, and suddenly dived down, Lu Yang jumped onto the dragon's head, and he directed Hong Ye to turn back in the air, towards the dark demon on the ground. The gathering place rushed over.

At a height of 50 meters on the ground, Hong Ye opened its huge mouth fiercely, and the crimson dragon's breath was more than 10 meters wide. During its dive flight, Hong Ye plowed the ground out of a 10-meter deep pit. During the period, all the dark demons that were swept by the dragon's breath turned into fly ashes.

The dark demons themselves are not a very intelligent race. Only a few dark demons who have passed through warped time and space, such as Mandin, Masca, and Lorraine, possess wisdom. Most of the other dark demons are created through parasites. , The intelligence is extremely low.

These dark demons with low intelligence will be first-class combat creatures. The order Lorraine gives them is to attack, and they only know to attack. Even in the face of such a desperate situation, they still resolutely implemented Lorraine's orders.

The soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood only killed the enemy with courage and anger at the beginning, but as the battle progressed, they found that the battle was extremely easy to kill. They hardly suffered any harm. The enemy's brainless charge, In their eyes, the head is sent, they only need to mechanically wield the snake-bone sword to kill a large number of enemies.

The battle lasted from morning to noon, and by 1 pm, the battle was over. 30,000 Dark Demons were wiped out by the Jagged Brotherhood, and the Jagged Brotherhood killed only 22 people and injured 247.

Lu Yang thought it was a * battle at first, but he didn't expect the final result to be like this. Standing in the middle of the valley, watching the 20,000 Jagged Brothers soldiers around him, he raised the Snake Bone Sword in his hand high and roared. : "We won~!"

"Win~!" 20,000 people shouted loudly, suppressing for more than a year, from the 3 million citizens of Donghai City retreated into the dungeon, and now they can fight back against the dark demons. Finally, they have the confidence to defeat Creatures in another world protect their hometown.

The smiling faces of the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood around Lu Yang said excitedly: "Everyone quickly rested. The war is not over yet, and there are two dark demon tribes waiting for us to kill."

"Oh~!"

There was hope in the voices of 20,000 people. They quickly sat on the ground and began to recover. Some people took out their food and began to eat, regardless of the corpses of the Dark Demon around them.

Lu Yang asked the logistics personnel who followed to gather the dead dark demons together, set them on fire, and the scorching smell filled the entire canyon.

Lu Yang took Zhuojiu and they came halfway up the mountain. From here, you could see the two roads from Heifeng Mountain and Tianjian Valley.

“Summarize the battlefield and talk about your respective situations.” Lu Yang looked at them and said.

“My brothers who died here are mainly alone on the battlefield. Although they are wearing heavy armor, a large number of dark demons rushed up, took down their armor, and killed them.” Zhuojiu said.

Xia Yuwei said: “The reason why the shooter on our side died was that when he was shooting on the hillsides on both sides, he was rushed to the front by the Dark Demon.”

The White Lion reproached himself and said: “My death is too violent. The front and back teams are out of touch.”

...

Several teams had deaths. After summing up, they found that the main reason was that they had too little experience on the battlefield, their experience was little, and the experience of their brothers was also little. Many people were on the battlefield for the first time, so they lost their eyes. Under the circumstances, the formation is forgotten.

Lu Yang and Zhuojiu had no choice but to mature in sacrifice, not only their brothers, but also them.

“Boom~Boom~Boom~Boom~!”

Suddenly the sound of war drums came from the road in the direction of Heifeng Mountain in the distance. Lu Yang turned his head fiercely and found that a large number of dark demons were rushing here.

In the direction of Tianjian Valley, a large number of dark demons could also be seen vaguely, rushing towards this side. Obviously, the other two dark demons had received information.

Although Hong Ye killed the dark war eagle sent by Lorraine, he did not find the dark magic sentry running on the ground with the help of the shadow of the forest. The two sentry sent to Masca and Mandin respectively to report the situation.

When Masca and Manding learned that Lorraine had been attacked, they quickly gathered the dark demons and drove them out of Heifeng Mountain and Tianjian Valley, and at the same time rushed towards Guiyan Mountain.

In the hearts of the two of them, they did not think that the Iron-Blood Brotherhood could defeat Lorraine's 30,000 dark demons. They didn't care too much about ordinary dark demons. What they thought was that as long as Lorraine could contain the Iron-Blood Brotherhood's The main force, the two copying from the side bread, will definitely be able to kill all these 20,000 human warriors.

Now, both Manding and Masca came to Guiyan Mountain with all the dark demons. Masca's distance was closer, only a little over an hour. After all, the distance between Heifeng Mountain was closer, and the distance between Manding was closer. About two hours.

On the way, the two have been using the dark war eagle to pass the news. When Mandin learned that Mascar had arrived first, he immediately ordered the dark war eagle to send the news back, saying: "Attack at full speed and block the way for humans to retreat. Arrived in an hour."

Like Manding, Mascar looked at the Guiyan Mountain ahead and roared: "Dark Demon, go forward~!"

30,000 Dark Demons rushed towards the Guguchi of Guiyan Mountain!

Chapter 2123 - Burning mouth

There was a sneer on Lu Yang's face. He looked at the dirty wine and the others and said, "Take the brothers to prepare. The direction should be that the dark demons from the Heifeng Mountain are going to block our back road, you guys. Assemble all the brothers and prepare to go to Taniguchi to fight. I will block the enemy coming from the direction of Tianjiangu.

From Heifeng Mountain to Guiyan Mountain, one must take the road of Wangtian Valley, and Tianjian Valley to Guiyan Mountain can only take the road of Deshengkou.

These two places are the flattest areas around them, and they are also the closest roads to Guiyan Mountain suitable for large troops to travel.

Long before Lu Yang attacked and returned to Yanshan, he had studied how Heifeng Mountain and Tianjiangu came to support him, and the way to deal with it was very simple.

At the very beginning, Lu Yang's thought was that the 20,000 people he brought could kill all the dark demons of Lorraine in Yanshan with a battle damage of less than 5,000, and he would dare to face the black wind mountain. Masca tribe.

But the result is that the Jagged Brotherhood only lost 22 people and slightly injured more than 200 people. In this way, he would be more confident to kill the more than 30,000 dark demons under Mascar.

As for how to block the enemy from the direction of Tianjiangu, Lu Yang had already made preparations. He patted his chest and shouted:

“Red Night”

A ripple flashed, and Hong Ye flew out of the Demon Temple on his chest. His 2-meter-long body quickly became 10 meters-long, and it landed beside Lu Yang. At the same time, he lowered and revealed it, clinging to the ground.

Lu Yang leaped to the top of Hong Ye's head, and controlled Hong Ye to fly in the direction of Death's Mouth. On the other side, Zhuojie and others ran down the mountain quickly and gathered the team.

The reason for the name Seolinkou is that this place was once the place where the generals of the Tang Dynasty fought in battle, and tens of thousands of enemies were slaughtered here. Therefore, although it is a jungle with a flat terrain, it is named like this.

Manding was running at the forefront with a grim expression. The 40,000 dark demons lined up in a line of 50 behind him, and they ran forward quickly following Manding. Although the sun was scorching, the dark demons did not slow down a bit.

When Lu Yang controlled Hong Ye to fly to the middle of Death's mouth, he happened to meet Manding who came to support him. In an instant, Manding ordered the Dark Demon to prepare for battle. He thought Lu Yang had brought someone here. He is coming to ambush.

Hong Ye hovered in the air twice, and finally stopped 50 meters above Manding's head. Lu Yang looked down at Manding, who was baring his teeth, and said loudly, "Manding, this time fortune telling. Great, you can run away, remember, next time I will kill you myself."

Manding raised his head, looked at Lu Yang sarcastically, and said with his mouth full of teeth: "Your Jagged Brotherhood is about to die. You even want to deceive me. It doesn't make any sense."

Lu Yang sneered and said, "You guessed wrong. Don't think about how your Dark Demon can withstand the fighters of my Jagged Brotherhood. All the 30,000 Dark Demon in Lorraine have been killed by me. Now I am going to get it. Masca and his 30,000 Dark Demon soldiers are dead, and there is no time to take care of you, so if you are fortune-telling, you have escaped."

Manding laughed and said, "How can you kill Lorraine's 30,000 dark demons? It's impossible."

Lu Yang took out an arrow coated with Hydra Emperor venom from the Demon God's space and threw it towards Manding.

The white snake bone arrow fell extremely fast, but Manding was a Tier 3 master, and easily held the white bone arrow shaft in his hand. The smell of snake venom instantly made Manding feel nauseous, and he threw the snake bone arrow. When he got to the side, he cursed: "You want to attack me even with this strength?"

Lu Yang showed a look of contempt, and said: "Okay, this is a snake bone arrow, coated with snake venom that can kill you, my 20,000 men, everyone's weapons are coated with snake venom, so, Lorraine's All of the 30,000 dark demons died."

Manding looked at Lu Yang in shock, with a face full of disbelief, and said: "Impossible, if you have the strength to wipe out me, how can you tell me this? Don't want to delay time and block my way. I won't be fooled. of."

As soon as the voice fell, a black ray of bone spear appeared in Manding's hand, but as long as Lu Yang did not fall, the bone spear would not be able to hit it at all. Moreover, Lu Yang still had a three-eyed magic flower on his body, and vines sticking out. , Can instantly disintegrate the power of the bone spear.

Lu Yang stared at Manding and said, "I don't want to tell you this secret. Unfortunately, there are too few people under me. There are only 20,000 people. I can only deal with 30,000 dark demons at a time. Therefore, I must stop you here, and then destroy the dark demons under Mascar."

Suddenly, Wang Shijie emerged from the middle of the Dark Demon and pointed at Lu Yang and cursed: "You are delaying time, Manding, don't listen to him, hurry through the team, it is not suitable to stay here."

Manding suddenly woke up, but Lu Yang smiled and said, "It's late, there should be five seconds left. Enjoy the power of human-made weapons."

As soon as the voice fell, the sound of breaking through the air in the distance was heard. Suddenly hundreds of unidentified objects with white cigarette tails flew over from the direction of Dong'an County in the clear blue sky.

They took a graceful parabola and landed on the high mountain that connected to the Guiyan Mountain behind Lu Yang's Death Mouth. In an instant, countless white powder covered the trees. In less than a second, it was blazing white. The light made the stunned Manding close his eyes uncontrollably.

Flames, white flames, and the entire mountain behind Lu Yang was lit by white flames. This is the power of human weapons. In the autumn season and the scorching sun, the vegetation all over the mountain is in a dry state. Mars can cause wildfires, not to mention attacks of this degree.

Lu Yang looked back at the whole mountain that was igniting the raging fire. He then looked at the stunned Manding, Wang Shijie and others, and said with cold eyes: "Hide it, kill all of Mascar's men, it's his turn. You guys, Mandin, you * it."

After speaking, Lu Yang controlled Red Night to fly high into the sky and flew towards the mouth of Guiyan Valley. There, Zhuojiu, White Lion and others, should be about to collide with Mascar's 30,000 dark demons. Up.

Manding looked at the fire in front of him in shock. His eyes were bloodshot. On the one hand, he was furious, on the other hand, he was frightened. He was completely unable to guess the meaning of Lu Yang's words.

In another world, strength is everything, and the result of strength is that in a frontal battle, the strong don't need to talk nonsense, just do it, but Lu Yang's words are full of calculations, and he can't figure it out.

Especially in this fire, he didn't even know what Lu Yang's intention was. He looked back at Wang Shijie and roared, "Tell me, what exactly does Lu Yang mean?"

Wang Shijie looked worriedly at Lu Yang who was flying away in the distance, and said to Manding, "We may be caught."

"What do you mean?" Manding forced his roar and asked with a violent breath.

Wang Shijie couldn't understand exactly what Lu Yang meant. It stands to reason that the purpose of such a fire was to prevent Manding from taking people to support him, but Lu Yang said that he had killed all the 30,000 dark demons in Lorraine, and now Wang Shijie didn't believe in the 30,000 dark demons who were going to kill Mascar.

The same was true for Tao Ran and others. They didn't understand the analysis, but if they couldn't help Manding solve the problem at this time, Manding would look down on them even more, and even thought they were Lu Yang's accomplices. When several people were lost, Xue Ren took the risk. Came out and said weakly: "I know what's going on."

At this time, Xue Renyi was separated from death, that is, a thin line away. Lorraine's sentry passed the original words to Manding, and determined that Xue Renyi was a spy.

Manding worried about Lorraine's situation, and while pulling Xue Renyi with a car along the way, he used dark spells to torture Xue Renyi, forcing him to tell the truth.

Xue Renyi has the brand of loyalty. No matter how Manding tortured, he can't tell any news about Lu Yang. Moreover, Xue Renyi's own willpower is extremely tenacious. No matter how Manding tortured, just doesn't admit that it is a spy.

Wang Shijie, Tao Ran and others didn't believe that Xue Renyi was a spy. They have been saying good things for Xue Renyi along the way. Manding has never seen anyone who can withstand the torment of a dark spell without telling the truth. Now he is gradually believing it. After Xue Renyi was not a spy, he asked, "Say, what's the matter?"

Xue Renyi was almost unable to speak at this time. After Tao Ran gave Xue Renyi a sip of water, Xue Renyi breathed well and said, "This must be Lu Yang's strategy, which is to delay the speed of your support. As for Lorraine's 30,000 people may really have died.

If Lu Yang had a large amount of venom, Lorraine would definitely not be able to hold it by shooting with a bow and arrow. For the same reason, Masca could not hold it, but the problem was that there were few people in Lu Yang, and only 20,000 people could participate in the battle. , His purpose here is to excite the future, so that you have to wait for the flame to extinguish before going over. At that time, Lu Yang can attack us with someone. "

"Nonsense." Manding never believed Xue Renyi's words. If it weren't for Xue Renyi to be happy, he really wanted to punch Xue Renyi, looked at the few dark demon leaders behind him, and said: "Look for other roads around. fast."

"Yes." Several dark demon leaders nodded at the same time, each led his subordinates, and ran towards the surroundings.

But their actions are meaningless. All the passages from the mouth of death to Guiyan Mountain, even on the steep slopes, are full of blazing fires.

This flame spreads for more than ten kilometers, and the trees will never be stopped unless the trees are burned. This will take at least five or six hours, or even more than ten hours. The dark demons can't find their way at all. If you go to Guiyan Mountain, it will take at least 10 hours.

Chapter 2124 - Return to Yanshan again

“Roar~!”

Mandin was anxious to know the specific situation of Lorraine and Mascar, and roared in a hurry, and ran towards the farther mountain where there was no flame.

His speed is very fast, the mana of the third-order dark demons is more than ten times stronger than the ordinary second-order dark demons.

Shutting through the woods, with the help of the power of the shadows, he appeared hundreds of meters away in the blink of an eye, and his subordinates were all thrown far behind him.

When Lu Yang was flying in the air, he saw Manding running fast. For a moment, he wanted to kill Manding solo. With his current strength, Hong Ye and the Three Eyes Magic Flower were there to kill Man. It's not impossible for Ding, but Lu Yang weighed it repeatedly before giving up.

The 20,000 brothers are about to fight * battles with Mascar's 30,000 dark demons. He is really worried about the battlefield there, and he must sit down in person.

“Manding, I won’t let you live for too long.” Lu Yang glanced at the black shadows quickly moving through the forest below, and controlled Hong Ye to accelerate towards the entrance of the Guiyan Valley.

The Red Night flies fast, and it takes 10 minutes to return from the mouth of the deadly to the mouth of the Guiyan Valley. When he returns, he can see from the air that Mascar’s Dark Demon Legion is still fast in the area half an hour away. run.

When he returned to the mouth of Guiyan Valley, Zhuojiu and White Lion were bringing the 20,000 soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood into a fast array.

“The shield war is standing in front.”

Because of the sudden arrival of the enemy, although the 20,000 soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood had practiced many times before, this was the first time they encountered this sudden situation in actual combat. After all, there was a panic.

When Lu Yang controlled the red night to fall, he saw that the front row of shield battles had been assembled, and 400 warriors holding big shields with beast heads were standing in a row on the flat ground at the mouth of the valley.

The warriors and members of the wizard squad who were holding the snake-bone gun were also hiding behind them, and the archers holding the snake-bone bow were quickly arraying on the gentle hillsides on both sides of the valley.

When Lu Yang fell, Zhuojiu, Baishi and others ran in front of him, Zhuojiu said, “Boss, you can complete the lineup in 20 minutes.”

The white lion clenched his fist and said excitedly: "Boss, let me take the lead this time, I will kill Mascar's 30,000 dark demons."

"And me." Kuai Bansheng and Zhou Tianming were also eager to try.

Bao Buping and Zhao Cheng also rushed to say with excitement: "This time we have to let our two brothers take the lead. We can't always be behind."

In an instant, the few people were about to quarrel, and Lu Yang was a little moved. The first one was no different from death, but these people were still fighting. It was obvious that they were all brothers willing to sacrifice their lives for each other.

Lu Yang looked at them with a smile and said, "Stop arguing. You are not allowed to lead the battle in this battle. We have to change our style of play."

"Change your style of play?" Bao Buping's arguing face was red, and he shook his fan vigorously and asked, "What do you mean?"

Lu Yang said: "Mascar's army of dark demons is still half an hour away, do you know? Mascar did not send sentries, that is to say, his army rushed forward as a whole, and no one found the way in advance. ."

Zhao Cheng asked confusedly: "What does that represent?"

Lu Yang sneered and said, "That means we can fight an ambush."

"Ambush?" Everyone was even more confused.

Xia Yuwei instantly understood Lu Yang's meaning, and said excitedly: "It stands to reason that Mascar has absolutely no knowledge of the battle situation on Lorraine's side. Therefore, according to Mascar and others, Lorraine's 30,000 dark demons Even if we can't beat us, it will definitely drag us into Guiyan Mountain. We can lie in wait at the mouth of the valley, right?"

Lu Yang nodded.

Everyone's eyes lit up, and Zhuojiu quickly asked, "Boss, what are we going to do? Is it too late to change the formation?"

Lu Yang looked at the two wings and said with a smile: "Basically, there is no need to change. Order everyone to lie on the ground and hide in the grass. All the wounded soldiers sit on the ground and rest, making the enemy think that there is still fighting in the valley and the wounded are behind. Resting."

Muojiu and White Lion understood in an instant, they quickly gave orders to their men. For a while, the Jagged Brothers archers on the gentle slopes on both sides of the valley mouth lay their bodies on the ground. The 30 cm tall grass was perfect. Covered their figure.

Zhuojiu and White Lion looked around, even if they looked closely, they couldn't see the figure, and suddenly they all became excited.

"Get down, shield war, spear and wizard all get down, the wounded sit on the ground to rest." Zhuojiu, White Lion and others lowered their voices, and commanded as they ran past them.

There were more than 200 wounded Jagged Brothers fighters. They didn't need to act, they just sat on the ground. They were all melee fighters, all covered with the blood of the Dark Demon and their own blood.

Lu Yang glanced around. At this moment, at the valley mouth of this valley, except for him and Zhuojiu and others, there was no one in sight. There was no one in the grass. He nodded in satisfaction and said, "Not bad, now it's the last item."

"What's worse?" White Lion asked curiously.

Lu Yang said, "The screams from the mouth of the valley, without this, how could Mascar be so easily fooled."

“I sent someone to shout in the valley.” Zhuojiu said immediately, but he thought about it, then frowned and said, “There is no dark demon’s scream.”

Lu Yang smiled, and took out a set of photography equipment and speakers from the Demon Temple, and said, “This is all you need. When you were fighting just now, I used the three-eyed magic flower on a nearby mountain to place this. The whole process of a war is recorded. As long as I play it out in the valley with speakers, there will be no problem.”

Xia Yuwei looked at the full set of audio equipment Lu Yang had brought out without a word, and said, “Boss, you are really a combination of work and rest. You even brought a set of audio.”

Lu Yang laughed and said, “The last time I went to the wealthy area to kill the Spirit King, it was captured, and it has been kept. Now I only need a Lei Master to provide a stable current.”

