

Wild Fire 2241

Chapter 2241: Coster died on the spot

Magmat suffocated the fire and roared, "Be ready to respond at any time."

The remaining 20,000 fire demons faced the battlefield in front, although the expressions on their faces were angry, but they could not think of any solution, because there were heavy artillery behind the Shekou position.

sky.

The commander of the Harpy Legion, Oberto, has been hovering at the exit of the hidden mountain range of the Tribal Army. His task is to stare at the Fire Demon Race. Now seeing the Fire Demon platoon coming out from the mountains, he quickly dialed the video. Called Lu Yang and said, "Boss, the enemy has come out."

Through Oberto's camera, Lu Yang watched with his own eyes the ten-meter-high Huo Demon Warriors coming out of the mountains. There were a total of five rows, the number was extremely high, and they kept going.

"Heavy Artillery Corps prepares, Huo Mozu enters the 3 kilometers range, Oberto provides coordinates." Lu Yang issued an order.

"Yes." Oberto and Tao Yue, the commander of the heavy artillery position, responded at the same time.

Five kilometers behind the Shekou position, thousands of heavy artillery and various rocket launchers adjusted their muzzle at the same time, aiming at an area three kilometers outside the Shekou position.

As early as when the Shekou position was built, the heavy artillery corps conducted more than one test firing. It can be said that within 20 kilometers in front of the Shekou position, where to fight.

The phone in Oberto's hand also has a coordinate display function. Through infrared positioning, you can pinpoint where the enemy on the ground is now.

"The distance is 5 kilometers, the coordinates 7321288.1245785"

"A distance of 4 kilometers, coordinates 7320862.1241586"

Oberto kept reporting the coordinates of the Fire Demon. When the 10,000 Fire Demon quickly ran to a distance of 3 kilometers and was about to continue to run forward, Tao Yueqing shouted: "The distance is 2.6 kilometers, and the coordinates are 7319245.1123574. The heavy artillery covers and shoots. ~!"

"Boom~!"

Amid the thunderous roar of the sky, thousands of fire lights rushed into the night sky, drew a perfect arc above the Shekou position, and flew precisely toward the coordinate point.

The elder of the fire demon clan, Len, ordered the ten thousand fire demon to run forward quickly, the purpose is to avoid the attack of the heavy artillery. When the light fell like raindrops, he desperately shouted: "Release burst flames to form a protective shield in the air."

Ten thousand fire demons instantly blasted the fireball in the barrel-shaped structure of the back into the air, reaching a height of 100 meters. Most of the rockets intercepted fell on the ground.

The area where the 10,000 fire demons were located was instantly enveloped by loud noises and smoke. Leon, who had escaped the first wave of attacks by chance, was deafened. He stood up dazedly and wanted to gather his men to continue the attack, but he was surrounded by everything. Soot.

“What about people?”

“Assemble, for the glory of God, continue to attack~!”

...

No matter how Len yelled, there was not a single person around who responded, because the other fire demons were also deafened. Just when Len was trying to find his subordinates in the smoke and dust, he found that densely lit up in the smoke and dust. light spot.

In the next second, Lien was accurately hit by a heavy artillery on his chest. Then, Lien’s body at the second-tier peak was torn apart and fell to the ground and turned into a pile of rock fragments.

The fire demon is not a rock demon, nor is it an orc equipped with a star steel armor. It is just a fire demon who fights with their bodies. In fact, they are a group of mages whose bodies are very fragile in front of human heavy weapons.

In the mountains in the distance, Magmat closed his eyes helplessly as he watched the scene of ten thousand fire demon being bombarded by heavy artillery in the distance, and prayed in her heart: “I hope the Scorpion people can succeed, the fire demon can only do it. Here it is.”

On the high mountain cliffs on both sides of the Shekou position, countless scorpion people are climbing up by the dark night. Their arms are very special, with densely dense hairs on them, allowing them to easily grasp the seemingly smooth Rock wall.

At this time, the leader of the scorpion human clan patriarch Coste was about to climb to the top of the mountain, watching the horror of the fire demon position behind and the cry of the orc army being burned in his ears, Coster’s face was full of anger.

At the last distance of several tens of meters, Coster suddenly exerted his force, and within a few seconds, his arm touched the top of the cliff.

Carefully exposing his eyes, Coster was surprised to find that a large number of archers were waiting in the area 50 meters away.

“Use poison needles to kill them.” With a grinning smile on Koster’s face, the poison needles on the Scorpionman’s tail are reproducible, and there are places for storing poison needles on both sides. It can shoot 13 at a time, and then two minutes later. Can produce another one.

The poison needle is not particularly hard, but as long as the venom attached to it touches the body of a creature, it will quickly corrode the magical energy in the opponent’s body.

Coaster and the scorpion people around him grabbed the rock wall with their limbs, their tails protruding from the side of their brains and aimed at humans 50 meters away.

“Launch~!” Coster’s voice was extremely sharp.

“Wow~!”

“Wow~!”

“Wow~!”

...

Hundreds of poisonous needles flew out in an instant, accurately hitting the shooters in the front row. In the next second, these shooters screamed and wailed and fell to the ground, rolling wildly on the ground, watching Coster and other Scorpion people extremely excited.

“Keep shooting~!” Coster’s grinning voice was like a castrated person, harsh and sinister.

Hundreds of scorpion men continued to shoot, one by one, poisonous shots hit the humans on the top of the mountain, and those who were hit fell to the ground and rolled frantically.

Muddy wine was also among them, but he was standing in the back row, and Mao Qiu was standing in front. He shook his head as he watched his gang acting so fake, but on the other hand, he was extremely grateful to Lu Yang. .

If it wasn't for their boss who waited for the Blue Bloodweed from Lloyd to let them eat it in advance, the brothers who are lying on the ground now are probably not acting, but really going to die.

The patriarch of the Scorpion Human Race also thought so. In the dark night, he saw the large humans blocking him falling to the ground and howling and screaming. Coupled with his absolute confidence in his own venom, he knew that he could launch a full-scale attack. .

"Rush, rush up, kill all humans, and slaughter this fortress." Coster was the first to jump on the cliff, his arms spread out, and the sharp gray-white nails on his fingers were 10 cm long, and the tips of the nails were black. The light is full of venom.

"Human, your doomsday is here." Coaster gave a frantic grin, and rushed towards the direction of the far-off turbid wine.

But when Coster ran to 100 meters, where the first row of humans was hit by a poisonous injection, Coster was about to step on the bodies of these humans to attack. Suddenly, Mao Qiu and the four humans beside him sat up at the same time. , The star steel long sword in his hand accurately pierced into Coster's body, Coster just reacted, the fur ball swept across with a sword, and Coster's head flew out.

The patriarch of the Scorpion human clan who came to the human world, Coster, who was rampant in Tier 3 creatures, hadn't waited for his power to be used, so the corpses were separated and died on the spot!

It's a pity that Mao Qiu doesn't know Coster. From the point of view of human beings, all Scorpion people look the same. At first glance they can't be distinguished. Therefore, Mao Qiu regards Coster as the captain of a Scorpion human race. , After Yijian cut off his head, he didn't take it seriously, and he continued to slash towards the scorpion man who rushed up with his sword.

Scorpion people don't have any piece of armor on their body, because they have to climb mountains, it is impossible to wear heavy armor, not to mention that they mainly rely on their own carapace for defense, and the venom also prevents the enemy from getting close.

But now these two tricks are all broken, the scorpion people's venom is not effective on humans, and their carapace can't withstand the attack of the star steel sword and the bow and arrow made by the star steel arrow.

The scorpion people who rushed to the top of the mountain were killed in large numbers, and the scorpion people were caught off guard because humans were not poisoned. Under subconscious fear, their morale was drastically reduced. During the battle, they could not show half their strength. Was gradually driven off the edge of the cliff.

The same was true on the top of the mountain on Lu Yang's side. Xia Yuwei took the other half of the archer in an ambush. The first group of elders in the Scorpion Race who rushed up were shot to the ground, and the poison launched by the Scorpion Man targeted the Jagged Brothers. The soldiers have no role at all.

In fear, the Scorpion Legion collapsed!

"Quickly retreat, humans are immune to our venom. They still have a large number of star steel weapons. Quickly retreat, they can't win." I don't know which scorpion man called out first, causing a chain reaction in an instant, and he is heading to the top of the mountain. The crawling scorpions quickly crawled backwards down the mountain, trying to escape.

How could Xia Yuwei and Zhuojiu let go of this good opportunity and quickly ordered the archer corps to come to the edge of the cliffs on both sides, and shoot frantically from top to bottom. There were countless scorpion people shooting with bows and arrows, and there were quite a few Part of them fell off the cliff and died in fear.

“Report the boss, the Scorpion Legion is completely defeated, ask for the chase~!” Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei applied to Lu Yang at the same time.

Lu Yang is looking at the orc legion on the shield below. With 20 flame crystals and 2,000 flame mages, as well as 20 hurricane crystals and 2,000 hurricane mages, Lu Yang controls the orc legion’s actions while attacking with fire meteorites. , The 20,000 orcs killed were only less than 10,000 left.

The Orc Legion has never been able to rush to the central fortress, and it is the Scorpion Legion that is still supporting the Orc Legion’s offensive.

Zayeli, who was protected by the crowd in the middle, roared with a shield, “Attack, continue to attack, and soon we will be victorious. The Scorpion Man has already rushed to the top of the mountain.”

As soon as the voice fell, an orc who was responsible for monitoring the attack of the Scorpionman from the rear quickly ran in and shouted in horror: “Patriarch, quickly retreat. The Scorpionman has failed and is running away.”

This loud roar resounded across the battlefield, and countless orcs were instantly stunned. They didn’t know how the Scorpion Man would fail, and Zayeli was even more frightened and hit his whole body with a sharp spirit, and cold sweat suddenly flowed from his forehead. Down.

Zayeli grabbed the orc sentry who ran in front of him, and roared grimly: “Make it clear, how could the Scorpion Man fail, dare to send false information, I will tear you apart.”

The orc sentry yelled while struggling: “It really failed. Get out.”

Because he was below, the Orc Sentinel didn’t know how the Scorpion Man was defeated. When he saw the Scorpion Man escape, he rushed in for the first time. Suddenly he remembered and shouted: “Huo Demon Race It was also defeated, and the entire army that was hit by heavy artillery was annihilated, and there were more than 10,000 Huo Demon races who would be able to come down.”

Zayeli was shocked in his heart at this time. At this time, he still didn’t believe it, but the facts were before his eyes. He roared angrily: “The whole army retreats, retreat.”

The surrounding orcs quickly relayed the news, and the orc army, who had long wanted to fight, turned around and ran. Fortunately, they still had an order and there was no stampede.

Lu Yang watched this scene from the top of the mountain, and said to Xia Yuwei and Zhuojiu in the video: "Don't chase the scorpion man, they are dead, chase the jackal head orc."

The main offensive weapon of the scorpion man is the poison in the tail. Since it has no effect on humans, they have no threat. They can postpone the hunt. The ones who really need to kill are the fire demon and the orcs.

The fire demon's air defense capabilities are too strong, as long as they are allowed to walk in the mountains, the heavy artillery will be ineffective against them, and the air legion will be shot down by their bursting flames if they want to hunt them down.

Furthermore, Lu Yang wanted to take this opportunity to forcibly kill the son of the beast * that the Blazing Demon said, whether he was the son of a quasi-god or a demi-god, since he came here, don't want to grow up, and feel at ease. Die here.

Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei quickly executed their orders, and each shouted, "The Fire Killing Archer regiment lifted into the air, chasing the Orc Corps."

Lu Yang issued an order at the same time, saying: "The heavy artillery legion blocked the orc legion and the fire demon legion from joining together, forcing the orc legion to escape to the L8 area alone."

"Yes." Tao Yue and Oberto responded at the same time, and then Oberto gave the coordinates of the orc army's escape.

"Fire~!" Tao Yueqing shouted.

Hundreds of heavy artillery and rocket launchers burst into flames, and Zayeli was leading the team to escape. Suddenly, there was a whistling sound in the sky, countless heavy artillery fell on their heads, and a large number of orcs were blown out by the heavy artillery. .

Although they were not dead, the heavy artillery destroyed their defensive formation, and more than 8,000 fire crow archers who followed commanded the seat to release fire, and they shot arrows with hydra venom.

The orc shaman, the scorpion elder, and the fire demon patriarch Magmat, hiding in the mountains, looked at this scene with hideous faces, but they couldn't help it.

"We have to go and support them." The orc shaman yelled at Magmat excitedly, and now only the fire demon can cause damage to the human raven legion.

Magmat's rocky face was indifferent. He shook his head and said, "My ten thousand fire monsters have been killed by heavy artillery. If I dare to take the fire monsters out, I'm afraid I won't wait. When we attack, we will be killed by human heavy artillery, and I will never let my people die in such a vain."

The fire demon surrounding Magmat had already assumed a defensive posture at this time. If the two clans dare to persecute, the fire demon will launch an attack.

The orc shaman and the elder of the scorpion human race were stunned in the face of this situation. The two were speechless and could only return to their respective teams.

But as soon as the elder of the Scorpion human race returned to his team, he saw a large number of Scorpion people quickly ran back into the mountains without chasing them, but the orcs were blocked by strict guards on the way back to the mountains. , Can only run all the way in the direction of the L8 area.

Now the Scorpion Elder doesn't care about the orcs anymore. The orc shaman can only roar when he sees this scene, and orders: "All the orcs will evacuate to the northeast, and find a way to join the main force."

The remaining 10,000 orcs ran away quickly to the northeast, leaving the Huo Demon and Scorpion People, but the incident made the Scorpion Human Race full of anger towards the Huo Demon. The two sides moved a distance apart, each in its own place. Rest.

Chapter 2243: Hunt down the orcs

Tao Ran and Bagley were a little confused when they saw this scene. They didn't expect that the three-ethnic coalition army would be defeated so quickly, and a wave of offensive would be beaten into such a tragic situation.

"This, this, how is this possible, how could the army of the Protoss be beaten like this by humans?" Tao Ran's face was full of horror.

Bagley was also full of surprise. He thought it would be a hard fight. He didn't expect Lu Yang to win the war so easily with the Jagged Brotherhood. While he was happy, he did not dare to have the slightest expression on his face. He said in a low voice to Tao Ran, "We should make a plan. The three races are going to leave separately. Who shall we go with?"

Tao Ran was taken aback, and then reacted, the Orcs left, and neither the Fire Demon Race nor the Scorpion Human Race followed. Obviously the three races had differences, and she should indeed choose one to follow.

"Follow the fire demon," Tao Ran said.

This is the worst choice, but it is the best choice for Tao Ran. Among the three tribes, jackal orcs and scorpions are not much different from humans. Every time Tao Ran talks with them, the soldiers of these two tribes look at her. Tao Ran was terrified in his heart without good intentions.

Bagley feels a little rested, he also meant to follow the fire demon clan, he heard the shouts from the scorpion man, as if saying that their venom does not work on humans, if that is the case, the scorpion man is useless. It doesn't make sense to follow or not. There is Lu Yang following the orc, and he doesn't need to participate. Only the Fire Demon Race is left. He needs to inquire about it.

"Let's go," Bagley said.

Tao Ran nodded and walked to Magmart's side. It happened that Magmart also wanted to find Tao Ran, but lacked a guide. In this unfamiliar area, Magmart worried that the race would be attacked by humans again.

"Your Excellency, this war is no longer necessary. I hope you can guide us." Magmat squatted respectfully on the ground and said to Tao Ran.

Tao Ran asked, "Where is your Tier 4 Fire Spirit?"

Magmat pointed in the direction of Dan City, and said, "I can sense it. It's over there, but I don't know the route."

Tao Ran breathed a sigh of relief and said, "I know how to go, come with me."

Magmat also breathed a sigh of relief. He didn't want to let his soldiers die so innocently. He turned his head and glanced at the Shekou defensive position in the distance. With a look of unwillingness on his face, Magmat whispered: "This defeat, I will always remember in my heart, the blood debt is only the taste of blood, the human legion, I will come back again~!"

"The whole army turned around and we headed northeast." Magmat ordered loudly.

The remaining 20,000 fire demons stood up one after another, followed Magmat, and walked towards Dan City with the help of the cover of the mountains.

The elder of the Scorpion human race not far from the side, did not expect that a war that must be won will eventually become like this. The patriarch Coste died in battle, and the rest of the elders died in battle. There are only more than 10,000 points left for the 30,000 people. Immune to the poisonous scorpion people, which makes the elders of the scorpion people wonder what to do.

