

Wild Fire 2161

Chapter 2161: Attack L Eight District

That evening, Lu Yangfei returned to the dungeon to rest. By the early morning of the next day, more than 12,000 Jagged Brothers members walked out of the dungeon.

The 4000 warriors at the beginning are holding purple two-handed swords made of star steel, and they are wearing armor made of the cowhide of the second-order enchanted bison.

The 2000 warriors are holding small round shields made of second-order enchanted wild leather and residual star steel, and they are holding short swords of only 40 cm in length. These people are here to resist the damage of monsters.

Behind the warriors are 4000 archers holding snake-bone bows, with poison sacs and various second-order monster skins hanging around their waists, and then 2000 mages, all holding them. A five-meter-long staff made from the branches of the second-order pinnacle tree demon.

Each member of the Iron-Blood League also carries 6 magic scrolls in the chest backpack, including the six magics of Explosive Flame, Arctic Freezing, Bone Spurs, Curse of Weakness and Curse of Mana.

If the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood used to fight the world with their bare hands, now they are almost armed to their teeth.

The warriors of the Iron-Blooded Brotherhood no longer have despair in their eyes. They need the mentality of being in a state of despair and sacrificing their lives to protect their brothers from being able to survive.

Now, what they see in their eyes is self-confidence, anger, and desire for improvement and revenge.

When the members of the Jagged Brothers League walked down the mountain, countless family members on both sides cheered for them to see them off. They knew that this time out was not to send them to death, but to get more trophies and make them even more powerful.

Shen Mengyao was also among the team to see off. Although the tenderness of last night relaxed Shen Mengyao's tense nerves, she still refused to let her lover fight again.

Lu Yang saw Shen Mengyao's reluctance, smiled and squeezed her chin, and said, "Don't worry, there are Hongye and Xiaohua, I won't be hurt."

Shen Mengyao nodded, and said softly: "Don't worry at home, we will take care of this place."

Lu Yang gave a hum, looked at Fei Yang who was walking by, and said, "I need your care at home too much."

Fei Yang said: "Don't worry, after you leave, there are people from the academy responsible for security. These people will soon be filled into the Jagged Brotherhood. You can use them with confidence. They are all loyal people."

Lu Tianming also walked over and said excitedly: "Bring some more babies back. If it weren't for guarding this place, I would really like to see it myself."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "This time the harvest will definitely not be less, but we will leave for a longer time. We must pay attention to safety. If there is any disturbance, please notify me immediately."

Lu Tianming said: "Don't worry, the person in charge of the investigation has advanced to the area 10 kilometers away from the underground city. Even the old city is under surveillance. There are a total of 16 observation stations. The surrounding area of the underground city is very stable. Don't worry. Well, nothing will happen."

Lu Yang nodded, and said, "I'm leaving, you also take care of your health. The next big battle is coming soon, up to six months."

The time has entered December, and the next day when the red moon comes should be at the end of May or the beginning of June.

In this cold winter to late spring season, it is the best opportunity for the Jagged Brothers to develop. As long as he grasps this opportunity, when the next red moon comes, it may not be who will kill whom!

"Red Night." Lu Yang issued an order.

"Roar~!" A roar of a dragon shook the dungeon, and the red night, which had reached a length of 13 meters, flew to Lu Yang's side from a distance.

Lu Yang didn't let him land, and jumped to the head of Red Night at a height of 50 meters, and flew down the mountain.

"Roar~!"

The Jagged Brothers soldiers descending the mountain, seeing Lu Yang in the air, raised their arms and shouted, including the hard-loving half a lifetime and Zhou Tianming and others.

They can really feel the changes of their brothers around them, and the confidence brought by their strength makes them excited.

"Speed up, get on the train faster."

"Quick, quick, get the third-order magic core and the fur and minions of the third-order animal if you go early, and eat the rest of others when you go late."

"Opportunity is rare. The opportunity to save your family is here. Get in the car, get in the car quickly."

Various shouts made countless Jagged Brothers fighters speed up to board the train. Each train was pulled by a fire lion. Six carriages at a time contained more than 600 people.

A batch will be sent every time there are 600 people. Fortunately, Donghai City is the starting station. When the world changed, there were enough trains.

All the 12,000 people got on a batch of trains, and there was no use of the train to come back to pull the second batch of people.

From Donghai City to the train station in the I8 area, it only takes two hours, and there are no demonized creatures along the way.

was originally there, but the patrol sent by the dirty wine last night was killed, so the operation is so smooth today.

Along the way, everyone is enjoying the surrounding scenery, but today's scenery is very different from what it was before the great changes in the world.

Donghaiwai was originally an endless plain. There are only a few places with mountains, and they are not high mountains.

On these plains, in addition to forests, which are farms for growing food, the farms on the plains are now covered by heavy snow. The trees that were originally only five or six meters high and less than 30 cm in diameter have become five or six meters in height. The towering tree is ten meters in diameter and five to six meters in diameter.

Originally all kinds of small animals, such as pheasants and hares, have now become first-order or even second-order enchanted pheasants and enchanted rabbits, all of which are about half a meter in height, especially the enchanted pheasants, their whole body color colorful.

If it weren't for the demonized lion pulling the cart, the group of demonized pheasants and demonized rabbits might take the initiative to attack the train of the Jagged Brotherhood, but now they can only hide from a distance and watch.

Of course, they are more afraid of the red night on top of the locomotive. The dragon's power emanating from the red night in flight makes countless creatures retreat.

has been coming to the area near Sun Moon City, and no demonized creature dared to challenge the authority of Red Night. When it was over the I8 train station, suddenly, a screaming scream sounded in the distance.

“Neigh~!”

A huge falcon with a black metallic luster all over, leaped towards the red night. The falcon’s arms stretched out to a full width of more than 20 meters. The beak has completely turned into a metal, which can reflect sunlight.

Lu Yang turned on the intercom and said to Zhuojui and others: “For record, we named this falcon as the Black Golden Eagle King, Tier 3.”

Xia Yuwei quickly recorded.

The Black Golden Eagle’s eyes are extremely fierce. He has aimed at the eyes of Red Night. During his flight, the power of violent wind appeared all over his body, which made the Falcon fly faster.

If it weren't for Lu Yang's fast reaction speed, he would not be able to see the movements of the Falcon. When Falcon came 30 meters in front of Hong Ye, Lu Yang did not wait for Hong Ye to spray the dragon's breath and gave orders to Xiao Hua.

A huge vine shot out from Lu Yang's chest. He didn't force the Black Golden Eagle King's body from the front, but was wrapped around the Black Golden Eagle's neck precisely from the side.

The vines tightened hard, but the Black Golden Eagle King did not feel the slightest discomfort. His body was spinning fiercely in the air. The violent wind power turned into dozens of wind blades. cut all the vines into pieces.

“Dragon Breath”

Lu Yang issued an order, Hong Ye spewed out the breath of the dragon, and the Black Golden Eagle King cleverly ducked in the air, avoiding the breath of the dragon.

If only the three-eyed magic flower and Hong Ye launched an attack on the Black Golden Eagle King, they might not be able to kill him. After all, this thing is known for flying and its body is so flexible, but Hong Ye still has a Lu Yang standing on top of his head.

“Extinguish the fire”

Lu Yang pointed his right hand towards the sky, and a flame flew into the air. The next second, it landed precisely on the head of the Black Golden Eagle, who was flying at a high speed and stared at Hong Ye and Lu Yang’s chest.

“Boom”

The violent flame power instantly made the eyes of the Black Golden Eagle King feel extremely uncomfortable. His feathers were hot and flushed, and his eyes were obviously not as powerful as feathers. Under the severe pain, the Black Golden Eagle King was about to flee with a cry of mourning. .

“Red Night, use Dragon’s Breath~!” How could Lu Yang let the Black Golden Eagle King escape? Since the other party could no longer observe the position of Red Night, he could just use Dragon’s Breath to kill him.

Hong Ye could not wait a long time ago. If it was the usual, without Lu Yang’s order, he would always use dragon’s breath to attack. Today is the first time to use dragon’s breath so sparingly, but this saving didn’t make him waste his energy.

The blazing white dragon's breath with terrifying power sprayed accurately on the black golden eagle king's tail, and suddenly, the black golden eagle king's feathers were lit.

Chapter 2162: Harvest

"Neigh~!"

The Black Golden Eagle screamed, and a violent hurricane violently appeared up and down all over his body, blocking the dragon's breath behind him, and the hurricane revolved towards the direction of the red night.

"Don't carry it hard, go around." Lu Yang issued an order.

The Black Golden Eagle, who was not far in front of Hong Ye with a hideous expression, suddenly jumped and flew to the side, easily avoiding the hurricane.

The Black Golden Eagle took this opportunity to pull away from the Red Night. It turned its head to look at the Red Night with the same ferocious expression. A large amount of wind energy appeared again all over his body, and dozens of cyan wind blades were quickly formed.

But at the moment when the Black Golden Eagle King was about to release him, there was a wave of magic over his head. In the next second, Lu Yang released flashing magic. From the top of Hong Ye's head, he predicted to jump onto the Black Golden Eagle King's head. At the same time, he had a large purple two-handed sword in his hand.

“Puff~!”

Like cutting tofu, Lu Yang forcefully inserted the purple two-handed sword into the back of the black golden eagle king's neck, and then made a strong stroke.

The head of the Black Golden Eagle King was cut in half, and all the cyan wind blades all over his body disappeared automatically. Before even a screaming scream was heard, the Black Golden Eagle King fell head down.

The soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood below were originally worried about whether the weapons in their hands could cause damage to the Tier 3 demonized creatures. Now that Lu Yang can do it so easily, they can't help shouting at Lu Yang in the air with excitement. stand up.

Lu Yang stepped on the corpse of the Black Golden Eagle King and fell, waving his two-handed sword at the brothers below, and he ordered Hong Ye to fly over.

With blood pouring in the sky, Hong Ye could not wait for a long time, and swooped down beside Lu Yang. When Lu Yang jumped on top of his head, Hong Ye bit the body of the Black Golden Eagle King in one bite and chewed with enjoyment.

For Hong Ye, Tier 3 creatures are a rare delicacy. The more Tier 3 monsters eaten, the faster his strength will increase.

Lu Yang turned on the intercom and said to Zhuojiu, Baishi and others: "With the train station as the center and the team advancing in all directions, it depends on your luck."

"Yes."

Zhuojiu and White Lion and all the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood couldn't wait. The five commanders each issued orders and led their brothers toward the train station and pushed them forward.

This time the third-order beasts in the I8 area are unlucky. Originally, these beasts thought that they were close to the twisted time and space, and their strength was upgraded to third-order, and they were invincible in the human world.

Including Tier 3 Golden Tiger King who makes good use of fire spells, Tier 3 Juli Bull King who makes good use of earth spells, and Tier 3 Frost Tiger King who makes good use of ice spells.

When facing a warrior of the Jagged Alliance holding a purple two-handed sword, as long as he is slightly close, his legs are cut off, and his head is severed on the spot.

Tier 3 magic nuclei just fell into the pockets of the Jagged Brotherhood fighters, as well as their fur, bones, tendons and flesh and blood.

“Boss, there is a centipede king over there, there is no meat.” A soldier happily ran back to report to the dirty wine.

The dirty wine said with a smile: “Silly boy, that thing is a baby, and the whole body is very poisonous. If you can stay alive, don’t kill it. Take me over.”

“Okay.”

Zhuojiu took a group of people to kill the Centipede King.

On the other side, the white lion is also cutting a super large toad as high as a two-story building.

Xia Yuwei found a huge honeycomb, and the queen bee inside was as long as 20 meters.

Half a life of bitter love found a one-hundred-meter-long poisonous snake with three horns.

Zhou Tianming found a 30-meter-long scorpion.

...

The entire Jagged Brotherhood has opened a bumper harvest mode.

Lu Yang did not fall to the ground. He took Hongye to hunt down the third-order beasts in the air. If it was the usual, with Hongye's own ability, he would have to go back and rest after killing three of the same-level beasts. However, Lu Yang commanded them. Under the circumstances, Hong Ye's power consumption is very small.

Hong Ye, Three-Eyed Magic Flower and Lu Yang cooperated, and in just a few moments, the third-tier Black Golden Eagle King killed six.

The dividends of the two little guys are also very clear, half of one person, three black golden eagle kings were eaten by Red Night, and three were absorbed by the three-eyed magic flower.

Lu Yang was already on the verge of breaking through. He didn't need the third-order magic core. The only thing that made him more anxious was that his dirty wine and white lion did not show any signs of breaking through to the third-order.

This is normal. Those who can keep up with Lu Yang's cultivation speed, except for the top geniuses in this world, are those who possess such things as the Heart of the Demon God.

But because of the greed of human beings in the imperial capital, other old gods blew themselves up with their own gods' hearts and fled. Therefore, except for one Lu Yang, no one can be promoted to the third rank in a short period of time.

However, Lu Yang was not in a hurry. The next red moon would still be a few months later. In this icy and snowy world, he had plenty of time.

From day to night, when everyone was asleep, Lu Yang, Zhuojiu and others gathered together to check the harvest.

“There are 80,000 first-order magic cores, 30,000 second-order magic cores, 6,000 third-order magic cores, 22 third-order toad kings, 29 third-order venomous snake kings, and third-order venomous queen bee 6. Only, there are 27 third-tier highly poisonous scorpion kings, 21 third-tier highly poisonous centipede kings, and 700 pieces of the most important third-tier cowhide.” Zhuojiu said.

White Lion added: “There are still Tier 3 animal tendons, which have not been removed for the time being. After being removed, at least 1,000 Tier 3 animal traps can be made.”

These things will become the stock materials of the Jagged Brothers in the future. The magic core can be provided to the subordinates for cultivation, and more importantly, the venom and trap nets. These will allow the soldiers of the Jagged Brothers to fight more easily on the battlefield. Win the enemy.

Lu Yang asked, "How about the casualties?"

Zhuojiu said: "There are no deaths or serious injuries, only more than 200 minor injuries, and the Holy Light Mage can be cured by simple treatment."

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief and said, "It's not bad. As long as no enemy interferes with us this winter, when the enemy comes tomorrow, our chances of winning will increase a lot."

Zhuojiu and White Lion nodded one after another. They are now more and more confident to survive the next red moon period.

No words for a night.

Until the next morning, Lu Yang continued to sweep the I8 area with the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood, spreading all the way from the train station to the surroundings, and spreading to the seaside.

Just when Lu Yang was about to leave with the team, suddenly, a humanoid monster with green skin all over floated on the sea.

“Isn’t that the Sea Demon Race?” said with a sharp eye.

Lu Yang frowned and led people to the beach, looking at the dead sea demon clan soaked in the sea water. Not long after, a large number of sea demon clan corpses floated up.

“It looks like the Sea Mozu is in trouble.” Lu Yang said with a smile.

Since the last confrontation with the sea demons at the port, the sea demons have stayed in the sea. Lu Yang saw that the sea demons could not stay on land for a long time, and could only live in the sea, which would not pose a threat to humans for the time being. I didn’t care about them anymore.

In fact, Lu Yang didn’t have the ability to kill the Sea Mozu in the sea. Therefore, the two sides have been in peace. Now seeing so many dead Sea Mozu bodies, Lu Yang is very curious about what happened in the sea.

After all, across the sea from Donghae City is Tsu City. The distance between the two is only 9 hours by boat. Now that Tsu City has returned to human hands, the Imperial City has sent a large number of magicians and warriors to the port city.

Chapter 2163: Dedicated to the loyal sea demons

“Look, another corpse is floating up.” Said with a bitter love for a long time, pointing to the distance.

This time it’s not dozens, but hundreds of corpses of the Sea Mozu, as if the Sea Mozu had been a * massacre. The blood dyed the sea red, and a large number of corpses were pushed onto the beach by the waves. .

The Zhuojiu and others around Lu Yang said, “Let’s go and see if there is any breath left.”

Everyone nodded, and as Lu Yang came to the beach to check them one by one, from the outside, the whole body of the warriors of these sea demons had been cut by sharp blades, and there were strange injuries caused by unknown monsters to their bodies.

“Boss, here’s one who is still alive.” Xia Yuwei pointed to a sea demon warrior who was wearing armor and shouted.

Lu Yang ran over quickly, turned his body over, and took a closer look. Lu Yang couldn’t help but smile. He knew this sea demon clan and was the leader of the sea demon clan who had confronted him at the East China Sea port before.

The leader of the Sea Demon Race was hurt more severely. One of his arms was left with only bones, and the flesh on it was gnawed off by nothing.

There were three huge wounds in his abdomen, which penetrated his body, looking like it was pierced by a fork.

The holy light mage in the team came over and began to use holy light to treat the leader of the sea demon clan. The wound on the abdomen was healed, and the white bones of the arm were gradually covered with flesh and blood.

“Ahem”

The commander of the Sea Demon Race opened his eyes, and the first thing he saw was Lu Yang, he couldn't help showing a surprised expression, and asked, “You, why are you here?”

