

Wild Fire 2141

Chapter 2141 - All captives

What is now looking at is whether human beings have more venom or their vitality is stronger, but Bens underestimated Lu Yang's strength.

Although the venom on these thousands of people could not kill Bens and the more than 20 thousand year old tree demons, there was still venom in the dungeon.

After Lu Yang controlled Hong Ye and flew around in the sky, he found that Bensi and the more than 20 thousand year old tree demons had not been poisoned yet. He ordered the people in the dungeon to send all the venom of the Hydra Emperor. .

Dozens of large tanks of toxic liquid were dumped into the stream, and the mountain fire continued to burn. In order to make the fire more prosperous, Lu Yang also controlled the Red Night Sky to drop some trees and threw them around Bensi. , The angry Bens roared frantically.

"Damn human beings, you have to pay the price for your actions, and our Protoss will definitely kill you all."

"Human cowards, if you have the courage, you will have an honorable battle with me. I will tear you apart."

...

Lu Yang looked at the biggest tree demon roaring in the air, and said to the Blazing Demon God: "It's weird, how can this thing learn Chinese so well?"

The blazing demon smiled and said, "I thought you would ask about the use of the tree demon. Any creature that can reach Tier 2 will not have much difficulty in learning languages. Of course, except for a few creatures, you are also considered lucky. , I feel that this Bensi should be the third-tier pinnacle, not inferior to the patriarch of the Flame Demon. It is very likely that this Bensi and these more than 20 tree monsters are used to deal with the Flame Demon."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "It looks like I missed it again."

The Blazing Demon God said with emotion: "The poor hordes of waste gods in the other world are not united. They want to capture the human race even in the situation of scattered sand. It is really idiotic to talk about dreams. Unlike my era, all the gods are under my command. The order I issued will be executed by all the Protoss. How can such a split happen?"

Lu Yang was also a little emotional. His luck was really good, so he ran out of the valley on purpose and asked Hong Ye to grab the wood firewood * by the turbid wine and the white lion, and threw them in piles, three eyes. The magic flower also turned into a catapult, turned into a big tree at the mouth of the valley, and kept throwing firewood into the valley.

In the valley, around the more than 20 tree demons, the flames burned more and more, forcing them to absorb water with all their strength to maintain their vitality. As a result, they inhaled more and more toxins.

The Blazing Demon said to Lu Yang: "Don't burn them to death. Try to keep their bodies. The branches and trunks of the Tree Demon can be used to make the wands of the third-order natural spells, whether it is fire, frost, hurricane or lightning. , Magic wands made from the branches of the tree magic can make spells more powerful."

Lu Yang's eyes lit up. The more than 2,000 wizards of the Jagged Brothers League have never had weapons. They are not like warriors. They can use snake-bone swords and snake-bone spears as weapons. Since they learn magic, they are unleashing magic with their bare hands. , Or holding a shield in his hand to prevent being killed, it seems nondescript.

If there is a magic wand to increase his strength, these more than 2,000 wizards will play a greater role, and he will work harder.

But what Lu Yang and Zhuojiu didn't expect was that the more than 20 tree demons were not ordinary burns, and they lasted for a day and a night.

By the day of the next day, the mountain fires were almost extinguished. The more than 20 tree devils were still alive. Fortunately, they prepared enough firewood. Lu Yang also began to order Hong Ye to be close in the sky 50 meters away. Jet flame dragon breath.

The tree demon can resist ordinary mountain fires, but cannot withstand the third-order dragon's breath. The fire dragon itself also restrains the tree demon. Soon, more than 20 tree demon's trunks are lit up with flames, and Bens has also changed. Got weak.

Bens did not expect that it was the fire dragon that killed him in the end. He roared: "Stupid dragon clan, you betrayed your glory and became a humble human mount. You humiliated the entire dragon clan. ."

Hong Ye glanced at Bens contemptuously, and cursed in his heart: "Idiot, how do you know the special nature of this human being? There is a supreme * of another world in his body-Blazing Demon God. I am a human being recognized by Blazing Demon God. How can a low-level creature like you understand working as a part-time worker."

Furthermore, the dragon clan is also hierarchical like other races. There are low-level flower monsters, mid-level tree demon and other creatures in the tree demon. The dragon clan is divided into low-level flying dragons, mid-level dragons, and high-level ones. The sacred dragon, and the dragon king.

The Red Night itself is only an intermediate dragon. The highest achievement in his life is to become an adult intermediate dragon. Its strength is equivalent to that of a Tier 6 Flame Demon, and it cannot become a sacred dragon above Tier 7 for a lifetime.

But unlike the Blazing Demon God, once Lu Yang's strength increases, the two have a blood contract. He believes that Lu Yang will definitely help him upgrade. What's more, he is also impressed by Lu Yang's character. Such a person, Qualified to be his master.

Compared with Bens, the first batch of unpopular creatures in the race who were thrown into another world like him, he was much luckier.

“Roar~!”

Hong Ye roared, another breath of dragon, the spray of Bens became weaker, and Lu Yang also felt Hong Ye’s mentality, smiled and touched the dragon’s horns, and said, “I won’t let you be humiliated. The same is true of the Three-Eyed Magic Flower, you are all my closest children.”

Hong Ye whimpered to express his happiness. He was only 1 year old. To Lu Yang, Lu Yang was just like his father. At least Hong Ye was able to move from Tier 1 to Tier 3 so quickly because of Lu Yang’s credit.

Bens thought that Red Night didn’t care about honor at all, so he was gone. He was continuously burned by the dragon’s breath. Coupled with the flames of the previous day and night, Bens and the more than 20 tree demons finally lost their last bit of strength. One after another fell to the ground.

Lu Yang’s eyes lit up and he hurriedly used the phone on his wrist to give dirty wine, and said, “Stop poisoning, everyone will come in and prepare to pull these tree demons back.”

Zhuojiu smiled, and said: “Boss, you are now the king of waste collection, you need everything.”

Lu Yang smiled and scolded: “Of course, this thing can enhance our brother’s strength, and it can make magic wands.”

Zhuojiu and White Lion were also excited when they heard this, and they ran in quickly. After seeing these more than 10 meters tall tree demon, more than 30 people carried a tree demon and returned the 21 tree demon resistance. In the back mountain, when they were replanted into the soil, these tree demons were still very weak.

Lu Yang drew a long sword from the Demon God Temple and slashed it * Bens’s tree demon arm. Unfortunately, only a spark appeared, and the trunk was as hard as a golden stone, and could not be cut at all.

“What’s going on.” Lu Yang was a little confused.

The Blazing Demon said: "Take your time, the tree demon is full of treasures. Not only are their bark hard, but the branches inside are extremely hard. Among them, the bark can be used to make armor, and the leaves can be used to make magic scrolls.

Before in another world, saws made of metal of level 4 or higher were used to break them. There is no such thing here, but you can use a chainsaw to saw them. The speed is a bit slower, but the iron pestle is ground into needles. It should be no problem. Right. "

Lu Yang had a black line on his forehead. This Blazing Demon God could speak an idiom. He couldn't help but laugh. There were still a lot of chainsaws and saw blades made in the Industrial City. The arms were sawed sharply.

"Zi~~~!"

Zhuojiu and White Lion took their own hands, but they saw a saw blade broken, and they didn't even get a wound. It just made Bens feel a sharp pain.

"Roar~~ Humans, the natural gods will never let you go."

"I will never let you go."

"I want to fight with you."

...

Bens roared for a long time, but it didn't make any sense. Muddy wine and the white lion were squeezed with Bens. they didn't love Bens at all. Originally, this * was going to bring these 20 trees. The demons attacked the dungeon. If they were allowed to enter the dungeon, the dungeon would be destroyed. Now it fell into their hands, and they weren't their own clan. Naturally, they could feel at ease how tortured.

In order to be able to grind Bens's body, Grant sent a newly made venom, and Xia Yuwei brought a saw blade made from the bones of the Hydra Emperor.

This time I saw a bit faster. The skull of the third-order Hydra is still very hard. It is much faster than ordinary steel. A saw blade made of a skull can be sawed by two millimeters. The painful Bens is faster. Crazy.

Lu Yang looked at Xia Yuwei and others beside him, and said, "Tie it up, don't let them violently hurt people."

Xia Yuwei smiled and said, "Don't worry, they are all ropes made of the snake tendons of the Hydra Emperor. He absolutely can't get rid of it."

Only then did Lu Yang relax, and said, "Saw slowly. I'll take a break. Tomorrow, I will go to look farther and look for high-level alien creatures with weapons."

Everyone laughed, as long as they weren't a batch of high-level creatures, they would all become their captives. This was their happiest thing in the near future.

Chapter 2142 - Variation of L eight regions

Here Lu Yang had just returned home to take a rest. The phone on his hand rang, and when he picked it up, it turned out that Fu Yun, the head of the Imperial Capital, was calling.

"You are really a rare customer to call me." Lu Yang said with a smile.

Fu Yun said with a smile: "I've heard about your side, not bad, my brother, the members have been cultivated so strong."

Lu Yang laughed. He knew what Fu Yun meant. It was nothing more than complaining that he didn't tell the truth about entering the Bronze Temple, but he knew that Fu Yun was also not sure. After all, the brothers of the Jagged Brotherhood would not tell this matter. Said to the outside world.

He said: "Unexpected joy, some special things have been found here."

Fu Yun didn't bother to expose Lu Yang. He told Lu Yang just to let him know that he wouldn't care about it. Both sides had the same goal, and it was enough to defeat creatures in another world. He wouldn't be entangled in the gains and losses of things, Lu Yang. It is his ability to be able to get these things, and he will not take it by force.

It is not easy to establish this kind of mutual trust. This is the first kind signal from Fu Yun. He said to Lu Yang: "Since your side is stable, I am suggesting that Wanjie Mall open a semicolon with you. Are you interested in providing some support?"

This was the second signal he sent out, and this was exactly what Lu Yang urgently needed, and it was something that Lu Yang had never expected.

"Is it really possible? If Wanjie Mall can come, my brothers will be greatly improved." Lu Yang said excitedly.

Fu Yun said: "There should be no problem. I guess I can convince them recently. Now I want to talk to you about another problem."

"What's the matter?" Lu Yang asked.

Fu Yun said: "You must open up the railway lifeline between the imperial capital and the East China Sea. As long as this lifeline is opened up, whether I will support you in the future or you will support us, there will be a smooth path."

Lu Yang frowned and said, "I also have this idea. Give me some time, and I will try my best to clear this road."

Fu Yun didn't expect Lu Yang to think so too, and said with peace of mind: "That's good, I look forward to your good news."

Lu Yang looked at the hung-up phone and nodded. As long as there are more people like Fu Yun and him in this world, there will be hope in this world, and it will be impossible for another world to invade successfully.

After resting overnight, Lu Yang continued to ask Zhuojia and White Lion to search for alien creatures within 50 kilometers of Donghai New City. He rode the red night along the railway line to continue searching.

In fact, this railway line is a very difficult road, because the East China Sea is the starting station. It is only through the operating city and Anshi to get to Fengshi. After that, it travels more than 1,000 kilometers along the way to reach the imperial capital.

It only takes five or six hours for the motor vehicle, but if this is over, it is almost impossible without months or even years. This also includes the absence of invasion by other world creatures. It's even more difficult with other world creatures.

It is known that Feng City still exists, because before Feng City was one of several large military districts, under heavy firepower, Feng City will not be a problem. Another city that still exists is Dan City, which is close to the border. , Which was also heavily guarded before.

"Now it depends on what's going on in Yingshi?" Lu Yang muttered to himself.

Yingshi is the only way from the East China Sea to Fengshi. After the invasion of another world, Fengshi, Danshi and Donghai can all be in contact with the imperial capital in the "Second World", but Yingshi is not among them. In order to express mourning, Yingshi has now changed its name and is divided into 18 areas.

Lu Yang controlled Red Night to fly all the way. The Blazing Demon's scan did not find any monster gathering area within 100 meters on both sides of the railway, proving that this area was safe.

Two hours later, a city area appeared in the far distance ahead. Lu Yang knew that it was the 18 area. When he controlled the red night to the suburbs, a giant eagle with a wingspan of 20 meters in the sky. Is fiercely launching an offensive towards the ground.

“Neigh~!”

The eagle made a fierce cry, and when he leaped in the air, there was a 25-meter-long giant snake on the ground, and even a single horn grew on its head, looking at the eagle in the sky fiercely.

The Blazing Demon said: “The third-order eagle and the third-order python seem to have acquired the ability to evolve under the influence of the energy elements of the different world. The feathers of the eagle’s body are already as hard as steel and the unicorn of a python. More powerful.”

Lu Yang shook his head and said, “It seems that the l8 area is indeed over. It is not easy for us to pass from here.”

While talking, the eagle rushed down, but before rushing to the front, the python’s unicorn suddenly shot out a black light, even if it was a few hundred meters away, Lu Yang could feel the terrifying power of that black light. , And the eagle caught the black light with both feet and continued to rush towards the python.

Just when the distance between the two was only 5 meters, when the eagle was about to catch the python, the python’s tail suddenly flung over. The tail was already covered with metallic luster, and it hit the eagle’s back and smashed it whole. Flew to the concrete wall of the side building.

“boom”

A big hole was smashed out of the wall. Just when the python showed a bloodthirsty expression, the eagle suddenly flew out from the big hole, the eagle’s beak instantly penetrated the snake’s belly, and the python’s reaction speed was extremely fast, with a roar. After that, the top horn of the head is inserted into the eagle’s neck.

Lu Yang blinked and said, “Are they dead?”

The Blazing Demon God was speechless, and said: “Your luck is really good. Both of them were hit to the core, and they were not dead and seriously injured.”

Lu Yang said to Hong Ye and Three Eyes Demon Flower: "Go, control the two.

Hong Ye roared, just as the red night flew past, suddenly, on the side of the third-order eagle python, suddenly came out a third-order lion king 8 meters high, and there were more than ten behind the lion king. The second-order flame lion.

Lu Yang quickly stopped Hong Ye. He watched this scene in shock. If only two Tier 3 demonized creatures were fighting, it could be regarded as accidental, but the third one came out, making Lu Yang feel it. There is something wrong here.

"Don't go there, take a tour around the city, I want to know what's going on here," Lu Yang said.

Hong Ye stopped diving and patrolled the surrounding area. When he flew over the entire city, Lu Yang knew what was going on here. It turned out that there was a huge distortion of time and space here, inside a building. , And the energy of this distorted time and space ejected from the different world, so that the biological evolution here is very fast, almost the entire l8 area of the third-order creatures are countless, and the number of second-order creatures is even more unimaginable, it can be said that this is a natural The hunting area for Tier 3 creatures.

Fortunately, Lu Yang didn't let the Red Night fly down. If it continues like this, not only the Tier 3 Lion King will be ushered in. There are also Tier 3 Wolf Kings and Tier 2 wolves in ambush. It can be said that this place has been completely completed. The paradise of monsters.

Chapter 2143 - Tier 3 magic core

"It seems that there is no way to reach Fengshi through the l8 area for the time being." Lu Yang muttered to himself.

"What are you going to do?" Blazing Demon God asked worriedly.

Tier 3 demonized creatures, such as the Flame Lion King, the Ice Wolf King, and the Python King. Weapons made of steel can't cut their skin. If a magician is used to attack, there are only more than 2,000 magicians. They are all Tier 2 and it is not easy to kill them, and the wizards have to cooperate in making scrolls, so there is not so much magic to waste.

A smile appeared at the corner of Lu Yang's mouth, and he said, "Isn't that the defense is high, and it's not difficult. Look at me."

He turned on the communicator on his arm and said to Fei Yang: "I want to find a way to make 2000 pure steel warhammers. The weight of the hammer must be at least 500 kilograms."

The arm strength of the second-tier peak fighters is 1,000 kg, and they can hit 1,700 kg with a single punch. After so many battles, the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood are not at the second-tier peak or at the second-tier seven or eighth level. Use 500. The kilogram hammer is very easy.

Fei Yang rejoiced, and asked: "What do you want to do with so many hammers? There is no problem in manufacturing. The large stamping machine of the steel mill has the ability to build steel ingots. It is nothing more than a large steel ingot with a steel handle. It is not difficult."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "I found a large number of Tier 3 demonized creatures in the I8 area. Taking advantage of the fact that there are no creatures in another world around, we will first kill Tier 3 demonized creatures in this area, whether it is a Tier 3 magic core. It is still Tier 3 animal skins, animal bones, and animal tendons, which are of great use to us."

