Chapter 2221: The origin of flame

The low-level fire demons are very weak, and they are different from those flame elves that have existed in other worlds since the beginning of the world.

The flame elves in another world have existed for tens of thousands or even hundreds of thousands of years. They cannot be absorbed into their bodies by anything, even the Blazing Demon God cannot do it, and can only use the flame elves.

The fire demon is different. They are the predecessors of the flame elves. In comparison, the fire demon is like a grass, while the flame elves are like big trees that have existed for thousands of years.

Lu Yang's current strength is like a tree that has just been three years old. It is easiest to absorb these fire monsters. The fire monsters themselves are in an unconscious state. They will only attack non-fire monsters that are close to them. Therefore, when Lu When Yang jumped off Hong Ye's head, and landed on the black volcanic rock, two fire demons that were the nearest 30 meters away found Lu Yang.

"Roar!"

On the human-like face of the fire demon, there was a mouth-like place where he let out a loud roar, and rushed towards Lu Yang.

"Fire Snake Bound"

Lu Yang pushed forward with both hands, and when the two fire demons rushed to him 10 meters away, the two fire snakes suddenly burrowed out of the ground, entangled the bodies of the two fire demons tightly.

The Blazing Demon said with satisfaction: "Smash the flame spar in their chests, and the flame demon will disappear."

Lu Yang nodded, his arms glowed with crimson at the same time.

"Lining Yang Fist"

With super explosive flames flooding Lu Yang's arms, he quickly ran in front of the two fire monsters, a punch with his left hand followed by a punch with his right hand, and the chests of the two flame monsters were pierced one after another, followed, two A crimson crystal-like spar flew out and turned into countless flame light spots in the air. At the same time, the two flame magics dissipated in place.

The Blazing Demon God said: "Let your demon core spin up, and draw these flame origins into your soul sea."

Lu Yang nodded, and the flame soul core in the soul sea spun rapidly. When the soul sea was connected with the meridians of his arms, a powerful attraction suddenly appeared in the palms of his hands.

The purest flame origin flew into Lu Yang's palm involuntarily, and then entered the soul sea through the meridians.

If it were a normal cultivator, the blood would be tumbling due to the high temperature of the flame's origin at this time, and the whole body would be as painful as roasting, but what Lu Yang had in his body was the blood that was transformed by the heart of the demon god.

The physical body has also gradually tended to the physique of the gods in the countless cycles of the blood of the gods, but this conversion is not obvious yet, but Lu Yang's body has no fear of flames, and under the tempering of the flame origin, it can easily turn into fire. The form of the devil.

At this time, Lu Yang's arms had turned black and red. This was the precursor of the flame demon change. He said to the flame demon god: "I can feel the power becoming stronger, not only the power of the flame, but also my body. It's also getting stronger."

The Blazing Demon God smiled in Lu Yang's mind and said triumphantly: "That's why I have been suppressing your promotion. With the help of the Demon God's Heart, it becomes too easy for you to improve your strength. This will make you feel good. The deviation in the understanding of power has even become arrogant, even arrogant and contempt for everything."

There is one more word that Blazing Demon God didn't say, that is, with the help of the Demon God's Heart to Lu Yang, Lu Yang will become dependent on the Demon God's Heart. Over time, he will become the same as the group of people in the temple. Don't open the heart of the devil.

The resulting psychological change is most likely to kill the Blazing Demon God and monopolize the heart of the Demon God. This is what the Blazing Demon God is most worried about, because the other **** kings who came to the earth with him before have all found spokespersons. Why now He is the only one left.

When Lu Yang and Fu Yun went to the wetland park to kill Tier 3 monsters, the Blazing Demon God peeped at Fu Yun's consciousness and discovered that the reason for the disappearance of the previous **** kings was to help humans increase their strength too quickly, so that Humans have developed evil thoughts.

Blazing Demon God is the one with the most broken body among these **** kings, and also the one with the lowest strength. Although he helped Lu Yang slowly, he also found a way to stabilize Lu Yang's character.

Lu Yang also knew something about this. People with the heart of the Demon God would naturally feel the advantages of tempering the blood of the God. Therefore, Lu Yang didn't bother with the deliberate suppression of the Blazing Demon God.

He didn't want to rely too much on the Blazing Demon God, but hoped that one day after the Blazing Demon God reorganized his body, he would still have the qualifications to become the King of Gods.

There is an old saying from the ancestors of China that if you rely on the mountains to fall down and everyone walks, the power you cultivated yourself is more reliable.

Lu Yang saw that the flame elements in the two flame monsters had been absorbed cleanly. He collected his magic power and waited for his arms to return to their original state.

The Blazing Demon God was very satisfied with Lu Yang's calmness, and said, "Continue to absorb it. The goal for these few days is 1,000. When you are all absorbed into the Soul Sea, you can do the first stage of your attempt to advance to Tier 3. ."

Lu Yang nodded, moved his muscles and bones, and let Hong Ye patrol the surrounding area. He continued to rush towards the flame demon resting in the crater not far away.

For three consecutive days, Lu Yang had been absorbing the Flame Demon, and he had only absorbed enough in the daytime on the fourth day.

At this time, his soul sea was about to be filled with the flame origin, and the soul core was also wrapped in the origin. The violent origin power continuously washed the soul core, making Lu Yang feel very irritable.

The Blazing Demon said: "Release the origin of the flame and wash your body, including your flesh and blood, meridians, brain and eyes. will make all of your body assimilated by the origin of the flame. Heart and blood **** you."

This step is the most dangerous. Other people who practice cultivation will be burned into a mass of ashes if they have a slight accident, but under the **** of the blood of God, Lu Yang slowly releases the power of the source through the magic core, no matter what the source is. Wherever the force goes to the body, which part will turn black and red, and there is no scorching phenomenon.

Arms, chest, abdomen, legs, and then back to the internal organs, eyes and other places. When this circle is over, seven days have passed.

When Lu Yang opened his eyes, the clothes on his body were already burnt, and his body turned black and red, as if the whole person had been lit.

The Blazing Demon said: "Very well done. You have completed the first stage of body tempering work. Now you jump into the magma and sink to the deepest part of the magma. You have to experience the flame with your heart and understand what is called flame and what it's called power."

Lu Yang didn't understand, but he still followed the Blazing Demon God's words, looking at the volcano that was constantly pouring magma in front of him, and jumped down.

In an instant, Lu Yang felt a violent high temperature all over his body, but his body was flaming at this time, and he would not be injured, but the high temperature made him feel uncomfortable.

Lu Yang continued to sink, until he was almost unable to withstand the temperature before he stopped, opened his eyes, and looked at the world around him.

This is a very bright, dazzling red world, Zhou Yu is full of hot lava, and the power of violent flames is constantly surging around him.

Lu Yang's first feeling was awe, and then when he let go of his body and took the initiative to merge into the magma, what he felt was a terrifying power, which was the existence that governs everything, as if it could destroy a world with a wave of his hand.

Chapter 2222: 1 month later

The consciousness of the Blazing Demon God flew out of Lu Yang's body and transformed into a huge human face. It was the original face of the Blazing Demon God. It looked very handsome and powerful. He proudly said to Lu Yang: "Now is it more comfortable in the body?"

Lu Yang nodded, and said, "The origin of fire is no longer so violent. There is something like being suppressed by the power deep in the lava."

The Blazing Demon said: "The power of the origin comes to the ground with the eruption of magma. This is where they were born. Therefore, their irritable aura will no longer be there. Quickly absorb them and let them blend into your soul. Inside the nucleus, transform your soul nucleus."

This is the most important step in the second stage. It turns the mixed magic elements in the soul core into pure flame elements. That is to say, after this tempering, Lu Yang will no longer be able to use other types of spells. Use fire spells.

This time will take at least half a month. After Lu Yang started practicing quietly, on the other side, in Dan City, Wang Shijie finally enjoyed enough. In a new morning, he put on a cloak to cover the ugly appearance.

When I first arrived in the hall, the Dark Demon Mandin and the Juli Flower Demon Kenny were all there, and Xue Renyi was also there. Wang Shijie said: "You are here just right, I have decided. From today, we will go out to explore the iron and blood. News from the Brotherhood."

Manding shook his head, looked at Xue Renyi and said, "You can tell."

Wang Shijie frowned and asked, "What happened?"

Xue Renyi nodded, and said solemnly: "Something has happened. The Jagged Brothers have not left. The hunting activities are still taking place with Dan City as the center. The beasts in the city are being attacked by them in one area or one area. kill."

Wang Shijie looked at Xue Renyi fiercely and asked, "Is it coming to our side?"

Xue Renyi said: "At this speed, come to us in three days at the earliest."

Manding grinned and said, "Are we going to transfer?"

"I'll go out and have a look tonight." Wang Shijie said angrily.

Manding, Xue Renyi and others shrugged their shoulders. In the evening, Wang Shijie led Xue Renyi, Manding and others out of the basement, and ran past the fire in the distant city.

In that area, there are still warriors from the Jagged Brotherhood fighting against the demonized creatures in the city. The second-tier masters stand beside the first-tier rookies and direct them to fight.

Once a rookie makes a mistake, the second-tier masters will quickly make up for them, help them resist the attack, and then let them attack again.

Xue Renyi said in a low voice, "Not only this city, but other cities are also like this. It seems that there are at least 20,000 people."

This was requested by Lu Yang. The city of Dan, the nearest to the East China Sea, had to be cleaned up. By train, the distance between the two was only 4 hours.

If the monsters in Dan City are not cleaned up, just cleaning the monsters in the L8 area and the Fengshi direction area will not work at all. Therefore, Xia Yuwei, Zhao Cheng and Bao Buping brought the remaining 20,000 people from Dan City. The city began to kill back, just as it happens to be able to train new members.

Wang Shijie didn't dare to look closely. He only thought it was the Jagged Brotherhood training newcomers. He cursed unwillingly and said, "We hide in the basement, and I will clean up the traces myself."

Mandin, Kenny and others nodded, quickly went back to the house where the basement was and hid them, and cleared all the traces outside, showing that there is nothing ordinary here.

Wang Shijie didn't know that his contempt this time would cause great losses to the fighting legion that arrived on Earth in the Red Moon Night.

When Wang Shijie and the others hid in the basement, allowing the Jagged Brothers soldiers to destroy their houses and step on their heads, Zhuojiu and said that the other 20,000 people they were carrying had cleared Shekouzhi where the defensive position was located. More than 10 twisted time and space outside.

Under a new twisted time and space, the White Lion looked at the killed monsters around and shouted at his opponent: "Keep moving, don't leave any dead ones, send them all to the car and take them back to the East China Sea."

Zhou Tianming shouted in another area: "Dig three meters into the ground. Every time and space that is distorted, I dig three meters into the ground. Don't let an earthworm in the ground go. When the creatures in the other world come, let them be a little bit. Can't find anything to eat."

Under the third twisted time and space, there was a lake next to the half-hearted love. He thought for a while and said: "Come here, everyone, and throw all the venom of the Hydra Emperor in your hands into this lake, creatures in another world. Here, I poisoned those turtle grandchildren."

Thousands of soldiers under his team made a sound of laughter, and handed over the venom they carried to the fire crow shooter, who controlled the fire crow to pour into the lake from the air.

Originally, there were a lot of big fish in the lake. Because of the energy of the other world, the fish and turtles in the lake mutated, swallowing a lot of water plants, causing the water plants to not keep up with the speed of their eating, and the whole lake was very clear.

Looking from the air, fish in the water can be seen everywhere, but less than two minutes after the venom entered, a large number of white-bellied fish and a large number of turtles floated on the lake.

After a half-life of bitter love, people salvaged all these fishes and burned them. After cleaning up the wreckage on the scene, they led the team and killed them towards the next area.

Above the mountains farther away, as time came to late March, the weather became warmer. The warm ocean monsoon brought the temperature in the East China Sea to more than 10 degrees in the afternoon.

Han Fei, Han Yu and others controlled part of the Firecrow Legion. along the Unknown Mountain outside Shekou, one mountain after another burned past.

In the past ten days, hundreds of mountains have been burned. As long as the mountains can be seen outside Shekou, they have been burnt black at this time.

All the reservoirs below the mountain were smashed into dams, and the water in the reservoir poured out, flowing through the surrounding farmland, and finally into the sea.

Zhuojiu and they continued to sweep back and forth for a month, and they have been pushing the tactics of solid walls and clear fields to the main city of L8.

During this period, Riyue Mountain ushered in two more waves of demons. They were killed by the turbid wine and the white lion with the newcomers. They harvested more than 10,000 star swords and 20 star shattering blades. After smelting, they became More than 20,000 star swords and 40 broken star blades.

Every few days, Hongye would fly back to the East China Sea to receive the latest news, and then return to the crater to report to Lu Yang through consciousness.

Hong Ye flew another round today. Just as he was standing in the crater and preparing to report to Lu Yang about the situation of the East China Sea, suddenly, the lava under the crater became boiling, and the violent power even made Hong Ye feel a little surprised. .

Chapter 2223: 4 fire magic skills

The surface of the boiling red magma bulged upwards as a whole, and the bulging became larger and larger. When the height reached 10 meters, a small sound like a bubble bursting sounded, the next second.

With a loud “bang”, the magma in the crater soared into the sky, reaching a height of more than 100 meters. A huge black cloud quickly formed in the sky, covering a radius of several tens of kilometers. The dark sky should have been it made the surrounding world become dark, but the red magma turned the surrounding world red.

The thunder is rolling in the clouds, and the lightning is constantly flying across the sky like a spider web. This terrifying force, even if it is Red Night, has to retreat. Just when Hongye is about to contact Lu Yang, a tall person is in the sky of lava. A hundred meters of red flame giant appeared.

His head was nearly 10 meters long, and he could vaguely see that this was Lu Yang's face. When the flame giant stepped out of the lava and stepped on the rocks near the crater, the rock collapsed, and the lava spewed like a collapsed dam. out.

"Roar~!"

The flame giant roared, and the lava of dozens of volcanoes around seemed to feel the call, and at the same time it surged wildly. In an instant, the world completely turned red.

Even more terrifying is that when the flame giant opened his arms, the black clouds in the sky instantly turned crimson. Red Night looked up, and hundreds of lavas with a diameter of more than 20 meters appeared in the dark clouds above the flame giant's head. Fireball.

There was a piercing sound. Hundreds of fireballs struck diagonally towards the main city of Dan City a few kilometers away. When the first lava fireball fell, a mushroom-shaped fire cloud rose up, and then hundreds The fireball then landed on that area.

Pieces of dazzling fire light lit up. When the light dissipated, there was still a building there, but at this time the ruins were invisible, as if everything had turned into gravel and dust, disappearing into the air, leaving only Hong Ye was dumbfounded by hundreds of huge pits, because this was something he couldn't do.

Hong Ye contacted Lu Yang with consciousness and said, "Brother, is that you?"

The one-hundred-meter-high red giant turned his head to look at Lu Yang, his nearly ten-meter-long face showed a smile, and asked, "Isn't it?"