Lu Yang smiled and asked, “I should ask you this, why are you here?”

The leader of the Sea Mozu looked around. He knew what had happened. His eyes became sad. He knelt down and said to Lu Yang, “Thank you for saving my life. I owe you another life. I'm sorry. I failed to comply with the agreement with you and will not go ashore.”

Lu Yang said, “This is not the main problem. I want to know what happened to you. Has any strange beast appeared in the sea?”

The leader of the sea demons shook his head and said: “It's not that there are powerful sea monsters, but we have a civil war.”

“Civil war?” Lu Yang was even more surprised, and said, “This is the first time I heard that your race invading our world will have a civil war.”

The leader of the sea demons sneered and said: “What's weird about this. We are different from other races. Before we came here, we lived in a very poor and backward place. Although we are an amphibious race, we are not allowed on the shore, and the sea is also Can't tolerate us, we have robbed a piece of living space by virtue of our own strength.

But coming here is different. We have no enemies at all in the sea here. The whole sea area belongs to us. Our people can eat their food every day, and they can live in a realm of their own. ”

Lu Yang smiled and asked, “So, you don’t want to ruin this place, right.”

The leader of the Sea Demon Clan nodded and said, “I and the warriors who have the same dream as me, have betrayed the patriarch. The patriarch is a firm believer in the * of the sea and the * of the earth, but these two gods do not love us. He has repeatedly insisted on expanding. The twisted time and space on the beach allowed more amphibians, marine races and shore races to come in.

We could not persuade him, so we prepared to assassinate him. We did not expect to be discovered by him. All the blood demons in our race were under his control. Therefore, we were chased by the blood demons led by him, with more than 3,000 fighters. , Now half dead, the other half may be caught and imprisoned by him. ”

Lu Yang looked at the leader of the sea monster clan whose eyes were dimmed, he made the decision in an instant, and asked, “What’s your name?”

“My name is Garcia.” said the leader of the sea demons.

Lu Yang nodded and asked, “Garcia, if I help you kill the patriarch, what will you give me back?”

Garcia looked at Lu Yang in surprise, and said, “You, are you willing to help me?”

Lu Yang said, “Yes, the ocean does not belong to us. I can allow your people to survive in the ocean, but I want to know, what can you give me?”

Garcia knelt in front of Lu Yang and said respectfully: “I am willing to give you loyalty. As long as you allow my people to live in the sea, I am willing to do anything for you. I am willing to swear in the name of the elemental spirit.”

Lu Yang thought for a while and said, “Okay, I accept your loyalty. We swear by elemental spirits.”

The vow of the elemental spirit is an oath used by the god-backers in the different world. They will swear by the supreme law of the elemental spirit. If he betrayed, he will be attacked by the elemental spirit and explode to death.

“Great elemental spirits, if Lu Yang can help me kill the sea demon clan chief Luo Peng and help me regain the rule of the sea demon clan, I will become Lu Yang’s most loyal warrior forever, sweeping away all enemies and protecting him. His safety.” Garcia whispered in Elvish.

The surrounding sky instantly changed color, countless elves jumped around Garcia, and finally gathered into symbols, which were engraved in Garcia’s head.

Lu Yang did not expect Garcia to be so desperate for revenge, but he could understand Garcia’s thoughts. Compared to another world, the sea demons were the lowest level of the social structure, or the gods of water and the gods of the earth were not waiting to be seen. And other races.

When they came to this world, they discovered that the ocean is theirs. They have no natural enemies or enemies. In the vast ocean, countless islands are their resting place for survival, and countless sea creatures are their rations, and, all All of the warped time and space are on the shore, and there is almost no warped time and space in the sea.

As long as Garcia and the others do not take the initiative to intervene in the war, the water god’s subordinates will not be able to descend into this world, that is to say, no matter what happens in the future, they will be the masters of the ocean world.

Lu Yang looked at Garcia, who was kneeling in front of him, and said: “Now you go to the sea to gather your old ministry, lead them along the bay in front of you into the big river, and attract the enemy to follow into the big river. Then, I will freeze the river.”

8 In the urban area, there is a rushing non-freezing river connected to the sea. The width of the river is more than 500 meters. The huge waves are turbulent and the waves are endless. Even in winter, the river surface here will not freeze.

But this kind of non-freezing does not apply external force. With the current strength of the Jagged Brotherhood, freezing this big river is completely easy.

Garcia turned his head and looked at a large river connecting to the sea in the distance, and said with some fear: "When I hear from me, I will bring my brothers back soon. I hope you don't kill us together."

Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth and said, "I swear with you, I will not hurt you and your people."

"Okay." Garcia gritted his teeth, stood up and rushed to the sea.

Chapter 2164: Battle of the River

Turbid wine, White Lion and others watched Garcia swim into the sea and couldn't see them, and smiles appeared on their faces. If the sea demons can really obey their orders, and rely on the sea demons to open up the sea route, this place in the East China Sea The hope for millions of people to survive is even greater.

Lu Yang pointed to the big river in the distance, and said, "We will lay a line of defense along the river, lovely queen, prepare the magic circle."

"Yeah." The lovely queen summoned the ice magicians in the team. Because it was the cold winter season, the ice magicians were the main fighting force in the whole team. Therefore, 202 ice magicians were disrupted into each team. .

Before the lovely queen gathered, Lu Yang took some people to measure the river water and found that the water depth of the big river was about 10 meters. Walking about 10 kilometers from the entrance to the sea along the countercurrent direction of the river, there was a three fork, which was three tributaries of the big river. .

Zhuojiu, Zhou Tianming, and Kuai Bansheng came up from the bottom of the water and found out the depth of these three tributaries.

“The first tributary is about 6 meters deep.”

“The second one is also about 6 meters.”

“The third one is about 5 meters.”

Lu Yang nodded, projected the topographic map in front of him, and said: “The entrance to the sea is the lowest position. There are dams on both sides. If we can lure the sea demons in by Garcia, we will close the three upstream The local tributaries, and then close the downstream entrance to the sea, these sea demons will never feel the water level drop. By then, we will quickly freeze the river water and wipe out this enemy.”

Zhuojiu showed a determined expression and said: “The water level is too deep to freeze the lower half quickly. I took some of my brothers and hid under the water and was responsible for freezing the lower half of the river.”

“No, I’ll go.” Said eagerly for half a lifetime of bitter love.

“I’ll go.” Zhao Cheng stopped everyone excitedly, and said: “I have not done any credit when I came to the Jagged Brotherhood. You are not allowed to rob any of you this time. If I die, I will contribute to the human race and live. , I also have the face to stay here, you must agree.”

Lu Yang looked at Zhao Cheng and sighed. He knew what Zhao Cheng was thinking. He patted his shoulder and said, “This task is also a life of nine deaths. It’s better to say that the places near the middle are the most dangerous. Be careful.”

The sea demons are not fools. How could all of them chase into the river, and the team would come in first, and there must be someone staying at the entrance to the sea to prevent accidents. Furthermore, they would release a scroll of cryogenic freezing in the sea water, What is frozen is the surrounding sea water. When there is no enemy fighting, it can run out in time. If there is an enemy, there is a high probability that it will freeze to death in the sea with the enemy.

Zhao Cheng was very aware of his danger, and smiled at Lu Yang and said, “With this battle, I can truly join you, otherwise I will be ashamed of my brother.”

From the beginning of the establishment of the Jagged Brothers League, countless brothers rely on trust to establish, they can give their backs to their brothers, including in the world today, the Jagged Brothers can exist to this day, relying on Brothers trust each other.

Lu Yang said, "Go and choose people."

Zhao Cheng said: "You don't need to choose, all the brothers from the Martial Artist's Family who came with me Zhao Cheng will stand up, it's time for us to pay."

"Yes." 500 second-order masters simultaneously stepped forward and responded loudly.

Lu Yang turned around and looked at them. From the eyes of these people, all he saw was fanaticism, and no one's eyes flickered at all.

Lu Yang clasped his fists and said, "Brothers, try to come back alive. I don't want any of you to die here."

Zhao Cheng just clasped his fists and took people along the river to prepare to go. He was personally responsible for the most dangerous middle area.

Lu Yang looked at the white lion and said, "You take people to guard these three tributaries, and when you hear my order, immediately cut off these three tributaries."

"Yes." White Lion nodded and said.

Lu Yang looked at Zhou Tianming and said, "You are responsible for the estuary area. Upon hearing my order, immediately cut off the river in the estuary area."

"Yes." Zhou Tianming replied.

The two immediately led their brothers to find the boulders around, and there was a big mountain not far away. There was no need to use weapons made of star steel. With the white lion and Zhou

Tianming's current strength, a single blow was 1,000 kilograms. The stored energy can produce a force of 178 kilograms, wielding a hammer of more than two hundred kilograms, and with one hard blow, the mountain can be broken into pieces.

If you use a long knife made of star steel, you can easily cut a piece of mountain. Each boulder weighs thousands of kilograms. They use the fire lion to carry it and easily come to the banks of the river.

After a busy night, it was almost early the next morning when everything was ready. Zhao Cheng and the others had already obtained more than 20,000 extremely zero cryotherapy scrolls for the entire team.

More than 4,000 megaliths weighing over 1,000 kilograms were also divided into two batches and transported to the river's mouth and the Sanchakou area.

The lovely queen brought 202 cold ice mages to set up a magic circle in the middle of the river, and Lu Yang also ordered Zhuojiu to take Xia Yuwei and bitter love for half a life to ambush on both sides.

When the river freezes, the Sea Mozu must go ashore. Anything that can escape ashore is the target they kill.

Lu Yang himself stayed at the beach. He saved Garcia's position before. Now he only needs to wait for Garcia to return and report on the situation.

For a whole day and one night, Garcia did not return. When the sun rose again from the sea and the entire sea was flooded with golden sunlight, Garcia got out of the sea by himself, step by step. Ran to the shore.

It didn't take long after that, one by one, the sea demon warriors all in green, followed Garcia and jumped out of the water, and ran towards Lu Yang with him.

These Sea Demon Warriors all had injuries on their bodies, and many of them still carried unbroken chains. Obviously, these were the people that Garcia had rescued, and the number was about 200.

When he came to Lu Yang, Garcia respectfully knelt down to Lu Yang and said, "My master, I have returned with my people, but there are only so many people left."

Lu Yang nodded and said, "Where is the enemy?"

Garcia said: "At most half an hour, the enemy will chase our blood and come here."

Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth and said, "Go back to the sea and wait for them. When they catch up, lead them into the big river. At that time, they will immediately jump out of the big river when they hear my order."

"Yes." Garcia said respectfully.

He turned his head to look at the warriors of the Sea Demon Race, and said loudly, "My brothers, follow me back together. Believe me, this is our only way out."

More than 200 warriors of the Sea Demon race watched Lu Yang vigilantly, but they didn't say much, and returned to the sea with Garcia.

Chapter 2165: Ice-bound river

"Red Night"

A ray of light flashed on Lu Yang's chest, and the 13-meter-long Red Night flew out of the Demon Temple, landed beside Lu Yang, his head lying on the beach.

"Let's go to heaven." Lu Yang jumped onto Hong Ye's head.

Hong Ye and Lu Yang had the same mind. Knowing that Lu Yang didn't want to make a sound, he put away Long Wei, and there was no iconic roar. He kicked his legs and came into the sky.

When he flew to the vicinity of the clouds, when he couldn't see it from the ground, Lu Yang took out his binoculars and looked at the ground.

Garcia and more than 200 Marine Demon Warriors are slowly swimming towards the mouth of the sea. Their green bodies are easy to identify. In the telescope, their heads are floating on the sea, like green balls.

While swimming, Garcia said to his men around him: "My brothers, the big river in front is our way of life. Whether you want to believe it or not, this is the only way we can live."

A strong sea demon warrior next to him frowned and said, "Brothers, believe Garcia, let's get through this difficult time together."

More than 200 warriors of the Sea Demon Race did not wait to speak. Suddenly, they looked behind him at the same time, and Garcia said in horror: "Come on, everyone, run and enter the river."

Although the sea is calm, they are the sea demon, and they have a natural perception of the sea. More than 200 sea demon fighters suddenly swam with all their strength, forming 200 split waves on the sea.

The Blazing Demon God in Lu Yang suddenly widened his eyes, and said, "An enemy is coming. Be careful. These monsters are terrifying. If you are caught in the sea, you will definitely die. Hong Ye is caught and there is no one to survive. opportunity."

Lu Yang looked at the sea with some surprise. Just 100 meters behind Garcia and the others, suddenly more than 200 huge bulges appeared on the calm sea, as if a mountain had grown out of the sea.

These drums are not stationary on the sea, but are approaching Garcia and the others at high speed, obviously faster than Garcia and the others.

Just when Lu Yang was wondering what was under the drum bag, suddenly, a roar like a burst came from the sea.

“boom”

The 200 water packets on the sea exploded at the same time, and tons of seawater were thrown into the sky, turning into countless raindrops and falling back to the sea. At this time, the monsters under these bulges also showed their lineup.

When Lu Yang saw them, his eyes were shocked, because he had never thought that the monsters in the sea were so terrifying.

It was a huge black sea monster with a drop-shaped head, but the diameter of the drop was at least 50 meters. This was only the tip of the sea monster’s iceberg. There were more than 20 sea monster tentacles emerging from the water. One is three or four meters thick.

The head of the sea monster is at the end of the water drop. There are about a dozen black jewel-like eyes around the water drop. It has a huge mouth, and there are pointed teeth all over it. It can’t be counted, especially the four huge pairs. His fangs make people shudder.

On the backs of 200 sea monsters, there were at least 5,000 sea monsters like Garcia and the others. The strongest sea monster is also the back of the sea monster that swims in front. Above, there stood a sea demon warrior stronger than Garcia. He was obviously the chief of the sea demon clan. He held a huge trident in his right hand and looked at Garcia, who was fleeing in the distance. Hate.

“Garcia, do you think you can escape my chase? The traitor of the tribe, the despicable villain who betrayed the oath of the gods, the shame of the sea demons, today no matter where you escape, I will kill you completely You.” The patriarch of the Sea Demon clan roared in their native language.

“Surgery”

Garcia and more than 200 other warriors of the sea monster clan chanted their spells at the same time, and the speed of movement in the sea water instantly increased more than doubled, faster than the sea monster, and the distance between the two sides gradually increased again.

Garcia roared at the patriarch of the sea demons behind him: "Fool, the sea gods ignore you, and the earth gods despise you. Since ancient times, the earth gods have been blocking the water gods. The hatred of the two cannot be resolved, but we can't. It's ridiculous that you can live on land and you can live in the sea, neither of which treats us as your own people, but you still have to serve two gods."

"Bastard~!" The sea monster clan snarled frantically. While using the trident to knock the sea monster, he shouted at Garcia: "God is supreme, we only have to obey. You dare to say such a rebellious thing, I want I brought you to the presence of God and sacrificed you."

Garcia sneered and stopped talking, looking at the entrance to the sea ahead, he rushed in with his people at full speed.

The patriarch of the Sea Demon clan has been extremely angry. The two protocols are not waiting to see him. It is the biggest pain in his heart. Today, Garcia turned it out. He is about to lose his mind, bringing countless clansmen and sea monsters. He rushed past the mouth of the sea.

The elder of the sea demon clan next to him looked at the river that was only 500 meters wide and quickly said to the patriarch: "There is a big river ahead, which is not good for us."

The patriarch of the Sea Demon clan looked to the left and right. Instinctively he felt that something was missing, but he couldn't tell. Now that Garcia was running faster, he snarled, "Keep chasing, today I must Kill Garcia, he can't escape."

The elder stopped talking, and he also felt that he might be thinking too much. Except for some huge rocks around him, he didn't see any other races appearing. What's more, Garcia ran away last night and rescued people later, so there is no time to find one. Race helps him, even if it is found, no race will help a traitor.

With this thought in mind, he sent a signal to the surrounding Sea Demon Warriors, the horn made of strange sea beasts made a deep sound, and the Sea Demon Warriors standing behind the sea monsters also responded with their horns.

More than 200 sea monsters, rearranged in formation, 4 in a row, lined up in 50 rows, and rushed into the big river. The depth of the river is not enough. The sea monsters lie on the river as a boat, and countless tentacles slide at full speed. .

Lu Yang watched from the air as a group of sea monsters enter the big river. When the last four sea monsters also swam into the 100-meter range of Haikou, he used the intercom to issue an order, saying, "Truncate the river into the sea."

"Yes." Zhou Tianming stood up excitedly and said in a low voice to the hands hiding behind the huge stones: "Move."

Hundreds of warriors took advantage of the sea demon clan to walk away, and quickly and cautiously placed the huge stones at the entrance to the sea.

Their movements are very light, and their voices are so small that the Sea Mozu warriors walking through the waves in the distance can't hear them at all.

Pieces of boulders were thrown into the estuary of the sea. In less than 10 minutes, the estuary was completely blocked, and the huge boulders were seven or eight meters above the sea.