Fei Yang's eyes were bright, and he said excitedly: "One day, give me one day, I must make 2000 pure steel warhammers."

Lu Yang hung up the intercom and said to the Blazing Demon God, "Well, I have a good idea."

The Blazing Demon God said with satisfaction: "Smart, although the skin of Tier 3 demonized creatures is hard enough, they can't help being injured by a blunt weapon. If you use a heavy hammer, you can definitely injure them severely."

Lu Yang said, "Not only is the use of blunt tools, there are other methods."

After all, Tier 3 demonized creatures are still beasts on the earth. Since ancient times, humans have not been the opponents of beasts, but humans can kill these beasts by exploiting the weaknesses of beasts, such as trap nets and various traps.

At the moment, Lu Yang no longer wastes time, controlling Red Night to fly back to the East China Sea Dungeon to make preparations. Every day in the dungeon, a large number of Tier 2 demonized beasts are hunted. Originally, animal skins and animal tendons are the most useless, now all of them are pulled down to make animal nets.

Whether it is a second-order python or a second-order bison, the animal skins and tendons are very resilient. Even if it is set on Hongye, Hongye will waste a lot of time trying to break free. If there are enough animal nets, it will be sleepy. All creatures of Tier 3 can be trapped.

While the people in the entire dungeon here were involved in making the animal net, on the other side, Lu Yang took the turbid wine and the white lion to practice using heavy hammers.

Fei Yang did it. In just one day and one night, 2,000 hammers weighing 500 kilograms were sent to the dungeon.

Muojiu and White Lion are one of them. Although 500 kilograms seem to be heavy, they can be compressed into a hexagonal hammer with a length of less than 1 meter under a large press. The hammer handle is also made of pure steel. , Although they are the most * crude steel, what they want is their blunt weapon destructive power.

“Sure enough, this kind of weapon is handy.” The white lion carried the hammer in the air for a few laps. He put the hammer on his shoulder, and the hammer almost covered most of his body.

Zhuo Jiu and Zhou Tianming are the same, but after they get this hammer, their hearts are extremely confident, and this feeling of strength cannot be replaced by the Snake Bone Sword.

“Let’s go to the I8 area to experiment.” Lu Yang said.

Zhuojiu, White Lion and others nodded excitedly, and nodded 2,000 people holding sledgehammers, and 2,000 people holding animal traps.

In order to reach the I8 area as quickly as possible, Lu Yang found several train carriages, each with 200 people, and towed them with 10 second-tier fire lions.

Lu Yang controlled Red Night to fly in the air, monitoring whether there was an enemy sneak attack in the surrounding area. From high above, a total of 40 carriages were rushing on the rails at high speed under the traction of 4000 fire lions, which was very spectacular.

In fact, many fighters of the Jagged Brotherhood can ride on a fire lion to fight, but the problem is that the fire lion can't carry a 500 kg hammer for more than 200 kilometers, so it can save the most effort to pull the carriage on the rails.

In just over two hours, the convoy arrived at the outskirts of the I8 area. Lu Yang found a large number of Tier 3 demonized creatures in a forest in front of him, and immediately ordered Hong Ye to make a long roar.

“Roar~!”

The sound of the dragon's whistle was the order to stop. The dirty wine and others in the carriage immediately honked their whistle to respond, and all the carriages stopped on the rails one after another.

When everyone got out of the car, Hong Ye also stopped on the ground, and went to rest in Lu Yang's Demon Temple. Lu Yang said to the Zhuojiu and others who got off the car and prepared the team: “There is an order in front of you. Tier 3 Demonized Tiger King, everyone scattered around, 8 people in groups, 4 people with hammers, 4 people with trapping nets, turbid wine and white lion in the middle. When I bring the tiger king, let's first Set a demonstration for my brothers.”

Everyone nodded.

More than 4,000 people immediately scattered around and lay in ambush, leaving only the vice-chairman of the Iron-Blooded Brotherhood, such as the turbid wine and the white lion, standing in the middle.

Lu Yang ran into the forest in front of him by himself. After a while, he found the Tier 3 Tiger King he saw in the air.

“Roar~!”

The Tiger King, who has reached Tier 3, is more than 6 meters in length. The huge body lies on the ground like a hill. The fur on the Tiger King’s body is originally yellow and white, but now it has a golden and silver luster, like metal. Can reflect light.

At this time, the tiger’s head was facing the direction where Lu Yang was. When Lu Yang came to the area 50 meters in front of the tiger king, the tiger king spotted him and was staring at Lu Yang and let out a low roar.

Lu Yang understood that this sound meant that the Tiger King was about to launch an attack. He stared into the Tiger King’s eyes, picked up a slap-sized stone and threw it at the Tiger King.

“Boom”

The stone hit the tiger king’s calf, and the tiger king who wanted to eat Lu Yang was immediately irritated. He stood up and showed a furious expression. After a roar, he charged towards Lu Yang.

“Hot and Fast”

Lu Yang turned around and ran. The Tier 3 Tiger King can reach a speed of 60 meters per second, which means that Lu Yang has the heart of the devil, otherwise he will be caught up in a blink of an eye, but even with the heart of the devil, his speed is also Not as fast as Tiger King.

Seeing that he was about to be overtaken by the Tiger King, Lu Yang ran to the open area outside the forest, while Zhuojiu and White Lion hid behind two big trees on the edge of the forest. Seeing Lu Yang rush out, four people At the same time, the giant net hidden in the leaves on the ground was pulled up.

The tiger king hit the giant net with one head, and was immediately entangled by the giant net. In an instant, the tiger king struggled frantically, his body covered with a thick layer of earth element armor, but the more he struggled, the giant net became entangled. Tighter.

White Lion, Zhou Tianming, Kuai Bansheng, and Zhuojiu simultaneously raised 500 kilograms of hammers and rushed up, aiming at the tiger king's head, paws, and back.

“Roar~!”

“Woo~!”

...

The earth elemental armor on the Tiger King was shattered without using six hammers. Although the Tiger King's body was hard, the White Lion and Zhou Tianming specifically greeted their claws, and the Tiger King's claws were smashed in a few strokes. .

Then came the Tiger King's head and back waist. Not long after, under the smashing of the crowd, the Tiger King was smashed to death on the ground before he could break free from the trapping net.

Muddy wine wiped his sweat and said, “This hammer is really good.”

Lu Yang smiled and motioned the crowd to come forward and watch. He said to Xia Yuwei: “Record, King of Gold and Silver Tiger, Tier 3, good use of earth elements, fear of trapping nets and heavy hammers.”

Xia Yuwei nodded and recorded that this kind of wasteland reclamation is the most difficult. All things are new discoveries. Fortunately, they have found a solution. Recording it will also save future people from making detours.

Lu Yang took out the Tier 3 magic core from the Tiger King's forehead. The huge magic core with the magic pattern looked so mysterious and seductive. This was the best way and way to increase the strength to Tier 3. All Those who saw the magic core were all excited.

Lu Yang felt the look in the eyes of the brothers around him. He picked up the magic core and held it over his head. He said loudly, "Guo Jiu, White Lion, Zhou Tianming, Kuai Bansheng, Xia Yuwei, you will lead a team, each of 800 people. , From here on, move forward in parallel, and the magic cores hit belong to their respective teams and do not need to be turned in."

The eyes of Zhuojiu, Baishi and others were bright, and they nodded slightly to Lu Yang with excitement, turned around and walked into the forest with their respective teams.

Chapter 2144 - Steel hedgehog

Strength improvement has long become an obsession in the hearts of every Jagged Brotherhood fighter. They crazily want to improve their strength, and hunting the third-order magic core to learn the magic lines on it is the best way to advance to the third-order.

4000 people advance in parallel. This forest is the suburb of the I8 area. There are a lot of third-order beasts such as the Golden and Silver Tiger King and the Black Horned Snake King, and more are the second-order beasts of the seventh and eighth levels.

The soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood moved forward very easily, and within a short time, the neighing of beasts frequently sounded around.

The worst of them is the Golden and Silver Tiger King and its Tier 2 Tigers, who can skillfully use earth elements, and the heavy armor covered is completely fearless of swords, but they are afraid of this heavy hammer.

The elemental armor that could not be cut with one slash was smashed with a heavy hammer, and the internal organs were shattered. After the core of all the demonized creatures that were killed, the corpses were collected together and sent to the car. on.

Whether it's hair or blood, it's what Grant's scroll madman needs, especially the skins of the Golden and Silver Tiger King and the Black Horned Snake King, which can be made into leather armor. The only problem is cutting. According to the existing methods, Normally, it can't be cut off. When the turbid wine and the others take the magic core, it is hard to pull out of the eyes, very bloody.

Lu Yang followed the large army. He didn't participate in the battle, but let the Blazing Demon release a huge divine consciousness scan.

Once the danger approaches, he can notify everyone as soon as possible. In terms of improving his strength, his strength is already between the second-tier peak and the third-tier elementary stage, and he may be promoted at any time.

Others still need to master the magic lines to reach the third rank. Lu Yang's promotion to the third rank only depends on the degree of magic accumulation in his body. He can absorb the spirit spring in the demon temple anytime and quickly upgrade to the third rank, but he didn't do that. Because Blazing Demon asked him to raise his mental power first.

The test of the relatives has passed. The test of the next test is endurance, which is a desire and patience for strength. The more you hope to gain strength, the closer you are to gaining strength, the more you have to hold back that. Kind of desire.

Entering Tier 3, the improvement of strength will be tremendous. The fusion of elemental power and body can burst out huge power throughout the body, and strength is no longer limited to the soul sea.

If you cultivate to the third-level peak, you can even transform into a fire demon, that is, you can transform yourself into a child of flames, throw high-level spells at will, and even play forbidden spells at will. This kind of world will change its color, just like the human world. The only sense of control is constantly catalyzing Lu Yang to improve his strength.

If Lu Yang didn't hold back and quickly improve his strength, he would be intoxicated in the pursuit of power and unable to extricate himself. The final result would be to lose himself or be led astray by a powerful evil force in the future.

The Blazing Demon God has seen countless geniuses, even the sons of gods, they may eventually lose themselves in their power. Now, the stronger Lu Yang's endurance, and the higher levels in the future, will he be able to control his heart.

While walking, Lu Yang suppressed the eager elemental power in the soul. It was the first time that he felt this horrible feeling. The joy of the soul brought by the increase in strength, at any time, made Lu Yang feel lost. , That kind of comfort is far from what words can express, if you want to endure it, it's completely self-abuse.

"I have endured so much effort, what will my brothers do in the future?" Lu Yang frowned.

The consciousness of the Blazing Demon God is still scanning. On the one hand, he is searching for the surrounding situation. On the other hand, he is looking for other fragments of the heart of the Demon God. When he entered the earth that year, he felt that a fragment was falling. l8 area.

"Don't worry, none of your subordinates will experience this feeling." Blazing Demon God said indifferently.

"Why?" Lu Yang frowned and asked.

The Blazing Demon God was in a bad mood, rolled his eyes in his consciousness and said indifferently to Lu Yang: "Do you think everyone is as easy as you to level up? They want to improve their strength, but not just the third-order magic core. The magic pattern is as simple as that. The vast majority of people have been practicing desperately for a lifetime, that is, stopping at the peak of the second order. A small number of people can rise to the third rank, even fewer people to the fourth rank, and the least to the fifth rank. If you practice Easy, isn't everyone becoming a god?"

Lu Yang laughed and said, "Then I can rest assured."

Once he lost his mind, he might become an enemy. Lu Yang didn't want to aim the butcher knife at his former brother.

"I sensed it, strange, why is it so weak?" The Blazing Demon said with a frown.

Lu Yang asked, "Where?"

The Blazing Demon God said angrily: "Under the east side, * it, someone got my Demon God Heart Fragment and wants to cover his breath."

Lu Yang turned on the intercom on his arm and said, "Everyone pushes eastward."

After Zhuojiu, Baishi and others got the order, they quickly communicated downwards, and the 4,000-man troop pushed toward the east.

After passing through the forest, a plain appeared in front of him, and a large number of Tier 3 Demonized Wild Boar King and Tier 2 Demonized Wild Boar blocked the road.

"Why is there a clump of steel-like grass there?" The first half of a life of bitter love discovered something wrong in front, and he stopped his men.

"Boss, is it a mutated plant? I'll pick it back and see." One of the subordinates said eagerly.

Half a lifetime of bitter love stretched out his hand to grab his subordinates, and said in a solemn voice: "No one is allowed to move, I'm calling for the boss, I feel how this thing is like a mutant hedgehog."

Everyone took a closer look and found the truth. They couldn't help but smile. If they were really a steel hedgehog, they would still feel quite interesting.

A subordinate quickly ran to the back and brought Lu Yang to the front. Looking at the pile of steel grass 50 meters in front of the fingers of the bitter love for half a lifetime, Lu Yang asked the Blazing Demon God to scan it. said: "You kid did a good job, that thing is really a mutant hedgehog, don't move around, don't know his skills, don't die because of carelessness."

Everyone became cautious.

“I’ll try him with a hammer.” For half a life of bitter love, he walked to a place where no one was on the side, and he threw the 500 kg hammer at the steel hedgehog.

“Woo~!”

The hammer hit the steel hedgehog with a piercing sound. Just when everyone thought that the hedgehog was going to die, the hedgehog raised his head and revealed blood-red eyes, and he scanned the surroundings to confirm the pain. After half a lifetime of love.

“Squeak~!”

A strange sound sounded, and the spikes of the steel hedgehog’s body instantly shot towards the half-life cluster of bitter love. The iron thorns in the sky had a strong impact and came to the front of half-life bitter love in the blink of an eye.

“Scared to death~!” The reaction of bitter love for half a lifetime was extremely fast. When the hedgehog was aiming at him, he felt bad, and instantly crawled on the ground. Hundreds of steel spikes passed over his head, and the two behind him The tall boulders were beaten into a sieve.

Chapter 2145 - Demon Appears

“Fire Snake Bound”

Lu Yang uttered a spell instantly, and a fire snake came out from the ground to engulf the steel hedgehog’s body, but the next second, the steel thorns on the steel hedgehog’s body actually grew out again. Although he could not move, the steel thorns on his body The spikes can move.

“Squeak~!”

The steel hedgehog roared at Lu Yang, his body jerked, and hundreds of spikes all over his body shot towards Lu Yang.

“Flashing”

With a white light, Lu Yang jumped to the side of his beloved half-life 30 meters away, lying on the ground and asking, “Are you okay?”

Love half a lifetime with a gray face, shook his head and said: “It’s okay, why is this hedgehog so terrifying, even if it has steel thorns, its attack power is still so powerful.”

Lu Yang shook his head and said, “I don’t know, but this thing is a treasure. If we let each of our shooters bring one, then the next battle will be fine.”

“This is a good idea.” The bitter love’s eyes lit up, and said: “I’ll get rid of his steel thorns first. Look at me.”

Lu Yang nodded, and now he was looking for a large number of wizards to kill this Tier 3 steel hedgehog with long-range spells. There was no other way.

The long-range hammer couldn’t kill him. He wanted to get close but couldn’t reach his countless steel thorns. He swiftly jumped 10 meters to the side and ran around the steel hedgehog.

The steel hedgehog seemed to have no consciousness of his own, madly outputting steel thorns toward his love for half a lifetime, and Lu Yang watched the battle and recorded the data.

“Steel hedgehog, a third-order demonized creature, good at earth-based spells. It can fire all of its spikes into steel. Within 50 meters, it can shoot through 2 meters of rock and penetrate a 50 cm thick hammer. The number of launches is 50 times.” Lu Yang finished recording the data.

After the steel hedgehog shot 50 rounds of steel thorns, the steel thorns on his body can no longer grow. Like a hairless pheasant, it looks cute. It would be better if the eyes were not blood red.

“Huh, little thing, can you still shoot out the steel thorns?” Kuai took a breath for a long time, and asked triumphantly in front of the Tier 3 steel hedgehog who couldn’t shoot the thorns.

The steel hedgehog has exhausted his whole body's magic power. At this time, the weak one even struggled to stand up, not to mention attacking with his paws, and he could only bark with red eyes.