The Red Night was just over ten meters long. In front of Lu Yang, who was 100 meters high, he looked like a baby, facing the face of Lu Yang who was as big as him. He shook his head quickly, blinked and said, "You are promoted to three. Ranked? Why is it so horrible."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "I have just been promoted, I will try my power."

This is not all Lu Yang's strength, including the power of the Demon God's Heart after the fusion. Just now, Lu Yang completed all the preparations and successfully promoted to the third rank, becoming the elementary level of the fire demon rank.

The Blazing Demon God took this opportunity to instill the power of the Demon God's Heart into Lu Yang's body. Lu Yang, who had not been able to become a complete Fire Demon, instantly turned into a 100-meter-high Fire Demon. With every attack, the magic power in the heart of the demon **** helps.

Normally, even when Lu Yang was at the peak of Tier 3, the fire demon that he turned into was more than ten meters high, and it was impossible to have so many lava fireballs, let alone such a big one.

Blazing Demon God said triumphantly: "How about it, how powerful it is. This is the result of your low strength. After the heart of the Demon God is fused, the bonus to you is unprecedented. If you can be promoted to the fire spirit level, your thoughts In the meantime, Dan City no longer exists."

Lu Yang took a deep breath and asked, "It's terrifying. With my current strength, I feel that the defensive position built in Shekou on the other side of the East China Sea is a joke. I can solve it with a wave of my hand, not to mention the protoss of another world. I'm a bit discouraged."

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said: "Don't worry, this is where there is magma, you can create such an effect. Without magma, it will take at least half a day to accumulate energy for you and me. At that time, I was beaten to death long ago.

As for the gods in another world, according to past experience, the most they came this time were Tier 4, and they would definitely be injured through the planes. That's all I can help you. The rest is up to you and to what extent you can do it. It depends on your ability. "

Lu Yang could only sigh secretly. After receiving the magic power of the Demon God's Heart, he returned to a human state. He looked at the red night flying in the air not far away and asked, "How is the East China Sea?"

Hong Ye said: "Everything is normal."

Lu Yang nodded, so that he could continue to practice for a while, and said to the Blazing Demon God: "Apart from the massive lava fireball, are there any single attack spells?"

The Blazing Demon said: "There are four spells, one is lava armor, which uses high-intensity flame to create a lava armor, no matter what weapon is cut on it, it will not be easily cut;

The second spell is lava fast. When you create lava in an area, you can escape into the lava and appear anywhere at will, just like teleporting.

The third spell is a lava laser, which produces a very powerful cluster of lava, which penetrates the enemy's defenses by virtue of high temperature and high pressure.

As for the last spell, it's called the Lava Spear. It's a higher-order spell. Even Tier 5 fire spirits are not commonly used. Combine more lava lasers to form a lava spear and throw it at your opponent. A master of the same level, if you hit Either death or disability, even a fire dragon like Hongye can easily penetrate his scales. If it hits the neck, it will blow him into two pieces and die instantly. "

Lu Yang frowned and asked, "So strong?"

The Blazing Demon said: "The power is indeed very strong, but the speed is extremely slow. If you hit it under normal circumstances, the first-order mages can avoid it, so you can only release it at a specific time.

Another point is that with your current strength, no matter which trick you want to release, it will take a very long time to accumulate energy, because you are only a third-level elementary. If you reach the level of the fire spirit, you can use these skills. There will be an instant effect. "

Lu Yang was speechless, and said, "Then none of these skills are useful to me. I can't accumulate energy for a long time before fighting with the enemy."

Blazing Demon God smiled and said, "This is the solution I want to teach you."

Lu Yang felt that the Blazing Demon God spoke more and more and panted, and cursed, "Can you finish it all at once?"

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said, "Isn't this old man old? Don't worry, don't worry."

Lu Yang had a black line on his forehead.

The Blazing Demon God was happier and said: "Remember the two flame bull gods you met in the game?"

"You mean Kate and Lake?" Lu Yang asked.

Those are the two housekeeping sacred cows of the Blazing Demon God in the Demon Temple in the game. The whole body is wrapped in flames. The strength is very strange and the offensive ability is not.

The Blazing Demon said: "These two sacred cows are real. They were made by me. When I was still weak, in order to be able to quickly use the two skills of Lava Laser and Lava Spear, I would countless The fire demons merged together and created two fire oxen. Whenever I confront the enemy, I will absorb the power of the fire oxen and quickly shoot the lava laser and the lava spear.

Later, the two fire oxen followed me to fight, and gradually developed consciousness, automatically recognized me as my master, and became my most loyal servant.

Now you can also be like me back then. There are a large number of flame origins overflowing from the center of the earth, and the fire demons formed are not conscious. If you grab them and merge them, they will be your biggest arm on the battlefield in the future. . "

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief, and said in amazement, "There is such a spell. This is indeed a good way."

He quickly followed the Blazing Demon theology.

Chapter 2224: The red moon night is coming

The method of making the original fire demon is not difficult, as long as the crystal core in the fire demon is broken, let them return to a liquid state, and then wrapped with the power of the soul core.

Almost 1,000 flame demon crystal cores can create a second-order original fire demon, and 10,000 flame demon can create a third-order original fire demon.

Lu Yang looked at the surrounding volcanoes. There were more than 200 volcanoes. He had only used a volcano's flame demon to temper the soul core, but none of the flame demon on the other volcanoes had been killed.

The crater used to produce a few flame demon every day, but now the number of flame demon on these mountains is countless. Lu Yang was excited and rushed towards the nearest flame demon with a red night.

In just one day, Lu Yang killed more than 2,000 flame demons. In the Demon Temple, he used the original energy of these two flame demons to create two second-order original fire demons.

"Fire Demon Transformation"

Lu Yang opened the space and borrowed the original energy from the two original fire monsters. After a day of fighting, the empty magic power in the soul core instantly filled up, transforming Lu Yang into the fire monster form with violent power.

“Lava Laser”

Lu Yang pointed forward, and a flame demon running towards him was instantly shattered with its body and origin crystal core. From his perception, the two second-order origin fire monsters in the Demon Temple were only in the crystal core. He has less energy, which makes him very satisfied.

The Blazing Demon said: “Your original Fire Demon has been stabilized, and now it’s time to raise their ranks. Remember, the higher their crystal nucleus ranks, the more flame magic they possess, and you will also The faster you can cast high-level spells.”

Lu Yang nodded excitedly, and went on to create the original fire demon.

A month later, when the time came to the beginning of June, on the volcano in Dan City in the early morning, you could still see a tall fire demon continuously using various spells.

“Lava Laser”

“Lava Spear”

“Lava Fireball Group”

“Lava Rapid”

“Lava Armor”

Where there is magma, the flame element is abundant, and it will soon be able to replenish the energy consumed in the soul core. Through this month, Lu Yang has been proficient in these five skills, and at the same time, he also created two three. The original fire demon of rank, this at least allows him to use the lava spear many times.

Just as Lu Yang wanted to continue practicing, suddenly, the Blazing Demon God's consciousness fluctuated strongly.

Lu Yang asked, "What's wrong?"

The Blazing Demon God said in a solemn voice: "The red moon night is coming, and I feel that the warped time and space is beginning to turbulent."

Lu Yang jumped out of the 80-meter-high volcano to look at the twisted time and space next to a nearby volcano. The twisted time and space that had been calmly emitting blue and white light now rotates many times faster than before.

The blue and white light spewed out frantically, and countless elements were mixed in it. When the impact became stronger and stronger, a violent tornado gradually formed.

The volcanic ash on the surrounding ground was quickly rolled up. In an instant, the black-gray smoke covered the sky and the sun, but after a while, the sky full of smoke and dust turned crimson.

The terrifying red light had extremely strong penetrating power, and instantly penetrated the smoke and shining on Lu Yang's body. At the same time, a terrifying killing intent also enveloped Lu Yang.

In the red light, illusions even appeared in front of Lu Yang's eyes. Countless orcs, scorpion men, flower demons, fire demons, and demons that had never been seen before stood in neat rows in front of the twisted time and space of another world. One by one, the gods stopped in mid-air, praising something constantly.

The Blazing Demon God snorted coldly, and said: "This is the distortion of time and space. The red light is a trait that suddenly expands after the distortion of time and space is stabilized. The illusion is a declaration of killing by the alien gods. Leave them alone. Arrived within days."

Lu Yang nodded solemnly, and called for his consciousness. Hong Ye spread his huge wings and flew from a distance. When he approached the crater, he jumped onto the top of Hong Ye's head and directed Hong Ye to move towards the East China Sea quickly. Flew over.

The other side.

The 40,000 Jagged Brothers fighters, such as Zhuojiu and White Lion, who were sweeping the beasts in the L8 area and Fengshi area, all saw the illusion that the surrounding world turned into a red night and another world was about to attack.

Zhuojiu's eyes firmly said, "It's finally here."

The white lion and the bitter love half a lifetime smiled and nodded. They had waited for this day for a long time.

"Dididi"

Suddenly, their intercom phones rang at the same time. When they opened it, it was a video call from Lu Yang. Suddenly, everyone's heart became more stable, and they pressed the connect button almost at the same time.

A picture of Lu Yang appeared on the phone, and he asked excitedly, "Boss, have you been promoted to the third rank?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Of course, I have already been promoted to Tier 3."

"Great." Zhuojiu, Baishi and others said in unison.

Lu Yang said: "Everyone quickly led the team to retreat to the Shekou defensive position. The enemy will arrive in the near future. Guys, the battle that will test us is about to begin."

“Boss, don’t worry, after the enemy comes, I promise to let them see the surprise.” Said the bitter love half a lifetime.

In order to keep it secret, Lu Yang learned about the lava spear and the super fire demon, and deliberately did not tell the stalemate. Because the spy in the Jagged Brotherhood has not been found out yet, he is afraid that the enemy will guess through other queries. When he reached his strength, he sent Red Night to and from each other every day, clearly knowing the progress of Zhuojiu and White Lion.

Zhuojiu, Baishi and others were full of confidence at this time. After nodding their heads, they shouted: “All the prey will be loaded onto the truck. We will return to the East China Sea and prepare for battle.”

“Three months of hard work will bear fruit, and everyone will get new trophies.”

“The gift is here, everyone, don’t miss the opportunity.”

Countless members of the Jagged Brothers League heard the order, their flustered mood was instantly suppressed, and they all became a little excited, and each began to pack up and prepare for battle in an orderly manner.

If three months ago, the Jagged Brotherhood was still afraid of enemies from another world to attack, now they are not worried at all, because in these three months, the East China Sea area and the L8 area outside the Shekou defensive position , Fengshi area and Danshi area, all the monsters around were killed.

Not only that, the surrounding mountains were also burnt clean, there were no roots on the ground, the trees burned to charcoal, all the dams were destroyed, all the lakes were poisoned, and the enemy’s ability to stay outside Shekou for a day nothing.

Chapter 2225: Final preparation

To obtain supplies, one must go to areas more than 1,000 kilometers away to find prey, and the water sources in these areas have also been poisoned. The Jagged Brothers had no time to clean up, and the poisoned fish and shrimps floated all over the lake.

Under this circumstance, they did not believe that the enemy had a way to attack immediately, and when the enemy retreated to find food and water, they even thought about taking the initiative to hit the opponent by surprise.

With this mentality, all the members of the Jagged Brotherhood have excited and proud expressions on their faces. They have no fear at all, only expectation.

Two hours later.

Lu Yang returned to the Shekou defensive position. At this time, the position here has become a fortress group. On the two mountains, there are bunkers everywhere. There is a 500-meter-wide mountain road between the two mountains, one is 80 meters high and 500 meters wide. , A giant concrete building two kilometers long cut off the road.

This is the central fortress and the core area to resist the enemy this time. The 500-meter-wide flat ground in the middle is the enemy's attack area.

"Quick, quick, all personnel are ready, this is not a drill." Standing at the top of the fortress, Fei Yang shouted loudly with the walkie-talkie, and when he saw Lu Yang, he waved vigorously.

Lu Yang jumped off the dragon's head, walked to Fei Yang's side with a smile, and said, "I know what you want to ask, I'm on the third order. Keep it secret."

Fei Yang breathed a sigh of relief, pointing to the red light in the distance and asked, "Is this a sign that the enemy is coming?"

Lu Yang nodded and said, "I will come anytime, are you sure?"

Fei Yang snorted triumphantly and said, "Five kilometers behind the defensive position is our heavy artillery position. Now we have all moved out. There is no red storm there, and the visibility is still clear. Lu Zhongtian led the academy's people to guard there to ensure safety.

There are tens of thousands of light artillery and heavy machine guns in my place. The ammunition can be used for three months. The enemy dares to come. I will show him what is called the power of technology."

"In addition, I have installed cameras near every twisted time and space within 500 kilometers of the defensive position. Once an enemy appears, we will immediately know their specific coordinates. We can bomb them with heavy artillery and let them rest. They are all restless and restless."

The power of science still exists in this world, and they can still play an important role. Lu Yang said with satisfaction: "Yes, the first battle may be your first meritorious service."

Fei Yang raised his eyebrows and said: "Of course, I have also seen the enemy's troops coming. Isn't it just the flower demon and the fire demon? A group of them killed in one shot."

Lu Yang smiled and nodded. He stood on the edge of the fortress and looked at the red storm in the distance. At this time, what he was worried about was not the flower demon and the fire demon. He could kill these things. What really worried him was The scorpion man, he saw in the illusion, those who looked like people, but were covered in gray-white carapace, and had a thick scorpion tail behind.

The tip of the tail was still shining a weird black-red light. Obviously, there was poison in it, and the Jagged Brothers had no antidote for the venom of the scorpion man.

He took out the intercom and called Xiao Liang, and asked, "Has Luo Laide, the businessman from the mechanical plane, come back?"

Xiao Liang pointed the camera at the glass door behind him, and said, "I haven't come back yet."

Lu Yang said: "Strengthen your guard. In any case, you must wait until Luo Laide comes back and ensure his safety."

Luo Laide was Lu Yang's only hope. Without his antidote, the battle of the Jagged Brotherhood would have killed many brothers, which he would never want to see.

Xiao Liang knew the stakes here and nodded and said, "There are more than 100 beginner cultivators here. They are also the guards here. Don't worry, the boss, I will definitely not have any problems here."

For the new 40,000 beginner cultivators, Xiao Liang selected 100 savvy people and stayed with him, just to help him check the deficiencies.

Lu Yang believed in Xiao Liang's ability. After hanging up the phone, he called Lan Yu again and said, "The red moon night is coming. Be careful to deal with the situation inside the East China Sea. We still have enemies among us. Don't be attacked carelessly."

Lan Yu is now the second in command of the East China Sea next to Fei Yang. Although she is very worried about Lu Yang's safety, she can't say anything weak. She can only say to Lu Yang optimistically: "My husband, I believe you must Will defeat the enemy."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Of course."

After that, Lu Yang could only hang up the phone, and then called the person in charge of the two new districts of Fengshi and Dan, telling them that they had entered a wartime state.