He looked around and shouted: “Nanfeng Zhiyi, come here.”

Nanfeng Zhiyi, one of the Forbidden Magic Masters who followed Lu Yang from the beginning of the game, and after the great changes in the world, was also the first group of fighters to enter the Mage Corps. Although she was a girl, she was very strong.

“You are here to provide a stable 220V current. Be sure to keep it stable and don’t damage this set of speakers.” Lu Yang said.

Nan Feng Zhiyi couldn’t help but rolled his eyes and said, “Oh, boss.”

Lu Yang laughed. He knew that Nanfeng Zhiyi wanted to fight, but now Nanfeng Zhiyi’s role was much greater than fighting.

Nanfeng Zhiyi also knew the significance of this incident, so he called two soldiers and helped him run into the valley with the speaker. Not long after, overwhelming shouts of killing came from the valley.

Chapter 2125 - Kill the Musca Department

The valley was surrounded by cliffs, which played a very good blocking effect, and the sound finally passed in the direction of Taniguchi.

Mascar was running at full speed on the grassy road with more than 30,000 dark demon army, and he was almost at the Taniguchi position.

I heard the killing cry from the valley ahead, especially the roar of a large number of dark demons, which made Mascar's fierce face show a more excited expression, he grinned and showed his mouth full of fangs. Waving the animal bones in his hands, he shouted: "Lorraine is waiting for our rescue, moving forward at full speed."

"Roar~!" The dark demons also heard the shouting and roared, and ran forward at a faster speed.

Although there is no shadow to provide them with shuttle, but with a strong body, the dark demons run extremely fast, and can run 5 meters away in one step.

The ground around them shook because of their running, and the Jagged Brothers soldiers lying in ambush at Taniguchi lay on the ground, and in an instant they felt the enemy approaching.

Lu Yang took Hong Ye back into the Demon Temple. He also lay on the ground, beside Shield Fight. Seeing a large number of dark demons running from a distance, he could see the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood. They all squeezed the spear in their hands.

"Don't worry, let them be close." Lu Yang said in a low voice.

The soldiers around nodded their heads and passed Lu Yang's orders to both sides, while Xia Yuwei and half a lifetime of bitter love hiding on the hillsides on both sides received the instructions through the phone on their arms.

500 meters

When the dark demons ran to a distance of 100 meters, Masca took the lead and found members of the Jagged Brotherhood sitting on the ground disguised as seriously wounded.

“No, the reinforcements of the Dark Demon are here, go and report to the boss.” More than 200 wounded soldiers rushed towards the valley, staggering and extremely slow.

Originally, when they jumped up and escaped, they wanted to speed up, but they found that they were surrounded by brothers, and they could only run while looking for no one’s landing spot, and the speed slowed down.

Masca saw more than 200 people running into the valley, and saw that they were all * with bandages, and their bodies were covered with blood and the blood of the Dark Demon. In an instant, Masca guessed that these people were wounded soldiers. See how these people are running.

“Warriors of the Dark Demon, the whole army will attack, follow me into the valley and kill all human beings.” Mascar roared excitedly, and rushed towards the valley first.

“Roar~!”

The dark demons screamed frantically, and as Mascar ran forward, the black spikes on the front of their arms were exposed.

Mascar is the fastest. He is the peak of Tier 2. It is faster than the average dark demon to go to the first level. Other dark demon can jump 5 meters in one step, and he can jump 8 meters. In a blink of an eye,

Masca He rushed to a position only 10 meters away from the nearest injured member of the Jagged Brotherhood.

But when he landed and wanted to run two more steps to pierce the wounded member of the Jagged Brotherhood from behind, suddenly, in the grass around him, countless humans stood up.

The moment the four spears pinched Mascar to the ground, they stabbed Mascar's chest and abdomen at the same time. This person was no one else but Zhuojiu, White Lion, Zhou Tianming and Zhao Cheng.

The venom from the tip of the snake bone gun entered Masca's blood when the tip of the gun penetrated Masca's body. In an instant, the venom destroyed Masca's body tissues, and Masca did not react. The remaining horrified eyes looked at the four of them.

"Iron-Blood Brotherhood, kill~!" Lu Yang shouted, and the forbidden curse meteors that had been prepared for a long time were released, and a huge enchantment broke through the sky. A giant scarlet meteorite with a diameter of 50 meters was carried with him. The piercing sound of the air slammed heavily on the position of the 30,000 dark demons in the army.

"Kill~!" The soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood stood up almost at the same time, rushing towards the Dark Demon Legion with their spears in their hands.

400 people in a row, just like stringing, an 8-meter long spear was strung with at least 4 dark demons. As in previous battles, when the soldiers could not bear the number of dark demons, they discarded the long spears. Pulling out the snake bone sword in his hand, he fought close to the dark demon.

"Archer, shoot~!" Xia Yuwei and Kuai gave orders at the same time on the hillsides on both sides of the valley.

The 4000 archers on both sides fired their bows and fired arrows. They didn't need to aim at all. At this time, the Dark Demon Legion had already made a mess, and Mascar was the first to die. No one was able to direct them to respond. Without the formation, now the front and both wings were attacked. They had no idea what to do, only the instinctive counterattack was left.

"Roar~!"

A dragon chant sounded, and Hong Ye jumped out of Lu Yang's Demon God Temple, regaining his 10-meter-long body and stopped in the air at a height of 4 meters.

Lu Yang jumped over to the dragon's head and commanded: "Dragon's breath~!"

Hong Ye fluttered his wings and flew forward. When he came to the middle section of the Dark Demon, he opened a huge mouth, and a 10-meter-wide crimson dragon's breath that was like magma was sprayed out by him.

The dragon's breath hit the ground and hit an abyss nearly 10 meters wide, and all the dark demons sprayed by the dragon's breath turned into fly ash.

This is the strength of the third-order dragon. It completely crushes the second-order creatures. After a dragon's breath, at least two thousand dark demons have died. In addition to the initial ambush, at least 10,000 dark demons have died.

From a high altitude, the Dark Demon had no formation, and only the most primitive killing instinct remained, but facing the steel armor of the Jagged Brothers fighters, their spikes had no effect.

If the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood were still rookies in the previous battle with Lorraine, they are now mature battlefield veterans.

Death forced them to mature quickly, the mistakes made in the last battle, and this battle, they are trying to avoid them.

Every group of five fighters, everyone attacked forward synchronously. The shield fights in front of the wizard to ensure that they can release the spells smoothly. The archers on both sides have more accurate shooting skills. Every wave of arrows can be taken away. Hundreds or even thousands of dark demons.

Gradually, the number of dark demons dropped sharply from 20,000 to 10,000. When the number reached 5,000, the dark demons showed a look of fear. It was a sense of fear that made them feel ashamed. They actually feared human beings.

Facing the pressing humans, facing the snake bone sword and snake bone gun in their hands, as well as the snake bone bow and arrow in the distance, they were crushed and killed by the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood like a poor bug. .

They didn't dare to fight anymore. They wanted to run away if they didn't want to die. They didn't know which dark demon made the first horrified roar. Then, the remaining thousands of dark demon wailed and ran away when they came. .

How could Lu Yang let them run away at this time, shouting from high in the sky: "Whole the enemy, you can't let any of them go, chase~!"

Zhuo Jiu, White Lion and others took their brothers to hunt down the Dark Demon. They all knew that they could not let go of this Dark Demon. If they were to get together with Manding, the next battle would be Face 5,000 more dark demons.

If you can reduce the number of enemies as much as possible, kill them as much as possible. In the next battle, they or their brothers will have fewer casualties.

As Lu Yang was chasing him to kill, a malicious attack came in the distance. Lu Yang looked to his side fiercely. A white bone spear wrapped in black and purple energy shot towards the abdomen of the giant dragon under him. In the middle, Hong Ye will not die and will be seriously injured.

"Three Eyes Magic Flower"

Just as Lu Yang shouted, several vines with thick arms shot out from Lu Yang's body, forming a giant net 20 meters away from Hong Ye's body.

The bone spear penetrated the giant net in an instant, but at that instant, when the vines shattered, countless filaments broke out, firmly entangled the bone spear, and continuously slowed the speed of the bone spear.

In the end, the bone spear stopped 10 meters in front of Hong Ye's body, and along with the corroded vines, it fell into the valley below.

Lu Yang looked in the direction of the bone spear. It was on the top of a mountain not far away that hadn't burned. Manding stared at Lu Yang with ferocious eyes and roared at Lu Yang, the second white bone. The spear is taking shape.

"Human, you have to pay for your actions." Manding roared frantically.

He just ran here, and he has already seen the situation clearly. Lorraine's 30,000 dark demons have all been killed, and only a few thousand of the 30,000 dark demons of Mascar have been killed. And, they They were all stunned and ran away in front of humans.

Manding has never considered humans, but now, his race, his most proud ethnic warrior, exposed his back to humans and chose to escape shamelessly in front of him. He could not forgive Lu Yang. This must be repaid with blood.

Lu Yang stared at Manding and ordered Hongye to fly towards Manding. The distance between the two was getting closer and closer. When it was only 50 meters, Lu Yang looked at Manding's eyes and said: "The mountain fire will meet. It will be extinguished at this time tomorrow, and be prepared. I will kill all of your 40,000 dark demons."

"Roar~!"

The red night spurted a flame of fire, Manding did not dare to catch the flames of the red night, and hurriedly jumped to avoid it. threw a second bone spear at Luyang at the same time. Unfortunately, he was still caught by the three-eyed magic flower The vines blocked it and did not cause any harm.

Lu Yang stroked his chest, very satisfied with the three-eyed magic flower hiding there, and said to Hong Ye: "The time has come for revenge, chase Manding, I want him to fear us."

"Roar~!"

Hong Ye roared again and flew in the direction of Manding's escape. The dragon's breath was continuously sprayed along the way, and Manding ran away frantically.

The two chased and fled and ran over several high mountains. Until the dark demon under Manding came to meet him, Lu Yang controlled Hong Ye to turn around and leave, leaving only one sentence: "Remember, I will tomorrow Attack Tianjian Valley and prepare for the extinction of the race."

Manding was panting violently at this time, and there was no trace of the arrogance he had before. He looked at Lu Yang who was flying away, and said to the dark demons beside him: "The whole army retreats, we retreat to the deepest part of Qianfeng Mountain. "

Chapter 2126 - Flower Demon

The Dark Demon Legion under Manding naturally fully implemented Manding's orders, but Wang Shijie, Tao Ran and others who had been thinking of counterattack the dungeon were also nearby.

When Wang Shijie saw Manding's state, he felt something was wrong, and he asked quickly: "Where are Lorraine and Masca? Why are we running away? Don't you care about them? The wildfire will be extinguished in a few hours. "

"Roar~!"

Manding let out a furious rage, showing his mouth full of fangs, staring at Wang Shijie and said, "Masca and Lorraine are all dead, and all the 60,000 dark demons under them are also dead. Xue Renyi was right. Lu Yang was right. He's tricking me into attacking, so he can take this opportunity to get rid of me. I can't stay here anymore. I want to withdraw. If you don't leave, stay here."

In a few more hours, the mountain fire will be extinguished, and one more, Manding and the others cannot extinguish the fire. It does not mean that Lu Yang is unable to extinguish the fire. There are a lot of water wizards in the Jagged Brotherhood. It is not difficult, or let the fire mage accelerate the burning, or you can let the wildfire burn as soon as possible.

In Manding's view, after the fire was over, Lu Yang would lead an army of the Iron-Blooded Brotherhood to chase and kill him. If he didn't run quickly, the 40,000 dark demons under him would really be extinct.

Wang Shijie stared blankly at the fire on the mountain in the distance, and said in horror, "Is Lu Yang so powerful?"

Manding ignored him, and quickly ran towards Tianjian Valley with the Dark Demon. He was going to run through Tianjian Valley and into a deeper area. On the way, he had not forgotten to take Xue Renyi away. , Because Xue Renyi was able to find the source of water. For those who are not familiar with the geography of the world, it is very important for them to have such a person, besides, this person was also frightened by the dark spell, which is easy to control.

Xue Renyi thought he was going to die this time, but he did not expect that he would survive at the last moment. Moreover, it was Manding's guards who carried Xue Renyi on his back. Xue Renyi thought about the reason after a little analysis. understood.

Mainly because the analysis he just conducted for Manding was all right. Manding is not a particularly smart person. He needs someone to analyze things for him. Xue Renyi has a dark curse on him and will always be Manding's slave, so, Xue Renyi is also a very suitable candidate, and he tortured Xue Renyi for so long before, and now he needs to relax the relationship.

Xue Renyi also wanted to know where Manding would escape, so he went down the * without complaining too much.

Wang Shijie and others need to rely on the Dark Demon, and they can only run with them. Soon, even a Dark Demon can't be seen in the area of the mouth of death.

Lu Yang controlled Hong Ye and flew high in the sky, clearly watching the 40,000 dark demons escape, which made him relieved that he knew that the plan specified by himself and Xue Renyi had succeeded.

In fact, if Manding took 40,000 dark demons to attack at all costs after the wildfire was extinguished, Lu Yang could not stop him, because the snake venom was gone.

Wanwan fought two decisive battles with snake venom, each lasting several hours, during which they used snake venom countless times, and their snake venom was basically exhausted.

Without Lu Yang's intimidation and Xue Renyi's analysis, Manding would do his best to fight the Iron-Blood Alliance. At that time, the only thing Lu Yang could do was to bombard with heavy weapons, but the dungeon had ammunition. There was a slight improvement, but he didn't want to be exhausted just like that.

The Dark Demon ran away, and within a short period of time, it would not be able to reproduce more. As long as there is a month's time, when the toxin of the Hydra Emperor is enough for a war, he will launch a general attack on Manding. At that time, Man Ding and his 40,000 dark demons will undoubtedly die.

It's a pity that Lu Yang had a good idea, but this time Manding was stunned by Lu Yang. After the 40,000 Dark Demon was brought back to Tianjian Valley by him, he didn't have any stay, and continued to flee into the mountains, and even ran away. At the top of Tianjian Valley, the three-eyed magic flower clone could not see further.

Lu Yang controlled Hong Ye to chase all the way. After Tianjiangu took back the clone of the Three-Eyed Demon Flower, he continued to fly towards the east side of Tianjian Valley, and flew until night before catching up with the Dark Demon. Time dark demons, moving faster in the dark, with the help of the power of the shadows, disappeared in front of Lu Yang in the blink of an eye.

Under the dark night, Lu Yang could only use the faint moonlight to see countless dark shadows running fast in the forest. He could not keep up, and he did not dare to fly at low altitude. The night was dark magic. The world, if flying at low altitude, it would be embarrassing to be shot by a bone spear.

He can only control the return of Red Night, and if he wants to find the Dark Demon, the only way is to put his hope in Xue Renyi.

Xue Renyi is also dazed now. He didn't expect that Lu Yang scared Manding into this way. He ran out of Dong'an County for more than 10 hours. He didn't even stop. He didn't want to be taken by Manding to other cities. Go, then his contact with Lu Yang will be cut off.

"Patriarch Manding, we can stop." Xue Renyi said.

Manding ran by Xue Renyi's side. On the way, his relationship with Xue Renyi had eased a lot. He said, "You can't stop, if you stop, Lu Yang will definitely chase him down."

Xue Renyi shook his head and said, "No, our running distance is fast, but humans are slow. We have all run for more than 10 hours. Humans need at least 20 hours or even longer."

With the current strength of the Jagged Brotherhood, they absolutely dare not leave the dungeon for one night. We are already very safe. "

"Why?" Manding didn't want to run anymore. Now he didn't know where he went, he didn't know what enemies were around him, and his heart was also scared.

Xue Renyi analyzed: "Think about it, around the dungeon, there are not only our dark demons, but also the flower demons and the sea demons. If the Jagged Brothers go out for a day and night, what should I do if the dungeon is attacked?"

Manding slowed down and raised his hand to signal everyone to stop. He looked at Xue Renyi with satisfaction and said, "Your words are very reasonable."

Wang Shijie ran by his side and couldn't help asking: "What should we do now?"

Xue Renyi said: "Let's find a place to rest first, and then we should take the initiative to contact the Flower Demon and the Sea Demon."

Manding suddenly showed his fangs and said grimly: "It is absolutely impossible for me to bow to the sea monster and the flower monster."

Xue Renyi smiled and said, "It is not to let you bow your head to them, but to draw hatred to the Flower Demon and Sea Demon, and let Lu Yang encircle and suppress the two of them. When the three of them suffer heavy casualties, you are carrying darkness. The Demon Legion attacked the East China Sea Dungeon. At that time, your race could multiply in large numbers, and you will be the master of this world."

Manding's expression became excited again, and he looked at Xue Renyi with satisfaction and said, "This method is good, but how can we let Lu Yang take someone to attack the Flower Demon?"

Xue Renyi thought for a while, and said, "There are two ways, one is to wait. We have already reached such a far place, and Lu Yang dare not chase him, so naturally he will think of trouble with the other two."

Manding shook his head and said, "The speed is too slow."

Xue Renyi continued: "The second method is that you may have to face some dangers. It is best if you go to the area of the Flower Demon in person. Lu Yang will definitely set up a monitoring point in the area around the Flower Demon. In the past with great fanfare, Lu Yang will find out, and then think that the dark demon and the flower demon will cooperate, and they will definitely be anxious to know the flower demon."

Manding's blood-red eyeballs showed a cunning expression. This is the basis for Manding and their survival in another world. At this time, he has once again abandoned the honor and chose to live in the human world by the method of survival in the other world.

"I will go to the Flower Demon area myself." Manding said.

Xue Renyi breathed a sigh of relief. As long as Manding did not counterattack humans, he would have done a great job, and now there is only the problem of passing news to Lu Yang. He couldn't help but look at Wang Shijie and said, "God. So, we still have many believers in the East China Sea. Can we take this opportunity to rescue them?"

Wang Shijie frowned and asked, "How to save it?"

Xue Renyi said: "This time the Jagged Brotherhood returns to the East China Sea, they must first withdraw their troops from Dong'an County, or they will rest in Dong'an County for one night before returning to the dungeon. After all, the distance between the two sides is only a few hours, and there are still more in Dong'an County. Many materials are useful for underground cities."

If we send people back to the dungeon now, we must be able to return to the dungeon from the vent, and then save our believers before the Jagged Brotherhood returns tomorrow. "

Wang Shijie showed an expression of emotion. Even Manding felt that the idea was good. Sending a large army over will definitely not escape the supervision of the Jagged Brotherhood. It seems that a small number of people will be sent back, especially Wang Shijie and Tao Ran. They can definitely bring out a large number of them. Humanity.

These so-called believers can provide them with information if they are useful, and use parasites to transform them into dark demons directly, which is beneficial.

Wang Shijie also saw that Manding is in urgent need of manpower now. is not as arrogant as it was when there were 100,000 employees before. He respectfully said to Manding, "Among my subordinates, there are There are many people with minds like Xue Renyi. If you can bring them out, you will definitely be able to play a very beneficial role."

Manding said: "Yes, you go, remember, everyone brought back must accept the curse of darkness, so that I can trust them."

Wang Shijie shook his head and said: "No, I branded them loyalty. This is a spell handed over to me by the Lord God, not worse than your dark curse."

Manding stared at Wang Shijie, but finally gave in, and said to the dark demon elites around him: "Explore the situation nearby, find the water source, and we will rest here."

40,000 dark demons act immediately. The night is when they see their best sight. They can see more clearly than during the day, and they can see farther away. For a while, 40,000 dark demons will command the enchanted wild boar in the surrounding forest Wait for all creatures to be slaughtered for food.

By the next morning, Xue Renyi took them to find the source of water first, but he didn't know if there was any water around here. Fortunately, there was a natural spring on the nearby mountain, and there were constant clear springs gushing out from the spring eyes, forming a small lake with a diameter of more than 50 meters and a depth of more than 20 meters.

After the lake overflowed, it flowed down and turned into a small stream. The lake and stream alone can barely meet the water consumption of these 40,000 dark demons for two days, especially during the day. The dark demons still need it. Sleep.