"Elder, Fire Demon Race is gone." A scorpion man sentry ran over from a distance, kneeling on the ground and said in a panic.

“What’s the matter?” The elder said in anger.

The scorpion man sentinel said: “All the fire demons have moved towards the northeast. Magmat also took away the believers of the nature gods such as Tao Ran and Bagley.”

“Damn it.” The elder was furious and scolded: “He took everyone away. What should we do? We are not familiar with the terrain here. If we are hunted down, we will be wiped out.”

The scorpion people around were no longer rampant before the battle. Everyone’s face was full of horror. When they thought that their poison would be ineffective to humans, and that a large number of weapons made of star steel suddenly appeared in humans, they felt it. despair.

“Elder, think of a way, we can’t just wait for death like this.” A Scorpion officer said.

“We must find a place where we can cultivate.” The Scorpion Legion next to it said.

The elder also knew this, but he didn’t know where he could rest around. Under confusion, the elder Scorpion made a decision that made him regret the most for a lifetime.

“Let’s go back to the L10 area and cultivate for a while.” The elder said.

The scorpion people couldn’t think of a better way out, so they nodded their heads and agreed. They gathered their subordinates, shuttled through the mountains with low morale, and fled towards the L10 area.

Oberto’s harpy legion watched the enemy fleeing, and each of them had an expression of disbelief. They thought that in another world, the three races were walking sideways among the low-level races.

In this war, Oberto and the others were ready to be defeated and flee, but they couldn’t believe it now that it was like this.

“Patriarch Harvey, if you see this scene, you will know how right my surrender is. Human beings are not simply a race that will be defeated.” Oberto sighed and called Lu Yang and said: “Report boss, Huo Mozu fled to the direction of Dan City, Scorpion people fled to the L10 area, whether to continue tracking.”

Lu Yang had already controlled Hong Ye to fly into the air at this time, and was about to chase the orc army himself. He was taken aback when he heard the words, and quickly said: “Switch the screen, let me see where they are?”

Originally, according to his expectation, all the Mage Legion and the Melee Legion were left in Shekou, and only the Fire Crow Archers were chased and killed to prevent the Fire Demon Race and Scorpion Man from sneaking.

If the two races escaped, then the way this war was played would be different. He would do his best to annihilate the orc army, and it would be better to kill the son of some god.

Oberto pointed the camera of the intercom on his arm between the mountains. In the dark night, one could clearly see the flame burning figure on the back of the fire demon shuttle among the mountains. On the other side, in the moonlight. Under the shadow, you can also vaguely see the fleeing Scorpion Legion.

“Watch their movements closely, and if they come back, report them to me quickly.” Lu Yang said.

“Yes.” Oberto said loudly.

Lu Yang kept the video connection and looked at the white lion and Zhou Tianming beside him. He could see the longing look in the eyes of these brothers.

“The White Lion, Zhou Tianming, Hard Love for Half a Life, Zhao Cheng, Bao Buping, all lead their men to chase the orc army with me.” Lu Yang commanded loudly.

“Yes.” The White Lion and the others were extremely excited. They were afraid that Lu Yang would not let them participate in the battle. After answering in unison, they turned back and shouted: “A legion is assembled.”

“The Second Legion gathers.”

...

The five melee legions, with a total number of more than 20,000, all assemble quickly. Everyone is surrounded by a Tier 2 fire lion mount, ready to participate in the battle.

“Boss, the whole army has assembled and applied to fight.” The White Lion ran back to Lu Yang and shouted loudly.

Lu Yang laughed. Obviously, this group of people had already prepared to go out of the city to fight, otherwise it would be impossible to feed the fire lions in advance and bring them with them.

“The team goes out of the city one by one, and can only chase after the enemy. Without my order, no battle is allowed. In addition, everyone will carry three days of dry food for humans and beasts. The logistics unit must prepare dry food for two weeks. This is a protracted battle.” Lu Yang said.

Bai Shi, Zhou Tianming and others were a little surprised. They thought they could fight the Orcs head-on, but they didn't expect Lu Yang to have this plan.

“You are going to endure them to death,” asked the bitter love half a lifetime.

Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth and said, “Within three days from Shekou, there was no water and no replenishment points. The Three Clans Army's plan to rush over is another wave of defeat. We are not prepared to replenish. For three days, I want you to continue to harass them, so that they can't rest and haven't eaten or drink yet.

After waiting for three days, they will be exhausted. Then is our best time to attack. When the order is passed on, we must not attack without authorization. There are too few brothers. There are only 40,000 people capable of fighting. I feel sorry for the death.”

Bai Shi, Zhou Tianming and others understood, each nodded and smiled and passed the order. The Jagged Brothers soldiers who were ready to fight to the death suddenly became relaxed, and everyone's faces were grinning. Expressions.

"It's good to follow the boss, this war is too easy."

"Haha, don't look at me as the first-order peak, I also have a chance to kill the second-order orc master."

"The boss really is the boss."

"Go, kill those * orcs."

With incomparable self-confidence, 20,000 soldiers followed the white lion and Zhou Tianming, riding the fire lion and ran out of the gate of the central fortress in an orderly manner, and chased in the direction of the orc army.

Chapter 2244: Leapfrog Challenge

Lu Yang controlled Hong Ye to fly into the night sky. Instead of meeting Zhuo Jiu and Xia Yuwei, he flew over the head of another Orc Shaman commanded by the Orc Shaman who was ready to respond.

These tens of thousands of orcs are hiding in the forest, cutting down trees to make throwing spears, and making special shouts to make the orcs in the distance approach them.

If the Orc Legion leads the Firecrow Archer regiment over, and the 10,000 orcs throw at all their strength, the Firecrow Legion that throws a fireball at an altitude of more than 200 meters may be caught off guard. Even if it can avoid it, it will make Zayeah. The powerful army gains a moment of peace.

Lu Yang would never give them this opportunity, sneered, and said to Hong Ye, "Kill them."

"Roar~!"

Hong Ye was extremely excited. Since following the Blazing Demon God to learn the forbidden curse that only sacred dragons can learn, he has always wanted to release a few more times to prove his "nobleness", but there has been no enemy. Now, he finally has a chance. Now, with a long roar, he hovered in the air around the 10,000 orcs, and read the ancient oath agreed upon by the sacred dragon and the higher elemental elves in the ancient times.

"The great ancient elves living with the world..." Red Ye's voice was solemn and low. Following his spell, the ancient elves pouring in from the distorted time and space soon heard the call of the red night and appeared in the red night one after another. Around.

The meaning of this spell is very simple. It is to hope that the ancient fire elemental spirit will follow his vows and burn this area to ashes.

This is a third-order spell, but its power is comparable to the fourth-order peak, and the release speed is very fast. It only takes 2 minutes to complete the spell.

The orc shaman and the son of the beast * in the forest have discovered the red night. Their night vision ability is very strong, and in the case of moonlight, it is easy to see the red night flying around them at an altitude of 500 meters.

It's just that they couldn't see what Hong Ye was saying, and two minutes later, when countless ancient fire elves popped up in the surrounding forest, the orc shaman knew what had happened.

"Damn it, it's the spell of the sacred dragon, everyone quickly withdraw from the forest and run." The orc shaman roared and took the lead and ran out of the forest.

The other jackal-headed orcs hurriedly followed after hearing the words, but at this time it was too late to escape, and countless flame elves wandered, wandered, and frolicked in the forest with weird laughter.

Obviously those trees were not touched by the flame elves, but in the 30-meter area around where the flame elves walked, all the trees burst into flames instantly.

If it is touched by the flame elves frontally, the trees will instantly turn into black coke. The reason for this is that the temperature of the flame elves is too high, which is more than 5,000 degrees, and even 30 meters around the flame elves. The temperature is above three or four thousand degrees, so it will cause such a result.

Jackal beasts have no ability to resist this level of flame. Once they are within 30 meters of the fire spirit, their bodies are instantly ignited. Even if the fighting spirit in their bodies is overflowing, they will support it for three or four seconds. time.

“Damn it, I’m going to kill that dragon.” The son of the beast * watched the mass deaths of his tribe, and he was already in a state of furious anger.

The orc shaman quickly stopped the son of the beast god, and shouted: “You haven’t got the other half of the blood. You can’t participate in the war right now. Follow me and continue running. I will use blood spells to protect you.”

After speaking, a * light suddenly appeared from the orc shaman’s body, not only protecting himself, but also protecting the son of the beast god, and the two ran toward the forest at full speed.

Lu Yang had been looking for the son of the beast god. He saw a * light emerging from below, his eyes lit up, and he asked the Blazing Demon God: “Under that * light, is it the son of the beast god.”

The Blazing Demon God can only scan the approximate location of the Son of the Beast God, but he is not sure which one it is. Seeing the blood light below, an orc shaman is running fast with another orc, and he said: “It looks like I guessed it. That’s right, the two orcs below, the one on the left is the orc shaman, and the one on the right is the son of the orc, but this son of the orc is very weak, try to kill him here, in addition, it is best to catch the orc shaman alive , It will be of great use to you.”

Lu Yang was a little surprised. He could let the Blazing Demon God say that. Obviously, this orc shaman was not an ordinary existence. Two lava spears appeared in his hands.

Before the Shekou offensive and defensive battle, Lu Yang began to accumulate energy in his body. Normally, he wanted to make a lava spear. Without the help of the original fire demon in the Demon Temple, it would take about half an hour.

“Swish”

Two lava spears were thrown out by Lu Yang with great flame impact, and with a piercing sound, they instantly hit the orc shaman and the son of the beast * who fled in a panic.

The red and black blood shining crazily at a distance of 1 meter from the back of the two of them. This is the strongest defensive method in the blood spell—the blood shield.

Condensed with the blood of countless Tier 3 monsters to form a shield with super defensive ability, it can withstand the damage of any Tier 3 attack spell.

The orc shaman and the son of the beast * dared to escape so unscrupulously, regardless of the situation of their backs, because they both knew that humans did not have the power of third-order or higher, and they would not release spells beyond the third-order, so they did. Their arrogance and arrogance paid the price.

With the sound of two dull voices, the orc shaman’s chest was pierced, the shoulders of the son of the beast * were pierced, and the terrifying flames instantly ignited the orc shaman’s body from the inside to the outside.

“Ah~!”

The orc shaman fell to the ground and wailed frantically, seeing that he would not be able to live, and the body of the child of the beast * was also lit, but the difference is that the flame burning in the child of the beast * was actually suppressed on his shoulders. Scope, cannot spread.

“Roar~!”

The son of the beast * roared frantically, turning his head and looking at Lu Yang in the sky with a sullen face, but Lu Yang was 500 meters high and the son of the beast * couldn't reach it.

The Blazing Demon God said to Lu Yang: “Don't go down, the orc shaman is not dead, they can be resurrected with blood, and the son of the beast * has not been severely injured.”

Lu Yang was a little surprised, and continued to condense the lava spear in his body, and said, “I didn't think about it, but when you say this, I am interested in this orc shaman, so I can't burn him?”

The Blazing Demon God said: “They are born to grow, as long as they have blood, they can be resurrected indefinitely. You see, he seems to be burned to death by flames, but in fact his wailing is pretended, if you dare Close, his blood spell can easily kill Hong Ye and you.”

Lu Yang raised his eyebrows, and said, “Unexpectedly, he is so terrifying. I'd better wear it slowly.”

On the ground, the orc shaman wailed desperately, and the son of the beast * pretended to be dying. At this time, they were still pretending, because the orc shaman believed that neither he nor the son of the beast * had been exposed. Lu Yang could not know. The identities of the two of them.

Now his appearance was full of flames, as if he was about to be burned to death, and the son of the beast * was severely injured. It stands to reason that Lu Yang should come down to see what kind of existence the son of the beast * was, and why he was not killed in the first place. die.

If Lu Yang dared to come down, the two of them immediately counterattacked and would easily kill Lu Yang, but the orc shaman had acted for several minutes, and Lu Yang hadn't come down yet. This made the orc shaman feel that something was wrong.

The violent blood-colored light extinguished the flames in his body, and the destroyed body was reborn in the blood. The orc shaman stared at Lu Yang in the air with solemn eyes, and said to the son of the beast god: “Don't pretend, maybe you and mine are already Exposed. ”

The blood surged in the body of the son of the beast god, and the damage on his shoulder quickly recovered. He frowned and asked, "Why do you say that?"

The orc shaman said: "Feeling."

The son of the beast * was speechless and asked: "What should we do now, they are in the air, we can't hit them."

The orc shaman said angrily: "Unexpectedly, human beings have become so powerful. It is our carelessness. Continue to retreat. I must send you safely to the designated place. After receiving the other half of the blood, you can quickly increase your strength. stand up."

"But do we just watch the people die like this?" The Son of the Beast God said furiously, these people treated him very well, just like his family, he couldn't watch these people die like this.

The orc shaman stared at him and said: "If you transform now, the Fire Demon Race will not let you grow up. Not only will you die, we will also be annihilated."

Protoss in another world has its own balance. The strength of the warriors they dispatched each time is not much different. This is to control this area together in the future. If one race is too strong, other races will not allow it.

Chapter 2245: Catch the Orc Shaman

Compared to General Fire Spirit's fourth-order peak full body state, even if the son of the beast * received the other half of the blood, it was just ascending to the fourth-order.

If General Fire Spirit fights hard, even if he can't kill the son of the beast god, he can be hit hard. The next batch of creatures of all races that will be transmitted will not be humans, but the son of the beast god. The final outcome inevitably the result of the extinction of the family.

The son of the beast * knew the stakes through a simple analysis, and smashed the trees around him with a furious punch, and asked, "What should I do now?"

The orc shaman gritted his teeth and said, "You will continue to retreat with your tribe and join the Necromancer. I will hold Lu Yang here."

"You..." After hesitating for a while, the son of the beast * roared: "To survive, the tribe can't live without you."

The orc shaman nodded, his hands glowed with terrifying blood, and instantly turned into two black and red blood spears, throwing them towards the red night in the sky.

The son of the beast * took the opportunity to roar: "Living with me, run north and quickly withdraw from the battlefield."

"Roar~!" The orc warriors roared and ran at full speed behind the son of the beast god.

Lu Yang sensed the departure of the son of the beast * for the first time, but he did not chase it because the son of the beast * had just been hit by his lava spear. Although the body of the son of the beast * was healed, it didn't know that there was a fire element. Staying in it, Lu Yang could trace him through these fire elements at any time.

Now Lu Yang is interested in the son of the beast god. The power of these two blood spears is not weaker than that of his lava spear. If Hongye was hit just now, he would most likely die on the spot.

Even the three-eyed magic flower can be promoted to the existence of a quasi-god, when faced with this kind of blood, it will tremble. The vine made by the three-eyed magic flower just blocked the attack of the blood spear. Judging from the feedback response, this blood poison made the three-eyed magic flower terrified.

Fortunately, the vine made by the three-eyed magic flower is not one of him. Before being corroded by the blood spear along the vine, the three-eyed magic flower cut off the vine and escaped.

The Blazing Demon God frowned and said: "Don't fight against the orc shaman. In order to delay time, he will play out most of the blood power accumulated in these three months and slowly drag him to death."

Lu Yang thought the same way. He threw a clone of the Three-Eyed Magic Flower to the ground, and in the blink of an eye, the clone plunged into the soil and quickly absorbed the surrounding energy, gradually spreading the vines around the orc shaman's 1km underground. .

The three-eyed magic flower that has been absorbing magic power in Lu Yang's Demon Temple is already in the state of Tier 3 and Tier 7, and the magic power of one body is enough to support him in continuous high-intensity combat for three days. Therefore, it seems that the orc shaman is powerful, but it can be three. A clone of Beholder Flower is enough to grind him to death.

The orc shaman did not notice the landing of the three-eyed magic flower, because she fell along with the corroded vine. At this time, the orc shaman's full attention was focused on Lu Yang, and the two lava spears were gradually As it takes shape, Hong Ye also continuously releases fireball spells in the sky.

"Boom"

Just as the orc shaman put up his blood shield and fought with Lu Yang, a strange sound came from the ground. In the next second, countless vines came out of the ground, and the area around one kilometer was everywhere. And, there were small red flowers blooming on the vines, and the scent wafting in the wind. The orc shaman felt dizzy as soon as he took a sip.

"How is it possible, the three-eyed magic flower?!" The orc shaman was struck by lightning. Unlike other orcs, the orc shaman is a person who bathes in the grace of gods. He knows the three-eyed magic flower of the guards of the natural gods. It can be here. Seeing that it was still his enemy, the orc shaman was instantly confused.