At the moment, the enemy must be stable internally. There must be no war ahead. There are problems in the rear. Lu Yang discussed with Zhao Hua in Feng City and Ye Ziqiu in Dan City. The most important thing is water and food. The area where they are located must be strengthened. Control, as well as the various poisons and scrolls in it, if you don't have anything to do with it, you will be treated as a spy.

Outside the Donghai Underground City, the two new urban areas are not within the scope of the distorted time and space, so the residents in the city just saw the red sky in the distance and didn't know what was going on.

The 40,000 beginner cultivators and the 20,000 beginner cultivators in Dan City were all incorporated into the law enforcement team to maintain law and order in the city. When the red light appeared on the day, Zhao Hua and Ye Ziqiu felt bad. Now that he heard Lu Yang's call, he hurriedly issued an order that everyone must not leave the house to ensure their own safety.

Things are ready here. On the other side of , Grant in the dungeon solemnly handed over 400,000 scrolls of various types to Augustus and his subordinates, and said: "There must be no mistakes. ,do you know?"

"When did I have a problem?" Augustus is now loyal to Lu Yang and has absolutely no thoughts of betrayal. It is not just a slave contract, but more importantly, the Blazing Demon God in Lu Yang's body.

When he took 500 of his subordinates and transported the scrolls to the Shekou area with the Fire Lion, he was catching up with the turbid wine and they came back. Lu Yang saw Augustus and said with emotion: "I can't do it at Riyue Mountain for the time being. Go, if there are demons teleporting over, I will rely on you to stabilize them."

Augustus showed his mouth full of fangs, and said, "The **** demon dare to send my enemy over again. In the future, I will kill him by myself and ask the master to do it."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "I will make you wish."

"I'm leaving." Augustus waved his hand and ran towards Riyue Mountain with 500 demons.

Lu Yang looked at Augustus's back, and then looked up at the sky. The Harpy Legion had flown back, hovering over the fortress. The Hulk Legion was also there, the Fire Lion Legion was there, and the Iron-Blooded Brotherhood. All the main forces are there, and Lu Yang is full of confidence in this battle.

Chapter 2227: Crazy Flower Demon

The location where Flower Demons appeared was the nearest. They were just 6 kilometers away, facing the portal of the Shekou position. It stands to reason that they shouldn't have appeared in this location. The other world also knows that humans have heavy artillery, but the gods of the other world say Now, the races they transmitted cannot let the humans on earth look down on them, so they must attack them frontally.

The first batch of flower monsters just fell on the ground, and their roots quickly inserted into the soil. At the same time, their rhizomes grew up to a height of 5 meters. Then, the huge flowers on the top bloomed continuously. Grow.

A flower has three layers of petals, and each layer has six petals. The petals have white light on them, and you can't see them unless you look closely.

This is a unique second-order guard flower demon in the flower demon clan. It is specifically used to defend against enemy's long-range attacks. It is also the guardian of the third-order flower demon in its childhood.

There are more than 200 flower monsters in total, and a 500-meter-diameter protection channel is formed in front of 10 twisted time and space in an instant.

Then came out of the 10 twisted time and space, there were countless Tier 3 flower demon and tree demon. Their huge flower faces were full of ferocious and hatred. Because of the failure of the first batch of flower demon, the flower demon was like this. The race was severely punished by the gods. They sought revenge from humans and regained their glory and dignity.

"Humanity, our revenge is here."

"Your end is here."

Countless huge flowers gave out angry roars. The sound was extremely penetrating. Even Lu Yang, who was far away in the Shekou defensive position, could hear clearly. This made Lu Yang uncomfortable. He said, "Shoot me and kill them. ."

Fei Yang nodded, all the gunners were already in place, the muzzle of the heavy artillery also jumped to the height of the coordinate bombing point, and he issued an order.

"Blow them to death, blow me up~!"

The soldiers on the heavy artillery Zhendi and rocket launch vehicle positions a few kilometers away heard the order and quickly pressed the launch button.

In an instant, the red night on the ground turned into golden yellow, and 3,000 heavy artillery and 5,000 rocket launchers fired at the same time.

The Jagged Brothers warriors in Shekou's position were a little scared when they saw the Tier 3 Flower Demon coming out of the twisted time and space, but they could see the heavy artillery and rocket launchers passing through the air, and they were settled.

In the next second, heavy artillery and rocket launchers accurately landed on the positions in front of these 10 warped space-times, and in an instant, a brighter golden flame lit up.

The first layer of the giant flowers of the second-order guard flower demon barely resisted the first wave of attacks. When the second wave of rocket launchers fell, the first layer of flowers were all blown up.

"Human artillery fire is too fierce, everyone quickly withdraw from this area." The guards of the flower demon shouted.

The Tier 3 flower demons were grinning fiercely and grinningly at the human beings, their expressions instantly settled in place, they quickly looked around, and soon they saw the nearby mountains, and ran towards the back of the mountain one after another.

Soon, this batch of Tier 2 guard flower demons was blown to pieces, and the flower demons and nature gods on the other side of the distortion space could also see them, but they still did not change the location of the teleportation, just let another batch The guard flower demon entered, replacing the Tier 3 flower demon who was about to enter.

The second batch of guard flower demons sent over and continued to hold up their umbrellas to allow the next batch of Tier 3 flower demons and tree demons to pass quickly.

A row of Twisted Time and Space 2 kilometers away from the Twisted Time and Space where the Flower Demon is located is the Teleportation Array of the Flame Demon. Because the last time the Flower Demon gave the Flame Demon to the pit, this time the Flower Demon takes the lead, and the Flame Demon teleports behind. .

In the area next to the flame demon, there are second-order jackal-headed orcs. They are riding animals that resemble jackals, but their bodies are more than five meters long, and their appearance is even more terrifying, with fangs in their mouths. It protrudes more than 30 centimeters, and the tip is very sharp.

On the other side of the flame demon, there are second-order scorpion people. They are weak and small, not much stronger than humans. They are only a little more than two meters tall, but they have tails on the back and a poisonous tip on them. prick.

They were not as crazy as the Flower Demon, but quickly ran to the surrounding mountains and hid on the side of the mountain.

Before the flower demon was punished by the gods, so they made them crazy, but the orcs, scorpion people and flame demon were never punished. The patriarchs of their three races thought about how to hunt the first time after landing. , Zhazhai, let your subordinates rest.

The twisted time and space is a big burden on the body. After passing, they are actually very tired. Therefore, they need to find a place to rest and restore their physical strength to the best state.

Especially food and water can quickly restore their bodies, but when the soldiers of the three races looked around, they discovered that the surrounding vegetation and forest were all burned out.

Even if you look far away, you can't see a beast, and you can't even see the water source. This is seriously inconsistent with the previous news given by Wang Shijie.

"Damn it, there is no water or prey around here, we were fooled." Zayeli, the head of the Jackal clan, cursed furiously.

The patriarch of the Fire Demon Clan, Magmat, who is 10 meters tall, bent down and shook his head and said, "We can have no water, but we can't have food."

Scorpion patriarch Scott glanced mockingly at the flower demon in the distance, and said: "Who is going to tell the stupid group of flower demon, let's retreat to a safe place first, and wait until the body recovers before attacking."

Zayeli and Magmat looked at the area two kilometers away. There was continuous artillery fire, and the guarding flower demon was blown to pieces. The third-order flower demon and tree demon were also killed, although most of them were withdrawn. In the safe area, but it looks very miserable.

No one wants to inform the Flower Demon and the Tree Demon at this time. The area of is too dangerous. Although most of their subordinates have come out, a small number of them are walking out of the passage. Therefore, they I would rather let the Flower Demon and the Tree Demon attract firepower.

"First send the prepared team to a distant place to rest. It must be a place where you can avoid the enemy's heavy artillery." Zayeli said.

Marghermat and Sco had their heads, each led their teams to evacuate far away. The Tier 3 flower monsters saw this scene one after another, but they did not feel angry, but continued to support them. They were unwilling to go because they were with Orcs, Fire Demons, and Scorpion Men are different.

All three need food and water. They are plants. They don't need these. They can survive as long as the roots are inserted into the soil, the sun is irradiated, and the soil has sufficient nutrients and water.

As for the problem of body damage transmitted from the twisted time and space, it has nothing to do with them. They fight by creating flower demon warriors. They only need to find a hidden place to create a large number of second-order peak flower demon.

Therefore, with this idea, nearly 5,000 third-order flower monsters and 5,000 tree monsters are looking for locations on the back of the mountain that will not be hit by artillery fire, preparing to take root to produce flower monsters and tree monsters.

Chapter 2228: Heavy damage to the Flower Demon and the Tree Demon Army

On the back of the surrounding mountains that could not be hit by heavy artillery, Lu Yang focused on burying minefields. At the same time, there were still cameras staring at them.

Lu Yang was using a binoculars to watch the situation of the flower demon being bombed by heavy artillery and rocket launchers in the distance. If a flower demon body died, there would be hundreds or even thousands of flower demon warriors, which was of great significance to Lu Yang.

But when he stared nervously at the front line, he was pleasantly surprised to find that the Flower Demon Warrior had actually hidden behind a mountain that could not be hit by heavy artillery, as he had originally expected.

"Boss, there is movement on the camera, and a lot of flower monsters ran into the preset minefield." A soldier from the Jagged Brotherhood called Lu Yanghui from the monitoring room of the central fortress to report.

Lu Yang hurriedly ran into the monitoring room. There were a total of 16 large screens. In each screen, a large number of flower monsters began to insert their bodies into the ground.

"Which other screen has the flower demon body, call it out." Lu Yang said excitedly.

The subordinate monitoring staff reported: "Boss, the 112 preset minefields all have flower monsters taking root."

Lu Yang adjusted the scenes one by one in surprise. After confirming that this was the case, he smiled on his face, looked at Fei Yang beside him, and said, "Press the detonation button to blow them up."

Fei Yang nodded vigorously and ran to the safe to get the remote control equipment area. On the other side, on the back of the mountain, the patriarch of the Huamo clan had already inserted the roots into the ground.

Their most vulnerable place is their roots. When they encounter a hard object, the roots will quickly turn to find other soiled areas and continue to drill down. They will not hit hard with things like rocks, so they will not. Touch something made of steel.

The name of the patriarch who led the team this time is Panish. He looked at the many flower demons around him and roared: "The moment to regain the glory for God is right in front of us. For our God, for our race, everyone is ready to make Flower demon warrior, attacking humans at night."

"Roar~!" Numerous flower demons roared in unison.

If you look closely, you will find that the appearance of these third-order flower monsters is very immature, only Panish and a few third-order flower monsters have older appearances.

There is a reason for this. The main way of growing up in another world of the flower demons is to rely on age. The older the flower demons, the more magical energy they absorb, and the easier it is to become a high-level flower demons. Part can not be the third order.

This time, more than 4,700 of the five thousand flower demons are Tier 3, but only more than 200 are elderly. The reason is that the previous flower demons killed the tree demons and the flame demons, and indirectly caused the orc army. destruction.

Otherworldly gods did not regard the destruction of humans as a big problem. As long as the distortion of time and space becomes larger and larger, when one day they can send god-level races or king-level creatures into it, humans will be finished.

Looking at the human world in the current different world, it is like playing a game. The offensive team sent by all parties is the chess piece responsible for attacking. The gods of each department compete on whose chess pieces play more beautifully and win more beautifully. If Whoever loses will be ugly. If the **** of another **** kills the **** of another god, it is embarrassing and will make this **** be laughed at by other gods.

Now the flower **** is in a situation of being ridiculed. Therefore, under his anger, he killed all the other members of the flower demon race, and asked other flower demon races to select elite warriors. He used his divine power to remove more than 4,700 The famous second-order flower monsters have all become third-order.

In order to express his apology, the Flower God allowed the Flower Demon race to take the first wave of attacks, and the Flower Demon race was also deeply ashamed and willing to fight to the death.

According to the plan, they would attack immediately after landing, but they didn't expect that the human firepower would be so fierce that they would not be able to handle the fight and had to retreat.

Now that other races have also retreated, and they have retreated even further, Panish, the head of the Flower Demon, felt that the time had come to win the honor for their Lord God again, and he also brought 5,000 Tier 3 Tree Demon with him.

This batch of Tier 3 tree demons, like the flower demons, took root in the soil and used the tree warriors produced by the fruit as their main combat power to attack humans.

The tree demon patriarch Starpac took the initiative to walk to Panish's side and took root in the soil. The human face on the trunk said to Panish: "We tree demon are here to help you, for the glory of the **** of nature."

Panish shouted: "For the glory of the **** of nature."

The 5000 third-order flower demons and 5000 third-order tree demons shouted at the same time: "For the glory of the **** of nature."

In an instant, the bodies of all the flower demon and tree demon glowed with light green, and they began to blossom and bear fruit, preparing to create countless flower demon warriors and tree demon warriors, but at the moment they were about to give birth.

“Boom~!”

A white light covering the red moon night illuminates the entire night sky, and the momentary light caused the orcs and scorpions in the distance to look back in surprise.

In the next second, a terrifying explosion sounded along with a strong shock wave. This terrifying power, even the third-order orc warriors, had to deal with it with all their strength, and the second-order orc warriors were pushed by the shock wave. Go backwards.

When the shock wave stopped, Zayeli, the head of the Jackal Orc clan, looked at the area where the Flower Demon and the Tree Demon were in the distance. There was already billowing smoke and dust, and there was nothing to see. He said in confusion: “No, it won’t all die. Got it.”

The patriarch of the Fire Demon clan Magmat lowered his head and appeared next to Zayeli. with a dull face and could not see any thoughts. He said indifferently: “Not all of them will be killed, they will also be severely injured. I’m afraid I won’t survive much.”

Zayeli said in horror: “Are we going to save them?”

The gods are still watching them through the twisted time and space. It is already a problem to avoid the attack when they first arrive. If the allies of the camp are not saved, some are too unreasonable.

The scorpion patriarch Scott coldly snorted: “The group of idiots were sent to death by themselves. What does it have to do with us? Are we going to rescue their bodies against the gunfire? Besides, who can guarantee if there are any more below? The second wave of attacks.”

Zayeli nodded. He didn’t dare to guarantee that human beings had other means to hide in that area, so he could only turn around and leave.

Distorted time and space inside.

A group of gods had already been blinded, and they didn't expect that the legion that made them proud would be wiped out in this way.

The main thing is to make the gods of the flower gods feel embarrassed. Looking at the smoke and dust in the sky, and the expressions of contempt and mockery of the surrounding gods, the flower gods left with the main gods.

Chapter 2229: Poisoned orc

The other main gods standing in front of the twisted time and space all had three words in their hearts: Can't play.

At the same time, they didn't care that the retreat of the fighters of their respective races was problematic. The artillery fire in the East China Sea was so fierce and far beyond their imagination. This was an intelligence error, and the blame was on Wang Shijie, not the fighters.

These gods know how much damage they cause to the body through the time of warping time and space. When chasing and killing the old gods, they have traveled through multiple warped time and space. Each time they pass, their combat effectiveness will be reduced a lot.

If Donghai had received the earliest news before, there were not many heavy weapons that could make Scorpionmen, Orcs, and Fire Demons launch a fierce attack, but now the firepower was hundreds of times stronger than before, and they didn't want to see their chess pieces just die.