The water level of the river rose rapidly, and within a few minutes, it rose from 10 meters to 13 meters, which made the Sea Monster feel abnormal.

"Roar~!"

The sea monster uttered a sharp roar, and the chief of the sea monster clan frowned. He could not understand the words of the sea monster, but knew that the sea monster was warning him.

"Be careful around, there may be enemies." The patriarch of the Sea Demon clan roared.

Thousands of sea demon warriors some jumped into the sea, and some looked around, but did not see an enemy. Instead, because of their slowing down, more than 200 sea demon traitors including Garcia could swim farther. .

“Damn it, what the * is going on with the sea monster?” The chief of the sea monster was furious.

The elder next to him looked at Garcia and others in the distance. Suddenly he noticed that the height of the dams on both sides was different from before. His eyes widened sharply and said, “The water level of the river has risen. This is not right.”

The patriarch of the Sea Demon Clan frowned. He was completely unfamiliar with this world, and could not understand the meaning of the sudden rise in the water level. In their world, as long as the water * uses spells, everything around will become water elements, including land, Thunder and lightning are even flames, that is the power of the domain.

The water level in this world suddenly rose. The only explanation was that the river in front of it suddenly accelerated. But at this moment, the water level did not rise and remained at a depth of about 15 meters.

What the Haimo clan patriarch didn't know was that in the upper reaches, the white lion had already cut off the three tributaries quickly according to Lu Yang's orders. Now the section from the mouth of the sea to the three tributaries has completely turned into a big fish pond.

The flow rate of the river gradually slowed down, and the temperature approaching minus 30 degrees quickly caused the river to freeze. Just when the patriarch of the sea demon clan felt bad, 100 meters away from their side, a huge icy energy spread out.

“Ultra Zero Cryotherapy”

The lovely queen screamed. The huge magic circle composed of 202 ice mages released a dazzling ice blue light. When all the energy poured into the lovely queen's body and the ice elves danced around the lovely queen happily, she moved her right hand. The stick points to the big river 100 meters away.

The whole world seemed to have become eternal at this moment. The temperature plummeted to about minus 70 degrees, and the river surface was frozen quickly. At this moment, Zhao Cheng roared, “Brothers follow me. Go down the river, rush.”

“Come on~!”

More than 500 human warriors on the north and south sides of the river suddenly stood up from behind the dam and jumped into the river with 20 magic scrolls in their hands. After entering the water, they crushed the scrolls in their hands and threw them out.

The small icy freezing technique scroll exploded under the water, and the river water turned into ice cubes at a speed visible to the naked eye. Many of Zhao Cheng and his brothers had no time to escape and were frozen in the river water.

There are still many people who did not jump ashore even if they escaped, but swam desperately towards the middle of the river. They were already determined to die and wanted to freeze all the monsters.

“Boom”

“Boom”

“Boom”

Countless scrolls exploded one after another, and the river water over 2 kilometers long froze in the blink of an eye, and the surface of the river was already frozen.

Chapter 2166: Refining Sea Monster

At the moment when Zhao Cheng launched the attack, Garcia led the tribe to swim towards the shore, but even so, more than two-thirds of the tribe could not swim to the shore and were frozen in the river.

The 200 sea monsters in the center of the river were completely covered by the ice cave on the sea surface. The biting cold made the sea monsters use all their energy to resist.

They wanted to sink to the bottom of the river, but found that the bottom of the river had also become ice blocks. Their tentacles under the river water had been completely frozen, and they were about to lose consciousness.

“Roar~!”

The 200 sea monsters roared in anger, and the enormous power in their bodies gave them the ability to break free from the shackles of the ice.

The patriarch of the sea demon tribe and 5000 warriors of the sea demon also jumped off the body of the sea demon, and easily cut the ice with the trident in their hands.

“Damn Garcia, you unexpectedly surrendered to humans, you are unforgivable~!” The patriarch of the sea demons roared frantically, and he already felt bad.

They are amphibious creatures, and the lowest temperature they can withstand is zero degrees. This time they are forcibly chasing Garcia. The biting cold has made him feel uncomfortable. He can only rely on his own magic to force support. Now the question has dropped to minus 70 degrees. , The magic in the body is quickly lost, and they will soon be unable to hold it.

It was not only them, but also the soldiers of Lu Yang and the Jagged Brotherhood. The temperature of minus 70 degrees, even Lu Yang, the Fire Mage, felt the cold around him, not to mention the others.

But no one cares about these now. All the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood know that the best time for their attack has arrived.

Lu Yang shouted loudly: “The archer releases his arrows.”

Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei both issued orders at the same time, and the 4000 Jagged Brothers archers on the north and south sides of the bank simultaneously pulled their bows and arrows.

At this time, the bows and arrows in their hands are no longer snake-bone bows. They are replaced with bowstrings made of the tendons of high-level monsters such as the third-order snake king, the third-order lion king, and the third-order eagle king. The bones of Tier Beasts are polished and made.

The entire longbow is full of power. Just pulling it into a full moon state requires 1,000 kilograms of power. A second-order archer can shoot up to 20 bows and arrows, and it will lose its strength.

However, the speed of such a bow and arrow is extremely fast. The moment the bow string rang when the hand was let go, a sea demon warrior fell to the ground with an arrow 300 meters away, and the arrow would penetrate the sea demon warrior's chest and shoot again. Only when you wear a sea demon warrior will you stop.

The patriarch of the Sea Demon Clan was desperately slicing the ice, trying to save the Sea Monster, but the rain of arrows overwhelmed the earth, and he quickly hid behind the Sea Monster's tentacles, shouting loudly: "Hurry up and hide."

Of the 5,000 Sea Demon Warriors, only more than 3,000 people can act after the first wave of arrows. That is to say, the archers of the Jagged Brotherhood are not so good in their archery skills. Otherwise, this wave of arrows can be eliminated. More than half of the enemies.

The survivors quickly hid under the tentacles of their respective sea monsters, so that the sea monsters could no longer act, and the low temperature continued to erode the sea monsters' body.

"puff"

"puff"

"puff"

...

Each sea monster was shot into a hedgehog, and the tentacles were filled with bow arrows, and green blood flowed out of the wound, which accelerated their freezing.

“The Archer regiment, release the steel hedgehog to increase the attack intensity, and the white lion and Zhou Tianming speed up to reach the designated location.” Lu Yang used the intercom to issue an order.

Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei, who were in charge of the command, quickly issued orders, and 1,000 of the 4,000 shooters had caught the Tier 3 steel hedgehog.

They called out the trembling steel hedgehog who was also freezing around, and aimed at these sea monsters to start a frantic sweep mode.

A steel hedgehog has more than 400 steel spikes all over its body, and it rushes to a distance of 50 meters, spraying all the spikes on its back in one shot.

Tier 3 steel spikes hit the sea monster’s skin, directly piercing the skin, and the violent power even made the steel spikes even the roots into the sea monster’s body.

If there is only one steel hedgehog, the sea monsters can still resist, but now there are 1000 steel hedgehogs. On average, one sea monster is attacked by 5 steel hedgehogs, and the steel hedgehogs can volley for 50 rounds.

“Roar~!”

The Sea Monster couldn’t resist such shooting, desperately twisting its tentacles to protect the whole body, and the Sea Monster Warrior under him was exposed.

“Archery~!” Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei issued orders.

4000 archers and steel hedgehogs aimed at the sea demon warriors, and the sea demon warriors were also in the stage of freezing their bodies at this time, and their speed of action was greatly reduced.

For a time, a large number of sea monsters were shot and fell to the ground. After three rounds of volleys, only less than 500 of the sea monsters were still alive, and more than 100 sea monsters were also frozen. Sealed in place.

“Go to hell.” The White Lion and Zhou Tianming led the soldiers to the battlefield. They lifted up the huge boulders around them and threw them at the sea monster. The tentacles of the sea monsters that had been frozen into ice were broken by the boulders one after another. .

Lu Yang also controlled Hong Ye to fall on the shore, leading the soldiers towards the remaining Sea Demon Warriors, and he was anxious to rescue Zhao Cheng and the others who were frozen in the bottom of the river.

“Humans, cunning humans, cowardly cowards, shameless sneakers, cowards hiding in the dark, God will not forgive you, God will not forgive you, you will be punished by God~!” The patriarch pointed to Lu Yang and roared wildly.

At this time, at least 30 bows and countless steel spikes were inserted all over his body. It stands to reason that this powerful bow would come out of the sea demon warrior, but he is a third-order. , His own magic ability is strong, and the magic shield he made blocked part of the bow arrow’s strength, so it turned into a bow arrow that pierced his body, but did not fly out.

Lu Yang’s most annoying thing is the theory of the intruder. He pointed at the sea demon clan chief at close range and cursed: “Asshole thing, we have a reason to invade. We will invade by knowing magic. If you can’t magic, what are you guys? Things, scumbags, bullying bastards, dirty and shameless thieves, today is the end of your invasion of our world. When your * comes, the end will be worse than you.”

“We have powerful strength, we should rule you.” The sea demon clan patriarch roared.

“Dead~!” A purple long knife appeared in Lu Yang’s hand, and he chopped off the head of the chief of the sea demon clan.

“Quickly kill these Sea Demon Warriors. Don’t kill them wrong. Garcia and the others can’t kill them. Everyone quickly launched a search and rescue operation to rescue the trapped brothers.” Lu Yang ordered.

“Yes.” With triumphant expressions on the faces of the warriors of the Jagged Brotherhood such as Zhuojiu and White Lion, they excitedly killed the rest of the frozen and unable to move Sea Demon warriors on the spot, and fell to the ground fainted. The ones who had died made up a sword to completely kill them.

Under the leadership of Lu Yang, the others quickly found Zhao Cheng and others trapped under the ice. At this time, these people were still alive. The last life-saving scroll in everyone’s hands allowed them to stay in the ice. Was killed.

Furthermore, they all have Tier 2 strength and are not so easy to be killed. Even if they hold their breath, they can hold them for more than half an hour.

From the beginning to the end of the battle, it took no more than half an hour. Lu Yang rescued Zhao Cheng from the ice block. Looking at Zhao Cheng who was already weak, he hugged Zhao Cheng hard and said: “ Good brothers, you are all good.”

Zhao Cheng looked around and found that his brothers were all alive. He tried to put a smile on his face and said, “It’s good if you win, and it’s good to be alive.”

Lu Yang nodded vigorously, and asked the brothers around him to rescue Zhao Cheng and send him to the room on the shore, where the Holy Light Mage prepared a magic circle to restore their physical functions.

Originally, a member of the Jagged Brotherhood who still had doubts about Zhao Cheng and them, this time also completely accepted Zhao Cheng and them. They were able to die for their brothers. This is the spirit of the Jagged Brotherhood and the foundation of their interdependence. Zhao Cheng If they do, they will naturally be fully accepted.

“Boss, what about these 200 guys?” White Lion ran over, looked at the 200 sea monsters and asked.

Lu Yang was also frowning. He didn’t want to return it to Garcia. The fighting power of this thing was too terrifying. This time they were ambushing on the ice to achieve such a result. If they were in the sea, why would they follow the sea monsters? Fighting?

The blazing demon came news, saying: "Sea monsters are creatures evolved from authentic water elements. refining them will show the essence of water, that is, pure water elements, which will be handed over to prepare for the third promotion. A wizard of rank can increase the probability of being promoted to rank 3."

Lu Yang had seen this knowledge in the official method of "Second World", but all he knew was that he didn't know what monsters could be refined into pure water elements. He didn't expect the 200 monsters in front of him to be Yes, he asked: "Isn't this thing very rare? How can it be obtained from a monster at the 2nd peak."

The Blazing Demon God smiled and asked, "Do you think the Lion King, Eagle King, and Iron Hedgehog of Tier 3 can single-handedly cross the sea beasts on land?"

Lu Yang shook his head and said, "Hong Ye can't do it, let alone them."

The blazing demon said: "This is the special feature of sea monsters. Creatures like sea monsters are special creatures that are naturally raised. They are creatures evolved from the fragments of the elemental deity. Although they have multiplied for countless generations, although they It is the smallest fragment of the elemental deity, but they have the purest water element in their bodies."

Lu Yang understood, and smiled at the Black Yan and other fire mage beside him and said, "Prepare to refine the formation. Starting tonight, we will refine these 200 sea monsters."

"Yes." Hei Yan immediately took someone to prepare to go.

Chapter 2167: Open up routes

No one had used the Refining Array before, and Heiyan had used it for the first time, and they needed a lot of research.

Garcia walked over from a distance, knelt down in front of Lu Yang, and said respectfully: "Master, thank you for saving us again."

Lu Yang smiled and walked to Garcia's side, helped him up, and asked, "How is your body?"

Garcia was a little afraid of Lu Yang, and said respectfully: "Everything is fine."

Now the entire Sea Demon Clan was left with more than one hundred and fifty of them, and the rest of the Sea Demon Clan was killed by Lu Yang following the patriarch.

Garcia saw with his own eyes how terrifying Lu Yang's strength is. Although it is not worth mentioning compared to the gods in another world, Lu Yang is the most powerful existence in this world, and his army is also the most terrifying. The warriors of, even without faith, are willing to sacrifice their lives for the sake of their race.

Lu Yang also felt Garcia's awe of him. He liked this feeling. As long as Garcia was afraid, he could control him, otherwise Garcia would go to the sea, where would he go to find him.

"Tell me about the conditions in the sea. Have you ever been to the deep sea?" Lu Yang asked.

Garcia nodded and said, "I have been there, but there are not many creatures in the sea. Most of them are shellfish. Fish, shrimp and crabs are rare. This is our best living space I have ever seen. "

Lu Yang said in his heart, aren't there few fish, shrimps and crabs? Before the great changes in the world, there were countless fishing boats ranging from hundreds of tons to small private fishing boats. Every day, they pulled nets and fished back and forth in the Bohai Bay. Not to mention big fish, shrimps and crabs are rare.

After the great changes in the world, the mutated shrimps and crabs that were farmed near the coast began to multiply. There was nothing in the deep sea, but now there is nothing.

Lu Yang turned on the intercom and cast the map in front of him. He pointed to the bay on the west side of Bohai Bay and asked, "Can you lead the way here? I want to know if there are any monsters on the seabed along the way."

This bay is the city of Tianjin. If you can arrive here smoothly, Donghai City will be besieged in the future. As long as the roads on the sea are unblocked, Lu Yang should not worry about the supply of materials in the city, because the one-way trip takes only 10 hours.

It was the first time that Garcia saw such a map. While he was amazed by human technology, he said, "I can try it."

Lu Yang said, "You and your brothers will take a break, and we will go in these few days."

There is no shortage of captains and seafarers in the underground city, and there are many ships in the port. As long as they are repaired, they can move with full fuel. The oil depot in the port has not been damaged and can still be used normally.

Garcia said respectfully: "Please rest assured, our warriors of the Sea Demon Race are willing to fight for you at any time."

Lu Yang nodded in satisfaction and asked Garcia to return to the beach with his soldiers to rest. He called Fei Yang and sent someone to repair the ship.

In the middle of the night, Hei Yan and the others researched out how to use the Refining Array. There were more than 400 Fire Masters, and every 100 people formed a large Array.

The pure fire element flew out of the fire mage's hands in its original form, and finally gathered on a sea monster.

The ice cubes quickly turned into mist under the burning of the fire element, and then the body of the sea monster, the black skin, and the fire element did not appear to be burnt, but turned into a jelly-like black and viscous state. .

Slowly, when more and more elements of fire envelop the body of the sea monster, the 50-meter-long body and countless tentacles of the sea monster turned into jelly and gradually disappeared.

This was not burning, but a strange disappearance. It lasted for three hours. Just when the magical energy in Black Flame and the Fire Mage was exhausted, a sea monster completely disappeared in front of them. In the end, only A colorless water droplet that could not be seen by naked eyes stayed in midair under the envelop of countless fire elements.

Lu Yang quickly stepped forward and filled the water droplets in a porcelain bottle. Then he came to another sea monster that was refined and collected the second drop of pure elemental water into the bottle.

After collecting 4 of them in a row, the water droplets did not grow much larger. While Hei Yan and the others were resting, Lu Yang said to the Blazing Demon God: “How many elemental waters can cultivate a Tier 3 water mage?”

The Blazing Demon thought for a while, and said, “About 100 drops.”

“Then I can have two more Tier 3 water wizards?” Lu Yang was a little speechless.

The Blazing Demon God was even more speechless, and said: “Just be content, the third level is not called the water mage, the second level is the magister level, the third level is called the water demon, and their entire bodies will turn into water. Elements, stronger ones can also be transformed into ice elements.

Even in a different world, if it is not pure blood, only a small number of millions of people can be achieved from level 1 to level 3 through cultivation alone. The total population of Donghai Dungeon is only 3 million, and it is a miracle that one can appear. , Now there are two more at once, you are already lucky. ”

Lu Yang was a little bit stunned. He didn't expect that Tier 3 was so difficult. In fact, Tier 2 was also very difficult to cultivate. It was just that Lu Yang got the red spirit fruit and used it for his men to promote so many people to Tier 2.