"Come and sign a contract with him." Said to the soldier holding a trap net not far away.

A warrior laughed and clasped his fists to express his gratitude to everyone for their humility. He came to the side of the beloved for a long time, and pressed his right hand on the forehead of the steel hedgehog. A mysterious purple magic symbol was portrayed along with the magic elements in his body.

The steel hedgehog desperately wanted to struggle, but the hard love had already put the hammer on its eyes for half a lifetime. The steel hedgehog did not dare to resist, but struggled symbolically for a few times, and the purple magic symbol was printed on its forehead. .

Lu Yang nodded in satisfaction. From now on, the steel hedgehog can only take orders from this soldier. Without an order, the steel hedgehog cannot attack anyone.

Of course, if you want the steel hedgehog to surrender to the owner from the heart, you need real care. This soldier picked up the weak steel hedgehog so that he didn't have to walk by himself, which made the steel hedgehog show a gentle expression, but the blood in his eyes was still red. Did not fade.

The Blazing Demon carefully scanned the body of the steel hedgehog, and said to Lu Yang in his consciousness: "Be careful, these hedgehogs have problems. We are in trouble."

Lu Yang was a little surprised, and asked, "What happened?"

The Blazing Demon God said solemnly: "Looking at the eyes of the Iron Hedgehog, this is not because his strength has increased and the color has changed, but because there are demons nearby, and the breath of the demons has caused them to become so bloodthirsty."

"Devil?" Lu Yang frowned and asked.

The Blazing Demon said: "Yes, it is a demon, and this is a powerful demon, their abilities are far above the Dark Demon and the Flower Demon."

Lu Yang's eyes scanned the surrounding area. Except for this plain in front of him, there was a low mountain not far from the side-Riyue Mountain. There was an ancient city on the mountain called Riyue City, which was once a scenic spot in the I8 area. There are streams on the mountain all year round. Flowing into the river ditch under the mountain, I am afraid that it is precisely because of that river that the creatures under the mountain become violent.

Lu Yang became vigilant. He turned on the intercom and said, "All teams are catching steel hedgehogs on the plain. It is strictly forbidden to approach the low mountain."

After hearing the order, Zhuojiu, White Lion and others knew that there was a problem on the mountain, and quickly ordered their subordinates to forbid attacking the low mountain and hunt around the plain.

Lu Yang took out the bone scepter and activated his invisibility skills. He quickly passed through various demonized creatures on the plain to the foot of Riyue Mountain 5 kilometers away.

On the only road up the mountain, with a stream flowing down beside it, the Blazing Demon frowned and said, "It's here, that's right."

Lu Yang asked, "Can you perceive if there are any demons nearby?"

The Blazing Demon said: "Go up the mountain, there are no demons in the area 100 meters around the mountain."

Lu Yang nodded, and walked along the hillside towards the top of the mountain. At the same time, he used the bone staff to constantly test the road ahead to see if there were any traps.

For half an hour, Lu Yang descended from the mountain to the top of the mountain. The top of Riyue Mountain was a flat-topped mountain, as if the whole mountain had been cut horizontally across the board.

On the north side of the top of the mountain, there is an ancient bluestone city with a wall of only 6 meters high. The vermilion gate is opening at will at this time. At the gate there are two people who look

2.5 meters tall, their skin is grayish brown, and their heads are long. Ugly creatures with a pair of corners.

They have strong muscles all over, also held two-meter-long purple two-handed swords in his hands, and walked down the city wall to patrol with a very arrogant expression.

The Blazing Demon God said to Lu Yang with consciousness: “They are demons, and their strength is in the second-tier peak state. Look at their weapons, the two-handed swords with purple light are made of ore and star steel from another world. Extremely sharp and can communicate with magic.”

Lu Yang frowned and looked at the two ugly demons, and asked, “What are their main methods of attack?”

The Blazing Demon said: “The close physical attacks and demonic spell attacks are mainly weak spells. A small number of them also understand powerful spells. Try to be careful not to let them find out. With your current strength, once you are caught Weak spells will definitely kill you.”

Lu Yang nodded understandingly. He slowly approached the gate of the city. The two demons were chatting. He wanted to know what they were talking about. Although his devilish language was average, he used to learn skills in the game. To understand the devil language, besides, there is also the help of the Blazing Demon God, it is not difficult.

He wanted to know, why didn't these demons contact the dark demons, why didn't they hide in the mountains and not go out?

The two demons at the gate of the city didn't notice Lu Yang's arrival, the powerful invisibility of the white bone staff, and the rocky ground around the gate made Lu Yang, who walked lightly, concealed the eyes of the two demons.

The demon on the left side of the city gate complained: "Damn, we have already hid here, but we still haven't hid."

The demon on the right said: "This is a fragment of the heart of the devil, and other races will not let us take the fragments easily."

Lu Yang clearly felt that the Blazing Demon God in his body became excited, and he said with consciousness: "It seems that there are fragments of the Demon God's heart here."

The Blazing Demon God said excitedly: "It's great, there is another fragment, no matter how big or small, I can help you transform into the fire demon form of the third-order peak. The flames released with the heart of the demon can even reach the fourth-order. "

Lu Yang was also surprised. He didn't expect that the three pieces of the Demon God's Heart Fragment had such a strong strength, which made his heart excited, but he concealed it well, and his emotions were all hidden in the soul sea. .

The demon on the left said angrily: "No one wants to take away the fragments of our Demon God's heart. If the undead and earth spirits dare to come again, I will use my war knife to smash them."

The demon on the right said solemnly: "Only if we personally contribute the fragments of the Demon God's Heart to the Lord God, the Lord God will give our race the greatest reward. No matter what, we will never hand over the fragments."

Lu Yang understood, and Zihai said, "No wonder there are only so few races in different worlds around us. It turns out that there are a group of monsters from different worlds fighting for the Demon God's Heart Fragment all the way to here."

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said, "You are also lucky. If the Earth Spirits and the Necromancer Legion join forces with the Flower Demon, Dark Demon, and Fire Demon to attack you, you will definitely not be able to hold it. It is cold. But it has no effect on necromancers and earth spirits."

Lu Yang nodded. Just as he was about to sneak into the city to see how many demons there were, the demon on the left said: "Damn human beings are also here to join in the fun. I don't know what happened to General Ba Shi."

The demon on the right looked at the sun and said, "It should be an attack soon."

Lu Yang's eyes widened fiercely. He was also wondering why there were only two demons guarding the city at the gate, and the other demons didn't know where they were going. It turned out that they already knew the actions of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood under the mountain and began to ambush.

Huh, the cold sweat on Lu Yang shed. These 4,000 soldiers from the Jagged Brotherhood are his treasures. He feels distressed if one person died. Moreover, he divided the team into five teams, each with only 800 people. , If this is attacked...

Lu Yang didn't dare to think anymore. He suppressed the panic in his heart and walked cautiously back to the back of a big tree 200 meters outside the city gate. He quickly turned on the phone on his arm. , Said to Zhuo Jiu, Bai Shi, Xia Yuwei, Kuai Bansheng and Zhou Tianming: "Be careful of all teams. There are demons around you. Now it is impossible to determine the number of enemies. I don't know if the enemy is going to attack one of you or all of you. Retreating quickly, everyone moved closer to the position of love for half a lifetime."

Zhuo Jiu, White Lion, Xia Yuwei, Zhou Tianming and Kuai Bansheng are leading the team to catch the steel hedgehog, their eyes widened in horror.

"Assemble, all assembled."

"Gather quickly and put in a defensive formation."

"There is an enemy attack."

...

Five people shouted at the same time, and the 4000 players scattered on the plain quickly gathered in their respective teams. At the same time, everyone was looking for enemies.

Half a life of bitter love is about to take a group of people to the grassy area by the river not far in front. There are already 20 people around him who have caught the steel hedgehog. Just when he shouted and watched the surroundings retreat vigilantly, 20 Suddenly, several steel hedgehogs screamed sharply at the location of the grass by the river at the same time.

The first reaction of bitter love for half a lifetime was that there was an ambush, and he roared: "Throw out the trap net."

More than fifty people around him simultaneously threw their trapping nets toward the grass in front of the river ditch. But when the traps fell to the ground, countless gray-brown demons suddenly stood up in the grass by the river.

"Huh"

"Huh"

...

Countless purple flashes flashed by, and the trap net made of Tier 2 animal skins and animal tendons was cut and shredded like a piece of paper. A stronger demon headed by, turned into a gray light, and appeared in bitter love in the blink of an eye. In front of half a lifetime, the purple two-handed sword in his hand was raised high and cut down fiercely.

Relying on the red spirit fruit for half a life of bitter love, he has reached the second-tier peak combat effectiveness, clearly seeing the movement of the devil's sword slashing over, he fiercely raised the big hammer in his hand to block it.

"Puff~!"

The moment the hammer in the hands of the love half-life was chopped by the purple two-handed sword, it was cut in as easily as a piece of tofu.

A grinning grin appeared on the face of the stronger demon. With a fierce force on his arm, the purple long sword instantly cut off the head of the sledgehammer, and slashed towards the shoulder of the beloved half-life.

At this time, I couldn't react to the pain for a long time. When my arm was about to be cut off, suddenly, there was a crisp sound, and the armor on the shoulder of the painful love for half a lifetime. The equipment that I got from Sigma played a role. Although he was easily cut off, but given the bitter love half a lifetime to react, he suddenly rolled back and avoided the demon's follow-up attack.

“Steel Hedgehog”

The 20 steel hedgehogs under the command of their masters did not recover their full mana, but desperately, more than 4,000 steel thorns shot at the demon.

After chasing and killing the devil who had been in love for a long time, he had to jump backward to avoid it. In the blink of an eye, the demon returned to the grass near the river.

For half a lifetime of bitter love, clutching his bleeding shoulders, stood up, stared at the group of demons, and shouted to the men behind him: “Everyone, come closer to me, we are waiting for support.”

More than 800 people are Tier 2 fighters, they are very fast, formed a square formation in a blink of an eye, waiting for reinforcements around.

The demon headed by him is General Ba Shi. He has been hiding in the grass for a long time. When humans started killing on the grassland, the smell of blood drifted to the Riyue Mountain with the wind.

At first, General Ba Shi thought it was the earth spirits and the undead who had come again. When he brought people down the mountain, he realized that it was a human being.

When he saw humans surrendering the steel hedgehog, he thought of ambushing near the grass by the river, and used weakness spells to trap several steel hedgehogs near the grass and unable to move, but he couldn't understand why the humans suddenly withdrew.

Especially the leading human. He has been aiming at this man for a long time. He wanted to kill this human with one blow, so that the rest of the people would have no command, but he did not expect that this human would actually block his attack. .

Now there are only more than 1,000 demons around him. Although a direct attack can kill this group of humans, he knows that there are thousands of human warriors around him. If he fights with the humans in front of him, he will not be able to get out in the short term. If it is, what awaits him is surrounded.

“Human, how about we talk?” General Ba Shi said in a low voice.

Chapter 2147: Devil's conspiracy

After half a life of bitter love, he was worried that the strangely-shaped demon army on the opposite side would launch an offensive. In that case, he would probably explain this point here, but the devil who attacked him did not order other demons to attack, and would still follow He negotiated.

“There's a problem with this stuff.” Hard love for half a lifetime has been a mature general. Whether in the age of games or in the age of magic, he has seen too many intrigues and intrigues.

When the demons had obvious advantages, they even chose to negotiate. Either the number of demons was too small and they did not dare to attack, or the opponent was setting a trap to wipe out all of them.

“What do you want to talk about?” asked the demon who was staring at the opposite demon while being bandaged for a long time.

General Ba Shi is most afraid of not talking to him for half a lifetime of bitter love. Now that he is able to negotiate, Pa Shi's eyes showed a cunning look. He said to half a lifetime of bitter love in broken Chinese: “Human, I am General Ba Shi of the demon race. , I have no intention of being an enemy of you. We are a race that fled to this world. We just want a safe place. As long as you don't attack us, we will never be an enemy of you. I want peace.”

Kuai spent half of his life on the phone. He frowned and said, “But you just cut me off. If it weren't for my quick response, I'm dead now. You don't seem to want peace at all.”

Ba Shi showed an awkward expression, bowed gracefully and said: “I sincerely apologize to you for what I did just now, I just overreacted.”

For half a lifetime of bitter love, he was a little dizzy by Ba Shi. This man was cruel and domineering in front, and even polite in the back. He also made himself like a nobleman in the devil. He said to the phone, “Boss, what should I do now? ?”

Lu Yang was also stunned. Originally, he ran down the mountain quickly. He heard that the devil was about to negotiate. He was a little relieved and said to the Blazing Demon God, “What's the matter?”

The Blazing Demon God sneered and said: “There is a saying in our world that we would rather believe that the earth spirits can lie than the devil can tell the truth. They are the most cunning creatures in our world. In order to win, they I can say anything you want to hear, but you really don't have the ability to fight this battle right now. I suggest you stay and sneak into the Devil's Palace and let your men go back first.”

Lu Yang also has this idea. Now the number of demons is not clear, the weaponry is not clear, the level of strength is not clear, and everything is unknown, there are too many uncertainties in the rash war. It is better for him to wait and find out first. Let's talk about the situation.

“Hold on, we're here, on your left.” In the intercom, the voice of dirty wine came.

"I'm here, on your right," the white lion said quickly.

"I'm here, in front of your left." Zhou Tianming said.

"I'm right in front of you." Xia Yuwei said.

Lu Yang looked down halfway up the mountain. Zhuoju, White Lion, Zhou Tianming, and Xia Yuwei, each with a team of 800 people, had come to support from all directions, trapping the demon army in the middle.

At this time, the number of people on both sides has become 4000 to 1000, but the eyes of the bitter love for half a lifetime did not have the slightest happiness. While staring at General Ba Shi, he said to the intercom: "Don't attack, the other side's weapon Wicked door, the hammer in my hand was cut off easily by them, just like a piece of paper."

Lu Yang said: "Their weapons are made of metal star steel from a different world. They are extremely sharp. Although the name is steel, it is transliterated. In fact, it is hundreds of times stronger than steel. Don't attack. Ai Bansheng pretended to be the leader and negotiated with them to retreat. You first retreat to the car and wait for my message."

Half a lifetime of bitter love, he nodded his head, looked at the demon general Ba Shi in the distance, and said: "I accept your apology, and I am willing to make peace. It is the best choice for us not to fight. I hope this misunderstanding will let him pass. , We will never invade each other from now on."

The demon Ba Shi had such an expression in his eyes. He knew that these humans were afraid to fight him. The human weapons were too bad. Although there were many people, the two sides would fight and lose both sides. The high probability is that he will win. Therefore, Mankind will definitely choose peace.

"Thank you for the kindness of mankind. From now on, we will not violate each other." Ba Shi said pretendingly and gracefully.

Love half a lifetime and said: "We will leave now."

He raised his arm and issued a loud order. The 800 people who followed him began to retreat slowly, and Zhuojiu and White Lion also retreated in batches.

Ba Shi also ordered his men to retreat. The distance between the two parties was getting farther and farther. Soon, half a lifetime of bitter love led people to the forest. When they couldn't see each other, half a lifetime of bitter love fell to the ground.

Zhuojiu, Baishi and others ran over worryingly, and Zhuojiu asked, "How is the injury?"

Half a life of bitter love shook his head and said: "It will be fine after a short rest. This knife cut off my bones. It's really too sharp."

Lu Yang looked at the demon army that was rapidly climbing down the mountain, and said to the people who have been bitter for a long time and Zhuojiu, "Return to the dungeon, don't leave anyone here waiting for me."

"Yes." Zhuo Jiu, Bai Shi and the others said together. They knew that Lu Yang had Red Night and the Three-eyed Flower Demon. It was easier for one person to act when something happened. They could only make trouble when they stay here.

"Old and small, we are going back." Zhuojiu said.

Lu Yang gave a hum and turned off the intercom. At this time, the Demon Army was about to reach the top of the mountain. He hid in the air and listened.

"Stupid human beings, it's so stupid to believe my words. When our next batch of soldiers arrives, I will kill all the earth spirits and undead, as well as these * humans." Ba Shi's expression went from sarcasm to sarcasm. anger.