Although it was a shame to retreat after teleporting, they were extremely excited when they thought that the soldiers of the three races would soon find food and water, and would launch a counterattack to destroy the defense positions in the East China Sea tomorrow morning, and then launch a sacrifice to allow them to enter the human world in advance. .

The patriarchs of the fire demon, orcs, and scorpion people thought the same way, but instead of speeding up their retreat, they ordered all the clansmen to maintain a horizontal and vertical formation and retreat in a graceful posture. The reason was that they could not allow the glory of God to be affected. Defiled.

Lu Yang looked at these idiots from a distance, really wanting to order the heavy artillery and rocket artillery corps to kill them, but he knew that they could only be killed by hitting the target head-on within 5 kilometers. Now the distance is almost over 10 kilometers. When the warriors of the clan have shields, they can't kill them, it will only waste ammunition.

"The Harpy Legion and the Firecrow Legion quickly flew out of the fortress to inquire about the situation of the tree demon and the flower demon." Lu Yang ordered.

On the top floor of the central fortress, more than two thousand hawks and more than five thousand fire crow shooters quickly soared into the air and flew towards the back of the mountain where the flower demon and tree demon were hidden.

The team led by Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei, both of them were cautious. Just after flying behind the mountain, the smoke and dust in the sky had dispersed. You can clearly see the stumps of the flower demon and tree demon with broken arms all over the mountains and plains. , The colorful is very bright.

Because it exploded from the soil and directly destroyed their most vulnerable roots, the Flower Demon and Tree Demon suffered heavy casualties this time.

Zhuojiu stood on the wide back of Tier 3 Fire Crow and patrolled around. He turned on the phone and said to Lu Yang: "Boss, most of them are dead, but there are still a lot of Tier 3 Tree Demon and Flower Demon living below. It seems that the injury is serious, so I ask for instructions."

Lu Yang said: "Use the fireball of the fire crow to burn them, and then shoot them with the poisonous arrow of the Hydra Emperor. Never jump off the fire crow to the ground."

It's not worth it to take a risk for a group of dying enemies. It's better to concentrate on destroying it with heavy firepower. This is also the idea of stale wine. He turned around and shouted: "The Firecrow Legion is ready to attack. Everyone is strictly forbidden to jump off the battlefield. Otherwise, the eagle will be severely punished. People catch up with the soldiers of the three races, monitor their movements and report at any time."

"Yes." everyone shouted in unison.

The Harpy Legion chased the three race fighters and flew away. The remaining fire crows turned on the crazy output mode. Countless white fireballs formed from the front of their black wings. In a blink of an eye, they poured out like rain on the flower demon. And the tree demon's position.

The flower demon and tree demon who were not dead on the ground were unable to escape, and could only twist their bodies to avoid them. They could dodge this fireball but not the other one. They were hit by a large number of white fireballs and their bodies were ignited.

The 5000 fire crows poured fireballs for 10 minutes, and the Jagged Brothers archers standing on the backs of the fire crows all smelled the smell of stir-fried vegetables coming from the ground.

"The taste is quite special, I don't know if it can be eaten." A Sagittarius asked curiously.

Another archer said with a smile: "I heard that you used to be a chef. Would you like to catch one when you can go down? Let's try cooking."

"good idea."

Hearing the chatter and laughter of the archers behind him, he relaxed a lot. He was very worried that the red moon night would make the brothers feel depressed and breathless. He didn't expect to fight so easily in the first battle. Now everyone Their spirit is no longer tense, and even their mentality has become relaxed, which is very meaningful to them.

Zhuojiu smiled and said: "If you are cooking, you have to choose carefully, because the boss has ordered, everyone is ready to attack, and the arrow is dipped in the venom of the king of Hydra. You must save the remaining ones and survive. Flower Demon and Tree Demon were killed.

Don't be careless, the following flower demon and tree demon are all Tier 3, Tier 3~! "

It's okay that the archers of the Jagged Brotherhood didn't hear this sentence. When they heard this sentence, they felt that the creatures in the different world had some dishes. The third-tier ones were beaten like this by them, and they all felt meaningless. The bows and arrows were soaked with the venom on the waist, and they were shot in batches. As a result, many tree demons and flower demons who had escaped the flames were discovered.

After they emptied the 50 arrows in their quiver, Zhuojiu called again and asked: "Boss, can I enter the ground to fight."

"Don't worry." Lu Yang replied, and at the same time connected the three leaders of the Harpy Legion, and asked: "Where is the enemy?"

"It is 30 kilometers away from Shekou, and it continues to flee to the northeast." A harpy leader said.

Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth, and said, "The White Lion, Zhou Tianming, and Half a Life of Love each lead the Fire Lion Warrior to the Flower Demon area, and cooperate with the dirty wine to annihilate the remaining enemies. Remember, everything is based on safety, then People of the three races will not be able to return in a short time."

At this time, the warriors of the three legions of Orcs, Fire Demons, and Scorpion Men were all dumbfounded. After walking more than 30 kilometers along the way, they didn't even see a beast, not even a big bug.

Not only that, there was no river water around . The location of the reservoir provided by Wang Shijie before. After they went there, the reservoir collapsed, and the water inside was nowhere to be found, leaving only the dry and cracked ground in the reservoir.

“Damn, what the **** did human beings do? How can they destroy nature like this.” Zayeli, the head of the jackal head orc, roared.

The patriarch of Fire Demon and Scorpion were speechless, and they were also shocked by the scene in front of them. All the surrounding mountains were burned out, there were no animals or plants, and they were terribly desolate.

“We must find the water source as soon as possible, otherwise, our combat effectiveness will become weaker and weaker, and we will not be able to fight the flies above our heads.” The Scorpion Clan Chief Coaster pointed to the harpy in the sky and said with a gloomy expression.

“Cowardly race, I didn’t expect them to surrender to humans.” Fire Demon Patriarch Magmat cursed.

As the three raised their heads angrily at the harpy in the sky, a jackal-head orc sentry in the distance ran over and shouted excitedly: “Leader, there is a water source on the mountain in front.”

Zayeli, Coster and others all showed excited expressions, but when they were about to run up the mountain to have a look, the jackal head orc sentry suddenly fell to the ground and vomited. Not long after, a mouthful of black blood spurted out and died!

Chapter 2230: The strange state of virtue does not taste the corpse

“Damn it, this is poisonous, who did it?” Zayeli was extremely furious, and the years of fighting made it easy for him to recognize that this was a poisoned death.

Magmat frowned and said, “Could it be possible that besides humans, there are other creatures on earth that can harm orcs?”

Zayeli looked at Coster. Coster, who was the patriarch of the Scorpionman, frowned and walked to the dead orc warrior. He checked carefully and said, “There are no external wounds. It was not stung or bitten by something. It should have been eaten.” What or what you drank.”

As soon as the voice fell, the faces of Zayeli, Magmat and Coster showed horrified expressions at the same time. At that moment, their bodies seemed to be hit by an electric current.

“No, the water is poisonous.” Zayeli strode towards the mountain, where there were more than a dozen other subordinates.

Magmat and Coster also ran up, but by the time the three of them ran to the top of the mountain, it was already too late. More than a dozen orcs had fallen to the ground, their faces black and their mouths vomiting black blood.

“Roar~!” Zayeli bared his mouth full of fangs furiously, and roared fiercely towards the Shekou position, and roared: “Lu Yang, I must kill you with my own hands and ask God to throw your soul into blood purgatory. .”

Every orc warrior who followed Zayeli was personally selected by him, and they were also the strongest warriors in the clan.

Compared with the fertile land of the human world, the other world is in turmoil all year round, and the living environment is extremely poor. It takes at least 7 years to train a Tier 2 fighter who has experienced the test of blood and fire. These excellent fighters did not die on the battlefield. He died in Lu Yang’s poisonous well, and he was already furious.

Magmat and Coster were a little moved when they saw Zayeli’s appearance. Just when the two of them were thinking about how to persuade Zayeli, the Scorpion patriarch Coste suddenly screamed and said, “Sorry, Lu Yang poisoned this spring water, and he must have poisoned other spring water too. Quickly go down the mountain and send someone to inform our other sentries that you can’t drink mountain spring water. You must wait until I have tested it before drinking it.”

Zayeli and Magmat reacted. They did not care about the orc warriors who died at the mouth of the well. They quickly ran down the mountain, but as soon as they got back down the mountain, they saw six scorpion men and six orc warriors. They lie side by side on the ground, vomiting black blood and black faces.

“Damn, even our Scorpion people can’t handle this poison.” Coster smashed the boulder beside him with a furious punch.

“Send someone to the sentries, don’t let them drink water.” Magmat shouted.

Zayeli and Coster hurriedly issued orders, but they knew in their hearts that the probability of those soldiers surviving was already very low, because they would definitely drink the well water directly when they were thirsty. of.

Sure enough, it didn’t take long for the orcs and scorpion warriors sent out to bring back more than a hundred corpses, all dead.

The Sentinel Squad of the Different World Legion is a group of 12, that is to say, before the battle with humans, the Different World Legion first died of 144 soldiers, plus the previous 12, a total of 156 dead.

Magmat wrinkled his rocky face, and said solemnly, “It seems that our enemy is not as simple as we imagined. We can’t be careless.”

Coster’s scorpion’s tail was constantly swinging, and the black poisonous needles on the tip were exposed. This is a symbol of his extreme anger. He gritted his teeth and roared: “Speed to get out of here, we are going to find food farther away. And water.”

Since Lu Yang can poison the surrounding wells, he can naturally also poison the wells in front. They can’t find water and food within the East China Sea. They must go farther, and the speed must be fast.

If the Jagged Brothers fight for damage at this time, once they stop them, the orc warrior can hold on for three days without food, but if there is no water, if they hold on for two days, they will lose two-thirds. Combat effectiveness.

Zayeli and Magmat looked at each other, and both thought that Coster’s words were reasonable. They looked around. Although the surroundings were still red and the mountains were full of black-ash burnt vegetation, they still felt like they were all soldiers.

“The whole army accelerates forward and leaves this area.” Zayeli shouted.

“Run at full speed, let’s go elsewhere to find water.” Coaster shouted.

“The Fire Demon Legion advances.” Magmat ordered.

The horns of the Tri-Clan Corps sounded at the same time, and the 90,000 army evacuated further away, and the commander of the Harpy Corps Oberto, who was broadcasting live with a camera in the sky, quickly contacted Lu Yang and said: “Report boss, The enemies of the three major races in the different world poisoned more than 150 people by drinking the spring water, and now the entire army is fleeing to the L8 area.”

Lu Yang also saw the escaped enemy through the video. He sighed with relief, smiled at Fei Yang beside him and said, “We finally survived the first stage.”

A smile appeared on Fei Yang’s serious face, and he nodded vigorously, and said, “This is a great victory. I want to tell the people in the city and I will show them the video.”

Under the red moon night, there is a cloud of sadness in Donghai City. If the video of this victory is given to them, it will quickly boost the confidence of the people in Donghai City.

Lu Yang also thought it was necessary to do this. After handing over this matter to his hands, he asked Fei Yang to check the situation of each position, and he continued to stay in place.

It wasn’t that Lu Yang didn’t want to go out to fight, but that he really didn’t know if the enemy had any other players, especially the enemy’s strongest fighters had not yet appeared.

I have seen myself launching an attack in the strongest form of the third-order fire demon, and the terrifying power that it caused is not something that the Shekou defensive position can withstand. A wave of lava fireballs can turn the position into ruins.

If the enemy really teleports the stronger one-level, spirit-level creatures after the fire demon, it will be the time for Lu Yang to fight to the death. Although he is standing still, the eight original fire demon in his body have already been mobilized. , Once a spirit-level creature appears, he will throw a lava spear.

The Three-Eyed Demon Flower is also rooted in the soil of the Demon Temple, ready to appear in the form of a big tree at any time, launching the strongest attack, Red Night is also mobilizing the magic power in the body, ready to launch the third-order dragon that the Blazing Demon God taught him. Strong fire spells.

But from the night to the day of the next day, the spirit-level creature still did not appear, which made Lu Yang frown, while another matter made Lu Yang worry.

“Boss, take a look at it, you don’t taste the corpse...” The white wolf ran over with an embarrassment on his face.

Lu Yang asked, “What’s wrong?”

White Wolf scratched his head and said, “You should go and see for yourself, I don’t understand.”

Lu Yang frowned. It was the first time that White Wolf had such a situation, and said, “Where? Take me.”

Debumeishi is one of Lu Yang’s most valued brothers. In the game, he was the commander of the Archdruid legion and one of Lu Yang’s best helpers. Twisted time and space appeared, and Debumeishi remained silent. He was involved in the war, and he was in charge of more than 200 people. He had never made a request to Lu Yang and shouted bitterness. He couldn’t let his brother have an accident.

The White Wolf also knew how important the corpse was in Lu Yang’s heart. He ran and said, “It’s in the infirmary.”

The infirmary is on the third floor of the central fortress. There are many more than 200 priests of the Holy Light system. They were very leisurely during this battle, but at this time they all looked sad because a special patient appeared in front of them.

De Bumeishi sat on the hospital bed and looked at dozens of people around him with curious expressions. He was speechless, because at this time, his whole body had turned pale green, his eyebrows and hair were green, and his arms Plant-like vines constantly grow from the sky, constantly twisting in the air, like snakes.

An archer with a bow and arrow on his back was sitting beside Debumeishi and weeping, "Brother, I'm sorry, I won't live if you die."

De Bumei Zhe looked at the archer speechlessly, and said impatiently: "Fuck you, I tried it voluntarily. It has nothing to do with you. You guys don't even look at it. Am I okay?"

The head of the pastor regiment, Guan Qingfeng, turned out to be the voice of the archbishop pastor heaven in the game. He scratched his head and said, "All indicators are normal. I want to say something is wrong. I really can't tell, but I want to say you are okay. , I don't believe it myself, you can't go out to meet people."

"It doesn't matter, I can continue to fight. Besides, I still feel that my strength has indeed improved a bit." De Buqian corpse jumped off the hospital bed indifferently.

As soon as he was about to leave, the White Wolf led Lu Yang in and ran in. When he separated the crowd and saw Debu taste the corpse, Lu Yang was startled and asked, "How did you do this."

The archer quickly walked two steps to Lu Yang, looked at Lu Yang with hopeful eyes, and said, "Boss, it's all my fault. You can save the corpse. I always feel that he is dying."

Lu Yang frowned and looked at the Sagittarius. This man was the Prison Guard Pluto, the commander of his special army, the Starbreaker Sagittarius Legion in the game.

"What the **** is going on, tell me quickly." Lu Yang asked anxiously.

The Hell King slapped his head and said bitterly, "I blame me, don't I think the Flower Demon is Tier 3? I thought that eating their rhizomes would improve the strength of some Wood Mage, so I found a few flowers. Demon's rhizomes were fried in a dish for Debu Taste Corpse to eat, and it turned out..."