“Well, I’m greedy.” Lu Yang said with a shrug.

Blazing Demon God said: “Cultivation quietly during this time, I want to fuse this piece of Demon God’s heart fragments, don’t disturb me with little things.”

Lu Yang also needs to take a break during this period. He looked at Zhuojiu, Baishi and others who walked back to him again, and said, “From tomorrow, you will continue to sweep the monsters in the L8 city and attack all the way to the north. Don’t leave L8. In the urban area, when the refining process is over, I will take a boat to Tianjin and try to get through this route.”

“Leave it to us.” Zhuojiu said with Baishi and others.

The sea demons are just a small episode for them. What they are more willing to do is to return to the L8 city to kill the third-order monsters. Killing them can get more third-order magic cores, which will greatly improve their strength. Great help.

That night.

Lu Yang rested, and by the next morning, he and Hei Yan and other 400 fire mages continued to refine the sea monster.

After one refining is over, Hei Yan and the others need to rest for three hours. This refining is also a good thing for Hei Yan and the others. quickly used up the magic elements in the body many times in a row. Heiyan’s cultivation base has also improved a lot, and even their magic recovery speed has been increased.

Lu Yang didn’t improve his strength. He had been suppressing the energy in his body. Under the influence of the blood, he could break through to the third rank at any time.

It took about 10 days to refine and refine all 200 sea monsters. On the other side, Fei Yang also repaired three 10,000-ton giant ships.

On the seashore, Fei Yang looked at the more than 100 Sea Demon Warriors behind Lu Yang and was a little speechless.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "This is a journey to build a relationship of trust. The warriors of my Sea Demon Clan will not hurt me. Wait for me to come back."

Except for the three crew members, all of this journey was Garcia's sea demon warriors. The ship carried some surplus materials from Donghai City, which were also scarce materials from Tianjin City and the Imperial Capital, and he transported them together.

The 10-hour journey is not long. Lu Yang is protected by Red Night and the Three-Eyed Magic Flower. Garcia can't be against him either. He believes that this journey is safe, and it can also allow the warriors of the sea demon clan. We know that he has no intention of killing these people.

Chapter 2168: Arrogant little murloc

Genius remembers this site address in one second: [] The fastest update! No ads! Garcia also didn't expect Lu Yang to dare to let him board the ship with the Sea Demon Warrior as a escort. Although it only stayed together for an hour, it represented absolute trust for him.

"Master, we must guard your safety." Garcia bowed his head respectfully and saluted.

Many soldiers of the Sea Demon Clan also bowed their heads and saluted together. This time Lu Yang accepted them in this way, which moved them very much.

Lu Yang said, "Raise the anchor, and we will go to Tianjin."

"Yes." Garcia ran onto the freighter with the Sea Demon Warrior.

Lu Yang bid farewell to Fei Yang and others, and boarded the cargo ship. With the sound of the whistle, the cargo ship pulled anchor and set sail, slowly sailing out of the harbor and heading towards the deep sea.

It happened to be a sunny day today, with the golden sun hanging in the blue sky. Looking at the sea and the sky, Lu Yang's mood improved. He leisurely found a sun lounger and sat in the captain's room. ,
Enjoy the sun.

Although the cold sea breeze outside kept roaring, the temperature inside the captain's cabin was kept at about degrees Celsius, coupled with the sunlight, made Lu Yang very comfortable.

When Garcia finished arranging the guards and came to the captain's room to see Lu Yang, he was stunned for a moment, then bowed in gratitude, and said respectfully: "Master, our soldiers have guarded all parts of the ship, make sure the ship Foolproof."

Lu Yang lay down and looked at Garcia, motioned him to sit next to him, and said, "This journey should be safe for us. Don't make the brothers too nervous."

"Brother?" Garcia was a little surprised.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Yes, I treat everyone with me as brothers. You are no exception. There is no hatred between us. You didn't kill a member of the Iron-Blooded Brotherhood, and neither did we. Kill any of you, then why can't we be brothers?"

Garcia frowned and said: "But I swear allegiance to you, you are my master."

Lu Yang was still smiling and said, "But when do I treat you as a subordinate or a slave? This planet is called the Earth. Although there is only a few thousand years of human civilization, we have developed something called equality here. You are all equal, I will not despise you, and I am not more noble than you, I know you don't understand now, but gradually you and your brothers will understand."

Equality is a very extravagant but breathtaking thing. It will make a person's mind change in a short period of time. For example, Garcia, his firm hierarchical barriers, have begun to break down.

Lu Yang didn't interrupt Garcia's thinking. He continued to relax in the sun. After a while, he fell asleep. When he woke up again, the sky was completely dark, but the light in the captain's room was on. .

When he opened his eyes, he happened to see Garcia and the five sea demon warriors surrounding him with wide-eyed observations. When they saw Lu Yang awake, they were taken aback and took a step back. .

Lu Yang looked at them with a smile, and asked, "What are you afraid of me?"

A warrior of the Sea Demon Race scratched his head and said in bad Chinese: "Let's see if you are really asleep."

Lu Yang smiled and asked, "Am I really asleep?"

The sea demon warrior said with a smile, "You really fell asleep, you didn't lie to us."

Lu Yang laughed, and Garcia was speechless for a while, and introduced to Lu Yang: "These five people are my main generals. Fed, Ward, Castle, Kato, and Lemu, their full names are very long. Translated in Chinese, it takes more than ten seconds for a person's name to be pronounced, so you can just call them that way."

The names of creatures in other worlds are very complicated. First is the name of the god. It is necessary to determine the belief of this creature. Second is the name of the * who governs him. Third is the name of the territory, then the names of the father and mother, and then the names of the ancestors. And achievements, until the end is his name.

Because different worlds often fought wars, each of the ancestors of creatures in other worlds had won military exploits. Therefore, their names had dozens of nouns, and all of them were read. It would take several minutes for the names of these five people.

Lu Yang had learned about this through the Blazing Demon God. He smiled and nodded with these people, and said, "How is the surrounding seas? Are there any problems?"

Fide, who had communicated with Lu Yang just now, said: "I am in charge of inquiring about the news ahead. We discovered that there are murlocs here.

“The murloc?” Lu Yang frowned and asked, “What does it look like?”

Fide turned and ran out of the gate, and then grabbed a dark half-man, half-fish monster who was only about 1.3 meters tall and walked in.

The head of this monster is somewhat similar to a piranha, but it is obviously a human face, but its mouthful of fangs and blood-red eyes make people shudder.

The murloc does not have fins, but has two arms, but the arms are very wide, there are mucosal adhesions between the fingers, there are legs underneath, just like humans, the toes also have mucosal adhesions, and there is a tail behind.

“The * Sea Mozu, actually took refuge in humans. I, Master Haibis, despise you.” The little murloc was trapped like a zongzi, but he struggled and yelled uncontrollably.

“Shut up, you idiot.” Faed slapped the little murloc’s head, and the angry little murloc opened his mouth to bite Faed, but did not bite.

Lu Yang looked at the little murloc with a smile, and asked, “You are so young, and you call yourself Lord Hibis, what position are you?”

“I am the vanguard of the murlocs. I have a great murloc warrior under me. There are also famous murlocs in my tribe. If you don’t let me go, they will find you soon and kill you.” Haibis jumped. The foot growled.

Lu Yang smiled speechlessly. and he wanted to follow the murloc’s words, but he didn’t expect this guy to ask him. He hired all of them. He asked, “Where are you, how could you know us? This boat.”

“Of course we don’t know where you are, but we murlocs live on an island not far away. They find me not far away, and they will follow my smell to find me. You are dead, you are dead.” Haybis He yelled desperately like a drake.

Lu Yang, Garcia, Fide and others looked at each other, raised their eyebrows and said, "The warriors on my side are all Tier 2. What's so terrible about your group of weak little murlocs? Not enough for us to kill."

"What about Tier 2, we also have a second-tier warrior. The rest are the pinnacles of Tier 1, and we also caught a member of the Ten Thousand Worlds Consortium. As long as he provides us with weapons, you will all have to die. Damn~!" Haybis roared fiercely.

Lu Yang's eyes widened fiercely and gave Garcia a look. Garcia punched the little murloc on the forehead, and suddenly, the little murloc passed out.

"We must go to the island of the little murlocs. On the one hand, we are looking for opportunities to eliminate these little murlocs. The other most important thing is to rescue the members of the Ten Thousand Realms Consortium. He is of great use to us." Lu Yang said.

Chapter 2169: Night Raid Murloc Camp

Genius remembers this site address in one second: [] The fastest update! No ads! The members of the Ten Thousand Worlds Consortium are a mobile treasure house. If you can establish friendship with them, it will be of great use to Lu Yang and humanity.

Garcia also wants to kill these little murlocs. Compared with the sea demons, the murlocs multiply very fast. Although the ocean is large, he does not want another race to threaten him at all times. It is better to kill him now. simple.

"Their hidden islands have been discovered, and we will act tonight." Garcia said respectfully.

Faid beat his chest and said in a loud voice: "I will tear this * group of murlocs to pieces."

Garcia frowned and said, "Don't be careless. If the Murloc has a wizard, you should never shake it head-on. It is a Tier 3 existence."

Lu Yang was a little surprised, and asked, "Can a weak race like murloc reach Tier 3?"

Garcia nodded and said: "The great wizards of the murloc tribe are all Tier 3, and there is only one such great wizard in a murloc tribe. They are good at using water spells, especially good at making tsunamis and water flare. Everyone must be careful."

Lu Yang has seen the skill of Water Light Bullet in the information of "Second World". This is a third-order water-based single attack spell. The attack speed is extremely fast. Once hit, even the hard dragon scales of the red night can be used. Will be crushed.

"I will go with you. If there is a great wizard, let me solve it." Lu Yang said.

Garcia looked at Lu Yang in surprise, and said, "Please pay attention to your safety."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Lead the way ahead."

Garcia nodded, lowered a lifeboat from the boat, and Fed and Garcia pulled the rope to launch the water surge in front.

A total of multiple sea demon warriors marched swiftly on the sea. With the moonlight, they found a murloc habitat on an island in less than a minute.

"The murlocs will find a place. This island belongs to the inner island. The sea wind is blocked by the surrounding islands. There is no wind and waves here, but it is a good living area." Lu Yang whispered.

Garcia pointed to some wooden houses near the sea under the moonlight and said: "Murlocs don't sleep in the sea. They are also used to resting on land. I think they should all be in houses now."

Lu Yang nodded and said, "We touched it from the sea. Remember, if you encounter a Tier 3 murloc wizard, leave it to me to deal with it. Don't hold on. I only have you multiple warriors of the sea demon clan. It cannot be wasted here."

"Yeah." Garcia was moved in his heart. On both sides of the green face, things like fish fins were shaking a little. He nodded, and took Feid and other warriors of the sea demon into the sea again.

Lu Yang hid behind the reef and approached them from the beach.

I have to say that the murlocs are really careless. Maybe they think that they have no enemies in this sea area. Therefore, at night, they have only two warriors who watch the night, and they fell asleep leaning against the guard tower.

Garcia and Feld touched the guard tower and killed the murloc warriors who watched the night. Then, a large number of sea demon warriors sneaked into the murloc house one by one, and the murlocs were assassinated in their sleep.

After killing two-thirds in a row, a powerful murloc warrior was not killed by a single blow. Before he died, he let out a cry that shook the island.

"Enemy attack, enemy attack~!" The entire murloc camp was lively, and countless murlocs lit torches and rushed out of the barracks holding short knives.

It's a pity that the little murlocs are only Tier 1, not at the pinnacle level, but all the soldiers of the Sea Demon Clan are Tier II.

The gap between Tier 1 and Tier 2 is like a chasm. The warriors of the Murloc tribe do not constitute any lethality to the warriors of the Sea Demon tribe.

Just as the Sea Mozu warrior started the massacre, suddenly, a water ball shining with nine colors of light instantly crossed a distance of 100 meters and hit a Sea Mozu warrior.

A big hole was punched in the chest of the sea demon warrior on the spot, and he fell to the ground and died!

Garcia, Feid and others opened their eyes instantly, looking in the direction where the light ball was coming. A murloc with a naked upper body and a short-handled staff in his hand was showing his fangs and looking at Garcia and others. .

“The * Sea Demon, attacked my murloc tribe, and I want you all to die here.” A nine-color water ball appeared in the hands of the murloc wizard again.

“Be careful, don’t let the water polo hit.” Garcia hurriedly shouted.

“Swish”

The wizard of the murloc tribe threw a water ball towards Fide, and the light of nine colors came to Fide in the blink of an eye. At this time, Fide had just killed a murloc warrior before he could turn around.

Just when Feder thought he was bound to die, suddenly, a crimson light appeared under Feder’s feet, and he instantly pulled him to the ground. The nine-color water flare flew past his back, A huge scar was left on his back.

Garcia hurriedly ran to Fide’s side and found that the scar was not deep, just a skin injury. This made Garcia a little relieved. He looked at Lu Yang gratefully, because he knew that among them, there was only Lu Yang. Can release fire spells.

“Roar~!”

Suddenly there was a dragon roar in the sky, Hong Ye didn’t know when Lu Yang was released, and was rushing towards the Murloc Wizard in stride. With a loud noise, the Murloc Wizard instantly discovered its existence.

“Dragon? Do you think your scales can withstand my water flare?” The Murloc wizard showed a grinning smile at the corner of his mouth, and shot a nine-color water polo toward the red night.

In the blink of an eye, the nine-color water ball came to Hong Ye, but before hitting the scales of the red night, dozens of sturdy vines formed a tree wall to block the nine-color water ball. At the same time, Hong Ye breathed out a dragon's breath. .

The terrifying dragon breath instantly swallowed the hut behind the murloc wizard, and the murloc wizard had jumped to the side meter away and looked at Hong Ye in shock. At this time, he finally saw that there was another person on Hong Ye's head.

"The three-eyed magic flower and the giant dragon turned out to be allies? All because of this human?" The murloc wizard felt bad. The two third-order creatures gave him tremendous pressure, and he also Only then did he understand why Hong Ye didn't release spells from a long distance just now, but waited for a short distance before breathing out the dragon's breath. That was to confuse him and make him careless.

But now Lu Yang has done it. The distance between Red Night and the Murloc Wizard is less than a meter. At this distance, the dragon's breath can be reached in an instant.

"Dragon's breath attack, don't give him any chance to breathe." Lu Yang issued an order.

The breath of the dragon in the red night spouted one by one, and the murloc wizard didn't even have the opportunity to release the second nine-color water ball, so he could only jump and evade in an embarrassing manner.

The three-eyed magic flower also jumped out of Lu Yang's chest at this time, and after reaching the ground, it concealed in the soil.

Standing on top of Hong Ye's head, Lu Yang continuously released the fire explosion and meteorite arts to attack the murloc wizard. Several times, the murloc wizard was almost hit and became even more embarrassed.

When Garcia saw this scene, he knew the opportunity was coming, and raised the trident and shouted loudly: "Brothers charge, kill all the little murlocs."

The remaining soldiers who happened to be the Sea Demon Race roared towards the Murloc Race, and the red blood soon stained the beach.

Chapter 2170: Human treasure

Genius remembers this site address in one second: []The fastest update! No ads! The murloc wizard saw this scene with crazily blood red eyes, but at this moment, he faced Lu Yang and Hong Ye's simultaneous attack and had no choice but to dodge desperately.

The dragon's breath of Hongye followed closely behind the murloc wizard like a bone gangrene, a little slower, the dragon's breath would not spray in the front.

If the distance is stretched, the murloc wizard can release water spells and use the sea around him to beat the red night extremely embarrassed, but it is because of the carelessness of the murloc wizard that he is now in such a disadvantageous situation.

The key is that the murloc wizard did not notice that under the beach, the three-eyed magic flower was rapidly taking root and sprouting, presupposing a huge vine trap for the murloc wizard.

The purpose of Hong Ye's dragon breath and the fire explosion technique in Lu Yang's hands were both to drive the murloc wizard into the trap. Unfortunately, the murloc wizard didn't know it, so he jumped into the sea next time, with a full face. When the grinning was ready to fight back.

"Boom"

Dozens of vines turned into a cage and tied him into a zongzi. The huge magical energy in the murloc wizard's body was instantly absorbed by the three-eyed magic flower, and the vines isolated the murloc wizard and the magic perception ability of the world.

"Ah~!" The screaming cry came from the murloc wizard's mouth. His body quickly became shriveled. It was the three-eyed magic flower that activated the devouring power and swallowed his flesh and blood essence.

Afterwards, the vine disappeared in place, and finally a small ball the size of a baseball popped out in the sea. A small red flower on top of his head jumped into Lu Yang's arms and disappeared.