Taking this opportunity, Xue Renyi said: "I followed Wang Shijie and the others back to the dungeon. I am familiar with that road."

Because Xue Renyi had a dark spell on him and he was so loyal to Wang Shijie, Mending didn't doubt it, Wang Shijie and Tao Ran didn't doubt it either. In this way, they were divided into two groups, Mending ran towards the flower demon, Wang Shijie with Tao Ran and Cao Lin and others ran towards the underground city.

The other side.

As Xue Renyi said, Lu Yang did live in Dong'an County with 20,000 soldiers from the Jagged Brotherhood and 50,000 military soldiers last night.

After a lapse of a year, there are still many things that can be used in Dong'an County, such as several cold storages in the suburbs of the county. This type of cold storage built in the mountains basically does not need a refrigeration system, and the meat stored in it can still be used. .

There are also several material transfer stations nearby. There are a lot of basic materials, such as clothes, belts, tableware and many other daily necessities, and an undamaged oil tanker was found at a gas station, which is oversized. The tanker was filled with gasoline, and this time it was emptied by their soldiers.

The soldiers missed the battle in this battle, which made them very depressed. They could only do some chores first, but because of this, many people wanted to apply to join the Jagged Brotherhood to join the battle. It was just the number of red spirit fruits in the Luyang Demon Temple. It's not that enough, and it needs to be reserved for the subsequent members of the Jagged Brotherhood, and they are not allowed to join for the time being.

At ten o'clock in the morning, the group packed all the supplies into the car. The original road returned from Dong'an County to the mountain where the underground city was located. At this time, the appearance of the underground city changed even more.

Although it only took two days to fight, thanks to the efforts of the people in the city of 3 million, the concrete walls poured around the dungeon became larger and taller. The tallest wall is currently 60 meters in height and more than 20 meters in width. After all of them are erected on it, there are still plenty of areas where people can walk around.

Fei Yang and Lu Tianming were also participating in building the city. Seeing that Lu Yang came back with a large group of troops, the two ran down the mountain to greet them with excitement. Seeing that Lu Yang was safe and sound, Fei Yang and Lu Tianming held Lu Yang's forcefully. Arm.

"It's great, it will be fine if all the staff come back." Fei Yang said.

Lu Tianming asked with concern: "How are the results?"

Lu Yang smiled and looked at the two of them and said, "After annihilating Lorraine's 30,000 dark demons and Mascar's 30,000 dark demons, the remaining 40,000 men in Manding escaped too far. I am afraid that something will happen in the underground city. I didn't dare to chase too deeply and let them go."

Fei Yang let out a long sigh of relief, and said, "It's pretty good to kill 60,000 of them. This big rock has finally fallen to the ground."

There are 100,000-scale different world legions staring at him. The feeling of worrying all the time makes Fei Yang frown every day. Now that he hears that the enemy has been killed 60,000, he laughs happily.

Lu Tianming asked, "How about the battle damage?"

Lu Yang shook his head, and said sadly, "A total of 31 brothers died."

"It is a miracle to have this kind of result." Lu Tianming said with relief.

Lu Yang still blamed himself a little. He took these people out, but when he came back now, he failed to bring them back. It can be said that he was the commander who caused their deaths, and he was very responsible.

"To hold a grand funeral, I want the people in the entire dungeon to know that they died in a glorious battle," Lu Yang said.

Lu Tianming nodded and immediately let people prepare to go.

That evening, everyone put aside their work, and 20,000 soldiers from the Jagged Brotherhood lined up to the highest peak of the mountain. The president and vice presidents of the Jagged Brotherhood, such as Lu Yang and Zhuojiu, personally praised it. Their ashes were buried on the top of the mountain.

Lu Yang's tears couldn't help but fell, but before the tears fell to the ground, he burned them in the air with flames. He couldn't cry, couldn't have the slightest weakness. This was a war belonging to the Iron-Blooded Brotherhood. It was the one standing in front of all the brothers. He had to stay strong forever to take the entire East China Sea Dungeon to life.

"Brothers, you go one step ahead. One day I will go underground, and I will say thank you myself." Lu Yang hit their tombstones three times with a heavy hammer.

All the TVs in the dungeon are broadcasting this picture. The first group of dead soldiers, and all the soldiers who died behind, will be remembered by them forever.

The desolate music sounded, making people more sad. A large number of Jagged Brothers soldiers shed tears, but Zhuo Jiu and White Lion, like Lu Yang, did not cry, but looked at everyone with firm eyes.

On the other side, in the area at the foot of the mountain, Tao Ran has taken Xue Renyi to the back mountain of the dungeon and is climbing up the mountain. As long as he reaches the top of the mountain, he can enter the dungeon from the vents. Wang Shijie is responsible for keeping the wind outside. His appearance will scare away believers even when he enters.

“What sound? So desolate?” Tao Ran asked as he crawled.

Of course Xue Renyi knows what this music represents. Obviously, Lu Yang has returned to the top of the mountain and buried the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood. He said, “The ghost knows what music, we have to speed up, too. I don’t know what happened to Manding.”

Tao Ran said: “Manding should be about to attack the outpost of the Jagged Brotherhood now.”

This post is on a mountain only 4 hours away from the underground city. There is no one to stop there, only a large surveillance camera, which is placed in a house, and people come to maintain it every day.

This camera is facing the mountainous area where the Flower Demon is located, and three people monitor it every day. If the Flower Demon wants to come out, it will be spotted by the Jagged Brothers as soon as possible.

When these three people looked at the camera, suddenly, a terrifying and hideous face appeared in front of the camera. The Dark Demon knew that this was a surveillance system, and a smirk appeared at the corner of his mouth, but he did not explode the surveillance system. It ran towards the area where the Flower Demon was.

The three of them were taken aback by Manding’s expression, and quickly took out the phone to report to Fei Yang, and Fei Yang found Lu Yang for the first time and said, “It’s not good, there is a dark demon who ran to the flower demon. direction.”

Fei Yang used the mobile phone on his wrist to cast the three-dimensional screen into the air, and Manding’s huge face suddenly appeared.

Lu Yang's eyes lit up and said, "This is Manding. It seems that Manding is really looking for the Flower Demon."

This is the plan Lu Yang and Xue Renyi designed at the beginning. If he can defeat the Dark Demon, he will discuss the pros and cons with Manding. will let Manding drag the Flower Demon into the water.

Including Xue Renyi's subsequent rescue of other believers, it was designed by Lu Yang and Xue Renyi together. Now that Manding appeared, the vent in Houshan entered, it is very likely that Xue Renyi, because Xue Renyi He escaped from here, only he knew the path.

"I'm going to chase Manding." Lu Yang summoned Hong Ye and flew towards the distance, but at the same time, he used the fire in his body to create a clone and stayed on Hong Ye's head. Said: "Hong Ye, just come back after doing it, don't fight, this is an order."

"Huh~!" Hong Ye made an uncomfortable nose and continued to fly forward, but when Lu Yang quietly let Hong Ye fly down the mountain by himself, he jumped onto the mountain while no one was paying attention, with the help of three eyes. The vines of the magic flower quickly climbed back into the dungeon.

No one recognized him because he was wearing a cloak. Xiao Liang knew that Lu Yang had a flame clone. After the two contacted, Xiao Liang covered Lu Yang and returned to the dungeon, and quickly ran towards the vent area. .

Chapter 2128 - The big liar Bagley makes another appearance

At this time, people in the dungeon stopped in the area where screens were hung everywhere, watching the grand funeral.

Lu Yang ran past them, and no one noticed his figure. When he came to the vent area, at the entrance of a huge cement passage, he didn't need the Blazing Demon to remind him, he himself felt that someone was facing towards him. He is close here.

"Invisible"

Lu Yang took out the bone scepter from the special space, and his figure disappeared, because the heart of the devil had transformed the blood of the gods, giving Lu Yang a natural ability to perceive.

Not long after he was invisible here, faint footsteps sounded from the passage. Not long after, two figures appeared in Lu Yang's field of vision. One was Tao Ran and the other was Xue Renyi.

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief. He was always worried that Xue Renyi was dead. He didn't think that Xue Renyi not only completed the task brilliantly, but also returned safely.

Tao Ran walked by Lu Yang's side and found no existence of Lu Yang, but Xue Renyi was imprinted on his soul by Lu Yang. He immediately found Lu Yang by his side, which made Xue Renyi relax instantly. .

"Three-eyed magic flower, made Tao Ran faint." Lu Yang secretly issued a command.

The three-eyed magic flower in Lu Yang's arms quickly shook the petals above his head, and the colorless and odorless pollen was waste in the air. Tao Ran fainted on the ground instantly as he breathed in his nose.

Xue Renyi did not go to help Tao Ran, but stood there and respectfully said to the invisible Lu Yang: "Boss, I am fortunate not to be insulted."

Lu Yang showed his figure, and patted Xue Renyi on the shoulder with excitement, and said, "You did a great job, you made a great contribution to the war against the Dark Demon."

Xue Renyi laughed at himself, and said: "It's good to be able to atone for the sins, there is nothing without merit."

Lu Yang shook his head and said, "You have returned to the Jagged Brotherhood. I will reward you for your merits. But now I can't give you anything. When this is over, I will reward you heavily."

Xue Renyi nodded.

Lu Yang asked: "Our time is limited. I can only stun Tao Ran for three minutes. No matter how much time she spends, she will doubt. Tell me, what is the situation of the Dark Demon now?"

Xue Renyi said immediately: "Manding has only 40,000 dark demons left, hiding in the mountains two days and one night away from here."

Lu Yang opened the three-dimensional map. Xue Renyi marked the specific location on the map and said, "They are short of food and water. I lied to Manding to find the Flower Demon. Manding has already gone. I took advantage of this opportunity. from."

Lu Yang said, "We don't have intelligence personnel in the Flower Demon area. This is very detrimental to us. You'd better divide Tao Ran and Wang Shijie, and let Tao Ran, Cao Hong or Zhang Lin take some of the temple followers to the Flower Demon. I'm here. Spies have been planted among these believers."

The Flower Demon is not stupid. When he saw Mandin leading the red night to pass, he knew Mandin's thoughts. They did not dare to kill Mandin and cause the two races to fight. They could only suffer from this dumb loss. There were only two ways left , One is fleeing, the other is fighting.

Xue Renyi was a little surprised, and asked: "Boss, do you have any way to solve the flower demon, don't we have so many snake venoms?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Time."

"Time?" Xue Renyi was puzzled.

Lu Yang said: "Time is about to enter winter, the flower demon's ability to withstand the cold is not very strong. If they can't find a suitable place to hide in winter, they will be attacked by the wind and snow.

The winter in the East China Sea is extremely cold. They will kill most of them, so this is my best chance to wipe them out.”

How cold the winter in the East China Sea is. Anyone who has been there knows that the icy wind and snow will cause everything to wither. Judging from the fact that the Flower Demon attacked the dungeon this year, they should have arrived this year. Did not experience the cold winter of the past year.

Winter will enter in another month. Even if Lu Yang doesn't bother with the Flower Demon, the Flower Demon will feel the change of the seasons and will actively attack the dungeon to seek a warm shelter.

In order to prepare for the war, a spy was sent in in advance to find out the specific situation of the other party and formulate countermeasures. This task was handed over to the big liar Bagley by Lu Yang.

In the past, he helped the Jagged Brotherhood in Europe to do several major things, fearing that he might not end well in the end, so he has always lived in the game city in the East China Sea.

When the world changed drastically, Bagley was the first group to enter the dungeon, and then the temple appeared. Bagley himself was a European. He did not have much religious beliefs, and he could see the miracles of otherworldly gods. I think this is their true * now.

But after careful understanding, Bagley found that whether it was Wang Shijie or Tao Ran, they were more like deceiving liars, and Gods were not that great. Therefore, Bagley, a cunning old fellow, did not really believe, and instead took the opportunity to take advantage of it. Tao Ran was blessed by Fengshen.

At that time, the Jagged Brotherhood and the temple were very stiff. Bagley's first feeling was that these people in the temple could not play Lu Yang at all, so the old guy returned to Lu Yang's side and secretly collected information about the temple for Lu Yang. Bagley is not very reused and has not received any valuable information.

This time Bagley was branded by Lu Yang of loyalty. He knew that Wang Shijie and others were in short supply of talents. Bagley, a smart and sophisticated person, would definitely shine.

Xue Renyi's eyes lit up when he heard that Bagley would help him. He knew Bagley. Back then, they were also known as the two ace spies of the Jagged Brotherhood. Although the two worked together for a short time, they were both. Appreciate each other.

"With him, my pressure will be much less." Xue Renyi said excitedly.

"Go back and pay attention to safety. Starting tomorrow, I will use the three-eyed magic flower to help you find the water source." Two pats Xue Renyi on the shoulder, and disappeared into the air.

Xue Renyi took a deep breath. After regaining his emotions, he quickly walked to Tao Ran's side, helped her up, shook her body vigorously, and said, "Divine Envoy, what's wrong with you?"

Tao Ran's medicinal effect just passed, he opened his eyes in confusion and asked, "What happened to me?"

Xue Renyi made up and said: "Your feet were not stable just now, it was a bit like you were about to faint."

Tao Ran felt a little bit sore and weak in his body and a little bit pain in his head, and said weakly, "Maybe it's been too tired all the time."

After being kicked out of the dungeon, Tao Ran and the others did not cleanse themselves for a day. She was a girl who stayed with Wang Shijie, who had turned into a monster, and lived with monsters in another world every day. She was under great psychological pressure, but she didn't. Someone who can tell.

Xue Renyi tentatively asked, "Divine Envoy, have you ever thought that taking some people to the Flower Demon, maybe it would be better for you to be separated from Wang Shijie Divine Envoy."

Tao Ran was a little surprised, and then laughed at himself and said, "You also found the problem between us, right? Indeed, if we can leave, who wants to stay with that ugly monster every day."

When they were also chosen by the gods, Tao Ran still had a good impression of Wang Shijie, but now that Wang Shijie is like this, Tao Ran's heart is only disgusting, and Tao Ran herself is a spoiled eldest lady, she has always been instructing others. When was it the turn of others to talk to her like this?

She knew the situation of the temple and the dark demon very well now, and if she could leave Wang Shijie and go to the flower demon to be responsible for the liaison work, it would be a good choice.

"Complete the task first. We stay here for an extra minute, and there will be an extra minute of danger. You continue to lead the way." Tao Ran said.

Xue Renyi nodded and led Tao Ran quickly through the passage of the exhaust outlet to the lowest prison, which was very simple, with only a dozen rows of simple concrete houses, and the door was an iron railing thick with a thumb.

At this time, there was only one person in charge of the prison. He was staring at the big screen not far away. It was the funeral. On the other side, a dozen rows of prisons were seen through the iron fence. Almost all were empty, only two. Of the three detained 100 cutes, 90% of them are elderly people and only 10% are young people.

"Go to sleep." Tao Ran used a spell to make the prison guard who was staring at the screen fall asleep. Then she looked at the people in the prison and frowned and said to Xue Renyi: "People, how come there are so many people."

At its peak, there were tens of thousands of members of the temple. Tao Ran thought he would be able to save many people this time, but he didn't expect this to be the case.

Xue Renyi also pretended to be confused, ran to the door of the prison, grabbed a person across the iron railing and asked, "Where are the others?"

This man was a young man. He didn't pay attention at first. When he saw that it was Xue Renyi and Tao Ran, his eyes lit up and he shouted excitedly: "God, you come to save us, I know you will Coming."

More than 100 people in the prison hurriedly looked at Tao Ran, and then all these more than 100 people cried like a tsunami from the mountains.

“Keep your voice down, everyone, don’t let people find out.” Xue Renyi shouted quickly.

Everyone was silent, but they all cried in a low voice.

Tao Ran looked at the young man Xue Renyi was holding and asked, “Where are the others?”

This person said excitedly: “That * Lu Yang, took most of our believers out as coolies. Only those of us who refused to give in were locked in here. You save us and leave. Right.”

Xue Renyi was full of excitement and said to Tao Ran: “They should be the people with the strongest beliefs, but these old people are meaningless to walk. I am afraid that they will be exhausted on the road. Only these 12 young people can take away.”

Tao Ran nodded, waved his hand, and unlocked the prison door that trapped the 12 young people. 12 people rushed out. Afterwards, Tao Ran gave a generous statement to the more than 90 old people, which meant that they would wait with peace of mind. , When the temple comes back, it will release them and give them eternal life.

Obviously, this is perfunctory, but most of the old people listened, and knelt on their heads quickly, and suddenly looked satisfied, just as Tao Ran was about to take these people away, suddenly, an old man’s hand appeared magical light.

“My God Envoy, I am Bagley. You personally helped me do what the gods have given me. I know magic and can help you. Take me with you.” Bagley rushed from the pile of old people to the railing. Beside, said loudly to Tao Ran.

Tao Ran looked at Bagley in surprise, and then recalled that when they came to the dungeon, the most talented believer was Bagley.

Bagley wanted longevity, but Tao Ran didn’t know how to live long, but she wanted to use Bagley’s talent to do things for her. When the group blessed, Bagley was also added to it, but she didn’t wait until the end of life. Bagley was trained to be a mage who could fight, and something went wrong with them.

Now that he saw Bagley again, Tao Ran showed excitement on his face, and he opened Bagley's cage with a wave of his hand, and having a person who truly believed in her by his side made her feel relieved.

"Let's go with me, the rest will stay and wait for us to come back." Tao Ran left a sentence and ran towards the vent with Bagley, Xue Renyi and the other 12 people.

When they returned to the bottom of the mountain, Wang Shijie saw that Tao Ran had brought back only 14 people, and suddenly became furious. He thought he could bring out thousands of people.

After understanding the detailed situation, couldn't help cursing: "Tao Ran, you stupid trash, can't you wait any longer? This time you took the person away, which must have disturbed Lu Yang, He closed the passage of the vent in the back mountain, how will we save people in the future, you stupid trash."

Tao Ran was stunned. She just wanted to save people and forgot about this incident, but what she thought in her heart was why she should listen to your arrogance, which made her want to leave Wang Shijie more and more.

"Rather than complaining here, it's better to go quickly. Be careful to be discovered by the Jagged Brothers. You can't even run away." Tao Ran left a sentence and left by himself.

Bagley dragged the old body and ran two steps quickly, adding a speed technique to Tao Ran and everyone else, so that they could generate wind under their feet and run more than twice as fast as before.

Wang Shijie didn't expect Tao Ran to contradict him. He was a little confused for a while, stopped speaking, and left.

Chapter 2129 - 4 Great Demon Flowers

When Tao Ran and Wang Shijie and the others ran back, on the other side, Manding was walking unhurriedly into the hidden valley of the Flower Demon. He was waiting for Lu Yang. Only Lu Yang came, and he entered the area of the Flower Demon. It makes sense.

But while he was waiting, a few white flower demon warriors suddenly jumped out from the valley in front of him. The one headed by the flower demon warrior was extremely strong and seemed to be made by the leader of the third-order flower demon.

“Damn Manding, I felt you a few kilometers away, you are not welcome here, leave here.” The sturdy flower demon warrior roared angrily.

Flower monsters have a special ability. They can get a TV-like picture from the grass and trees through perception, knowing what happened in every piece of grass and wood they perceive.

The Jagged Brothers attacked Dong’an County and ambushed the Lorraine Department and the Musca Department of the Dark Demon in Guiyan Mountain. Although Flanders controlled the Flower Demon Race to hide in the Wuming Mountain, he sent the Flower Demon warriors out every day to inquire about intelligence. .

As soon as the battle for returning to Yanshan was over, the Flower Demon discovered the specific situation. Therefore, Flanders and the entire Flower Demon family knew that the Dark Demon was defeated by the Iron-Blood Brothers, and it was easy to guess the darkness. Magical thoughts.

Manding showed a sardonic smile, with his hands on his chest, staring at the sturdy flower demon warrior, without answering the other party’s previous words, he said to himself: “Frant, I want to ally with you and attack together. Underground city.”