De Bu Taste the corpse looked at Lu Yang with a smile, and said, "Boss, I ate it voluntarily. It's delicious."

Lu Yang wanted to kill the two of them, and said, "Sit down first and let me see what's going on."

Guan Qingfeng walked over and showed Lu Yang the various statistics of Debuqun's corpse. Lu Yang pretended to be listening. In fact, he found the Blazing Demon God and asked, "Thank you, please, help me, what's the matter with my brother? Now, the grass grows on my head."

The Blazing Demon God was meditating, preparing to help Lu Yang fight the spirit-level creatures. Hearing that he looked through Lu Yang's eyes to Debu Taste the corpse. When he saw Debu Taste the corpse, he couldn't help but smile, and said : "You don't know whether to say that he is lucky or bad, you can only say that he is dead."

"What's the matter?" Lu Yang asked anxiously.

Chapter 2231: Seed of Nature

The Blazing Demon God said: "This is called alienation. The reason is that the corpse ate the seeds of nature. This thing is that natural gods such as the Flower God and the Tree God use their divine power to extract a large amount of energy from the Tree Demon and the Flower Demon. The seeds that come out can quickly increase the user's level within a short time, and the highest level can reach the third or even the fourth level.

Sure enough, these gods started to make small moves. The flower demon should pretend to use his divine power to enhance the strength of the flower demon under him, but secretly hide the seed of nature in some of the flower demon. Once the East China Sea is defeated, only need to The seeds of nature are distributed, and within half a year, the flower demon will reach the peak of Tier 3 or even Tier 4. At that time, they can create tens of thousands of Tier 3 flower demon warriors and even Tier 4 flower demon warriors, fire demon. The tribe, the orc tribe, and the scorpion tribe will be easily wiped out by the flower demon. The flower demon wants to monopolize this area. "

Lu Yang understood it, and asked, "Is there a way to crack it? Debujin's corpse can't live like this forever."

The Blazing Demon God shook his head and said: "There is no way. There should be a natural seed in his body now. Ask him if he is about to get into his soul sea."

Lu Yang looked at the dead body, raised his hand to stop Voice of Heaven's inspection report, and asked, "Is there a seed-like thing in your body that is digging into your soul sea."

De Buchang thought that Lu Yang couldn't find it out. He was stunned when he heard the words, and nodded and said, "There is indeed a seed-like thing that has been digging into my head. I'm desperately suppressing him, but I can't suppress it. ."

The Blazing Demon God sneered and said: "How can he suppress the seed of nature and let him accept the seed of nature, but in the short term, he cannot use magic, and slowly let the soul core absorb the energy of the seed of nature. After that, the corpse will become a human similar to the elves."

Lu Yang asked, "Can't you become a human again?"

The Blazing Demon God said: "Whoever lets him eat indiscriminately, the flower demons dare not eat it directly, but he eats it. If he can become an elf human being, he will be fortune-telling. Dare to use magic indiscriminately in time, causing the seeds of nature to be quickly absorbed into the body. Although he can quickly become a third-order peak power, his result is a big tree, and he can't even change his human form."

Seeing that Lu Yang didn't speak for a long time, he asked anxiously, "Boss, am I finished?"

Lu Yang sighed, repeating the words of the Blazing Demon God, and said: "Within half a year, you will stay underground in the Donghai Underground City, and you can't step out even one step."

"How can I do it?" De Bumei was anxious and said: "The boss and the brothers are fighting, how can I stay stunned."

Lu Yang snorted coldly, and said with a smile: "It's good to survive. When you are really alone, it doesn't make any sense for you to become a big tree. Rest at ease. I hope to see it after half a year. A Tier 3 corpse appeared in front of me."

“Okay~ okay.” De Bumei said helplessly.

The prison king rushed to the body of Debumei and wailed, saying: “Brother, I must kill the enemy desperately on the battlefield to kill your share.”

It doesn't matter if Debu tastes the corpse. He can feel the strength increasing. At this critical moment, saving the East China Sea is the most important thing. He doesn't care about personal gains or losses. He said: “I don't blame you, we are brothers. ”

The Prison King was crying and whirling.

Lu Yang laughed, kicked the prison king, and said with a smile: “Hurry up and take me to find those rhizomes and seeds. Don't eat anymore. If you find it, you will pay off, and if you can't find you, you will accompany Virtue. Taste the corpse and go to the ground to practice.”

“Don't, boss, I'll take you there.” The Prisoner Zhenzhen led Lu Yang away quickly, waving his hand at Debuchang's corpse with a look of dismay before going out.

But war waits for no one. Everyone knows that when the red moon night disappears and there is no longer a red light to illuminate the sky at night, it is when the orcs, scorpion people and fire demons launch an attack.

The Hell King led Lu Yang to their residence. On the dining table, there were prepared dishes made from Flower Demon rhizomes, and there were a large number of natural seeds and Flower Demon rhizomes in the nearby kitchen.

Lu Yang let people receive them all from the secret warehouse, and then asked the Underworld King Fei to fly him to the canyon area where the Flower Demon and Tree Demon died. In a place where a 10-meter deep hole was exploded, he found a huge Flower demon corpse.

The roots of this flower demon have been completely blown up, leaving only the flower stem and a huge globular body, which is a sign before the production of the flower demon warrior.

The Blazing Demon said: "In this sphere, all are the seeds of nature."

A black dagger appeared in Lu Yang's hand, slashing the sphere with a single knife, and countless light green seeds rolled out. Their shells still exuded a faint luster, and they looked very beautiful.

The Prison King said excitedly: "This is the thing."

Lu Yang looked at the turbid wine coming behind him, and said, "Collect them all and put them in a confidential warehouse. They cannot be used by any wood mage until the best way to use it has been worked out."

"Yes." With a serious expression on the turbid wine, he personally took the person to pack the seed of nature into the backpack. After careful counting, there were more than 300 in total.

Lu Yang continued to search around and found 9 such huge spheres. In the end, a total of 3,212 Seeds of Nature were found. After receiving the backpack, he personally led the team back to the dungeon and sent them to Grant's place. In the confidential warehouse on the first floor.

When Lu Yang was about to return, suddenly his phone rang. Seeing that Xiao Liang was calling, he quickly pressed the call button and asked, "Are you here?"

Xiao Liang said: "Boss, the transmitter has been flashing."

"I'm in the underground city, come here now." Lu Yang quickly hung up the phone, quickly took the elevator, entered the password and then went to the floor where Xiao Liang was.

As soon as the silver-white elevator door opened a gap, a dazzling icy blue light shot in, which made Lu Yang even more excited.

When the elevator door was fully opened, Lu Yang was not allowed to cover his eyes to see what was going on inside. Xiao Liang and hundreds of junior members of the Jagged Brotherhood were guarding around with their backs to the teleporter. The elevator entrance was led by Xiao Liang and the two A second-tier pinnacle master personally guarded.

Seeing Lu Yang walking out of the elevator, Xiao Liang heaved a sigh of relief and stepped forward and said, "It has just started to emit a strong light, and it has been going on like this, I don't know what's going on."

The Blazing Demon said: "This is a prompt to open the teleportation array of the merchant of the mechanical plane. It seems that within a few days, the merchant will be teleporting over."

"I will guard it myself, Xiao Liang, go to the warehouse and find a batch of sunglasses." Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief, and said with some peace of mind.

Xiao Mingliang went into the elevator to look for sunglasses by himself.

Chapter 2232: wait

Lu Yang sat in the same place and waited, while he was also waiting for the front report, anxious but there was no way.

"Dididi"

The sound of the intercom was a video call from Oberto, commander of the Harpy. He pressed the access button and asked, "What's the situation?"

It stands to reason that the intercom should be connected all the time, but the power of the intercom is limited, and no one knows how long they need to track the enemy. Therefore, Lu Yang asked them to connect only when reporting the situation.

After Oberto saw Lu Yang in the video, he immediately reported: "Master, the enemy has ran to the junction between the L8 area and Saddle City, where there are large mountains and dense forests that have exceeded our surveillance range."

Lu Yang said, "Let me take a look at the following situation."

Oberto pointed the camera of the communicator at the bottom. Through the video, it can be seen that below the 800 altitude where Oberto is, there is an endless mountain with lush forests overgrown.

At the turn of spring and summer, the mountains are full of pink flowers, which are very beautiful, but this also blocks the sight of the harpy. You can only occasionally see the orcs, scorpions and fire hiding under the trees through the gaps in the shade. The figure of the devil.

Lu Yang sighed. It was really impossible to chase after him. When the mountain was set on fire, the Zhuojiu and others did their best. There were too many mountains in the surrounding area. They had to kill the monster training newcomers, poison the river and kill the surrounding area. The wild beasts used the tactics of stiffening the walls and clearing the fields. There were a total of 40,000 people, and they were divided into two areas to work. They could burn all the forests and trees around the East China Sea and Dan City, which is already pretty good.

When the L8 area is reached, only poisoning is left, and there are not enough manpower to set the fire. As for the mountains between the L8 area and Saddle City, there is indeed no manpower to set the fire.

This mountain range belongs to the Qianshan Mountain Range in Anshi. The mountain is gentle and not steep, but the trees are very dense and tall. Hidden inside and walking for hundreds of kilometers, you can't see a trace in the air.

Lu Yang said: "Stay in place and only send a small number of people to patrol the Fengshi area opposite the mountain range. Don't enter the dense forest, and don't stay in the air for too long. The fire demon hasn't taken any action yet."

Many of the fire demon coming this time must be Tier 3. He has personally experienced how strong the fire demon is at this level. Once the harpy dares to stay in the air for more than 10 seconds, he can summon. Extinguish the sky fire and hit the opponent.

What's more, there is a bursting fireball hidden in the barrel-shaped body of the fire demon's back. The height of the second-tier hit is more than 500 meters, and the third-tier strength is increased by fifty times as the base. It is impossible to hit 5,000 meters, but one or two thousand. It can be hit within meters.

When the second-tier bursting fireball bursts in the air, it can cover 50 meters of the surrounding space, and the third-tier covers an area of at least about 100 meters. If you are not careful, this harpy army will be wiped out. Possible.

Lu Yang finally recruited such an air force in another world, he didn't want to let the opponent die just like that.

But when I heard this in Oberto's ears, it was a different feeling. For Oberto, he is now a slave, and, from his birth to growing up, to fighting everywhere, and finally to the human world, No one had ever told him to pay attention to safety. All his elders and generals told him to be brave, fight for honor, fight for gods, and would rather die than take a step back.

Now that Lu Yang said that they should pay attention to their own safety, Oberto felt a strange warmth in his heart. It was a warmth that he had never had before. He subconsciously said, "Boss, rest assured, we will pay attention."

Lu Yang was taken aback. Only the brothers of the Jagged Brotherhood would tell Lu Yang. Oberto's words surprised him a bit. He smiled and said, "Keep working hard. When you win the celebration party, I personally celebrate for you."

After speaking, Lu Yang hung up the phone.

On the other side, Oberto was even more moved. Slaves like them can still get rewards. It is completely impossible in another world. He has a feeling that surrendering to humans is a very good decision.

"Your Excellency, what are we going to do now?" Camiga, the deputy commander of the Harpy, flew over and asked.

Oberto said: "Lu Yang ordered us to protect our own safety. The large troops stay in front of the mountains to prevent the enemy from counterattacking. A team of people went to Fengshi area to investigate and see if the enemy came over."

Camega was also stunned. He also thought that Lu Yang's order was to force them to enter the forest to determine the enemy's whereabouts.

"Lu Yang, ah no, did the master really say that?" Camega asked in surprise.

Oberto nodded and said: "I personally go to Fengshi. You stay here. If I accidentally die in battle, the Harpy brothers will be handed over to you. Remember, we are no longer gods. Fighting for honor and race, we only live for ourselves."

Camiga nodded and said, "I see."

Oberto yelled, and took 20 hawks to a higher height, flying high over the mountains, towards Feng City.

Under the shade of the trees in the mountains below, the scorpion patriarch Coste, the jackal head orc patriarch Zayeli, and the fire demon patriarch Magmat are leading a large number of elite warriors staring at the eagle in the sky through the blades. Person.

They wanted to launch a sneak attack on the harpy when they entered the dense forest. More than 2,000 fire demons had brewed a burst of flames, and only waiting for the opponent to land, the orc warriors were also ready to throw out the star steel throwing axes in their hands.

But to their surprise, most of the hawks stayed where they were, but a small number of hawks flew away over the mountains.

"What's going on? The enemy doesn't need to detect us?" Zayeli couldn't understand this non-detection behavior.

Magmat frowned and said, "Perhaps this is where humans are different from us. Forget it, since they don't detect us, we will continue to retreat, and quickly find water and food to replenish our strength. It's a waste of time."

The scorpion patriarch Coste's eyes were full of insidiousness, and he cursed: "When the red moon night disappears, that is, when the East China Sea perishes, I will let them know what the scorpion's venom smells like."

Both Zayeli and Magmat couldn't help frowning, and there was even a trace of fear in their hearts. Even the strong orcs and the rock-body fire demon, once they are shot into the body by the scorpion man's poison, they only need a short Within a few minutes, you will die.

This kind of death cannot be rescued by the Holy Light spell, nor can it be burned by fire, because this toxin directly destroys the magical elements in the organism. The scorpion race is a race born in another world. , Is produced by the planet to eliminate organisms that they think is harmful to the planet.

Zayeli and Magmat were struck, and both died within a few minutes. The only thing that could break the toxin was a blue-rayed grass called blue blood grass, and the earth didn't have this kind of grass. .

When the red moon night disappeared, the orcs were the main force, carrying the star steel shield and bearing the artillery frontally, and the scorpion people quickly climbed the mountains with their special body structure. Once they boarded the Shekou position from the side, at that time, the Shekou position was finished. NS.

Chapter 2233: 3 great spirit-level powerhouses appeared

With this idea, the patriarchs of the three clans and their fighters still did not see humans in their eyes, only if it was an intelligence error that caused them to temporarily retreat, but when they could attack, humans would surely perish.

One day and one night later, the soldiers of the three races retreated to the Fengshi area. What made them angry is that the water source here was also poisoned. Just when they felt helpless, a group of humans appeared in front of them.

The head is a beautiful woman, and behind her is an old foreigner. These two people are not others, they are Tao Ran, a believer in the Temple of Nature, and Bagley, a big liar.

After the two people were deliberately released by Lu Yang, Tao Ran thought that Lu Yang didn't find them, but Bagley knew that he insisted on undercover, and Lu Yang let Tao Ran leave alive.

The two took advantage of the opportunity of the Jagged Brothers League to continue to attack Fengshi. They have been hiding in Fushi, which is the L10 area, where there is a temporary base in the Temple of Nature. When they arrived, they happened to meet the six hiding in it. A member of the Temple of Nature.

In order to rebuild the temple, Tao Ran went to six surrounding cities and rescued the other temple members from the secret base. It was a lot of hard work.

After that, they gathered all the materials and hid them in the underground base in Fu City, waiting for the opportunity. Now the red moon night has arrived, Tao Ran has the aura of a temple, and the gods of another world naturally lock Tao Ran.