Lu Yang was surprised when he heard this. He used his consciousness to say to the Blazing Demon God: "The devil here can actually receive his companions?"

The Blazing Demon God was also surprised. Since the other world opened up the distorted space, there has not been a 100% transmission channel. Therefore, after the failure of the Flower Demon and the Dark Demon, Lu Yang was not worried that their clansmen would be transmitted over in the future.

Now that these demons can find a stable transmission channel, the Blazing Demon God thought for a while and said: "Let's go in and take a look, there must be a secret in it."

Lu Yang nodded, and when the Demon Army entered the city gate, he followed the end of the team and stepped into the city wall.

The two demons guarding the gate were responsible for closing the gate finally, but did not notice Lu Yang's existence. Lu Yang walked and looked into the city.

The ancient city of Riyuecheng is a fortress in history. The streets inside the city are divergent. There are old-fashioned houses made of blue bricks on both sides of each street. The names of various stalls are hung in front of each house. Inject: Milk tea shops and pastry shops. Obviously, before the great changes in the world, the ancient city here was a scenic spot, and the shops on the street were doing business.

After the demons entered the city, they dived into the houses in the surrounding streets in batches. After a while, only Ba Shi was left walking towards the middle area of the ancient city.

Lu Yang and Ba Shi kept a distance of 50 meters. As he approached the central area of the ancient city, he could clearly feel the aura of the Demon God's Heart Fragment, which made both him and the Blazing Demon God very excited.

“Be careful, I don’t know if there are any perceptual demons here. If there are, the invisibility of the bone staff will be discovered.” Blazing Demon God said vigilantly.

Lu Yang suddenly woke up. He quickly stopped and looked around. He made sure that the demon resting on the surrounding streets hadn’t deliberately formed an encirclement. Then a stone in his heart was put down. If he was discovered, the end would be mortal.

“Since you can perceive the specific location of the Demon God’s Heart, let’s not look for the Demon God’s Heart. Let’s investigate the surrounding situation clearly before speaking.” Lu Yang communicated with the Blazing Demon God in the sea of knowledge.

Blazing Demon God was very satisfied with Lu Yang, and said: “You have grown a lot. Many people have lost themselves in the desire for power. The heart of the Demon God is right in front of you. If you can hold it, you are qualified to be promoted to the third rank. Up.”

Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth and said, “Thank you for your praise. I’m relieved with your words.”

Blazing Devil sighed with emotion, he had to admit that Lu Yang was a rare genius. This was not about cultivation, but about mood.

It is extremely difficult to be able to hold the heart at any time. When he was a * king, he had seen how many days he lost himself in the desire for power, and finally fell into a demon, or died on the road of cultivation. .

Lu Yang was a mortal, but he could keep this mentality, he became more and more confident in Lu Yang’s future growth.

Looking at General Ba Shi, who had gone away and disappeared in front of him, the Blazing Demon let go of his consciousness to scan the surrounding area.

The width of the entire Riyue Ancient City was about 700 meters, and the length was nearly 1,000 meters. Lu Yang first scanned near the west gate and gradually expanded eastward.

“There are 100 demons on Street 1.”

“There are 82 demons on Street 2.”

For nearly two hours, Lu Yang scanned all the areas on the west, north, and south sides of the ancient city, leaving only the last west area.

Through the scanning of the Blazing Demon God and Lu Yang’s observations, it was finally determined that there were 1,182 demons here. In other words, General Ba Shi just took out almost all the demons, and there were only more than 100 demons left in the entire city. .

He had to sigh that this General Ba Shi was also a general, and he was really clever in choosing to bluff out Lu Yang and the others in a desperate situation.

It’s just that Lu Yang didn’t understand why Ba Shi wanted to do this. Even if he could bluff him for a while, he would be discovered sooner or later over time. He wanted to know what these demons thought.

“Attention, Ba Shi is right in front, and the heart of the Demon God is also in that house.” Blazing Demon God’s prompt came suddenly.

Lu Yang looked up and found that he had already walked near the City Lord’s Mansion in Dongcheng District. This was a very large house. On the door of the door were the words City Lord Mansion, black tiles, red painted pillars, and the gate. It is more than three meters wide.

There was no demon guarding the door. He walked through the gate and came into the courtyard. As soon as he entered the door, he saw Ba Shizheng kneeling on the ground and talking to the door. There were three other demons who were as strong as Ba Shi standing by him. The left and right sides.

“Master Devil, I have already repelled the invading humans.” Ba Shi said respectfully.

The low voice in the room said, “Good job.”

A demon standing in the yard frowned and said, “Master Devil, humans will not wait too long. They will definitely attack here next time. What should we do?”

The low voice in the room said: “I have notified the earth spirits and the undead. If the two of them don’t help defend the city, I will give the heart of the devil to the humans.”

Ba Shi and the other three demons showed sinister smiles at the same time. Ba Shi said: “The devil is wise, so that the undead and earth spirits will be forced to cooperate with us. Then I will let them take the lead to fight with humans. spell.”

The devil continued: “Hold on for a month. After a month, the next batch of demons will come here through the teleportation array. As long as we can maintain this warped time and space, our gods will continue to send demons to help us. Don’t worry, everyone.”

“Yes.” Ba Shi said with the other three demons.

Lu Yang listened not far away. The Demon King and Ba Shi were talking demon language. Lu Yang had a general control over the devil language, but he understood what he said. He couldn’t help but shocked the Chi in the sea of knowledge. The Flame Demon said: “There is a stable space-time passage here. The next batch of demons will arrive in a month.”

The Blazing Demon God frowned and said: “The devil is best at building teleportation channels. These demons must be eliminated as soon as possible. Otherwise, your dungeon will be discovered by more and more demons.”

Lu Yang nodded. He already understood the situation of the demons. They were not afraid of the cold, and could survive in the ice and snow. Their strengths were all from the 2nd rank to the 7th rank to the peak. Ba Shi and the other three demons in front of him, again They were all demons who stepped into Tier 3 immediately, they were very powerful, and he had to kill them as soon as possible.

"I just don't know what the strength of the Demon King in the room is. If it is Tier 3, do I need to raise my strength to Tier 3 and come back?" Lu Yang asked.

The Blazing Demon God smiled sarcastically in Lu Yang's Sea of Knowledge, and said, "The Demon King inside? You don't care about him, I will kill him for you."

Lu Yang was a little surprised, and asked, "Have you recovered enough to attack actively?"

The Blazing Demon God shook his head and sneered, and said, "No, but the idiot in the room can let me do this."

As soon as he finished speaking, before Lu Yang could understand, the gate of the City Lord's Mansion opened, and a demon with flames all over came out. If he came out a little slower, the whole room would be lit.

"Damn, I still can't fully control this power, he is too powerful, too huge." The devil screamed in excitement.

Lu Yang looked at the Demon King in shock. He was nearly 4 meters tall, and he was obviously stronger than Ba Shi and other demons. The key was the flame on his body. That kind of cordial feeling was obviously from the heart of the Demon God.

"This Demon King can actually use the power of the Demon God's Heart?" Lu Yang asked in surprise.

The Blazing Demon God sneered and said: "He can't use it, but forcibly occupy it, you know? This * actually wants to take the original power that the king of the gods has refined for thousands of years. I must kill it. he."

"Is there any way?" Lu Yang frowned He felt that the strength of the Demon King was too strong. Obviously this was a Tier 3 demon, and if he could still use the power of the Demon God's Heart, he would simply fight. but.

The Blazing Demon God laughed loudly in the Sea of Knowledge, and said: "Do you think anyone can refine the power of the King of Gods and claim it for himself? I will give you a metaphor, just like some high-end thermal weapons in your world. Would you let the enemy use this weapon to hit you? Wouldn't you set up a secret door on this weapon? If the idiot demon in front of you offered up the heart of the devil and waited for the creatures of the first level to come, perhaps you could refine the heart of the devil. But a little demon also wants to refine it. I only need a thought now that this demon will be burned to death by the flames."

Lu Yang smiled, no wonder the Blazing Demon God was so excited, it turned out to be so, if he could easily kill a Tier 3 Demon King, he would be very happy.

"The most hopeful thing now is that the earth spirits and the undead don't come too fast." Lu Yang slowly withdrew from the city lord's mansion, went to the east gate not far away, and stood under the city wall. He turned on the phone and spoke to the voice Jiu, White Lion and others said: "Order all the main players of the Iron-Blood Alliance to take a train to the foot of Riyue Mountain tonight, and we will assault Riyue City tonight."

"Yes." Zhuojiu and Baishi said with solemn eyes.

Chapter 2149: Battle of Sun Moon City

On the battlefield, the warriors of the Jagged Brothers were unable to face the warriors of the enemy Demon race because of their weapons and equipment, but the Jagged Brothers also had 2,000 mages and 6,000 shooters, enough to eliminate these more than 1,100 demons.

After Lu Yang introduced the situation in detail, Zhuojiu, Baishi and others felt deeply angry, and they felt that they had been played by the demon Ba Shi.

"Assemble, all fighters gather."

“I’m going to level Sun Moon City.”

“Damn devil, as cunning as the introduction.”

“Assemble, assemble all.”

...

Twelve thousand people assembled quickly in just 10 minutes. Before going out, Grant sent 20,000 magic scrolls.

“I’ve given you all the inventory. Be sure to get me more magic cores.” Grant said painfully.

“This time I will get you a Tier 3 devil’s horn.” Said bitterly for a while.

Grant nodded in satisfaction, turned around and returned to his laboratory. Looking at the flower demon and tree demon with the contract symbol on his head, he roared: “Continue to use the reproduction skills, I need more materials.”

The third-order flower demon patriarch Flander and hundreds of second-order flower demon showed desperate expressions. They have been forcibly signed a master-servant contract. They cannot violate Grant’s order and can only do their best to create the flower demon. When the branches they used to make the Flower Demon grow out, they will all be chopped down by Grant.

That kind of pain made Flander regret coming to this planet, but unfortunately, he said that these are meaningless, and now he has to pay debts for the hundreds of thousands of human beings who died under his hands until his death.

The same is true of the tree demon, more than 20 tree demon’s branches have been cut off, like a thick stick.

Grant only kept them at a minimum, and only when he needed the tree demon and flower demon to make scrolls, would he give them enough demon cores to speed up their growth.

Also imprisoned were some dark demons. These dark demons who had not been killed in that ice and snow battle became the creatures Grant used for bloodletting after being rescued.

There are a total of more than 1,000 dark demons, and their daily task is to bloodlet. Grant uses their blood to create a second-tier dark magic scroll. A third-tier bone spear cannot be produced, but there is no problem with a second-tier bone spur. There are more than 10,000 in total. Zhang.

The flame demon was also left behind. The blood of these flame demon is the raw material of natural fire scrolls. The second-tier Pyroblast scrolls alone have produced more than 4,000 copies, and the rest are all ice magic scrolls-extremely Zero cryotherapy.

After Zhuojiu and the others allocated the scrolls, they took more than 10,000 people out of the dungeon and hurried to the train station of the East China Sea Old City. Now it has become a stronghold in the dungeon, and the surrounding monsters have been emptied. Yes, trains basically depart from here.

The fire lion was still used as a traction. The six cars were allocated 40 fire lions. Soon after more than 10,000 people got on the train in batches, the fire lion ran towards the outskirts of the I8 area with each car. past.

It will take more than two hours to get here from the East China Sea. Counting that the whole team has come down the mountain, it will take another one hour, which means that the whole team will take three hours.

Lu Yang wanted to take this opportunity to find out more information, he turned off the phone, returned to the city gate, and returned to the gate of the city lord mansion again.

Ba Shi and other demons are still talking.

“Poor Earthlings, there are only less than 400 left to be killed by us, now they still have to help us.”

“There are also stupid undeads, those with bad heads, when they arrive tomorrow, let their undead legions stand in front.”

...

Ba Shi and the other three demon generals were extremely excited.

Lu Yang was also very excited to listen to him. At least this allowed him to know when the enemy’s reinforcements would arrive. If they came tomorrow, he would be able to kill these demons tonight.

At this time it was five o’clock in the evening, and the sky was already dark. A demon piled up wood and lit a fire in the middle of the yard, and the demon brought up a Tier 2 enchanted wild boar, peeled it and took out its internal organs. , Use a few sections of wood to make a support and put it on the flame to bake.

The night in early winter was more than ten degrees below zero. The temperature on the top of the mountain was lower and the wind was stronger. The demons such as Ba Shi couldn’t stand the cold of too low temperature, and they surrounded the fire.

At this time, such fires were lit everywhere in Sun Moon City, and every four demons gathered around, waiting for a cooked demonized wild boar or demonized goat.

After the entrails of various animals were taken out, they were not treated uniformly, but were thrown on the ground randomly, making the * smell of the ancient city even stronger.

Lu Yang was hiding in the shadows that the light could not illuminate. Although the weather was cold, he had the heart of a devil and the blood in his body was hot. This bit of cold would not make him feel uncomfortable at all.

The same is true for the Demon King. Instead of chatting with Ba Shi and others, he sat on the ground alone thinking about how to absorb the original power in the heart of the Demon God.

As the first group of demon leaders to be sent to this world, the Demon King Augustus with Tier 3 combat power did not have such strength when he came.

He was thrown into the twisted time and space in a space-time tin box when he was a child. There were 23 demon kings like him. In the end, only two came to this world alive, and the other one came to this world alive when he first landed. Killed by Augustus.

This is the iron law of the Demon King's world, either surrender to the strongest, or kill the strongest and become the strongest.

It's a pity that the other Demon King's juvenile body did not choose to surrender, otherwise Augustus would now have one more subordinate.

Of course, these are not the main thing for Augustus. The main thing is the heart of the devil. He didn't expect that he could find the fragments of the heart of the devil as soon as he arrived in this world.

Augustus doesn't care about invading the human world. What he cares about is the heart of this demon. He has grown up in such a cruel environment since he was born. He has an unparalleled desire for power, and he has an unparalleled desire for power. Fear is minimal, so when Augustus got the start of the Demon's Heart Fragment he wanted to consume the Demon's Heart, and then became a new Demon God with the original power in the Demon's Heart Fragment. .

It's a pity that he couldn't study the clues. Whenever he felt the heart of the devil, the power of belief that shocked him to express awe only when he crawled on the ground was like the stars in the sky, which seemed to be done with his hands. It can be grasped, but in fact he can't even touch it.

A little carelessness, the power of terror will swallow him, he can only humbly surround this power, slowly looking for a breakthrough.

One hour.

Two hours.

...

After four hours passed, Augustus still had no clue. When he opened his eyes, the surrounding Ba Shi and other demons had already left, leaving him with more than half of the enchanted boar leg.

The pile of wood in front of him was still burning vigorously. Augustus took the huge pork leg with one hand and ate it. He did not notice that Lu Yang was at the gate of the yard at this time, and the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood had already quietly Silently touched Riyue Mountain and came to the gate of Riyue City.

Chapter 2151: Easy war

Augustus never thought that this ordinary man in front of him could escape the chaotic rays he shot, and he suddenly showed an expression of interest. He was not in a hurry to kill Lu Yang, because he did not believe that Lu Yang had a helper, let alone a human being. Can beat more than a thousand of his men armed with sabers.

“Lu Yang? Well, this name is very familiar. There is a legend about you in the land to the south. You led the poor and weak human beings and defeated the Dark Demon Legion, the Flower Demon, and the Flame Demon by conspiracy and tricks. Not to mention, your despicable cunning really makes me really like it. If you die in my hands, it will make me more excited.” Augustus said while watching Lu Yang’s expression.

As soon as Lu Yang showed a surprised expression, his right hand pointed at Lu Yang’s chest, and a red light flashed.

“Flashing”

A white light emerged from Lu Yang's body, leading him to a position 1 meter away, but before he opened his mouth to ask, Augustus had already arrived in front of him with a two-handed sword in front of him. He hacked over to the bottom.

“Flashing”

A white light came out of Lu Yang's body again. This time he jumped behind Augustus 30 meters away and looked at Augustus who looked back at him with a surprised expression. He said, “It's a devil, it's really cunning. , I was almost killed by you.”

Augustus looked at Lu Yang jokingly, and said: “You can escape twice in front of me. You are very powerful, but what I feel in your body is the fire spell. This kind of space spell is not for you. Not the best at it. Every time you use it, it consumes a lot of magical energy, right? How many times can you jump? Three times? Five times?”