The magnificent flower demon called Flanders was taken aback for a moment, then showed an icy smile, and said: “You will form an alliance with us? Are you kidding? How can the dark race take the initiative to form an alliance with the life race?”

Manding was not in a hurry, and said nonsense: "In order to deal with humans, we are all sent by alien gods, and we should unite together to deal with humans."

Flander stared at Mandin and said furiously: "Don't even think of bringing disaster to our flower demon. I won't be fooled."

Manding guessed that Flander would say this. Just as he was about to continue the ink time, suddenly, a dragon roar sounded in the sky. Manding and Flander looked up, Hong Ye's huge body was already far away. Flew over quickly.

"Damn it, get out of here, or I will kill you." Flander's arm had become a machete.

Manding smiled contemptuously and said: "You may not have beaten me with your body, let alone these flower demon warriors. My mission has been completed. Lu Yang will definitely come to you and wait for the main force of the Jagged Brothers. Come."

After speaking, Manding shouted in Mandarin: "The Flower Demon Clan, we just agreed to attack the dungeon together, slaughter millions of humans, and welcome the gods to the world."

"Swish"

Manding turned into a shadow and quickly disappeared in front of Flanders and the crowd of flower demon warriors. With the help of the shadow of the surrounding trees, he quickly fled towards the distance.

Hong Ye found Manding, first sprayed a breath of dragon at the flower demon area, and then chased him in the direction of Manding.

Manding looked back and observed frequently, and he was completely relieved when he saw Lu Yang standing on the dragon's head, and ran towards the dark demon's lair at full speed.

Those 40,000 dark demons had already cut down the surrounding trees and created a simple tribe. If Lu Yang dared to control the passage of Red Night, he would surely be shot down by countless bone spears under his elite.

Hong Ye looked at the running red night on the ground with a sneer expression, but after a symbolic chase for a while, he stopped.

On the other side, the Flower Demon area was already in a panic. Originally, they thought of a heavy weapon to avoid humans, but they didn't expect that they would eventually be dragged down by the Dark Demon and needed to fight head-on with humans.

Flander is the patriarch of the flower demon family, and the only third-order flower demon. The elders of the flower demon under him are all second-order. There are four in total, namely the thorn flower demon Rose and the poisonous flower demon Terby. , Kenny, the Juli Flower Demon, and Flair, the Light Flower Demon.

Flander itself is a family of Juli Flower Demons. The flower demons of these four races are not strong when they are weak, but when they grow up, each flower demon is extremely terrifying.

For example, the thorn flower demon, the warriors they created are speed killers. Once they are approached, the thorn flower demon will incarnate into a cane, entangle the opponent, and the cane will instantly shoot spikes, piercing the target's whole body.

The poisonous flower demon can create warriors with strong neurotoxins. Killing them will have to pay a heavy price. Once they are allowed to freely release the toxins, everyone in a city will be poisoned.

The Juli Flower Demon is a master of destruction. Take Flanders as an example. The warriors he created can fight against the fighters of Tier 2. You must know that the power of the peak warrior of Tier 2 is 1000 kilograms.

The last kind of light flame flower demon is the most terrifying. They absorb light energy and store it in the fruit. Once the fruit is thrown, the instantaneous high temperature can directly melt the warrior of the 1st peak.

The flower demon clan has only developed on the earth for more than half a year, and the four elders have such terrifying power. If they continue to develop, the four types of flower demon will all have such terrifying power, and the four elders and the flower The demon patriarch will also continue to grow.

Normally, the flower demon can rise to rank five and become an ancient creature. At that time, the human world will be swept by the flower demon.

This made the Flower Demon clan extremely angry. In the deepest valley of the Wuming Mountain, beside a small lake with a diameter of 20 meters and a spring gushing out, in the shadows covered by numerous towering trees, five flowers are more than 3 meters high and have different shapes. Giant flowers are surrounding the small lake.

They are the main body of the flower demon patriarch Flander and the other four flower demon patriarchs. On the backbone of their huge flowers, there are faces similar to human beings. Originally, these faces were from Bubo Koi, but Today these five faces have lost the calmness of the past and have become extremely hideous.

Terby was the first to speak, and it cursed: "Damn Mandin, he disrupted our plan."

Fryer roared: "I will use the fruit to melt all the dark demons into black water."

Flander stared at Fryer and said, "Calm down, if we go to war with the dark demons now, the happiest people are humans."

"But we have been calculated by the cunning dark demons. Human beings will definitely worry that we will join hands with them and will take the initiative to attack us." Tebi said.

Flander pondered for a while and said, "We don't care about them, we continue to hide in the mountains. As long as we don't move, humans won't bother us."

Tebi said: "But we still have to send more flower demon warriors out to inquire about news. Once human beings move, we must prepare in advance."

Flender said, "Yes."

The other four people stopped talking. Soon, the Flower Demon clan took action. A large number of Flower Demon warriors frequently went out to inquire about the human situation. On the other side, a fierce quarrel broke out among the tribe of Dark Demon.

Tao Ran stared at Wang Shijie and said: "We must be separated. Someone must go to the Flower Demon. Otherwise, winter is coming and the Flower Demon is not prepared. They must suffer heavy losses. We will pass by at this time, which is the time to reflect our value. "

Wang Shijie said stubbornly: "No, our temple has already shown weakness and cannot be separated anymore. I absolutely disagree."

In fact, Wang Shijie's idea is that he does not want Tao Ran and the others to leave him. He urgently needs the support of the same kind. After all, those who can agree with his current appearance, except for Xue Renyi who has been cursed by the dark, are Tao Ran, Cao Hong and Zhang Lin. They are members of these temples.

Even the new Bagley and the other 12 people, seeing Wang Shijie's face, all had a ghostly expression. Even if Wang Shijie was not vulgar, he would not be able to bear such a psychological burden. Moreover, if Tao Ran and Cao Hong got them The Flower Demon's approval, and Wang Shijie is still unable to form a powerful influence on the Dark Demon clan, and their relationship will change greatly.

Wang Shijie does not want to be ordered by Tao Ran and Cao Hong, Therefore, he extremely disliked Tao Ran's suggestion, but Tao Ran and Cao Hong didn't want to listen to Wang Shijie. Several people had already excluded Wang Shijie and discussed who came and went.

Cao Hong frowned and said: "We should still let Tao Ran go. Among the few of us, Tao Ran is the only girl. The Flower Demon clan treats Tao Ran much better than us, and it should be easier to go with Tao Ran."

Zhang Lin also wanted to leave Wang Shijie, but in the end he never disputed Tao Ran, because Xue Renyi and Bagley both supported Tao Ran, so Tao Ran quickly gained an advantage in public opinion and became unique. representative.

If Tao Ran wants to go, he naturally needs to take a few people with him. The big liar Bagley has become the best candidate, but Bagley decided to bring two spare tires for safety reasons. Once there is a danger of being discovered, he first pushed out these two people. One was Zhang Gui, a Feng Mage who only knew about fighting, complaining, and greed for petty cheapness, and the other was Zhou Yu, who likes to show off his literary talent and is smart.

Chapter 2130 - Magic scroll

Early the next morning.

After Tao Ran bid farewell to Cao Hong and Zhang Lin, he took Bagley, Zhang Gui and Zhou Yu to the Flower Demon area, without even saying goodbye to Wang Shijie.

When they came to the Flower Demon area, Flender welcomed Tao Ran's arrival. The Flower Demon family likes beautiful things, and they like the beautiful men and women among human beings.

Before Tao Ran and the others did not understand the behavior of the Flower Demon. Later, through the communication with the gods and the contact with the Flower Demon clan, Tao Ran gradually became accustomed to the behavior of the Flower Demon taking the initiative to get close to her body. For the warrior that the flower turned into, she didn't care so much either, just as a cat or puppy that liked her.

The more natural Tao Ran's behavior was, the more he liked Flanders and the others. In this way, Tao Ran was welcomed to the side of the small lake deep in the Wuming Mountain. Flanders looked at Tao Ran and asked: "Beautiful Miss Tao Ran, Why did you come to us."

Tao Ran smiled and walked to Flanders, and said distressedly: "I'm here to warn you, do you know that winter is coming."

"Winter?" Flanders, Terby and others looked puzzled.

Tao Ran said: "I have already understood the different world in which you live. In your world, the area controlled by the gods you believe in is the area where you live. But here is different. There is no * before, and all the trajectories of life are It changes naturally according to the four seasons."

In another world, the gods of nature, the gods of darkness, and the gods of holy light have been attacking each other, and whenever they lay down a place, they would turn it into a place suitable for the life of his ethnic group.

For example, the water * king, when he defeats the earth god, he will use the ability of element assimilation to turn the area full of earth elements into an area full of water elements, that is, mountains and deserts will instantly become The vast ocean.

For example, in the area of the Holy Light element, once he defeats other elements, there will be assimilated by the Holy Light, regardless of the heavens and the earth, it is composed of the Holy Light, and the creatures belonging to the Holy Light can live freely in it.

The life of the plant system is a product of the middle area between the natural system and the holy light system. Therefore, when the first group of warriors from another world are sent in, the plant system will come to life instead of any other single-line life form. Race over.

But the life forms of the plant system have always lived in the area between the gods of the nature system and the gods of the holy light. There is fertile soil, nourishing rain, appropriate amount of holy light, and breeze. There is no cold winter.

If there is a cold winter, these flower monsters will not be able to multiply at all, but there is a cold winter here. When Flanders heard Tao Ran talk about the situation here and played it on the computer for several winters, the place was covered with snow everywhere. Flender was a little confused.

The other side.

In the Donghai Underground City, in the training ground of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood, Lu Yang was chatting with the Blazing Demon God. He asked: "The Flower Demon Clan is also a subordinate of your natural deity. Why did they rebel?"

Blazing Demon God showed an awkward expression, and said: "In fact, the Flower Demon Clan was originally not a direct descendant of any of our old * races, but because it was among the major gods of the Nature Element, it was naturally produced by absorbing the vitality of the heavens and the earth.

The flower demons and dark demons were all used by us as slave races at the beginning, but we didn't expect that after they grew up, they would have such a powerful strength. They played a big role in the battle of Gods. Many of our direct races.

For any race sent by the new god, you can sell or kill them. You don't need to worry about the ideas of our old gods, because the races sent by the new * all have a deep hatred against our old gods. "

Lu Yang understood, and asked a little surprised: "Can the Flower Demon still be sold?"

The Blazing Demon said: "The merchants of the Ten Thousand Realms in the imperial capital bought the high-level high-level demon, the flower demon race, taking the Juli flower demon as an example, the flower demon warriors they made can work as soldiers and slaves. It all depends on how you use it. There are also the Flaming Flower Demon and the Poisonous Flower Demon. You can use them to make weapons and poisons. They are all very useful. If you can catch some of the Flaming Flower Demon and cultivate them, future battles They will be your assistants to your advantage."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "It's a good idea. It seems that these flower monsters can't be killed yet, and some of them must be left."

The weather forecast from the imperial capital indicated that after a month, the first snow would fall, and after the winter, the colder weather would make the ice element unusually active, which would accelerate the cultivation speed of the ice mage.

Originally, there were more than 100 wizards specializing in the cultivation of ice in the Jagged Brothers League. Lu Yang gave them a large amount of red spirit fruit and threw them into the cold storage of the dungeon, where the ice element was also extremely active.

The elements ignore the terrain restrictions. No matter how thick the steel plate or the board, the elements can pass directly, especially the ice element. In the cold storage of the dungeon, the concentration is hundreds of times that of the outside.

The lovely queen brought 112 ice mages, and they practiced in the cold storage every day. When they were first-order, they were a little afraid of the cold, but when Lu Yang used the red spirit fruit to promote them to the second-order mages, their The body ignores the cold, but hates hot places.

Now they are about to cultivate to the peak of Tier 2, and they have no sense of the low temperature in the cold storage.

In the virtual game of "Second World", among the various magic learning methods released by the Imperial Capital, there is something called the magic circle, which is a combination of several magicians that can release spells that exceed their own ranks.

It is this kind of magic circle that Lu Yang asked the lovely queen to practice in the cold storage. When they reach the third level, they will enter the ice demon state. Although the ice type forbidden curse cannot be released, there is one of the ice type spells that is not normal. It is a very useful skill for the East China Sea in winter, called Extreme Zero Freezing.

It is the most common skill of ice demon, which is to summon a large number of ice elements to make the temperature drop in the surrounding area lower.

Originally, the winter in the East China Sea was very cold, and the lowest temperature could reach minus 30 degrees. In order to kill the ice demon, Lu Yang's idea was to lower the temperature to minus 40 degrees.

Humans wear animal skin coats to keep warm, but the flower demon has no clothes to wear, relying on its own ability, it can't withstand such a severe cold.

Lu Yang looked at Zhuojiu and the others around him and said, "Starting today, we will kill creatures with thick fur, such as demonized foxes, demonized black bears, and demonized tigers. This winter has not been so easy."

"Boss rest assured, within a month, everyone can wear fur." Zhuojiu said with a smile.

"Freeze to death those demons," said the white lion.

Right now, Zhuojiu, White Lion, Xia Yuwei, Zhao Cheng and others left the dungeon with their teams and ran towards the surrounding mountains.

In the Old Town of the East China Sea, the main creatures are demonized wild boar, demonized poisonous snake, demonized spider, and demonized mouse. On the large mountains near Donghai City, it is the demonized tiger, demonized black bear, and demonized wild. A residential area for large hunting creatures such as wolves and demonized foxes.

Lu Yang did not follow them up the mountain, but was called by Grant and others. As the most important studio in the Jagged Brotherhood back then, Grant Studio provided a large number of magic scrolls for the Jagged Brotherhood every day, and they have been Lives in Donghai Game City.

Later, the world changed drastically. Grant and the others entered the dungeon with Bagley and others. In the Age of Elements, Grant and the others who believed in the existence of magic scrolls were even more madly involved in the experiments of magic scrolls.

It is a pity that their own magical abilities are low, and the creatures outside are so powerful, they have not been able to study the method of making magic scrolls.

Although "Second World" provided a detailed production process, Grant and the others could not find the paper, blood, gems and minerals that could be used to make the scroll.

When Lu Yang came back this time, while enhancing the strength of the members of the Jagged Brotherhood, he deliberately improved the strength of Grant and the group. He always believed that Grant and the others could make a magic scroll.

In the past few battles, Grant and the others also followed the team, and there was a special team to protect them.

After numerous experiments in the field, Grant finally came to Lu Yang today and said excitedly and respectfully: "Boss Lu Yang, we have found a way to make a scroll."

Lu Yang's eyes were bright, and he asked excitedly: "How do you do it? Can it be mass produced?"

Glenn said, "It can be mass-produced, but the prerequisite is that the flower demon's stems and leaves are crushed, and the paper produced can be used to make the paper for the scroll."

The minerals used are crystals containing the energy of various elements, and the blood is a demonized creature that releases the same magic. The final depiction of the magic circle is the same as the tutorial in the "Second World". "

The so-called crystals containing the energy of various elements are the purest white crystals in the world. After the elements invade, the white crystals can absorb a large amount of elements. The flame element enters and it becomes a red crystal, ice element. When it enters, it becomes a blue crystal, and when the plant element enters, it becomes a green crystal.

The elemental minerals and plant rhizomes introduced in "Second World" are common in other worlds, but they are not found on earth. This is a major problem that restricts Grant and the others from making magic scrolls. As time goes by, massive magic elements enter the earth. Because of its special texture, crystal has become one of the carriers of the elements. The rhizome of the Flower Demon is also the best natural material for making scroll paper.

To make the scrolls, the blood of animals in different worlds is also needed, but the blood of animals in different worlds is full of elements, and the demonized creatures on the earth have very few elements in their bodies.

After Grant and the others passed the tempering, makes the concentration of elements contained in the blood of enchanted creatures higher, relying on the viscosity of the blood to attach the elements to the scroll.

The last function of the magic circle is to portray skills, that is, imitating the way humans release spells, and the appearance of the magic circle is portrayed on the scroll, without the need for magic, as long as the scroll is crushed, or a specific magic spell is used. Prompt, can release the spell.

After listening to Grant's introduction, Lu Yang patted Grant on the shoulder heavily, and said, "Brother, you have helped our brother a lot. This time I collect animal skins. I will ask them to come back with a large number of animal carcasses. Residents of the city, you can mobilize at will to help you work. I want to make a large number of ice scrolls. The more the number, the better."

This is why Grant came to Lu Yang this time, and said excitedly: "Okay, leave this to me."

As long as he has manpower, he can make a large number of scrolls, and in this way, the strength of the Jagged Brotherhood will be even stronger.

Chapter 2131 - Hunting Flower Demon

Lu Yang not only gave Grant considerable rights, he also allocated a half-story building as a laboratory. A large number of outstanding pharmacists from the original Jagged Brothers players joined Grant.

No one could have imagined that in the near future, this level will completely become a restricted area for ordinary people, because there are animal corpses, monster blood, the screams of the undead, and Grant's crazy laughter.

When Grant left, Lu Yang issued an order that some of the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood went to garrison at the crystal mine not far from the location of the dungeon, and sent a large number of workers and equipment to mine the crystal mine.

This mine is located on a mountain 10 kilometers south of the Donghai Underground City. There are only demonized creatures around it, and no alien creatures. Although there is a distorted space, no monsters are seen coming out of it.

It's just that the spewed energy is too huge, which makes the crystal mine store a lot of magic elements. It is a pity that although there are many white crystals in the crystal mine, it can't be mined all, and only those that have been "contaminated" by the elements White crystal.

The daily output of these changed color crystals is only about 200, of which only 30 contain ice elements. Obviously, a new crystal mine needs to be developed nearby to find more crystals that can be used.

As for animals with blood containing ice elements, they use the blood of the demonized snow fox. Snow foxes are not good at physical attacks. Under the influence of magical energy in another world that lasts for a year, the demonized snow foxes, Relying on the magic core in the brain, it is possible to release the spell of the ice system.

Especially the second-order snow foxes can also release ranged spells, but unfortunately it is the end of autumn. Although the autumn wind is rustling, the autumn tigers are more fierce. The venomous sunlight every afternoon makes the snow foxes forced to hide in the mountains. Stay away from the heat in the cave.

Lu Yang personally took people to arrest him, and under the guidance of an experienced hunter, he found a fox den hidden in a cave.

The entrance of this cave is very large, with a height of five or six meters and a width of seven or eight meters from the left to the right. Looking in from the entrance of the cave, it is pitch black, and only a vague sound can be heard.

The hunter's name was Sun Qiang, and he said excitedly: "Look at the footprints in this cave, and the smell comes from the cave. There must be a lot of snow foxes inside."

Han Fei followed Lu Yang, rolled his sleeves and pulled out a short knife, and said, "I will lead the team in to catch them."

Sun Qiang shook his head quickly and said: "Don't, the light inside is dim and the temperature is low. When I took my brothers to hunt the surrounding demonized creatures, many brothers were injured by the cold and ice sprayed by the demonized snow fox. To the body."

"It doesn't matter, they can't hurt me." Han Fei said nonchalantly.

Han Fei is a tyrannical warrior. Although he still likes to use daggers, he is considered to be the strongest in the entire Jagged Brotherhood, especially good at body skills.

Lu Yang stopped Han Fei and said with a smile: "Silly boy, when to kill them one by one, don't be so troublesome. Find someone to light the leaves and smoke them to smoke them out."

Han Fei's eyes lit up and said, "This is a good idea, brothers follow me."

More than 100 people from the surrounding area ran to collect the leaves. Not long after, dozens of bundles of firewood were piled up at the entrance of the cave.

At the end of autumn, there is still a lot of water in the branches and fallen leaves. After lighting, thick black smoke billows.

“Master Feng, blow the thick smoke in.” Lu Yang said.

The two wind masters chanted the spell at the same time, the first-level spell-breathing technique, like a breeze blowing on the face, blowing all the thick smoke into the cave.

Lu Yang said to everyone, “Everyone forms a circle around, don’t let the fox run away.”