After confirming that Tao Ran and the others did not rebel, the natural kings gave Tao Ran new powers and ordered her to quickly support the army of the Orcs, Fire Demons, and Scorpion Humans. Need a guide urgently.

As a result, Tao Ran rushed over, and now met in Fengshi area, Tao Ran's body was exuding the supernatural power bestowed by the Wind Element God King, so that the patriarchs of the three tribes and their soldiers could only bow in salute.

"Great divine envoy and spokesperson of God on earth, I sincerely ask you to tell us where there is a suitable resting place." Magmat said respectfully to Tao Ran, kneeling on the ground.

Zayeli and Coster also bowed in salute, but they didn't know what they were thinking.

Tao Ran's strength at this time is already a Tier 3 elementary, and she also has various treasures given by the gods. Whether it is singled or group battle, she thinks she is not afraid of either Zayeli or Coster, and said confidently: "The warriors of the three races will follow me. There is a huge river not far away, where the river is rushing and will not be poisoned."

The eyes of Koster, Zayeli and others were bright, and they were very uncomfortable without drinking water for two days. They hurried to the coast of the Juliu River in the northeast of Feng City with Tao Ran. Watching the rushing river, the soldiers of the three races ran cheerfully. Go into the river and drink stubbornly.

Magmat's fire demons don't have much demand for water. He didn't rush to the river, but squatted beside Tao Ran and asked respectfully: "Your Majesty, where are we going afterwards?"

Tao Ran showed a confident expression. After looking at the big liar Bagley, he said to Marghermat: "From here to the northwest, there is a city full of Warcraft, where there is enough food for you to eat for a year, and There are buildings protected there, even if humans use super weapons to attack, you will not be killed all."

So far, humans have not used super weapons, but when he heard this word, Magmat laughed and said: "If humans use super weapons, it will be fine. My soldiers and I will quickly rise to the spiritual level. Grade, that kind of thing is our best nourishment."

Tao Ran blinked in surprise. She didn't expect this to be the reason. She said with some emotion: "The biggest threat to mankind, I didn't expect it to be your biggest tonic. It's really ironic."

Magmat still showed elegance. Although he was ten meters tall, he was like a gentleman. He said jokingly: "This is the advantage of our race."

Tao Ran nodded, scanned the surroundings, and asked curiously: "God said that some more powerful fighters will be sent, where are they?"

"You're talking about spirit level!" Magmat smiled thicker, and said: "Our spiritual level powerhouse Abacus has arrived, right in the crater of Dan City."

“Already, has arrived?” Bagley asked in surprise.

Magmat was even more proud, and said, “Not only has the fire spirit general Abacus arrived, but also Bicester, the son of the wolf king of the orcs, has arrived.”

“Two?” Tao Ran said in surprise.

“No, it’s three.” Zayeli walked over, frowning and said: “There is also Nemor, the Necromancer, and he should be about to teleport over.”

Who could have imagined that just as the warriors of the three races were entangled with human beings, on the other side, three powerful spirit-class men were heading to the earth through twisted time and space.

The first one is General Fire Spirit Abacus. His teleportation location is in the Dan City Volcano Crater. At this time, half of his body has been drilled out of the teleportation tunnel. His upper body is more than 50 meters long, and his whole body is burning. The terrifying flames caused Wang Shijie, who was kneeling in the distance and waiting for the arrival of Abacus, to be terrified.

It stands to reason that Wang Shijie’s mistake in providing information this time should be killed by the gods, but the gods do not care about the life and death of creatures below the third order. They only care about face. Although the tribe fighters retreated in embarrassment, they attracted the Jagged Brotherhood. All attention.

The gods of the different world took this opportunity to start throwing spirit-level powerhouses. It took Abacus three days before he came out of the upper body, which shows how difficult it is to teleport the spirit-level powerhouses through warped time and space.

The Dark Demon Mandin has already left at this time because, over a large cemetery 200 kilometers away from Dan City, the 100-meter-long Necromancer Nimor also struggled out half of his body, and his body was surrounded by a thick thick body. In the black mist, you can only vaguely see the black helmet worn on top of Naymor’s head. The black mist on his arms continuously turns into chains several meters in diameter and penetrates into the ground, helping him to break out of the twisted time and space.

Bagley and Xue Renyi each looked at the spiritual powerhouse who appeared in front of them at this time, was very anxious and wanted to report the news to Lu Yang, but they had no way to leave, especially Bagley, who had lost contact with Lu Yang for several months.

Xue Renyi had a way to contact, but he was asked to stand there and wait for the fire spirit to come to the world. After thinking for a long time, Xue Renyi finally found an excuse and said to Wang Shijie: "Should we prepare some food for the general in advance? Your Excellency, he came out of the distorted time and space, and he must be in great need of food."

Wang Shijie frowned and asked, "I just asked, he didn't say he needs anything."

Xue Renyi said with a clear expression on his face, and said, "Why would he take the initiative to say this kind of thing, it should be our own comprehension, think about it, how much damage was caused to him by the distortion of time and space, his arm was bleeding. It must have taken a lot of effort. When he comes out, he must be exhausted. At this time, when we deliver the food, he must be happy."

Wang Shijie felt right, and whispered: "You take someone to do it. Get some more."

"Yes." Xue Renyi retired respectfully, his consciousness didn't move at all, because he didn't know how terrifying a spirit-level powerhouse was. In order to ensure safety, he pretended to be extremely religious.

Chapter 2234: Information transmission

Retreating from the high mountain where Twisted Time and Space was located, Xue Renyi quickly ran to the Old Town of Dan City with more than 20 members of the temple.

There are still a small number of monsters in this old city. He looked at these men and said loudly: "A group of three, hunt as many monsters as possible. We must let His Highness Huo Ling feel our respect for him."

"Yes~!" More than twenty people shouted in unison, and their morale rose at this time, as if they had seen the dawn of victory.

Originally, these people had a combat team. After the previous group was disbanded, Xue Renyi ran to the TV station building in the center of Dan with two people.

There was a phone hidden in that building, which was contacted by Xue Renyi and Lu Yang on a single line, and there was also a third-order wolf king in the building, which was reserved by Lu Yang for Xue Renyi's emergency use.

The soul of the wolf king has been enslaved by Xue Renyi, and he can act according to Xue Renyi's instructions at any time. When he brought two temple members to the downstairs of the building, he deliberately walked to the southwest corner.

The glass windows on the third floor there were all broken, and the Tier 3 Wolf King was hiding in the corner of a room on the third floor. He instantly sensed Xue Renyi's call and walked towards the glass window.

Xue Renyi stood in place and looked to the left and right, and said, "Before, Lu Yang's Jagged Brotherhood killed all the monsters in the city. Fortunately, this area is close to the mountains. Many monsters have entered the city from the mountains. Be careful. If we encounter Tier 3, we will do our best to kill, and then we will be able to stand out in front of General Fire Spirit."

The two people who followed him nodded again and again, and a thin man with a sharp-mouthed monkey cheeks said: "As expected of Brother Xue, he is smart. From now on, our two brothers will follow you."

"Yes, yes." The fat man next to him nodded repeatedly.

Xue Renyi had a very happy expression and said, "As long as you follow me sincerely, if there is anything good in the future, I will take you with you."

At the same time, he issued the order, and the Tier 3 wolf king who was already standing by the window leaped fiercely. The nearly ten-meter-long Jiao Fitness body jumped from the third floor, biting half of the thin body in his mouth, and leaning back. With a flick of his head, the thin man's lower body flew into the distance with a mist of blood.

The fat man was shocked when he saw this scene, yelled in horror, and left Xue Renyi to run desperately into the distance.

Xue Renyi sneered at this scene and ordered the Wolf King to chase after him, but not to eat him. After that, Xue Renyi quickly went up to the third floor, found the phone in a pile of broken cement stones, and quickly dialed I got Lu Yang's number.

"Dididi"

Lu Yang was guarding the floor where the mechanical plane merchant was. The phone suddenly rang. He picked it up and saw that it was Xue Renyi calling. He quickly walked to a place where no one was there and pressed the call button, and asked: "What's wrong, how do you use the emergency contact method?"

Xue Renyi said in horror: "Huo Ling, the general Abacus of Huo Ling is crawling out of the twisted time and space near the Dan City volcanic crater. The strength of the spirit class will kill him as soon as possible. I can't wait too long, I have to go. NS."

Lu Yang sighed fiercely in his heart, and said, "Are you sure it's a spirit level?"

"Yes." Xue Renyi said excitedly: "At least 100 meters tall, full of flames, Wang Shijie contacted the alien god, and the other party told him personally, but this general fire spirit is very laborious through warping time and space, and there is a kind of being traumatized. feel."

The Blazing Demon God said in his consciousness: "A spirit-level person will definitely be seriously injured, but near the volcano, you will never kill him. He is a spirit-level. You and my demon-god's heart are united, that is, close to the spirit level. , There is no chance for him to win, it is only possible to lead it to a place outside the volcano.”

Lu Yang nodded and said to Xue Renyi, “Be careful to protect yourself. I will find a way to kill this fire spirit as soon as possible.”

“Yeah.” Xue Renyi nodded heavily, then hung up the phone, looking at the Tier 3 wolf king who was still chasing the fat man in the distance, he was cruel and ran towards the wolf king.

The other side.

Lu Yang just hung up the phone, and the ticking sound rang again. He picked it up and found that it was Oberto who was calling and pressed the connect button.

Oberto made a video call and saw Lu Yang in the picture, and said, “Boss, I tracked down the location of the orc army, but it’s a bit weird, I can’t understand it.”

Lu Yang asked, “What’s wrong?”

Oberto said: “The orcs, scorpions, and fire demon are moving in the direction of L10. It is a group of humans who provide them with guides. The leader is Tao Ran and Bagley. However, just now there was a fight between the human race and Bagley killed him. A person.”

When the members of the Temple of Nature and the Harpy were besieging Fengshi together, Oberto and the others had seen Bagley and Tao Ran and others, and had an impression of them.

Lu Yang asked, “Give me the picture of that person.”

Oberto zoomed in on the video camera and took a picture of the person who was lying on the ground in the air, and then passed it to Lu Yang.

Lu Yang checked carefully and didn't know who this person was. But since Bagley did it, it proved that there must be a reason for this. Bagley must have wanted to pass on some information, but he couldn't pass it on. Use this method.

Lu Yang quickly passed the photo to Fei Yang and said, "Check the details of this person, I want to know all the news about him."

Fei Yang immediately used the official system. It took less than half an hour to find out the person in the photo. He called Lu Yang back and said: "This person's name is Zhang Ling, the third child in the family, and his father is ..."

Lu Yang's heart sank, sighed and said, "I already know what Bagley meant, so I don't need to talk about it anymore."

The meaning was obvious. It meant that the enemy had sent three spirit-level powerhouses. Why Lu Yang understood it this way? It was because Bagley told Lu Yang the story of a spy in World War II.

The spy obtained a very important piece of information, but he could not pass it on, and was hunted down by the enemy. On the day before he was about to be arrested, he killed a person in the village. The name of that person is the content of the information.

Perhaps that person was innocent, but during the war, the spy had to do this. After Bagley said about it, Lu Yang kept it in his heart. He didn't expect Bagley to actually use this method today.

Lu Yang quickly dialed Oberto's phone and said, "Continue to follow up. If any strange things happen again, report to me immediately."

"Yes." Oberto said.

Lu Yang hung up the phone and said to Blazing Demon God with a wry smile: "It turned out to be three spirit-level powerhouses. Are the main gods of another world crazy? What are so many spirit-level powerhouses thrown down in a small place like me? There are also 90,000 orcs, scorpion men, and fire demon coalition forces, how should I fight."

Chapter 2235: Rolled back

The Jagged Brotherhood currently has less than 30,000 members in Tier 2, and all the rest are Tier 1 and Elementary. The number is not dominant, and the strength is far inferior to the opponent. This is the most since Lu Yang entered another world. A difficult war.

Blazing Demon God didn't care, and said to Lu Yang: "This is the best training for you. If you can't even do this, you will never be promoted to Tier 4 fire spirit level."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Don't worry, my willpower is very firm, and my brothers are fearless. Since the birth of ordinary people like us, we are not qualified to be weak. Before the world changed, we were from the bottom of society. I broke out step by step, and today I believe we can do the same. It's just that I need to think about how to deal with this group of enemies."

The place for General Huo Ling to recuperate has been determined. Although the remaining two, although they don't know what they are, Lu Yang can probably guess.

Manding, the patriarch of the dark demon clan, has disappeared. Then, there must be a dark-type spirit-level strong man. Manding is going to serve that strong. It is used to prevent being disturbed during the dark-type spirit-level strong man's healing period. .

In the area around the East China Sea, the dark creatures like to gather is nothing more than the cemetery group. Lu Yang took out the phone and called Fu Yun, saying, "Use satellites to find this Tier 4 powerhouse. I want to know. His specific location."

There are only so many cemeteries around the East China Sea. There are not many that have distorted time and space. They can be easily located by satellite. Even if the other party is hidden and emerges from the distorted time and space, it will cause great damage to the surrounding environment. It's not difficult.

There were also a bunch of spirit-level powerhouses and Tier 2 legions on Fu Yun's side. They were under great pressure and gritted their teeth and said, "Don't worry, I will help you find this spirit-level creature."

“Okay.” Lu Yang hung up and said to Blazing Demon God: “Now there is the last one left.”

The Blazing Demon asked: “How are you going to find it?”

Lu Yang pondered for a long time, and his eyes firmly said: “The last one should be from the Orc. I can only rely on Bagley. If he can find the best and can’t find it, I will kill the other two before that. A spiritual powerhouse.”

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said, “Tell you, I know where the third Spirit-level powerhouse is?”

“Where?” Lu Yang asked hurriedly with some surprise.

The blazing demon said: “I feel the blood of the Protoss right in the wolves’ legion. Congratulations, the last spirit-level powerhouse is not only a spirit-level, but also qualified to grow into a demigod, or even a god-level.”

Lu Yang looked crooked and said, “You still have the thought to laugh at this time. What’s going on?”

The Blazing Demon laughed and said: “It should be the result that these protoss wastes do not trust each other, and they all want to occupy this area of the northeast.

Orcs have had a habit of messing around since ancient times, especially the gods of the orcs. To put it nicely, they like to be merciful at all times. If they are ugly, they want to try everything.

This should be the offspring of an orc quasi-god or the combination of a demigod and a wolf race. I told you before that the blood of quasi-gods and demigods is not very pure. When they are combined with other races, the things that are born are so strange and weird that our orthodox gods look down upon them.

If the quasi-god and demi-god are looking for a low-level partner, maybe the newly-born child has only third-level strength. Generally speaking, such a partner will be killed on the spot, and a small number of cultivated value will stay. I suspect the beast This is the case of the clan, who was thrown into the distorted time and space when he was born.

Also, generally such monsters don't have enough IQ. Although their strength has improved rapidly, they can jump from the third to the fifth, or even the seventh in a short time, but their IQ is no different from the mentally retarded."