Breaking through the space and using the flashing skill is indeed a very expensive skill for Lu Yang. Even at the second-order peak, Lu Yang can only release six flashes at most, after which the magical energy in his soul is completely consumed. Up.

The Blazing Demon said: “Hurry up and end the battle. If you want to ask him any questions, it will not be too late to ask after catching him. The gap between the two of you is too big, and there is no comparable battle.”

Lu Yang nodded, and he also found out that with his current energy, let alone using a flame shield to resist the blow of Augustus' two-handed sword, even if the two-handed sword was rubbed to the side, he was still standing. Somewhere.

In terms of magic, he is even more incomparable with the third-order Augustus. Any one of the opponent's spells hits him, and he immediately loses the ability to fight, and this demon prefers to use words to force the opponent to reveal his flaws. Lu Yang just now He was surprised, he didn't understand how Augustus knew what he was doing in the dungeon.

However, it doesn't matter anymore, he said to the Blazing Demon God: “Come on.”

The Blazing Demon God rolled his eyes in the Sea of Knowledge and took over Lu Yang's body directly. He looked at Augustus, who was still looking at him with a cat and mouse expression not far away, and said: "Damn idiot, trying to steal this * emperor. The power of you, * it~!"

Augustus frowned and looked at Lu Yang. He didn't understand the meaning of Lu Yang's words, but the next second, Augustus's huge body over 4 meters high suddenly ignited a blazing white flame all over his body.

"Ah~!"

Augustus fell to the ground with a scream, and he couldn't use any of his strength. This white flame directly ignited his internal organs, blood, skin, and the magical energy in his body, making him useless without a trace of strength. .

"How is it possible, how could the Demon Heart Fragment have such a powerful backlash, * it, what is going on?" Augustus was only left wailing.

It's a pity that his wailing was no longer made in the ancient city. He couldn't use this wailing to attract the attention of his subordinates, because after the Blazing Demon God took control of Augustus, he immediately stopped him. Pulled into the Demon Temple.

The phantom of the Blazing Demon appeared in the temple. The phantom was more than 6 meters high, allowing him to look down at Augustus, who was constantly rolling on the ground, and cursed: "Damn devil, I will burn you for 99 days. Time, and then kill you, to offset the sin you committed."

Lu Yang's consciousness was next to the Blazing Demon God. He shrugged his shoulders and said, "Well, I'm going to fight outside."

I can understand that a part of his life savings was robbed by others. This person not only robbed it, but also wanted to spend it all. How could the Blazing Demon God calm down the anger in his heart without taking revenge.

Consciousness returned to the body, and at the same time he pulled Hong Ye from the Demon Temple to the outside.

“Roar~!”

With a long roar in the red night, the body that had reached 11 meters long opened its wings fiercely.

Lu Yang jumped to the top of Hong Ye’s head and controlled Hong Ye to fly to the wall of the West City Gate. At this time, the battle had begun here.

Just as the Blazing Demon God said, the heads of more than a dozen demons on the city wall were chopped off, and they were still shouting loudly.

“Damn it, the enemy attack! The human army is sneaking in.”

“Get up and join the war.”

...

The sleeping demons in the city were awakened one after another. Seeing that the humans had broken into the city gate, they roared and stood up, but when they were looking for weapons, they found that the weapons were gone.

“Don’t look for it, the weapon is in our hands.” Kwai Ai said triumphantly holding a purple two-handed sword.

“Roar~!” The demons showed no fear in the face of this situation. Although they are arrogant, they have no weapons, but they still have armor on their bodies. They also have super magical power and physical power. After taking a look, dozens of dark demons on the street at the gate of the city roared and rushed towards them for half a lifetime of bitter love and dirty wine.

But instead of fighting each other with weapons in their hands, Zhuojiu, Baishi and others, one after another raised the scrolls in their hands and squeezed the seal on them.

“Boom”

While the seal was shattering, a dark purple light appeared on the scroll, and a three-inch white bone spur wrapped in black light appeared out of the air. In the next second, the demons just showed a panic expression, and dozens of bone spurs hit it. After passing through the area of their chests without armor protection, even if some bone spurs hit the armor, the bone spurs did not cause an attack, but the black energy entered the bodies of the demons.

The powerful corrosive ability of dark spells can't resist even the demons. The various organs in the body are rapidly necrotic, causing the demons to fall to the ground and unable to move.

“Put it on, take it away.” The bitter love half-life commanded.

Some warriors took out the trapping net and put the incapable demons in the net, unloaded the shoulders of the demons, pulled out their tongues, so that they could not cast spells, they threw them into the corner of the city gate to take care of them.

Chapter 2151: Easy war

Chapter 2152: Master-servant contract

When Ba Shi rushed to the door with a large number of demons, he thought that the demons guarding the door would be able to block humans for a while, but he did not expect that all the demons at the door disappeared, and the warriors of the Jagged Brotherhood had already spread out inside the city gate. Formation.

On each of the seven streets, there were warriors of the Jagged Brotherhood holding large shields in front, behind them were warriors holding the snatched purple two-handed swords, and behind them were archers and wizards.

On the devil's side, except for Ba Shi and a handful of dozens of demons who have weapons in their hands, the rest of the demons are all empty hands. Moreover, in terms of number, the Jagged Brotherhood is fully deployed this time, with a total of 10,000. Two thousand people have an absolute advantage over the more than one thousand people of the devil.

Ba Shi walked on the street facing the city gate, and looked at the human in front of him who was cut by his two-handed sword during the day. He knew that he had found the leader, and roared, "Damn, despicable human beings. Actually stole our weapons."

Kuai half-life rolled his eyes, pointed at Lu Yang who was riding a dragon on top of his head, and said, "Fool, you should tell the man in the sky that you have been tricked. I am just like you, just commanding."

Ba Shi looked at the red dragon flying over his head in shock, and muttered to himself: "What the undead said is true, and human beings have surrendered a giant dragon."

Lu Yang ordered Hong Ye to lower his altitude. When he came 50 meters above the ground, he looked at Ba Shi diagonally below and said, "You are demons, aren't you used to cunning? How can we be qualified to say we are cunning?"

"We are cunning, but we don't steal the opponent's weapon, we still have a sense of honor~!" Ba Shi raised his two-handed sword and pointed at Lu Yang.

A red light hit Hong Ye's head, Hong Ye looked at Ba Shi contemptuously, and said: "Idiot, I am a dragon. Dragons are inherently highly resistant to magic. I am Tier 3 and Tier 2, When did the devil become so stupid? It's ridiculous."

The dragons were originally derived from the fragments of the ancient elemental spirits. No spell can cause too much damage to them, especially this kind of mentally corrupting control spells, and it has no effect on them.

Ba Shi wanted to fight Lu Yang, not the dragon, but Hong Ye used his head to block the attack. He couldn't help but roared angrily: "Devil warriors, although we don't have weapons, we are demons. , Don't let humans underestimate us, let me attack and kill them."

"Roar~!"

In the dark night, Ba Shi couldn't see how many humans there were. He thought it was the 4,000 in the day. Moreover, even in the case of the same level, a demon could desperately kill three or four humans.

Sun Moon City was built on the mountainside, and the West Gate was the only exit. The other three gates corresponded to cliffs. The demons either jumped off the cliff and fell to death, or fought hard with humans.

All the demons exploded with great courage under the desperate situation. They roared at the demons who charged forward with Ba Shi. When they were about to rush to the human being at a distance of 50 meters, red, purple and brown light appeared in their hands.

"Magic Chaos"

"The soul is weak"

"Magic Curse"

...

Various rays of light shot at the front row soldiers of the Jagged Brothers League. At the moment they were hit, all the soldiers raised their shields, but the next second, they knelt on the ground unconsciously, holding the shields in their hands one after another. Can't get up.

Not only that, the magic, vindictiveness, and fighting intent in their bodies were all disintegrated, and they could no longer condense a single trace, and they could only lie on the ground and let someone kill them.

Everyone, including the turbid wine and the white lion, was beaten by the terrifying magic and weakened. When Ba Shi saw this, the corner of his mouth showed a grin, and he knew that would be the case.

Humans think that they can't attack without weapons. In fact, the attack power of demons is composed of two parts. Physical attacks are only one aspect, and curse-like magic attacks are their most important means of attack.

Taking the weak soul and body as an example, any Tier 2 creature, after hitting this trick, the whole body's strength will be as if it was drained, and it will not be able to recover within a few seconds. The demons take this opportunity and only need one. The sword can kill the opponent.

Although they don't have long swords now, they can tear humans to pieces with their hands, not to mention dozens of demons around Ba Shi still have long swords.

At this time, Ba Shi was already imagining that he would rush in front of the humans and kill the sight of all directions, but he did not notice that there was heavy snow falling in the sky.

Just when Ba Shi continued to run forward until the nearest half-life of bitter love was only 10 meters away, more than 200 ice mages hidden behind the soldiers chanted their spells one after another.

"Ice Thorns"

"Cryogenic Cryotherapy"

...

The super strong ice storm instantly frozen Ba Shi and dozens of demons behind him in place. Even if Ba Shi has the strength of the early stage of the third stage, it is the lovely queen who releases the ice spell against him, with ice spirits. It's no problem for her lovely queen to kill the third step, let alone restrict Ba Shi's actions.

“Disperse~!”

The few holy light mages in the team used their dispersal skills to disperse the various rays of light from the people who love half a lifetime. This allowed the love half a lifetime to regain the fighting ability. He tried to stand up and shouted: “Forward Attacked and captured these demons.”

A group of Jagged Brothers soldiers rushed in front of the demon who was frozen in place, and after cutting their arms with a purple two-handed sword, they threw them into the corner with a trap net.

The same goes for the other streets. The demons have no ability to resist the well-prepared Jagged Brotherhood. On the other streets, the Thunder Master, Wind Master and Fire Master chanted spells to beat the demons into Seriously wounded, they were all captured with trap nets.

The demons who love half their lives here are still the luckiest. At least they were frozen. The other areas were pierced by thunder and lightning. The whole body was battered by wind blades and burned by flames. There are almost all kinds of meaty flavors.

The whole battle didn't last for half an hour, and this group of self-proclaimed cunning demons were defeated by even more cunning humans.

Under the night.

More than 800 surviving demons were transported by fire lions to the train down the mountain in batches, and the Jagged Brothers warriors on the wall and in the city screamed in excitement.

“Win~!”

“The devil is nothing but that~!”

...

Zhuojiu, White Lion and others were also very excited. During the battle, they improved their experience and knew how to deal with the devil.

Several people came to Lu Yang after counting the battle damages, and the dirty wine reported: "There are no dead people, more than 20 brothers were slightly injured, and six were seriously injured, but they can be cured."

These six people were caused to block the other three Tier 3 demons who had the same strength as Ba Shi, and the remaining twenty-odd people were also accidental events.

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief, and said with a smile: "The command is good. The less damage our brothers have, the better. There will be battles later. The Earth and Undead people don't know when they will come over, so let everyone rest quickly."

Zhuojiu, White Lion and others showed confident expressions. At this time, facing the creatures of another world, they no longer had the initial fear. The demons of the second-order peak have been beaten by them, and the others will not be strong enough. Wherever they go, they have the confidence to overcome.

"We are going to the city wall to prepare." Zhuojiu said.

Lu Yang nodded. He was about to go with him. Suddenly, the Blazing Demon God in his body heard a message and asked, "Are you interested in having a Tier 3 peak demon as a follower?"

Lu Yang was stunned, and asked with a smile, "What's the matter?"

The Blazing Demon said cursingly: "After this grandson Augustus knew who I was, directly and accepted it, and he desperately admitted that he wanted to be my follower. The King of God has never Those below the lower gods will be given to you if you want, and I will be killed if you don't."

Lu Yang was amused. He could know the reason why the Blazing Demon God was angry. He suffocated his energy and wanted to kill someone. He also wanted to torture the other person under the steadfast expression of the other person, but the other person directly knelt and said that Surrender, this torture is not addictive.

“Isn’t this Augustus believing in the Demon God? He doesn’t get along with you Vulcan, why has he surrendered to you?” Lu Yang asked with a smile.

Blazing Demon God said: “The demons have no faith and rely solely on their own practice to improve their strength. Every demon is selfish, cunning, and insidious. They will sacrifice everything for their own lives, including their parents, wives and children.”

Lu Yang understood. His consciousness entered the Demon God’s space. He looked at Augustus, who was lying on the ground, his brown skin burnt and leaving only his last breath, and asked, “Would you like to sign a master-servant contract with me?” ”

The so-called master-servant contract is the contract of life and death, and it is also one of the highest laws recognized by the elemental elves. The master can make the opponent want to live or even die with a single thought, and the servant can’t even want to kill the master.

Chapter 2153: Augustus' gift

Augustus only wanted to live at this time, but he was willing to do anything that would make him survive. He knelt in front of Lu Yang hard, his cunning face was now full of piety and respect, and said in a faint voice. “I, the demon Augustus, would like to be your humblest servant, and beg you to accept my most loyal request.”

Lu Yang couldn’t help his scalp numb, and looked at the Blazing Demon God beside him and said, “What’s the use of taking him in? Is it just to increase his strength?”

He already had two Tier 3 masters by his side, and it was enough effort to feed Hong Ye and the Three-Eyed Magic Flower. There was one more August, Lu Yang was afraid he could not bear it.

The Blazing Demon God sneered and said, "You let him speak for himself."

Lu Yang looked at Augustus with interest, and asked, "What is your use?"

Augustus bowed his head respectfully, and said admiringly: "I am the supreme commander of the demons sent to another world. I came with me. There is also a space-time tin box with a twisted space-time stabilizer. The southeast urban area of Yuecheng has a relatively stable twisted space-time, and the use of stabilizers can completely stabilize this twisted space-time."

Lu Yang frowned fiercely and asked, "Is the erection completed now?"

Augustus said: "That's right, my master, as long as I am not dead, my soul's fire will be in the main * of another world, oh no, it's the * of rebellion, they can't reach this world, they can only I know my situation by observing the fire of my soul. As long as I live, they will send thousands of demon warriors through this stable and twisted time and space every month. You can kill these demons to increase your strength."

The role of demons is very big. On the one hand, the demons who come cannot come empty-handed. They must be armed with weapons and equipment. What the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood lack most is their weapons and equipment. If there are thousands of demons coming every month, It is equivalent to thousands of weapons and equipment, and the height of the demons is more than three meters, and the weapons they hold are larger than humans. In other words, one such weapon can be split into two, or two split into two. Three.

Another, the blood and viscera of the devil can be used to make magic scrolls, and the living demons can also be used to help make scrolls. They are also the best teachers of demon spells and can be used to teach the wizards of the Jagged Brotherhood to learn demon spells.

Lu Yang's heart moved, but there is still another question. He secretly said to the Blazing Demon God with his consciousness: "Can he not feel awkward in his heart when he slaughtered his people like this? Can he really do things for me?"

The Blazing Demon God knew what Lu Yang meant. For any of his subordinates, Lu Yang hoped that he could follow him sincerely, instead of surrendering in the face, but secretly thinking about * Lu Yang and cut off the master-servant contract.

“Don’t worry, demons don’t have the concept of a tribe. Once the demons invented the same secondary artifact-the blood wine glass, slaughtered their own people and sacrificed to the secondary artifact, which can improve their own strength. Countless demons are vying for this secondary artifact. The demons with this sacred weapon have all slaughtered their own people. In those days, the demons often died of tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands, or even millions. Talking to the demons about the people was a joke.” Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang also smiled and said, “This race may be the race closest to our human beings.”

The Blazing Demon God rolled his eyes and said to Augustus majestically: “As long as you truly surrender and help Lu Yang, I will find a blood wine cup to help you become a lower * in the future.”

Augustus raised his head in surprise. When the Demon Race chose to enter the warped space-time commander, he was worried that the selected demon was too strong and would have the idea of monopolizing the earth. Therefore, the highest strength of him can only be increased to 5. A demon of rank lord level strength.

He obtained the Devil’s Heart Fragment as his own, and he was not reconciled that his future strength would only stay at Tier 5. Now the Blazing Demon God, as the ancient * king, personally promised him to help him find the blood cup to upgrade to Tier 11, reaching the power of the lower * , How can he be unhappy.