Han Fei, Han Ying and others led more than 100 people to form a large circle at the entrance of the cave. Not long after, a white fox with only smoked hair came out of the cave and saw the surrounding area. Humans, a huge second-order white fox headed by him, sprayed out a mouthful of white ice.

Unfortunately, the temperature was 42 degrees above zero at this time, and the ice sprayed 10 meters away and turned into ice mist. When he waited in front of Lu Yang 30 meters away, Lu Yang only felt that the ice mist was very cool.

“If it gets hot in the future, let them spray a spray to cool down.” Lu Yang waved his hand and a ring of flames trapped the snow fox in place, no matter how the second-order snow fox screamed. , Neither makes any sense.

Han Fei, Han Ying and others followed suit and quickly caught the escaped snow foxes one by one. The last check showed that there were 117 snow foxes.

Lu Yang said with satisfaction: “You continue to catch, if there are not enough levels, throw them into the cold storage, where the ice element is stronger, let these little foxes get the blood after they are promoted.”

“Leave it to me.” Han Ying said.

Lu Yang was still very relieved of Han Ying. He summoned Red Night and flew in the direction of the Flower Demon. Now the enchanting material he lacked in his hand was the rhizome of the Flower Demon.

In the past, Lu Yang really had no way to catch the Flower Demon, but now it is different. With Bagley there, Lu Yang already knows everything about the Flower Demon.

Tao Ran is now extremely popular among the Flower Demon race. The beautiful girls are very popular with the Flower Demon, and their identity with Bagley has also improved a lot.

In order to be able to know the situation of the Flower Demon at any time, Lu Yang agreed to talk to Bagley in detail once a day, and Bagley's excuse was that he carried the seeds of the rose with him.

The Flower Demon itself has a natural ability that can awaken other plant life forms from an unconscious state to a conscious state.

In the laptop that Bagley brought out, the flower demon fell in love with the roses Bagley said, which made Bagley more popular, and even Tao Ran received more respect.

Flander opened up a special place to plant roses on the hillside for Bagley, but Bagley played a trick to retreat, telling Flander that flowers and plants cannot be planted this season, and winter is about to enter. Up.

But Flander didn't believe in winter at all. He stubbornly believed only what he saw, so Bagley was "forced" to be sent to the mountain to plant roses.

In order to look like Bagley, he sadly chose a sunny side of the hillside for planting. The sunny side is the area where the sun is the strongest, and this is also the area that flower demons hate.

After confirming this area, Lu Yang let the Three-Eyed Magic Flower run over by himself, and placed the clone beside Bagley, while the clone was still holding a communicator in his hand.

When Lu Yang controlled Red Night to fly over the Flower Demon area, he took out the intercom and said to Bagley, "How is the situation?"

Bagley has been waiting for Lu Yang's news, and said: "The flower demons are all concentrated in the deep water flow area of the canyon. I can't go in, and I can't do poisoning."

The initial plan was for Bagley to throw the toxin into the lake. This could be done once and for all, but this plan didn't work, so this alternative plan was the only option.

Bagley went on to say: "Flanders and the others don't believe in winter. Once winter comes, they will definitely attack the dungeon desperately, or seek shelter from the Dark Demon. I may be more likely to have the former."

Lu Yang said, "Is there a way to get a few flower monsters, I'm useful."

Bagley scratched his head and said, "This is really not easy. Their bodies are all made up. They just send out the Flower Demon Warrior. I think of a way."

"As soon as possible, I will rest nearby and tell me immediately if I have the opportunity." Lu Yang hung up the phone.

Before Grant was able to find the rhizome of the Flower Demon, it was all because of that battle with Wang Shijie. When the Flower Demon was escaping, he was killed by a large number of Red Nights, and the remaining fragments were used by Grant.

Bagley came down from the hillside, thinking about how to lure some flower monsters out of the depths of the canyon along the way. Suddenly, he thought of something.

"Since the flower demon can create flowers of the same kind to become their kind, of course, this must have to pay a lot of money. Otherwise, they have used so many flowers before, but if they can become the same kind, the ancient tree is No." Bagley's eyes lit up.

He quickly found Tao Ran and said: "My lord, I thought of a way to increase the strength of the Flower Demon."

Tao Ran was about to gain the right to speak among the Flower Demon clan, and asked, "What is the solution?"

Bagley said: "Can they assimilate big trees, ordinary big trees are meaningless, but what if they are thousands of years old?"

Tao Ran's eyes lit up. The thousand-year-old tree must have a sturdy trunk and strong power. If it can be used in warfare, it will definitely play a big role.

"I'll talk to Flanders." Tao Ran ran to the depths of the canyon excitedly.

Zhang Gui and Zhou Yu, who have been by Tao Ran's side all the time, glanced at Bagley at the same time. Bagley is a European. They look uncomfortable. Another one, Bagley uses roses when he comes. Tao Ran and Flanders paid attention, but they have never had a chance to show their faces.

Now that Bagley has found a way to increase the strength of the Flower Demon, the two of them are even more unhappy, but the two of them have nothing to do. Bagley's spells are stronger than them, and smarter than them. The two can only fight against each other. Glancing at it and leaving together.

When Bagley saw the two of them, he had an idea in his mind. Now that the idea was not realized, he lay down comfortably under a big tree to rest.

The other side.

Tao Ran ran into the canyon and told Flanders what happened. Flanders shook his head and said, "After we came here, we were looking for thousands of years old trees. Unfortunately, there are almost no trees around here. Trees over a thousand years old and under one thousand years old, whether in terms of power or intelligence after awakening their consciousness, are far inferior to the price we paid. If you can find a thousand-year-old tree to tell us, we will be grateful."

To awaken an ancient tree, or the same kind, the flower demon needs to release a powerful life force. After that, the released flower demon will enter an extremely weak state, lasting as long as three to five months.

After Tao Ran got the news, he returned to Bagley with a little disappointment. After explaining the reason, Zhang Gui and Zhou Yu felt that they had a chance to do meritorious service.

The two immediately ran out to look for it, but there are few old trees around the East China Sea that are more than 300 years old, let alone more than a thousand years.

After searching for two days without finding it, on the third day, Bagley went back into the canyon with a tired face, just lay down, and said to Zhang Gui next to him: "It's not easy. I finally found a possibility. There is a place with a thousand-year-old tree."

"Where?" Zhang Gui was immediately excited.

Bagley opened his laptop, pointed to an area on the map and said: "There are signs of thousand-year-old trees. I found several 700-800-year-old trees. Even if there are no thousand-year-old trees, this kind of 700-800 years old. It's also enough for the Flower Demon to use."

Zhang Gui said with a jealous expression: "Congratulations, you found it."

Bagley smiled triumphantly and said, "Good luck, I will go to bed first, and I will report tomorrow."

At the moment, Bagley snored, Zhang Gui's eyes lit up, and he hurriedly and cautiously left Bagley in excitement, then quickly ran to the depths of the canyon and reported the incident to Tao Ran.

Tao Ran was also excited and immediately found the flower demon. That night, Flender excitedly ordered the two flower demon bodies to take the flower demon warriors to the area.

On the one hand, the flower demon warrior cannot leave the body for more than 20 kilometers, after which, the consciousness of the flower demon body cannot control the flower demon warrior.

Another flower demon wants to use the awakening skill, he must do it himself, the flower demon warrior can't wake up at all.

Chapter 2132 - Winter is here

Tao Ran didn't follow it personally, because her ability to move at night was not enough and it was easy to drag her back. Flender personally appointed two giant flower monsters and asked Zhang Gui to lead them.

Where does Zhang Gui know the specific location? He has only seen the specific location given by Bagley's computer. He was eager to call it Bagley and led two flower monsters and 200 flower monsters. The soldier ran over.

When Tao Ran came back, Bagley hadn't slept at all. He was sawing wood, which made Tao Ran very curious and asked, "What are you doing?"

Bagley smiled honestly and said: "I think the Lord has no house. I happened to learn some carpentry skills. I am going to build a house."

Tao Ran's heart warmed and said, "With the intention, we shouldn't stay here for too long."

Knowing what Tao Ran meant, Bagley lowered his voice and said, "The Flower Demon has only two choices, either to fight the dungeon, or to find the Dark Demon for help after most of it freezes to death."

Tao Ran nodded and said, "I hope it's the latter. Although the Flower Demon can breed a large number of Flower Demon Warriors, their strength is too low. If they are all Tier 3, they may be able to defeat them. It is first-order and second-order, which is almost impossible."

Bagley said: "It is good to consume the heavy weapons in the dungeon. We can't let the heavy weapons in the dungeon. The more we store them, the more harmful it will be to us."

Tao Ran felt that Bagley's words were reasonable, and the two continued to talk, but Zhou Yu, who had just returned, couldn't intervene. He didn't understand these things at all.

The other side.

Zhang Gui was still looking for the ancient tree with the flower demon. He walked for four hours and finally arrived at the designated place. A flower demon warrior stared at Zhang Gui and asked, "Where is it? How long will it take to walk."

Zhang Gui wiped his sweat and said, "It should be near here, don't worry, it's dark, I have only been here once, let me look for it slowly."

The flower demon warriors were very upset, but at this moment, a pressure that made the flower demon warriors feel fear suddenly appeared.

A flower demon lying on the back of the flower demon warrior suddenly raised its head. It was horrified to see that a huge black shadow appeared on the mountain tens of meters away.

Under the moonlight, the black shadow was obviously like a dragon. When the flames in the dragon's mouth could not help but spray out from the nostrils and mouth, the flower demons could see clearly.

"Lu Yang? Hong Ye?"

"No, run away, Lu Yang is here."

The two flower demon hurriedly commanded the flower demon warriors to take them away. Unfortunately, it was too late to run at this time. Numerous vines emerged from the ground, and the two flower demon tightly wrapped them into rice dumplings. How could the rank Juli Flower Demon struggle, just can't get rid of it.

A smirk appeared at the corner of Hong Ye's mouth, a burst of flames burst out, the surrounding forest was lit by him, 200 flower demon warriors were swept by the dragon's breath, all turned to ashes, and even the rails were turned to ashes, from beginning to end. No one paid attention to him, and just disappeared into this world.

"Return to the dungeon." Lu Yang jumped onto the red night's Longkou, let him hold the vine, and flew back into the dungeon with the two flower monsters.

He did not send it directly to Grant's research room, but to the botanist's research room, where professors, doctoral supervisors from two agricultural universities, and the second-order wood masters were studying there.

"Boss." Professor Zong Cheng and Professor Xu Luo nodded to Lu Yang at the same time.

Lu Yang has always believed in one thing, that is, the future earth world is a world that combines magic and technology with brilliance.

Magic cannot completely unify the human world, and humans cannot rely solely on technology to repel creatures in different worlds. It is meaningless to exaggerate the civilization on one side alone. Only by combining the two can the most powerful things be produced.

Therefore, part of the red spirit fruit in Lu Yang's hand was given to university professors, especially those in botany and zoology, as well as electronic science, so they can apply magic to their existing subjects.

For example, before humans were able to use genetically modified methods to cultivate high-yield soybeans, now Lu Yang hopes that the two professors can cultivate more flower monsters.

"Is there a way to turn the Flower Demon into an unconscious fool and only blossom and bear fruit?" Lu Yang asked.

Zong Cheng said with bright eyes: "I need to get some slices and study it first."

Lu Yang said, "As soon as possible."

"Leave it to us." Xu Luo said.

Lu Yang left a flower demon and brought another flower demon to Grant's laboratory. He threw the flower demon on the ground and said, "This thing can regenerate with a broken arm. It takes longer. Give him more nutrient soil. He can heal himself faster."

When Grant saw the flower demon, his eyes lighted up. The flower demon was dumbfounded. The flower demon before was thrown in front of two weird men, and he felt something wrong. Now when he sees Grant, he feels even more wrong.

"Human, what are you going to do?" Flower Demon said furiously.

Lu Yang smiled at the Flower Demon and said, "Don't worry, we won't kill you, but you won't be better."

He turned and left.

"Roar~!" A sharp cry of pain sounded behind Lu Yang. He knew that it was the scream of the Flower Demon, because the Flower Demon was chopped off an arm.

The Blazing Demon said with emotion: "You humans are really a strange species."

Lu Yang smiled and said: "Don't be surprised. Humans can only develop rapidly in science and technology when they are at war. Now is war. In order not to perish, the potential that humans have exploded is very terrifying."

The Blazing Demon said: "I believe it."

Regardless of World War I or World War II, mankind's most terrifying murder weapon was researched in that era, and even some more advanced weapons were developed at that time.

In order to survive, humans often explode with powerful abilities, such as the construction of the entire Donghai New City.

Every day there will be new changes in the city wall, countless fortresses are built, the 60-meter-high city wall almost surrounds the entire mountain halfway.

Originally Dong'an County was occupied by the Dark Demon. After the Dark Demon was driven away, it was evacuated once by the Jagged Brothers. Now the soldiers of the Jagged Brothers and Fei Yang come here every day and keep a large number of them intact. The old building was dismantled, or the second-tier fighters, 30 or so people worked together, hollowed out the foundation of a villa, lifted it directly, and moved it to the mountain.

The same is true in the Old Town of the East China Sea. Although there is no mechanical help, each of the second-order fighters of the Jagged Brotherhood has a strength of 800 to 1,000 kilograms, and the working speed is not inferior to an excavator.

Some of the damaged high-rise buildings and the steel bars of the load-bearing walls were taken out and sent to the mountains to be used to build new cities.

One month later, when snow fell in the sky, the walls of the new city were all completed. On the halfway of a huge high mountain, a wall made of cement was completely enclosed.

The edges and corners of the mountain were also levelled by spells. Although there are not many buildings on the mountain, there are more than 100,000 soldiers. The soldiers in the dungeon are arranged outside. On the one hand, they are responsible for guarding. On the other hand, they are also You can train on the mountain, and you don't need to fight for living space with the residents of the dungeon.

Standing at the highest point of Donghai New City, Fei Yang tightened his tiger coat tightly, and said to Lu Yang with a smile, "Thanks to you, our dungeon has a life-saving foundation."

Lu Yang was also very emotional, and said: "Don't be too happy too early, the Flower Demon is coming, look at it, the first battle is about to begin."

When the snowflakes fell, in the canyon deep in the Wuming Mountain, Flanders regretted that he hadn't listened to Tao Ran's advice at the beginning. Now there is really snow and ice here. Flanders knows that they can't resist them. Icy.

Chapter 2133 - New monsters appear

"How long will this ice and snow last?" Flender asked with frowning looking at Tao Ran.

Tao Ran looked helpless and said, "You still don't understand the meaning of winter. Snow and ice will not last too long. It may only be a day or only half a day, but the temperature will increase. This is the same as the earth moves to the sun..."

Tao Ran realized that Flander was in a state of doubt, and she realized that the other world is a world dominated by elements, and that planet does not turn. Light and darkness are half each. Naturally, there is no rotation, revolution, and rotation of the earth. The problem of angles.

Bagley smiled and said: "You can understand that from now on, within the next 100 days, the water here will be frozen. On the 50th day, the temperature will reach its lowest point. 30 ° C."

When Flander said about the temperature of this world, he had already formed a concept. He showed a furious expression and said: "No, this temperature will completely freeze me and my people to death. I will never accept it."

Tao Ran smiled at the corner of his mouth and said, "We have a solution."

"What way?" Flender asked, staring at Tao Ran.

Tao Ran said: "Two methods, the first is to attack the dungeon, where the temperature can keep your people through the cold winter."

Flander said noncommittal, "The second one."

Tao Ran said: "The second way is to hide now, but this place is not easy to find."

Tao Ran's idea is very simple. On the one hand, it weakens the strength of the Flower Demon clan, so that the Flower Demon clan can know how to cooperate. As long as the Flower Demon needs to cooperate, Tao Ran and Wang Shijie will play a bigger role, because only they can play the best. Only by acting in series can they achieve the goal of Wang Shijie and Tao Ran, uniting all races to attack the dungeon.

Another aspect is to waste the heavy weapons of the dungeon. The flower demon has unlimited ability to create flower demon warriors. As long as they are immortal and have enough resources, they can create flower demon warriors infinitely, and use them to waste a wave of dungeons. Weapons, it will be easier to unite various races to attack in the future.

After listening, Flander remained silent and said, "Let me think about it again."

Tao Ran and Bagley thought that Flanders still had doubts about winter. In order to persuade Flanders, they also found Wang Shijie and asked him to persuade the Dark Demon to join in and attack Donghai New City together.

Manding also agreed, but Flander still did not let go. Seeing the coming of winter day by day, Bagley was the first to feel that something was wrong.

Inside a built wooden house, Bagley said to Tao Ran as he was on fire: "It's not right, my god, I feel Flander has other ideas."

Tao Ran didn't care, put his hands on the fire, and asked, "Why do you say that?"

Bagley said: "Flander has recently frequently sent his flower monsters to explore the depths of the mountains, as if they are looking for something. I suspect that he wants to run, not to fight with the Jagged Brothers."

Tao Ran frowned and asked, "Where else can I go? Winter is full of wind and snow. The Flower Demon will die unless they can find a warm place to hide from the cold wind."

Bagley opened the map on the watch, cast the screen in mid-air, pointed to the area on the south side of Wuming Mountain, and asked: "Flanders have been sending flower monsters here these days, and Flanders They are never allowed to go to the south of Wuming Mountain. I suspect there is a problem here."

Tao Ran asked, "Did you find anything?"

Bagley shook his head and said, "I don't know, so I need to find someone to see. Tomorrow I want to leave temporarily and sneak in to see what's going on."

Tao Ran nodded, and said with some dismay: "I need you to make suggestions by my side."

Zhou Yu, who has been following by the side with no chance of meritorious service, said immediately: "I'll go."

Tao Ran was a little worried, and asked, "Can you do it?"

"Of course." Zhou Yu said quickly. He didn't want to be robbed of the chance of meritorious service that he finally got. Another thing, he found that Bagley was too smart. He couldn't say anything about this person, so it's better to go alone.

Tao Ran thought for a while and said, "Well, pay attention to safety."

Zhou Yu nodded. Right now, he walked out of the room, looked at his watch, and ran towards the south side of Wuming Mountain.

Bagley watched Zhou Yu's departure, and smiled and said to Tao Ran, "I followed him. He will definitely be found if he goes. I'm hiding and it's easy to find something."

Tao Ran didn't expect Bagley to say this. After thinking about it, it feels right. Zhou Yu has been here for so many days, except for the feeling of recklessness, there is nothing clever about it, just letting the spell go alone is really uneasy.

“Pay attention to safety, go early and return early,” Tao Ran said.

Bagley nodded and went out quietly. He has been using a perfume for Zhou Yu these days, which will stay in the air for a long time.

Zhou Yu himself also likes to use perfume, especially among the flower demon, where fragrance is everywhere. In order to blend into it, he also uses perfume.

Bagley originally had a keen sense of smell, but after practicing, he became more keen on smell. He followed Zhou Yu in the area 1 kilometer behind Zhou Yu, and he could smell the target at any time.

Zhou Yu ran ahead and didn't find Bagley at all. Looking at the footprints on the ground, he ran for several hours. Finally, in a forest, Zhou Yu found more than 100 flower demon warriors running fast. Ten of them at the beginning also held a very large flower demon body.

When they ran, the rustling noise from the surrounding bushes was extremely loud. Zhou Yu saw that the opportunity had come, so he ran to the vicinity and followed them.

Followed all the way for two days, and finally, after walking through a few big mountains, I came to another mountainous area.

Bagley has been cautiously decorating the back, but when he also entered the mountain, he instinctively felt something was wrong, because he smelled a strange smell, which was not of any kind of monster he had ever seen. The taste is not the taste of any demonized creature, which makes Bagley feel bad instinctively.

He carefully climbed up a tall tree and looked into the distance. Unfortunately, he couldn't see anything, but he grew a mind and hid on the tree to rest. According to his instinct, Zhou Zhou Yu should be caught at this time.

In the evening, Bagley jumped down from the tree and continued to search for the smell in the forest. Although the smell was very weak, Bagley still found it.