Garcia, Hefei De and others watched this scene in astonishment. They are low-level creatures in another world. They have not seen the three-eyed magic beast that specializes in fighting. They just feel that Lu Yang's strength is terrifying. Dongxi even swallowed the Murloc wizard who could kill the Sea Demon Warrior with a single blow.

"Master, all members of the Murloc clan have been killed, and we have lost one person." Garcia walked to Lu Yang and said respectfully.

Lu Yang looked around and said, "Search the island to see if there are any fish that have slipped through the net, and then find a businessman from Ten Thousand Realms to see where it is."

"I'm here, I'm here." A shrill shout came from the collapsed house where the murloc wizard was.

Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth and hurried over. Under a pile of wood, he found a blue humanoid creature with a height of only about 1.5 meters. His whole body was hairless, with a child's face and two ears erect. It looks cute.

"Are you a businessman from Ten Thousand Realms?" Fide looked incredulous, and it was the first time he saw the ontology of the businessman from Ten Thousand Realms.

The businessman from Ten Thousand Realms suddenly became anxious, jumping to point at Fide and cursing: "Hey, big silly man, do you have any opinion on the appearance of this businessman?"

It is said that the merchants of the Ten Thousand Realms care about their looks the most. If anyone dares to insult their looks, they will become their mortal enemies. Garcia stunned Feder in secret, and Feder shrugged helplessly, put the trident away and turned away .

"Huh~!" The businessman of the Ten Thousand Realms grunted at Feder, who looked very cute. When he turned his head to look at Lu Yang, the businessman of the Thousand Realms bowed respectfully, tapped his right arm on his chest, and said, "Thank you. Saved me, my friend. My name is Luo Laide, a businessman from the Wanjie Merchants Association. Did my uncle send you to save me?"

After Lu Yang bowed similarly, he stretched out his hand and said to Luo Laide, "My name is Lu Yang. This is our way of greeting."

Luo Laide shook hands with Lu Yang in interest.

Lu Yang smiled and said: "We didn't receive your uncle's order to rescue you. We passed by here on the way, and knew from the mouth of the murloc that there was a captured businessman from the Ten Thousand Realms."

Luo Laide showed a depressed expression and said: "It seems that I have to pay you a lot of gratitude. The merchants of Ten Thousand Realms never owe favors. I will pay you for the Elemental Gun as a reward."

"Elemental Gun?" Lu Yang frowned and asked, "What is that?"

Luo Laide said triumphantly: "Simply put, put magic cores or energy storage materials similar to magic cores into the cylinders of our ten thousand realm * race characteristics, and the cylinders can release the same level of magic cores according to the level of the magic cores. For energy damage, the market price is generally Ten Thousand Star Boundary Coins, and, among you, this kind of thing is forbidden to be sold."

Lu Yang is not using it because there are too many magic cores. If there are such elemental guns, the promotion of the dungeon will be very high. He curiously asked: "Why is it forbidden to sell it to us?"

Rodriguez shrugged and said, "We don't know the decision above, but I can get this kind of thing. If you want to continue to ask for it, I can also provide it, but I don't know if you can make it. Price, I treat you as my friend, so I am willing to help you."

Lu Yang became interested and asked, "What do you need?"

Luo Laide shook his head and said, "I don't know anything about your world at the moment. My uncle has never left your imperial capital too far. That's why he sent me over and said he was sending me to a place. A city called Donghai, go there to find out the situation."

Lu Yang understood, and said with a smile: "We really have fate. I will be the lord of the Donghai Underground City. I have been looking forward to your arrival."

Luo Laide's eyes widened in disbelief, and said: "There is such a thing, it feels incredible."

Lu Yang laughed.

In the distance, Garcia ran back and said respectfully to Lu Yang: "The inspection on the island has been completed. There are no other murlocs. Let's leave overnight. It's not safe here."

Lu Yang said to Luo Laide: "Come on with me, and I will send you back to your uncle in the imperial capital."

Luo Laide nodded and said excitedly: "It just so happens that I also want to ask you about the situation in this world."

Lu Yang nodded and led Luo Lai De back to the boat. During the chat between the two, Luo Lai De was disgusted with the ships built by humans to a certain extent, but when he saw a painting hanging in Captain Lu Yang's room, Lloyd was stunned.

"This is art. has such exquisite works of art. He made me intoxicated." Luo Laide looked at the painting and the blue face appeared red with excitement. Halo.

Lu Yang was not surprised when he saw this painting. It was just an ordinary to no matter how ordinary it was. It was just a work painted by someone who was considered a first-rate painter among human beings. It was still an imitation painting.

Before the world has not changed, he also bought some artworks, especially paintings, and still has some appreciation ability. He asked: "What is the level of art in your world?"

"Art?" Luo Laide looked at Lu Yang excitedly, with a sullen expression on his face, and said, "Do you know? In our world, not only, many worlds, there is no art, they only have war, only Destruction, art. For them, art is the most luxurious thing in this world. Oh my god, your world has such a thing. Can you find this painter and his paintings? I can sell them to my world and earn money. Big money.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “I can tell you the truth about this. There are countless such artists here. If you want such paintings, I can give you countless ones.”

Luo Laide was stunned. He felt that he had found a treasure, a treasure that was huge.

Chapter 2171: Goodbye Fu Nian

As the cargo ship continued on its way to Tianjin, Luo Laide told Lu Yang because he was grateful to Lu Yang.

Different from the earth, the low-level and medium-level creatures of the Elemental Plane are most deficient in spiritual life, which is a world that exists solely for the sake of war.

In terms of weapons and magical accomplishments, the plane where they ruled the roost, there was a two-handed sword that could cut any item, a great forbidden curse that could destroy tens of thousands of square kilometers, and a starlight cannon that could instantly destroy a town.

“Did you know? In addition to war, low-level and middle-level creatures also have to live normally, especially the slightly higher mid-level creatures. They also need to buy a house, purchase daily necessities, and a day if they live in a stable condition. Three meals require the enjoyment of the spiritual world and material comparisons, but they have almost no such things. All the things I buy from you and the towns where the middle-level creatures are located will be very profitable.” Standing on the chair, Luo Laide widened his eyes with excitement, waving his hands constantly.

Lu Yang smiled and said, “I thought that the creatures of that world have a very rich spiritual life. After all, they have lived for tens of thousands of years.”

Luo Laide shook his head violently, stretched out his fingers and shook, and said: “Wrong, very wrong, the spiritually rich are the gods of the elemental plane, even the lower gods, they all have anything they want, and they Anything can be created, because that is the power of God.”

Lu Yang only understood it now. No wonder the Blazing Demon God did not remind him about this. It turns out that the Blazing Demon God has everything, and it is not just a divine king who is suffering in the world. He does not understand these things.

Of course, what’s more important is that even if the Blazing Demon said it, it’s useless, because if you don’t meet a merchant on the mechanical plane, no matter how good things are, you can’t trade.

Lu Yang looked at Luo Laide seriously and said, "My friend, I need your help. We trade fairly. I will give you anything you need. As long as you can give us weapons, I need weapons to protect us too much. Of the world."

"Of course." Luo Laide said triumphantly: "The purpose of my coming is to trade. I have already compensated you with the elemental gun. Therefore, we will trade fairly in the future. I will not sell you things cheaply, so don't even think about it. Get any cheapness from me."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "These are not important. Can you tell me what kind of businessman you belong to in your world?"

He wanted to find out about Luo Laide's intelligence, but when he heard this, Luo Laide's expression went down, and he said: "Little businessman, the real big businessman who will run outside to fight his life, there are a lot of them on our planet. It's a pity that only real big businessmen can do business. Small businessmen like me can only go outside for a while. Of course, my uncle is an exception. He is the official representative of the mechanical plane. ."

Lu Yang understands that Bingke is the official representative, and Luo Laide is borrowing Bingke's name to look for opportunities and want to make a name for himself and make some money.

The Blazing Demon came out and said, "Your idea is very right. I suggest you buy Rodriguez and let him secretly sell you the weapons of the Elemental Plane."

Lu Yang asked secretly: "Is it easy?"

The Blazing Demon God was a little angry, but pressed his anger and said: "My subjects and I were defeated. It was a massacre of hundreds of millions of people. Among them, there were more than tens of millions of soldiers. They all possessed weapons. Now these weapons should lie in the subordinate races of the New God. There is mold in the warehouse. Try to get Rodriguez to buy it. If he can do it, you will get countless weapons."

Lu Yang suddenly woke up. He watched Luo Laide's eyes light up, resisting the excitement, and asked: "Loride, can you buy a lot of weapons on the Elemental Plane, the best is Weapons like elemental guns."

Luo Laide shook his head and said, "Elemental guns are already banned items. I will give you 100, which counts as my thank you gift. I also need to give it to you secretly. As for other things, I can. Think of a way, but only if you need to give me enough things for equivalent exchange."

Lu Yang said: "No problem, after we go to the Imperial Capital, you follow me back to the East China Sea, and we will immediately proceed with the transaction."

"Of course, I also need to go to my uncle and get the teleporter from him again." Luo Laide said.

All transactions on the mechanical plane are transmitted through teleporters. This teleporter can only be used by merchants on the mechanical plane, and no one else knows how to use it.

Lu Yang heard Lu Zhongyou mention this, but he hadn't seen the teleporter with his own eyes, he really wanted to see it.

"Boss, there seems to be a ship coming in ahead." Fide ran in and said.

Luo Laide suddenly burst into light from his chest. He smiled and said, "It was the person my uncle sent to rescue me."

Lu Yang was a little surprised. Before he took Luo Laide and the others out, the satellite phone in the captain's room rang. He pressed the access button, and a voice came from inside: "The ship ahead, please explain your identity..."

Lu Yang laughed when he heard this voice, because he was so familiar with it. It was the voice of Fu Nian, the younger brother of the dean of the academy. He said, "Old Fu, I am Lu Yang."

"It's you, my brother." Fu Nian was very excited.

Lu Yang also laughed, and said, "Come here, let's get together. By the way, there are many warriors of the Sea Demon on my ship. They have been loyal to me. Don't come up and kill them."

"Haha, your kid is really amazing." Fu Nian's voice was filled with the excitement of meeting old friends.

That was the feeling of comrades-in-arms. Lu Yang saved Fu Nian at the beginning. What's more important is that in this apocalypse, Lu Yang and Fu Nian each protect the last base of mankind. They are all working hard for the survival of mankind. They are a kind of people, who are equally responsible, so we sympathize with each other.

Soon, a medium-sized warship approached in the distance, with a person standing at the bow of the ship. When the two ships were 100 meters apart, this person could not wait to jump in the air, and a flying sword fell on him halfway through. At his feet, he flew to Lu Yang's cargo ship in the air.

This person is not someone else but Fu Nian. He saw Lu Yang rush to the front two steps, grabbed Lu Yang's hands, laughed and said, "We finally meet again. You want to kill me."

Lu Yang looked at the scars on Fu Nian's face and the large amount of white hair, and said with emotion, "The battle on your side does not look optimistic."

Fu Nian sighed with emotion, and said, "It's not just not optimistic, it's simply too difficult, let's go in and say."

Chapter 2172: Arrived in the imperial capital

Unlike the East China Sea region, the imperial capital region is in a new crisis. A large number of orcs have appeared in the distorted space on the northern grasslands.

This kind of gray skin, more than two meters tall, and every orc with Tier 2 primary strength, is gathering in large numbers towards the Imperial Capital.

Fortunately, these orcs are different from dark demons. They are not afraid of hot weapons. Orcs are still flesh and blood and can be killed by hot weapons. However, if you want to use hot weapons to penetrate the armor of a Tier 2 orc warrior, you need to spend a lot of money. It took a long time to penetrate their Tier 2 bodies and it took a long time. Therefore, the Imperial Capital had been bombarding the orcs with heavy artillery and other thermal weapons.

Fu Nian opened the map and pointed to Tongyun Mountain, which is 4 hours away from the north side of the imperial capital, and said: "Now we are confronting the orcs here. More and more mages and various cultivators in the academy rushed to the battlefield in advance, temporarily containing it. The offensive of the orcs.”

Lu Yang nodded. He knew the situation in the imperial capital, thanks to the huge population of the imperial capital and Jin City, the total number of them exceeded 40 million.

The East China Sea area has a total population of 3 million, and it can produce more than 10,000 fighters. The Imperial Capital and Jin City are mainly young people, and the number of fighters and wizards produced is probably more than 20 times that of the Jagged Brothers.

There are a large number of cultivating secret techniques in the academy, and the number of people who have reached Tier 2 is far more than the number on the Jagged Brothers League.

More importantly, the most important domestic armed forces at the time were all near the imperial capital and Tianjin. Compared with the incomplete equipment in the East China Sea, the imperial capital's weapons are much more advanced and complete, even if there are more orcs, I'm afraid. It is difficult to truly pose a threat to the imperial capital, it just needs more time to defend.

Lu Yang asked, “How is Fu Yun's strength? Has it reached the third rank?”

Fu Nian nodded, and looked at Lu Yang carefully and said: "At the end of the year, I will break through to Tier 3, and I am about to break through to Tier 3. You are also the pinnacle of Tier 2, and you are not far from Tier 3, right."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "It's coming soon. I'm fighting too hard there. If it weren't for the cold weather, the East China Sea Underground City would have long since ceased to exist, and I would have died long ago. Fortunately, the cold winter will sustain it. We can have a good year here."

It's a dozen days since the Chinese New Year. Unlike last year's fears, today's Donghai Underground City finally has a breath of Chinese New Year, and people have become more and more careful.

Fu Nian sighed and said, "It's hard for you guys, I'm afraid it will be harder for you in the future."

Lu Yang asked, "What's the matter?"

Fu Nian said: "The imperial capital means that the East China Sea will receive the residents of Dan City and Feng City. If you have the ability to rescue the residents of these two areas, you will have a great merit."

Lu Yang looked at Fu Nian helplessly, and said weakly, "How can I have that ability? The maximum carrying capacity of the Donghai Underground City is 3 million people. I still need to build a new city to ensure their safety. Let me now The population of Feng City and Dan City will be 7 or 8 million people together. There is no place for me to receive it."

Fu Nian was also a little emotional. He also felt that it was too difficult to hand this matter to Lu Yang. He said, "I will talk about it later. By the way, I have another task. This time I'm here to find a businessman on the mechanical plane. He should I fell near this, and when I find him, we will go back."

The two of them just walked to the door of the captain's room. Lu Yang opened the door and pointed at Luo Laide, smiling and saying, "Is it him?"

Fu Nian's eyes lit up, and he said excitedly: "Your kid really is a good luck general. You saved Mr. Luo Laide?"

Lu Yang nodded, and said, "It's not easy to get old. Luo Laide was taken away by a nearby murloc. When we happened to go to the murloc, we also ran into a Tier 3 murloc wizard."

Fu Nian widened his eyes in surprise, and said, "The existence of Tier 3? Are you all right?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "I was killed by me."

Fu Nian tut and said with surprise: "If you are lucky, you have saved my life again. Do you know how strong Tier 3 is? It's not a problem that my eldest brother can kill hundreds of Tier 2 masters alone, you It really surprised me to be able to kill the opponent."

Lu Yang laughed. He did not fully confess to Fu Nian. It was not that he did not believe Fu Nian, but he was afraid that one day after Fu Nian was arrested, the enemy searched for the news in Fu Nian's head to find out his strength.

Fu Nian also knew that this matter should not be asked more, and found another topic. The two chatted along the way, watching the cargo ship arrive at the port of Tianjin late at night.

On the dock, a large number of soldiers were guarding, and Lu Zhongyou also came, along with Bing Ke, the owner of the mechanical plane store. On the way, Fu Nian contacted the port of Tianjin via satellite phone and explained the situation here.

As soon as the ship docked, Bingke jumped onto the ship eagerly, and handed a set of silver armor of the mechanical plane to Luolaid, who was replaced by the armor, and his height changed back to about two meters, the height of which was about two meters. The silver armor of science and technology made him look extraordinarily mysterious. Unfortunately, Lu Yang had already seen what Luo Laide was like, and that sense of mystery was greatly reduced.

“Mr. Lu Yang, thank you again for your life-saving grace and promise your equipment. I will send it to the port later and look forward to meeting with you next time.” Luo Laide greeted Lu Yang slightly and followed Bingke together. Using a special armor device, he flew back to the imperial capital.

Apart from expressing his gratitude to Lu Yang at the beginning, Bingke didn't say a word, and left it to his nephew Luo Laide to deal with it. Obviously, the businessman's thinking is very special. Whoever owes favors will be paid by him. Will not bear this favor for Luo Laide.

Lu Yang didn't care either. After Fu Nian got off the boat and hugged Lu Zhongyou, he went straight to Lu Zhongyou's villa.

Because of Lu Tianming's relationship, Lu Yang and Lu Zhongyou have become very good friends. When he comes to the imperial capital, Lu Zhongyou's home has become a fixed accommodation.

Fu Nian got up to the door with him, and left, and agreed to go to the college for a meeting the next day. Lu Zhongyou did not stay in Fu Nian much, and led Lu Yang back to the villa. The family had already prepared a rich dinner for Lu Yang.