“I am willing to surrender and help my master sincerely.” Augustus bowed to the ground again and said with a squat.

Lu Yang nodded. He understood the spell of the master and servant contract, and he would also portray the magic circle. His body entered the Demon God’s space and came to Augustus. He said loudly, “Hold up your head.”

Augustus is too tall, even if he is kneeling, he is more than 2 meters tall. He can only kowtow and try to raise his head.

“Elemental sprites are up...”

Lu Yang chanted the spell in the language of the ancient gods. In an instant, nine colors of light appeared on his right hand, dotted on Augustus's forehead. As every magic symbol was portrayed, Augustus' expression was constantly changing. .

For Lu Yang, this spell is the most supreme and full of dignity. For Augustus, every symbol represents what he wants to do. It is an oath to abandon dignity and become the most humble servant.

If it was normal, anyone who dared to use such a spell on him would be killed by Augustus with a single sword, but now he had to surrender from the bottom of his heart to the command represented by every symbol, which crushed all of Augustus. A sense of honor, he will not have any dignity in front of Lu Yang in the future.

The Blazing Demon is guarding the side. This compulsive master-servant contract is likely to cause Augustus to run away. As long as Augustus's expression changes slightly, the Blazing Demon will activate the fragments of the Demon's Heart in Augustus's body. , Makes Augustus desperate for life.

The characterization of the spell lasted for a full minute. When Lu Yang's last magic symbol was portrayed, Augustus did not resist and completely accepted the master-servant contract. At this time, the Blazing Demon God breathed a sigh of relief.

Lu Yang also breathed a sigh of relief. Even he felt that the master-servant contract was too excessive and the binding force was too strong. He was surprised that Augustus could agree.

"Master, in order to express my loyalty, I am willing to help you kill the warriors from the Earthling and Undead people who came to support." Augustus completely let go. Anyway, he has no chance to repent, it is better to serve the Master.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "I mean it too, Augustus, you really are a good servant."

Now that Augustus has surrendered, the Earthlings and the Undead are the fish on the chopping board. He can design a perfect ambush circle and let these two races take the initiative to get in.

“Humans really don’t have a sense of honor than demons.” Augustus thought in his heart, but said on his lips: “Listen to the master’s instructions.”

The Blazing Demon God looked at the two of them and shook their heads with a smile, and said, “Why do you match up with you? You two bastards.”

Lu Yang chuckled and said, “You are coming too.”

“Fuck off, I have no time to pay attention to you, this * king is about to fuse my heart of the devil.” The Blazing Demon beckoned, and a crimson spar with a diameter of 2 cm flew out of Augustus’s body and reached his hand.

Lu Yang said in surprise: “This piece of Demon God’s heart is so big.”

The Blazing Demon said: “Of course, waits for me to integrate this fast fragment, you and I will be greatly improved, but this will take some time, don’t disturb me during this time.”

Lu Yang nodded and led Augustus out of the Demon Temple. As soon as he landed, the muddy wine and the white lion were shocked. They were guarding the place where Lu Yang disappeared and saw a 4 meter high demon. Appear, subconsciously raise a weapon to attack.

“Don’t move, this is my servant.” Lu Yang said.

“Uh...” Zhuojiu and Baishi stopped their hands in surprise.

Zhou Tianming smiled at the demon whose body was recovering, and said to Lu Yang, “Boss, your hobby is becoming more and more extensive.”

Lu Yang cursed with a smile, and said: “He is Augustus, the highest commander of the Demon Clan, and he will be my most loyal servant from now on. I will talk about other things later. Let’s design an ambush circle first. I’ll use it. Augustus wiped out all the earth spirits and undead who came to support in this Sun Moon City.”

Zhuojiu, White Lion and the others nodded excitedly, and quickly followed up inquiries. They didn't know the earth spirits and the undead at all, and they didn't even know what the enemy looked like.

Chapter 2155: Earthen Lizardman

At the gate of Riyue Mountain, a group of lizardmen in heavy black armor lined up in a phalanx, standing there with torches. They were all about two and five meters in height, with muscular muscles and both upper and lower bodies. Wearing heavy black armor, holding a black short sword in his hand.

At this time, the time is four o'clock in the morning. In the cold winter season in December, the temperature at four o'clock is the coldest time, but whether it is a biting cold wind or a temperature of minus 20 degrees, it seems to be invalid for the lizard people. , Because they are still surrounded by a layer of earth-brown light, that is the protection of earth magic spells.

The head of the lizard man is about two meters tall, with stronger muscles and heavier armor. This man is the leader of the Earth Spirit Race, Xitu.

According to the thinking of Xitu and all the earth spirit races, they would definitely not be willing to help the devil, but they had no choice this time.

Augustus sent a letter telling them that if they don't come to help, Augustus will take the initiative to hand over the fragments of the Demon's Heart to humans in exchange for peace, and he swears by the Demon God that if the earth spirits and the undead come to help, he is willing to come to the future. When the envoy arrives in this world, share the credit equally with them.

For Situ and the earthlings, the credit is already second. Their purpose is to fight for the fragments of the heart of the devil. If they did not participate in protecting the fragments of the heart of the devil, they would eventually be taken away by humans. They knew that in the future When the envoy arrived, how would they punish them, and absolutely all were slaughtered.

In order to save his life, Xitu had to bring the Earthlings to help the demon clan who had been fighting with them for almost a year, and because he was worried that the devil's heart fragments would be snatched by humans, he could only rush to help overnight.

Just when he was upset, a fire appeared halfway up the mountain. It was Augustus walking down the mountain with 200 demons lit torches.

When he was halfway up the mountain, August saw the group of lizardmen, with a grinning smile at the corner of his mouth, and said, "That's great, you can finally kill this group of earth spirits."

Ba Shi and others all showed a grinning expression. Since they came here, they have been fighting with the Turtles. A large number of demons have died in the hands of this group of lizardmen. Augustus and Ba Shi and other demons are hated. they.

Being able to kill them in one fell swoop this time can be considered to have solved their hatred. As for hating Lu Yang, they absolutely dare not. On the one hand, they signed a slave contract. On the other hand, they would only hate those they provoked. Up people.

Coming to the bottom of the mountain, Augustus pretended to be enthusiastic and walked quickly in front of Situ, punched his chest with his right fist, bowed in salute and said, "Thank you for coming to help from the Turtle Race. I thank you on behalf of all the Demon Race fighters."

Situ stared at Augustus in front of him. He found that Augustus and the demons behind him were all scarred, frowning and asked: "You have already fought humans?"

Augustus showed an expression of emotion and said: "Fighting them head-on, these * human beings are too powerful, and the number is ten times as many as ours. As a last resort, I can only ask you to help."

Xitu said sarcastically, "Aren't your demons very powerful? Don't you want to swallow the fragments of the Demon God's Heart?"

Augustus didn't take Situ's words seriously, and said in a daze: "It's meaningless to discuss these now. We are now allies, and our common enemy is humans. If the devil's heart fragments reach human hands. Here, you know what the result is. For ourselves and for our people, we can only join hands."

In another world, the gods only need a thought, and these weak races will be wiped out, and there are hundreds of thousands of races like them in another world, and the gods will not care about their life or death.

Xitu said calmly: "Go up the mountain, our Earthlings will help you defend, but in the same way, you have to keep your promise, after defending the attack of the Humans, share the Devil's Heart Fragment with ours."

"I swear by the demon god, I do what I say." Augustus said.

Xi Tu no longer hesitated, waved his hand and said, "Warriors of the Earth Spirit Race, follow me up the mountain."

"Boom"

"Boom"

"Boom"

...

The lizard man has heavy armor and heavy footsteps. Every step he takes, he can step on the ground into a large pit up to 5 centimeters deep.

Lu Yang was lying in ambush on the city wall. Not long after, he heard heavy footsteps. The sound of each step being like a hammer hitting the ground made the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood very curious, but no one carried it. It started.

Muddy wine, White Lion and others all had cold sweats on their foreheads. They could defeat the demons by sneak attacks, and there were complete various magic scrolls. But if the demons were to fight with them with weapons, the Iron-Blooded Brotherhood They can't be beaten without paying two-thirds of the price of death.

But the earth spirits that come now are monsters that even the demons can't beat. Normally, they can't beat them at all. Now they can only hope that the demons will abide by the slave contract, and the magician's magic can be maximized. They broke through their defenses.

"Everyone put down their bows and arrows, while the magician, all of them bombarded with scrolls. In any case, first kill this group of bastards. After the scrolls are thrown out, I will charge in close combat." Lu Yang said in a low voice.

The messenger quickly conveyed the order, and all the warriors and wizards of the Jagged Brotherhood, such as Zhuojiu and White Lion, received the order.

The gate of the city.

Augustus ordered the two demon guards to open the gate and said, "Let's go in."

Xitu frowned and looked around, and said suspiciously: "How do I feel the human breath?"

Augustus grinned and said, "You want to eat human flesh too? A lot of humans have been captured after a battle. If you are interested, I will send you dozens of them."

Situ stared at Augustus, and then stepped into the city gate, facing the west gate is a row of houses, at this time almost destroyed, all caused by the previous battle.

All the abandoned rubble was piled up 100 meters away from the city gate by soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood, and they were hiding behind these rubbles.

Lu Yang turned to the inner side of the city wall and looked down. Augustus took Situ and walked inside the city gate. During the introduction, he quietly looked at Lu Yang and gave Lu Yang a relieved look.

“There was a war just here. We frustrated the human invasion, but we also suffered a heavy loss.” Augustus led Situ into the city gate for more than 50 meters and said, pointing to the rubble in front of him.

Xitu always felt that something was wrong around him, but he couldn't tell. He waited until all the earthen warriors had entered the city wall. Xitu suddenly woke up, staring at Augustus and asked: “Your other people What?”

The entire Sun Moon City is too quiet, even the sound of flame burning is so sparse. If there are captured humans in the city, how can there be no crying? If there are other demons in the city, even the snoring should be there. It is very easy to hear in this quiet night.

But before they were walking too loudly. When all the lizardmen stopped after entering the city gate, he realized that there was something wrong around him, but only then did he realize that it was too late.

But before they were walking too loudly. When all the lizardmen stopped after entering the city gate, he realized that there was something wrong around him, but only then did he realize that it was too late.

Facing Situ's questioning, Augustus showed a mocking smile at the corner of his mouth, and said: "The stupid and stupid earth spirit warrior is so sluggish even to get the trick. Curse of magic~!"

Before Situ could react, Augustus cast a second spell: "The soul is weak~!"

The earth-brown light on Situ's body instantly faded under the curse of magic. This kind of curse can make the magic in the body become chaotic and unable to be mobilized. Therefore, the earth-brown protective shield that always runs around them is destroyed.

Immediately afterwards, Situ felt that his whole body became weak, but under such circumstances, Situ immediately launched a counterattack, piercing Augustus's abdomen with a short sword in his hand.

"Puff~!"

Augustus tried his best to avoid, but was pierced to a depth of 30 centimeters. Fortunately, the stabbing was not the point, but Augustus flew back and saved his life.

"Damn Augustus, do you want to ambush us with your thousands of demons?" Xitu roared in anger and anger: "Don't forget that there are undead clan, you fight to the death with me, you will only let The undead will benefit."

Augustus is constantly gathering the energy in his body to fight the abdomen that gradually turns into a golden grayish white wound. That is the unique magic petrification of the earth element. If you don't fight in time, the body will quickly turn into stone.

"Of course I am afraid of the undead's gains. It's a pity that I have surrendered to humans. Now you have to face the human attack." Augustus sneered, turned and ran away towards a piece of rubble in the distance, while the other 200 The demon also scattered and fled.

Xitu quickly looked around in shock, but found that behind the surrounding rubble and the city wall behind him, countless humans emerged, and magic of various colors was condensing in their hands.

"Pyroblast"

“Lightning Bolt”

“Wind Blade”

...

Various spells poured madly on the 200 lizardman warriors, but even when their earthen brown magic shields were destroyed and their bodies were hit by the curse of weakness, the spells of 2000 wizards still couldn't kill instantly. To drop them, it just caused them to suffer different degrees of harm.

While releasing the spell, Lu Yang roared at the dirty wine and others around him: “The scroll is thrown out now, don't give them any chance to fight back.”

“Scroll: Burst Flame”

“Scroll: Burst Flame”

...

The magic scrolls were torn apart, and the engraved on them were all magic used by the captured Huo Demon race. The number of scrolls was small, there were only more than 6,000 in total, but the effect was very good at this time. The flames made the lizard people feel Suffering, they didn't have the ability to restrain the flames, so they could only desperately want to escape.

“boom”

“boom”

The lizard people ran desperately, smashing the surrounding rubble, and even smashing the city wall when they came to take it, which shows how powerful their power is.

Seeing that these lizardmen were about to rush out of the encirclement, Zhou Tianming, White Lion and others each roared and jumped off the city wall.

“Brothers, the three people blocked a lizardman. They must not let them run and follow me.” The white lion rushed up first and ran into the lizardman clan chief Xitu head-on.

With a loud bang, Zhou Tianming was knocked out on the spot, and the entire right arm holding the shield dropped. It was obviously broken, but this way, it also blocked Xitu’s escape route.

Zhou Tianming and Kuai Bansheng and the others followed closely. The two of them held purple two-handed swords. The moment Situ was blocked in place, they inserted into the armpit where Situ’s armor was the weakest at the same time.

“Roar~!”

Xi Tu let out a painful roar, and he was guarded by the sword spirit for a long time. This piece penetrated Xi Tu’s entire left shoulder oracle bone. Although Zhou Tianming did not pierce it, the entire sword tip was also inserted. In the middle of Situ’s right shoulder bone.

“Despicable humans, die to me~!” Xitu was extremely angry, and regardless of the pain, he grabbed his hands towards the heads of the two.

Once caught, it must be the end of the head being caught. The two of Love Bansheng and Zhou Tianming instantly released their hands and retreated, and took out the scroll at the same time.

“Burst Flame”

Two groups of flames burned the black armor of Situ’s whole body red, which caused Situ to fall into severe pain. Taking this opportunity, someone threw a giant net over Situ, and wanted to capture him.

“Roar~!”

Xitu only tore it with force, and the giant net made of second-order demonized wild beef tendon was easily torn by Xitu, and everyone who saw it was shocked.

“With a rope, one person grabs one side, I don’t believe that he alone can withstand the strength of hundreds of us.” Zhuojiu shouted.

He threw out a rope made of second-order enchanted wild cowhide, which caught Situ’s head, Baihu and Bailang threw out the ropes to cover Situ’s left and right arms, Zhou Tianming and Kuai half-life threw out the ropes and caught him. Legs.

The five men used force at the same time, and immediately dragged Xi Tu head down into the air to be parallel to the ground. At the same time, a large number of Jagged Brothers soldiers rushed over and pulled the rope forcefully.

Xitu tried his best to break free, but at this moment, Augustus ran over and said to Xitu, “The soul is weak~!”

Situ’s strength was reduced by a large amount, and he fell into a weak state again, facing hundreds of people while stretching hard, Situ was finally blocked.

On the other side, most of the other lizardman warriors were also subdued. They were either severely wounded by magic or beheaded by vengeful demons. In the end, not enough 100 survived. It was Lu Yang’s order that allowed them. Survived.

Lu Yang walked to Xitu and said in a solemn voice: “If you choose to sign a slave contract, I am willing to keep you alive.”

“Despicable and cunning human beings, Xitu will never surrender. Our earth creatures only have death, not surrender.” Xitu roared.

Augustus clutched his abdomen and walked to Lu Yang’s side, and said, “The Earth Spirit Race will not surrender. Kill them.”

Lu Yang nodded, because there are still undead people who don't know when they will come, he said to Augustus, "I will leave it to you."

"Thanks to my master." Augustus showed a grinning smile, took off Situ's helmet with his own hands, raised the knife and fell, and beheaded it to the ground.

Other lizardmen were also killed by the demons. So far, more than 200 lizardmen of the Turin tribe have been killed.

Lu Yang looked at the corpses everywhere, and said with emotion, "It's not easy."

Augustus smiled and put the helmet in front of Lu Yang, and said, "My master, you have won another great battle. This is your trophy. The lizard clan's most powerful armor, Boscott battle. A."