Four hours later.

Bagley found a brightly lit village ahead. He leaned forward under the cover of night. When he came closer, he couldn't help but his eyes widened, because he saw a group of people he had never seen before. Monster.

The skins of these monsters are red. uukanshu.com has screams on his head, his appearance is similar to that of human beings, his height is about 2.5 meters, there is no hair up and down all over his body, and there is a flame of fire in his hands at any time.

Looking around again, Bagley suddenly reacted. He knew where he was. At the door of the village not far away, there was a sign, and the flames from a few red demons occasionally shot out the words on it.

“Donghai Hot Spring Village~!”

Bagley understood it now, and then looked inside the village. Just as he was about to enter, he found that Zhou Yu was dead and hung on a wooden shelf at the entrance of the village.

“Oh, both baits are used up. It will be hard to live in the future.” Bagley turned his head and quickly ran towards Wuming Mountain.

But instead of returning directly to the Wuming Mountain, he went to the area of the Dark Demon first, and after reporting the incident to Wang Shijie, did he return to the Wuming Mountain.

When Bagley returned here, on the other side, Xue Renyi took advantage of Wang Shijie's carelessness and secretly went up the mountain to use the intercom and reported the incident to Lu Yang.

Lu Yang was completely unfamiliar with the newly emerging demon that could catch fire. Fortunately, with the Blazing Demon God, he knew what this newly emerging demon was.

"In the ancient war, after the death of the primitive fire elves, they scattered into countless fragments. The smallest fragments formed the low-level flame demon. This creature is born with Tier 2 and releases Tier 2 flames at will. Where there is magma, Can leapfrog and use Tier 3 flames, be careful, if they come from the patriarch of Tier 3, I am afraid they can use Tier 3 peak spells, or even Tier 4 basic spells." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang had no way to release Tier 3 fire demon-level spells, but he didn't expect these fire monsters to be released easily.

The Blazing Demon continued: "You have to find a way to kill the Flower Demon as soon as possible. You must not let the Flower Demon and the Flame Demon act together. You must know that the Flower Demon is a melee, and the Flame Demon is a long-range fire system. The two complement each other. It can create infinitely. When the Flame Demon attacks, you don't have to worry about the survival of the Flower Demon warriors. Once the two races cooperate, your warriors will be very passive when fighting with them."

Lu Yang understood as soon as he thought about it, and nodded and said, "It's true, don't worry, I already have a solution."

Blazing Demon God was a little surprised, and asked, "What is the solution?"

Lu Yang said: "Since the Flower Demon wants to run, they never thought about forming an alliance with the Dark Demon. If so, how about I sneak attack on the Dark Demon at night? First kill the 40,000 Dark Demon under Manding."

The Blazing Demon frowned and asked, "If the Flower Demon tries to avoid these 100,000 soldiers, what should I do if he comes to sneak attack?"

Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth and said, "My purpose is to lure the flower demon to send the flower demon warriors to attack. I want the flower demon to prepare a gift that will never be remembered for a lifetime."

In this month, Grant has been making ice spell scrolls. There are currently more than 5,000. As long as there is another month, the number can exceed 10,000, although they are all Tier 2 ice spells. It was still the most basic Blizzard skill, but with enough ice scrolls, and the increasingly cold weather, he had to prepare a large ice formation for the Flower Demon.

The Blazing Demon God said: "This method is okay, but if your men sneak attack on the Dark Demon, how can you let them come back to fight?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Fire Lion, my Fire Lion Army is about to take shape."

Before going to the imperial capital, Lu Yang caught a lot of enchanted lions. These lions are first-order creatures, but they can breathe fire. They are more than 2 meters tall. They are strong and run fast. They can run four in a row with three people. Hours, more than 300 kilometers.

It was impossible to quantify production before. The reason was that there was not enough food, but now it's different. After the two wars in Yanshan, the 20,000 soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood have become veterans, all of them with Tier 2 strength. The demonized creatures in the Old Town of the East China Sea have become more comfortable.

A large number of demonized creatures were killed, and the demon cores taken out were given to the newly grown children in the dungeon for cultivation. Part of the flesh and blood of the demonized creatures was thrown to the Hydra Emperor to continue to produce venom, and the other part, Most of them were given to the fire lion raised on the nearby mountain.

Now the number of fire lions has exceeded 5,000, and within a month, it will increase by about 1,000.

Although the fire lion's character is very violent, but this month, the cavalry brothers of the Jagged Brotherhood have been living with the fire lion.

In the face of the second-tier powerhouses, they still treat them well. The first-tier fire lions quickly surrendered. Now the only thing that is bad is riding. As long as the riding skills pass, the power of the fire lion army will let All the demons around felt terrified.

In the past, Lu Yang's Jagged Brothers soldiers could not run to the camp of the Dark Demon in one day and one night. That was because the Dark Demon was hidden in the mountains and forests. There was no highway for cars to drive. It would take a day to go back and forth by people. One night.

Now with the fire lion, they run in the forest without being affected by the terrain. They can run to the area where Manding is hiding in three hours. If the attack is successful, they will surely make both the Dark Demon and the Flower Demon think that Lu Yang will do their best. Attack the Manding area.

The Flower Demon is very likely to take this opportunity to let 100,000 Flower Demon warriors attack the dungeon. After all, when the Flower Demon didn't know that Lu Yang had a fire lion, he thought that Lu Yang could not come back in one night. .

Furthermore, the Flower Demons don't even know that Lu Yang still has such things as Blizzard Scrolls. As long as they dare to come, Lu Yang will have the confidence to destroy them. Of course, the premise is that they need to wait another month, and only wait another month. Time, all the things of the Jagged Brotherhood will be ready.

Lu Yang took out the phone and sent a message to Xue Renyi and Bagley, saying: "Bagley must hold the Flower Demon for a month, and Xue Renyi inspires Wang Shijie to find the Flame Demon."

Xue Renyi was the first to receive the news, a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, and he quickly walked back to the dark magic camp.

Among the wooden houses in the corner, Xue Renyi just walked to the door and heard Wang Shijie's roar: "Assholes, all assholes, all damned, all damned."

Xue Renyi glanced at Cao Hong who was standing at the door, and asked, "What's wrong?"

Cao Hong shrugged and said, "We can't think of a solution."

"I have." Xue Renyi walked into the house, watched Wang Shijie bow respectfully, and said: "My lord, the villain has an idea, which may be useful to you."

"Idea? What's the idea?" Wang Shijie was furious, speaking very rudely.

Xue Renyi said: "You should go to the area of the fire demon now. Since you are the envoy on this planet designated by the alien god, the fire demon should also be under your jurisdiction. If you haven't found it before, forget it. Now that they have found it, they should listen to you."

Wang Shijie's eyes lit up and said, "It makes sense, I should go to them."

Since Wang Shijie and the entire temple were expelled from all the bases of China, the temple and Wang Shijie had less and less power to speak with otherworldly gods. This was the fundamental reason that the flower demon and the dark demon ignored them.

But after all, they are the designated liaisons of otherworldly gods on this planet. If Wang Shijie can unite the Fire Demon, Dark Demon, and Flower Demon to attack the dungeon, the chance of defeating them will become even greater. At that time, Wang Shijie and the others The right to speak is even greater.

Xue Renyi thought for a while and said, "You should also tell Manding about this. On the one hand, you should increase your bargaining chips in Manding's mind. On the other hand, let Manding scold Flanders, if the Dark Demon despises Flanders. Flower demon, the flower demon must not dare to run away so blatantly."

The two races can use all kinds of conspiracy and tricks when they are not honored, but when it comes to the glory of the race and the glory of the elemental gods, they must fight each other with their lives. If Manding scolds the flower devil, they will only run away. , The flower demon's ethnic group will be put to shame, and the main * of the natural elements will also be put to shame.

Wang Shijie understood it instantly, patted Xue Renyi on the shoulder with excitement, and said with a terrifying face: "You are very right. Give you credit, I will go to Manding."

If anyone in this world does not want to see the creatures of the natural type gods become powerful, it must be the creatures of the dark type gods.

Manding can tolerate human beings becoming stronger, because he knows that when the warped space-time gradually expands, more and more dark protoss will come, and even more powerful gods will come to the world. At that time, humans will also perish.

But what he could not tolerate was that when the more powerful gods of various races came to the world, he found that the race of the natural deity faction had an extremely large population in the human world, while the race of the dark deity faction he was in was extremely withered.

At that time, his * would be ridiculed by the gods of nature, the Lord humiliated his officials and died, and the gods he worshiped were ridiculed because of himself, then Manding had to commit suicide, and even destroyed his race to atone for the dark gods. Up.

Therefore, when Mandin learned the news from Wang Shijie, he did not hesitate to come to the gate of Wuming Mountain, pinching his waist and shouting loudly: "Flander, you cowardly coward, the gods of nature It's just like you..."

Flanders, who was hiding in the depths of the gorge, heard Mandin yelling or cursing his god, and fell into a rage. The body flew directly out of the gorge and came to the gate, with a huge flower demon body face. Facing Manding, he resisted the urge to shoot and said, "Manding, if you don't give me a reasonable explanation today, the flower demon clan will officially start a war against the dark demon."

Manding was not afraid of the more and more flower demon and flower demon warriors around him. He looked at Flander with contempt and said, "If you want to explain, I will give it to you. To clarify, what is going on in Hot Spring Village?"

"Hot Spring Village?" Flender was stunned for an instant, and his heart was guilty. Originally, Flender's idea was to pretend to form an alliance with the Dark Demon, and finally hid in the Hot Spring Village with his race, allowing the Dark Demon to bear the anger of the Jagged Brotherhood.

After a while, the distortion of time and space expands, and when more different world races are born, the creatures of their natural * family will far surpass the dark gods in number. If a natural * descends, they will be greatly praised. , This is far more suitable than fighting humans.

But these are carried out in secret, and cannot be said on the table. On the bright side, all the gods in the different world have signed a joint contract. All alien creatures that have invaded the earth will advance and retreat together. They will first defeat humans and then delimit their respective areas. , If you violate this contract, you will be spurned by all elemental elves and gods.

Of course, this kind of contract is on the bright side, and everyone will not abide by it in private. But now Mandin is on the bright side and talks, but Flanders dare not violate any. Rand's is the punishment of genocide.

Manding saw Flander's expression and knew that Wang Shijie and the others were telling the truth. He sneered and stared at Flander and said, "You want to escape? Right? It turns out that the natural races are all cowards, really. There are all kinds of races for any gods, and you are all cowardly wastes."

"Nonsense." Flender was furious and couldn't scold him, let alone scold his god. He stared at Mandin and said: "If you dare to insult our god, I will kill you."

Manding said: "Then you explain what is going on in the hot spring village?"

Flender couldn't figure out how Manding knew about Hot Spring Village, but he couldn't escape now, and said: "I just discovered that there is a race of our natural gods in Hot Spring Village. I am contacting them to join us. Attacking the dungeon, I just haven't told you yet."

"Oh? That's it." Manding said with a sly smile, "Why don't we go find them together, or discuss how to attack the Donghai Underground City."

Flander was a little dumbfounded, he found that he had fallen completely into Mandin's trap, but he had nothing to do. In any case, he couldn't let his race and his * bear the cowardly infamy.

Under no circumstances, Flander had to personally take Manding to the hot spring village. A day later, the two came to the door of the hot spring village. The flower demon warrior had already notified the flame demon. Therefore, at the gate, the low-level flame Abreetz, head of the Demon Clan, is waiting with the elders of the Flame Demon Clan.

Seeing Flanders, Abbrez ignored him, tapped his right hand on the chest and said to Manding, "Welcome to Manding, the chief of the dark demon."

Manding looked at Abrez with a little triumph, and said: "Listen to Flanders, you want to attack the dungeon with us, right."

Abbrez wanted to kill Flanders. He helped Flanders because everyone belonged to the natural gods. However, Flanders sold him as soon as he encountered problems. Is to make him angry.

Flander also knew that he had done something improper, and said with a smile: "This matter needs to be discussed carefully."

Manding frowned and asked: "Why, you don't want to attack the dungeon? Don't you want to welcome the Lord God to come sooner?"

Flanders and Abrez were speechless at the same time, Mandin occupied the moral high ground, and the two had no way to refute.

Abbrez said with some emotion: "I only have more than 2,000 flame demons here. When it comes to fighting, I have to rely on the two of you."

Mandin was stunned and asked: "How can it be so few?"

Abbrez said helplessly: "We encountered a problem when we passed through the warped time and space. Most of the more than 20,000 flame demon died in the warped time and space. Only our more than 2,000 flame demon survived. People are injured, and now there are signs of remission."

Manding nodded, he also flew over from the twisted time and space, knowing the danger there, and said: "Let's talk about how to attack, even if there are only 2,000 flame demons, the power of you and the flower demons is very terrifying, I believe that with the addition of our dark demons, we still have a chance to lay down the dungeon.”

All of the heavy weapons in the dungeon are long-range weapons, which are not very useful for close combat.

If the Dark Demon and Flower Demon can quickly assault the wall area of the dungeon, they can make the heavy weapons of the dungeon lose their power.

“Let’s go in and talk, Wang Shijie is also here.” Abrez said helplessly.

Manding had known about Wang Shijie’s arrival and stepped inside, but Flanders didn’t know it. He turned around and glared at Tao Ran, but Tao Ran showed a confused expression, which made Flander feel a little suspicious. .

Originally, Flanders believed that Tao Ran first knew about the hot spring village. Now that Tao Ran is in this state, Wang Shijie has arrived first, making him a little confused.

In a luxurious hall in the hot spring village, even in such a warm place, Wang Shijie was still wrapped in thick clothes to prevent his appearance and any body from being exposed.

Wang Shijie, who has become an inhuman and ghost, can live all because of the life-saving scroll given to him by the Dark God. This scroll can isolate all external things, such as sunlight and air. Wang Shijie now only exists between life and death. State, he can’t perceive the taste, let alone the temperature.

Xue Renyi was by Wang Shijie’s side. but he was different from Wang Shijie. He was soaking in the hot spring water and enjoying the hot spring water comfortably. He said to Wang Shijie: “My lord, you only need to unite this time. With the flame demon, you can take down the dungeon, warp time and space with 1 million sacrifices, and let the dark * descend into the world.”

Wang Shijie was also looking forward to it. He had had enough of this half-dead form, and he was even more envious of Xue Renyi’s enjoyment in the hot spring, and said: “I will let the flame demon join in. No one can stop the coming of the gods.”

Manding just entered the door and said triumphantly: “Yes, no one can stop the coming of God, Abrez has agreed to fight with us.”

Wang Shijie turned his head and looked at the door. Mandin, Abrez, and Flanders were standing together. Suddenly, Wang Shijie felt passionate in his heart. He stood up and said excitedly: “With your three races united together, the dungeon must Will perish.”

“We can prepare to welcome the coming of the gods.” Xue Renyi exclaimed in excitement, secretly, he was already thinking about how to inform Lu Yang of this as soon as possible.

Chapter 2136 - Heroes come out in large numbers

Faced with Xue Renyi’s slogan, no one dared to have any objections. The patriarchs of these different worlds—Mandin, Fred, and Abrez, were sent to the human world by foreign gods for the purpose of cooperating. Wang Shijie’s actions brought the alien gods to come as soon as possible.

Now the three clans were tied to the chariot by this slogan, and had to launch an attack on the dungeon. For a while, the three parties sat on the sofa to discuss.

“I think we should fight as soon as possible.” Flender frowned, his feeling for temperature was very strong, and the cold made his body weaker and weaker.

Abrez said: “I also agree that if ice and snow really fall, the power of our flame demon will be reversed by half.”

Manding didn’t have any feelings about the temperature, he just hated the sun and said, “It’s best to do it at night.”

“How about tomorrow? We will storm the dungeon tomorrow night.” Abrez said.

Xue Renyi was shocked. The task he received was to promote a tripartite alliance and postpone the time until after late November.

It’s just mid-November now, and there are still nearly 10 days left. If the war starts tomorrow, it will be extremely detrimental to the Jagged Brotherhood.

The combination of the three races is very terrifying. 100,000 flower demon warriors, 40,000 dark demon, plus 2,000 flame demon, especially these 2,000 flame demon, Xue Renyi has seen their attack methods, they can create large fireballs to throw in the sky, use magical energy to throw a fireball into an area 500 meters away.

The fireball is so powerful that it can burn the area within 10 meters of the surrounding area to ashes. If a sneak attack is launched tomorrow night, only these 2,000 flame demons can cause severe damage to the dungeon, not to mention the dark demons suitable for fighting in the dark. The flower demon warrior created infinitely.

Xue Renyi immediately moved his head, but now he wants to break his head and can’t figure out a solution to the problem. At this moment, another believer beside Wang Shijie who was rescued at the same time as Bagley said: “Three patriarchs, I know that one enters The secret passage of the dungeon.”

“Secret passage.” Manding, Flanders, Abrez, Wang Shijie, Tao Ran and others all looked at this man in surprise.

Wang Shijie asked, “Jiang Cheng, are you sure?”

Jiang Cheng showed the expression of being a villain, deliberately glanced at Xue Renyi, and said to Wang Shijie: “My lord, the villain is absolutely true, because I used to be a construction team member in the underground city construction. When I was in the city, Lu Yang specially built a tunnel for escape. I know where it is.”

“What?” Mandin, Flender and others were excited.

Wang Shijie asked excitedly: "Where?"

Jiang Cheng scratched his head and said, "In a cave in a big mountain next to the dungeon, but I don't remember it well, I need to look for it."

After all, no one cared about these things at the time. Those mountains were also unnamed mountains, and they were all in the car when they entered. The food and lodging were all on the mountains. As far as the location was concerned, only a general direction could be known, but this was enough.

Wang Shijie fiercely looked back at Mandin, Flanders and Abbrez, and said triumphantly: "If you can enter from the inside, the dungeon will be breached in an instant, and the 3 million people inside can become all your fertilizer and parasites. ."

This is the least costly way to lay down the dungeon. Originally, Mandin and Flanders were prepared to die two-thirds of the tribe. Now they can only pay a small amount of casualties, and they are naturally willing.

Flander stared at Jiang Cheng and asked, "How many days will it take?"

Jiang Cheng showed an embarrassed expression and said, "It takes ten days and eight days."

Flender said: "Five days, you only have five days."

Jiang Cheng looked at Wang Shijie, and Wang Shijie said to Flender: "You must cooperate in the front, otherwise he will be the only one, and he will not be able to find it in 5 days."

Flander looked at Mandin and said: "It is risky to look for it during the day. We can only look for it far away from the shadow of the underground city. At night, we still need the people of Mandin to look for it nearby."

Manding said: "No problem."

Jiang Cheng smiled and said, "It will be much easier if you help me."

"Do it now," Flander said.

Jiang Cheng accompanied the smiling face and said, "All other world gods are still envoys. I have a small request. I hope to give me more strength. I am too weak and I hope to gain strength."

Wang Shijie let out a jealous laugh, and said: "As long as this task is completed, I will personally ask the gods for you."

Flander, Mandin, and Abbez glanced at each other and all showed sneer expressions. They knew that human beings would betray everything in order to gain strength. Sure enough, it happened again.

Xue Renyi was shocked at this time. If there was such a secret road, the Donghai Dungeon would be finished, but he has no way now. When he was anxious and desperately thinking about ways, Jiang Cheng went on to say: "I still I want to make a suggestion."

"Say." Wang Shijie now has a great tolerance for Jiang Cheng.

Jiang Cheng said excitedly: "Since it is about to fight, everything must be managed according to the wartime methods. Xue Renyi and Bagley, these useless people, let them stay in the Wuming Mountain. Get out."

"Why?" Xue Renyi asked uncomfortably.

Jiang Cheng said with a sneer, "I'm afraid there are spies among you, so I don't allow you to go out. If this breaks the plan of the envoys and the gods, you will not be blamed for 10,000 deaths."

Wang Shijie said: "Okay, it's up to you. Starting today, Wang Shijie, Bagley and others are not allowed to leave."