During the meal, Lu Yang and Lu Zhongyou asked about the situation of the Imperial Capital. As Fu Nian said, the main enemy of the Imperial Capital is the orcs that emerged on the northern grasslands. As for the northeast, there are Feng City, Donghai and Dan City. Involving most of the enemies, there are almost no races from another world in the northeast area of the imperial capital.

“Brother Lu Yang, can I ask you something?” Lu Zhongyou looked at Lu Yang with some embarrassment.

Lu Yang smiled and asked, “What’s the matter, why were we polite before?”

Lu Zhongyou pointed to his son next to him, and said: “My son has cultivated to the top of Tier 1 for several months, and there has been no way to get to Tier 2. I want to ask you to give me a red spirit fruit. Don’t worry, this secret is only in our family. I know, absolutely no one else knows.”

The fact that Lu Yang possesses a large number of red spirit fruits is only known to the people of the Jagged Brothers League. Besides Lu Tianming and Fei Yang, Lu Yang did not hide the two of them. They were also very witty and did not report the matter to the imperial capital. Both secretly ordered two from Lu Yang.

Now the number of red spirit fruits in Luyang’s Demon Temple is not very large, most of them are used by members of the Jagged Brotherhood, and the rest are useless, and they are waiting for the next group of members to grow up, but, give more to Lu Zhongyou Two can still be taken out.

Chapter 2173: Negotiate terms

Lu Yang put his hand in his arms, but actually took out two red spirit fruits from the Demon Temple and handed them to Lu Zhongyou, saying, "It's better to have some insurance, and I will give you two."

Lu Zhongyou didn't expect Lu Yang to be so generous. For a while, he was excited and grateful. He said, "Thank you, brother, I took note of this brother. I will be responsible for sending weapons and equipment this time. Don't worry, I will give the best. I will give you everything."

Lu Yang was a little surprised. He didn't expect that the kind relationship he made in a short time would be rewarded like this immediately, and he said, "Brother, you are in charge of logistics supplies?"

Lu Zhongyou said with some pride: "Of course, I have just been appointed as the logistics supervisor of the academy, and now all military supplies are under the unified deployment of the academy, so naturally it is under my control."

Originally, Lu Zhongyou thought, if Lu Yang was unwilling to give the red spirit fruit, he would use this as a bargaining chip. He didn't expect Lu Yang to see Lu Tianming's face and directly give him two of them. How could he hide it? Now.

Lu Yang just wanted to ask what weapons were in the warehouse, and Lu Zhongyou also had to answer questions and listed all the items in the inventory.

Lu Yang copied a copy directly and passed it to Fei Yang and Xiao Liang, asking them what they need for their research. He called up and said, "The imperial capital has sufficient supplies. Don't worry about the safety here, you need as much as you want. Double, don't be polite."

Fei Yang said excitedly: "Brother, how did you get this list? This is a baby."

Lu Yang glanced at Lu Zhongyou who was talking to his son with a smile, and said to the phone: "One more news in advance, we must be ready to receive the humans in Feng City and Dan City. There are about seven or eight million people. , So you know what I mean."

"Bullshit~!" Fei Yangqi's face was deformed, and he said excitedly: "I can carry 3 million people in the East China Sea. In addition, the newly built cities on the ground will carry 5 million people. Millions of people, enough food, how can there be such a big place, how to defend."

Lu Yang didn't want these seven million people either, so he first let Fei Yang see how to use the weapons on the list to defend. If it was really possible to defend him, he would accept these people, which would increase by seven or eight hundred. Ten thousand people is equivalent to seven or eight million more viable power, which can be used as a supply for soldiers.

If Fei Yang and Xiao Liang still think they can't keep it after their research, then Lu Yang has nothing to do. In the troubled times, saving his life is the first. He can't let himself be threatened for unrealistic things.

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Try it first, and give me an answer at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning."

"Okay." Fei Yang shook his head and hung up the phone.

Lu Yang returned to his seat. After a brief dinner, he went back to the room arranged for him by Lu Zhongyou to rest. In the early morning of the next day, Fei Yang held two bloodshot eyes to Lu. Yang made a video call and said: "If all the people accept it, I made a list. If the emperor is satisfied, then we will accept it. If it can't, I absolutely don't want it."

It was the first time that Lu Yang saw Fei Yang daring to have such a big temper with people in the imperial capital. He smiled and said, "I will pass your request to them, so take a good rest."

Fei Yang hung up the phone directly. The list was decided by Lu Tianming and Zhuojiu and the others overnight. He had been working for several days and nights. When he was sleepy, he fell asleep directly.

After reading this list, Lu Yang felt pretty good. He took Lu Zhongyou's car to the Imperial Capital Academy. At the gate, Fu Nian and Fu Yun were both waiting there. They saw Lu Yang's car arrived. Take the initiative to come forward to meet.

"Brother, welcome to the Imperial Capital again." Fu Yun smiled and hugged Lu Yang's shoulders.

Lu Yang glanced at him irritably, and he could feel that Fu Yun had indeed entered the third rank, and his strength was much stronger than before, but this old boy caused himself a big problem this time. , He didn't bother to look at Fu Yun's smiling face.

"Let's talk about it, what's going on?" Lu Yang asked.

Mentioning this incident, Fu Yun was a little depressed, and said with a sigh: "It is not to prevent the * from the temple from offering sacrifices in names and to open up the distortion of time and space."

Lu Yang frowned and asked, "The people in the temple haven't been cleaned up yet?"

Fu Yun shook his head and said, "We ran away a lot. When you found out that there was a problem with the temple for the second time, we decided to negotiate with people from the temple, but they agreed, but they escaped with the teleportation formation behind the scenes. It is still Feng City outside Guan. If the remaining 6 million people there are sacrificed, I can't imagine how far the other party can expand the distortion of time and space, and what level of masters will come.

I want to send someone to chase them, but the orcs invaded and made me unable to get out of here. Every orc warrior is a second-order master. If the heavy weapons are not directly hit on them, they can't be killed at all, so, I can only entrust everything over there to you."

Lu Yang understood it. After all, it was because of the temple. He asked, "How many people escaped? How many enemies are there in Fengshi?"

Fu Yun said: "The known enemies around Fengshi are low-level creatures belonging to Fengshen, the lord of the different world. They are similar to humans, with wings and a yellowish-brown body. We call them hawks, and the number is about 5,000. , It can't be a climate, it can only be a sneak attack."

After saying this, Fu Yun smiled and said, "I'm telling you something fun. Do you know that the gods of another world send creatures for the first time, why are they all in these big cities in China?"

Lu Yang's eyes lit up, and he was also curious about this incident. Judging from the currently known information, creatures in different worlds mainly descended around big cities, and no other world creatures arrived in small cities.

The main reason for the demise of small cities is biological mutation. A large number of humans have been killed by mutated rats, wild boars, and wild wolves. If creatures are sent into small cities from the beginning, each small city will have a population of one to two million. The city is enough for a sacrifice, and the result is that high-level creatures from another world can enter directly.

“Did you get any news from the temple?” Lu Yang asked.

Fu Yun nodded, a little speechless and a little amused: “When escaping from another world, a bunch of relatives were left behind. When interrogating them, one knew more things. You can’t even imagine the reasons he said. To.”

Lu Yang smiled and asked, “Don’t sell offenses, just say it.”

Fu Yun chuckled, and said, “These idiots in the temple have miscalculated the strength of the creatures sent by the gods of the different world.”

The initial idea of the temple was to directly destroy the major cities of the country and other countries, and directly paralyze the command system of each area. Therefore, the creatures of different worlds are concentrated in the major cities of each area. ”

Lu Yang sneered and said, "These idiots, how they look down on our technological civilization."

Fu Yun led Lu Yang into the building, and said as he walked: "The gods of the different world also divided the territory from the beginning because of the ignorance of the temple. The enemies in the entire northeast region are mainly the tribes of the natural gods, and the dark demons are dark. What God threw to inquire about the news was not the main combat unit, but the dark demons took advantage. Their twisted time and space opened up in the county, and there were tens of thousands of dark demons. Normally, the only enemy you need to face is Flower Demon, Tree Demon, and Flame Demon."

Lu Yang said: "Be careful, there is also a demon race that doesn't play cards according to common sense. I found it in the 18 area."

Fu Yun took the demon information passed to him by Lu Yang, frowned and said, "I will explain to my men that this is a new race."

The group of people entered a conference room. already had a lot of people sitting in it. Obviously, they were the leaders of all parties in the imperial capital. After seated, Fu Yun became formal and briefly introduced the two parties. He put his hands on the table and asked: "Now talk about what you need."

Lu Yang handed the list to Fu Yun and said, "This is a decision made by our Donghai management together. If you can be satisfied, we will accept the humans in Feng and Dan."

Fu Yun and other senior executives in the imperial capital were a little speechless when they saw the contents of the list. It contained various heavy artillery and various communication systems, as well as a large amount of living supplies. They almost took away half of all the good things in their inventory. the above.

But they are not good at rejecting Lu Yang at this time. In fact, Lu Yang's task is to save these seven or eight million people on the one hand, and at the same time, there is another heavy burden, which is to bear the defensive pressure in the northeast of the imperial capital.

With the area of the East China Sea, creatures of other worlds would not dare to gather directly toward the imperial capital from the twisted time and space of the northeast area. Otherwise, they would be easily attacked by Lu Yang from behind.

As long as the East China Sea is there, the pressure on the northeast area of the Imperial Capital is almost zero. If the East China Sea is not there, the pressure on the Imperial Capital will increase exponentially. Therefore, they can only accept this condition in any case.

After a few high-level discussions, Fu Yun said to Lu Yang on their behalf: "We agreed. Starting this afternoon, the materials will be gradually transported by sea to the East China Sea."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Thank you, I will go to Fengshi when I go back and take them to the East China Sea."

Chapter 2175: New defense system

Lu Yang didn't care much about the animal skins of the Eastern Desolate Giant Beast, but he still had to show a painful appearance, otherwise it would be easy to wear the help, and it would be easy to attract the coveting of Bingke and Loride. His demon temple still exists. With more than a hundred copies, they are all for future use, so I can't give them both now.

Fortunately, Luo Laide was also patronizing and excited now, and he didn't want to find out if Lu Yang had any animal skins. Right now, he jumped into the silver armor and said, "Let's go."

All the equipment was packaged and delivered to the truck. Lu Yang followed Luo Laide to the outside. When he was about to get on the bus, Fu Nian personally came over and gave Lu Yang a letter of appointment. All the human beings gathered by the Donghai Underground City, , All are under the management of Donghai Dungeon, that is to say, people from Feng and Dan cities who come to Donghai Dungeon will all be under the management of Luyang.

"Why are you leaving in such a hurry?" Fu Nian was a little bit reluctant, and said, "It's okay to stay more today."

Lu Yang sighed a little, and said, "We will survive the red moon."

The red moon is a sharp sword hanging in Lu Yang's heart. The first invasion of another world allowed the Protoss of the other world to know what the human world was like. When the second invasion, they will definitely summarize. Experience, the monsters that come are not only powerful, but also more targeted at the East China Sea Underground City and the entire Northeast climate.

Furthermore, the situation around Feng City and Dan City is unknown. Although Zhuojiu and White Lion can restrain his subordinates, they do not have his backbone after all. He is worried that he will be arrogant and indulge in the area outside the I8 area and encounter something unknown. It's dangerous, so he must go back.

Fu Nian also knew that he couldn't stay in Luyang, and he couldn't stay in the imperial capital any more. The orc wars on the northern grasslands were still going on. After he was busy with the imperial capital, he would go to the north to participate in the war.

The two had a close relationship between life and death, but there was no time for more small talk. After a simple farewell, they separated and assumed the responsibilities they should bear.

When I arrived at the port.

The 10 100,000-ton freighters have already prepared the first batch of materials. As Lu Yang boarded the ship, the 10 freighters followed Luyang's ordinary 10,000-ton freighter towards the East China Sea port.

Ten hours later, there were no monsters on the route, and a total of eleven freighters arrived at the port safely.

Fei Yang waited at the port with the transportation team. Seeing the arrival of so many materials, his face glowed with excitement, especially the various heavy artillery that Fei Yang liked. Up.

"Great, with these things, the dungeon can be guarded." Fei Yang's eyes were full of light.

Lu Yang, Lu Tianming and others were a little bit amused. After two years of hardship, the dungeon finally ushered in the most comprehensive armed defense, and it is normal for Fei Yang to be so miserable.

The key is that when these things arrive in the dungeon, the morale of the people in the city will increase by a big step, which will make them realize that they are not fighting alone, and there is the support of the emperor behind them.

Lu Yang put his arms around Fei Yang and Lu Tianming's shoulders, and said, "I'd like to make a suggestion. Since all the creatures in the different world in Donghai City have been killed, and the demonized creatures are almost killed, I suggest that, on the one hand, we are underground. There is no place outside the city that distorts time and space. Build some houses for people in Feng and Dan to live in."

Fei Yang and Lu Tianming frowned at the same time. Fei Yang turned on the phone on his wrist and projected the map in front of him. It marked the location of the distorted time and space, most of which were in the urban area of the East China Sea and the surrounding counties.

"If a new city is built, it can be easily built. The key question is how to defend it." Fei Yang asked.

With the influx of energy from another world, the strength of ordinary people has also increased a lot, especially the beginner or first-order fighters, whose arm strength is about two to three hundred kilograms. They are responsible for building houses, which is more than ten times faster than before. Times.

Originally, it took about 3 years to build a 30-story building. Now it will take three months to build. The only problem is cement. However, now there is no need to use all cement. It is made of star steel. The weapon cuts granite, and if granite is used to lay the foundation, the speed will be faster.

Lu Yang had already planned his way back. He pointed to the middle of the map of Donghai City, where there was a place similar to a chicken's neck, and said, "This is the entrance of the highway from the East China Sea to the outside world, with mountains on both sides. If we build a defensive position here, block the only way for the enemy to enter, and use a small number of soldiers to defend the interior, we may have the power to fight."

This is the best defense method Lu Yang can think of. Among the materials shipped from the imperial capital, there are mostly heavy artillery. If you can set up a fortress group in the mountains, when the enemy comes, you can attack from a commanding position.

More importantly, if this area is blocked, the large area behind will become the living area of the residents of the East China Sea.

There are plenty of arable land and mountains where you can raise silkworms and grow food. The magical energy of another world enters, and the height of the crops planted is several times higher, and the output is several times higher.

Food alone is enough to feed the residents in the area. What's more, there is a large amount of meat from demonized creatures. Tea gardens and silkworms can also be planted on the mountain. The only thing that needs to be paid attention to is the location of those distortions of time and space.

As long as you send someone to monitor there every day, once an enemy enters from the twisted time and space there, it can be quickly destroyed.

This all needs population. The more than 3 million people in Donghai Underground City are not enough. After all, the old and the weak here account for nearly half of the population, and the new population is urgently needed to join.

Fei Yang and Lu Tianming studied Lu Yang's plan. Both felt that it was feasible and said together, "Agree."

Lu Yang said, "Xiao Liang will study the defense line with you, and I will take our guests back to the dungeon."

Luo Laide had asked the soldiers of the Sea Demon Race to take his equipment off the ship and came to Lu Yang's side and said, "We want to speed up our action."

Lu Yang smiled. He knew that Luo Laide wanted to quickly take the half of the baby giant beast skin he gave to realize it, and said: "We will go back now. Fei Yang has already given the supplies we can gather. You are ready, you can transport it away at any time."

Xiao Liang sent someone forward and transported Luo Laide's equipment to the truck. Lu Yang and Luo Laide returned to the underground city with the car.

On the third floor of the dungeon, he chose the location of Luolide's transmitter. After a busy day, after stabilizing the transmitter, Luolide took the 1,000 paintings and tons of tea prepared by Lu Yang for him to use the transmission. The device went back and disappeared.

Lu Yang prayed in his heart: "Come back early, you must come back before the red moon."

He looked at Xiao Liang, and said, "Keep 100 people here and watch here day and night, and the gate is locked to prevent anyone from approaching."

There must be no accident with the teleporter. To a certain extent, Luo Lai De has become the hope of the Donghai Dungeon.

Chapter 2176: Enter Fengshi

Xiao Liang said solemnly: "Boss rest assured, I will send someone to stay here, so that he won't have any problems."

Lu Yang knew that Xiao Liang was working steadily, nodded in relief, turned around and walked out of the dungeon. Before he could see Lan Yu, he summoned Red Night and flew towards the railway station in the 18th city.

Zhuo Jiu and Bai Shi and more than 12,000 Jagged Brothers soldiers were hunting and resting there. When Lu Yang flew to the place, Zhuo Jiu, Bai Shi, Xia Yuwei and other army commanders had already returned to the train station in advance.

"Boss." When Zhuo Jiu and others saw the red night falling outside the railway station hall, they hurried out to greet them.