First of all, he does not believe that this is controlled by humans. Secondly, even if he knows that he is powerful, the Three-Eyed Demon Flower is the Protoss Guards. He does not know how strong the Three-Eyed Demon Flower is now. He is frightened. , The orc shaman's hands trembled, and his concentration became less concentrated.

"puff"

Two sharp vines suddenly emerged from under the orc shaman's feet, piercing his abdomen while avoiding the blood shield.

The dazzling poisonous mist contained in the vine spreads in the orc shaman's body. In an instant, the orc shaman can no longer stand, but the orc shaman is a person who bathes in the grace of the gods. The shaman's body also heals automatically.

A terrifying blood mist appeared all over him, and all the vines that appeared within 30 meters were withered. But the next second, the vines grew again and continued to wrap around the orc shaman.

Lu Yang saw this scene in the air and said to Blazing Demon God: "It seems that using the Three-Eyed Magic Flower to deal with him is really a good way. In terms of the ability to fight for a long time, the Three-Eyed Magic Flower is better."

The Blazing Demon said: "If you are lucky, the enemy knows nothing about your strength. Join the orc shaman and know everything about you. He will never stay to deal with you alone."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Now there is only time left."

He asked Hong Ye to pay more attention to the orc shaman's sneak attack. His eyes were on the side of the dirty wine and the white lion. The orcs originally led by Zayeli joined the army and desperately wanted to run into the forest to join the orc shaman's team. .

But after a long howl from the Son of the Beast God, Zayeli stopped ordering the team to approach, and instead ran desperately towards the L8 area.

The two sides chased and fled, and had already run out of the range of 20 kilometers, and the heavy artillery and rocket artillery were no longer able to support.

Fortunately, the Firecrow Archer regiment can provide support and investigation. If Zayeli wants to ambush, he will be discovered by the Archer regiment. The White Lion and Zhou Tianming below will order the team to stop pursuing and turn into a two-winged outflanking group.

Zayeli was helpless, could only continue to escape!

After Lu Yang confirmed that there was no problem there, he looked back at the orc shaman below. The lava spear in his hand was already condensed. When the orc shaman was overwhelmed by the vines of the three-eyed magic flower, the two fire spears were at the same time. Throw it out.

“Ah~!”

The fire spear accurately hit the orc shaman’s abdomen and penetrated his body at the same time, all the power of the flame entered the orc shaman’s body, instantly his body burned, and the painful orc shaman screamed frantically.

But only a few minutes later, the flames on the orc shaman disappeared, and the terrifying power of blood made him come back to life, and his body recovered as before, as it did when he was not hit by the lava spear, only this time, the orc The shaman knelt on the ground, obviously over-consuming, and the blood power in his body was insufficient.

The clone of the Three-Eyed Demon Flower quickly created a large number of vines, and once again surrounded the orc shaman. After several struggles, the orc shaman eventually fell to the ground, and the whole person was dizzy.

Lu Yang controlled Hong Ye to fall on the ground, retracted the clone of the Three-Eyed Demon Flower, and trapped the orc shaman with vines and threw it into the Demon Temple. He controlled Hong Ye to fly in the direction of the muddy wine and the white lion. Past.

Forty thousand brothers were all chasing the orcs. Lu Yang was really worried about their safety. When he caught up with the team, both sides were still chasing and fleeing.

The turbid wine commanded very well, the Fire Crow Archer regiment of the Jagged Brothers had been flying over the head of the Orc Legion, and the Fire Lion Legion on the ground was clinging to the tail of the Orc Legion.

Whenever the orc legion wanted to drill into the mountain, the fire crow archer would intercept it in advance, forcing the orc legion to continue running on the plain.

Following the pursuit all the way, the team has ran out of the area of the East China Sea and arrived at the border of the L10 area, which is an endless plain. The orc army can't do it to ambush and evade, and can only continue to run.

“Roar~!”

The howl of the dragon sounded in the air, and the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood who were hunting down looked into the bright sky. The appearance of the huge dragon body in the red night flapping its wings in the air made them extremely relieved. They knew that their boss was in theirs. Ahead, they will win this war!

“Continue to chase~!” the white lion shouted loudly.

“Don't let them run.” Zhou Tianming shouted.

The morale of the forty thousand legions increased greatly, and the hunting was more vigorous. Once the orcs wanted to ambush, the team directly in front would stop. The teams on both sides quickly outflanked, cooperated with the air and the ground to kill the few ambushed orcs, and then Continue to hunt down.

Zayeli, who was fleeing for his life, had already suffocated his eyes with blood red. He did not expect that a simple war to slaughter humans would turn out to be like this.

There were 20,000 orcs under him, and more than 10,000 were killed in the attack. Now when he ran away, another 5,000 to 6,000 were killed. The number of orcs behind him was already less than 5,000.

On the other side, his brother Son of the Beast God, after being attacked by Hong Ye's Forbidden Curse, he could see that there were also heavy casualties, and there would not be too many survivors.

Now the Scorpion Legion has also been broken up, and the Fire Demon Race has also left. Forty thousand humans chase him. There are fire crow shooters in the sky and fire lion warriors on the ground. I don't know who to lose my temper to.

Humanity? Why do humans become so strong? Shouldn't they stand still and let them kill? Is the fire demon clan not trying their best? Or the scorpion man did not try his best?

Zayeli still doesn't understand how this war was lost, because he has been running away, and he still doesn't know the news that the scorpion man's poison is not effective on mankind.

Now Lu Yang came back with the giant dragon. According to Zayeli, his brother should have escaped to the mountains and escaped from Lu Yang's pursuit. Now it's up to him whether he can escape.

"Run faster and escape to the city, so we have a chance to survive." Zayeli roared.

"Roar~!" The remaining four thousand orcs shouted one after another, as Zayeli continued to rush towards the city.

At this time, there are a large number of Tier 1 and Tier 2 monsters appearing in the main city of the L10 area. There are also a lot of buildings in the city. If you really let these four thousand orcs escape in, you will have to pay if you want to kill them. Great price.

Xia Yuwei discovered the enemy's intentions during aerial reconnaissance, and quickly sent a message to Lu Yang, Zhuojiu and others.

Bai Shi and Zhou Tianming both sent a message to Lu Yang at the same time, saying, "Boss, I will lead the team around behind the enemy."

Lu Yang also saw the enemy's actions. He just gritted his teeth and agreed to the proposal that a large number of brothers might be killed. The Blazing Demon God in his mind said, "Let the orcs in. There is good news for you."

Lu Yang was taken aback for a moment, and immediately reacted, yelling at the intercom: "Let the enemy in. You must not block their escape."

Zhou Tianming and White Lion were both taken aback. When they reacted, it was too late to stop them. They could only watch the remaining five thousand orcs run into the suburban buildings in the L10 area.

Lu Yang asked the Blazing Demon God, "What good news?"

The Blazing Demon said: "I just searched the memory of the orc shaman and got an extremely important news. The name of the son of the beast is Lige. At this time, he only had half a drop of blood, and the other half was on the outskirts of the city. Inside the underground cave.

It was carried by the third spirit-level powerhouse, Nemor, general Nemor, with the secret method. Now the son of the beast * Legg is fleeing to the Xishi area. As long as you pretend to hunt Legg now, Zayeli must take his remnant. The army ran out of the city to fight you desperately, depending on how you set up the encirclement. "

Lu Yang said with some surprise: "Okay, brother, you actually know how to use tricks."

The Blazing Demon said triumphantly: "The one who is near Zhu is red and the other is black, and it is hard to learn it or not to be by your side."

Lu Yang smiled, and sent a message to Zhuo Jiu and others and said, "Quickly follow me to the outside of the city. I have a way to draw all the enemies out."

Zhuo Jiu, Bai Shi and others were worried about how to attack. They were a little surprised when they heard that, and hurried to the outside of the city following the red night.

From the L10 area to Xishi, you must pass through Banshi Mountain. This mountain has now been penetrated and turned into a tunnel with a length of 8,000 meters.

Lu Yang led the team to the front of the tunnel. He jumped off Hong Ye and let Hong Ye find a place to rest on the top of the mountain alone.

Zhuo Jiu and Xia Yuwei jumped off the back of the fire crow, Zhou Tianming, Bai Shi, and Kuai Bansheng rode the fire lion to Lu Yang's side and jumped off.

Regardless of the greeting, Lu Yang directly stated the reason. 40,000 people took advantage of the sky and ran to Banshishan to hide. After that, Lu Yang controlled Hongye to fly over the L10 area.

Under the rising red sun, Lu Yang pulled the orc shaman out of the demon temple and threw it into the air. In the process of falling, Hong Ye swooped past, and the claws grabbed the orc shaman's collar. , In this way, hung the orc shaman in midair.

"Zayeli, I already know the news that your brother is the son of the beast god, and that he only has half a drop of blood, haha, I will chase him with the main force now, kill him, and I will destroy you by myself. The hope of this race in the future, I want you all to die~!" Lu Yang stood on the dragon's head and shouted loudly.

In a building in the main city of the L10 area, Zayeli had just settled down with his men. They were also curious why the humans did not chase them, but ran outside instead.

"Patriarch, why did the humans retreat?" the deputy asked.

Zayeli laughed and said sarcastically: "The cowards dare not fight with us and want to kill us, but there are a lot of monsters here. We can eat their meat and drink their blood, and stick to it. Once the red moon night came, without any problems."

“Roar~!” The remaining four thousand orcs cheered collectively.

But as soon as the voice fell, Zayeli and the more than 4,000 orcs who participated heard Lu Yang’s shouts. At that moment, Zayeli’s whole body was cold, and he quickly ran to the window, but only saw half of the dragon. A figure and an orc-like creature on its claws.

In a panic, Zayeli revealed his original nature, roared, inserted the sword into the scabbard, grabbed the wall with his limbs, and ran to the top of the thirty-story building frantically.

From above, he clearly saw the red night that was gradually flying over, and the orc caught in the claws of the red night, it was no doubt that the orc shaman was the same.

“Roar~!” Zayeli roared frantically at the flying red night and Lu Yang, and said, “Damn human beings, I’m going to kill you.”

Lu Yang was still more than 200 meters away from Zayeli. Seeing the tiny orc roaring frantically, he knew that his strategy had succeeded, and said to Hong Ye, “Let’s go back.”

“Roar~!” Hong Ye showed a fierce expression at Zayeli, turned his body and flew towards Banshishan.

Chapter 2248: Pursuing the Son of the Beast God

Lu Yang was also full of confidence at this time, because the straight-line distance from Donghai to Xishi was more than 400 kilometers, and it was all mountains. It would take at least a day and a half to run over.

If the son of the beast * wants to get rid of his pursuit, he will inevitably lead the remnant army to flee day and night. Even if he can run within a day, his men will be very tired for this 400 kilometers distance.

As long as he can bring his men to Xi City in advance, he can easily fight an ambush and wipe out the son of the beast * and his remnant army there.

As for how to get there early, instead of being as exhausted as the remnant army of the son of the beast god, he had already thought of a way, turned on the phone and said to Fei Yang: "Brother, send all the trains here. We are on the side of the road. Waiting by the train track."

He sent the location to Fei Yang, and on the other side, Fei Yang, who was anxiously waiting for the outcome of the war, hurriedly mobilized the train.

More than 150 freight locomotives and 60 passenger trains were originally parked beside the railroad tracks not far behind the central fortress.

The original plan was that once the central fortress could not stop, everyone boarded the train and evacuated to the dungeon. Now it is blocked and can be used to chase the enemy. The excited train drivers drove the train to the designated location at full speed.

"Brother, don't worry. Within half an hour, all 210 trains and 420 carriages will arrive. I will guarantee with a human head." Fei Yang's excited eyes were filled with tears.

Lu Yang smiled and nodded, then hung up the phone. He said to Zhuojiu, Baishi and others on the intercom: "You will take the train to Xi City in a while, and I will follow the son of the beast * with the fire crow archer group. Disabled army, keep in touch with me at any time."

"Yes." Zhuojiu, Baishi and others responded in unison.

Lu Yang looked at Xia Yuwei and Hades and others who were flying over, and said, "Follow me, we will chase and kill the son of the beast god."

Xia Yuwei asked in surprise: "Do you know where they are?"

Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth and said, "Of course, come with me."

When he was fighting with the son of the beast * before, he used the fire spear to penetrate the shoulder of the son of the beast god, and at the same time planted the flame mark on the son of the beast god, he could feel the position of the son of the beast * all the time.

Xia Yuwei didn't expect that Lu Yang had become so powerful, and excitedly shouted using the intercom: "Everyone is following the boss and me, always ready to fight."

800 shooters with hand-held radios communicated the news to the brothers around them. For a time, 8000 fire crows neighed in response to Xia Yuwei's order, chasing Xia Yuwei and Lu Yang, and flew to the East China Sea and Xi City. The direction between the mountains.

The other side.

The son of the beast * is running at full speed with both hands and feet. The thousands of orcs behind him are just like him. Moreover, these orcs have thrown away their shields and armor, revealing their hair, and only keep a short knife.

From a distance, this is a group of extra-large wolves running in the mountains, and it is completely invisible that this is what a wise race should look like.

"Damn human beings, I will definitely not spare you. When I get there, I will get half a drop of God's blood. I want all of you to be buried with the shaman." The beast god's son Legge had craziness in his eyes.

At this time, he didn't know that his brother Zayeli had been crushed down the mountain, and thought that Zayeli had already dragged Lu Yang's legion for you.

He didn't know that there was a Blazing Demon God in Lu Yang, he could search for the souls of other creatures, and knew all the secrets of Liege.

Leger didn't even know that his faintly aching shoulders were not because of his lack of blood and unable to fully recover his body, but because of the flame marks left by Lu Yang on his body, which could track his location.

With multiple messages completely asymmetrical, Leger wanted to be able to reach Brook City as soon as possible, so he asked his men to throw away all the extra items.

The leader of this group of jackal-headed orcs was originally an orc shaman. After the shaman was captured, it should be led by the commander of the orc army, Bazwei, but it was learned from Bazwei that Liege was the son of the beast * and possessed the blood of the beast god. After that, because of faith, he completely surrendered to Leger's leadership.

Leger ordered all the orcs to throw away their armor, and he issued an order. He asked everyone to run non-stop and everyone to run non-stop.

They ran a total of 200 kilometers from the morning to the afternoon. It can be said that the jackal head beasts performed supernormally, but now they can't run anymore. They all lie down by a river to rest.

After Bazwei drank a big mouthful of river water, he immersed his head in the river water. The cool river water wetted his mane. At this time, he felt a hint of refreshment.

Leger came over from the side, looked at Bazvi and said, "We have to keep running, we can't stop."

Bazwei looked at Legge with a violent pant. and knelt on the ground respectfully and said: "The great beast * is on top, the son of the beast god, please let the soldiers rest. They are different from you. , You are Tier 3, they are only Tier 2, and their strength is far inferior to yours. They really can't run."

Legg scanned the surrounding orcs and found that each of them was panting violently. As Bazwei said, they really couldn't run.

"Damn, we must continue to move forward. I want to recover my strength as soon as possible. Maybe I can save more orcs." Legge couldn't help but growl.

In his opinion, as long as he got the other half drop of Divine Blood, he quickly increased his strength to Tier 4, and then ran to the 10th area, a total of two days.

Zayeli's orc remnant army has more than 4,000 people. It's absolutely no problem to persist in the steel forest of 10 districts for two days. When he goes back, he might be able to join forces with Zayeli and bring humans together. The coalition forces were wiped out.

Just as Leger imagined that he was going wild and killing in the human coalition, the sunlight above his head was suddenly blocked, and when he looked up curiously into the air, he was instantly stunned.

"Human, human coalition?" Leger said confusedly.

Bazwei jumped up instantly and yelled in horror: "Hurry up and hide."

Nearly ten thousand orcs were resting by the river. Hearing the words and looking to the sky, they all showed horrified expressions like Bazwei, because while the 8000 fire crows were flying above their heads, the blazing white fireballs under them were also in rapid formation.

"Intensive bombing, let go!" Xia Yuwei's cold voice rang across the mountains.

The 8000 fire crow shooters at the same time ordered the fire crows under their seat to release white fireballs. In an instant, like raindrops, countless fireballs fell down and hit the heads of countless orcs who fled in a panic.

At this time, the jackal head orcs didn't even have a shield, so they could only rely on their own anger to evade, but the effect was weak. A large number of jackal head orcs were hit by the white fireball, and the whole body burst into flames and wailed and rolled on the ground.

Before these orcs shattered the flames on their bodies with their anger, the arrow made of purple star steel fell like a torrential rain, and a large number of orcs were hit.