Lu Yang's eyes lit up and he said, "So, this is the best way to kill?"

Blazing Demon God said with some emotion: "Perhaps, you have to be prepared for a large number of casualties, even if the child of the gods is a waste, as long as they grow up, they will all be terrifying.

Fortunately, the next time the enemy launches a war, the Orcs will never fight with all their members, and they will also guard against the Scorpion Humans and Fire Demons. You have every opportunity to defeat them."

Lu Yang nodded and said, "It's up to now when Luo Laide will return from another world. As long as he can return in time, I will have every opportunity to break through. Otherwise, just a scorpion man, I will have to pay a heavy price. Price."

The venom of the scorpion man has become a piece of Lu Yang's heart disease, but Luo Laide's teleporter only shines, but nothing comes out, and Lu Yang can't help it in a hurry.

one day

Two days

Three days

After seven days, when the red light in the warped time and space gradually diminished and the red moon night was about to end, Lu Yang still did not wait for Luo Laide, while the sentry of the Orcs, Fire Demon and Scorpion Humans began to be outside the snake's mouth. Wandered away.

In the East China Sea Underground City, on the first floor where the Mechanical Plane merchant was located, Lu Yang remained at the door. For so many days, he had been mobilizing various places through video, and now he was receiving a report on dirty wine.

Zhuojiu said: "Boss, the enemy is looking for the best position to attack Shekou. The red light in the warped time and space is getting smaller and smaller. It seems that it will fade within three days. I suspect that the enemy will launch in three days at the earliest. Offensive, you can't be here without you, you still have to come back."

Lu Yang was very anxious, and said, "Wait another three days, before the enemy launches an attack, I will definitely come back."

"Okay." Zhuojiu said.

Lu Yang hung up the phone and continued to wait anxiously, but after three days, Luo Laide did not wait, but the army of the three clans arrived.

Oberto, commander of the Harpy Corps, broadcast live video along the way, exposed the routes and hidden places taken by the tribal armies.

Different from the previous style of play, the three clans did not line up 90,000 troops in front of the Shekou formation, but concealed them in the mountains 20 kilometers away.

Here is the attack range of heavy artillery, but it can't hit the enemy hiding behind the mountain, but the tri-families can attack at any time.

The turbid wine looked at the sky almost completely black, and the distorted time and space 6 kilometers away, there was only one red dot left, as if a lighted match would be extinguished at any time.

"Boss, the enemy will launch an offensive today, and you have to come back." Zhuojiu said solemnly. He can't direct this war. All aspects of the mobilization need to be organized by Lu Yang himself.

Lu Yang looked back at the teleporter behind him, there was still a blue and white light, but the light was dimmed a lot, as if it would go out at any time, he sighed and said, "I will go back now."

Just about to put down the phone, the rapid horn sounded on the side of the dirty wine, that was the sound of the orc about to attack, and at the same time, the teleporter behind Lu Yang suddenly burst out with fierce light.

Chapter 2236: Countless treasures

A blue-white twisted space-time with a diameter of 20 meters was formed in front of the transmitter, instantly destroying all the floors and ceilings of the upper and lower floors of the dungeon. At the same time, a huge silver-gray with a diameter of 15 meters and a length of more than 80 meters was destroyed. The spacecraft suddenly flew out of the twisted time and space and landed in the hall.

"Protect the boss, prepare to fight." Xiao Liang thought that the enemy was coming, and he stood in front of Lu Yang for an instant, holding a large shield and looking at the spaceship warily.

Nearly a hundred soldiers from the Jagged Brotherhood in the room set up a defensive formation at the same time, but before long, the hatch on the side of the spacecraft opened, and the blue-skinned Lord was not wearing armor and stood there laughing.

"My brother, I'm back." Rodriguez said loudly with open arms.

Lu Yang's eyes lit up, and he quickly signaled Xiao Liang not to be nervous, and ran towards Luo Laide. The two met under the bridge. Although Luo Laide was only half of Lu Yang's height, the two squeezed them firmly. arm.

"Brother, you can be regarded as coming back, I am anxious to death." Lu Yang said excitedly.

Luo Laide was even more excited, and said: "I know you are in a hurry, but I can't come here in advance. I don't know what's going on. The news that I came to do business with you spread in another world, and many protoss are looking for me, but They don't know what I look like, so I have escaped many times.

Also, the high-levels of our mechanical planes are also catching people who do business with you privately. It seems that something went wrong on your side. "

Lu Yang frowned and said, "It should be that I still have an agent here. I haven't found out. When you came by sea that day, the agent should have seen you among the people on the shore, but you were wearing armor and you couldn't see your face."

Luo Laide nodded, looked at Xiao Liang and others behind Lu Yang, and asked, "Are these people reliable?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "There is nothing more reliable than them. They are all my best brothers."

Luo Laide nodded and said, "Then I can rest assured, look at the things I brought you. Among them are the blue blood plants you need most."

Blue grass, the only herbal medicine that restrains the scorpion man's toxin, Lu Yang said excitedly: "How many are there."

Luo Laide snapped his fingers, and there was a metal crash at the door of the cabin, and silver-gray combat dolls about 3 meters in height came out from inside.

There is a huge magic core on the foreheads of these combat puppets, which are Tier 3, and they carry a gray-black bag on one side in their hands.

Luo Laide and other combat dolls came behind him. He took a bag in the hands of the doll and said to Lu Yang: "The storage bag of the magic plane here, don't look at the small bag, the space inside is 400 cubic meters. , It's all blue blood plants."

Lu Yang knew about this thing. The Blazing Demon God used to talk with him. The usage was very simple. Input the magic power in the body to open the bag.

He took a bag and opened it. Suddenly, bundles of herbs emitting blue light poured out.

Luo Laide excitedly drew out a half-meter-long blue blood grass, and said: "One bundle is 100, and the storage bags in the hands of the first three dolls are filled with blue blood grass. The number is enough for 50,000 people. 30 times.

I asked over there that once you are poisoned, you just have to take a bite and eat it, and you won't be poisoned again within three days after eating."

Lu Yang was really like a treasure, and said, "Brother, you did a great job, and you helped me a lot."

"What's this?" Luo Laide was extremely proud at this time, watching Lu Yang and said, "Do you know what the seven puppets are holding in their hands?"

Lu Yang shook his head and said, "Hurry up, I'm going to die in a hurry. The enemy is already in front of my defensive position."

With a mysterious smile on the corner of Luo Laide's mouth, he stared at Lu Yang and said, "Don't worry, you first listen to me slowly."

He took the storage bag in the hands of the fourth puppet. After opening it, he poured out a crystal the size of a red suitcase and said, "Look at what this is?"

"Magic Crystal?" Lu Yang asked in surprise.

Luo Laide shook his head triumphantly, and said, "I wanted to sell it, but seeing you in such a hurry, I won't tease you anymore. This thing is translated into your language and is called the Flame Crystal for the time being. It is a third-tier building. Necessary material for an offensive magic circle."

Lu Yang's eyes widened, and he said, "How many are there? How did you exchange it?"

Luo Laide excitedly pointed to the five puppets behind him and said: "The flame crystal, ice crystal, storm crystal, earth demon crystal, tree demon crystal, each has 1000 pieces, open it up, and once a crystal is built into a magic array, You can release 200 third-order spells. In this battle, you can't lose with me."

Lu Yang couldn't be more excited, he really didn't wait in vain. With these things, the number of his brothers killed in battle will be greatly reduced.

He grabbed Rodriguez's shoulder and said, "Now that I have this is enough to win this battle. Go to the front with me. On the road, tell me how you did it."

He doesn't know how to set up the magic circle. Luo Laide has the manual, and he helps to build it the fastest.

Luo Laide is also a curious person who is interested in war. He took out the mecha from the storage bag behind him, and instantly turned into a robot with a height of more than 2 meters.

"Let's go." Luo Laide said.

Lu Yang looked at Xiao Liang behind him, and said, "Block this floor and wait until we come back."

Xiao bright spot head.

Lu Yang brought a dozen storage bags to the outside with his subordinates, then he summoned Hong Ye and threw all the storage bags on Hong Ye's back. He also jumped onto Hong Ye's back and said : "Go to Shekou."

Hong Ye leaped and flew into the air, and Luo Laide was no slower than Lu Yang. His mech could actually fly. It was still an anti-gravity mech, and he didn't look at fire or jets, and it flew easily. In the air, he could still fly beside Lu Yang instead of falling on Hong Ye's back.

The dragon race has a special character, except for the owner, seldom allows other creatures to appear on his back, this time making him angry.

Luo Laide knew the rules very well, so he floated on the back of Red Night and explained to Lu Yang how to get these treasures.

“When I arrived at the plane of magic, I used the combat puppet as a stand-in, and went to a few middle-class races that I had good friends with.

All of these races have quasi-gods or subordinate gods serving in the temple. Therefore, these races are very powerful and are rarely invaded by other races.

The land they occupy is also very large, fifty times larger than the entire East China Sea, and their city is far larger than the East China Sea.

But all the creatures in this city, their daily life is to eat and practice spells, and there is almost no entertainment. I used an old-fashioned DVD that you gave me, in exchange for a complete third-order offensive in an aristocratic warehouse. The law formation, a DVD disc, was exchanged for a flame crystal.”

Lu Yang was a little confused, smiled and asked, “Are there so many babies in their warehouse?”

Luo Laide nodded and said: “Many, the magic plane has experienced a great catastrophe, the war between the new gods and the old gods, the old gods were defeated, and all the races that followed the old gods were slaughtered.

The race that followed the old gods had existed for millions of years, and the treasures accumulated in the warehouse were countless, such as these Tier 3 things, which were of no value to them.”

The Blazing Demon God heard a voice in Lu Yang’s mind, saying: “Don’t ask him if the race of the old **** is left. This may reveal the existence of the old **** in your body. No matter how reliable this person is, you can’t expose it. This will bring a devastating blow to the East China Sea.”

Lu Yang knew this, and said, "I was worried that you would ask before, so I can rest assured."

The Blazing Demon God snorted coldly, and said: "If you raise two more levels, you will have the strength to travel back and forth into the magic plane, I'm not in a hurry."

Lu Yang nodded and looked at the area ahead. He was already at the Shekou defensive position, controlling Hong Ye to fall on the central fortress. He looked at the dim red moon night that was about to disappear in the distance, and his eyes grew more and more firm.

Chapter 2237: The war is coming

Zhuo Jiu, Fei Yang and others were observing the outside situation at the top of the central fortress at this time, and when they saw Lu Yang coming, they greeted them one after another.

"Brother, you are here, but I am so anxious." Fei Yang was a little incoherent, and he pulled Lu Yang, who jumped off the lead, and said, "What are you waiting for? It took so long."

The corner of Lu Yang's mouth was curved, and he looked at Fei Yang and Zhuojiu with a smile, and said, "Wait for this person next to me. He is a businessman on the mechanical plane. This time he has brought us an extremely important treasure. It's a win this time."

As soon as the voice fell, she ran over with a person behind her back for half a lifetime, and shouted as she ran: "Doctor, call a doctor, someone was stung by a scorpion man."

There are medical staff on the top of the building, because the Shekou defensive position is in a concave shape. The central fortress is located in the middle of the concave shape, and the protruding mountains on both sides are higher than the central fortress. Whenever a wounded is transported over, the small door running into the top of the fortress was too troublesome, so some medical staff were placed on the top of the building, and a simple tent was set up here to treat patients.

Zhuojiu, Fei Yang and others looked at the bitter love that came over for half a lifetime, with a look of helplessness and regret. In the past three days, when the Scorpion Man was exploring the way outside the Shekou defensive position, they had met with the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood. Took a few hands.

Every time I have my brother injured. It is not because the opponent's attack method is so clever, or because the opponent has an extra tail. At the beginning, Lu Yang's subordinates will also pay attention, but if the opponent has a tail, they will forget. NS.

The result is often stabbed by the poisonous needle on the tail, and then within a few minutes, the poisoned warrior will lose combat effectiveness, because the humans on the earth are not degenerated and multiplied by the elemental creatures, so the poisoned warrior can still. Once he was rescued, he couldn't use spells. Once he used the spells, he would suffer a severe backlash.

During the last three days Lu Yang waited in the Donghai Underground City, he received such information every day. He was also anxious. Now that something like this happened again, Lu Yang quickly took out one from a storage bag. The blue blood grass quickly ran to the side of the love half a lifetime.

At this time, there were all doctors and nurses around. Lu Yang squeezed into the soldier and took a closer look. It turned out to be Fang Xin. Before the world change, the deputy commander of the archbishop and priest of the Jagged Brothers Special Army in the game.

"Boss, I'm sorry, I'm afraid I won't be able to continue fighting for the Brotherhood." Fang Xin's face had turned black and purple, and when he spoke, he kept spitting out blood.

Having been in pain for half a lifetime, Lu Yang looked at Fang Xin with a smile, stuffed a piece of blue blood grass into Fang Xin's mouth, and said, "It's not that easy to be lazy. After eating this, This thing is called blue blood grass, it is specially designed to restrain the scorpion man's poison."

Fang Xin was in grief and anger. He hurriedly chewed the grass and ate it. The moment the blue blood grass juice entered Fang Xin's mouth, the juice quickly entered Fang Xin's body as if it had been atomized. Circulate in the meridians.

In only 1 minute, the purple black on Fang Xin's face faded, and the blood in his mouth stopped vomiting. He stood up on the spot, blinked, patted his body, looked at Lu Yang with some confusion, and said, "Boss, I, I seem to be fine."

A half-life of bitter love, Zhuojiu, Fei Yang and the surrounding medical staff were shocked. Everyone looked at Fang Xin in disbelief. A doctor came up to examine Fang Xin. When he put down his stethoscope, he said in shock. : "Everything in the body is normal, and there is no feeling of weakness, just like no poisoning."

"Boss, how did you do it." The bitter love jumped excitedly for a long time.

Lu Yang took off the storage bag at his waist and said, "The food I ate for Fang Xin just now was blue blood grass. It was specially designed to restrain the scorpion man's poison. Continue to be immune to the venom of the scorpion man for three days."

I couldn't help it anymore, and asked excitedly: "Boss, how many are there?"

Lu Yang said: "It is enough for 50,000 people to use it 30 times. Ask the brothers to come over. I have a plan."

"I'll call them here." Zhuojiu quickly called out excitedly.

Lu Yang opened the storage bag, and bundles of blue blood plants were poured out. Only one storage bag filled one-fifth of the area on the roof of the central fortress.

Baishi, Zhou Tianming, Xia Yuwei, Zhao Cheng, and Bao Buping were taking their brothers to guard on both sides of the concave defensive position, and they learned about it on the way back.

When they returned to the top of the central fortress and saw these blue blood grasses, their eyes flashed. When they came to Lu Yang, they bowed excitedly and shouted, "Boss."

All the words are in these two words, no need to say more, Lu Yang smiled at them and said: "I have waited for the mechanical plane merchant to come back. Blueblood is one aspect, and he also brought back Tier 3 attacks. The formation map of the **** magic circle and the casting crystal."