Even though they had only been missing for two days, Lu Yang was still worried about them. Seeing that Zhuojiu, Baishi and others were all safe and sound, he heaved a sigh of relief and asked, "How is home?"

Zhuojiu said: "Everything is fine. No one was injured in the past two days. Brothers have become more and more proficient in killing demonized creatures, and their weapons have become more and more convenient. The Tier 3 monsters in the I8 area are about to be killed by us."

bitterly and excitedly said: "Boss, the number of our third-order magic cores is almost over 3,000, and the second-order more than 100,000."

Lu Yang smiled comfortedly and looked at everyone's joyful faces, and said: "Good job, if the monsters in the I8 area are almost killed, let them cultivate for a period of time, you try to lead the team into the I3 area."

The so-called I3 area, which is the former Anshi city, once a major steel town, is next to Fengshi. As long as the I3 area is opened, people in Fengshi can take the train southward and all enter the East China Sea area.

Legion commanders such as Zhuojiu and White Lion also wanted to mention this to Lu Yang. The soldiers' desire for power made them eagerly want more Tier 2 and Tier 3 magic cores, Tier 2 and Tier 3 monsters in the I8 area. They are almost killed, they need to open up other areas.

"Great boss, we take a day off today, and we will enter the I3 area tomorrow." White Lion and Zhou Tianming said together.

Lu Yang smiled and nodded, and said, "Don't push forward too quickly. We have five days to celebrate the New Year. Last year we spent the year in panic and fear. How can we spend a good year this year? Give the soldiers a vacation. Let them go back to the East China Sea for a rest."

Zhuo Jiu, Bai Shi and others just remembered that there is still New Year in this world. When I think about the time of wandering on the line of life and death for two years, I finally have a chance to take a rest. Everyone's face is relaxed. Expressions.

"It's also time to hold a grand dinner to celebrate that we have lived in this world for two more years." Zhou Tianming said.

Lu Yang laughed and said, "Let everyone clean up and get ready to go home."

“Well, go home~!” Zhuojiu said excitedly with Zhou Tianming and others.

For people in other countries, Chinese New Year is nothing, but for Chinese people, Chinese New Year is the most important holiday.

More than 10,000 soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood packed up their bags that afternoon, took all the spoils, and embarked on the train back to their hometown.

Lu Yang also flew over the train on the red night, clearing the way for the brothers. At this time, looking at the scenery on both sides of the railway, everyone was happy.

When I came here, there were still Tier 2 and Tier 3 monsters. When I returned, Tier 2 and Tier 3 monsters were killed. Only the Tier 1 and Tier 1 monsters were hiding in the grass, afraid to approach the railway. Cents.

When I returned to the East China Sea, from the railway to the seaside, I could see ten huge ships of 100,000 tons berthed in the port. A large amount of materials were being unloaded from the ships and sent to the underground city by trucks. .

In an instant, that kind of inner stability and satisfaction made the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood feel more cheerful.

Back to the city.

Luyang stood at the gate of the station. After all the brothers got off the train, he said loudly, "From now on, we will have a half-month holiday. Let's get together with our family. We will go to the I3 area in the next year."

"Oh~!"

More than 10,000 people cheered in unison.

Lu Yang smiled and waved his hand, turned around and returned to his home in the dungeon with Lan Yu who was greeted by him.

Five days later, the Spring Festival was ushered in. A snowy snow covered the entire East China Sea and the entire Liao Province, but the 3 million people in the underground city spent a pleasant night in the city.

The Imperial Capital also prepared a Spring Festival Gala, and the underground city also prepared its own party, which made the soldiers who have been on the front line of the battle relaxed.

Lu Yang also delivered a congratulatory message at the evening party in the underground city. However, Lu Yang at the party was a clone of him transformed from a different fire. His body had already flew into the sky on Red Night, heading towards Fengshi. Fly away.

It is not so easy to leave with the millions of people in Fengshi. He needs to understand the basic situation of Fengshi first, and he also needs to confirm whether there are remnants of the temple of no one in Fengshi, or other gods who surrendered to another world. Human existence.

Because of the heavy snowfall in the sky, Hongye dived directly into the clouds and flew, and still flew at night, so that Lu Yang could avoid all possible surveillance.

Four hours later.

Lu Yang, who was flying in the clouds, confirmed that he had arrived in the surrounding area of Feng City through the intercom on his wrist. At this time, he was in the southern suburbs of Feng City.

Looking down through the clouds, you can see many high-rise buildings with anti-aircraft guns, and many soldiers looking around in the bunkers.

“Neigh~!” A stern voice came from under the clouds.

Lu Yang followed the sound and watched. A humanoid creature with reddish brown wings was hovering in the air. He was about 2 meters long, had a wingspan of more than 3 meters, had feathers on his face, and his beak was also a beak. It looks like an eagle mouth, and from his perception, his strength is probably at level 2 and level 1.

“Red Night, don’t release Longwei.” Lu Yang ordered.

Hong Ye was born with the urge to compete with creatures he had never met before. Hearing what Lu Yang said, he whimpered and hid in the clouds. As a dragon, he was so embarrassed. He is really uncomfortable.

“Neigh~!”

Suddenly a large number of hawks screamed in the distance. Not long after, hundreds of hawks appeared and hovered in the air. Then, they instantly attacked the soldiers on the top floor of this area.

“Boom”

“Boom”

...

Dozens of red flares illuminate the air, exposing all the hawks. Then, the anti-aircraft guns and anti-aircraft machine guns began to fire frantically, and the artillery hidden on the ground suddenly appeared, and they launched together. Offensive, hit the Harpy by surprise.

Lu Yang took this opportunity to quickly control the red night to fly to the ground and fall, and took the red night to the Demon Temple to rest. He took out the bone staff, activated the invisibility skill, and ran towards the city.

came to the soldiers who were launching an attack on the air. None of the soldiers noticed his presence, and everyone turned their eyes to the air.

“Kill them to death, shoot them down for me.”

“Kill them.”

“Call me.”

...

The roar of various heavy firepower concealed the roar of the soldiers, and Lu Yang cautiously crossed their positions and entered the city.

Chapter 2177: Meet old people

At this time, various places in the city have entered a state of war. Thousands of hawks in the sky are looking for loopholes in Feng City.

The firepower points composed of heavy weapons everywhere are shooting desperately. The soldiers are constantly loading ammunition. The cars that can transport ammunition are no longer usable. Normally, the soldiers should carry them on foot. To Lu Yang's surprise, they carried these. The ammunition is young people. Many young people who have reached the elementary level or even the first level are fighting with high spirits and ran out of various warehouses holding ammunition boxes and rushed to various firepower points.

"Hurry up, run faster."

"Support the third district."

"We are looking forward to victory."

...

Countless young people were shouting. This kind of high fighting spirit made Lu Yang couldn't help but smile at the corner of his mouth. He originally thought that the morale of Fengshi would be very low, but he didn't expect that the people here were full of confidence.

"There were a large number of spiked monsters in the southwest, and they couldn't let them destroy the position. The soldiers charged with me, and the wizard followed." A shout came from a distance.

Lu Yang looked over, and hundreds of warriors in iron armor ran towards the road where he was, followed by the mage.

It just so happened that another group of people ran over carrying weapons, running diagonally on both sides, sandwiching Lu Yang in the middle.

Lu Yang did not hide from the left and the right. He could only choose to be hit by a beginner soldier carrying weapons. Taking this opportunity, he lifted his invisibility.

"Sorry, are you okay." The soldier said to Lu Yang.

The mage next to shouted: "Get up quickly, we don't have time to wait for you."

Lu Yang looked up at the mage in surprise, and found that the mage was talking to him. Obviously, the other party felt the magic in Lu Yang's body.

In the middle of the night, they couldn't see each other's faces clearly. Especially in this kind of battle, all parties were very nervous. Lu Yang confusedly joined the team fighting the Spiked Demon in the southwest area ahead.

"It won't be long before the boss of Lu Yang and the Iron and Blood Brotherhood will come to support us, brothers hold on." A warrior player in front shouted loudly.

"Roar~!" The whole team yelled in unison.

In the East China Sea, Lu Yang led the soldiers of the Iron-Blooded Brotherhood to destroy tens of thousands of dark monsters, flower monsters, flame monsters and other world creatures. The record has been spread throughout various war zones in China, especially Lu Yang also surrendered a fire dragon to become a mount. The soldiers under his men are all riding fire lions, and the Jagged Brotherhood has become a legend in this mutated world.

Lu Yang originally worried that the brothers in Fengshi would not want to go with him, but he didn't expect that everyone's mind was willing, which made him relieved a lot.

"Spiked Demon is in front, ready to line up." The leader in front shouted loudly.

Hundreds of warriors and mages quickly separated. Each of the first-tier warriors carried hammers in their hands. This was made after imitating the Jagged Brotherhood. The mages in the back did not have any staff in their hands, but they all stood on high ground and were preparing. Spells.

Lu Yang looked at the grass in the wilderness ahead. Under the illumination of the flashlight, three spiked monsters floating on the ground at a height of 1 meter were showing two spikes on their arms, staring at the soldiers in front of them with one-eyed eyes. , Roared, and took the initiative to attack humans.

"Go to hell." The leading soldier roared and threw a trap net made of pigskin at the spiked demon.

The Spiked Demon couldn't avoid it and got caught upright. The soldiers around quickly pulled the giant net to trap the Spiked Demon, but the spikes in the hands of the Spiked Demon were very sharp and quickly cut the giant net, but even so, it was still delayed. It took some time.

The leading warrior took this opportunity and quickly rushed to the Spiked Demon. The giant hammer in his hand hit the Spiked Demon's head with a heavy hammer.

“Om”

The sound of huge metal strikes resounded through the suburbs, the eyes of the spike devil were blown out, his whole body was softened, and the spikes on his arms were unusable.

The other two spiked demon were also put down on the ground at this time. There were nearly 200 wizards, with an average of 100 magic spells against one spiked demon. Even if the spiked demon had a hard skin and had a certain ability to resist magic, they were still Hit through the body and died on the ground.

“You win, so is the spike devil.”

“Boss Lu Yang's trick is really useful, no matter how strong the armor is, I am afraid that it will be powerful, haha.”

...

More than 400 people present laughed heartily, but before they were happy for a second, Lu Yang keenly felt that a large number of spiked demons were approaching around them, and they were being surrounded.

“Everyone, run, there are more than a hundred dark demons around, we can’t beat it.” Lu Yang shouted loudly.

The people around him were shocked when they heard Lu Yang’s words, and quickly shone a bright flashlight to the surroundings. As expected, a spiked demon was quietly approaching at a very far distance.

The leading soldier shouted in horror: “Everyone quickly evacuate, we evacuate within the protection of the army.”

More than 400 people turned around and ran. The spiked demon didn’t expect this group of people to escape and quickly launched an attack, but the speed of the spiked demon was slow and could not catch up with the humans who fled with all their strength, so they could only let this group of more than 400 people escape. The team fled back to the fortifications guarded by soldiers.

The spiked demons did not enter within 100 meters of the strong light, and turned to hide into the darkness. For a while, the team leader and the 400 masters cheered excitedly again.

But Lu Yang did not join the cheering crowd, because he found a problem. Just when the 400 people fled, several humans ran out from behind the spike devil, and quickly caught up with the 400 people with shadow spells. , And got into the team of 400 people.

This person has been stared at by Lu Yang, panting heavily at this time, walked up to the leader, and said gratefully: "You saved our life again."

The team leader was also fortunate, shook his head and said, "It's not my credit. The first person to call was not me. By the way, who are you? I have never seen you.

This person said: "I'm Wang Han in District 7, I just reached the first rank, and I was still moving things. I heard that there was a war here, so I rushed into your team."

The leader nodded. Such things are not uncommon. Many young people in Fengshi can get to the first level through the magic drills and practice drills in "Second World" by self-study, becoming a warrior or a mage.

In the face of emergencies, enter the team, is not a weird thing, the team leader said happily:
“Congratulations, if you are interested, you can join my team directly. My name is Pan Yuhang.”

Lu Yang suddenly woke up, no wonder he felt that the leader in front of him was so familiar, it turned out to be Pan Yuhang.

I remember that in the game at that time, I could not support the family full-time. Pan Yuhang had always been a large army commander of the scattered group, and he had been leading the hand and constantly fighting in the game, but then he had a wife and children, so he had to quit the game and found it in reality. Work to support the family.

Just before retiring, he taught Liu Ruohuai his skills and let him inherit his will. Liu Ruohuai did not let him down, leading the blood orc army to shine in the war on the new continent.

Later, Lu Yang thanked all the players who had joined the Jagged Brothers League and organized a party specially. Pan Yuhang also came. He had a relationship with Pan Yuhang.

“No wonder this kid keeps calling his boss.” Lu Yang laughed in his heart. In fact, Lu Yang was not surprised that there were members of the Jagged Brotherhood in Fengshi.

Back then, he brought tens of millions of players in the national uniforms against teams from all over the world. Except for the 600,000 of Donghai Game City, the other tens of millions of players were all over the country. Most of them were young people. In this troubled world, they are the main force.

Now that he has someone he knows, Lu Yang feels that things are easier to handle, but instead of stepping forward to recognize each other, he hides him. He wants to see, who is this man named Wang Han? What is the purpose?

Chapter 2178: Parasite

Lu Yang quietly took out the bone staff from the Demon God's space, his body disappeared instantly, staring at Wang Han from a distance.

"Who was the first to call out that there were enemies around?" Pan Yuhang looked around curiously.

Some people looked at Lu Yang's location, but found that Lu Yang had disappeared, and they all said, "Someone was here just now. I don't know where it went?"

Pan Yuhang frowned and asked, "Have you come back?"

"I'm back, I think he was by my side just now, he is also a newcomer." A person who had just stood beside Lu Yang shouted.

"Just come back, we return to the base to rest." Pan Yuhang said loudly.

"Oh~!" More than 400 people cheered in unison, and followed Pan Yuhang towards a building not far away with full morale.

Wang Han was also among them, and walked over with him.

Lu Yang adorned Wang Han and the others at a distance. They walked along with the team. Other teams came over on the way. Pan Yuhang and others greeted each other one after another. Although everyone didn't know each other, everyone's morale was the same. Soaring.

"When the Jagged Brothers arrive, what are these thousands of harpies?"

“That’s it, that’s it.”

Pan Yuhang and others chatted all the way, and quickly walked back under the building. From the outside, it used to be the office building of a certain company. It had four floors. The building as a whole was pretty good, at least the glass was still there.

There was no guard at the entrance of the building. After entering the glass door, Pan Yuhang led the team to the second floor. There was a lobby that was supposed to be a large office, but now it has become a simple accommodation area.

The room was very warm. Obviously, there was still heating, but the water and electricity were shut down. An elementary fire mage used flames to illuminate the surrounding area, took out the candle from the drawer and lit it, and placed it on the table.

Pan Yuhang said to Wang Han: “You can sleep with us here at night, next to where the girls live. Whenever something happens, we will act immediately.”

It is not easy to find a house with heating in Fengshi. Pan Yuhang thinks that the conditions here are very good.

Wang Han's purpose is not to stay, and he doesn't care much about the conditions. He smiled and said, "Okay, everyone will call me if there is something in the future, and I will go with everyone to fight monsters."

Everyone was amused by Wang Han's rookie tone and burst into laughter.

Wang Han didn't care, so he just lay on the ground and fell asleep. When the next morning, Wang Han was very witty and fetched and boiled water for everyone, making a newcomer full of posture.

Wang Han smiled before seeing anyone. When he had trivial tasks, such as taking out the garbage, Wang Han was on the front line.

At the same time, Wang Han began to wander around the area. Whenever he walked to a place with a crypt, he secretly took out a pen and paper, made a mark on the drawn map, and whenever he walked to a weapons warehouse or food warehouse. Where he made another mark.

Lu Yang followed Wang Han's invisibility all the time. When Wang Han was resting late at night, he looked for a dilapidated building outside and returned to the Demon God Space to rest.

In fact, at this time, Lu Yang was able to take Wang Han and ask him about his situation. He was also sure that Wang Han was a member of the temple, but he was worried about any special restrictions on Wang Han. Once he was caught, Wang Han might Sudden death or stun the snake in advance, let the temple stop all actions and continue to hide.

Last time Fu Yun told Lu Yang that thousands of high-level personnel in the imperial capital had all gone to the northeast area. Obviously, they have now lurked around Fengshi, preparing to launch an attack on Fengshi. However, all the members of the temple are With the strength of Tier 1 or Tier 2, and thousands of Harpy, it is still impossible to attack Fengshi.

It is very likely that this Wang Han is going to secretly destroy Fengshi's weapons warehouse and food storage warehouse. In this way, Fengshi will fall into a food shortage or a shortage of weapons, and it will be easier for them to attack.

But there is only Wang Han, and Lu Yang doesn't think he can do it, so he wants to see who Wang Han connects with and how many accomplices he has.