Bazwei was also shot with an arrow. He pulled out the arrow angrily. Under the protection of vindictiveness, the arrow was not deep.

"Damn it, there is not even a tree here." Bazwei was so angry, his eyes swept across the bare and barren hills around him. Before the enemy came, the place was burned down by the fire squad of the Jagged Brotherhood.

Now a few months have passed, and only some grass has grown on the ground, which is not enough to provide cover.

Legg, the son of the beast god, is not far from Bazwei. He is a Tier 3 master. With his own fighting energy body, neither arrows nor flames can hurt him.

But he didn't dare to be careless at this time, because Lu Yang was holding his hands flat, each holding a lava spear, his murderous aura was always locked on Legge.

Leger clearly felt that as long as he dared to stay in place for three seconds, the lava spear would penetrate his body.

Legg didn't want to taste the taste of being burned by the extremely high-temperature flame, but he couldn't run too far at this time. With his three-year-old IQ, he didn't know what to do now.

Seeing tens of thousands of jackal orcs fleeing under fire and arrows, Legge ran to Bazwei in annoyance and roared, "Quickly let the people calm down, let's continue running."

Bazwei could no longer run at this time. Facing the order of the son of the beast god, he instinctively wanted to execute it, but at this moment, Bazwei spit out a spit of black blood and fell feebly. To the ground.

Legger was shocked and grabbed Bazwei's shoulder and shouted, "What happened? What happened to you?"

Bazwei clearly felt his consciousness blurry, and he saw that black blood was flowing from the part of his arrow. He grabbed Lieg and said, "Run, leave us alone, this arrow is poisonous."

Legg watched Bazwei collapse on the ground, and then looked at the orc warriors on the left and right. At this time, thousands of warriors shot by arrows fell to the ground with black blood vomiting, and the rest were panicking. Down, I immediately made a bird and beast scattered, and ran towards the surrounding mountains, no longer paying attention to the son of the beast * and the command of the god.

"Boss, what should I do?" Zhuojiu asked with a solemn expression. There were at least five or six thousand orcs who had escaped. Let them escape this chase. In the future, people from the Jagged Brotherhood who want to get out of Shekou may be caught at any time. They attacked.

"Split the troops, you chase the orcs, I will chase the son of the beast god." Lu Yang shot out the spear of lava in Lu Yang's hand, and stood in the center of the son of the beast * who was sluggish for three seconds.

"Roar!" The son of the beast * let out a painful cry, his abdomen was pierced by the lava spear, and the violent flame power penetrated into his body, igniting his whole person, but the next second, he The blood of the beast * surging in his body gushed out frantically, extinguished the flame and healed his wound.

"Lu Yang, I will kill you." The son of the beast * pointed to Lu Yang with a sullen face and ran towards the mountains without turning his head. He completely abandoned his people and left him alone. Escaped.

"Catch him." Lu Yang roared, his right hand condensed the lava spear again, and the lava spear in his left hand was ready to be thrown at any time.

With a long roar, Hong Ye chased him in the air.

Zhuo Jiu watched Lu Yang and Hong Ye fly away, and there was a trace of worry in his eyes. After all, the other party was the son of the beast god. He was afraid that Lu Yang would have a problem, but he could not help, whether it was the arrow of the star steel or the flame of the crow. , He couldn't penetrate the body protection of the son of the beast god. He could only gritted his teeth and commanded loudly: "The Fire Crow Legion scatters and kills the orcs. Every time they kill one, they cut off their ears, and finally used it to count. "

"Yes." More than 8,000 fire crow shooters cheered in unison. They didn't know how strong the son of the beast * was. They thought the war was about to end, and excitedly chased and killed the fleeing orcs in squad mode.

Zhuojiu looked at the scattered brothers, took out the intercom and called Baishi, Zhou Tianming and Kuai for half a lifetime.

"Dididi"

Baishi and Zhou Tianming, who were taking the train to Xi City, were very anxious, and they suddenly received the call, and they quickly picked it up.

"What happened to the dirty wine?" White Lion asked.

Zhuojiu said: "Come to Xi City as soon as possible, the boss is chasing and killing the son of the beast * alone."

The white lion was anxious and said, "Why did you let the boss chase after him alone?"

Zhuojiu said: "I can't disobey his orders. Moreover, the third-order archers and the fire crows can't cause any harm to him. You have to use a magic circle."

All the fire wizards were asked by Lu Yang to sit on the train and rush to Xi City, with the purpose of arriving at the entrance of the cave in advance to set up the magic array fortification.

The white lion knows that the dirty wine is really gone now, otherwise he won't call them for help, and his eyes firmly said: "Don't worry, we must protect the boss well. If we die, the boss will be fine."

"Thank you for everything." Zhuojiu hung up the phone with regret. The first time he hated his strength so weak, couldn't help at all.

Xia Yuwei looked at the dirty wine and said, "Don't worry, if the boss dares to go, there must be a way to win. It is good that we do our job well."

Zhuojiu nodded, and he also found that he had lost his temper, and said: "We will continue to hunt down, and we must kill all the orcs here."

Xia Yuwei smiled, she was relieved, and the turbid wine returned to normal.

On the other side, the White Lion, Zhou Tianming and others who got the news were extremely anxious and ran to the front of the car and kept urging to accelerate.

"I really can't accelerate anymore. The train has so many people on board, it's a diesel locomotive, and I have tried my best." The driver said helplessly.

Luo Laide is also on the train, looking at this machine, his eyes are bright and said: "I have a way to make magic changes, why don't you try it?"

"Magic change?" White Lion asked: "How to change?"

Luo Laide said: "I already know the operating principle of this car. It is nothing more than the internal combustion engine to provide power. The problem now is that the power provided by diesel is only so big, so he can't run fast. If I replace the diesel with the flame crystal, The speed can be doubled."

The white lion's eyes lit up and said, "Change, change now."

Zhou Tianming and Hard Love Half a lifetime also nodded one after another.

Luo Laide did what he said. He took out various equipment from his backpack and began to transform. As a creature on the mechanical plane, he has always been exposed to magic and advanced civilization equipment. It is still strange like the earth. He had never seen such a low-end technological civilization, and he was very interested for a while.

The way of magic modification is not difficult, just made a regulator and a small magic circle, so that the energy of the flame crystal can be uniformly and slowly supplied into the internal combustion engine, preventing the flame crystal from rushing out too much energy at a time, burning the internal combustion engine Burst.

Chapter 2250: Water cave battle

It took only half an hour for Luo Laide to get it done. He put a flame crystal in a special device, and then inserted the device into the power system.

"Boom~!"

A blazing red light gleamed on the front of the car, and the entire train instantly increased its speed from 200 kilometers per hour to 350 kilometers per hour. Everyone leaned backwards under inertia. Fortunately, everyone was powerful and quickly controlled their body shape.

The train driver himself has no magic ability. The white lion dragged his back so that he did not fall to the ground, and said, "Can you continue to accelerate?"

The train driver wiped the scared sweat, and said: "In theory, it's okay. I'm afraid of derailment."

The White Lion said: "Up to the maximum speed, we can go one minute early and we can also prepare a little bit more."

The train driver nodded solemnly, and continued to speed up, increasing the speed to 400 kilometers per hour. At this time, he was engrossed in looking ahead, not daring to get distracted for a moment.

Seeing that the car is running normally, the White Lion said to Luo Laide next to him: "Thank you brother, can you help us change other vehicles as well?"

Luo Laide looked at the quantity of materials in the backpack, and said proudly: "Of course you can, but you have to promise me one thing."

The white lion asked, "What's the matter?"

Luo Laide said: "You are going to hunt down the son of the beast god, right? If I have the opportunity, I want his head or fangs. There are many people who buy this thing. I have to sell it for a good price."

"A word is settled," said the white lion.

"Okay, take a hand, we will start the transformation." Luo Laide took out the materials from the backpack and began to make the magic transformation.

Bai Shi, Zhou Tianming and others followed to help. After the first production experience, the later production speed was much faster. In less than half an hour, they completed the magic modification device for 10 trains, and these 10 Sitting in the vehicle are the 8000 main wizards of the Jagged Brotherhood.

After all the power systems were replaced, the 10 trains all reached a speed of 400 kilometers per hour. The White Lion excitedly turned on the phone, launched a video to Lu Yang, reported the situation of the magic change here, and said: "Boss, I can be better than the scheduled one. Arrived at the designated location four hours ahead of time."

The other side.

Lu Yang was chasing the son of the beast * among the mountains. No matter how he avoided the son of the beast god, Lu Yang could accurately find his position. The persecuting son of the beast * could only run continuously, and he dared not stop for a moment.

“Good job, don’t rush to the cave when you get to Xishi, clean up the monsters along the way, to prevent accidents in the final battle.” Lu Yang said.

“Yes.” The White Lion said loudly.

Lu Yang hung up the phone, and Hong Ye spewed out a mouthful of lava. The persecuting son of the beast * had to jump in the narrow terrain. Taking advantage of this opportunity, Lu Yang threw out the lava spear in his left hand and pointed it directly at the opponent’s heart.

The son of the beast * could not be disguised in the air, and Volley turned around and forced his hands to grab the lava spear to change the position, piercing his left lower abdomen.

“Wow~!”

A sorrowful scream came out from the son of the beast god, and he glanced at Lu Yang with a grim expression, and suppressed the flame with the force of blood to continue running through the mountains with his limbs.

Lu Yang followed unhurriedly. He knew that the Son of the Beast God was dead in this round and there was no chance of being alive.

The son of the beast * didn’t think so. He thought that as long as he got to the cave and got another drop of blood, he could instantly break through to Tier 4 and kill Lu Yang and all humans.

With this thought, the son of the beast * ran desperately, running for a day and night, until the early morning of the next day, the son of the beast * finally ran near the water cave in Xishi.

Looking at the big cave in front of him, the tired face of the beast * Legge showed an excited expression. He turned his head and glanced at Lu Yang with a grinning look, and roared: "Humans, you and your people have to pay for it, I Sacrifice all of you to the animal gods."

Lu Yang looked at Leger's mouth with a smile. He had received news from the White Lion and others. Why did Leger never encounter a monster on the last part of the road, and he ran to the place so easily, because of the White Lion and Zhou. Tianming they have finished cleaning up the surrounding area.

They killed all the monsters within 10 kilometers of the water hole, and now they set up an ambush on the top of the water hole, ready to attack.

"Leger, where is your confidence?" Lu Yang shook his head and said, "You and your * will pay for your arrogance."

The two lava spears in his hand were thrown out one after another, blocking Legg's left and right escape routes, but Legger thought that Lu Yang had poor skills, and jumped up with a wild laugh, easily avoiding the two lava spears.

But just as he was about to land from the air, a horrible energy made Leger's eyes widened appeared behind Leger.

"Controlled by the Water Demon"

"Raging Lightning"

On the 20-meter-deep and 50-meter-wide river in front of the water hole, arms made of four water columns suddenly burst out. Uukanshu.com accurately grasped the hands and feet of Legg, the son of the beast god, and before Legg struggled, the terrifying current hit the water column.

"Roar~!"

Legge roared frantically, and the third-order lightning spell hit him, making him miserable. Even with the power of stimulating his blood, he couldn't get the lightning voltage down, and he couldn't get the * of the dehydrated column.

This is not because Liege is weak, but because there are too many humans launching water and lightning attacks. 2000 water mage and 2000 thunder mage simultaneously urge 20 water system third-order gems and thunder system third-order gems at the same time.

It looks like two spells, but in fact, 20 spells are simultaneously acting on Liege. With only Tier 3 peak strength, Liege can't withstand such damage at all, and can only rely on the strength of blood to support it.

Zhou Tianming, Kuai Bansheng and the others all showed excitement when watching this scene. The three brothers of White Lion, White Tiger and White Wolf looked at each other and nodded each.

In the past, Lu Yang went to fight the monsters desperately. They were going to replace Lu Yang this time, not because they were arrogant, but because they had a broken star blade in their hands.

This weapon is specially used to kill Tier 3 creatures, no matter how powerful Tier 3 creatures are, the Star Smashing Blade can easily pierce their bodies.

The three brothers quietly left the crowd while everyone was not paying attention, and walked behind the son of the beast god. While the son of the beast * was still struggling to support them, the three brothers suddenly exploded in fighting spirit together and appeared in front of the son of the beast god.

"Die to me~!" Bai's three males shouted at the same time, inserting the broken star blade in their hands into the heart of the beast god's son with a fierce appearance than the son of the beast god.

"Wow~!"

The son of the beast * raised his head and let out a stern cry, and when everyone thought he was dead, the body of the son of the beast * swelled incredibly quickly.

Chapter 2251: Magic war

The three brothers, White Lion, White Tiger, and White Wolf, were instantly bounced off by the huge body of the Beast God's son. The three of them had not yet reacted. When they fell to the ground and looked up again, they found that the Beast God's son had become a tall one hundred. Rice, a terrifying werewolf with thick hair and a hideous face.

"Humans, you are all going to die." Legge, the son of the beast god, scanned the surrounding humans furiously, and finally his eyes fixed on the three brothers of the Bai family who sneaked on him. At that moment, his wolf-like mouth showed a grin.

"Boom"

"Boom"

"Boom"

The three broken star blades inserted in the chest of the son of the beast * suddenly flew out, and under the action of the violent force, they flew in front of the three males of the Bai family in an instant, and the three of them had no chance to react to this speed.

"Teng Dun"

Just when the three of them thought they were going to die, countless vines emerged from the ground in front of them to form a huge shield that blocked the three star-shattering blades.

No matter how sharp the Star Smashing Blade is, his hilt is without a sharp edge. The vines can't stop the blade but can hold the hilt. Therefore, the three Star Smashing Blades have been inserted into the White Lion, White Tiger and White Wolf. The hearts of the three brothers were lost, but they were easily pulled by the vines, and they could no longer move forward.

Lige, the son of the beast god, looked at this scene in surprise, looked suspiciously around, and finally locked on Lu Yang's body, vomiting, "It's interesting, you have a three-eyed magic flower on your body? But what do you think? Can he and the waste fire dragon under your seat be able to stop me at the top of Tier 3?"

As soon as he finished speaking, Leger stopped seeing the three white lion brothers, his body turned into a phantom, and the ejection generally disappeared in place. Everyone quickly looked at Lu Yang's position, but at that moment, the pores of their whole body were all He stood up, his eyes widened, and his face looked incredible.

"Lining Yang Fist"

A horrible flame giant with a height of 100 meters didn't know when he stood there. With violent flame energy in his left hand, he punched and hit the side face of the son of the beast god.

"Roar~!" Leger cried out and flew out more than 30 meters. When he fell to the ground, Leger tumbled and stood up, his eyes staring at the flame giant on the opposite side in shock.

"Tier 3 peak? How could it be possible?" Leger couldn't believe it with a face full of face.

Before the red moon night, the strongest human intelligence from all parties was only the early stage of Tier 3, and it was only half a year before another human appeared, and its strength reached the peak of Tier 3, which was almost impossible.

Lu Yang didn't pay attention to Liege, looked at the white lion and Zhou Tianming and others in the distance, and said, "You retreat, and if you can participate in this war, leave it to the boss to deal with him."

The White Lion, Zhou Tianming and others nodded, and led the wizard group to quickly retreat away from this area. Legg wanted to chase after him, but the lava spear in Lu Yang's hand had already appeared, twelve in total, and the terrifying temperature Legg didn't dare to be careless.

"Damn human beings, do you think you can beat me? I have blood in my body. My father is a great quasi-god. I will tear you apart and sacrifice you to my father." Grid roared frantically, but did not dare to attack easily.

Lu Yang stared at Legg, not anxious to attack. On the one hand, he wanted to wait for the White Lions to leave safely, and on the other hand, he was ready to kill Legg.

On the way here, the Blazing Demon God had already told Lu Yang that once Liege transformed, it was when Liege died. If Liege flees to General Fire Spirit, or flees to General Necromancer, he will survive. Only when he transforms, Liege must die!

The reason is very simple. Once Liege appears in his true form and becomes a child of the Beast God, even if it is a thousand kilometers apart, the breath of the Beast God will be felt by other Tier 4 powerhouses.

Now General Necromancer and General Fire Spirit can clearly perceive the existence of the Son of the Beast God, so they will definitely not come to help, let alone provide even the slightest help, and it is possible that Liege did not kill in Luyang. At the time, they tracked their breath and killed Legge.

The beast god's sending heirs of the gods to participate in the battle is itself a violation. Even if the potential of the generals of the fire spirit and the necromancer is huge, there is no possibility that the children of the gods have great potential. However, they are looking forward to Liege being killed by Lu Yang.