He took out a red flame crystal from the storage bag beside him, and said: "This thing can release 200 Tier 3 pinnacle spells in one piece."

Zhou Tianming's eyes widened. Among the crowd, he was famous for cherishing his brothers, and said excitedly: "Boss, quickly teach us how to use it. With this thing, we can block the enemy's attack without a problem."

Lu Yang smiled and shook his head, staring at Zhou Tianming and said: "I will not only defend, but also destroy the enemy. Listen carefully. This is the best opportunity. If we miss this time, we want to destroy a lot. The enemy is almost impossible."

"How to do it?" White Lion asked.

Lu Yang opened the three-dimensional map in the phone and projected it in front of him. The current method of the Jagged Brothers guarding Shekou Fortress is to fortify along the mountains on both sides of Shekou. There are 7 main defensive positions and 312 small defensive positions.

He said: "When the enemy is attacking, the orcs will surely make the orcs carry the star steel rush to attract firepower. Even if the heavy artillery hits the orcs' shields, it will not cause too much damage to the orcs, and the enemy will take advantage of it. This opportunity allows the Huo Demon Warrior to get closer to within one kilometer. Then the Huo Demon Warrior will continue to throw bursting flames and cooperate with the Scorpion Man to climb the mountains on both sides of Shekou.

Now the enemy does not know that we have blue blood grass, thinking that a single attack by the Scorpion Man can break the defensive positions on the mountains on both sides of the central fortress. We have to take advantage of the enemy's weakness.

The specific method of play is to take 500 second-order fighters in front of the central fortress to lure the enemy to attack. I set up flame crystal magic arrays in front of the central fortress. The white lion and Zhou Tianming led the rest of the soldiers to eat blue grass. Fight the scorpion people who rushed up on both sides in close combat.

The Heavy Artillery Legion attacked the Fire Demon Legion under the guidance of the Harpy and the Flame Legion. In this battle, no matter how great the sacrifice, we must keep most of the enemy's main force in front of Shekou. Only in this way can the Shekou position be held. , Our home can be kept. "

Zhuo Jiu, Bai Shi, Zhou Tianming and others looked at each other, their eyes were firm, and they nodded to Lu Yang together and said, "Boss, don't worry, we will try our best to keep these bastards."

Lu Yang glanced over each of them and said, "I hope we are still alive after this battle is over. Let's act."

Everyone nodded, and each started to arrange.

Chapter 2238: Interracial War Dance

The mechanical plane merchant followed Lu Yang and set up a magic circle on the hilltops on both sides of the front of the central fortress. A group of 100 mages stood on the square which was drawn by Luolaid, and flame crystals were placed on top of the square. The center of the formation.

Before all the formations were set up, the red light in the distorted time and space in the distance disappeared completely. At the same time, the warriors of the orcs, the scorpion humans and the fire demons hiding behind the high mountains 6 kilometers away, at the same time There was a bloodthirsty look.

Fire demon patriarch Magmat, Scorpion patriarch Coste, and Jackal Orc patriarch Zayeli are at the forefront of the team.

Magmat lowered his rocky face and looked at Zayeli and Coster. First, he said: "According to the predetermined plan, we will follow God's will and attack humanity together, hoping that our first cooperation can be achieved. God's will, let us praise God's greatness together."

This is a ritual that must be done before the war. They are to initiate a war on mankind on behalf of the gods, and they must pray piously to the gods in every battle.

Zayeli drew the sword and held it in both hands, and looked at the sky with a pious face. When he finished praying, he said loudly, "Bring sacrifices."

"Roar~!"

The roar of orc warriors rang out from behind. Hundreds of orc warriors lined up from the dense forest nearby. Eight of them carried a Tier 3 beast, including the fire lion king, the wild boar king, the wolf king, and the bison king. .

These beasts are alive and very strong. There are no visible scars on the outside. When they are carried over, they are struggling desperately, but no matter how hard they are, they can't get rid of the blood trapping their limbs. Red halo.

When both Coster and Magmat saw this scene, their eyes became complicated. Magmat couldn't help but ask: "Your race has produced a godly shaman?"

With a three-point arrogance on his face, Zayeli said, "Not bad."

Divine Grace Shaman, a very special existence among the orcs, they are born to have soul communication with gods.

There are very few such shamans. A race of hundreds of thousands of people can only emerge after decades of reproduction. Once it appears, this race will stand out among the surrounding races.

The **** will teach the god's grace shaman a special kind of spell, called the shaman sacrifice technique, this kind of spell through the extraction of blood energy is extremely terrifying, can make the god's grace shaman exert a strength far beyond other ranks.

For example, the Divine Grace Shaman who passed through the warped time and space was only an early stage of the second stage, but the blood ring he released could easily imprison the third-order beasts, and it could last for so long.

Normally, a divine grace shaman, when he extracts enough blood energy, his strength is not weaker than a Tier 4 intermediate powerhouse, it just takes time.

Coster said: “No wonder the beast **** will send your race to participate in the war among the many orc races. It turns out that this is the reason.”

God’s grace shaman can communicate with beast gods on earth through sacrificial art. As long as the God’s grace shaman does not die, the gods in another world can clearly know the current situation of the East China Sea and can give timely guidance.

Zayeli looked at the Shekou defensive position that was still shining far away, and deliberately said proudly: “Give me another two weeks, even if we don’t go, God’s grace shaman alone can destroy the Shekou defensive position. .”

With a trace of ferocity on his face, Coster said uncomfortably: “There is no need for God Shaman. Those weak human reptiles can only rely on the weapons made by their world to pose a slight threat to us. Tonight, I will Kill them all.”

While talking, Coster’s tail appeared on his shoulder, and the black poisonous needle on it looked chilling.

Zayeli guessed that Coster would say that. Looking at the sacrifice scene not far away, the sacrificial war dance composed of 12 jackal head orcs, 12 scorpion men and 12 fire demon warriors had begun.

The sacrificial war dance of the jackal-head orcs is a special sacrificial action of the red scepter placed on a table by the god-famous shaman. With their dance, the golden scepter emits a strong red light. The smell of blood made the Jackal Head Orcs become more and more excited.

The war dance of the Fire Demon Race consists of 12 powerful Fire Demon warriors kneeling on the ground, burning their bodies with full strength, and chanting ancient elemental spells in their mouths. When the spell is about to be completed, the Fire Demon warriors become extremely weak and collapsed. On the ground, all the Fire Demon Warriors felt the favor of the fire element, and it became easier to release fire spells.

The war dance of the Scorpion Human Race is a bit weird. They are a born-growth race and have nothing to do with the elements and gods. Therefore, they sacrifice to the earth. With the singing of the 12 Scorpion people, the black energy gradually covers their bodies. Under the night sky, they became more difficult to find.

The war dance of the three races is over. The warriors of the Jackal Head Orcs, Fire Demons and Scorpion Humans have gathered their weapons. ‘S men.

“Roar~!” Zayeli roared first, raised his right arm and clenched his fist, and said: “People of the God of War, it is time for us to prove our bravery to the gods. You will follow me and let the glory of the gods Arriving on this continent, the enemy’s corpse paved the way to honor~!”

“Roar~!” 30,000 orcs roared in unison.

Magmat burst into flames, looked at the people, and said loudly: “Children of Vulcan, use your flames to cleanse this dirty world~!”

“Roar~!” 30,000 Fire Demon Warriors roared in unison.

Coster’s tail suddenly shook violently, his face was extremely sullen, his voice was distorted, and he shouted: “Destroy all enemies that stop us, punish this world~!”

“Roar~!” 30,000 Scorpion people roared in unison.

The three of Zayeli glanced at each other, knowing that morale was up and ready to attack, nodded to each other, and each gave orders. The 12 tribal fighters that had been prepared for a long time jumped onto the hillside at the same time, and cut off each of them. The head of the Beastmaster in front of him.

The heads of the Lion King and the Wolf King, which were more than ten meters long, fell to the ground with a thud. The neck as thick as a water tank sprayed out a lot of blood like a fountain.

“Orc Legion, go forward~!” Zayeli roared loudly.

“Roar~!”

Twenty thousand orcs out of the 30,000 orc warriors roared loudly at the same time. A row of fifty people walked toward the outside of the mountain in neat steps.

These ten thousand orcs are very special. They uniformly hold a purple star steel short knife in their left hand, and a purple star steel shield with a height of more than two meters in their right hand. Protected by the left and right sides.

The shields of the orcs in the first row are forward, and the shields of the orcs after the second row are in the air, forming an iron tortoise shell camp like the Roman army.

As the orcs walked out of the narrow valley, they gradually changed their formations on the flat road. The orcs in the back row gathered on both sides, and finally became a row of three hundred people, a total of 67 rows.

From a high point of view, it is a huge rectangular shield formation, with no dead ends at all up, down, left, and right. In this shield formation, scorpion people ran in continuously, and they stood beside the top shield orcs.

Chapter 2240: Crazy orc

As soon as the voice fell, half a life of bitter love and the 100 subordinates behind him felt a strange feeling at the same time, it was a huge sense of oppression, and deep-seated hatred, even ten thousand times stronger than the murder of the whole family.

As if at that moment, they were put to death by the orcs, the eyes of all the orcs turned blood red, staring at them for half their lives.

“Roar~!”

There was a roar from the front shield of the orc legion. White slammed the shield and jumped 50 meters away. As soon as he landed, his body expanded rapidly, his hair became denser, and his head, body, and arms changed. It became blood red.

“Insult to God, die~!” White went completely mad, drew out the purple pair of short knives from his waist, and rushed toward the love for half a lifetime.

Behind White, the more than 20,000 orc warriors who fought were completely crazy, and ran towards the bitter love half their lives with their shields on their backs.

“Eat him raw.”

“Use his blood to sacrifice to the gods.”

“The insulter is dead~!”

...

More than 20,000 orcs looked crazy, and they turned around and ran. Fortunately, they rode a fire lion that was good at sprinting at close range. Under the full running, White always kept a distance of 30 meters from the bitter love for half a lifetime.

In fact, this distance is 1 second, and all the forehead of Lu Yang, who is lying on the top of the hill on the right side of the central fortress, is full of cold sweat.

“Are the orcs crazy? Just cursing a god, why are you so angry.” Lu Yang frowned at the Blazing Demon God, and said, “Could it be that in your world, cursing a **** has such serious consequences?”

The Blazing Demon God chuckled and said: "It's very serious, because in another world, the gods live very close to the race that believes in them.

In our era, at the very beginning, when many tribes fought, they would insult each other's gods. Once the insult was overdone and heard by the gods, the furious **** might personally destroy the other's race, and this race believes in Gods cannot interfere. If they interfere, the two gods will fight.

Later, because of insulting the gods, more and more wars between the gods led to chaos in the gods. In the end, all the gods set the rules together. The lower races must not insult gods in wars, and those who insult gods will no longer be blessed by any gods. And must be killed.

Jackal Orcs are a newly emerging race. They have a very pious belief in gods. Although the old gods of our generation have been expelled, the rules of the old gods are still in use.

The thinking that these orcs have been instilled since childhood is that they cannot humiliate God. All those who humiliate God must be killed, otherwise, they will be punished extremely severely.

In addition, the gods protect them to harvest food and improve their strength. The orcs have extremely religious beliefs in the beast gods. Now they are being insulted by your humans. It is reasonable for these orcs to go crazy. "

Lu Yang nodded and said, "At first, I was worried that my bitter love would not attract the enemy for a long time. I knew it was so simple. What else would I worry about."

He looked at Xia Yuwei on both sides and on the opposite side of the mountain, and made a gesture of preparing to attack. Xia Yuwei nodded and raised his right hand.

There are a total of 24,000 mages. The magical power in the body emerges at the same time, and it is injected into the magic circle carved on the rock. When all the magic symbols are lit, the flame crystal and ice crystal in the middle of the circle are various third-order. The crystal slowly rotated and floated to a height of one meter, and then, the energy in the crystal fell into a violent rage.

It was at this moment that a half-life of bitter love ran into the concave-shaped mouth in front of the central fortress with a large group of troops last.

White followed him closely, and behind White was the Jackal Head Orc Patriarch Zayeli, who ran in with his shield, and behind him was a chaotic formation of 20,000 orc warriors.

“Don’t run, I’m going to kill you.” Zayeli fell into a rage.

Lu Yang clutched his forehead and said, “It’s stupid, let’s attack.”

A flare blasted into the dark night, and Hei Yan next to Lu Yang and Xia Yuwei on the other side commanded at the same time: “Fire spell attack.”

“Tier 3 Flame Array·Fire Meteorite”

“Tier 3 Flame Array·Fire Meteorite”

...

Twenty crimson arrays instantly lighted up on the tops of the mountains on both sides. Then, 20 flame meteorites appeared inexplicably above the orc legion, each with a diameter of 20 meters.

“Shit~!”

The sharp sound of breaking through the air made all the orcs couldn’t help looking towards the sky, but when they saw the meteorite in the sky, the meteorite had already arrived in front of them.

“Form a shield formation.” Zayeli only had time to roar, and he used a shield to protect his body, and the soldiers following him also protected Zayeli with a shield formation.

In the three kilometers area outside Shekou, Magmart was already a little confused when he saw this scene. His rocky face was full of fear, and he muttered to himself: “How can it be a third-order spell? Maybe.”

A third-order spell, even a third-order fire demon like Magmart, would be hurt when hit by a frontal attack, not to mention the jackal-headed orc being attacked in the Shekou.

These second-order orcs, relying on the star steel shield and their own vindictive defense, can easily block the frontal bombardment of the heavy artillery and reduce the damage of the second-order flame to them.

But this premise is the second-tier flame, the third-tier flame is more than 5000 degrees higher than the second-tier flame, this kind of high temperature, even the fighting spirit of the Temple of War, still can't resist, ordinary second-tier orcs even have a shield to block it. Under the circumstances, it will be burnt into coke instantly.

The elder of the Fire Demon Clan looked at Magmat and asked: "We still participate in the offensive, it's time."

According to the original plan, the fire demons of Magmat were to enter within a radius of 2 kilometers and release bursting flames to the tops of the mountains on both sides of the central fortress, so as to give the Scorpion people time to go up the mountain.

But the premise is that the orcs go against the heavy artillery of humans. Now, humans have used Tier 3 spells inexplicably, without the help of heavy artillery, and can kill the orcs who have fallen into the encirclement. At this time, he leads the team up, just like being a target. , Let the heavy artillery corps on the other side bomb at will, he didn't want to do that.

But now the Scorpion army has rushed to the foot of the mountain and began to climb up the mountain. At their speed, it will take at least half an hour. If he doesn't help, these Scorpion men will be shot by bows and arrows.

It stands to reason that he should not send people up, but there are still 10,000 in the orc legion, and 10,000 in the scorpion legion. If he doesn't, the two legions will quickly attack him, so Magmat can only Said: "Order the first legion to attack, and the remaining two legions will be reserve teams."

"I will personally lead the team up." Len stepped forward and stretched out his hand and shouted: "The First Legion, follow me to attack."

Ten thousand Tier 2 Fire Demons who were ready, followed Lien toward the Shekou position.