In this way, Lu Yang has been following Wang Han for a week. On the morning of the eighth day, Qianli Zhengzhe called Lu Yang through the intercom and asked, "Boss, we are going to start today and continue. Open up the I8 area to prepare for entering the I3 area."

Lu Yang stared at the opposite building and said, "Yes, my clone can last for a while. Let him stay at home. If someone asks, you tell them that I am practicing a fire spell, within a few days. Can't get out."

"Yes." Qianli Zhengzhe said.

Lu Yang hung up the phone, took out the bone staff, walked out of the building invisibly, and Wang Han on the opposite side came out to patrol as usual.

"Brother Pan~!"

"Brother Liu~!"

...

Along the way, Wang Han kept saying hello to people, and he was confused all around him. Just when Lu Yang thought he would patrol and return as usual, Lu Yang was surprised to find that Wang Han hadn't left before. The road, but walked towards other blocks.

After walking for more than half an hour, Wang Han saw the street signs in the seventh district. It was already the main city area, surrounded by tall buildings. He turned left and right into an alley and came to an abandoned factory building.

Wang Han looked around, and after confirming that no one was following him, he took out the key and opened the lock on the chain of the door and walked in.

Lu Yang quickly speeded up and walked behind Wang Han, and when he turned around to close the iron gate, he walked into the gate from his side.

“噤”

The iron door closed behind him, and Wang Han locked it again, then walked to the iron door on the side of the factory building and knocked on the door.

“dang...dangdang”

“dang...dangdang”

The iron door opened, revealing the face of an old man. He stared at Wang Han without saying a word, but looked at Wang Han behind him. Only then did he move away and let Wang Han walk in.

“Why did you come to me for so long?” the old man said a little displeased.

Wang Han closed the door easily, and said with a sneer: “Aren’t you doing a good time here? Isn’t it the same for me to come early and late.”

The old man walked to the table and looked back at Wang Han. In an instant, the old man’s skin fell off, and a gray-brown gecko-like human revealed his true color.

Lu Yang was a little surprised. He didn’t expect that creatures from another world were mixed in Fengshi. He asked, “What is this?”

The Blazing Demon God snorted coldly, and said: "The * race, the parasitic demon, in our world, you don't even have the qualifications to be cannon fodder. It is estimated that the strength is too low, and it is easy to be thrown over through the warped time and space. His own strength is very poor. The skill of digging into a person's body, swallowing everything except the skin of the opponent, and then living in the opponent's form, with strength ranging from the first-order elementary to the first-order peak, there are few existences that can reach the second-order."

Lu Yang was a little speechless. He found that the races in the different world were really complete, and there were all kinds of monsters.

Wang Han stared at the parasite demon and said: "Don't show your ugly appearance in front of me, I am not afraid of you, on the contrary, you have to fear me, my strength is above you."

The parasitic demon sneered, staring at Wang Han arrogantly and said: "Without us, you can't do anything. If you want us to cooperate, you have to show sincerity."

Wang Han shrugged and said, "After I came in, I learned about the surrounding situation and it took some time, sorry."

The parasitic demon nodded in satisfaction, and said, "That's right. Tell me about your plan."

Wang Han asked, "How many people are left of your parasitic demons here?"

The parasitic demon said angrily: "There are three more, * harpy. When we threw us from the air, most of our people fell to death. I won't spare them."

Wang Han didn't care about these details, and said: "When the envoy of the alien gods comes, you will naturally get benefits. Let me talk about my plan. I will find a way to bring Pan Yuhang here. You let your people possess. When it comes to him, this person has a high prestige. As long as you become him, you can take a large army out. At that time, our temple will ambush in the field, and then use this loophole to forcibly attack Fengshi and quickly ignite their weapons. Warehouse, we won this war."

The parasitic demon nodded and said, "As long as you can draw people over and defeat him, everything else is trivial."

The strength of the parasitic demon is too weak, it is very difficult to single out a human master who has just practiced for two years.

Chapter 2179: Goodbye Bagley

Wang Han went on to say: "Tomorrow the team will go out of the city to hunt. I will take this opportunity to return to the large army to report on the situation. When the other side is also ready, I will notify you."

Parasite said: "Yes."

The talk was over, Wang Han stopped staying, turned and walked out the gate, Lu Yang followed Wang Han and walked out.

At this time, Lu Yang had obtained Wang Han's complete plan, but he still didn't do it. He wanted to see how many members of the temple outside.

It's the next day.

Pan Yuhang led the team out to patrol, and walked out for two hours along the outskirts of the south of Feng City, and came to a forest.

Pan Yuhang said: "There are many Tier 2 monsters in this forest. Everyone will hunt separately according to the previously divided groups. I wish you more magic cores to improve your strength."

"Oh~!" More than 400 people responded loudly.

The hunting team is a group of five. One team used to be short of one person. Now, with Wang Han, it just makes up five people.

The remaining members of Wang Han's team are three men and one woman. They are exploring the northwest corner of the forest. Wang Han said: "Let's explore far away. It's easy to compete with other brothers and sisters nearby."

The team leader thought about it and looked at the other people. When they found that it was the same idea, the five people ran towards the farther northwest corner.

The forest is dominated by the first-order enchanted wild boar, and the second-order number is very small. After all, there is no distortion of time and space here, and when the magic energy is slightly thin, the biological evolution here is very slow.

Wang Han was very brave in the team. With a cold spell, he quickly led the team forward and killed a few kilometers. Just when a few people were about to take a break, suddenly, a two-meter long and half-meter long in the distance The height of the rabbit with ice-blue hair all over made everyone in Wang Han's team widened with excitement.

"The Ice Rabbit, Tier Two, this is the easiest to kill, don't let him run away." Wang Han rushed towards the Ice Rabbit excitedly.

Several other people were too excited to take a break, and rushed towards the Ice Rabbit. It is recognized that Ice Rabbit is the least fond of fighting, although their strength has increased greatly after the invasion of magical energy, but they don't like fighting by nature. , Let the ice rabbit see the habitual escape of human beings, and only fight when it is inevitable to avoid it.

Wang Han and the others chased the ice rabbit for half an hour, and they ran out of the forest until they came to a hill halfway up the mountainside. A few talents finally blocked the rabbit in a place with a rock wall on three sides.

"Little rabbit, you can't run this time." The captain drew out the hammer and said happily.

Several other people were also very happy, only Wang Han, with a sneer on his face, the next second, the eyes of the Ice Rabbit suddenly changed from red to black, and a mouthful of poisonous mist sprayed out, killing Wang Han and the others. All the individuals were wrapped, and in the next second, except for Wang Han, all the other four people fell asleep.

Ten seconds later, the black mist cleared, and a woman appeared beside Wang Han. This made Lu Yang, who had been hiding not far away, showing a surprised expression. When he saw the blond man behind the woman, it was even more shocking. The corners of the mouth rose.

These two people are not others, they are the great beauty Tao Ran, a member of the temple who had been in trouble with Wang Shijie in the Donghai Dungeon before, and the other is naturally the undercover and liar Bagley sent in by Lu Yang.

Tao Ran's expression was much happier than before, and there was no melancholy expression on his face. He winked at Wang Han, turned and walked towards another mountain road.

Bagley followed closely behind him, and Wang Han quickly chased him up. When he arrived in front of him, Wang Han excitedly asked, "How is the team's preparations?"

Tao Ran said: "All 572 people are ready to fight."

Wang Han nodded and said, "The soonest tomorrow, we will launch an offensive. You are ready here. Tonight I will take Pan Yuhang to find the parasitic demon. Tomorrow, I will let you Pan Yuhang led the team again and left in the afternoon and went back late at night. With Pan Yuhang and me as acquaintances, we will easily win."

"It's great, the envoy can finally come early." Tao Ran smiled happily.

Lu Yang watched a terrible chill. This group of people was crazy and completely out of help. Bagley also shouted excitedly: "The envoy will definitely lead us to victory."

Wang Han smiled and glanced at Bagley, and said, "You don't need to be with us anymore, you also have a rest."

"I will go ahead and watch the four people to prevent them from waking up early." Bagley looked loyal, but he had actually sensed the existence of Lu Yang.

Tao Ran said with a smile: "Actually, they don't need it. They have the ghost fog nightmare spell. No one wakes them up. They can't wake them for three days, but you can go, thank you."

“It’s all I should do.” Bagley continued to lower his posture, and after bowing to Wang Han and Tao Ran, he trot all the way towards those people.

Lu Yang ordered the Three-Eyed Magic Flower to separate out a clone, burrow into the ground with a recorder, and follow Tao Ran and Wang Han.

Lu Yang turned and walked towards Bagley. When he followed Bagley to a mountain that no one could see, Bagley respectfully knelt down in the direction he felt, and said, “Boss, I finally Wait till you.”

Lu Yang looked around. After he was sure he was safe, he showed his figure, looked at Bagley and asked, “Why haven’t you contacted me for so long?”

Bagley shook his head and said: “It’s not that I don’t want to, but that there’s no way. When the temple ran away, although they were wearing a phone and a virtual helmet, they didn’t dare to use any of them. They all stayed around the imperial capital. A special communicator, I don’t know which signal it uses, it can avoid the imperial capital’s tracking. I thought of many ways, but I couldn’t borrow it.”

Bagley continued: “Boss, I have an important report.”

“What information?” Lu Yang asked.

Bagley said: “Two, the first is the division of the temple, the members of the natural gods are completely separated from the members of the dark ones, and the dark ones go to the grassland further north, Wang Shijie led the team, accompanied by a small number of enemies you defeated, such as the Dark Demon and Flower Demon, and Xue Renyi was among them.

The natural gods and the holy light gods stayed behind, and they are going to take the harpy and the parasitic demons to attack Fengshi...”

Lu Yang listened to Bagley’s words, exactly the same as what he heard with Wang Han, and said, “I already know the news.”

Bagley shook his head and said: “More than that, there is one more thing. I went to the dark gods on the grassland to the north and contacted an orc army. They were about to rush south to Fengshi. This is why Wang Han and Tao Ran were so anxious to start. The reason for the offense.”

Lu Yang frowned and asked, “Orc Legion, how can Wang Shijie contact the Orc Legion?”

Bagley shook his head and said, "It was all contacted by the satellite phone. This orc army belongs to the dark orcs, which is very different from the natural orcs. The two sides are so anxious to attack Fengshi, one is afraid that you will come. Everyone was rescued, and the other one was that they wanted to steal power in front of alien gods.

At the same time, there is a third reason. I don't know what's going on. The enemy already knows that you are building fortifications. In addition to destroying the humans in Fengshi, this orc army has a bigger purpose to rush into the East China Sea. Prevent you from building fortifications. When the red moon night arrives, the alien gods will order new prepared races to descend directly in the twisted time and space of the East China Sea Old Town and surrounding areas. "

Lu Yang's eyes widened fiercely. Only then did he realize that he was thinking about things too simple.

Chapter 2180: Sneak attack

"How many people are there in the orc army?" Lu Yang frowned and asked.

"50,000." Bagley said anxiously: "The orcs will arrive in half a month at the earliest."

If this orc army really rushed into Feng City, Feng City's current defensive strength would absolutely not be able to resist it, even Lu Yang's Jagged Brotherhood would not be able to defeat this orc army.

The frontier battle report of the imperial capital, he has carefully read, unless the heavy artillery hits the orc warrior frontally, it will not cause serious damage, and the orc warrior holds a large shield made of star steel in their hands, and one shot can't kill them at all.

It often takes two or three cannons to kill an orc, and more are just damage. The injured orc can only be sent to the rear, and the orc shaman can quickly resume the battle with magic treatment. The border can be held in a stalemate and occupied completely. The reason is the heavy firepower. Fengshi doesn't have so much firepower, nor does it in the East China Sea.

"It seems that I need to quickly find a way to transfer people from Fengshi. I will kill Wang Han tonight and tell me, are there any things that monitor Wang Han's life and death?" Lu Yang asked.

Bagley shook his head and said, "No."

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief, and said, "When you attack tomorrow, try to hide as much as possible and don't let yourself in."

When he attacks tomorrow, he will prepare a big net for the temple legion, especially the harpy in the sky. This legion must be killed, otherwise it will always be tracked in the sky, and no secret can be hidden from them.

Knowing Lu Yang's strength, Bagley bowed and said, "Thank you, boss, I will pay attention to safety."

Lu Yang nodded, a bone staff appeared in his hand, and his stealth skill was activated. In the distance, Wang Han was walking towards this side, and the two had to end the conversation immediately.

Bagley watched Wang Han walk under the rock alone. He jumped off the rock and said respectfully: "Master Wang Han, you are back."

Wang Han nodded in satisfaction, and said: "I have already talked to them, you go back, I will take them back."

"Yes." Bagley left respectfully.

Wang Han turned his head and threw the corpse of the Tier 3 Ice Rabbit that had been prepared a long time ago on the wall, and then activated a spell to wake up several people around him.

“What happened?” The team leader just woke up and looked around quickly and vigilantly.

Wang Han hurried over to help the team leader, put the Tier 3 magic core of the Ice Rabbit in front of him, and said, “Sorry, the Ice Rabbit used a dark spell that caused you all to fall into a nightmare. I’m afraid he will run away. After killing the Ice Rabbit, I will come back to rescue you.”

The captain’s eyes were already bright when he saw the magic core, and he found that there were no few members of the team, and said excitedly: “Great, with this thing, our strength can be improved a lot.”

The girls in the team also came over excitedly and said, “Even if we don’t need it, we can exchange things with the boss in the East China Sea. I heard that the boss has a lot of treasures.”

“Yup.”

...

A few people have already forgotten about it with excitement, and while walking back, they discussed how to divide the share of this third-order gem.

Lu Yang followed them and returned to the assembly point all the way. In the evening, Pan Yuhang and everyone else returned. Everyone had a harvest. The whole team returned to the city with high morale.

Wang Han and their team became the focus of everyone, because only their team got the third-order magic core, and everyone was amazed by their luck.

When they returned to their temporary residence to rest, while everyone was resting, Wang Han found Pan Yuhang and said, "Boss, I want to tell you something."

"What's the matter?" Pan Yuhang asked.

Wang Han looked around, made sure that no one was eavesdropping, and said in a low voice, "I was on that mountain, and it seemed to have seen the nest of a Tier 3 fire fox, you know, this season, even if it's a Tier 3 fire fox, The strength is also greatly reduced, should we try it."

Pan Yuhang's eyes lit up instantly. It is now at the end of February, the coldest end of the northeast, the mountains and plains are covered with white snow, and the average temperature is over 30 degrees below zero. Especially now, when most industries are stopped, the temperature is even lower. More than 40 degrees below zero.

If there is a fire fox hiding in the cave, if it is drawn out, even a Tier 3 fire fox, in the face of this kind of weather, will reduce its strength by more than half. In addition, their fire fox is a spell-type monster and cannot hold it. With a heavy hammer attack, they have a high chance to kill the Firefox, but the same problem also exists.

"The Firefox is not slow, at least the agile master with the strength of the first-order pinnacle will have a chance to attack us. Given the status of the members of our team, I am afraid that we can't do it." Pan Yuhang frowned.

Wang Han waited for this sentence, and said excitedly: "I know two agile masters. Let's go out to get together tonight, how about discussing it?"

"Okay." Pan Yuhang was a little excited. If he could get another Tier 3 magic core, it would be of great benefit to him and the team.

“Let’s go now, I will show you to my house first, and then I will find them.” Wang Han said.

“Walk.” Pan Yuhang stood up and walked outside.

It is not that Pan Yuhang is not cautious, but that Wang Han’s identity certificate is complete. has a parasitic demon to cover him. He hides it well. Pan Yuhang, who trusts his brother for his whole life, has very low defense against such people.

Lu Yang followed them, watching Wang Han lead Pan Yuhang into the yard that he visited last night, and then into the house.

Looking at this remote and empty factory building, Pan Yuhang felt something was wrong, frowned and said, “Wang Han, how do you live here?”

Wang Han, who was walking in the front, turned his head and smiled and looked at Pan Yuhang and said, “My house used to run a factory. I live in the back of the factory. Look, my friend has already arrived.”

As soon as the voice fell, an old man walked over from the darkness holding a candle. This made Pan Yuhang frown and asked, "Didn't you inform your friends yet? Besides, this old man is agile?"

The elderly approached Pan Yuhang step by step, as if they could fall down at any time, so that the elderly had to hold a cane and smiled and replied: "The young man is joking. I'm the one here to watch the factory."

At this time, the elderly had reached a place 1 meter in front of Pan Yuhang, but they had not stopped. This made Pan Yuhang feel that something was wrong, especially when he saw the elderly walking in the last step, it seemed that the skin and the meat inside were the same. Parting, he frowned fiercely.

But at this moment, the skin of the elderly suddenly burst open, revealing the gray-brown parasite body inside. While the hideous grimace faced Pan Yuhang and the fangs were exposed, his arm turned into a spike and plunged straight into Pan Yuhang's abdomen. past.