One more thing, Leger discovered that there is a time limit for his body. He only relied on the blood in his body to support him to become the third-order peak. After a period of time, his body would not be able to support it, and he would forcefully change back to its original state. state.

Lu Yang didn't have this problem. There were countless fire demons in the Demon God Temple to provide him with energy. His body had been tempered countless times by the blood of God, and there was no problem for how long he could resist it. The Blazing Demon God also helped him with the heart of the Demon God. .

At the level of Tier 3, he can be said to be an invincible existence. On the other hand, he also has the help of Tier 3 Red Night. Don't think that Red Night is just an ordinary fire dragon, but the Blazing Demon God taught him a spell that can only be used by the sacred dragon.

There is also the three-eyed magic flower, which has absorbed the magic power in the demon temple for so long. The three-eyed magic flower has reached the third level and fifth level. When it comes to war of attrition, no one can restrain the three-eyed magic flower unless the Fire Spirit comes. .

"In order to kill you, I have been preparing for a long time." Lu Yang smiled at the corner of his mouth and said to Leger: "Feel it, I prepared a great gift for spirit-level creatures."

"What do you mean?" Leger was more vigilant.

Lu Yang smiled more deeply, pointing his right hand to the ground, and said, "Ten Thousand Tree Enchantment."

"boom"

With Liege as the center, the ground trembles violently within five kilometers around, and the vibration under Liege's feet is even more obvious. When his figure was tilted, countless buckets of thick vines suddenly appeared on the ground. .

These vines were covered with spikes on the surface. While curling Legger's legs, the spikes pierced Legger's skin. Unfortunately, in the state of transformation, Legger's hair was too thick to penetrate, but the vines were still Keep him under control.

Leger struggled madly, but the vines were extremely elastic. The more they struggled, the tighter they struggled, and the more they struggled. Just when the vines were about to enclose Leger into a cocoon, Leger screamed, using his nails and teeth together, and it was abrupt. He bit out a gap, but when he got out, he was dumbfounded.

Because the surrounding area of the originally bare water hole is actually covered with towering trees. The branches of each tree are more than ten meters in diameter and more than two hundred meters in height.

Every big tree was full of red and golden flowers, and the pollen drifted away with the wind. The smell was very sweet, but as long as one scent, Liege felt dizzy.

“Damn it, it’s poisonous in it.” Leger roared, using the power of his blood to dissolve the poisonous gas, but at this moment, Lu Yang’s 100-meter-high flame body suddenly appeared, and his arms grabbed Leger’s arms. People scuffled at close range.

Chapter 2252: 2 days of fierce battle

“Heaven Fist”

Fists with detonation power kept hitting Lege’s body. If it were the past, Lu Yang would never be able to sustain such an attack for a long time. With the full support of the Blazing Demon God and the large number of fire demons in his body, Lu Yang’s The punches even made a phantom.

The son of the Beast God Legg also used crazy heavy blows, relied on the blood of the Beast God to be good at physical melee. While he used his body to resist Lu Yang’s fire fist, his fists madly hit Lu Yang’s body.

Lu Yang was hit in the head with a punch, and then backed three steps in a row. His body slammed into a two-hundred-meter-high tree. The fifty-meter-thick trunk snapped at the sound, and then the son of the beast * flashed to Luyang. In front of him, he punched Lu Yang on the head again.

“Lava Spear”

The thirty-meter-long flame spear flew the son of the beast * into the air, then pierced his body, and the son of the painful beast * roared frantically.

“I killed you.” The son of the beast * rushed to Lu Yang holding the handle of the lava spear with both hands. Just as he was about to punch, Hong Ye suddenly rushed out from the side and turned into a fifty-meter-long Hong Ye. There was a huge sharp horn on his head, centered on the waist of the son of the beast god, and when he slammed it, the son of the beast * fell heavily to the ground.

The son of the beast * suddenly fell into madness, and grabbed the red night with both hands. If he grabbed the red night, it must be the ending of tearing the red night into pieces. This is the difference between the third-order of the blood of the gods and the ordinary third-order creatures.

But the son of the beast * could not catch the red night so easily. Under the influence of Lu Yang, he quickly shrank his body after the blow of the red night. The arms and limbs of the son of the beast * are entangled.

“Lava Spear”

Lu Yang condensed another spear and pierced the head of the son of the beast god.

“Woo~!”

The son of the beast * screamed frantically, and the muscles of his limbs broke the hundreds of vines spawned by the three-eyed magic flower.

Immediately afterwards, he crossed his arms and smashed the lava spear stuck in his front door, and instantly rushed to Lu Yang, punching Lu Yang in the head again.

In the distance, standing on a high mountain, Zhou Tianming, Bai Shi and others, who watched Lu Yang and the two hundred-meter-high giants, the son of the beast * fight, were agitated.

“Fortunately, we evacuated early, otherwise we all have to die there.” White Lion shook his head and said.

Zhou Tianming said anxiously: “The magic circle has been set up. The third-order magic circle of the water system, wood system, wind system, fire system, and thunder system can launch an attack at any time, but our distance is too far.”

Love half a lifetime and said: “I have this feeling too, let’s get closer.”

The white lion said: “The three of us continue to approach with the mage. You stay in place to command, and one more, be careful of enemies in other directions. The boss has finally managed to set up this killing game. You must not let other enemies mix up.”

Zhou Tianming and the bitter love for half a lifetime are both worried. They patted the white lion on the shoulder and said, “Be careful.”

“Fate, you can’t die.” The white lion smiled, and led the three brothers toward the Ten Thousand Tree Enchantment to continue to approach, looking for a new suitable place to arrange the magic circle.

The other side.

Thousands of kilometers away in Dan City, the Fire Spirit General Abacus, who is recovering from the volcanic lava, is looking hideous. Originally, his body was a hundred meters high and his face was completely flame. When he was angry, he was even more apparent. fear.

Wang Shijie ran from a distance with excitement, kneeling on the ground and said respectfully: “Great Master Fire Spirit, our spy has sent news that Lu Yang is fighting a Tier 3 pinnacle master of the Orcs. If you pass by this time, Lu Yang and all the human legions can definitely be wiped out.”

Abacus has already sensed the existence of the child of the beast god, so he will never go back, but he does not want to tell Wang Shijie the reason why he is not going, so as not to destroy his image, he directly sinks his body into the magma. A voice came from consciousness and said, “Come and tell me when there is a result.”

“Good, good.” Wang Shijie looked dumbfounded.

Xue Renyi, who was following him, was also a little surprised. Originally, he was worried that General Fire Spirit would go to war. In that case, the Jagged Brotherhood would definitely be dead, but he didn’t expect Abacus to not go at all.

“I hope that another spiritual level powerhouse will not go either.” Xue Renyi prayed secretly.

Perhaps the heavens heard Xue Renyi’s prayers. Lu Yang and the Son of the Beast God went from day to night, then to the day of the next day, and then to the night of the next day. General Huo Ling did not come, and General Necromancer did not come. Appeared as if the two had agreed.

On the other side, the main battlefield was already in a mess at this time. Countless towering trees broke off from the middle and fell to the ground, and the surrounding ground was full of burn marks.

In the middle of the battlefield, Lu Yang and Lige, the son of the beast god, were breathing violently. After fighting for two days, both of them were a little tired, especially Li Ge. The lava spear hit him before, and the beast * Under the urging of the blood, the injured location will quickly recover, and there will be no scars.

Now that the lava spear hits Legg, it will leave a dark scar on his body, and the hair on Legg’s body has long been burned out, revealing his strong muscles.

“Damn human being, I must kill you, God’s dignity cannot be tarnished.” Legge roared again and charged towards Lu Yang.

The previous flashing jumps also became a lot slower, but Lu Yang couldn’t avoid it, relying on the power of the three-eyed magic flower to form a shield in front of him.

“laugh”

Liege’s fist turned into a claw, easily piercing Teng Dun, and then his claws were inserted into Lu Yang’s abdomen forcibly.

The piercing pain made Lu Yang's whole body very powerful. At this moment, Hong Ye reappeared, biting Legge's neck from behind.

"Damn reptiles, die for me." Legg wanted to withdraw his hands to grab Hong Ye's head, but when he wanted to take his arm out of Lu Yang's body, Lu Yang's mouth showed a sneer, desperately. With all his strength, his arms grabbed Leger's arm and prevented him from pulling his arms out. At the same time, the flames in Lu Yang's body burned Leger's arms frantically.

The terrifying heat quickly burned Legge's arms to bones, but flesh and skin were born in a blink of an eye.

"You're looking for death." Leger exclaimed frantically, his arms churning in Lu Yang's body.

Lu Yang did not retreat at all. While spitting out golden blood, he firmly grasped Leger's arm, and the two sides reached a stalemate.

Unfortunately, Lu Yang only supported it for a while. In the face of pure power, Lu Yang, the fire demon, was still inferior to Liege, who had the blood of the beast god.

"Red Night retreats."

Lu Yang roared, Hong Yesong opened his mouth and turned and ran, even if he had already bitten Lige's neck in half.

"Damn reptile, I tore you to pieces." Leger pushed Lu Yang out with his force. The violent force even knocked Lu Yang out for more than 100 meters before he fell heavily to the ground.

However, Leger did not take advantage of the victory and pursued it. In a rage, he turned to chase Hong Ye. He wanted to kill the dragon who had bitten off half of his neck. Over the past two days, Hong Ye's frequent sneak attacks annoyed him. Through.

Chapter 2253: Booby trap

But he couldn't catch up so easily. Hong Ye jumped over the middle of the two towering trees, and Liege jumped over, but before he jumped over, the two trees revolved, and the branches of more than ten meters thick were heavy. Sweep on the back of Leger's head.

"Click"

The trunk broke, and Liege was beaten to a dog to eat shit. This hit him a little bit dumbfounded. Just when he was furiously trying to get up, countless vines came out from the ground, making him a hundred meters long. His body and sturdy limbs are tightly entangled.

At the same time, the two towering trees resembled living treants, wielding a ten-meter thick trunk and madly hammering Liege's fingers, head and feet, as well as the special parts below him.

"Woo~!"

Although Liege was a son of god, he was still a mortal body, and various parts of his body were not so hard. When he was hit by such a heavy blow, Liege's eyes almost protruded.

In the severe pain, Liege was weak. Fortunately, there was blood in his body. The red light traveled all over his body. Liege violently exerted force, roared, his arms broke the vine, and then his claws waved, sharp nails. The vines were easily torn apart, and the trunks of the two big trees were also cut into pieces by his sharp claws.

But just as he guarded the top, the vines underneath grew out again. More importantly, there were a large number of wooden thorns on the ground, which did not penetrate Leger's skin, but pierced into the body along the underside of Leger.

"Woo~!"

With another miserable wolf howl, Leger jumped up fiercely, with the three-meter-thick wooden thorns sandwiched between the two strands, and the vines wrapped around Leger's whole body.

"Damn Lu Yang, you mean bastard, I'm going to kill you." Leger was mad, and with brute force he tore the vines abruptly, and then pulled out the three-meter thick wooden thorn below, and the tip returned. With bright red blood.

"Woo~!"

Lige was so excited that he looked around and wanted to kill Red Night first, but Red Night disappeared. Just as he was looking for it, a purple thunder and lightning fell in the sky.

"Furious Thunder"

200 meters away, more than 2,000 Lei Masters stood on the tallest tree and aimed at Lige to launch a third-order thunder system spell.

This purple thunderball was smashed by 20 thunderballs together, and its power reached the third-order peak spell damage.

Legge cried out again and knelt on the ground as he was struck by thunder and lightning, and finally resisted the wave. The red night suddenly appeared and sprayed a small white ball at Legge.

This white ball seemed to have no temperature. When it flew out, there was no flame tail, and when it passed by the leaves, it did not cause a big fire, but it was such a plain white fireball that made Leger's eyes widened in horror.

"The blazing fireball of the sacred fire dragon?" Leger only had time to mutter to himself, because his whole body was paralyzed by lightning and could not move, he was hit by a white fireball.

Leger's body was ignited again, and for a moment, it was as if his skin and flesh had been burned out, and he saw the white skeleton of his whole body.

The corner of Hong Ye's mouth was bleeding, and he screamed in excitement. This was the second sacred dragon spell he learned. In the third-order state, the strongest single flame attack spell, although this blow made his blood flow all over his body. He couldn't even walk, but he could release the magic of the sacred dragon and everything was worth it.

But even so, Legger still didn't burn to death, the terrifying flames only burned for a few seconds, the flames all over Legger disappeared, and the flesh and skin grew out and recovered.

"It's a pity, if you are really a sacred dragon, and continuously release flaming balls, I would really be burned to death by you, but you, a fake, are just an ordinary dragon, so you die for me." With a blood-red roar in his eyes, he slammed his feet on the ground, appearing in front of the red night as if teleporting.

Hong Ye couldn't take any action to evade at this time. If he was shot, he would definitely die, but just when Leger thought he could kill Hong Ye, an ice barrier appeared in front of Hong Ye.

"Ice Shield"

The ice elves were flying around the lovely queen 200 meters away, bringing 2,000 ice mages to release a shield like a mirror in front of the red night.

Legger's claws pierced into the shield and instantly cracked the shield, but in the same way, the terrifying low temperature also made Leger shiver.

"puff"

"puff"

"puff"

A large number of wooden thorns flew out from the ground, each of which was 2 meters thick and 3 meters long, and was inserted precisely between the two strands of Liege.

“Woo~!”

That’s where Liege’s weakness is, but he doesn’t have a tail. Once he is controlled by his arms, he can’t protect him.

When he was exploded again, the painful Lieg had lost his mind. He madly tore the ice shield in front of him, but the red night had disappeared, and he was rescued by the vines of the three-eyed magic flower. He did not know what was hidden in the forest. place.

Lige jumped up to avoid the wooden thorns on the ground while pulling out the wooden thorns below, while he was still looking for Lu Yang.

After such a short time, Lu Yang disappeared, the Red Night Hour was gone, and the three-eyed magic flower never showed its body from the beginning. It has been using these big trees he spawned to fight, and Legge felt that he was being teased. Now, frantically interrupted the surrounding trees.

But if one of these trees is interrupted, another one will quickly grow again. The three-eyed magic flower spawns trees of this level easily, and Leger can’t get out as if he has entered a maze.

“Humans, come out if you have the guts.”

“You * cowards, just sneak attack waste, I will sacrifice you.”

“You guys that don’t have a sense of honor, you are all damned~!”

...

Lige couldn’t find Lu Yang, so he could only yell frantically, and constantly cut the vines that were constantly growing on the ground to attack him with his claws.

What made Leger even more uncomfortable was that thunderballs kept falling in the air, but Legger could not find their place. For more than half an hour, Legger was hit by a third-order spell and smoked all over his body. . uukanshu. com finally, he found the position.

“It turns out that you bunch of bugs are hiding here.” Leger locked in the southwest direction, just when he wanted to rush over with a hideous look on his face.

“boom”

A light of fire appeared on the northeast side of the forest maze, and Leger opened his eyes sharply. He could feel that this was Lu Yang’s magic power. He ignored the third-order spells that attacked him, and rushed towards Lu Yang.

He had hit Lu Yang severely just now. As long as he meets again, he is confident that he can tear Lu Yang to pieces in a short time.

He smashed dozens of towering trees along the way. Finally, Leger saw Lu Yang sitting on the ground and resting his abdomen. Although he was still a hundred-meter-high flame giant, the exhaustion of his face and the weakness of his body were different. Can’t pretend.

“Let me see who this is.” Legge’s excited face was distorted. He surrounded Lu Yang on all fours. Looking at the weak flame giant in front of him, Legge had forgotten even the temptation and jumped forward. In front of Lu Yang, his claws inserted into Lu Yang’s head.

But just when Leger thought Lu Yang was going to die, Lu Yang’s arms kept Leger’s body. At the same time, Lu Yang’s body became extremely unstable, and the violent flame power was constantly on him like a pustule. Bulging and wandering around.

Leger felt bad instinctively, but he wanted to run too late at this moment. In the next instant, a dazzling red light appeared from the entire forest, and a cloud of mushrooms rose into the sky. Then he looked at the ground, and there was nothing left. The son of the beast * with the legs, seeing that he will not be able to live.

Chapter 2254: Brothers

In the forest maze with a diameter of five kilometers, only a piece of charred trees remained at this time. In the dark smoke, Lu Yang, who had turned back into a human form, clutched his abdomen and walked towards Lige step by step.