“Why do we become spies? I think you are a spy.” Xue Renyi was anxious. He didn’t expect Jiang Cheng to be such a * and would not even give him a chance to go out and report a letter. In this way, wouldn’t the dungeon be Danger.

In a hurry, Xue Renyi jumped out of the hot spring to find Jiang Cheng, but Jiang Cheng grabbed Xue Renyi’s arm, and secretly tapped Xue Renyi’s arm a few times when Xue Renyi was unable to move. The code word of the Jagged Brotherhood.

Xue Renyi understood in an instant that Jiang Cheng was his own, but Jiang Cheng did so obviously to sacrifice himself and protect him and Bagley.

Xue Renyi quickly replied in a coded language: You will die.

Jiang Cheng sneered. While Cao Hong, Zhang Lin and others came up to persuade him, he pushed Xue Renyi aside and said, “I will open this door for God. Don’t make trouble.”

Tao Ran saw that Xue Renyi was still going forward, and stopped Xue Renyi and said, “Stay here for the time being to cultivate.”

Facing everyone’s gaze, Xue Renyi glanced at Jiang Cheng again, pretending to be helpless, and said: “Well, if you don’t believe me, then I will be here to soak in the hot spring.”

He returned to the hot spring and lay in comfortably. Soon, Bagley and several other people also came in, and they all complained to Jiang Cheng, but Xue Renyi found an opportunity to explain Jiang Cheng’s identity to Bagley. Up.

The other side.

Flanders, Manding, and Abretz hurried back to Wuming Mountain with Jiang Cheng, and Manding returned to the camp halfway, taking advantage of the night, with thousands of dark demons rushing to support.

From the next morning, Jiang Cheng led people to search for this cave. He did know the location of the cave, but it was Lu Yang's last resort to save his life. He would never reveal it, so he would only give the false position.

I found one and found nothing during the day. At night, Manding led some people to search for it, but he still couldn't find it. By the next morning, Xue Renyi, Bagley and others returned to the Wuming Mountain Canyon with the Flame Demon Legion.

Before no one noticed, Bagley went up the mountain to use the intercom and reported the incident to Lu Yang, and said, "Boss, what should I do next."

Lu Yang said, "Tell Jiang Cheng to let him lead all the enemies into the gorge of Maple Leaf Mountain. There is a cave there, big enough, and I will conduct an ambush there."

"Okay." Bagley quickly hung up and tried to inform Jiang Cheng that he had gone.

Inside the Donghai Underground City.

Lu Yang quickly came to Grant's laboratory and said, "You have eight days left. You must make another 5000 ice scrolls for me."

"I must complete the task," Grant said through gritted teeth.

Lu Yang didn't say a word. He knew Grant would do it when he said it. He turned around and went to the cold storage in the dungeon.

Among the countless frozen meats, under a few not too bright cold lights, the lovely queen and 112 ice mages, their whole bodies turned into ice sculptures, were practicing desperately.

Although a trace of pity flashed on Lu Yang's face, he knew that he could not show a fragile expression, and his voice firmly asked, "How far have you cultivated?"

The lovely queen opened her eyes that were about to be frozen, and said with a trembling whole body: "There is an 80% chance that you can use the magic circle and the third-order spell-Arctic Freezing."

Lu Yang said: "I want 100%, you only have less than 10 days left."

"We must do it." The lovely queen said vigorously.

Lu Yang didn't speak, he left the cold storage and returned to the meeting room. He brought in Zhuojiu, Baishi and others, and began to make the final preparations.

For the next five days, the Jagged Brotherhood was calm on the surface, but secretly sent a large number of soldiers to the canyon of Maple Leaf Mountain to explore the terrain, to ensure that everyone was familiar with the situation there, and every day after the investigation was completed, Remove the remaining traces.

On the flower devil's side, Jiang Cheng took the flower demon warrior and the dark demon warrior and strolled around Maple Leaf Mountain for five days, but found nothing. By the morning of the sixth day, the temperature in the early morning was almost zero. This made Flander furious. In the depths of Wuming Mountain, he pointed to Jiang Cheng who had returned and roared, "Do you know the location of the cave?"

Jiang Cheng looked tired, and said helplessly: "I tried my best, you know, no one would specifically go to see where the escape route is. When Lu Yang built this place, you hadn't come yet. Everyone I thought Lu Yang was crazy, I only remember the approximate location."

"Then you found it." Flander said angrily.

Jiang Cheng said, "It should be coming soon."

"I ate you." The huge flowers on Flemish's body have opened to this Jiang Cheng, and the countless needle-like teeth inside make people shudder.

Wang Shijie pulled Jiang Cheng, who was frightened on the ground, behind him, staring at Flanders' body, and said, "What anxious, there is still a long time before the snow falls."

Flander already felt the temperature is getting lower and lower, and his body became more and more uncomfortable, and said: "The last three days, if we haven't found it after three days, we will launch an attack. will be the time. You all go to the hot spring village for me, there is no need for your waste here."

Wang Shijie was furious, but Tao Ran stopped him and took a few people away. When he returned to the wooden house, Tao Ran looked at Jiang Cheng and asked, "How sure are you?"

Jiang Cheng showed a simple face and said, "I should have found it soon. I found several mountains I have visited before. They should be in this area. I will find them within three days."

Wang Shijie stared at Jiang Cheng and said, "Don't let me down, or I will kill you myself."

"It must be." Jiang Cheng looked scared, but inside, Jiang Cheng was laughing secretly. He was a local and knew the temperature in the East China Sea very well. It seems that the temperature is still above zero, but there will be three more days , The temperature will drop below zero overnight.

"My task is about to be completed. Don't think I am an ordinary person. I am worthy of my nation and my brother." Jiang Cheng's heart became more and more determined.

Chapter 2137 - Maple Valley Ambush

On the sixth day, Jiang Cheng still took the flower demons around the mountain. On the seventh day, he was still spinning. On the eighth day, the cold current suddenly came and the temperature dropped to zero. The leaves in the early morning were covered with a layer. Frost.

Flander stared at Jiang Cheng and said, "Today is the last day of the deadline. If you still can't find it, I must have eaten you."

Jiang Cheng looked terrified and said, "Please don't kill me, I will try my best to find it."

Flander already felt his body gradually become weak, he said: "You only have this day, and your life is in your hands."

"I'm going to find it now." Jiang Cheng ran towards Maple Leaf Mountain with a look of horror.

Flanders was afraid that Jiang Cheng would run away, so he used the flower demon warrior he made to personally follow Jiang Cheng, but Tao Ran, Wang Shijie and others had no hope and did not follow.

When passing by the hut, Tao Ran and Wang Shijie did not come out to see him, but Jiang Cheng saw the charcoal spilling at the door, and the corner of his mouth rose slightly. It was a secret sign set by Xue Renyi and him, proving that Lu Yang was ready. Prepare, he knows, he only has the last task left.

Half a day.

Jiang Cheng led the Flemish Flower Demon Warrior to Maple Leaf Mountain. In the deepest part of the canyon, he found a dark cave. Suddenly, Jiang Cheng showed an expression of excitement and said to Flander: "I found it. , Right here."

Flander was about to kill Jiang Cheng. The cold weather made him very painful. Hearing this, he was not excited, but asked suspiciously: "Are you sure?"

"I'm sure, right here, follow me in." Jiang Cheng led Flanders into the cave. After walking for a few kilometers, he saw a gate made entirely of steel. The gate was 3 meters high. , 5 meters wide, there are many cameras on it.

Flander just showed his head and immediately retracted. When he saw this, he had determined that this was the entrance of the dungeon, and it was also in line with the distance of the dungeon to build an escape route.

“Good job.” Flender was very satisfied with Jiang Cheng and said, “I’m a human being. Tonight, we will launch a general attack on this place.”

Jiang Cheng nodded repeatedly, and as Flanders withdrew from the cave, Flanders’ consciousness withdrew from the flower demon warrior.

Deep in the Unknown Canyon.

“Om~!”

A strange voice appeared. Numerous flower monsters rose from the ground around the lake, and the flower monster warriors who came by carried them on their backs. From the other side of the mountain, they escaped Lu Yang’s monitoring and quickly Walk towards the outside of the canyon.

Following them were 2000 flame warriors, and Manding quickly ran back to his camp, bringing 40,000 dark demons to the Maple Leaf Mountain Canyon.

In the evening, 100,000 flower demon fighters, 1,000 flower demon bodies, 2,000 flame demon and 40,000 dark demon fighters, all gathered in the depths of the Maple Leaf Mountain Canyon.

The temperature during the day is zero degrees, and the temperature at night is even as low as minus 6 degrees. A gust of wind will make the flower demon warriors feel trembling, especially the flame demon, they hate this low temperature very much.

“Damn it, attack quickly, or I’m going to set the mountain on fire.” Abrez said furiously.

Flender’s body kept swaying against the cold, and said: “It’s not enough now. Our nourishment has not been delivered. Without nourishment, our flower demon warrior cannot continue to make it after his death.”

Wang Shijie said: "One more thing, now is not the best time to attack. It will be the best time to attack until three o'clock in the morning when the people in the dungeon are asleep."

"Damn it." Abrez knew that should be the case, but he would be furious because of the cold, but at this time their flame demon could not create flames for heating, because it was only a few kilometers away from the mountain in the East China Sea Underground City. Distance, if there is a fire here, it is easy to be found.

But what they didn't know was that on the way they came, on the top of the mountain a hundred meters away on both sides of the gorge, the 20,000 soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood had already ambushed on the mountain for a day in advance.

Including Lu Yang, everyone was lying motionless on the cold grass, because they knew that if they were discovered by the enemy, then the only chance of destroying the enemy might disappear. If the enemy was allowed to flee in the coming year, the East China Sea Underground City will fall into an unprecedented crisis, so in order to be able to have a stable year, these 20,000 people have all worked hard.

Lu Yang was hiding on the mountain on the east side of Maple Leaf. Through the telescope, he saw that all the enemies had entered the encirclement. He knew that he was ready to attack.

"The soldier, tell the lovely queen, set up an ice and snow formation, tell all the soldiers to be prepared, and after hearing my order, throw out the ice and snow scroll together." Lu Yang said.

"Yes." A dozen messengers immediately ran towards the surroundings, and they encountered the rustle caused by the grass, but they were covered by the sound of the cold wind blowing leaves.

Under the bright moonlight, the inside of the canyon can still be seen clearly. Lu Yang has been waiting for Jiang Cheng to find a chance to escape, but time is limited. If Jiang Cheng can't run, he will die here.

Jiang Cheng was also free to leave, but he was by Wang Shijie's side, and Wang Shijie was by Flander, Manding and others.

He had been unable to intervene before, but now that no one is speaking, he hastened to say: "My gods and gods, my strength is low, can you let me stay at the end of the team and stay here, I'm useless. ."

Flander showed a sardonic expression. With Jiang Cheng's strength, his flower demon warrior could kill him with a single finger, and said, "Weak human beings."

Tao Ran was about to agree to Jiang Cheng's departure, but Wang Shijie stared at Jiang Cheng suddenly and said, "Why do you want to go, you are the best guide, isn't this the way to the underground city?"

A cold sweat appeared from Jiang Cheng's back, and he quickly said, "How is this possible? The door and the surveillance camera are there."

Wang Shijie stared at Jiang Cheng carefully, but did not see the problem, and said, "Then you will stay."

Jiang Cheng smiled. He knew that he really couldn't run this time, and he would die here. He said loudly, "Stay, just stay. Whoever is afraid of death will not happen, I will be at the forefront."

Lu Yang heard these words clearly from the top of the mountain. He knew that it was Jiang Cheng who was passing the news to him, and Jiang Cheng was about to die in his country.

At that moment, Lu Yang's eyes were moist. Recalling the moment when he met Jiang Cheng, Jiang Cheng was just an ordinary person, because he was ordinary in length, ordinary in playing games, and ordinary in all aspects of his family. Only his head was slightly smarter. Suitable for being an intelligence officer, recruited by Lu Yang.

In the past seven years, Jiang Cheng has performed well, completing dozens of missions, large and small. After each completion, he continues to remain anonymous without being discovered. He is the most powerful intelligence officer of the Jagged Brothers. In fact, he has done it. The next level of Qing Qian Zimeng's position is already at the top level.

Beginning with the emergence of the temple in the dungeon, Jiang Chengcheng felt that there was a problem with the temple and took the initiative to ask Ying to spy on the reality of the temple. This time he actively accepted the task.

Jiang Zhi can be an ordinary person, but he is willing to sacrifice for his country. This kind of feeling is not something ordinary people can have.

Inside the valley.

Manding didn't pay attention to Jiang Cheng's words, he said to Flander with a grim expression: "This time, no one is allowed to move Lu Yang in. I will kill him personally and avenge my dead 60,000 men."

Flander opened his huge flower mouth and said, "You kill him, and I will eat him again. I will make him my slave soldier forever."

Both of them hated Lu Yang, and because there was no one else in the canyon talking, only the two of them were chatting, and they didn't deliberately lower their voices, so that Lu Yang on the top of the mountain 100 meters away could also hear it.

At this time, more than a dozen messengers ran back.

"The regiment is ready and can launch an offensive at any time."

"The second regiment is ready to do so and can launch an offensive at any time."

...

"The Twenty Regiment is ready and can launch an offensive at any time."

There was a sneer at the corner of Lu Yang's mouth. He knew that the time for the war had come. Suddenly, he took it up from the grass on the top of the mountain, looked at Flanders and Manding at the bottom of the mountain, and said, "You two, I don't need you to go in, Lu Yang. Come out, all attack."

"Ice Scroll-Blizzard."

Countless Jagged Brothers soldiers on the surrounding mountaintops stood up, crushed the scroll in their hands and threw them down the valley. In mid-air, ice cubes containing a goose egg of minus 40 degrees poured out from the scroll.

A scroll can continuously release a blizzard for 10 seconds on the surrounding area of 30 meters. There are 10,000 scrolls in total. In an instant, the already frozen valley was filled with countless ice cubes. Before the ice and snow were over, the lovely queen took There are 112 ice mages, and a huge ice formation is listed at the same time.

“Ultra Zero Cryotherapy”

With the open space in the middle of the valley as the center, within 5 kilometers of the surrounding area, the temperature dropped to minus 40 degrees, and the cold wind roared, and the flower demon warrior in the center of the attack range was instantly frozen into ice sculptures.

The dark demons are also frozen by countless ice cubes, making it difficult to fight. The flame demons with the strongest combat power among them, more than 2000 flame demons release the flames in their bodies at this time, but they can only remove the cold around them. The ice melted, but the cold wind screamed, and the ice and snow continued. Their flame abilities were all used to protect themselves, and there was no chance to release their skills.

Flander’s body looked at the sky full of snow and Lu Yang in horror, and said loudly, “Why are you lying in ambush here.”

The spike in Manding’s hand pierced Jiang Cheng in an instant, and he cursed: “What else is going on? This Jiang Cheng is a spy at all.”

“Damn humans, you * tactics.” Flemish’s flower demon snarled up to the sky, but it was of no use.

Under the frost, even his actions are extremely difficult, not to mention other creatures. Now whether it is the giant flower demon, the thorn flower demon, the poisonous flower demon or the flaming flower demon, they have all been frozen and lost most of their abilities. , They can’t even come to flee, because their soldiers have turned into ice sculptures in the freezing.

Chapter 2138 - Battle of Ice and Fire

The same is true for Mandin. Although his 40,000 dark demon fighters are more resistant to freezing than the flower demon and the flame demon, they cannot withstand such severe cold. Many of the dark demon fighters in the center of the attack range have also been frozen. The ice sculptures, and the rest are trembling all over the ice and snow, even running hard.

At the entrance of Maple Leaf Valley, a large number of Jagged Brothers soldiers wearing thick bear, tiger, fox and wolf fur coats, armed with long spears and large shields, lined up to kill them in a neat formation.

These furs have been made by the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood over the past year by killing demonized animals. In fact, there are far more than this, but one set is enough. Put on thick furs, even in such minus conditions. In the weather of 40 degrees, the skin will still be hot and sweaty, except for the uncomfortable cold face, the rest is cold.

The width of the valley was about 200 meters. There were 400 people in a row with the turbid wine and the white lion. They walked in front of the dark demon. With a spear in their hands, the dark demon fell to the ground and died.

This time, you don’t have to charge with all your strength, just shoot out, close out, shoot out again, and shoot back again, and continue to harvest all the way.

When encountering a wide terrain, the people in the back row will fill up, and attack them all the way down with such a simple attack, without even decent resistance.

A large number of Dark Demon, Flower Demon Warrior and Flame Demon fell under the spears of the Jagged Brothers soldiers.

Flanders, Mandin, and Abbrez all showed hopelessness in their eyes. They did not expect that some human beings would sacrifice their lives for others. Looking at Jiang Cheng who was dying not far away, the three of them, though Hate, but there was a look of admiration in his eyes.

“Humans are not as weak as we imagined, and we are not as strong as we imagined. Maybe humans are small, but their will makes me admire.” Abbrez growled.

Manding recalled the last time 60,000 dark demons were slaughtered by Lu Yang himself. He finally had a real awe of human beings, that kind of awe of low-level beings to high-level beings.

“What to do? We can’t let our race all die here.” Flender said.

A blazing red light suddenly appeared from Abbrez’s body. In an instant, with him as the center, within 30 meters of his surroundings, the temperature suddenly rose to hundreds of degrees.

“Damn it, the cold makes me change to this extent.” Abbrez yelled angrily.

Flander looked at Abbrez in horror and said, “What are you going to do? How can you use this trick.”

With an arrogant smile on his face, Abbrez said loudly: “My name is Abbrez, the descendant of the ancient flame element, I will never run away.”

All the flame demons looked at Abbrez in shock, with crazy expressions on their faces.

The flames on Abbrez’s body became stronger and stronger, causing Flanders and Mandin to retreat to 30 meters away. The overflowing flames made Abbrez look so different. He said loudly, “Humans, don’t I thought that only you have heroes. Our gods in another world are far stronger than you. Ancient elves, please fulfill the vow contract made by your ancestors. I would like to sacrifice my life in exchange for powerful power and sacrifice.”

“Roar~!”

Abrez roared, and the flames emitted from his body became even bigger. From a body over 2 meters high, he turned into a giant with a height of 10 meters. A huge fireball with a diameter of 50 meters gradually formed on top of his head, and the high temperature instantly covered him. Nearly a hundred meters in the surrounding area, this gave Flanders, Mandin and others a short period of freedom of movement.

“Swish”

Manding turned into a black shadow and disappeared in place. Flander turned to look at Kenny the Juli Flower Demon and said, “The continuation of the race is with you. I will send you away.”

Kenny wanted to refuse, but couldn't say it, let Flander wrap him up. Afterwards, Kenny's flower monster was actually eaten by Flander, but soon, Flander spit out vigorously towards the outside of the valley. , The huge flower sprayed a seed, that is Kenny.

The thorn flower demon Rose, the poisonous flower demon Terby, etc. also followed Flanders, turning their fellow flower demon into seeds and spitting out, but this method is very magical, Fran De, Rose and others spit out only 50 each, and they all fell weakly to the ground.

They can only watch Abrez fighting the Jagged Brothers alone now, the first huge fireball, Abrez throws towards the Jagged Brothers formation.

The two sides were separated by about 500 meters, and the huge fireball slammed into it in the blink of an eye, but when it came in front of you, a piece of ice formed a mirror-like ice wall, which easily blocked the fireball.

Abrez looked furiously towards the top of the mountain. He felt the magic breath coming from the top of the mountain. The lovely queen tried her best to release the ice wall art. She shouted: “Human beings are not as weak as you think. , For the sake of our nation, each of us can give his life at any time-Ultra Zero Freezing. ”

After blocking the fireball, the lovely queen quickly narrowed the range of this move. All the ice energy was concentrated within 50 meters of Abbrez. In an instant, the flames around Abbrez were compressed to 10 meters. area.