"Boscott's battle armor?" Lu Yang frowned and asked, "Tell me more specifically."

Augustus said: "The most powerful patriarch of the Boscott Warframe Lizardmen clan. He made this suit of Black Magic Gold, which is harder than Star Steel. Although it is harder, it is stronger than Star Steel. light."

Lu Yang nodded, no wonder Augustus had to take off Situ's head just now, and he had to take off the opponent's helmet, showing that this armor was indeed too hard.

He looked at the white lion and said: "It's yours. "

The white lion's fighting style is too hard, and the white lion himself is not a person who is good at fighting with speed. His strength is obviously biased, and he is approaching the direction of the heavy armor warrior. Therefore, this set of heavy armor is the most suitable for him.

"Great, thank you boss." The white lion took the battle armor excitedly.

Lu Yang glanced at him with a smile, and said, "Take down all the armors of the Earth Spirit Race. Everyone has time to rest. I don't know when the Undead Race will come."

The smiles on everyone's faces disappeared when they thought of fighting, and they returned to their original positions and continued to hide. But at this moment, a crow flapped its wings and flew from a distance.

The Blazing Demon God in Lu Yang suddenly issued a warning, saying: "The crow flying in the sky was sent by the undead. Let Augustus kill it."

"Kill the crow in the sky~!" Lu Yang pointed his right hand toward the night sky in the northwest.

Augustus had excellent eyesight, and he could clearly see the location of the crow even at night, and he quickly threw the purple two-handed sword in his hand.

Chapter 2157: Unwilling to die

The hair on the black crow is missing, half of his head is full of white bones. Obviously, this is a crow resurrected by the undead.

The purple two-handed sword is extremely fast, and the crow has very poor eyesight at night, and can only see the blurry scene in the castle from a distance, but even so, he also saw humans and demons standing together.

"Boom"

The crow was shattered by a two-handed sword in the air, but before Lu Yang could breathe a sigh of relief, a cloud of mist emerged from the crow, and in a blink of an eye it turned into a huge red-lighted skull.

“Augustus, I didn’t expect you, a despicable bastard, to be enslaved by humans. Fortunately, I didn’t come, or you would be killed tonight.” Red Skull uttered.

Augustus looked at the sky with a furious expression and said, “Elbaka, you can’t escape.”

“Come and kill me if you can. I’m in the city. If you can kill me before the next red moon, you still have a chance to live, otherwise, you will be wanted by all creatures in other worlds.” Red Skull Gradually dissipated in mid-air.

Lu Yang frowned and asked, “What’s the matter?”

Augustus said awkwardly: “Elbaka is too smart to be hit.”

Lu Yang asked, “I’m asking about the red moon, what does the next red moon mean?”

Augustus said: “About half a year later, the magical elements that have poured into this world will have an element disorder. At this time, the distorted time and space will become stable, and there may even be the possibility of expansion. The gods of different worlds will take this opportunity to send a large number of Army enters.”

Lu Yang understood that he had to find a way to kill Elbaka and all the undead troops. Otherwise, Sun Moon City would be exposed. Losing this stable location to provide equipment is not a big deal. Let the enemy know that he has The Devil’s Heart Fragment is the deadliest, and the dungeon will be attacked most intensively at that time.

“I’ll find a way to kill Elbaka.” Lu Yang looked at Augustus and said, “Don’t worry, I will not let you die if I am here.”

“Thank you, my master.” Augustus knelt on the ground religiously. He believed in Lu Yang’s power, or in other words, he believed in the Blazing Demon God who was about to recover part of his strength.

Lu Yang turned his head to look at the crowd and said, “Send the white lion back to the dungeon for recuperation, and here is the responsibility of Zhuojiu. Send the engineers from the dungeon to build new fortifications here. I want to send a group of demons to come here. A lot of dead.”

“Yes.” Zhuojiu smiled confidently and said: “I will do this in the shortest time possible.”

Lu Yang looked at Zhou Tianming and said, “Go back to the dungeon and re-forged all the purple two-handed swords. This weapon is too big for us to use. Let’s see how many two-handed swords we can use.”

There were more than 1,000 weapons seized from the hands of the demons this time, and there were more than 2,000 purple two-handed swords hidden in the warehouse of Sun Moon City, which were the weapons of the demons who died before.

After disassembling these three thousand weapons, they can turn into at least five thousand two-handed swords suitable for human use. More than half of the Jagged Brothers fighters will truly have the combat effectiveness of the second-tier peak, and even challenge the third-tier beasts. Ability.

As for the more than 200 sets of armor, it can also be re-forged, but I am afraid that only about 50 sets of armor will be available. He handed it over to the White Lion and asked him to lead his men to create an elite war defense army.

As for the white lion’s injured arm, healed it very quickly. The second-order holy light mage in the dungeon only needed to cast the spell for a few hours to keep the white lion intact.

Augustus looked at Lu Yang and said, “Master, let me follow you to follow Elbaka.”

Lu Yang shook his head and said, “You took 200 demons and returned to the dungeon with bitter love for half a lifetime. Your new job is to take good care of all the creatures caught in another world. If anyone dares to resist, you will punish them for me. In addition, you let your men make magic scrolls in large quantities, and we need a lot of them.”

“Yes, Master.” Augustus said respectfully.

Lu Yang summoned the Red Night, and under the cover of the night, flew towards the I8 area. Since the undead said they were in the urban area, they should be in a corner of the I8 area. There was a blazing demon. Lu Yang didn't believe it. I can't find him.

Zhuo Jiu, Bai Shi and others looked at Lu Yang who was flying away with worry in their eyes, but they didn't have time to rest now.

“The First Army and the Second Army stayed for defense, and the Third Army to the Sixth Army returned to the dungeon to supply and smelt weapons.” Zhuojiu issued an order loudly.

4000 people from the two legions stayed in place, and more than 8000 people carried weapons overnight and took the train back to the dungeon.

In the middle of the night, when they returned to the city, Fei Yang and Lu Tianming were waiting for them. After the white lion explained his intentions, Fei Yang frowned and said, “Cement and steel are very scarce now, and we are not enough to build our own city. , How can there be extra to forge another city?”

The white lion said in a deep voice: “This is related to our combat effectiveness. Even if the defense measures in the city are slightly weaker, the defensive system of Sun Moon City must be built first.”

Fei Yang sighed helplessly and said, “Well, starting tonight, all the cement and steel bars will be sent to Sun Moon City overnight.”

“Thank you,” said the white lion.

“Hurry up and heal your arm, don't delay.” Fei Yang said with emotion.

Shen Mengyao walked over with the members of the Holy Light Mage Group and began to heal the wounded soldiers. This kind of Holy Light was obtained not by faith, but by cultivation, so they would not be controlled by the gods of another world.

After Zhou Tianming saw the white lion's arm gradually recovering, he relaxed and directed the operation of the city. A large amount of cement was delivered to the truck, and a large number of workers were sent to Sunyue City overnight.

...

When the entire dungeon here was again operating for the fortifications of Sun Moon City, on the other side, Lu Yang had already controlled Hong Ye and flew into the city of L8.

Finding a roof without monsters, Lu Yang rested, and waited until noon the next day before he woke up. He casually ate a bite of the dry food carried in the Demon God's space, and he continued searching.

It is meaningless to search aimlessly. He believes that it is not easy for the undead to survive in the l8 area. They must be in an area with excellent concealment. The first principle of such an area is to distort time and space, and the second is that the terrain is complex and capable. To achieve this, there are only two places in the city.

The first is near the railway station in the east of the city, where there is no distortion of time and space, and there are many tall buildings nearby, which is a good hiding place for the undead. The second is Qianyuan Square in the west of the city, which is the densest residential area. To get a skeleton warrior, there is the best choice.

Lu Yang went to the vicinity of the train station first, and after a careful search, he didn't find it. He went to Qianyuan Square. As soon as he reached the gate of the square, he saw a special energy fluctuation in front of him. This was energy he had never felt before. , Close to humans, but different from humans.

"There are undead in front, gather magical energy on your eyes, and you will see their existence."
Blazing Demon God prompted.

Lu Yang focused his energy on his eyes, and sure enough, he saw a young undead standing there alone, with a sad expression on his face, looking out to the south.

He came to the front of the undead, lifted the invisibility of the bone staff, and said: "Can you speak?"

The young undead looked at Lu Yang in surprise and asked, "Can you see me?"

Lu Yang nodded, and asked sentimentally: "How can you become a soul state?"

The young undead showed an expression of unwillingness and said: "Why do I die? My love is in the East China Sea. Tomorrow is my wedding day. I have prepared a wedding car and a banquet. I will be able to drive to the East China Sea tomorrow. My lover got here to get married, but I caught up with this * world mutation. Why did I live? I don't know, I just know that I'm not reconciled to die like this! I'm not reconciled~!"

Lu Yang shook his head with emotion. This great change in the world has caused the misfortune of so many people and the fragmentation of so many families. He asked, "Who is your lover, I can help you find it, maybe he is still alive. "

The young undead showed a surprised expression and asked: "Really? That's great. My fiancée is named Xu Ling. If you see her, I hope you can bring me a word."

Lu Yang nodded, and said, "Just tell me."

The joyful expression of the young undead stayed in place. After a long time, he showed a wry smile and said lonely: "I used to have countless things to talk to her, but now I don't know what to say. I'm like this. Will she continue to love me?"

Lu Yang was also a bit sentimental. He took out his intercom and called Fei Yang, and said, "Check in the underground city to see if there is a girl named Xu Ling."

Lu Yang looked up at the young undead and asked, "What is your name?"

“Me? My name is Zhao Yichen.” The young undead said.

Lu Yang said to Fei Yang: “There is an undead named Zhao Yichen, who is not so soulless, he wants to talk to his fiancé Xu Ling.”

“I’ll look for it.” Fei Yang hung up the phone and asked through the dungeon broadcast. On the other side, Xu Ling, who was working in the factory, shed tears on the spot when she heard the question and stopped her work. Arrived at Fei Yang’s office.

At this time, Xu Ling needed to raise four elderly people alone. Because the man’s parents were also from the East China Sea, and they only had one son, after Zhao Yichen’s death, Xu Ling worked odd jobs in the underground city.

Now that they talked on the phone again, it was already more than a year later, as if Zhao Yichen and Xu Ling talked to each other after a long time.

Lu Yang was watching, waiting for Zhao Yichen to finish talking before he asked Zhao Yichen: “Since you can still live in this state, it means that the undead thinks you are still useful, can you tell the truth now.”

“Really? The truth?” Zhao Yichen was stunned.

Lu Yang said: “From the very beginning, I knew you were sent by the undead to deceive me. Now it’s up to you. If you continue to do this, I will not do anything to your family, I will just leave. But I hope you still retain a conscience of being a human being, to contribute your last bit of strength for your hard-working lover and for your parents.”

From the moment Zhao Yichen saw Lu Yang didn’t feel the strange look in his eyes, Lu Yang was sure that Zhao Yichen had a problem. Now that Zhao Yichen had said these words, the flashing in Zhao Yichen’s eyes made him believe that Zhao Yichen was sent by the undead general Elbach to deceive him. his.

Chapter 2158: Flesh puppet

Zhao Yichen lowered his head, his eyes flashed with green and black light, that was his inner struggle. In the end, Zhao Yichen seemed to vent, and roared at Lu Yang: "Well, I can help you, but you can't hurt him. My family cannot hurt my fiancée."

Lu Yang said: "This is nature. The underground city is a place we all need to protect. Not only your family and fiancée, but also our family and wives."

Zhao Yichen showed a sorrowful smile on his face, and said: "I can't go back anymore. Elbaka will not forgive me. Don't go inside anymore. Elbaka is in Qianyuan Square and designed it for you. In a huge encirclement, the undead warriors under him have a particularly powerful presence, and they are even stronger than the warriors of the earth spirit race and the demon race when taken out individually."

Lu Yang frowned and said, "How many people are there?"

Zhao Yichen said: "There are about 200 such powerful fighters. The rest are enslaved undead, skeletons and zombies. There are about tens of thousands of them. The strength is from the peak of Tier 1 to the elementary Tier 2, basically all. Hidden here."

Lu Yang felt a little heavy in his heart. Originally, he thought there were not many enemies, but he didn't expect that there were actually so many. He continued to chat with Zhao Yichen, and he understood the specific reason.

It turns out that Elbaka with more than 200 high-level undead sneaked into the I8 city to look for human bones and souls, and wanted to control them to continue fighting with demons, but he did not expect that in Qianyuan Square, tens of thousands were killed. Human bones, and a small number of undead who are unwilling to die just like this.

Now there are about hundreds of these undead. Except for Zhao Yichen, the other undead are assisting Elbaka to create a new kind of flesh and blood warrior. If the creation is successful, the individual strength will be at the peak of Tier 2 or even the primary level of Tier 3, and the strength is extremely tough.

After Zhao Yichen introduced the situation inside, he said to Lu Yang: "If you have the opportunity, please go to Building 33 in Qianyuan Plaza. Unit 702 is my new house. There are some of my things. Please help me. Transfer it to Xu Ling and my parents."

Lu Yang said, "I will do it."

A smile appeared at the corner of Zhao Yichen's mouth, and he took a close look at Lu Yang and said, "Perhaps humanity has a future. I have no regrets. I hope that I will not be reborn on Earth in my next life. There are so many things in this * world that have disappointed me. "

As soon as the voice fell, Zhao Yichen's body, which was like a phantom, began to quickly decompose into thousands of light spots.

Lu Yang looked at Zhao Yichen, who took the initiative to die and was unwilling to play for Elbaka, smiled and said, "Your wife and family will live better because of your bravery. In addition, thank you, my brother, you is a hero of mankind."

Zhao Yichen smiled bitterly and shook his head before dissipating in front of Lu Yang.

Lu Yang could understand Zhao Yichen's smile, it was helpless, helpless to the changes in this world, helpless to his life.

"Brother, go well, maybe soon, I will go down to look for you." Lu Yang said with a smile.

He took out the bone staff, activated the invisibility skill, turned and left the gate of Qianyuan Square, and went in like this at this time. It was completely looking for death. He needed to find another way.

There are four gates in Qianyuan Square. What surprised Lu Yang was that there was a dead human soul waiting there near each gate. Obviously, Elbaka was worried that Lu Yang would go through the other gates and arranged these specially. People are waiting.

Lu Yang didn't contact the other undead anymore, but the undead who went straight across the north gate and came under the square building. Seeing the glass that had been completely broken, he jumped into the second floor.

At this time, it is afternoon. Although there are four floors in the square, the top of the building is made of glass. The sun shines through the glass into the building. Although it is not possible to illuminate the entire square, it can also allow the square to be located. Under normal vision.

The second floor of the square seems to be a place where clothes are sold. The stalls that were originally beautifully decorated are now occupied by skeletons walking upright.

Among these skeletons, there is a huge skeleton about three meters tall. Although his body is a human-like skeleton, his head is a monster-like head.

This skeleton is holding a huge two-handed sword, and his whole body is shining black. He hates the sun's rays, but the sun's rays cannot burn them.

The same is true for ordinary skeletons, they can live normally in the sun.

Lu Yang carefully looked at the three-meter-high skeleton. Obviously, this skeleton should be one of the undead soldiers from another world. The strength of this skeleton is at least at the peak of Tier 2, or even at the beginning of Tier 3.

Suddenly, a group of skeletons in the distance came over. They were all three-meter-high skeletons. The head of the skeleton was more than four meters tall. His whole body was covered with black light, holding a two-handed sword, and his back There is a bone bow with black light.

"Damn human undead, betrayed me unexpectedly." The four-meter-high skeleton roared in undead language.

"Your Excellency General, what do you plan to do?" asked the skeleton who was more than three meters high.

Lu Yang understood that this four-meter-high skeleton should be the undead general Elbaka, and he couldn't help but be cautious.

Elbaka roared: "The human Lu Yang must have inquired about some of our news. Now, all entrances and exits are blocked. If you see Lu Yang, immediately destroy him."

"Yes." The three-meter-high skeleton bowed in response, commanding the skeletons beside him, and ran toward the surroundings in large numbers.

Lu Yang secretly rejoiced that he was moving fast enough, otherwise, now he wants to come in, I'm afraid he will have to rush.