Lu Yang just launched his trick, using the flame seeds in the soul sea to create a flame clone, and he took the opportunity to hide several hundred meters away.

The son of the beast * thought he was attacking Lu Yang, but it was actually Lu Yang's flame clone, and this clone contained hundreds of fire demons and all the flame energy in Lu Yang's body.

When so much energy burst out, the power of terror completely destroyed the body of the son of the beast god, no matter how the son of the beast * urged the blood in his body, he could no longer restore his lower body, and he was disconnected from it. A lot of blood is flowing out of his waist.

"I'm not reconciled, I'm not reconciled, my son of a majestic beast and * will die at the hands of a weak race like humans, I'm not reconciled." Legge's scorched face was full of unwillingness.

Lu Yang clutched his abdomen and walked to Legge's huge head, and sat down against a big burnt tree.

The flame could not scorch his body, but the sharp pain in his abdomen made his face tighten. He looked at Leger's head, which was the size of a house, and said, "Don't underestimate humans, we are very strong."

Liege looked at Lu Yang with his gradually graying eyes. He didn't expect this human being to be so bold and sat in front of him, but the next second, he felt the breath of the three-eyed magic flower next to Lu Yang, and at the same time, The ten-meter-long Red Night changed back to its original appearance, strode to Lu Yang's side, and showed a hideous expression to Leger.

200 meters away, the white lion, Zhou Tianming and others who climbed back to the top of the trunk again cheered loudly. They saw what Leger looked like and knew that Leger was really going to be killed this time.

“Shameless human.” Leger spat a mouthful of blood at Lu Yang contemptuously, but only flew out of a distance of less than 1 meter, all dripping on his body.

Lu Yang liked a fool like Leger, and said, “But I won.”

“You don’t rely on your strength to win, you rely on the weak stupid dragon, the weak three-eyed magic flower, and the group of weak and * reptiles in the distance.” Legge roared.

Lu Yang smiled and said, “But I won.”

“You won! Yes, you won.” The light in Leger’s eyes was even weaker, and he muttered to himself, “But even if I die, I won’t let you live.”

Just when everyone thought Leger was going to die in the next second, suddenly, a dazzling red light broke out from Leger’s waist, and he dragged him up to fly, heading straight to Lu Yang, his face screaming savagely. Said: “Die to me.”

Lu Yang sneered at the corner of Lu Yang’s mouth, and the three-eyed magic flower jumped out of Lu Yang’s chest, his body glowing green, and then a large number of ten-meter-thick vines flew out of the soil on both sides of Lu Yang, forming a terrifying face. Teng Dun.

Leger’s claws shred the Teng Shield, but in the next second, Teng Shield appeared again, and the terrifying life energy made the vines endless.

“Roar~!”

At the top of the tree 200 meters away, the white lion and Zhou Tianming were screaming frantically. The scene just now shocked them, thinking that Lu Yang was going to die, but he didn’t expect Lu Yang to easily defuse Legge’s attack.

Lu Yang was shocked. He didn't expect Zhou Tianming and White Lion to scream at this time. At this time, he no longer had the strength to launch a spell attack.

The two claws that Legge pierced into his body just now contained the blood of the beast god, such a precious treasure, Legge actually took it out as an attacker, causing Lu Yang to be attacked by his carelessness.

The blood of the beast * was extremely violent. If it had not been forcibly suppressed by the burning demon * with the heart of the demon god, Lu Yang would have exploded and died, but even if it was suppressed, Lu Yang would not be able to release the spell in a short time.

It was Legge's last madness. He wanted to kill Legge with the three-eyed magic flower. After all, he couldn't escape. Legge could lock his breath. If he escaped the maze of the three-eyed magic flower, he would continue to follow Legge has no chance of consumption.

But if Legge found that he couldn't kill Lu Yang, and instead attacked the White Lion and Zhou Tianming, it would be a big deal.

"Little San, entangle him." Lu Yang issued instructions to the three-eyed magic flower.

"Yeah." The small green ball on his chest, which is the body of the three-eyed magic flower, grunted, and the green light emerging from his body was more intense.

Countless vines flew out and entangled Legge's chest. Many vines even penetrated into the wound on Legge's waist and attacked Legge's internal organs.

As Legge struggled to pull, he saw Lu Yang's expression through the cracks in the torn shields. At this moment, Legge finally knew Lu Yang's weakness. He said sarcastically: "It turns out that your weakness is actually The group of reptiles over there that are weaker than you, in that case, I can't kill you, I will kill them."

"Roar~!"

Leger let out a crazy roar, and the blood burst out from his waist. The bright red blood hit the vine, and in the blink of an eye the vine wilted as quickly as it had encountered a poisonous one.

Not only the waist, but also Liege's skin also had blood, and the entangled vines were melted in the blink of an eye.

The Three-Eyed Demon Flower was shocked, and tried his best to create a vine to form a shield in front of Lu Yang, but in the next instant, Liege, as the son of the beast god, finally revealed the power that fits his identity, igniting the blood of the gods, and making him The speed is extremely fast.

The White Lion, Zhou Tianming and others saw blood bursting out of Liege's body in the first moment to break free from the restraints. In the next moment, Liege's huge gray-black half body appeared in front of them.

"Die all to me." Legge grinned and waved his claws.

The White Lion, Zhou Tianming and others are all second-tier pinnacles. Facing this kind of attack, they subconsciously raised the star steel shield in their hands.

"Shit~!"

The harsh friction sounded, the star steel shield in the white lion's hand shattered, and his body was broken into two pieces.

"Big brother~!" The two brothers Bai Hu and Bai Lang roared and rushed up in horror. At the same time, Bai Hu flew up Zhou Tianming with his body and shouted: "Take the brothers away, you can't all die here. ."

The white wolf roared: "Brothers withdraw, here we are against it."

The two of them each held half of the white lion's body, and stared at Legge with a shield in their hands.

The white lion’s consciousness had fallen into a coma, but he was still pushing the white wolf with his hands subconsciously, intending to let him leave.

Liege was surprised. He didn’t expect that these two humans, who were like ants, would dare to challenge him.

But the two of them are so small in front of the son of the beast * who is still 50 meters high even if only half of the body is left. Leger only needs to move his fingers to kill both of them, as if killing an ant. It’s as simple as that.

But the two of them still did not retreat, attracting Liege’s attention, which made Liege forget to look at the other people in a short time.

“Interesting, I want to die, I will perfect you.” Leger swept towards the two brothers Baihu and Bailang. Neither of them could see Leger’s movements. In the next moment, Legger’s paws hit their bodies. It’s in two pieces.

“White Tiger, White Wolf~!” The two of them yelled, but the two of them fell half of their bodies. When they turned their heads to look at them, their arms still stretched out hard to signal them to run away.

“The mage regiment retreats, all close combat shields, to allow time for the mage brothers.” Zhou Tianming and Kuai Bansheng yelled out almost at the same time.

There are more than 10,000 people in the wizard group. The original role of the fighters responsible for protecting them is to protect them from being attacked by other beasts when they cast spells. Therefore, everyone has a star steel shield in their hands.

These warriors totaled only more than 2,000 people, and none of them flinched. They all jumped to the side of Zhou Tianming and a half-life of bitter love. They raised their shields and shouted: “Mage group, retreat~!”

More than 10,000 mages watched this scene in shock, no one retreated, but Zhou Tianming turned his head again and roared: "Retreat, we are dead, and brothers can quickly add, you are mages, and you still need to continue fighting. You can't die."

Kuai half-life holding a shield and staring at Legg, shouted: "Brothers, we are just going one step ahead. See you in hell. Don't linger, the guards of the East China Sea can't live without you."

Xia Yuwei, the leader of the mage regiment, looked at Nan Feng Zhiyi and said, "Take the brothers away."

After speaking, Xia Yuwei walked to the side of the bitter love for half a lifetime and Zhou Tianming, and said: "I want to die and die together."

The three of them laughed at each other, and walked to the forefront of the shield formation together, holding their swords and facing Liege, without a trace of fear in their eyes.

But everyone knows that such a result means death!

Legg watched this scene with great interest. He didn't expect that human beings would be so united and sacrificed. He looked back at Lu Yang and said contemptuously: "You are not as good as your men. They are more war-fighting than you. Spirit."

Lu Yang was struggling to stand up at this time, but the severe pain prevented him from standing alone, and ordered the Three Eyes Magic Flower and Hong Ye to help him, but the two resolutely refused to obey the order, even if they didn't agree to death.

"Let me pass, I can't watch my brothers die like this." Lu Yang roared angrily.

The Blazing Demon said: "You can't go, you will definitely die if you go. If you die, your brothers will die as well."

"I don't care." Lu Yang yelled frantically. The three brothers, White Lion, White Tiger, and White Wolf, as well as half a life of bitter love, Xia Yuwei and all these brothers, are all the old brothers who have been with him for ten years, and the feelings between them. Closer than their relatives, let Lu Yang watch them die like this, He can't do it at he would rather die than him.

In the same way, the 2000 shield battles have the same idea. The shield battles standing at the forefront, as well as the two brothers Han Fei and Han Yu who temporarily joined as the captain of the investigation team.

Most of them can die, but Zhou Tianming, bitter love half a lifetime, and Xia Yuwei can't die. Han Fei and Han Yu looked at each other and silently walked behind the three of them.

"Boom"

"Boom"

"Boom"

The two waved their arms and hit the three of them on the back of the neck, knocking them all unconscious on the ground. Before everyone could react, Han Fei looked at Zhang Zibo and Zheng Yuan behind him and said, "Take them away, they can't die. ."

Zhang Zibo and Zheng Yuan wanted to say something, but they couldn't say a word. They grabbed the three of them and ran in the direction of the wizard group. Only these 2,000 fighters were left in the field.

"Come on, beast, let's see if you die first or we die first." Han Fei yelled at Lieg with a sword in his hand.

Chapter 2255: Come back from the dead

“Interesting, really interesting~!” Legg was more interested. Instead of attacking the left mage group, he stared at the 2000 soldiers, just like watching ants. He wanted to know why this group of ants were united in such a way.

“Let me try to see if you are really not afraid of death.” Leger claws down.

Han Fei died, Han Yu died, one third of the brothers died!

The blood mist splashed down everywhere, and the remaining soldiers stared at Legg, and none of them took a step back!

The corner of Leger’s mouth smiled even more, and the second claw went down.

Death with pride! Liu Yunpeng is dead! Another third of the brothers died!

The remaining one-third of the soldiers stared at Legg with hatred, and would rather die than retreat!

“It’s so funny.” Legg looked at the last third of the warriors, and suddenly laughed, just as the remaining hundreds of warriors thought they were going to die, and the lovely queen and all the wizards in the distance thought they had escaped. When he could not fall, Leger’s body fell freely to the ground.

“Boom”

There was a loud noise, and a big hole was smashed into the ground. Everyone looked at Legge in amazement, no one knew what happened.

Liege on the ground, his eyes had completely turned gray and his face changed from hideous to calm, and he muttered to himself: “What an interesting race, I really want to know more about it.”

The Blazing Demon God in the distance breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Leger is dead."

"Where is my brother?" Lu Yang's eyes were already full of tears, and he resisted it.

The Blazing Demon said: "The white lion, the white tiger, and the white wolf died in battle, Han Fei, Han Yu, heroic Wanzong, and Liu Yunpeng died in battle. They also died in two-thirds of the shield battle, almost 1,300. people."

"My brother." Lu Yang's tears couldn't stop anymore, and they broke down. He really wanted to stand up to see his brother, but he couldn't do it.

The Three-Eyed Demon Flower gave Lu Yang a scared look, feeling like a child who did something wrong, her body turned into a vine and held Lu Yang up to Hong Ye's head.

Hong Ye didn't have the pride of the past, lowered his head in shame and carried Lu Yang to the top of the leaves where the bodies of the white lion and the heroic Wanzong were located.

The lovely queen and De Bumei corpse ran back first, and together they supported Lu Yang, who had fallen on the leaves. When they lifted Lu Yang up, the two big wounds on Lu Yang's chest were still red. There is no cure for the blood light.

"Boss, are you okay." De Bumeigui asked in horror.

Lu Yang shook his head and did not answer, but struggling to walk towards the bodies of the White Lion and Han Fei in the distance.

The lovely queen Hao De, knowing Lu Yang's thoughts without tasting the corpse, hurriedly helped him to come to the front of the three males of the Bai family.

The three brothers have completely died at this time, without a trace of life, but the expressions on the three people's faces are still as proud and unyielding as their names, and they stare at each other.

“My brother.” Lu Yang collapsed completely, holding the three of them and crying.

The Blazing Demon God did not expect that Lu Yang really valued brotherhood. He felt that Lu Yang’s consciousness could be in a coma at any time. He couldn’t keep lying to Lu Yang anymore. He smiled and said, “Don’t worry, they can still save life.”

“What~!” Lu Yang was a little dazed, his consciousness flew back to the Demon God Temple, staring at the Blazing Demon God and asked, “Can you save them?”

The Blazing Demon God shook his head, looked at the orc shaman tied into rice dumplings and said, “I can’t, but he can.”

Lu Yang looked at the weak orc shaman, then at the Blazing Demon God, and said excitedly: “What do you mean, hurry up, I’m all anxious to death.”

The Blazing Demon God shook his head and said, “You are lucky and kill the son of the Beast God. You can extract the blood of the Beast God completely. This thing can not only bring the white lions back to life through the magic of the orc shaman,” It also gives them the possibility to advance to Tier 3.”

Lu Yang looked at the orc shaman in surprise, and asked, “Can you do it?”

“I can, the great flame * king is here, I will be completely loyal to you and your apostle, and will always serve you.” The orc shaman said excitedly.

As an orc who can communicate with the gods and the elves between heaven and earth since being bred, the orc shaman clearly knows the great changes in the gods from the mouth of the elves.

The orc shaman still belongs to the category of humans, and his respect for gods is unimaginable by ordinary people. He had never seen the beast * before, but now he saw the flame * king, how could he not be loyal immediately.

As for race, orc shamans are detached from races, they do not belong to any race, they belong only to gods.

The Blazing Demon God was originally unwilling to take in such a weak creature to become his subordinate, but in order to help Lu Yang, he still agreed.

“Now the orc shaman is completely obedient to you and me, let him go out, let him distribute the blood of the beast * of Legge evenly among the white lions, and quickly save them.” Blazing Demon God said with a smile.

“Yeah.” Lu Yang said, “The magic in my body can’t be mobilized, you do it.”

The Blazing Demon God shrugged his shoulders, took the orc shaman out of the Demon God Temple, and threw it outside.

The lovely queen and the others were shocked when they saw the orc suddenly appearing. When they raised their weapons, they discovered that it was the orc shaman that Lu Yang had captured before.

“Everyone put away their weapons.” Lu Yang stared at the orc shaman and said, “Save my brother.”

The orc shaman glanced around, then looked at Leger under the tree, shook his head and said, “I can only save a part of it. The blood of the beast * in Leger is not enough to transform everyone.”

Lu Yang didn’t hesitate, pointing at Bai Shi and Han Fei and said, “Rescue these people first. Their strength is stronger and they can play a greater role in the next war.”

Everyone has no doubts. In this chaotic world, dying early is a kind of relief, and living is suffering. Although they feel sorry for the dead, they hope that it is themselves who die. At least, the dead do not have to worry about being caught by the race of another world. Tortured.

The orc shaman nodded, and chanted a spell. For a while, blood-red elves jumped in the air between heaven and earth. They lined up in a row and entered Leger’s eye sockets, skin, and mouth and nose into his huge body. .

Soon, these elves flew out of Legge's body with drops of bright red blood, and gathered around the orc shaman.

The orc shaman kept chanting spells, causing a drop of blood to fly into the bodies of the white lion, white tiger, white wolf, and Han Fei.

With only a drop of the blood of the beast god, the white lion's broken area suddenly grew red flesh and blood, and the two bodies were joined together with the help of the lovely queen. In a blink of an eye, the position of the fracture disappear.

The white lion's complexion gradually turned from pale white to rosy, and the hair on his body gradually increased, and finally turned into a savage. At the same time, he opened his eyes and looked at Lu Yang in confusion and asked: "Boss, I am not do you died?"

The white tiger next to him also woke up, scratching his head and said: "Yes, didn't we just die?"

Han Fei jumped up and asked, "Boss, you are dead too, it's impossible."

Lu Yang glanced at them with a smile, and said, "You are not dead, you are saved by me."

"Saved it?" Bai Shi, Han Fei and the others blinked in confusion, looked at the fracture in their abdomen, and it was gone. Looking around, the orc shaman was absorbing Liege's blood and injected it into the passionate man. In the body, Wan Zong also lived with pride.