How could Abrez accept such a restraint, he struggled desperately, and the lovely queen was desperately releasing the ice, 112 ice mages were behind the lovely queen, passing magical energy to her through the magic circle together.

For a time, the two sides entered a state of wrestling. Although the lovely queens had more than 100 people, they were all of Tier 2 while Abbrez was Tier 3, and Tier 2 and Tier 3 could not be solved by numbers at all.

Just when the lovely queen and others were about to be unable to hold on, suddenly, a crystal white snowflake fell in the sky. This snowflake was exceptionally crystal clear, as if it was still braving the glimmer. The lovely queen thought she was dazzling. But the next second, the snowflake jumped onto the arm of the lovely queen who was casting a spell.

White light flashed, and the lovely queen suddenly felt the extremely strong ice power. Although she did not make her breakthrough, she seemed to have inexhaustible power in her body, and the temperature of the ice was lower than before.

The heavy snow fell in the sky, as if to celebrate something. In just a few seconds, the blizzard reached a thickness of 10 centimeters. In this case, Abbrez could no longer resist. His flames gradually extinguished and eventually turned into an ice sculpture, just like him, as well as all other world creatures below.

“All attack, grab all the flame demon, dark demon and flower demon, I will throw them all to Grant to do the experiment.” Lu Yang said loudly.

The soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood laughed, they could all think of that scene, and they also knew that they had finally won this war.

Chapter 2139 - A big win

20,000 people rushed to the frozen tribe warriors. All dark demons were trapped in chains. All flame demons were released with sealing spells. All flower demons were destroyed and the flower demons remained. .

For a while, everyone was busy in the wind and snow of Maple Leaf Valley, and a large number of fire lion mounts were temporarily changed into a transport convoy.

When Lu Yang came into the valley, Zhuojiu just carried the third-order flower demon patriarch Flander and walked in front of Lu Yang, laughing and saying, "Boss, look at this guy, we caught it."

Lu Yang looked at the Tier 3 Flower Demon who was so weak that the rhizomes were lying on the ground and couldn't even hold up the huge flower. He smiled and said, "Flander, I didn't expect it, you also have today."

Although Flander was weak, he stared at Lu Yang with uneasy eyes and roared: "You are not us who won with strength. You, a human without a sense of honor, even use the wind and snow. I will never look up to you."

Lu Yang, Zhuojiu and others laughed. For creatures in another world, this is a defilement of honor, but for humans, this is war. It can do everything to minimize casualties. To keep the brothers alive, this is what every commander should do.

Lu Yang shook his head and said to Flander: "The stupid sense of honor has made you the present situation. If you don't reflect on your own, you blame me. Do you want me to wait until the spring blossoms and when you are the strongest? , Will you fight to the death again? Are you stupid or I am stupid."

Flander yelled angrily: "Should not the war be like this? You * with no sense of honor."

Lu Yang shrugged his shoulders. The concepts between the two were so different. There was no common point in discussion. He said to the Jagged Brothers soldier beside him: "Throw it in the car, I believe Grant will like this guy very much. "

Just feed the flower demon enough nourishment, and cut off the rhizomes they spawned at the moment when they release the flower demon warriors, it is the best Tier 3 magic scroll material.

Flender knew his fate, but he had no choice but to growl desperately.

The next ones that were transported out were the Dark Demons. Batches of frozen Dark Demons had their heads cut off, but their bodies were still preserved. When they were transported out, the White Lion said uncomfortably, "The Dark Demons ran out. About three or four thousand, Manding also ran away, I did not find him."

Lu Yang said: "The night is the home of the Dark Demon. We can eliminate so many, so we are very content."

From choosing to fight at night, Lu Yang had a premonition that he would not be able to catch Manding. Compared with the flower demon and the flame demon, the dark demon would become cunning after fearing humans. They fled in Lu Yang's expectation. among.

The last batch to be delivered was the Flame Demon. Zhou Tianming and several people walked out carrying Abbrez's frozen body.

The Blazing Demon God said to Lu Yang with emotion through his consciousness: "You are really fate, Abbrez is already in the third-tier peak state. Under normal circumstances, how many Tier 2 ice and snow mages cannot defeat him, but in the snow and ice weather. Under the hood, the whole body was unable to show half of his strength, and he was frozen to death. It is incredible."

Lu Yang said, "Well, human tactics are not bad, right?"

The Blazing Demon said: "It's really good, my thinking has also begun to change."

Lu Yang asked Zhou Tianming and the others to send the Flame Demon out. He led the others into the Maple Leaf Valley. It was almost seven o'clock in the morning, and the sun was hanging on the clear sky in the east.

The Maple Leaf Valley is filled with golden sunlight, and the red maple leaves and white snowflakes all over the mountain form an extremely beautiful scenery.

In the depths of the canyon, an ice corpse sitting against the wall of the cave entrance still maintained a furious expression. He did not bow his head because of death, but kept his head up, as if looking at the Dark Demon, Flower Demon and How the flame demon perishes.

“Jiang Cheng, you take a step first. In the future, when I get underground, I will thank you very well.” There were tears in Lu Yang’s eyes, but he desperately did not let the tears fall.

He knelt in front of Jiang Cheng, kowtowed, stood up, and flames appeared in his hands. A fire burned Jiang Cheng to ashes, and said: “The East China Sea will remember your sacrifice, and human beings will not forget your deeds. You are a hero. .”

Like Lu Yang, Zhuo Jiu, White Lion and others smashed Jiang Cheng’s head. If it wasn’t for Jiang Cheng to delay time, if he would rather sacrifice himself and lead the enemy to Maple Leaf Valley, there would be no This ambush with almost no casualties.

After this war was fought, the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood had only a few minor injuries, not a single serious injury, let alone death.

Although Jiang Cheng is only a small person with a strength of less than Tier 2, he saved the entire Jagged Brotherhood from a tragic battle, and even resolved the crisis in the East China Sea Dungeon. He was called a hero and deservedly.

“Set up a statue for him in the dungeon. He deserves the respect of all the people in the dungeon.” Lu Yang turned and left.

He didn't have too much time to grieve. The cracks in the warped time and space were getting bigger and bigger, and the time was about to enter the winter. He only explored the area less than 100 kilometers away from the dungeon, and he didn't even know the place farther away.

There are two most serious problems facing the dungeon. One is to explore the wider area around the dungeon and know what enemies and monsters are around the dungeon. The second is to open up the passage between the dungeon and the imperial capital.

This is a life channel. The East China Sea lacks a large amount of infrastructure and raw materials, and only the Imperial Capital can supply it. Air transportation is a drop in the bucket, and only the ground can be used.

Furthermore, as long as the passage to the imperial capital is connected, if one day the dungeon may not be able to be guarded, humans will have a place to escape.

Or where there is a danger on both sides, they can send a large number of personnel to support them, and there are many magic items, and they can communicate with each other. At least things like the Ten Thousand Worlds Mall can be exchanged at any time by Lu Yang.

On the same day, everyone returned to the inside of the dungeon with their spoils. The 3 million residents of the dungeon were in a carnival, but Lu Yang and the others only had a rest for one night. On the next day, Lu Yang began to implement this plan.

"The turbid wine explores east, the white lion explores south, Zhou Tianming explores north, and he loves half his life to explore west. If there is more, I don't need to say, you also know what to do to ensure the safety of the soldiers. When encountering the enemy, retreat first. Come back, don't go on your own." Lu Yang said at the door of the underground city.

"Yes." Zhuojiu and the others nodded, and each took a person, riding a fire lion toward the surroundings to explore the past.

Lu Yang followed the original train route and rode the Red Night alone to explore the past. As long as the train track is not damaged, even if the locomotive is broken, the fire lion can run to the imperial capital while pulling the carriage.

Fei Yang brought back the academy soldiers who had landed Tianming and a large number of workers back to the industrial city, and started manufacturing various materials again.

Inside the dungeon, fortification is also stepping up, and stronger stone houses are being built on this mountain, and the entire dungeon is thriving.

On the other side, in an area 50 kilometers away from the underground city, Manding was snarling frantically at Wang Shijie.

“My people, the Flower Demon Race, and the Flame Demon Race were almost wiped out by Lu Yang. You * bastard, your stupidity really makes me intolerable.” Manding wanted to choke Wang Shijie.

In this battle, more than 1,000 flower demons only ran out of 200, more than 2,000 flame demons were wiped out, and more than 40,000 dark demons ran out only about 4,000. This was not a serious injury, but almost annihilated.

The key to their failure was not the defeat on the frontal battlefield, but because of human false news that caused them to be ambushed, and this person was still Wang Shijie’s trusted subordinate.

At this time, Wang Shijie was more angry than Manding in his heart. Jiang Cheng’s rebellion, he still couldn’t understand it. He couldn’t imagine that the people who had been brainwashed by him had never believed in him. He had already seen the true god. With strength, he can still give up strength and sacrifice his life to protect others.

Wang Shijie has never encountered a person of this quality since he was born. He has only seen it on TV. He is still confused and at a loss.

Tao Ran, Cao Hong,  and others are also in a state of ignorance. Their psychological gap in this battle is too great. From the very beginning, they thought that the dungeon would be wiped out and the gods would come to the world, but they didn’t expect to end in a big reaction. Turn, they were beaten like this.

Xue Renyi, Bagley and others hid behind Wang Shijie and others. Originally, they could return to the dungeon after completing the mission, but Jiang Cheng used his own death to save them both. The two said nothing is willing to return to the dungeon, but continue to stay here.

Although both of them knew that the chances of obtaining information were getting lower and lower, and the risks they exposed were getting bigger and bigger, they still preferred to take the risk.

Xue Renyi gritted his teeth and said: "We have to flee here first. When there is no danger around the dungeon, a large number of members will definitely be sent out to look for us, and to find out the surrounding situation, if we are found, We can't escape."

Manding stared at Xue Renyi for an instant, he subconsciously wanted to chant the dark spell, but he resisted it. It was easy to kill Xue Renyi, but he didn't want to kill him or torture him. This failure made Manding realize the cunning of the Human Race, he wanted to learn this cunning, and Xue Renyi has repeatedly proved that he is a person from the side of the alien gods.

"I know a place to hide. It's a long way from here. Let's go now." Manding roared, and six short black bone darts appeared in his hand. At the same time, they hit the six men behind Wang Shijie, who followed Tao Ran. The only people who escaped from the dungeon are Bagley and Xue Renyi.

Tao Ran and Wang Shijie's expressions did not change the slightest. They knew that if Manding was not allowed to vent his anger, there would be no way to cooperate in the future.

Chapter 2140 - Single Tier 3 Tree Demon

The Juli Flower Demon Kenny was also with his people at this time, looking at the bodies of these people, and said angrily: "Patriarch Flanders must have been arrested, and I must repay this hatred."

Manding sneered and asked: "How to report?"

Kenny glared at Mandin and said, "It's not because you forced us to join the war, otherwise, as long as our tree demon takes shape, we can take down the dungeon alone."

"Tree demon?" Manding looked at Kenny in surprise and asked, "When did you make the tree demon?"

Kenny reacted fiercely and said, "Worse, our tree demon is still hiding in the depths of the Wuming Mountain. If it is discovered, it will be abandoned."

Manding was anxious and roared: "Why didn't you say that there is such a thing? Flander is a madman, an idiot, this * bastard."

Wang Shijie frowned and asked, "What is the tree demon, is it strong?"

Manding glared at Wang Shijie and said, "Nonsense, the tree demon was born as a third-order creature, Kenny, tell me, how many tree demon are there?"

Kenny panicked and said: "There are about 22. They should have been born recently, but they are very weak now, and they need to be taught how to fight and use magic. It is impossible to participate in the war from the beginning. We must save these trees. Demon, they are our capital to counterattack the dungeon."

Manding was already mad. He was angry at Flanders' selfishness and at Lu Yang's luck. Others didn't know that Manding, a low-level dark demon who had been in a state of war for many years, knew very well the power of the tree demon. .

If there is a tree demon to help fight at the beginning, there is no need for a sneak attack, just a frontal attack is enough, or if there is news of the tree demon, Manding will definitely stay until next spring to attack again, then they will be defeated. The opportunity is greater, and it will not become what it is now.

“Abandon those tree monsters, we can’t go back anymore, now we go to Wuming Mountain, just to find death.” Manding roared and said: “We are now retreating to a place farther away, at least 200 kilometers away from the underground city, let Lu Yang couldn’t find us.”

Now that the war is fought, Manding and the others only have a way to escape. When Lu Yang finds out, even the fire dragon of Red Night is enough to kill countless Tier 2 Dark Demons and Flower Demons. But it can’t cause a single bit of harm.

Kenny wanted to say anything else, but Mandin no longer looked at him, turned his head and led people to run away from the Donghai Underground City, while on the other side, Zhou Tianming, who was ordered to explore north, had already arrived in Huahua. In the Wumingshan area where the demon had hidden before, he needs to check the situation of the Wumingshan as usual to see if there are any fish that have slipped through the net.

When he came to the depths of the Wuming Mountain, he saw the spring water deep in the canyon, and Zhou Tianming cursed: “These * are pretty good at enjoying it.”

The subordinates ran over from a distance and said, “Boss, there is a forest in front of me. The magical atmosphere is very strong. I feel something is wrong.”

“Take me to see.” Zhou Tianming frowned and said.

The subordinates led Zhou Tianming along the overflowing stream of spring water to a ravine a few kilometers away. When the distance was far away, Zhou Tianming felt that the nearby magic elements were abnormal, and the huge magical energy made Zhou Tianming have it. Feel the depression.

“Don’t go in, set the mountain on fire.” Zhou Tianming said loudly.

Everyone was taken aback, and his subordinates asked: “Boss, what if it’s a baby.”

Zhou Tianming sneered and said: “You brothers are my biggest treasure. No matter what is inside, I will burn him first. The baby will not burn out. If you blame me, we will also save casualties.”

“Eh~!” The brothers were moved. Their boss always took care of them like this. For a time, countless people found torches and threw them into the mountains.

Although there was a heavy snowfall in Maple Leaf Valley last night, it was caused by the ice spirit contract, and it was not really snowing. Although the temperature on the Wuming Mountain was below zero during the day, the wind was strong.

Today is another sunny day. In the season when the trees are dry, more than 1,000 people set fires everywhere on the mountain at the same time.

Plants and trees are ignited very slowly at low temperatures, but when they are ignited, in less than half an hour, a huge flame is more than 2,000 meters long in one piece.

The temperature of the flame caused by the trees is extremely high. Although the flame did not directly reach the distant trees, the high temperature arrived first. The blazing high temperature quickly ignited the trees within 10 meters of the flame. Soon, the mountain became A sea of fire.

Frequent roars sounded from the valley. Zhou Tianming was standing at the entrance watching the show. Suddenly he felt the terrifying coercion coming, and he quickly shouted: “Retreat, all retreat to the Wuming Mountain, leave here quickly.”

At the same time, Zhou Tianming turned on the phone on his arm and sent a message to Lu Yang and said, “Boss, something has happened. I have Tier 3 monsters here, and it’s still a group.”

Lu Yang was checking the situation on both sides along the railway. He didn’t wait for 5 kilometers to fly out. Hearing the news, he hurriedly controlled the Red Night to fly to the Wuming Mountain, while shouting: “Don’t die, get out all.”

“Don’t worry, I have evacuated. Those monsters were blocked by the fire.” Zhou Tianming said.

Lu Yang laughed. Through the camera on Zhou Tianming's arm, he had already seen the situation in the mountain. The fire in the mountain caused only the monsters in the mountain to roar.

"Good job, I'll come here." Lu Yang hung up the phone, and at the same time sent a message to the White Lion, Xia Yuwei, and the lovely queen, asking them to come and support them quickly.

When Lu Yang quickly flew into the Wuming Mountain Canyon, Zhuojiu, White Lion and others also ran from a distance. Before landing, Lu Yang heard frequent roars in the mountains.

Lu Yang signaled Zhuo Jiu and Zhou Tianming to stop here. He controlled Red Night to fly into the mountains. Amid the fires that were all over the mountains, he saw more than 20 ancient trees gathered near a stream.

These ancient trees are obviously different from other normal trees. They can walk, and the roots of the trees are obviously bifurcated into two legs. Although the walking speed is very slow, they can feel that they have a lot of strength.

"What is it?" Lu Yang asked curiously.

The Blazing Demon God was extremely excited in his consciousness, and said, "How come there is a tree demon? Is Flander an idiot? There are more than 20 tree demon who don't need it, and he still walks the path."

Lu Yang frowned and asked, "The Tree Demon is very powerful?"

Blazing Demon God said with a smile: "Any tree demon has the ability to single-handedly challenge the current strength of the Red Night, you say they are not great."

Lu Yang was speechless, and said, "Then what's the situation?"

The Blazing Demon God scanned the tree demon underneath through his consciousness and said: "Understood, only one of these tree demon comes from another world, and the others are all new born and have just formed combat effectiveness. Unfortunately, they are dead now."

Lu Yang controlled Hong Ye to hover over the tree demon, and asked, "How can I kill them?"

The Blazing Demon said: "They haven't completely gotten rid of the need for water sources. Let's poison the water. Just use the venom of the Hydra Emperor, which is enough to kill these tree devils."

Lu Yang nodded and controlled Hong Ye to fly back to the depths of the Unknown Canyon. After falling down, he patted Zhou Tianming on the shoulder and said, "Brother, you really pleased me this time."

"What's the matter?" Zhou Tianming asked with a smile.

Lu Yang said: "I saw the monster inside. There are more than 20 tree monsters, each of which is Tier 3, and has the strength to single out Red Night."

"Ah?!" Zhou Tianming was dumbfounded, and said worriedly: "I said coercion is so terrible. Fortunately, fortunately, it's really fortunate, but how can this kill them?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Didn't you make a big fire? Although the tree demon's strength is very strong, their movement speed is very slow. They dare not walk in the fire, so they can only hide in the ravine. The life force resisted, and now they urgently need a water source, so everyone took out the poison, followed me to the mountain gate, and then poured it into the stream, let them drink some poison, this kind of poison can completely poison them. "

Zhuojiu, White Lion and others laughed. Originally, they were worried that the Tier 3 Tree Demon would be too powerful and many people would die in battle, but they did not expect such a good thing to happen. The group of people came to Lu Yang with excitement. At the gate of the burning mountain, along the stream, more than 3,000 people poured the venom on their hands into the stream.

In the valley.

The patriarch of the tree demon clan, Bens, was roaring frantically. Originally, he and Flender had set up a plan to lure Mandin and the flame demon to attack the dungeon. When they were about to be defeated, the tree demon appeared. With crushing strength, gain control of the dungeon.

The reason for doing this is still related to the problem of alien gods. One sacrifice can only expand a distorted time and space. Their idea is to expand this distorted time and space in the area of the natural gods, so that more natural gods can come. This area, in this way, the natural protoss has a stronger power here, and in the future it will also become the habitat of the natural protoss.

Of course, there is another reason, that is, the tree demon has not yet formed a complete combat effectiveness. After all, these thousand-year-old trees have just been found, and Flanders and Bens also want to train for a while.

Unfortunately, Flemish's flower demon either died in battle or fled. The tree demon's attacks are basically picking up boulders and throwing attacks, or they enter a certain area and use sharp tree thorns to attack. The protection of flower demon warriors.

Now that there is no flower demon warrior, only the tree demon body, and the fire in the sky, Bens can only choose to resist the past. Fortunately, there are rushing streams that make him able to hold it. It's just that Bens is right. When he absorbed water to protect himself, the strange substance in the water made his body instantly feel uncomfortable.

At that moment, the tree demon reacted that there are toxins in the water. Although these toxins are nothing compared to his huge vitality, if he continues to absorb the water, the toxins will continue to be absorbed, and it will affect him. The body does more damage.

He didn't know whether he could resist the toxins until the wildfire was extinguished, but he knew that if he didn't absorb it, he would have to be burned to death. Moreover, the more than 20 thousand-year-old tree demons spawned by him using the gems of life have a very self-conscious Weak, just like newborn babies, even if Bens doesn't let them absorb water, they will involuntarily absorb water to save their lives.