After Elbaka issued the order, turned around and walked in the direction of the stairs alone. It was originally an elevator, but at this time there was no electricity in the building and he could only walk down.

The width of this elevator is also a little small for Elbaka. The unhappy Elbaka lifted his huge bones and feet, kicked the handrails on both sides of the elevator to pieces, and then walked downstairs.

Lu Yang's eyes lit up and he quickly followed behind Elbaka. He wanted to find a chance to kill Elbaka.

The invisibility effect of the Bone Staff was extremely good. As long as Lu Yang didn't make a sound, Elbaka couldn't notice the existence of Lu Yang at all.

The two went downstairs in tandem and went all the way to the second basement floor. They reached the parking lot area. In a huge room, Elbacar sat on a large sofa and stared forward, not far away. , Human undead constantly commanded the skeleton warriors turned into human bones, throwing piles of rotting human flesh and blood together.

When hundreds of human flesh and blood gathered together, Elba Ka chanted a spell, pointed his finger in the direction of flesh and blood, and a green energy hit the bones like a small mountain. In the blink of an eye, a blood-red energy burst open. , Countless flesh and blood scattered and flew, and among the flesh and blood, a stinking flesh and blood puppet stood up.

Chapter 2159: Assassination of Elbaka

“Roar~!”

The face of the multiple corpses of the flesh and blood puppet showed a big mouth in the blood basin. After a roar, two weird red eyeballs, one large and one small, looked around, and finally locked on Elbaka.

“Lord~people~” said the flesh and blood puppet respectfully, kneeling in front of Elbaka.

With a satisfied expression on Elbaka’s face, his arm pointed to the right, the flesh and blood puppets stood up and walked to the stairs, where there was a giant skeleton guiding them upstairs to defend.

“General, the power of darkness is really impressive.” A young undead looked at Elbaka with excitement in his eyes.

“For the undead clan, this is only the lowest level of magic. Be loyal to me and you will be rewarded by the * of death.” Elbak said slowly.

“Thank you, General.” Dozens of human undead around were kneeling in front of Elbaka, and everyone’s face was full of joy.

“In the future, we will definitely kill all humans for you and turn them all into your subordinates for your trend.” The young undead said excitedly.

Elbaka smiled slyly and said: “I am very satisfied with your performance. Continue to work. I want to create more flesh and blood puppets, human beings. I will never let you go.”

Dozens of undead hurriedly continued to drive the zombies and skeletons to continue to carry the corpses. Whenever hundreds of corpses gathered together, Elbaka created a flesh and blood puppet.

After creating more than 20 flesh and blood puppets, Elbach stopped. At this time, the green light in his eyes dimmed, and his body felt a little tired.

“You all go down, I want to rest.” Elbaka stared at the undead and ordered.

Dozens of human undead left the underground garage, and only Elbach was left. It lay straight on the ground and rested. After a while, there was a loud snoring.

Obviously, making these flesh and blood puppets is also a very energy-consuming thing for Elbaka.

Lu Yang had been hiding nearby for observation. Suddenly he had an idea and said to the Blazing Demon God: “With Elbaka’s current state, can I pull him into the Demon God’s space?”

The Blazing Demon God smiled. He was very satisfied with Lu Yang’s flexibility and said: “Of course, as long as the other party is in an unconscious state, he can easily pull in, but you must ensure that you have the ability to kill him, otherwise, Demon God Space Everything in it belongs to him.”

Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth and said, “With Red Night and Three Eyes Magic Flower, I still have this confidence.”

The Blazing Demon God did not stop him. He believed in Lu Yang’s strength. What’s more, he was already fusing the fragments of the Demon God’s Heart. With his current ability, it was easy to kill Elbaka in the Demon God Space.

Holding a bone scepter, Lu Yang cautiously walked in front of Elbaka invisibly, watching the undead general who was four meters in length, he quickly issued instructions.

A 30 cm thick vine suddenly shot out from Lu Yang’s chest, completely enveloping Elbaka who was sleeping.

Although Elbaka woke up instantly, he didn't wait for him to break these vines. In the next second, a light flickered and Lu Yang took Elbaka into the ruins of the Demon God Space.

“boom”

The black ray completely blasted the vines to pieces, and Elbaka fell into the Demon God's space. Looking around, he had a shocked look in his eyes and said, “Damn it, what is this place.”

Lu Yang looked at Elbaka with a smile, and said, “This is the place you came to look for in this world, the Demon God Space.”

In Elbaka's white-bone eyes, the two green light spots suddenly became more blazing, and he said to Lu Yang excitedly: “The * old * of the Blazing Demon God is actually in your body.”

The phantom of the Blazing Demon God appeared behind Lu Yang. His huge body made the Blazing Demon God look extremely majestic and tall. He looked at Elbaka furiously and said, “Rebels, you will eventually be punished. God will not forgive you.”

Elbaka sneered, looked at the Blazing Demon God with contempt, and said, “Do you think you are still a superior Flame God King? Now you are just a low-powered trash, I can easily run you over. Now that I have discovered you, I will absorb all your original energy, and I will replace you as the new Vulcan.”

As soon as the words fell, Elbaka quickly took down the white bone longbow behind him, and shot an arrow at the phantom of the Blazing Demon God.

“Wow~!”

The white bone arrow with a purple-black light penetrated the phantom of the Blazing Demon instantly, but after the phantom of the Blazing Demon was broken up, the Blazing Demon once again condensed his body, but at this time the Blazing Demon God Extreme anger.

“Damn the reptile, dare to attack the god, Lu Yang, kill him for me.” The Blazing Demon God's voice trembled.

Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth and said, "Okay, he will leave it to me, Red Night, Three Eyes Magic Flower, in perfect shape."

"Roar~!"

"Roar~!"

There were two roars, Hong Ye suddenly appeared beside Lu Yang and turned into a giant fire dragon with a length of 13 meters. The three-eyed magic flower took root in the soil not far away, and turned into a giant fire dragon as high as fifty. Meters of huge trees.

Numerous trunks grew from the big tree in an instant. There were luxuriant branches and leaves on the trunk, and a large number of vines shot out from the trunk and shot towards Elbaka.

Elbaka looked at Lu Yang and said, "Why do you have a three-eyed magic flower, it's still Tier 3."

It was a Red Night alone, Elbaka was very difficult to deal with. Although he could shoot Red Night with the bone longbow in his hand, it also required a great price, not to mention the existence of Lu Yang.

Now there is another Tier 3 three-eyed magic flower, which completely disrupted Elbaka's preparations. When he was at a loss, dozens of vines of the three-eyed magic flower had already entangled.

Elbaka was holding a bow and arrow in his right hand, and a black two-handed sword suddenly appeared in his left hand, flying up and down. When all the vines approached the black two-handed sword, they were corroded by black energy and fell to the ground.

The Blazing Demon God frowned and said: "This sword should be a long sword that can release undead magic. Be careful. This weapon is a high-level weapon. Although it is not worthy of being used by the gods, among creatures below the * level, this kind of Weapons are still extremely useful."

Lu Yang nodded, and muttered a spell silently. Five scarlet fire snakes suddenly appeared from under Elbaka's feet. Just as the fire snake was about to entangle Elbaka, Elbaka's armor appeared black. The light blocked the fire snake outside.

Elbaka took this opportunity to jump to a place 10 meters away, and then he chanted a spell, a dark green skull-patterned light group shot towards Lu Yang.

"Hot and Fast"

A flame came out of Lu Yang's feet and quickly avoided the attack. At the same time, a large number of vines of the Three-Eyed Magic Flower shot towards Elbaka again.

Elbaka did not panic this time, but showed a hideous expression, pointing both hands at the position of the three-eyed magic flower at the same time, and a dark green cone-shaped energy group rushed towards these vines.

When the two collided, all the vines were corroded into dark green liquid, and the cone-shaped energy group continued to shoot towards the body of the three-eyed magic flower.

Faced with this situation, the Three-Eyed Magic Flower had to erect a solid wood shield wall to block it. That was the case when it was killed. The corrosive energy group also corroded the solid wood shield wall and stopped.

Hong Ye had been looking for opportunities next to him, and when he saw Elbaka's body stagnate after releasing the spell, he spit out a dragon's breath fiercely.

Elbaka couldn't avoid it, and the white bone body was sprayed straight by the dragon's breath. Fortunately, the armor on his body showed a black light, blocking part of the dragon's breath, but even so, it still made Elbaka angry. Painful cry.

"Damn human being, I'm going to kill you." Elbaka jumped forward and continued to dodge backwards. At the same time, he put away his sword, bowed his bow and shot arrows, and shot towards Luyang.

Lu Yang had always guarded Elbaka's bow and arrow. With his current reaction speed, it would be too late to dodge when the bow and arrow came out. But the moment he shot the arrow in Elbaka, he avoided it first. Avoiding the blow, at the same time, he chanted a spell.

"Meteor Fall"

In the Demon God Space, Lu Yang releases any fire spell. does not need to mobilize the magical energy in the soul sea. The entire Demon God Space can provide energy for him. Therefore, Meteor Fall is a false forbidden spell. Can be emitted instantaneously.

A huge fireball with a diameter of 30 meters suddenly appeared in the sky, and immediately hit Elbaka's body.

"boom"

With a loud noise, Elbaka completely withstood the blow. When he stood up from the ground, one of his arms had been blown off, but his armor was still undamaged.

"Fire Snake Bound"

Lu Yang took this opportunity to recite the spell, and five fire snakes appeared from Elbaka's feet again, two wrapped around his legs, one wrapped around his arms, one wrapped around his neck, and one wrapped around his chest. Elbaka instantly became Can't move.

Hong Ye rushed in front of Elbaka in an instant, and the sharp dragon claws passed by Elbaka's neck. The next second, the white bone head and body separated.

The four-meter-high huge body, as if losing its power in an instant, fell apart as a whole, with only one skull still emitting green light. Then, Hong Ye stepped on it, and the skull shattered like this.

Chapter 2160: Strength soaring

A black light flashed, and Elbaka's soul turned into a one-meter-high black phantom flying out of the skeleton's body, and he looked at all this in horror.

At this time, he has no way to escape. Without his body, he can't even release spells, but let him beg for mercy, and he knows that the Blazing Demon God will not let him go.

At this moment, countless thorny tree roots suddenly emerged from the ground, which entangled Elbaka's soul.

"Ah~! I don't want to die~!" Elbaka yelled frantically, but no matter how hard he struggles, he can't break free from the roots of the three-eyed magic flower.

Lu Yang looked at this scene in surprise, and said to the Blazing Demon God: "What's going on? It won't hurt Xiao Hua, right."

Blazing Demon God said: "The three-eyed magic flower likes to eat the soul of the undead. Don't worry about him, he won't be harmed."

Lu Yang nodded clearly. He could feel the joy of the three-eyed magic flower at this time. He smiled softly at the three-eyed magic flower and let it continue to absorb it. Lu Yang walked to Elbaka's boneless body. next to.

took out a magic core larger than a basketball from his left chest, and the evil aura inside was rushing into his face. This made Lu Yang frowned and asked, "Can this thing be absorbed?"

Blazing Demon God said: "No, the magic core of the undead system can only be used by humans who learn the spells of the undead system. Others absorb the power inside and are looking for death."

"It's useless to keep this thing together." Lu Yang threw the magic core into the depths of the Demon Temple. He picked up the two-handed sword that Elbaka had used before. Not suitable for human use.

The Blazing Demon God said with satisfaction: "This two-handed sword is good, it can engrave magic inscriptions, stay in the Demon Temple, and I will remake him when I have time."

Lu Yang nodded, then looked at the bow and arrow and armor, and asked, "How about these two?"

The Blazing Demon said: "It looks like this Elbaka is also a wealthy patriarch. There are a lot of treasures in his hands. Leave them here. I'll remodel it for you when I have time. The bow, arrows and armor can be split into two sets. "

Lu Yang smiled. What he lacks most now is weapons and equipment. One more weapon will improve their strength, and these weapons can be re-engraved with inscriptions, that is, when they are transformed by the Blazing Demon God At this time, not only will the power of the darkness be erased, but also more powerful flame magic will be added.

"I will continue to look for other skeletons. Today I will kill them all at once." Lu Yang's eyes became sharp.

The battle just now didn't consume too much for him, and the Red Night and the Three-Eyed Magic Flower didn't consume much. Moreover, the remaining skeletons looked at their strength, which was the state of the second-tier peak, and it was not difficult to kill them.

He returned to the underground parking lot through the Demon Space, and at the same time threw Elbaka's body out. Elbaka lost the core and soul, and his bones became fragile and useless.

"Bone Scepter"

Lu Yang's body went invisible again and returned from the parking lot to the lobby on the first floor. What made him frown was that at this time, in the lobby on the first floor, there were roaming flesh and blood puppets everywhere, and a large number of undead and zombies followed them. Behind.

Skeleton monsters over three meters high were lying in ambush everywhere in the building. The place where they were hiding was not only difficult for Lu Yang to find, but they could not be found by themselves, so this gave Lu Yang a chance.

He went invisible to a three-meter-high skeleton, and suddenly trapped it with a three-eyed magic flower, and then pulled into the demon space, Hong Ye waved his claws, and instantly killed a second-order peak skeleton.

Lu Yang exited the Demon Temple and went to find the next one...

In just over ten minutes, more than 100 skeleton warriors of the second-order peak were beheaded by Lu Yang. Now, in this Qianyuan square, there are only dozens of human undead with self-awareness left, and the rest of the skeletons. , Zombies and flesh and blood puppets are all unconscious.

Lu Yang glanced down on the third floor. After determining the location of these undead humans, his eyes were full of ice.

Lobby.

Dozens of human undead did not realize the danger is approaching, they are gathering together to chat.

“Lu Yang is dead this time.”

“The magic of the necromancer is so powerful, humans should perish.”

“We will work hard to help Lord Elbaka. In the future, the * of death will come to this world, and we must become servants of the * of death and become eternal life completely.”

“For immortality~!”

...

A group of undead spirits fell into the carnival, but at this moment, Lu Yang lifted his invisibility and appeared in front of them.

“Since you have betrayed the human race, then you are not qualified to survive.” Lu Yang looked at the horrified faces of the undead, and pointed his right hand forward.

Numerous tree roots flew out from Lu Yang’s cuffs, and at the same time they caught all the dozens of undead. In the next second, in the countless wailing sounds, all the human undead turned into little green light and dissipated in this world. on.

As the saying goes, Lu Yang will never leave anything dangerous to the dungeon and the Jagged Brotherhood. Even if these people were once humans, even if they still have the slightest possibility of persuading them to come back, he will not show mercy.

“Humans today are no longer the humans of a year ago. We already have the ability to defend our race.” Lu Yang burst into flames all over his body.

The entire building fell into a sea of flames instantly, and thick smoke billowed straight into the sky. At the same time, Lu Yang flew out of the building in the red night and flew toward Sunyue City.

“Elbaka and the Legion of the Undead have all been wiped out. How about Sun Moon City and the Underground City?” Lu Yang opened the phone and initiated a voice chat with Zhuojiu, Fei Yang and others.

“Nice work.” Fei Yang said excitedly: “I can tell you the good news. All the weapons seized from the devil have been re-forged. Now your 8,000 human warriors have all two-handed swords made of star steel. Up.”

The lovely queen said excitedly: “Boss, we also have a magic wand. The two-handed sword made of star steel can quickly cut the branches of the tree demon. All of our 2000 wizards have put on the magic wand.”

Zhou Tianming said: “One-tenth of the new city above the dungeon has been built. More than 400,000 humans have lived on the ground. The production areas under the dungeon are also being supplied steadily. Ten thousand new trap nets have been produced. , Ten thousand five-series magic scrolls, 500 barrels of Hydra King’s venom.”

Zhuojiu said: “There are 4000 steel hedgehogs caught here. The soldiers who have obtained the weapons are training. Only waiting for your order, you can enter the I8 area main city at any time to hunt down the Tier 3 magic creatures.”

Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth. He didn't expect that in just one night and one day, the brothers would be able to do this to this extent. He said, "Assemble all the soldiers, rest in Sun Moon City tonight, and drive into L8 Lord tomorrow morning. In the city, we will hunt and kill Tier 3 demonized creatures together."

With the weapons of Star Steel, as well as so many scrolls and various auxiliary items, the combat power of the dungeon can finally usher in an explosion.