"Are we really alive?" White Lion said excitedly.

Lu Yang nodded and hugged the bodies of Bai Shi and Han Fei. Then, he fainted. When he woke up again, it was already the next day.

Chapter 2256: Lu Yang's pain

“Boss, are you okay.” The White Lion sat beside Lu Yang and asked quickly when he saw Lu Yang wake up.

“Where am I?” Lu Yang sat up supporting him and found him in a simple cave next to a sleeping orc shaman.

The white lion said: “Boss, you have slept for a day, and Shaman Morkins said your wound is too heavy...”

When the White Lion explained here, Lu Yang’s consciousness was pulled into the Demon Temple by the Blazing Demon God. He watched Lu Yang frown and said, “Let me tell you. Yesterday you were injured too badly and couldn’t support the coma.

Did you know that you were directly injured by the blood of the beast god, and the blood of the gods could not even be suppressed by me. You even asked the orc shaman to save your men first, and you almost died.”

Lu Yang used his consciousness to perceive his body and found that the wound in his abdomen was still not healed. He asked, “Is this blood so special? Even you can’t suppress it?”

The Blazing Demon God said depressedly: “If I were in his heyday, this little blood would be wiped out in a single thought, but now I only have two broken hearts of the Demon God. It’s just a matter of divine blood, how can I suppress it.”

Lu Yang laughed and said, “Anyway, am I still alive? When will the wound heal?”

The Blazing Demon said: “It will take one month at the earliest. Thanks to the orc shaman here, otherwise you can only recover by yourself, and you won’t be able to recover for three years.”

“It’s fine if you can recover, I’ll see them.” Lu Yang worried about the situation of the brothers, his consciousness left the Demon Temple and returned to his body, just as the white lion was talking about the dead brother.

“Boss, I’m sorry. I was anxious to see the result and took my brothers to the tree. I killed them.” The white lion’s tears couldn’t stop streaming down.

Lu Yang smiled at the white lion and said, “Brother, you don’t know how I cried when you died, promise me, don’t do this in the future, I know you are worried that I can’t beat Legge , With the wizard team preparing to release the spell and delaying time, there can be no next time. I can’t hold any of you dead.”

The white lion’s heart warmed and nodded and said, “I see.”

But he still has a sentence in his heart, even if there is another time, he will still work hard like this, but he will learn smarter and won’t be so mindless.

Lu Yang asked, “How many brothers were saved and how many brothers died in the end.”

The white lion’s eyes darkened, and he said, “A total of 1432 brothers, 212 were saved, and the rest are dead.”

Lu Yang patted his shoulder vigorously, and said with all his grief: “I believe you will not make the same mistake again. We will collect the ashes of our brothers and take them back for burial. The rest of us who are alive are still alive. We have to continue to fight, we don’t have that qualification if we want to die.”

The gods of the different world are here to destroy mankind. They have to carry them if they don’t want to die. At the same time, they have to protect the more than ten million people in the East China Sea. They are not qualified to die!

“Yeah.” The white lion nodded vigorously.

Lu Yang asked, “How is your body now? Are there any special changes.”

The white lion pointed to his beastly face and said, "I can clearly feel that my strength is improving rapidly, and my distance to Tier 3 is not far away. The same is true for the other brothers who have received the blood of the beast god. It's strange, but our strength is getting stronger at any time."

The orc shaman woke up and said wearily: "Master, the white lions have inherited the blood of the beast gods. As long as they practice hard and temper their blood with the blood of the beast gods, they will soon rise to the third rank, even if they are Within a few years, you will be able to rise to the fourth-order spirit level, or even the fifth-tier lord level."

Lu Yang was a little excited, and said, "If there are 212 people who can reach Tier 3, Donghai's strength will be greatly improved, and our chances of surviving will be even greater."

This is the best news I've heard recently. Originally, Lu Yang was still worrying about the improvement of his subordinates' strength. He was the only one who was promoted to Tier 3. In the future, he might lose sight of one another when fighting against more powerful enemies.

If there are more than 200 Tier 3 masters to help him, judging from the current situation, the Necromancer and the Fire Spirit will definitely not be able to survive until the next wave of red moon night.

The white lion said with excitement: "Boss, there's another thing. In the water hole in front, we found a large number of sealed jackal-head orc warriors. They won't take the initiative to attack."

Lu Yang was a little surprised, and asked, "What does the seal mean? Help me out to have a look."

The white lion nodded, helped Lu Yang slowly walk out of the cave, and said as he walked: "The other brothers are fighting at the water cave. These sealed orcs are very strange, and their whole body is sealed by a strange layer of mud. Once within 1 meter of them, the seal will automatically break, otherwise they will remain sealed."

Lu Yang was a little curious, and as the white lion walked out of the cave, 200 meters away diagonally across, was the entrance to the water cave.

The White Tiger, White Wolf, Lofty Wanzong, Han Fei, and Han Yu are gathering together to study the observation of dozens of jackal-headed orcs tied into zongzi.

“The boss is awake,” the white lion shouted.

Bai Hu and the others turned around to see Lu Yang, and suddenly ran over to surround Lu Yang with excitement, and said excitedly: “Boss, are you okay.”

Lu Yang smiled and looked at these old brothers who had been with him for more than ten years, and said, “I’m fine, you can survive. Take me to see the dead brothers. When we come back, we will study * these orcs.”

“Yeah.” The white lion, Han Fei and others all looked dark. It was the white lion appointed by Lu Yang himself to survive, and the others were appointed by the white lion to survive.

Those brothers who did not survive were not close to each other, but simply because of their strength. They had only one fate. They decided to let these people come alive, and those people were about to die Anyway, they are sorry. Those brothers who died.

Just now they attacked the water hole so frantically and fought the jackal head orcs inside because they couldn’t stand the guilt in their hearts and wanted to find a place to vent. Now Lu Yang is awake, everything listening to the boss, their hearts can still A little calmer.

“It’s in the cave next to it, let’s go together.” Han Fei said.

There is a small cave 100 meters away from the side of the water cave. The rock on the outer wall has been eroded by wind and rain and turned grayish white.

Three brothers were guarding the entrance of the cave. One of them was Pan Yuhang. Seeing Lu Yang bringing the brothers over, the three let out the entrance of the cave.

Zhou Tianming said: "You can't keep it frozen in the summer. I don't know when you wake up. The corpses of the brothers are all cremated. I asked others to temporarily make a large number of small boxes to temporarily store their ashes."

Lu Yang looked at the neatly arranged small boxes on a wall, knelt on the ground, kowtowed his head seriously, and shouted: "Brothers, I'm sorry, waiting for me underground, I will go down in the future. We are still brothers, you are the boss, and I will be your subordinates."

Chapter 2257: The stupidity of the beast god

There is a big difference between death in the game and death in reality. Lu Yang cannot accept that so many sincerely follow his brothers to die. Moreover, when he has the ability to resurrect some people, Lu Yang specifies that some people can be born, and others But to die forever.

This kind of internal torture made Lu Yang unbearable. Although he knew that these brothers who were alive were just because they wanted to continue fighting and might die in the next war, this kind of torture has been haunting him.

Bai Shi, Zhou Tianming, Xia Yuwei and others knelt on the ground with Lu Yang, shouting almost in unison: "Brothers, in the next life you will be the bosses, and I will be your subordinates."

It was Bai Shi and Zhou Tianming who determined the death of these brothers. Everyone was guilty, and those brothers who survived had already cried into tears.

When fighting against Legge together, everyone fought side by side, rushing to die for others, but now those brothers are really dead, they have survived, and they all have guilt in their hearts.

"Om~!"

When everyone was crying, more than a thousand boxes suddenly emitted a strong green light at the same time, countless green light spots flew out of the boxes, and the souls of those dead brothers flew over Lu Yang and the white lion with a smile. , Xia Yuwei, Zhou Tianming, bitter love for half a lifetime, passionate Wanzong and all the living brothers.

“Hey, the boss cried for us.”

“Haha, what is death? We are free, you are the ones who suffer.”

“Goodbye boss, thank you for your help for ten years, let’s go first, waiting for you below, you are still our boss.”

...

No one could hear what they said, but they didn’t care. After flying past each brother in the form of soul, their last wish was also gone, and they flew towards the sky together, at a height of thousands of meters, There is a black hole invisible to normal people, sending a call to them.

More than a thousand green light spots slowly flew into the air, and after gathering together, they entered the black hole and completely disappeared from this world.

The voice of the Blazing Demon God came from his consciousness, he was not a human being, but a god! Therefore, he clearly heard what the souls said.

“Your brothers are all good brothers.” Blazing Demon God told Lu Yang these words, and then said: “Be strong, don’t let the brothers die in vain, there are many enemies in front of you, and you need to continue to grow stronger. , Keep getting stronger, and take your brothers to get stronger.”

Lu Yang couldn’t stop his tears at this time. He wiped away the tears forcibly, stood up and said, “Yes, you are right. I am not qualified to cry. I have not finished what I should do.”

The Blazing Demon said: “That’s right, return to the cave just now, there is the best place for you and your brothers to become stronger.”

Lu Yang asked, “What’s the matter?”

The Blazing Demon God smiled, and said: "That idiot Beast God's conventional method, I said he is not worthy of being a Beast God, tell you, there is still a Leger in there."

"There is another one?" Lu Yang was shocked. This one caused him a heavy loss, and he was unable to fight for a month. How could he have fought another son of a beast god.

Blazing Demon God said: "Don't worry, listen to me telling you slowly, why I say this beast * is stupid is because of his decision.

When you were in a coma, the orc shaman told me everything he knew, including this cave.

This is a secret agreement between the Beast God and the Death God. The two decided to carve up the Northeast region. The plan is to cooperate with the Nature Gods on the Beast God's face, and jointly dispatch the second-order Orc Army, the third-order Flower Demon Army, the second-order Fire Demon Army, and the Natural God Clan. The special race Scorpion people attacked the Shekou defensive position after the opening of the red moon night.

The * of death took the opportunity to send a Tier 4 undead under his seat to sneak into this water cave area. After arriving here, he constructed a space-time stabilizer and transformed this area into a stable like Sun-Moon City. A place where a batch of creatures can be sent.

When the four races of the different world attacked the human area, the jackal head orcs would send Legg to this water hole. At this time, the * of death had constructed the space-time stabilizer so that the next batch of orcs could be teleported over. Merged with the other half of his body and became a complete son of the beast god. "

"The other half of the body?" Lu Yang became more confused as he listened.

The Blazing Demon sneered, and said: "The normal operation of the Orcs, this group of disgusting races are looking for partners, and they will mess around in the season, and they will often produce three-headed and four-headed monsters.

Liege is this kind of monster. He has two heads since he was born. In the double-headed state, he is born to be Tier 4, but the beast * separates his two heads and body with divine power, and Liege's strength drops. To the third order.

In this way, the Beast God can easily pass through the time and space passages, and the other half of the body cannot be teleported with Legg at the same time. Once the two are too close, the unique breath of the Protoss will be transmitted by other races before being teleported. discover.

Therefore, for safety's sake, Lege's other body passed through the teleportation channel established by the fourth-order necromancer that was teleported from under the death seat.

But the transmission channel created by the undead is not for the living, it is a transmission channel unique to the undead race. If you want to send the orcs, you must first seal these orc warriors in the soil, as if they were dead.

Only when they are approached by other species to a distance of 1 meter, the seal will be automatically broken. Therefore, the first batch of orcs transmitted in this water hole are all in a sealed state, including Liege's other body. ”

Lu Yang's eyes lit up, and then he frowned, and asked, “Where is that Necromancer?”

The Blazing Demon shook his head and said: “Last night, my consciousness scanned the cave and the surrounding area for several kilometers, and there was no trace of the Necromancer at all.

It stands to reason that the Necromancer general should have escaped, and the fourth-order spirit-level powerhouse will be severely injured through the teleportation array. When he is physically injured, he forcibly casts a spell to stabilize the teleportation array. He must be particularly weak, even if we do not come over. He didn't dare to stay here. ”

Lu Yang said, “I understand. In that case, I will kill all the jackal head orcs in this water hole, * their weapons and equipment, and prepare to slaughter the other half of Legg's body, and let the existing ones as soon as possible All of my brothers have the blood of God.”

The Blazing Demon God sneered and said: "More importantly, this place will become a continuous supply base for your divine blood. The current beast god, that idiot doesn't know that there is an accident here. He will continue to split the polyhead like Lege. The body is transmitted over, your chance is here."

"Yeah." Lu Yang clenched his fists firmly. He looked at the crying brothers behind him, and said loudly, "Everyone, get up, let's work, and follow me into the cave."

"Yes." The white lion stood up with Zhou Tianming and the others, and walked towards the water cave with Lu Yang.

Chapter 2258: The Devil Strikes

The entrance of the water cave.

Dozens of tied orcs were still lying on the ground and struggling. Next to them, there were more than twenty iron-blood brothers watching them. Seeing that Lu Yang came back with the white lion and more than 200 brothers, they all got up to greet them. .

"Boss, are you okay?" Hei Yan asked worriedly.

Lu Yang shook his head and said with a smile: "I'm fine, these orcs said nothing."

Hei Yan shook his head, and pointed to dozens of orcs who were struggling and lay on the ground not far away and were tied into zongzi, and said: "If you ask, don't say anything, torture has been used, and these orcs just didn't speak."

"Damn humans, the beast gods are coming to this world soon, and you will all be killed, and you will all have to die." A captain-like orc shouted frantically at Lu Yang and the others.

Hei Yan said: "This orc is a bit special. He is stronger than the average orc warrior. Although he has not reached the third rank, his strength, speed, and endurance are stronger than the average second-order peak orc."

“Idiot, we are a powerful guard of the Beast Emperor, you actually compare us with those ordinary orcs, you * reptile, let me go, I want to kill you.” The strong orc continued to shout.

Darkness shrugged and said: “He is also better than others. Of course, the most important thing is that part of his equipment is made of broken star iron. According to him, it is their heirloom.”

Lu Yang sneered and said, “The armor stayed at the door, and these orcs were pulled back to the dungeon by train. It just so happened that the number of orcs holding the gladiatories was not enough. Let them go and report the data to me.”

“Yes.” Hei Yan turned his head and issued an order. A large number of Tier 1 fighters in the distance ran over. They arrested each orc and walked towards the far train station.

Lu Yang looked at Zhou Tianming behind him and said, “Take me in and let me see what’s going on inside.”

Zhou Tianming nodded, walked in front of Lu Yang, and led the team into the cave. To the left of this cave is an underground river tens of meters deep, and to the right is a wide natural cave.

As the Blazing Demon God said before, when you walked 500 meters into the cave, you found a lot of space cracks with no color at all.

These tiny cracks are like lightning flashing across the night sky, and the dense branches and cracks make people feel panicked.

“flame”

Lu Yang ignited a fire with both hands, instantly illuminating the entire cave, and all the cracks became extremely obvious under the firelight.

A gray-black sculpture stands 20 meters behind a space gap. The sculpture is about 2.6 meters high. It is in the form of an orc with a jackal head, full body armor, and a battle axe in his hand. It is also gray-black.

Zhou Tianming said: "This is the sealed jackal head orcs. If you don't get within one meter of them, they won't wake up."

"I'll try." Lu Yang held the flames to avoid the rift in space, and walked to a position 1 meter in front of the jackal-headed orc.

"Crack~!"

There was a crisp sound like a broken porcelain, and a large number of cracks appeared on the gray clay-like seal on the jackal head orc in front of Lu Yang.

"Roar~!"

With a fierce wave of the jackal-headed orc's arm, the clay-like seal on the whole body was shattered, and the big axe was raised smoothly, and it slashed towards Lu Yang's neck.

"Fire Snake Bound"

The flame in Lu Yang's hand branched out, entangled the body of the jackal head orc like a snake, and kept it in place.

Although he was seriously injured, the strength of Tier 3 allowed him to fight a Tier 2 orc.

The jackal head orc couldn't get rid of comfort no matter how hard he tried, on the contrary, his whole body was burned by the fire snake and it smelled of barbecue.

"Humans, why are you here? I want to kill you." The jackal head orc yelled desperately.

Zhou Tianming stepped forward, stunned the orc with one blow, and let his subordinates drag him away, saying, "This is probably the situation here."

Lu Yang nodded and looked into the depths of the cave. There was a huge teleportation array with blue light. Under the light, a giant jackal-headed orc with a height of more than 3 meters could be vaguely seen.

"That should be the other half of Legg's clone." Lu Yang said to the white lion and others behind him: "Within this month, I will heal my wounds. You are responsible for cleaning up all the orcs in front of Legg. Remember No, don't lure Leger to life, you still can't kill him." Lu Yang said.

"Yes." The white lion and the bitter love half a lifetime and the others nodded. They knew that they would never draw the other half of Liege's body.

"Boss, you go back to the East China Sea to heal your wounds, just leave it to us here." Said the bitter love half-life worryingly.

Lu Yang wanted to rest, but he was very annoyed by this war. Legge was dead, but a clone appeared, with the same strength as him.

The Necromancer, who used the stabilizer to stabilize the space-time fissure here, disappeared. There was also a general Huo Ling and about 20,000 Huo Demon fighters in Dan City.

The remaining forces of the Scorpion Legion didn't know where they had fled, and what worries Lu Yang even more was the demon sent from Sunyue City.

Before Augustus returned to Sun Moon City, and the red moon night had just ended, as Lu Yang had guessed, the next batch of demons had been sent over. The number was more than 10,000. The leader was the demon who did not deal with August.

After Augustus came back with this news, there was no news again. Lu Yang worried that there was a problem with Augustus. If more than 10,000 Tier 2 peak demons were allowed to run out, I don't know what it would cause. as a result of.

“Dididi”

When Lu Yang was worried, the phone suddenly rang. He picked it up and saw that the call came from Zhuojiu. Before, he and Zhuojiu were separated. He was responsible for killing Legg, and Zhuojiu led the Fire Crow Corps to chase and kill. Scattered orcs.

Yesterday he was in a coma and did not contact him. For the rest of the day, he would call him in the evening to report on the situation. Today, it was suddenly early to the day, which made Lu Yang feel that something was wrong. He pressed the phone and asked, “What happened?”

Zhuojiu was on a live video broadcast. In the screen, Zhuojiu had been injured all over his body. He was sitting in a jungle, leaning on a big tree, and smiled and said to Lu Yang: “Boss, the last group of orcs has been killed by me. The periphery of the L8 area was killed. The brothers were only injured but not dead. Where are we going now?”

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief, and said, “Visit the surrounding area, finds the remnants of the Scorpion Man and destroys them.”

“Yes.” Zhuojiu hung up, looked at the fighting crow shooters around him, and said loudly: “Brothers, get on the mount, look for the scorpion people, and kill them completely.”

The 8000 fire crow shooters cheered loudly and jumped on their mounts, but just when they controlled the mounts to fly.

“Om”

A huge green fireball shot from a distance and hit the mount of a fire crow archer. Suddenly, the ten-meter-long fire crow under his seat wailed frantically and threw the archer to the ground.

As soon as everyone reacted, they saw that the fire crow was hit by the green fireball with a terrible green light emitting from the whole body. The next second, it was burned out, and there were no bones left.

Zhuojiu looked at this scene in horror, and shouted: "Enemy attack, there is an enemy attack, everyone should not take off and prepare for defense."

Except for a slight panic at the beginning, the 8,000 shooters quickly formed a defensive formation. The fire crows around them spread their wings and stared vigilantly in the direction of the fireball, and the white flames under their wings had already begun to beat.

Chapter 2259: Kill blood

Quiet, the whole forest was deadly quiet. Only one green fireball flew over from the east, and it seemed as if it had never appeared after that, and no second fireball flew over.

But the more this happened, the more depressing the dirty wine was, because he didn't know which direction the enemy came from, let alone the enemy's number, strength, and attack method.

Zhuojiu looked around nervously. After waiting for five minutes, no second fireball appeared. He looked at the fireball beside him and said, "Control the fire crow to fly."

Mao Qiu nodded and issued an order to the fire crow beside him. The second-order fire crow put the fire ball away and jumped into the air.

"Woo~!"

Countless dark green fireballs flew over from the east side of the forest, and the fire crow flew 50 meters into the air, and was hit by the dark green fireball, and was instantly burned into green ashes in the air.

Zhuojiu's eyes lit up, and he pointed to the large forest on the east side and shouted: "The fire crow launches fireballs, and the shooter scatters them in batches."

When the fire crow can fly to a height of 50 meters, it will be shot down with a green fireball. The enemy must not be far away. The archers of the Jagged Brotherhood also reacted and ordered the fire crow to launch a white fireball.

Starting from 80 meters away from them, the fireball blasted out 200 meters away in a carpet style. The enemy hiding inside jumped out instantly. Upon closer inspection, they turned out to be Tier 2 demons with wings, hundreds of them. individual.

The archers around Zhuojiu quickly shot arrows. Within 500 meters, they could easily shoot through any Tier 2 demon without armor protection.

A large number of demons were killed on the ground, but they did not wait for the turbid wine to relax, and there was dense shaking from the grass in the other seven directions.

"Kill, kill all humans." Countless demons jumped out from the other seven directions, tens of thousands of people.

"A lot of demons appeared in the direction of one o'clock."

"A lot of demons appeared at three o'clock."

"A lot of demons appeared at five o'clock."

...

The heads of the other seven directions took out their telephones to report to the dirty wine, which made the dirty wine stare in horror. He shouted: "Everyone stays in the formation, don't be dispersed by the enemy, pay attention to avoiding people in the air. Fireball."

While a large number of demons attacked, countless green fireballs were thrown from their hands. Some fighters of the Jagged Brotherhood could hide behind the trees and hold on for a while, but the trees were burned by the green flames the moment they were hit. It became ashes, revealing the figure of the soldiers.

There were also soldiers who had nowhere to hide. They were hit by a patch of green fireballs. At that moment, their bodies were burnt to ashes.

The fire crows standing next to the archers, although they have signed a master-servant contract with the archers, they are all children carefully raised by the archers, and no one regards them as mounts.

Seeing the owner being killed by the fireball, the fire crows couldn't bear it anymore, staring at the blood-red eyes, spread their wings and rushed towards the demons.

Other fire crows saw the green fireball coming, and they took the initiative to protect their master with their bodies, in exchange for their lives.

Under this circumstance, the first wave of the demon's attack was blocked. The archers who slowed down used poisoned arrows to fight back. The stale wine raged out of the broken star iron two-handed sword in their hands, and rushed in with their men. The demons attacked frantically.

"Boss, we are surrounded by demons and ask for support." Zhuojiu called Lu Yang as he attacked.

The other side.

Lu Yang was sitting on Hong Ye's head, flying in the direction of L8, he still didn't worry about the dirty wine and the 8000 Fire Crow Archer.

On the way, Lu Yang felt something was wrong, as if something in the dark was telling him that something was wrong. Sure enough, after receiving a call from the dirty wine, he said: "Hold on, I'll ask my brothers to come and support you. There is a wild wolf valley in the northeast, enter the valley and wait for reinforcements."

“Yes.” Zhuojiu turned off the intercom, and shouted: “Brothers and I broke through to the northeast, Huo Crow headed and rushed out.”

The number of fire crows left by the 8,000 fire crow shooters was less than 5,000. Hearing that, the fire crow shooters showed expressions of reluctance, but they could not help it. Lu Yang had told them long before the war. They will die during the war, and at critical moments, their mounts can save their lives.

At that time they did not agree with this sentence, but at this time, even if they did not give up, they could not let the brothers die.

In this round of offensive, 8,000 shooters have killed more than 2,000 people. The war is not over yet, and they must survive.

“I’m sorry, my friend.”

“Brother, I will pay you back in my next life.”

...

The archers had no time to say goodbye to the fire crows beside them, crying and leaving a word, they ordered the fire crows to launch a suicide charge forward and around.

“Quah~!”

Five thousand fire crows left their final farewell call. Two thousand of them spread their wings and released fireballs, and at the same time they rushed towards the demons in the northeast.

The remaining three thousand fire crows launched charges in several other directions. The shooters watched their partners burned to ashes by the green fireball, but such a sudden charge also disrupted the demon’s team.

Zhuojiu successfully rushed out with the team, and after running to a rocky mountain area, he took 1,000 brothers to break, and let the others continue to retreat.

With this rocky mountain as a barrier, the turbid wine successfully blocked it for a period of time, which made the three demons staring at the fighting below on a high mountain in the distance show displeased expressions.

“Humans are really an interesting race.” Tier 3 demon Bikas said with great interest.

“Huh.” The Tier 3 demon Zalha on his left said with a grinning smile: “They can’t run. Our demon army will completely eat these humans. They don’t have the help of the second batch of fire crows.”

The Tier 3 demon on the right, Mons, has a sly smile. said: “Poor humans, they are really stupid compared to my strategy.”

The three demons laughed and chatted. These three were the demon leaders who had been teleported from the teleportation formation in Sun Moon City after the red moon night.

As soon as they landed, the three demons discovered that the previous batch of demons had all died, and Augustus explained that the demons who came before were attacked by the orcs and were killed, leaving them alone.

The three demons didn’t care whether Augustus’ explanation was true or false. They wanted to kill Augustus and his men first. Under the forcible attack, there were few people on Augustus, and all of them were caught. The demon couldn’t help but exposed his nature and told the story of Augustus’s surrender to mankind. These three demons broke the music, and immediately imprisoned Augustus, waiting for the next time the demon * opened the portal, to the demon * report.

After torturing the other little demons, the three demons knew that the human lair was empty, and immediately ran towards the central fortress with the more than 10,000 demons that had been transmitted. While on the way, they found flying in the air, hunting and killing them. The fire crow shooter group of the orc remnant army had this ambush.

Chapter 2260: Recoil

Regardless of the luck of the Muddy Wine and the Fire Crow Archer Group, the more than 10,000 members of the Demon Legion, in addition to warriors and wizards, also have wings and can fly short distances.

When they encounter any other legion of the Jagged Brothers League, they can forcibly launch an offensive, but what they encounter is the Sagittarius regiment.

Under the notification of the little devil who had leaked the secret, the three demon leaders learned that the archer regiment used all star steel arrows, and the tip of the arrow was smeared with the venom of various highly venomous animals such as the Hydra Emperor.

In the stone forest, the turbid wine led a thousand archers to stare at the opposite forest and slowly retreated. All the brothers retreated into the wolf valley behind, and they were left alone, and the enemy's demon warriors and The mage is hiding in the forest 500 meters away.

Under the influence of magic elements, a normal 10-meter-high tree can grow to more than 50 meters, and the trunk is very thick. Before, these trees blocked a lot of green fireballs for the stale wine and the shooter group, but now they have become hidden by the demons. Umbrella of stature.

Zhuojiu can only vaguely see the figures of the demons in the forest. He said loudly: "Alternatively retreat, we retreat into the wolf valley, and the anti-shield brothers stand in the valley with me."

"Yes." everyone said loudly.

The 1,000 shooters were divided into two groups, alternately retreating backwards, gradually retreating towards the Taniguchi of the Wild Wolf Valley two kilometers behind them. There is a natural danger, with cliffs up to several hundred meters on both sides, and the only place where people can walk is not. To a width of 10 meters.

There are 100 elite archers around Zhuojiu. They are not only superb in archery, but also sturdy. They can turn into a melee attack with swords and shields at any time. Therefore, when these 100 men marched in battle, they not only carried bows and arrows, but also carried them on their backs. A large rectangular shield and a short knife.

When they retreated to a position of 200 meters in the Taniguchi Promenade, 100 people quickly stowed their bows and arrows, erected large shields and stood in ten rows. The first row of shields defended forward, and the second to ninth rows defended against the air.

“Boss, you retreat to the back and give it to me here.” Daojin Tianya stared at Taniguchi in sorrow and said, he is the captain of this elite team.

Zhuojiu smiled, took off the big shield from behind and stood in the middle of the team, and said: “Today is the death of our brothers. We are going to die together. Leave me alone. Can I live on?”

The corners of the eyes of 100 people were wet in an instant, and no one wanted to say anything but they couldn't say anything. Now they are the remaining Sagittarius brothers behind them, the last support of the devil.

If their formation is broken, the demon army does not need to attack, throwing a green fireball in the distance can wipe out thousands of shooters, so they must withstand it.

“Come on, the demon on the opposite side, if you want to destroy us, step over from my dirty wine first.” The dirty wine held a broken star blade dagger and pointed at the demons who had rushed to Taniguchi and said loudly.

Then he issued an order, saying: “The first brigade of the archer regiment approached to a distance of 200 meters, prepared to shoot upside down, and the rest of the people guarded the surroundings, and beware of the devil's sneak attack on the top of the mountain.”

The remaining five thousand archers moved quickly, which made the three demon leaders who had just arrived in Taniguchi a surprised expression.

“Muddy wine? Who is he?” asked Bikas in the middle.

The little demon who surrendered next to him, Zhan Zhan, said loudly: “Report that the devil is commanding your lord. Zhuojiu is one of the most important commanders in the East China Sea. The generals of the Jagged Brotherhood, except Lu Yang, are the most commanding generals.”

“Oh?” Zalha, the demon leader on the left, said with an expression of interest, “This man is a bit interesting.”

“It’s not the same to die.” The demon leader Mengs on the right showed a hideous expression and said: “Do they think we are not wearing heavy armor? A bunch of idiots, we ordered all the soldiers to go into battle in order to raid the central fortress, but this does not mean We have no reloading fighters.”

The three of them showed grinning expressions at the same time and looked at the more than 500 demons wearing star steel heavy armor coming from the side. They did not have wings, but they were stronger than ordinary demons, with a height of three meters.

The helmet, shoulder armor, armor, leg armor, and battle boots are all made of 0.5 cm thick star steel, and he holds a three-meter-high square shield of star steel in his hand.

The demons are very smart. The armors of these 500 demons were previously worn on more than 5,000 demons. Each demon wore a part, some had a shoulder armor on the shoulder, and some only wore a helmet.

Usually these demons march normally. Once in battle, they will quickly take off their armor and give it to the hands of these 500 strong demons, and then these 500 demons will launch a frontal attack on the enemy to open the gap.

When in the forest before, the three demon leaders never let their subordinates attack, they just surrounded them, just waiting for the 500 demons to put on their armor, but unfortunately, the dirty wine forcibly broke through and avoided the danger.

The three demons didn't care about the idea of dirty wine. In their view, dirty wine was a dying struggle, replacing the shooter's death with fire crows, making the shooters unable to fly away. Most of the demons have wings, and their speed is much faster than that of humans. IQ.

Whether humans run in other directions or escape into the Wild Wolf Valley, they must die, and escape into the Wild Wolf Valley can just play the role of these 500 demons.

"The three patriarchs, the demon elite legion is ready to attack." The elite demon captain in full armor stepped forward to the three of them. Every step he took, he could hear the sound of the metal clash of his armor, and the ground was even more affected. Footprints several centimeters deep were stepped on.

Bikas looked over the elite demon captain and looked at the turbid wine in the distance. He grinned and said: "Weak reptiles, feel the smell of death brought to you by the elite legion, attack~!"

"Yes, great patriarch." The elite demon captain turned to look at the turbid wine and others in the depths of Taniguchi. He drew out the star steel long sword with his right hand and the large shield in his left, and was the first one to walk into Taniguchi.

Five of the 500 demons in a row followed behind the elite demon captain, and walked into the valley passage in neat steps.

Even 200 meters away, the powerful sense of oppression of the three-meter-high full-body armor demon made the dirty wine instantly feel fear. He was not afraid of death, but feared that his brothers would die because of him.

He did not expect that this group of demons, who had no armor, could transform into a whole body armored demon army with countless numbers.

"Shoot~!"

Zhuojiu issued an order. The archer 200 meters behind shot a streamer from an elevation angle. Hundreds of poisonous arrows fell on the helmet, shoulder armor, and breastplate of the elite demon army. The elite demon army didn't use shields to defend, and allowed the rain of arrows to attack, but the rain of arrows couldn't even shoot through the skin of their armor. They were all bounced off by the armor, leaving only the sound of Dangdang.

"Boss, you can't shoot them through." Dao Jin Tian Ya cried out sadly.

Zhuoju saw it, and his eyes showed a decisive look, and said: "Brothers, it is the happiest thing in my life that I have the honor to fight with you. Follow me to attack, die, and we will die in the attack. On the road, you are not allowed to take a step back, all brothers, follow me forward, we will launch a counter-charge, kill these demons, kill~!"

After speaking, the turbid wine charged towards the demon in front, the last trace of fear in the hearts of Dao Jintianya Gushou and others disappeared instantly, looking at the back of the turbid wine, everyone at the same time stared at the distance with blood-red eyes. The devil.

"Iron Brothers, kill~!" A hundred people shouted in unison, shouting the last slogan they were proud of, and along with the dirty wine, they launched a counter-charge towards the opposite demon.
